them. Hereunto Athenobius answered him not a word; [36] But returned in a rage to the king, and made report unto him of these speeches, and of the glory of Simon, and of all that he had seen whereupon the king was exceeding wroth. [37] In the mean time fled Tryphon by ship unto Orthosias. [38] Then the king made Cendebeus captain of the sea coast, and gave him an host of footmen and horsemen, [39] And commanded him to remove his host toward Judea; also he commanded him to build up Cedron, and to fortify the gates, and to war against the people; but as for the king himself, he pursued Tryphon. [40] So Cendebeus came to Jamnia and began to provoke the people and to invade Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and slay them. [41] And when he had built up Cedrou, he set horsemen there, and an host of footmen, to the end that issuing out they might make outroads upon the ways of Judea, as the king had commanded him.

Then came up John from Gazera, and told Simon his father what Cendebeus had done.
2 Wherefore Simon called his two eldest sons, Judas and John, and said unto them, I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have ever from my youth unto this day fought against the enemies of Israel; and things have prospered so well in our hands, that we have delivered Israel oftentimes. 3 But now I am old, and ye, by God's mercy, are of a sufficient age be ye instead of me and my brother, and go and fight for our nation, and the help from heaven be with you. 4 So he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war with horsemen, who went out against Cendebeus, and rested that night at Modin.
5 And when as they rose in the morning, and went into the plain, behold, a mighty great host both of footmen and horsemen came against them howbeit there was a water brook betwixt them. 6 So he and his people pitched over against them and when he saw that the people were afraid to go over the water brook, he went first over himself, and then the men seeing him passed through after him. 7 That done, he divided his men, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen for the enemies' horsemen were very many. 8 Then sounded they with the holy trumpets whereupon Cendebeus and his host were put to flight, so that many of them were slain, and the remnant gat them to the strong hold. 9 At that time was Judas John's brother wounded; but John still followed after them, until he came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had built. 10 So they fled even unto the towers in the fields of Azotus; wherefore he burned it with fire so that there were slain of them about two thousand men. Afterward he returned into the land of Judea in peace. 11 Moreover in the plain of Jericho was Ptolemeus the son of Abubus made captain, and he had abundance of silver and gold 12 For he was the high priest's son in law. 13 Wherefore his heart being lifted up, he thought to get the country to himself, and thereupon consulted deceitfully against Simon and his sons to destroy them. 14 Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the country, and taking care for the good ordering of them; at which time he came down himself to Jericho with his sons, Mattathias and Judas, in the hundred threescore and seventeenth year, in the eleventh month, called Sabat 15 Where the son of Abubus receiving them deceitfully into a little hold, called Docus, which he had built, made them a great banquet howbeit he had hid men there. 16 So when Simon and his sons had drunk largely, Ptolemee and his men rose up, and took their weapons, and came upon Simon into the banqueting place, and slew him, and his two sons, and certain of his servants. 17 In which doing he committed a great treachery, and recompensed evil for good. 18 Then Ptolemee wrote these things, and sent to the king, that he should send him an host to aid him, and he would deliver him the country and cities. 19 He sent others also to Gazera to kill John and unto the tribunes he sent letters to come unto him, that he might give them silver, and gold, and rewards. [20] And others he sent to take Jerusalem, and the mountain of the temple. [21] Now one had run afore to Gazera and told John that his father and brethren were slain, and, quoth he, Ptolemee hath sent to slay thee also. [22] Hereof when he heard, he was sore astonished so he laid hands on them that were come to destroy him, and slew them; for he knew that they sought to make him away. [23] As concerning the rest of the acts of John, and his wars, and worthy deeds which he did, and the building of the walls which he made, and his doings, [24] Behold, these are written in the chronicles of his priesthood, from the time he was made high priest after his father.

The brethren, the Jews that be at Jerusalem and in the land of Judea, wish unto the brethren, the Jews that are throughout Egypt health and peace [2] God be gracious unto you, and remember his covenant that he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, his faithful servants; [3] And give you all an heart to serve him, and to do his will, with a good courage and a willing mind; [4] And open your hearts in his law and commandments, and send you peace, [5] And hear your prayers, and be at one with you, and never forsake you in time of trouble. [6] And now we be here praying for you. [7] What time as Demetrius reigned, in the hundred threescore and ninth year, we the Jews wrote unto you in the extremity of trouble that came upon us in those years, from the time that Jason and his company revolted from the holy land and kingdom, [8] And burned the porch, and shed innocent blood then we prayed unto the Lord, and were heard; we offered also sacrifices and fine flour, and lighted the lamps, and set forth the loaves. [9] And now see that ye keep the feast of tabernacles in the month Casleu. [10] In the hundred fourscore and eighth year, the people that were at Jerusalem and in Judea, and the council, and Judas, sent greeting and health unto Aristobulus, king Ptolemeus' master, who was of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Jews that were in Egypt [11] Insomuch as God hath delivered us from great perils, we thank him highly, as having been in battle against a king. 12 For he cast them out that fought within the holy city. 13 For when the leader was come into Persia, and the army with him that seemed invincible, they were slain in the temple of Nanea by the deceit of Nanea's priests. 14 For Antiochus, as though he would marry her, came into the place, and his friends that were with him, to receive money in name of a dowry. 15 Which when the priests of Nanea had set forth, and he was entered with a small company into the compass of the temple, they shut the temple as soon as Antiochus was come in 16 And opening a privy door of the roof, they threw stones like thunderbolts, and struck down the captain, hewed them in pieces, smote off their heads and cast them to those that were without. 17 Blessed be our God in all things, who hath delivered up the ungodly. 18 Therefore whereas we are now purposed to keep the purification of the temple upon the five and twentieth day of the month Casleu, we thought it necessary to certify you thereof, that ye also might keep it, as the feast of the tabernacles, and of the fire, which was given us when Neemias offered sacrifice, after that he had builded the temple and the altar. 19 For when our fathers were led into Persia, the priests that were then devout took the fire of the altar privily, and hid it in an hollow place of a pit without water, where they kept it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men. 20 Now after many years, when it pleased God, Neemias, being sent from the king of Persia, did send of the posterity of those priests that had hid it to the fire but when they told us they found no fire, but thick water; 21 Then commanded he them to draw it up, and to bring it; and when the sacrifices were laid on, Neemias commanded the priests to sprinkle the wood and the things laid thereupon with the water. 22 When this was done, and the time came that the sun shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so that every man marvelled. 23 And the priests made a prayer whilst the sacrifice was consuming, I say, both the priests, and all the rest, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering thereunto, as Neemias did. 24 And the prayer was after this manner; O Lord, Lord God, Creator of all things, who art fearful and strong, and righteous, and merciful, and the only and gracious King, 25 The only giver of all things, the only just, almighty, and everlasting, thou that deliverest Israel from all trouble, and didst choose the fathers, and sanctify them 26 Receive the sacrifice for thy whole people Israel, and preserve thine own portion, and sanctify it. 27 Gather those together that are scattered from us, deliver them that serve among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred, and let the heathen know that thou art our God. 28 Punish them that oppress us, and with pride do us wrong. 29 Plant thy people again in thy holy place, as Moses hath spoken. 30 And the priests sung psalms of thanksgiving. 31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Neemias commanded the water that was left to be poured on the great stones. 32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame but it was consumed by the light that shined from the altar. 33 So when this matter was known, it was told the king of Persia, that in the place, where the priests that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared water, and that Neemias had purified the sacrifices therewith. 34 Then the king, inclosing the place, made it holy, after he had tried the matter. 35 And the king took many gifts, and bestowed thereof on those whom he would gratify. 36 And Neemias called this thing Naphthar, which is as much as to say, a cleansing but many men call it Nephi.

It is also found in the records, that Jeremy the prophet commanded them that were carried away to take of the fire, as it hath been signified 2 And how that the prophet, having given them the law, charged them not to forget the commandments of the Lord, and that they should not err in their minds, when they see images of silver and gold, with their ornaments. 3 And with other such speeches exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their hearts. 4 It was also contained in the same writing, that the prophet, being warned of God, commanded the tabernacle and the ark to go with him, as he went forth into the mountain, where Moses climbed up, and saw the heritage of God. 5 And when Jeremy came thither, he found an hollow cave, wherein he laid the tabernacle, and the ark, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the door. 6 And some of those that followed him came to mark the way, but they could not find it. 7 Which when Jeremy perceived, he blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shall be unknown until the time that God gather his people again together, and receive them unto mercy. 8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, and the glory of the Lord shall appear, and the cloud also, as it was shewed under Moses, and as when Solomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified. 9 It was also declared, that he being wise offered the sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the temple. 10 And as when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the sacrifices even so prayed Solomon also, and the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offerings. 11 And Moses said, Because the sin offering was not to be eaten, it was consumed. 12 So Solomon kept those eight days. 13 The same things also were reported in the writings and commentaries of Neemias; and how he founding a library gathered together the acts of the kings, and the prophets, and of David, and the epistles of the kings concerning the holy gifts. 14 In like manner also Judas gathered together all those things that were lost by reason of the war we had, and they remain with us, 15 Wherefore if ye have need thereof, send some to fetch them unto you. [16] Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we have written unto you, and ye shall do well, if ye keep the same days. [17] We hope also, that the God, that delivered all his people, and gave them all an heritage, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary, [18] As he promised in the law, will shortly have mercy upon us, and gather us together out of every land under heaven into the holy place for he hath delivered us out of great troubles, and hath purified the place. [19] Now as concerning Judas Maccabeus, and his brethren, and the purification of the great temple, [13 2] and the dedication of the altar, [20] And the wars against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his son, [21] And the manifest signs that came from heaven unto those that behaved themselves manfully to their honour for Judaism so that, being but a few, they overcame the whole country, and chased barbarous multitudes, [2 2] And recovered again the temple renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and upheld the laws which were going down, the Lord being gracious unto them with all favour [23] All these things, I say, being declared by Jason of Cyrene in five books, we will assay to abridge in one volume. [24] For considering the infinite number, and the difficulty which they find that desire to look into the narrations of the story, for the variety of the matter, [25] We have been careful, that they that will read may have delight, and that they that are desirous to commit to memory might have ease, and that all into whose hands it comes might have profit. [26] Therefore to us, that have taken upon us this painful labour of abridging, it was not easy, but a matter of sweat and watching; [27] Even as it is no ease unto him that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others yet for the pleasuring of many we will undertake gladly this great pains; [28] Leaving to the author the exact handling of every particular, and labouring to follow the rules of an abridgement. [29] For as the master builder of a new house must care for the whole building; but he that undertaketh to set it out, and paint it, must seek out fit things for the adorning thereof even so I think it is with us. [30] To stand upon every point, and go over things at large, and to be curious in particulars, belongeth to the first author of the story [31] But to use brevity, and avoid much labouring of the work, is to be granted to him that will make an abridgment. [3 2] Here then will we begin the story only adding thus much to that which hath been said, that it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the story itself.

Now when the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws were kept very well, because of the godliness of Onias the high priest, and his hatred of wickedness, 2 It came to pass that even the kings themselves did honour the place, and magnify the temple with their best gifts; 3 Insomuch that Seleucus of Asia of his own revenues bare all the costs belonging to the service of the sacrifices. 4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, who was made governor of the temple, fell out with the high priest about disorder in the city. 5 And when he could not overcome Onias, he gat him to Apollonius the son of Thraseas, who then was governor of Celosyria and Phenice, 6 And told him that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of infinite sums of money, so that the multitude of their riches, which did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices, was innumerable, and that it was possible to bring all into the king's hand. 7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money whereof he was told, the king chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commandment to bring him the foresaid money. 8 So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey; under a colour of visiting the cities of Celosyria and Phenice, but indeed to fulfil the king's purpose. 9 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received of the high priest of the city, he told him what intelligence was given of the money, and declared wherefore he came, and asked if these things were so indeed. 10 Then the high priest told him that there was such money laid up for the relief of widows and fatherless children 11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus son of Tobias, a man of great dignity, and not as that wicked Simon had misinformed the sum whereof in all was four hundred talents of silver, and two hundred of gold 12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrongs should be done unto them, that had committed it to the holiness of the place, and to the majesty and inviolable sanctity of the temple, honoured over all the world. 13 But Heliodorus, because of the king's commandment given him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the king's treasury. 14 So at the day which he appointed he entered in to order this matter wherefore there was no small agony throughout the whole city. 15 But the priests, prostrating themselves before the altar in their priests' vestments, called unto heaven upon him that made a law concerning things given to he kept, that they should safely be preserved for such as had committed them to be kept. 16 Then whoso had looked the high priest in the face, it would have wounded his heart for his countenance and the changing of his colour declared the inward agony of his mind. 17 For the man was so compassed with fear and horror of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked upon him, what sorrow he had now in his heart. 18 Others ran flocking out of their houses to the general supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt. [19] And the women, girt with sackcloth under their breasts, abounded in the streets, and the virgins that were kept in ran, some to the gates, and some to the walls, and others looked out of the windows. [20] And all, holding their hands toward heaven, made supplication. [21] Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling down of the multitude of all sorts, and the fear of the high priest being in such an agony. [22] They then called upon the Almighty Lord to keep the things committed of trust safe and sure for those that had committed them. [23] Nevertheless Heliodorus executed that which was decreed. [24] Now as he was there present himself with his guard about the treasury, the Lord of spirits, and the Prince of all power, caused a great apparition, so that all that presumed to come in with him were astonished at the power of God, and fainted, and were sore afraid. [25] For there appeared unto them an horse with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with a very fair covering, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeet, and it seemed that he that sat upon the horse had complete harness of gold. [26] Moreover two other young men appeared before him, notable in strength, excellent in beauty, and comely in apparel, who stood by him on either side; and scourged him continually, and gave him many sore stripes. [27] And Heliodorus fell suddenly unto the ground, and was compassed with great darkness but they that were with him took him up, and put him into a litter. [28] Thus him, that lately came with a great train and with all his guard into the said treasury, they carried out, being unable to help himself with his weapons and manifestly they acknowledged the power of God. [29] For he by the hand of God was cast down, and lay speechless without all hope of life. [30] But they praised the Lord, that had miraculously honoured his own place for the temple; which a little afore was full of fear and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with joy and gladness. [31] Then straightways certain of Heliodorus' friends prayed Onias, that he would call upon the most High to grant him his life, who lay ready to give up the ghost. [32] So the high priest, suspecting lest the king should misconceive that some treachery had been done to Heliodorus by the Jews, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man. [33] Now as the high priest was making an atonement, the same young men in the same clothing appeared and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Give Onias the high priest great thanks, insomuch as for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life [34] And seeing that thou hast been scourged from heaven, declare unto all men the mighty power of God. And when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more. [35] So Heliodorus, after he had offered sacrifice unto the Lord, and made great vows unto him that had saved his life, and saluted Onias, returned with his host to the king. [36] Then testified he to all men the works of the great God, which he had seen with his eyes. [37] And when the king Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, [38] If thou hast any enemy or traitor, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him well scourged, if he escape with his life for in that place, no doubt; there is an especial power of God. [39] For he that dwelleth in heaven hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it; and he beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it. [40] And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasury, fell out on this sort.

This Simon now, of whom we spake afore, having been a betrayer of the money, and of his country, slandered Onias, as if he ha terrified Heliodorus, and been the worker of these evils. [2] Thus was he bold to call him a traitor, that had deserved well of the city, and tendered his own nation, and was so zealous of the laws. [3] But when their hatred went so far, that by one of Simon's faction murders were committed, [4] Onias seeing the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as being the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increase Simon's malice, [5] He went to the king, not to be an accuser of his countrymen, but seeking the good of all, both publick and private [6] For he saw that it was impossible that the state should continue quiet, and Simon leave his folly, unless the king did look thereunto. [7] But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, called Epiphanes, took the kingdom, Jason the brother of Onias laboured underhand to be high priest, [8] Promising unto the king by intercession three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and of another revenue eighty talents [9] Beside this, he promised to assign an hundred and fifty more, if he might have licence to set him up a place for exercise, and for the training up of youth in the fashions of the heathen, and to write them of Jerusalem by the name of Antiochians. [10] Which when the king had granted, and he had gotten into his hand the rule he forthwith brought his own nation to Greekish fashion. [11] And the royal privileges granted of special favour to the Jews by the means of John the father of Eupolemus, who went ambassador to Rome for amity and aid, he took away; and putting down the governments which were according to the law, he brought up new customs against the law [12] For he built gladly a place of exercise under the tower itself, and brought the chief young men under his subjection, and made them wear a hat. [13] Now such was the height of Greek fashions, and increase of heathenish manners, through the exceeding profaneness of Jason, that ungodly wretch, and no high priest; [14] That the priests had no courage to serve any more at the altar, but despising the temple, and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the unlawful allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of Discus called them forth; [15] Not setting by the honours of their fathers, but liking the glory of the Grecians best of all. [16] By reason whereof sore calamity came upon them for they had them to be their enemies and avengers, whose custom they followed so earnestly, and unto whom they desired to be like in all things. [17] For it is not a light thing to do wickedly against the laws of God but the time following shall declare these things. [18] Now when the game that was used every faith year was kept at Tyrus, the king being present, [19] This ungracious Jason sent special messengers from Jerusalem, who were Antiochians, to carry three hundred drachms of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof thought fit not to bestow upon the sacrifice, because it was not convenient, but to be reserved for other charges. [20] This money then, in regard of the sender, was appointed to Hercules' sacrifice; but because of the bearers thereof, it was employed to the making of gallies. [21] Now when Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Egypt for the coronation of king Ptolemeus Philometor, Antiochus, understanding him not to be well affected to his affairs, provided for his own safety whereupon he came to Joppa, and from thence to Jerusalem [22] Where he was honourably received of Jason, and of the city, and was brought in with torch alight, and with great shoutings and so afterward went with his host unto Phenice. [23] Three years afterward Jason sent Menelans, the aforesaid Simon's brother, to bear the money unto the king, and to put him in mind of certain necessary matters. [24] But he being brought to the presence of the king, when he had magnified him for the glorious appearance of his power, got the priesthood to himself, offering more than Jason by three hundred talents of silver. [25] So he came with the king's mandate, bringing nothing worthy the high priesthood, but having the fury of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast. [26] Then Jason, who had undermined his own brother, being undermined by another, was compelled to flee into the country of the Ammonites. [27] So Menelans got the principality but as for the money that he had promised unto the king, he took no good order for it, albeit Sostratis the ruler of the castle required it [28] For unto him appertained the gathering of the customs. Wherefore they were both called before the king. [29] Now Menelans left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the priesthood; and Sostratus left Crates, who was governor of the Cyprians. [30] While those things were in doing, they of Tarsus and Mallos made insurrection, because they were given to the king's concubine, called Antiochus. [31] Then came the king in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus, a man in authority, for his deputy. [32] Now Menelans, supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certain vessels of gold out of the temple, and gave some of them to Andronicus, and some he sold into Tyrus and the cities round about. 33 Which when Onias knew of a surety, he reproved him, and withdrew himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lieth by Antiochia. 34 Wherefore Menelans, taking Andronicus apart, prayed, him to get Onias into his hands; who being persuaded thereunto, and coming to Onias in deceit, gave him his right hand with oaths; and though he were suspected by him, yet persuaded he him to come forth of the sanctuary whom forthwith he shut up without regard of justice. 35 For the which cause not only the Jews, but many also of other nations, took great indignation, and were much grieved for the unjust murder of the man. 36 And when the king was come again from the places about Cilicia, the Jews that were in the city, and certain of the Greeks that abhorred the fact also, complained because Onias was slain without cause. 37 Therefore Antiochus was heartily sorry, and moved to pity, and wept, because of the sober and modest behaviour of him that was dead. 38 And being kindled with anger, forthwith he took away Andronicus his purple, and rent off his clothes, and leading him through the whole city unto that very place, where he had committed impiety against Onias, there slew he the cursed murderer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved. 39 Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by Lysimachus with the consent of Menelans, and the fruit thereof was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already carried away. 40 Whereupon the common people rising, and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and began first to offer violence; one Auranus being the leader, a man far gone in years, and no less in folly. 41 They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust, that was next at hand, cast them all together upon Lysimachus, and those that set upon them. 42 Thus many of them they wounded, and some they struck to the ground, and all of them they forced to flee but as for the churchrobber himself, him they killed beside the treasury. 43 Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laid against Menelans. 44 Now when the king came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the senate pleaded the cause before him 45 But Menelans, being now convicted, promised Ptolemee the son of Dorymenes to give him much money, if he would pacify the king toward him. 46 Whereupon Ptolemee taking the king aside into a certain gallery, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind 47 Insomuch that he discharged Menelans from the accusations, who notwithstanding was cause of all the mischief and those poor men, who, if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, should have been judged innocent, them he condemned to death. 48 Thus they that followed the matter for the city, and for the people, and for the holy vessels, did soon suffer unjust punishment. [49] Wherefore even they of Tyrus, moved with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to be honourably buried. [50] And so through the covetousness of them that were of power Menelans remained still in authority, increasing in malice, and being a great traitor to the citizens.

About the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Egypt [2] And then it happened, that through all the city, for the space almost of forty days, there were seen horsemen running in the air, in cloth of gold, and armed with lances, like a band of soldiers, [3] And troops of horsemen in array, encountering and running one against another, with shaking of shields, and multitude of pikes, and drawing of swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden ornaments, and harness of all sorts. [4] Wherefore every man prayed that that apparition might turn to good. [5] Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had been dead, Jason took at the least a thousand men, and suddenly made an assault upon the city; and they that were upon the walls being put back, and the city at length taken, Menelans fled into the castle [6] But Jason slew his own citizens without mercy, not considering that to get the day of them of his own nation would be a most unhappy day for him; but thinking they had been his enemies, and not his countrymen, whom he conquered. [7] Howbeit for all this he obtained not the principality, but at the last received shame for the reward of his treason, and fled again into the country of the Ammonites. [8] In the end therefore he had an unhappy return, being accused before Aretas the king of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated as a forsaker of the laws, and being had in abomination as an open enemy of his country and countrymen, he was cast out into Egypt. [9] Thus he that had driven many out of their country perished in a strange land, retiring to the Lacedemonians, and thinking there to find succour by reason of his kindred [10] And he that had cast out many unburied had none to mourn for him, nor any solemn funerals at all, nor sepulchre with his fathers. [11] Now when this that was done came to the king's car, he thought that Judea had revolted whereupon removing out of Egypt in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms, [12] And commanded his men of war not to spare such as they met, and to slay such as went up upon the houses. [13] Thus there was killing of young and old, making away of men, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants. 14 And there were destroyed within the space of three whole days fourscore thousand, whereof forty thousand were slain in the conflict; and no fewer sold than slain. 15 Yet was he not content with this, but presumed to go into the most holy temple of all the world; Menelans, that traitor to the laws, and to his own country, being his guide 16 And taking the holy vessels with polluted hands, and with profane hands pulling down the things that were dedicated by other kings to the augmentation and glory and honour of the place, he gave them away. 17 And so haughty was Antiochus in mind, that he considered not that the Lord was angry for a while for the sins of them that dwelt in the city, and therefore his eye was not upon the place. 18 For had they not been formerly wrapped in many sins, this man, as soon as he had come, had forthwith been scourged, and put back from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king sent to view the treasury. 19 Nevertheless God did not choose the people for the place's sake, but the place far the people's sake. 20 And therefore the place itself, that was partaker with them of the adversity that happened to the nation, did afterward communicate in the benefits sent from the Lord and as it was forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so again, the great Lord being reconciled, it was set up with all glory. 21 So when Antiochus had carried out of the temple a thousand and eight hundred talents, he departed in all haste unto Antiochia, weening in his pride to make the land navigable, and the sea passable by foot such was the haughtiness of his mind. 2 2 And he left governors to vex the nation at Jerusalem, Philip, for his country a Phrygian, and for manners more barbarous than he that set him there; 23 And at Garizim, Andronicus; and besides, Menelans, who worse than all the rest bare an heavy hand over the citizens, having a malicious mind against his countrymen the Jews. 24 He sent also that detestable ringleader Apollonius with an army of two and twenty thousand, commanding him to slay all those that were in their best age, and to sell the women and the younger sort 25 Who coming to Jerusalem, and pretending peace, did forbear till the holy day of the sabbath, when taking the Jews keeping holy day, he commanded his men to arm themselves. 26 And so he slew all them that were gone to the celebrating of the sabbath, and running through the city with weapons slew great multitudes. 27 But Judas Maccabeus with nine others, or thereabout, withdrew himself into the wilderness, and lived in the mountains after the manner of beasts, with his company, who fed on herbs continually, lest they should be partakers of the pollution.

Not long after this the king sent an old man of Athens to compel the Jews to depart from the laws of their fathers, and not to live after the laws of God [2] And to pollute also the temple in Jerusalem, and to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius; and that in Garizim, of Jupiter the Defender of strangers, as they did desire that dwelt in the place. [3] The coming in of this mischief was sore and grievous to the people [4] For the temple was filled with riot and revelling by the Gentiles, who dallied with harlots, and had to do with women within the circuit of the holy places, and besides that brought in things that were not lawful. [5] The altar also was filled with profane things, which the law forbiddeth. [6] Neither was it lawful for a man to keep sabbath days or ancient fasts, or to profess himself at all to be a Jew. [7] And in the day of the king's birth every month they were brought by bitter constraint to eat of the sacrifices; and when the fast of Bacchus was kept, the Jews were compelled to go in procession to Bacchus, carrying ivy. [8] Moreover there went out a decree to the neighbour cities of the heathen, by the suggestion of Ptolemee, against the Jews, that they should observe the same fashions, and be partakers of their sacrifices [9]
And whoso would not conform themselves to the manners of the Gentiles should be put to death. Then might a man have seen the present misery. [10] For there were two women brought, who had circumcised their children; whom when they had openly led round about the city, the babes handing at their breasts, they cast them down headlong from the wall. [11] And others, that had run together into caves near by, to keep the sabbath day secretly, being discovered by Philip, were all burnt together, because they made a conscience to help themselves for the honour of the most sacred day. [12] Now I beseech those that read this book, that they be not discouraged for these calamities, but that they judge those punishments not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation. [13]
For it is a token of his great goodness, when wicked doers are not suffered any long time, but forthwith punished. [14] For not as with other nations, whom the Lord patiently forbeareth to punish, till they be come to the fulness of their sins, so dealeth he with us, [15] Lest that, being come to the height of sin, afterwards he should take vengeance of us. [16]
And therefore he never withdraweth his mercy from us and though he punish with adversity, yet doth he never forsake his people. [17] But let this that we at spoken be for a warning unto us. And now will we come to the declaring of the matter in a few words. [18] Eleazar, one of the principal scribes, an aged man, and of a well favoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to eat swine's flesh. [19] But he, choosing rather to die gloriously, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his own accord to the torment, [20] As it behoved them to come, that are resolute to stand out against such things, as are not lawful for love of life to be tasted. [21] But they that had the charge of that wicked feast, for the old acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawful for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king; [22] That in so doing he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them find favour. [23] But he began to consider discreetly, and as became his age, and the excellency of his ancient years, and the honour of his gray head, whereon was come, and his most honest education from a child, or rather the holy law made and given by God therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straightways to send him to the grave. [24] For it becometh not our age, said he, in any wise to dissemble, whereby many young persons might think that Eleazar, being fourscore years old and ten, were now gone to a strange religion; [25] And so they through mine hypocrisy, and desire to live a little time and a moment longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain to mine old age, and make it abominable. [26] For though for the present time I should be delivered from the punishment of men yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither alive, nor dead. [27] Wherefore now, manfully changing this life, I will shew myself such an one as mine age requireth, [28] And leave a notable example to such as be young to die willingly and courageously for the honourable and holy laws. And when he had said these words, immediately he went to the torment [29] They that led him changing the good will they bare him a little before into hatred, because the foresaid speeches proceeded, as they thought, from a desperate mind. [30] But when he was ready to die with stripes, he groaned, and said, It is manifest unto the Lord, that hath the holy knowledge, that whereas I might have been delivered from death, I now endure sore pains in body by being beaten but in soul am well content to suffer these things, because I fear him. [31] And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation.

It came to pass also, that seven brethren with their mother were taken, and compelled by the king against the law to taste swine's flesh, and were tormented with scourges and whips. [2] But one of them that spake first said thus, What wouldest thou ask or learn of us? we are ready to die, rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers. [3] Then the king, being in a rage, commanded pans and caldrons to be made hot [4] Which forthwith being heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that spake first, and to cut off the utmost parts of his body, the rest of his brethren and his mother looking on. [5] Now when he was thus maimed in all his members, he commanded him being yet alive to be brought to the fire, and to be fried in the pan and as the vapour of the pan was for a good space dispersed, they exhorted one another with the mother to die manfully, saying thus, [6] The Lord God looketh upon us, and in truth hath comfort in us, as Moses in his song, which witnessed to their faces, declared, saying, And he shall be comforted in his servants. [7] So when the first was dead after this number, they brought the second to make him a mocking stock and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the hair, they asked him, Wilt thou eat, before thou be punished throughout every member of thy body? [8] But he answered in his own language, and said, No. Wherefore he also received the next torment in order, as the former did. [9] And when he was at the last gasp, he said, Thou like a fury takest us out of this present life, but the King of the world shall raise us up, who have died for his laws, unto everlasting life. [10] After him was the third made a mocking stock and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that right soon, holding forth his hands manfully. [11] And said courageously, These I had from heaven; and for his laws I despise them; and from him I hope to receive them again. [12] Insomuch that the king, and they that were with him, marvelled at the young man's courage, for that he nothing regarded the pains. [13] Now when this man was dead also, they tormented and mangled the fourth in like manner. [14] So when he was ready to die he said thus, It is good, being put to death by men, to look for hope from God to be raised up again by him as for thee, thou shalt have no resurrection to life. [15] Afterward they brought the fifth also, and mangled him. [16] Then looked he unto the king, and said, Thou hast power over men, thou art corruptible, thou doest what thou wilt; yet think not that our nation is forsaken of God; [17] But abide a while, and behold his great power, how he will torment thee and thy seed. [18] After him also they brought the sixth, who being ready to die said, Be not deceived without cause for we suffer these things for ourselves, having sinned against our God therefore marvellous things are done unto us. [19] But think not thou, that takest in hand to strive against God, that thou shalt escape unpunished. [20] But the mother was marvellous above all, and worthy of honourable memory for when she saw her seven sons slain within the space of one day, she bare it with a good courage, because of the hope that she had in the Lord. [21] Yea, she exhorted every one of them in her own language, filled with courageous spirits; and stirring up her womanish thoughts with a manly stomach, she said unto them, 22 I cannot tell how ye came into my womb for I neither gave you breath nor life, neither was it I that formed the members of every one of you; 23 But doubtless the Creator of the world, who formed the generation of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will also of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as ye now regard not your own selves for his laws' sake. 24 Now Antiochus, thinking himself despised, and suspecting it to be a reproachful speech, whilst the youngest was yet alive, did not only exhort him by words, but also assured him with oaths, that he would make him both a rich and a happy man, if he would turn from the laws of his fathers; and that also he would take him for his friend, and trust him with affairs. 25 But when the young man would in no case hearken unto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted her that she would counsel the young man to save his life. 26 And when he had exhorted her with many words, she promised him that she would counsel her son. 27 But she bowing herself toward him, laughing the cruel tyrant to scorn, spake in her country language on this manner; O my son, have pity upon me that bare thee nine months in my womb, and gave thee suck three years, and nourished thee, and brought thee up unto this age, and endured the troubles of education. 28 I beseech thee, my son, look upon the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that God made them of things that were not; and so was mankind made likewise. 29 Fear not this tormentor, but, being worthy of thy brethren, take thy death that I may receive thee again in mercy with thy brethren. 30 Whiles she was yet speaking these words, the young man said, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the king's commandment but I will obey the commandment of the law that was given unto our fathers by Moses. 31 And thou, that hast been the author of all mischief against the Hebrews, shalt not escape the hands of God. 32 For we suffer because of our sins. 33 And though the living Lord be angry with us a little while for our chastening and correction, yet shall he be at one again with his servants. 34 But thou, O godless man, and of all other most wicked, be not lifted up without a cause, nor puffed up with uncertain hopes, lifting up thy hand against the servants of God 35 For thou hast not yet escaped the judgment of Almighty God, who seeth all things. 36 For our brethren, who now have suffered a short pain, are dead under God's covenant of everlasting life but thou, through the judgment of God, shalt receive just punishment for thy pride. 37 But I, as my brethren, offer up my body and life for the laws of our fathers, beseeching God that he would speedily be merciful unto our nation; and that thou by torments and plagues mayest confess, that he alone is God; 38 And that in me and my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is justly brought upon our nation, may cease. 39 Than the king' being in a rage, handed him worse than all the rest, and took it grievously that he was mocked. 40

So this man died undefiled, and put his whole trust in the Lord. 41 Last of all after the sons the mother died. 42 Let this be enough now to have spoken concerning the idolatrous feasts, and the extreme tortures.

Then Judas Maccabeus, and they that were with him, went privily into the towns, and called their kinsfolks together, and took unto them all such as continued in the Jews' religion, and assembled about six thousand men. 2 And they called upon the Lord, that he would look upon the people that was trodden down of all; and also pity the temple profaned of ungodly men; 3 And that he would have compassion upon the city, sore defaced, and ready to be made even with the ground; and hear the blood that cried unto him, 4 And remember the wicked slaughter of harmless infants, and the blasphemies committed against his name; and that he would shew his hatred against the wicked. 5 Now when Maccabeis had his company about him, he could not be withstood by the heathen for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercy. 6 Therefore he came at unawares, and burnt up towns and cities, and got into his hands the most commodious places, and overcame and put to flight no small number of his enemies. 7 But specially took he advantage of the night for such privy attempts, insomuch that the fruit of his holiness was spread every where. 8 So when Philip saw that this man increased by little and little, and that things prospered with him still more and more, he wrote unto Ptolemeus, the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, to yield more aid to the king's affairs. 9 Then forthwith choosing Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his special friends, he sent him with no fewer than twenty thousand of all nations under him, to root out the whole generation of the Jews; and with him he joined also Gorgias a captain, who in matters of war had great experience. 10 So Nicanor undertook to make so much money of the captive Jews, as should defray the tribute of two thousand talents, which the king was to pay to the Romans. 11 Wherefore immediately he sent to the cities upon the sea coast, proclaiming a sale of the captive Jews, and promising that they should have fourscore and ten bodies for one talent, not expecting the vengeance that was to follow upon him from the Almighty God. 12 Now when word was brought unto Judas of Nicanor's coming, and he had imparted unto those that were with him that the army was at hand, 13 They that were fearful, and distrusted the justice of God, fled, and conveyed themselves away. 14 Others sold all that they had left, and withal besought the Lord to deliver them, sold by the wicked Nicanor before they met together 15 And if not for their own sakes, yet for the covenants he had made with their fathers, and for his holy and glorious name's sake, by which they were called. 16 So Maccabeus called his men together unto the number of six thousand, and exhorted them not to be stricken with terror of the enemy, nor to fear the great multitude of the heathen, who came wrongly against them; but to fight manfully, 17 And to set before their eyes the injury that they had unjustly done to the holy place, and the cruel handling of the city, whereof they made a mockery, and also the taking away of the government of their forefathers 18 For they, said he, trust in their weapons and boldness; but our confidence is in the Almighty who at a beck can cast down both them that come against us, and also all the world. 19 Moreover, he recounted unto them what helps their forefathers had found, and how they were delivered, when under Sennacherib an hundred fourscore and five thousand perished. 20 And he told them of the battle that they had in Babylon with the Galatians, how they came but eight thousand in all to the business, with four thousand Macedonians, and that the Macedonians being perplexed, the eight thousand destroyed an hundred and twenty thousand because of the help that they had from heaven, and so received a great booty. 21 Thus when he had made them bold with these words, and ready to die for the law and the country, he divided his army into four parts; 22 And joined with himself his own brethren, leaders of each band, to wit Simon, and Joseph, and Jonathan, giving each one fifteen hundred men. 23 Also he appointed Eleazar to read the holy book and when he had given them this watchword, The help of God; himself leading the first band, 24 And by the help of the Almighty they slew above nine thousand of their enemies, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanor's host, and so put all to flight; 25 And took their money that came to buy them, and pursued them far but lacking time they returned 26 For it was the day before the sabbath, and therefore they would no longer pursue them. 27 So when they had gathered their armour together, and spoiled their enemies, they occupied themselves about the sabbath, yielding exceeding praise and thanks to the Lord, who had preserved them unto that day, which was the beginning of mercy distilling upon them. 28 And after the sabbath, when they had given part of the spoils to the maimed, and the widows, and orphans, the residue they divided among themselves and their servants. 29 When this was done, and they had made a common supplication, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled with his servants for ever. 30 Moreover of those that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, who fought against them, they slew above twenty thousand, and very easily got high and strong holds, and divided among themselves many spoils more, and made the maimed, orphans, widows, yea, and the aged also, equal in spoils with themselves. 31 And when they had gathered their armour together, they laid them up all carefully in convenient places, and the remnant of the spoils they brought to Jerusalem. 32 They slew also Philarches, that wicked person, who was with Timotheus, and had annoyed the Jews many ways. 33 Furthermore at such time as they kept the feast for the victory in their country they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire upon the holy gates, who had fled into a little house; and so he received a reward meet for his wickedness. 34 As for that most ungracious Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Jews, 35 He was through the help of the Lord brought down by them, of whom he made least account; and putting off his glorious apparel, and discharging his company, he came like a fugitive servant through the midland unto Antioch having very great dishonour, for that his host was destroyed. 36 Thus he, that took upon him to make good to the Romans their tribute by means of captives in Jerusalem, told abroad, that the Jews had God to fight for them, and therefore they could not be hurt, because they followed the laws that he gave them.

About that time came Antiochus with dishonour out of the country of Persia 2 For he had entered the city called Persepolis, and went about to rob the temple, and to hold the city; whereupon the multitude running to defend themselves with their weapons put them to flight; and so it happened, that Antiochus being put to flight of the inhabitants returned with shame. 3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, news was brought him what had happened unto Nicanor and Timotheus. 4 Then swelling with anger. he thought to avenge upon the Jews the disgrace done unto him by those that made him flee. Therefore commanded he his chariotman to drive without ceasing, and to dispatch the journey, the judgment of God now following him. For he had spoken proudly in this sort, That he would come to Jerusalem and make it a common burying place of the Jews. 5 But the Lord Almighty, the God of Isreal, smote him with an incurable and invisible plague or as soon as he had spoken these words, a pain of the bowels that was remediless came upon him, and sore torments of the inner parts; 6 And that most justly for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange torments. 7 Howbeit he nothing at all ceased from his bragging, but still was filled with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey but it came to pass that he fell down from his chariot, carried violently; so that having a sore fall, all the members of his body were much pained. 8 And thus he that a little afore thought he might command the waves of the sea, (so proud was he beyond the condition of man) and weigh the high mountains in a balance, was now cast on the ground, and carried in an horselitter, shewing forth unto all the manifest power of God. 9 So that the worms rose up out of the body of this wicked man, and whiles he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell away, and the filthiness of his smell was noisome to all his army. 10 And the man, that thought a little afore he could reach to the stars of heaven, no man could endure to carry for his intolerable stink. 11 Here therefore, being plagued, he began to leave off his great pride, and to come to the knowledge of himself by the scourge of God, his pain increasing every moment. 12 And when he himself could not abide his own smell, he said these words, It is meet to be subject unto God, and that a man that is mortal should not proudly think of himself if he were God. 13 This wicked person vowed also unto the Lord, who now no more would have mercy upon him, saying thus, 14 That the holy city (to the which he was going in haste to lay it even with the ground, and to make it a common buryingplace,) he would set at liberty 15 And as touching the Jews, whom he had judged not worthy so much as to be buried, but to be cast out with their children to be devoured of the fowls and wild beasts, he would make them all equals to the citizens of Athens 16 And the holy temple, which before he had spoiled, he would garnish with goodly gifts, and restore all the holy vessels with many more, and out of his own revenue defray the charges belonging to the sacrifices 17 Yea, and that also he would become a Jew himself, and go through all the world that was inhabited, and declare the power of God. 18 But for all this his pains would not cease for the just judgment of God was come upon him therefore despairing of his health, he wrote unto the Jews the letter underwritten, containing the form of a supplication, after this manner 19 Antiochus, king and governor, to the good Jews his citizens wisheth much joy, health, and prosperity 20 If ye and your children fare well, and your affairs be to your contentment, I give very great thanks to God, having my hope in heaven. 21 As for me, I was weak, or else I would have remembered kindly your honour and good will returning out of Persia, and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all 22 Not distrusting mine health, but having great hope to escape this sickness. 23 But considering that even my father, at what time he led an army into the high countries. appointed a successor, 24 To the end that, if any thing fell out contrary to expectation, or if any tidings were brought that were grievous, they of the land, knowing to whom the state was left, might not be troubled 25 Again, considering how that the princes that are borderers and neighbours unto my kingdom wait for opportunities, and expect what shall be the event. I have appointed my son Antiochus king, whom I often committed and commended unto many of you, when I went up into the high provinces; to whom I have written as followeth [26] Therefore I pray and request you to remember the benefits that I have done unto you generally, and in special, and that every man will be still faithful to me and my son. [27] For I am persuaded that he understanding my mind will favourably and graciously yield to your desires. [28] Thus the murderer and blasphemer having suffered most grievously, as he entreated other men, so died he a miserable death in a strange country in the mountains. [29] And Philip, that was brought up with him, carried away his body, who also fearing the son of Antiochus went into Egypt to Ptolemeus Philometor.

Now Maccabeus and his company, the Lord guiding them, recovered the temple and he city [2] But the altars which the heathen had built in the open street, and also the chapels, they pulled down. [3] And having cleansed the temple they made another altar, and striking stones they took fire out of them, and offered a sacrifice after two years, and set forth incense, and lights, and shewbread. [4] When that was done, they fell flat down, and besought the Lord that they might come no more into such troubles; but if they sinned any more against him, that he himself would chasten them with mercy, and that they might not be delivered unto the blasphemous and barbarous nations. [5] Now upon the same day that the strangers profaned the temple, on the very same day it was cleansed again, even the five and twentieth day of the same month, which is Casleu. [6] And they kept the eight days with gladness, as in the feast of the tabernacles, remembering that not long afore they had held the feast of the tabernacles, when as they wandered in the mountains and dens like beasts. [7] Therefore they bare branches, and fair boughs, and palms also, and sang psalms unto him that had given them good success in cleansing his place. [8] They ordained also by a common statute and decree, That every year those days should be kept of the whole nation of the Jews. [9] And this was the end of Antiochus, called Epiphanes. [10] Now will we declare the acts of Antiochus Eupator, who was the son of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the wars. [11] So when he was come to the crown, he set one Lysias over the affairs of his realm, and appointed him his chief governor of Celosyria and Phenice. 12 For Ptolemeus, that was called Macron, choosing rather to do justice unto the Jews for the wrong that had been done unto them, endeavoured to continue peace with them. 13 Whereupon being accused of the king's friends before Eupator, and called traitor at every word because he had left Cyprus, that Philometor had committed unto him, and departed to Antiochus Epiphanes, and seeing that he was in no honourable place, he was so discouraged, that he poisoned himself and died. 14 But when Gorgias was governor of the holds, he hired soldiers, and nourished war continually with the Jews 15 And therewithall the Idumeans, having gotten into their hands the most commodious holds, kept the Jews occupied, and receiving those that were banished from Jerusalem, they went about to nourish war. 16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made supplication, and besought God that he would be their helper; and so they ran with violence upon the strong holds of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulting them strongly, they won the holds, and kept off all that fought upon the wall, and slew all that fell into their hands, and killed no fewer than twenty thousand. 18 And because certain, who were no less than nine thousand, were fled together into two very strong castles, having all manner of things convenient to sustain the siege, 19 Maccabeus left Simon and Joseph, and Zaccheus also, and them that were with him, who were enough to besiege them, and departed himself unto those places which more needed his help. 20 Now they that were with Simon, being led with covetousness, were persuaded for money through certain of those that were in the castle, and took seventy thousand drachms, and let some of them escape. 21 But when it was told Maccabeus what was done, he called the governors of the people together, and accused those men, that they had sold their brethren for money, and set their enemies free to fight against them. 22 So he slew those that were found traitors, and immediately took the two castles. 23 And having good success with his weapons in all things he took in hand, he slew in the two holds more than twenty thousand. 24 Now Timotheus, whom the Jews had overcome before, when he had gathered a great multitude of foreign forces, and horses out of Asia not a few, came as though he would take Jewry by force of arms. 25 But when he drew near, they that were with Maccabeus turned themselves to pray unto God, and sprinkled earth upon their heads, and girded their loins with sackcloth, 26 And fell down at the foot of the altar, and besought him to be merciful to them, and to be an enemy to their enemies, and an adversary to their adversaries, as the law declareth. 27 So after the prayer they took their weapons, and went on further from the city and when they drew near to their enemies, they kept by themselves. 28 Now the sun being newly risen, they joined both together; the one part having together with their virtue their refuge also unto the Lord for a pledge of their success and victory the other side making their rage leader of their battle [29] But when the battle waxed strong, there appeared unto the enemies from heaven five comely men upon horses, with bridles of gold, and two of them led the Jews, [30] And took Maccabeus betwixt them, and covered him on every side weapons, and kept him safe, but shot arrows and lightnings against the enemies so that being confounded with blindness, and full of trouble, they were killed. [31] And there were slain of footmen twenty thousand and five hundred, and six hundred horsemen. [32] As for Timotheus himself, he fled into a very strong hold, called Gawra, where Chereas was governor. [33] But they that were with Maccabeus laid siege against the fortress courageously four days. [34] And they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and uttered wicked words. [35] Nevertheless upon the fifth day early twenty young men of Maccabeus' company, inflamed with anger because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall manly, and with a fierce courage killed all that they met withal. [36] Others likewise ascending after them, whiles they were busied with them that were within, burnt the towers, and kindling fires burnt the blasphemers alive; and others broke open the gates, and, having received in the rest of the army, took the city, [37] And killed Timotheus, that was hid in a certain pit, and Chereas his brother, with Apollophanes. [38] When this was done, they praised the Lord with psalms and thanksgiving, who had done so great things for Israel, and given them the victory.

Not long after the, Lysias the king's protector and cousin, who also managed the affairs, took sore displeasure for the things that were done. [2] And when he had gathered about fourscore thousand with all the horsemen, he came against the Jews, thinking to make the city an habitation of the Gentiles, [3] And to make a gain of the temple, as of the other chapels of the heathen, and to set the high priesthood to sale every year [4] Not at all considering the power of God but puffed up with his ten thousands of footmen, and his thousands of horsemen, and his fourscore elephants. [5] So he came to Judea, and drew near to Bethsura, which was a strong town, but distant from Jerusalem about five furlongs, and he laid sore siege unto it. [6] Now when they that were with Maccabeus heard that he besieged the holds, they and all the people with lamentation and tears besought the Lord that he would send a good angel to deliver Israel. 7 Then Maccabeus himself first of all took weapons, exhorting the other that they would jeopard themselves together with him to help their brethren so they went forth together with a willing mind. 8 And as they were at Jerusalem, there appeared before them on horseback one in white clothing, shaking his armour of gold. 9 Then they praised the merciful God all together, and took heart, insomuch that they were ready not only to fight with men, but with most cruel beasts, and to pierce through walls of iron. 10 Thus they marched forward in their armour, having an helper from heaven for the Lord was merciful unto them 11 And giving a charge upon their enemies like lions, they slew eleven thousand footmen, and sixteen hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight. 12 Many of them also being wounded escaped naked; and Lysias himself fled away shamefully, and so escaped. 13 Who, as he was a man of understanding, casting with himself what loss he had had, and considering that the Hebrews could not be overcome, because the Almighty God helped them, he sent unto them, 14 And persuaded them to agree to all reasonable conditions, and promised that he would persuade the king that he must needs be a friend unto them. 15 Then Maccabeus consented to all that Lysias desired, being careful of the common good; and whatsoever Maccabeus wrote unto Lysias concerning the Jews, the king granted it. 16 For there were letters written unto the Jews from Lysias to this effect Lysias unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting 17 John and Absolom, who were sent from you, delivered me the petition subscribed, and made request for the performance of the contents thereof. 18 Therefore what things soever were meet to be reported to the king, I have declared them, and he hath granted as much as might be. 19 And if then ye will keep yourselves loyal to the state, hereafter also will I endeavour to be a means of your good. 20 But of the particulars I have given order both to these and the other that came from me, to commune with you. 21 Fare ye well. The hundred and eight and fortieth year, the four and twentieth day of the month Dioscorinthius. 22 Now the king's letter contained these words King Antiochus unto his brother Lysias sendeth greeting 23 Since our father is translated unto the gods, our will is, that they that are in our realm live quietly, that every one may attend upon his own affairs. 24 We understand also that the Jews would not consent to our father, for to be brought unto the custom of the Gentiles, but had rather keep their own manner of living for the which cause they require of us, that we should suffer them to live after their own laws. 25 Wherefore our mind is, that this nation shall be in rest, and we have determined to restore them their temple, that they may live according to the customs of their forefathers. 26 Thou shalt do well therefore to send unto them, and grant them peace, that when they are certified of our mind, they may be of good comfort, and ever go cheerfully about their own affairs. 27 And the letter of the king unto the nation of the Jews was after this manner King Antiochus sendeth greeting unto the council, and the rest of the Jews [28] If ye fare well, we have our desire; we are also in good health. [14 2] [29] Menelans declared unto us, that your desire was to return home, and to follow your own business [30] Wherefore they that will depart shall have safe conduct till the thirtieth day of Xanthicus with security. [31] And the Jews shall use their own kind of meats and laws, as before; and none of them any manner of ways shall be molested for things ignorantly done. [3 2] I have sent also Menelans, that he may comfort you. [33] Fare ye well. In the hundred forty and eighth year, and the fifteenth day of the month Xanthicus. [34] The Romans also sent unto them a letter containing these words Quintus Memmius and Titus Manlius, ambassadors of the Romans, send greeting unto the people of the Jews. [35] Whatsoever Lysias the king's cousin hath granted, therewith we also are well pleased. [36] But touching such things as he judged to be referred to the king, after ye have advised thereof, send one forthwith, that we may declare as it is convenient for you for we are now going to Antioch. [37] Therefore send some with speed, that we may know what is your mind. [38] Farewell. This hundred and eight and fortieth year, the fifteenth day of the month Xanthicus.

When these covenants were made, Lysias went unto the king, and the Jews were about their husbandry. [2] But of the governours of several places, Timotheus, and Apollonius the son of Genneus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and beside them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to be quiet and live in peace. [3] The men of Joppa also did such an ungodly deed they prayed the Jews that dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt. [4] Who accepted of it according to the common decree of the city, as being desirous to live in peace, and suspecting nothing but when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no less than two hundred of them. [5] When Judas heard of this cruelty done unto his countrymen, he commanded those that were with him to make them ready. [6] And calling upon God the righteous Judge, he came against those murderers of his brethren, and burnt the haven by night, and set the boats on fire, and those that fled thither he slew. [7] And when the town was shut up, he went backward, as if he would return to root out all them of the city of Joppa. [8] But when he heard that the Jamnites were minded to do in like manner unto the Jews that dwelt among them, [9] He came upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire on the haven and the navy, so that the light of the fire was seen at Jerusalem two hundred and forty furlongs off. 10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their journey toward Timotheus, no fewer than five thousand men on foot and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians set upon him. 11 Whereupon there was a very sore battle; but Judas' side by the help of God got the victory; so that the Nomades of Arabia, being overcome, besought Judas for peace, promising both to give him cattle, and to pleasure him otherwise. 12 Then Judas, thinking indeed that they would be profitable in many things, granted them peace whereupon they shook hands, and so they departed to their tents. 13 He went also about to make a bridge to a certain strong city, which was fenced about with walls, and inhabited by people of divers countries; and the name of it was Caspis. 14 But they that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walls and provision of victuals, that they behaved themselves rudely toward them that were with Judas, railing and blaspheming, and uttering such words as were not to be spoken. 15 Wherefore Judas with his company, calling upon the great Lord of the world, who without rams or engines of war did cast down Jericho in the time of Joshua, gave a fierce assault against the walls, 16 And took the city by the will of God, and made unspeakable slaughters, insomuch that a lake two furlongs broad near adjoining thereunto, being filled full, was seen running with blood. 17 Then departed they from thence seven hundred and fifty furlongs, and came to Characa unto the Jews that are called Tubieni. 18 But as for Timotheus, they found him not in the places for before he had dispatched any thing, he departed from thence, having left a very strong garrison in a certain hold. 19 Howbeit Dositheus and Sosipater, who were of Maccabeus' captains, went forth, and slew those that Timotheus had left in the fortress, above ten thousand men. 20 And Maccabeus ranged his army by bands, and set them over the bands, and went against Timotheus, who had about him an hundred and twenty thousand men of foot, and two thousand and five hundred horsemen. 21 Now when Timotheus had knowledge of Judas' coming, he sent the women and children and the other baggage unto a fortress called Carnion for the town was hard to besiege, and uneasy to come unto, by reason of the straitness of all the places. 22 But when Judas his first band came in sight, the enemies, being smitten with fear and terror through the appearing of him who seeth all things, fled amain, one running into this way, another that way, so as that they were often hurt of their own men, and wounded with the points of their own swords. 23 Judas also was very earnest in pursuing them, killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirty thousand men. 24 Moreover Timotheus himself fell into the hands of Dositheus and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him go with his life, because he had many of the Jews' parents, and the brethren of some of them, who, if they put him to death, should not be regarded. 25 So when he had assured them with many words that he would restore them without hurt, according to the agreement, they let him go for the saving of their brethren. [26] Then Maccabeus marched forth to Carnion, and to the temple of Atargatis, and there he slew five and twenty thousand persons. [27] And after he had put to flight and destroyed them, Judas removed the host toward Ephron, a strong city, wherein Lysias abode, and a great multitude of divers nations, and the strong young men kept the walls, and defended them mightily wherein also was great provision of engines and darts. [28] But when Judas and his company had called upon Almighty God, who with his power breaketh the strength of his enemies, they won the city, and slew twenty and five thousand of them that were within, [29] From thence they departed to Scythopolis, which lieth six hundred furlongs from Jerusalem, [30] But when the Jews that dwelt there had testified that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly with them, and entreated them kindly in the time of their adversity; [31] They gave them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still unto them and so they came to Jerusalem, the feast of the weeks approaching. [32] And after the feast, called Pentecost, they went forth against Gorgias the governor of Idumea, [33] Who came out with three thousand men of foot and four hundred horsemen. [34] And it happened that in their fighting together a few of the Jews were slain. [35] At which time Dositheus, one of Bacenor's company, who was on horseback, and a strong man, was still upon Gorgias, and taking hold of his coat drew him by force; and when he would have taken that cursed man alive, a horseman of Thracia coming upon him smote off his shoulder, so that Gorgias fled unto Marisa. [36] Now when they that were with Gorgias had fought long, and were weary, Judas called upon the Lord, that he would shew himself to be their helper and leader of the battle. [37] And with that he began in his own language, and sung psalms with a loud voice, and rushing unawares upon Gorgias' men, he put them to flight. [38] So Judas gathered his host, and came into the city of Odollam, And when the seventh day came, they purified themselves, as the custom was, and kept the sabbath in the same place. [39] And upon the day following, as the use had been, Judas and his company came to take up the bodies of them that were slain, and to bury them with their kinsmen in their fathers' graves. [40] Now under the coats of every one that was slain they found things consecrated to the idols of the Jamnites, which is forbidden the Jews by the law. Then every man saw that this was the cause wherefore they were slain. [41] All men therefore praising the Lord, the righteous Judge, who had opened the things that were hid, [42] Betook themselves unto prayer, and besought him that the sin committed might wholly be put out of remembrance. Besides, that noble Judas exhorted the people to keep themselves from sin, forsomuch as they saw before their eyes the things that came to pass for the sins of those that were slain. [43] And when he had made a gathering throughout the company to the sum of two thousand drachms of silver, he sent it to Jerusalem to offer a sin offering, doing therein very well and honestly, in that he was mindful of the resurrection [44] For if he had not hoped that they that were slain should have risen again, it had been superfluous and vain to pray for the dead. [45] And also in that he perceived that there was great favour laid up for those that died godly, it was an holy and good thought. Whereupon he made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be delivered from sin.

In the hundred forty and ninth year it was told Judas, that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a great power into Judea, [2] And with him Lysias his protector, and ruler of his affairs, having either of them a Grecian power of footmen, an hundred and ten thousand, and horsemen five thousand and three hundred, and elephants two and twenty, and three hundred chariots armed with hooks. [3] Menelans also joined himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the safeguard of the country, but because he thought to have been made governor. [4] But the King of kings moved Antiochus' mind against this wicked wretch, and Lysias informed the king that this man was the cause of all mischief, so that the king commanded to bring him unto Berea, and to put him to death, as the manner is in that place. [5] Now there was in that place a tower of fifty cubits high, full of ashes, and it had a round instrument which on every side hanged down into the ashes. [6] And whosoever was condemned of sacrilege, or had committed any other grievous crime, there did all men thrust him unto death. [7] Such a death it happened that wicked man to die, not having so much as burial in the earth; and that most justly [8] For inasmuch as he had committed many sins about the altar, whose fire and ashes were holy, he received his death in ashes. [9] Now the king came with a barbarous and haughty mind to do far worse to the Jews, than had been done in his father's time. [10] Which things when Judas perceived, he commanded the multitude to call upon the Lord night and day, that if ever at any other time, he would now also help them, being at the point to be put from their law, from their country, and from the holy temple [11] And that he would not suffer the people, that had even now been but a little refreshed, to be in subjection to the blasphemous nations. [12] So when they had all done this together, and besought the merciful Lord with weeping and fasting, and lying flat upon the ground three days long, Judas, having exhorted them, commanded they should be in a readiness.

13 And Judas, being apart with the elders, determined, before the king's host should enter into Judea, and get the city, to go forth and try the matter in fight by the help of the Lord.
14 So when he had committed all to the Creator of the world, and exhorted his soldiers to fight manfully, even unto death, for the laws, the temple, the city, the country, and the commonwealth, he camped by Modin 15 And having given the watchword to them that were about him, Victory is of God; with the most valiant and choice young men he went in into the king's tent by night, and slew in the camp about four thousand men, and the chiefest of the elephants, with all that were upon him. 16 And at last they filled the camp with fear and tumult, and departed with good success. 17 This was done in the break of the day, because the protection of the Lord did help him. 18 Now when the king had taken a taste of the manliness of the Jews, he went about to take the holds by policy, 19 And marched toward Bethsura, which was a strong hold of the Jews but he was put to flight, failed, and lost of his men 20 For Judas had conveyed unto them that were in it such things as were necessary. 21 But Rhodocus, who was in the Jews' host, disclosed the secrets to the enemies; therefore he was sought out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison. 22 The king treated with them in Bethsum the second time, gave his hand, took their's, departed, fought with Judas, was overcome; 23 Heard that Philip, who was left over the affairs in Antioch, was desperately bent, confounded, intreated the Jews, submitted himself, and sware to all equal conditions, agreed with them, and offered sacrifice, honoured the temple, and dealt kindly with the place, 24 And accepted well of Maccabeus, made him principal governor from Ptolemais unto the Gerrhenians; 25 Came to Ptolemais the people there were grieved for the covenants; for they stormed, because they would make their covenants void 26 Lysias went up to the judgment seat, said as much as could be in defence of the cause, persuaded, pacified, made them well affected, returned to Antioch. Thus it went touching the king's coming and departing.

After three years was Judas informed, that Demetrius the son of Seleucus, having entered by the haven of Tripolis with a great power and navy, 2 Had taken the country, and killed Antiochus, and Lysias his protector. 3 Now one Alcimus, who had been high priest, and had defiled himself wilfully in the times of their mingling with the Gentiles, seeing that by no means he could save himself, nor have any more access to the holy altar, [4] Came to king Demetrius in the hundred and one and fiftieth year, presenting unto him a crown of gold, and a palm, and also of the boughs which were used solemnly in the temple and so that day he held his peace. [5] Howbeit having gotten opportunity to further his foolish enterprize, and being called into counsel by Demetrius, and asked how the Jews stood affected, and what they intended, he answered thereunto [6] Those of the Jews that he called Assideans, whose captain is Judas Maccabeus, nourish war and are seditious, and will not let the rest be in peace. [7] Therefore I, being deprived of mine ancestors' honour, I mean the high priesthood, am now come hither [8] First, verily for the unfeigned care I have of things pertaining to the king; and secondly, even for that I intend the good of mine own countrymen for all our nation is in no small misery through the unadvised dealing of them aforersaid. [9] Wherefore, O king, seeing knowest all these things, be careful for the country, and our nation, which is pressed on every side, according to the clemency that thou readily shewest unto all. [10] For as long as Judas liveth, it is not possible that the state should be quiet. [11] This was no sooner spoken of him, but others of the king's friends, being maliciously set against Judas, did more incense Demetrius. [12] And forthwith calling Nicanor, who had been master of the elephants, and making him governor over Judea, he sent him forth, [13] Commanding him to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high priest of the great temple. [14] Then the heathen, that had fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harm and calamities of the Jews to be their welfare. [15] Now when the Jews heard of Nicanor's coming, and that the heathen were up against them, they cast earth upon their heads, and made supplication to him that had established his people for ever, and who always helpeth his portion with manifestation of his presence. [16] So at the commandment of the captain they removed straightways from thence, and came near unto them at the town of Dessau. [17] Now Simon, Judas' brother, had joined battle with Nicanor, but was somewhat discomfited through the sudden silence of his enemies. [18] Nevertheless Nicanor, hearing of the manliness of them that were with Judas, and the courageousness that they had to fight for their country, durst not try the matter by the sword. [19] Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotus, and Mattathias, to make peace. [20] So when they had taken long advisement thereupon, and the captain had made the multitude acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of one mind, they consented to the covenants, [21] And appointed a day to meet in together by themselves and when the day came, and stools were set for either of them, [22] Ludas placed armed men ready in convenient places, lest some treachery should be suddenly practised by the enemies so they made a peaceable conference. [23] Now Nicanor abode in Jerusalem, and did no hurt, but sent away the people that came flocking unto him. [24] And he would not willingly have Judas out of his sight for he love the man from his heart [25] He prayed him also to take a wife, and to beget children so he married, was quiet, and took part of this life. [26] But Alcimus, perceiving the love that was betwixt them, and considering the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor was not well affected toward the state; for that he had ordained Judas, a traitor to his realm, to be the king's successor. [27] Then the king being in a rage, and provoked with the accusations of the most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was much displeased with the covenants, and commanding him that he should send Maccabeus prisoner in all haste unto Antioch. [28] When this came to Nicanor's hearing, he was much confounded in himself, and took it grievously that he should make void the articles which were agreed upon, the man being in no fault. [29] But because there was no dealing against the king, he watched his time to accomplish this thing by policy. [30] Notwithstanding, when Maccabeus saw that Nicanor began to be churlish unto him, and that he entreated him more roughly than he was wont, perceiving that such sour behaviour came not of good, he gathered together not a few of his men, and withdrew himself from Nicanor. [31] But the other, knowing that he was notably prevented by Judas' policy, came into the great and holy temple, and commanded the priests, that were offering their usual sacrifices, to deliver him the man. [32] And when they sware that they could not tell where the man was whom he sought, [33] He stretched out his right hand toward the temple, and made an oath in this manner If ye will not deliver me Judas as a prisoner, I will lay this temple of God even with the ground, and I will break down the altar, and erect a notable temple unto Bacchus. [34] After these words he departed. Then the priests lifted up their hands toward heaven, and besought him that was ever a defender of their nation, saying in this manner; [35] Thou, O Lord of all things, who hast need of nothing, wast pleased that the temple of thine habitation should be among us [36] Therefore now, O holy Lord of all holiness, keep this house ever undefiled, which lately was cleansed, and stop every unrighteous mouth. [37] Now was there accused unto Nicanor one Razis, one of the elders of Jerusalem, a lover of his countrymen, and a man of very good report, who for his kindness was called a father of the Jews. [38] For in the former times, when they mingled not themselves with the Gentiles, he had been accused of Judaism, and did boldly jeopard his body and life with all vehemency for the religion of the Jews. [39] So Nicanor, willing to declare the hate that he bare unto the Jews, sent above five hundred men of war to take him [40] For he thought by taking him to do the Jews much hurt. [41] Now when the multitude would have taken the tower, and violently broken into the outer door, and bade that fire should be brought to burn it, he being ready to be taken on every side fell upon his sword; 42 Choosing rather to die manfully, than to come into the hands of the wicked, to be abused otherwise than beseemed his noble birth 43 But missing his stroke through haste, the multitude also rushing within the doors, he ran boldly up to the wall, and cast himself down manfully among the thickest of them. 44 But they quickly giving back, and a space being made, he fell down into the midst of the void place. 45 Nevertheless, while there was yet breath within him, being inflamed with anger, he rose up; and though his blood gushed out like spouts of water, and his wounds were grievous, yet he ran through the midst of the throng; and standing upon a steep rock, 46 When as his blood was now quite gone, he plucked out his bowels, and taking them in both his hands, he cast them upon the throng, and calling upon the Lord of life and spirit to restore him those again, he thus died.

But Nicanor, hearing that Judas and his company were in the strong places about Samaria, resolved without any danger to set upon them on the sabbath day. 2 Nevertheless the Jews that were compelled to go with him said, O destroy not so cruelly and barbarously, but give honour to that day, which he, that seeth all things, hath honoured with holiness above all other days. 3 Then the most ungracious wretch demanded, if there were a Mighty one in heaven, that had commanded the sabbath day to be kept. 4 And when they said, There is in heaven a living Lord, and mighty, who commanded the seventh day to be kept 5 Then said the other, And I also am mighty upon earth, and I command to take arms, and to do the king's business. Yet he obtained not to have his wicked will done. 6 So Nicanor in exceeding pride and haughtiness determined to set up a publick monument of his victory over Judas and them that were with him. 7 But Maccabeus had ever sure confidence that the Lord would help him 8 Wherefore he exhorted his people not to fear the coming of the heathen against them, but to remember the help which in former times they had received from heaven, and now to expect the victory and aid, which should come unto them from the Almighty. 9 And so comforting them out of the law and the prophets, and withal putting them in mind of the battles that they won afore, he made them more cheerful. 10 And when he had stirred up their minds, he gave them their charge, shewing them therewithall the falsehood of the heathen, and the breach of oaths. [11] Thus he armed every one of them, not so much with defence of shields and spears, as with comfortable and good words and beside that, he told them a dream worthy to be believed, as if it had been so indeed, which did not a little rejoice them. [12] And this was his vision That Onias, who had been high priest, a virtuous and a good man, reverend in conversation, gentle in condition, well spoken also, and exercised from a child in all points of virtue, holding up his hands prayed for the whole body of the Jews. [13] This done, in like manner there appeared a man with gray hairs, and exceeding glorious, who was of a wonderful and excellent majesty. [14] Then Onias answered, saying, This is a lover of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy city, to wit, Jeremias the prophet of God. [15] Whereupon Jeremias holding forth his right hand gave to Judas a sword of gold, and in giving it spake thus, [16] Take this holy sword, a gift from God, with the which thou shalt wound the adversaries. [17] Thus being well comforted by the words of Judas, which were very good, and able to stir them up to valour, and to encourage the hearts of the young men, they determined not to pitch camp, but courageously to set upon them, and manfully to try the matter by conflict, because the city and the sanctuary and the temple were in danger. [18] For the care that they took for their wives, and their children, their brethren, and folks, was in least account with them but the greatest and principal fear was for the holy temple. [19] Also they that were in the city took not the least care, being troubled for the conflict abroad. [20] And now, when as all looked what should be the trial, and the enemies were already come near, and the army was set in array, and the beasts conveniently placed, and the horsemen set in wings, [21] Maccabeus seeing the coming of the multitude, and the divers preparations of armour, and the fierceness of the beasts, stretched out his hands toward heaven, and called upon the Lord that worketh wonders, knowing that victory cometh not by arms, but even as it seemeth good to him, he giveth it to such as are worthy [22] Therefore in his prayer he said after this manner; O Lord, thou didst send thine angel in the time of Ezekias king of Judea, and didst slay in the host of Sennacherib an hundred fourscore and five thousand [23] Wherefore now also, O Lord of heaven, send a good angel before us for a fear and dread unto them; [24] And through the might of thine arm let those be stricken with terror, that come against thy holy people to blaspheme. And he ended thus. [25] Then Nicanor and they that were with him came forward with trumpets and songs. [26] But Judas and his company encountered the enemies with invocation and prayer. [27] So that fighting with their hands, and praying unto God with their hearts, they slew no less than thirty and five thousand men for through the appearance of God they were greatly cheered. [28] Now when the battle was done, returning again with joy, they knew that Nicanor lay dead in his harness. [29] Then they made a great shout and a noise, praising the Almighty in their own language.

30 And Judas, who was ever the chief defender of the citizens both in body and mind, and who continued his love toward his countrymen all his life, commanded to strike off Nicanor's head, and his hand with his shoulder, and bring them to Jerusalem. 31 So when he was there, and called them of his nation together, and set the priests before the altar, he sent for them that were of the tower, 32 And shewed them vile Nicanor's head, and the hand of that blasphemer, which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy temple of the Almighty. 33 And when he had cut out the tongue of that ungodly Nicanor, he commanded that they should give it by pieces unto the fowls, and hang up the reward of his madness before the temple. 34 So every man praised toward the heaven the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled. 35 He hanged also Nicanor's head upon the tower, an evident and manifest sign unto all of the help of the Lord. 36 And they ordained all with a common decree in no case to let that day pass without solemnity, but to celebrate the thirtieth day of the twelfth month, which in the Syrian tongue is called Adar, the day before Mardocheus' day. 37 Thus went it with Nicanor and from that time forth the Hebrews had the city in their power. And here will I make an end. 38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the story, it is that which I desired but if slenderly and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto. 39 For as it is hurtful to drink wine or water alone; and as wine mingled with water is pleasant, and delighteth the taste even so speech finely framed delighteth the ears of them that read the story. And here shall be an end.

The YSRB is given totally free it is set in English except for peoples and places to help in the reading to give the reader a better understanding of people and places in the books. The Gospel Books will follow the example of the Tanak, placing the Book of John first as we see the wording, "In the beginning…" identical to that of the First Book of the Tanak. Also, the Book of John is last, but speaks as if it is first which should remind us of what our Savior said about the last being first. When we read John's Gospel first we see where the Church is supposed to be after the experiences of the other Three Gospel accounts, after many years of trial and error, of the people living and trying to be good Jews, and then enter the Gentiles and the changes, etc. We see John's Gospel focusing on what is really important. Reading John first explains the other Gospels in many ways, as you will see when you put the last first.

This translation, with His Name restored, is neither Jewish nor Gentile, it is from our Lord, YaHshua and His inspired Apostles, a message handed down to us -- the message of the Gospel intact, and that is truly a miracle. While it is obvious our Savior's Name has been changed and replaced, the Message of the New Covenant is intact. There is a baptism of "repentance", a baptism John the Baptist (Acts 18:25; 19;4-5, 7) conducted and is still a legitimate call to the Gospel Message but there remains another baptism, a Baptism into His Name – However, there is only ONE Baptism into our Lord – Acts 2:38; Eph 4:5-6; Acts 19:4-5; Acts 10:48; Gal 3:26-27.

Reading the Gospel of the Apostle John first, before the reading of the other three, explains the other Gospels in many ways, presenting a picture of order and growth, as you will see when you put the last first. You will see, then, how the Gospel of Matthew was written to those Jews and people of Israel that first came into the "ekklesiah" (The Church) as converts to the New Covenant. They were never asked to abandon the Tanak, or their Jewish heritage, but to use it as a proof of our Lord's position as Savior, however, the original belief and attitude among the Jewish leaders, had been that Gentiles were not part of the Kingdom to come. This attitude toward the Gentile population is evident in the reading of Acts Chapter 15. This is something the true Apostle to the Gentiles, Paul (Saul) had to contend with, as we read in the Apostle Paul's Letter to the Galatians a few years after the meeting in Jerusalem (Gal 2:11-14; 1:16-19 & 2:7-9). While the "first converts" were Jewish the last converts were Gentiles, and from this background the Gospel of John was written – for this reason, his Gospel is placed first in this version.

The design and organization of these books and letters was not to center on chapter and verse but to maintain a reading style closer to that of older manuscripts, manuscripts and scrolls that were not chopped into chapter and numbered verse sets, many times breaking the flow of reading the text as it was meant to be read. The Chapters and verses are maintained, as this system has proven an invaluable bible study aid. This version is a reading version that can be used for Bible Study, but that is not the ultimate purpose of this translation – it is a "reading bible", attempting to maintain the context and thought without too much interference.

The first complete Bible that was divided into chapters and verse was the Geneva Bible, 1560 AD. Robert Stephanus a French printer is given credit for being the first to divide the New Testament into chapter and verse, back in 1551 AD. Since that time the pattern of Chapter and verse has been at the mercy of the publishers. Some versions list the verse numbers along the outside of each column of print while others let the verse numbering flow into the text and along with the text, attempting to retain the context by maintaining proper sentence structure. Italicized words are also used, especially in the King James Version, to indicated added words, for clarity, but are not words found in what the scholars consider to be the Originals.

The reason this is important in a reading Bible is that certain problems arise, problems with chapter and verse settings not ending properly -- the flow of the words on subject of topic is all too often cut off by a Chapter division, literally chopping the thought off and, in many cases, creating misunderstanding and creating unnecessary doctrinal issues. This same thing happens with the introduction of verse numbering, sometimes cutting a sentence in half, making for a bumpy read. Fortunately, with the Chapter cuts, this does not happen too often. Many modern translations make note of this and also keep the text together as opposed to chopping the Word into pieces, taking away from what is being said, or taught. This version, YaHshua Servant's Reading Bible, follows this same method to reduce the distraction created by verse manipulations, something not found in the Originals. With an example in Genesis between chapters 1 and 2 explained in notes at end of Book.

NAMES

From the very beginning names have had meaning and still do. The Creator named his first creation and then allows created man, made from the elements of this Earth, to name the animals of that creation -- Genesis gives an account of this in Genesis 2:19. Prophets of old were named and given names that either described their mission or the time they lived in, sometimes a name that described their mission or duty in life – names had meaning.

Later it became the custom for people to name themselves or their children with a name that was either the name of their God (EL) or contained the name of their God, or God's. Reading the Books of the Kings we see that while the kings rebelled against YaHWeH they had named many of their children by His name, but had eventually forgotten the meaning of this. Just as today, people are very religious, and many uses the name of God but have little or no understanding of what or who He really is, they sing, "HalleluYaH", but understand nothing of what they are saying, not unlike the people of ancient Israel.

The English translators try to tell you the names are the same but in this you can see they are not, they are not pronounced the same, in most cases, especially when it comes to His Name. Some try to tell us the names are transliterated from the original languages, relying on the reader's ignorance to pass this off as truth. The purpose of "transliteration" as opposed to "translation" is to produce a sound of the same phonetic value as found in another language – to produce the same sound – to preserve the sound, the vocalization of a name from the one language to the other. In the English versions, like the KJV the translators have not done this, they have replaced the transliterated name of our Savior and God with a completely different name. Jesus, is not a transliterations of His Name, the Name He was given at birth – the name JESUS never existed some 400 years ago, the Latin form being, IESUS.

If we look for a closer transliteration we do find it in the KJV bible, in the Old Testament, in the Book of Joshua. The Name Joshua is the Old English transliteration of our Savior's Name given to Him at birth. This name "Joshua" in today's modern transliteration would be "YaHshua". Neither of these transliterations are even close to the false name, JESUS, or IESUS as a transliteration. We find His Name in the Old Testament, transliterated from the Hebrew into English but when we come to the New Testament we see something entirely different, a different name altogether, another name, and a name that is not His Name. In the YSRB we have endeavored to restore and correct this great harm done to your bible. No translation is perfect, but to change the Name of the one and only Savior of the Universe is diabolical and that is putting it mildly.

To translate a name is to give a name meaning and to transliterate is to reproduce a name into the same sound in a different language using that different language's lettering with the objective being to mimic the original sound and pronunciation of the object name. We give you in this translation the transliteration of people and places for a better understanding of the scriptures.

The Messiah (Messenger of YaH, or the Anointed of YaH) was given a Name that would be found among men, not among angels, not in heaven, and this name would express who and what He was to do and be. That name would be a Name "found among" men, a Name delivered to Joseph (Yosef) and Miryam to be given to Him. When the Child, YaHshua, was taken on the 8th day and presented as the first born He was named as they were instructed to name Him.

Miryam and Joseph (Yosef) did as instructed by the angelic messenger Gabriel and named Him YaHshua, the Name placed on Him by His Heavenly FATHER, and that Name was not Jesus, a transliteration, more accurately, of the Zeus.

Consider ACTS 4:12:

"Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved." NIV

"And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." RVS

"Neither is there salvation in any other; for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." KJV

A name found "among men, by which we must be saved" -- not might, not maybe and not perhaps but "must". When that was written the bogus name "Jesus" did not exist. We see the modern twisting of the name "Joshua", a name found in the Holy Bible, as "among men", which, when properly pronounced, is "YaHshua".

One whole book carries this Name found among men, the Book of Joshua, again, properly pronounced, YaHshua.

However, it is never used in reference to the Messiah in the King James New Testament even though this would be far more accurate than the false name "Jesus" -- it is not even an honest attempt at preserving the only name "by which we must be saved", and modern translation, to their shame, have followed in the footsteps of the King James Version.

His Name has been changed and the inquiring mind should be asking, why? Take the time to do a little research on the translations of the Bible you own and you will see the real miracle – the miracle found in the truthfulness and integrity of the MESSAGE, a message leading to the changing of lives, and about the Salvation to come – this incredible message, and warning, has never changed, no matter how many hands it has passed through or book burnings it has survived it all and remains the same, bringing people to repent of their fallen nature.

It is up to us as individual believers to search and research and to believe what we see and what we read until shown otherwise and when that does occur we must be willing to change, to adjust to the new knowledge, based in the word itself no matter what language you are reading it in, the MESSAGE has remained the same. Satan has not been able to touch this message, the "declaration of and about the Son of the Living God", our FATHER in Heaven, so he, Satan, has managed to influence man to think the NAME means nothing and changing it is not a problem. Some Evangelicals call the Name, Jesus, a Greek Nick Name – shameful as that sounds to those of us know the truth. There is still only one Name found on this Earth through and by which we must be saved. Not by the Name but to whom that name declares as Savior, the Messiah, and Son of the Living God. Our Savior YaHshua was named by the FATHER Himself and the false name, JESUS, pronounced as HeyZeus (the Zeus, a Greek God) is a modern invention, a false name, a bogus name, a name that calls on the Zeus. This is the truth, the plain truth, the truth correctly divided – YaHshua or YaHoshua, or YaHushua but never the bogus JESUS.

The Holy Bible, no matter the language it is printed in is pure in, its message and the revelation concerning our Creator remains intact. We are instructed to "study" and to "test every spirit" and to take care, "rightly dividing the Word of Truth", be it the Bible translation, be it in English, Greek, Spanish or Chinese.

All we have now, whether it be in Hebrew or Greek, are translations only, we do not have the originals. The publishing in every language has put the inspired truth into everyone's hand. We hope this translation, the YaHshua Servant Bible, gets you closer to the original Books in thought and meaning as knowing and restoring some of these names, especially His Name to the text is a KEY a vital KEY in unlocking a deeper message and understanding, and understanding Satan does not want you to see.

There is a glossary at the end of the books giving the Hebrew or English word descriptions to aid in seeing the names found throughout this version. The primary Name, the one Name to focus on is the Name of the God of Israel and of our Savior, restored. The other names are secondary and point to our one true God and Savior YaHshua, as you will see when you become accustom to reading this version. His Name above every name -- and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places,

Eph 1:21 "…far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come." (Php 2:9) Therefore FATHER also highly exalted Him, and gave to Him the NAME which is above every name;

Keeping this in mind we know HIS Name above every Name and that includes all and any other names found, or restored in this version, the YSRB. We pray this version finds a place in your reading, as that is the purpose of this version, to be read so the reader can see the verses open up as never before, the message, the meaning, and the prophetic words taking on a new light. We hope and pray that light shines on you.

The following letters and books in this version (with the exception of Revelations) are referred to as the witnesses as per the Messiah in Acts 1:7

"It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the FATHER has set within His own authority. 8But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), in all Judah (Yehudah) and Samaria (Shomron), and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

John

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
[2]The same was in the beginning with God. [3]All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made. [4]In him was life, and the life was the light of men. [5]The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it.
[6]There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John (Yochanan). [7]The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. [8]He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. [9]The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

[10]He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him. [11]He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him.
[12]But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name: [13]who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. [14]The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the FATHER, full of grace and truth. [15] John (Yochanan) testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'" [16]From his fullness we all received grace upon grace. [17]For the law was given through Moshe. Grace and truth came through Yahshua the Messiah. [18]No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Son, who is in the bosom of the FATHER, he has declared him. [19]This is John (Yochanan)'s testimony, when the Yehudim sent Kohanim and Levites from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to ask him, "Who are you?"

[20]He confessed, and didn't deny, but he confessed, "I am not theMessiah."

[21]They asked him, "What then? Are you Eliyah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

22They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

23He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of YaHWeH,' as Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet said."

24The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees. 25They asked him, "Why then do you immerse, if you are not theMessiah, nor Eliyah, nor the Prophet?"

26John (Yochanan) answered them, "I immerse in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know. 27He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." 28These things were done in Beit-Anyah beyond the Jordan (Yarden), where John (Yochanan) was immersing.

29The next day, he saw YaHshua coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! 30This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.' 31I didn't know him, but for this reason I came immersing in water: that he would be revealed to Yisrael." 32John (Yochanan) testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him. 33I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to immerse in water, he said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who immerses in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).' 34I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God."

35Again, the next day, John (Yochanan) was standing with two of his disciples (talmidim), 36and he looked at YaHshua as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" 37The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed YaHshua. 38YaHshua turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?"

They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"

39He said to them, "Come, and see."

They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour. 40One of the two who heard John (Yochanan), and followed him, was Andrew (Andrai), Simon Peter's (Shimon Rock's) brother. 41He first found his own brother, Simon (Shimon), and said to him, "We have found theMessiah!" (Which is, being interpreted, Anointed One). 42He brought him to YaHshua. YaHshua looked at him, and said, "You are Simon (Shimon) the son of Yonah. You shall be called Kefa" (which is by interpretation, Rock). 43On the next day, he was determined to go out into the Galil, and he found Philip (Pilipos). YaHshua said to him, "Follow me." 44Now Philip (Pilipos) was from Beit-Tzaidah, of the city of Andrew (Andrai) and Simon (Shimon). 45Philip (Pilipos) found Natan'el, and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses (Moshe) in the law, and the prophets, wrote: YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret), the son of Joseph (Yosef)."

46Natan'el said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth (Natzeret)?"

Philip (Pilipos) said to him, "Come and see."

47YaHshua saw Natan'el coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Yisraelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

48Natan'el said to him, "How do you know me?"

YaHshua answered him, "Before Philip (Pilipos) called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

49Natan'el answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Yisrael!"

50YaHshua answered him, "Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these!" 51He said to him, "Most assuredly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

The third day, there was a marriage in Kanah of the Galil. YaHshua's mother was there. 2YaHshua also was invited, with his disciples (talmidim), to the marriage. 3When the wine ran out, YaHshua's mother said to him, "They have no wine."

4YaHshua said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."

5His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it." 6Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jew (Yehudim)' manner of purifying, containing two or three metretes apiece. 7YaHshua said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim. 8He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. 9When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, 10and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!" 11This beginning of his signs YaHshua did in Kanah of the Galil, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

12After this, he went down to Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days. 13The Passover (Pesach) of the Jew (Yehudim) was at hand, and YaHshua went up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 14He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. 15He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. 16To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my FATHER's house a marketplace!" 17His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up."

18The Jew (Yehudim) therefore answered him, "What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?"

19YaHshua answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20The Jew (Yehudim) therefore said, "Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days?" 21But he spoke of the temple of his body. 22When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which YaHshua had said.

23Now when he was in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) at the Passover (Pesach), during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did. 24But YaHshua didn't trust himself to them, because he knew everyone, 25and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nakdimon, a ruler of the Jew (Yehudim). 2The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."

3YaHshua answered him, "Most assuredly, I tell you, unless one is born anew, he can't see the Kingdom of the FATHER."

4Nakdimon said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

5YaHshua answered, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he can't enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER! 6That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7Don't marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' [8]The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

[10]YaHshua answered him, "Are you the teacher of Yisrael, and don't understand these things? [11]Most assuredly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness. [12]If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? [13]No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven. [14]As Moses (Moshe) lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, [15]that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. [16]For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. [17]For God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him. [18]He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God. [19]This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. [20]For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. [21]But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God."

[22]After these things, YaHshua came with his disciples into the land of Judah (Yehudah). He stayed there with them, and immersed. [23]John (Yochanan) also was immersing in Einayim near Shalem, because there was much water there. They came, and were immersed. [24]For John (Yochanan) was not yet thrown into prison. [25]There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John (Yochanan)'s disciples with some Jew (Yehudim) about purification. [26]They came to John (Yochanan), and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan (Yarden), to whom you have testified, behold, the same immerses, and everyone is coming to him."

[27]John (Yochanan) answered, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven. [28]You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not theMessiah,' but, 'I have been sent before him.' [29]He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. [30]He must increase, but I must decrease. [31]He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the Earth belongs to the Earth, and speaks of the Earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. [32]What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. [33]He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. [34]For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure. [35]The FATHER loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. 36One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one who disobeys the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

Therefore when the Lord (Adoni) knew that the Pharisees had heard that YaHshua was making and immersing more disciples than John (Yochanan) 2(although YaHshua himself didn't immerse, but his disciples), 3he left Judah (Yehudah), and departed into the Galil. 4He needed to pass through Samaria (Shomron). 5So he came to a city of Samaria (Shomron), called Shekhem, near the parcel of ground that Jacob (Yaaqob) gave to his son, Joseph (Yosef). 6Jacob (Yaaqob)'s well was there. YaHshua therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. 7A woman of Samaria (Shomron) came to draw water. YaHshua said to her, "Give me a drink." 8For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9The Samaria (Shomroni) woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew (Yehudi), ask for a drink from me, a Samaria (Shomroni) woman?" For Jews (Yehudim) have no dealings with Samaria (Shomroni).

10YaHshua answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

11The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then have you that living water? 12Are you greater than our father, Jacob (Yaaqob), who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his cattle?"

13YaHshua answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, 14but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

15The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

16YaHshua said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17The woman answered, "I have no husband."

YaHshua said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' 18for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

21YaHshua said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), will you worship the FATHER. 22You worship that which you don’t know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jew (Yehudim). 23But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the FATHER in spirit and truth, for the FATHER seeks such to be his worshippers. 24God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

25The woman said to him, “I know that the Messiah comes,” (he who is called Anointed One). “When he has come, he will declare to us all things.”

26YaHshua said to her, “I am he, the one who speaks to you.” 27At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, “What are you looking for?” or, “Why do you speak with her?” 28So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, 29“Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be theMessiah?”

30They went out of the city, and were coming to him. 31In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.”

33The disciples therefore said one to another, “Has anyone brought him something to eat?”

34YaHshua said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. 35Don’t you say, ‘There are yet four months until the harvest?’ Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. 36He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. 37For in this the saying is true, ‘One sows, and another reaps.’ 38I sent you to reap that for which you haven’t labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

39From that city many of the Samaria (Shomroni) believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, “He told me everything that I did.” 40So when the Samaria (Shomroni) came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. 41Many more believed because of his word. 42They said to the woman, “Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed theMessiah, the Savior of the world."

43After the two days he went out from there and went into the Galil. 44For YaHshua himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45So when he came into the Galil, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) at the feast, for they also went to the feast. 46YaHshua came therefore again to Kanah of the Galil, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum). 47When he heard that YaHshua had come out of Judah (Yehudah) into the Galil, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48YaHshua therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

49The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50YaHshua said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that YaHshua spoke to him, and he went his way. 51As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your child lives!" 52So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him." 53So the father knew that it was at that hour in which YaHshua said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house. 54This is again the second sign that YaHshua did, having come out of Judah (Yehudah) into the Galil.

After these things, there was a feast of the Jew (Yehudim), and YaHshua went up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Now in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Beit-Zata," having five porches. 3In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water; 4for an angel of YaHWeH went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was made whole of whatever disease he had. 5A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. 6When YaHshua saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

7The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."

8YaHshua said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."

9Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked.

Now it was the Shabbat on that day. [10]So the Jew (Yehudim) said to him who was cured, "It is the Shabbat. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."

[11]He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, 'Take up your mat, and walk.'"

[12]Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your mat, and walk'?"

[13]But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for YaHshua had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

[14]Afterward YaHshua found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."

[15]The man went away, and told the Jew (Yehudim) that it was YaHshua who had made him well. [16]For this cause the Jew (Yehudim) persecuted YaHshua, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Shabbat. [17]But YaHshua answered them, "My FATHER is still working, so I am working, too." [18]For this cause therefore the Jew (Yehudim) sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Shabbat, but also called God his own FATHER, making himself equal with God. [19]YaHshua therefore answered them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the FATHER doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise. [20]For the FATHER has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel. [21]For as the FATHER raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires. [22]For the FATHER judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son, [23]that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the FATHER. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the FATHER who sent him.

[24]"Most assuredly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. [25]Most assuredly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live. [26]For as the FATHER has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself. [27]He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. [28]Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice, [29]and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. [30]I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my FATHER who sent me.

[31]"If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid. [32]It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true. [33]You have sent to John (Yochanan), and he has testified to the truth. 34But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. 35He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. 36But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John (Yochanan), for the works which the FATHER gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the FATHER has sent me. 37The FATHER himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. 38You don't have his word living in you; because you don't believe him whom he sent.

39"You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me. 40Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life. 41I don't receive glory from men. 42But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves. 43I have come in my FATHER'S name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?

45"Don't think that I will accuse you to the FATHER. There is one who accuses you, even Moses (Moshe), on whom you have set your hope. 46For if you believed Moses (Moshe), you would believe me; for he wrote about me. 47But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

After these things, YaHshua went away to the other side of the sea of the Galil, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. 2A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick. 3YaHshua went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. 4Now the Passover (Pesach), the feast of the Jew (Yehudim), was at hand. 5YaHshua therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip (Pilipos), "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" 6This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

7Philip (Pilipos) answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."

8One of his disciples, Andrew (Andrai), Simon Peter's (Shimon Rock's) brother, said to him, 9"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

10YaHshua said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. 11YaHshua took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. 12When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." 13So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. 14When therefore the people saw the sign which YaHshua did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world." 15YaHshua therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

16When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, 17and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum). It was now dark, and YaHshua had not come to them. 18The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. 19When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw YaHshua walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. 20But he said to them, "I AM. Don't be afraid." 21They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

22On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that YaHshua hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. 23However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord (Adoni) had given thanks. 24When the multitude therefore saw that YaHshua wasn't there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), seeking YaHshua. 25When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

26YaHshua answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. 27Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the FATHER has sealed him."

28They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29YaHshua answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

30They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? 31Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'"

32YaHshua therefore said to them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses (Moshe) who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my FATHER gives you the true bread out of heaven. [33]For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."

[35]YaHshua said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. [36]But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe. [37]All those who the FATHER gives me will come to me. Him who comes to me I will in no way throw out. [38]For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. [39]This is the will of my FATHER who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. [40]This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

[41]The Jew (Yehudim) therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." [42]They said, "Isn't this YaHshua, the son of Joseph (Yosef), whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'"

[43]Therefore YaHshua answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves. [44]No one can come to me unless the FATHER who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. [45]It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Therefore everyone who hears from the FATHER, and has learned, comes to me. [46]Not that anyone has seen the FATHER, except he who is from God. He has seen the FATHER. [47]Most assuredly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life. [48]I am the bread of life. [49]Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. [50]This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. [51]I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

[53]YaHshua therefore said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have life in yourselves. [54]He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. [55]For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. [56]He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. [57]As the living FATHER sent me, and I live because of the FATHER; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me. [58]This is the bread which came down out of heaven— not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever." [59]These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum).

60Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?"

61But YaHshua knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble? 62Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? 63It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. 64But there are some of you who don't believe." For YaHshua knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray him. 65He said, "For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by my FATHER."

66At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. 67YaHshua said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"

68Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) answered him, "Lord (Adoni), to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. 69We have come to believe and know that you are theMessiah, the Son of the living God."

70YaHshua answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?" 71Now he spoke of Judah (Yehudah), the son of Simon Iscariot (Shimon Ish-K'riot), for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

After these things, YaHshua was walking in the Galil, for he wouldn't walk in Judah (Yehudah), because the Jew (Yehudim) sought to kill him. 2Now the feast of the Jew (Yehudim), the Feast of Sukkot, was at hand. 3His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judah (Yehudah), that your disciples also may see your works which you do. 4For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world." 5For even his brothers didn't believe in him.

6YaHshua therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. 7The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. 8You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."

9Having said these things to them, he stayed in the Galil. 10But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. 11The Jew (Yehudim) therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?" 12There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man."

Others said, "Not so, but he leads the multitude astray." [13]Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jew (Yehudim). [14]But when it was now the midst of the feast, YaHshua went up into the temple and taught. [15]The Jew (Yehudim) therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"

[16]YaHshua therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. [17]If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. [18]He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. [19]Didn't Moses (Moshe) give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?"

[20]The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

[21]YaHshua answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. [22]Moses (Moshe) has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses (Moshe), but of the fathers), and on the Shabbat you circumcise a boy. [23]If a boy receives circumcision on the Shabbat, that the law of Moses (Moshe) may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man every bit whole on the Shabbat? [24]Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

[25]Therefore some of them of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) said, "Isn't this he whom they seek to kill? [26]Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly theMessiah? [27]However we know where this man comes from, but when theMessiah comes, no one will know where he comes from."

[28]YaHshua therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know. [29]I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

[30]They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. [31]But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When theMessiah comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?" [32]The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

[33]Then YaHshua said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. [34]You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come."

[35]The Jew (Yehudim) therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Diaspora among the Gentiles (Yebanim), and teach the Gentiles (Yebanim)? [36]What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come?'"

[37]Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, YaHshua stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! [38]He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." [39]But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) was not yet given, because YaHshua wasn't yet glorified.

[40]Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." [41]Others said, "This is theMessiah." But some said, "What, does theMessiah come out of the Galil? [42]Hasn't the Scripture said that theMessiah comes of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem), the village where David was?" [43]So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. [44]Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. [45]The officers therefore came to the chief Priest (Kohanim) and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

[47]The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You aren't also led astray, are you? [48]Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? [49]But this multitude that doesn't know the law is accursed."

[50]Nakdimon (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them, [51]"Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

[52]They answered him, "Are you also from the Galil? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of the Galil."

[53]Everyone went to his own house,

[1] But YaHshua went to the Mount of Olives. [2]Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them. [3]The Scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the midst, [4]they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. [5]Now in our law, Moses (Moshe) commanded us to stone such. What then do you say about her?" [6]They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of.

But YaHshua stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger. 7But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her." 8Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

9They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. YaHshua was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle. 10YaHshua, standing up, saw her and said, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?"

11She said, "No one, Lord (Adoni)."

YaHshua said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."

12Again, therefore, YaHshua spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

13The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

14YaHshua answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going. 15You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. 16Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the FATHER who sent me. 17It's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid. 18I am one who testifies about myself, and the FATHER who sent me testifies about me."

19They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?"

YaHshua answered, "You know neither me, nor my FATHER. If you knew me, you would know my FATHER also." 20YaHshua spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. 21YaHshua said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come."

22The Jew (Yehudim) therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come?'"

23He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. 24I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

25They said therefore to him, "Who are you?"

YaHshua said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. [26]I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world."

[27]They didn't understand that he spoke to them about the FATHER. [28]YaHshua therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my FATHER taught me, I say these things. [29]He who sent me is with me. The FATHER hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him."

[30]As he spoke these things, many believed in him. [31]YaHshua therefore said to those Jew (Yehudim) who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. [32]You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

[33]They answered him, "We are Abraham's seed, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, 'You will be made free?'"

[34]YaHshua answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. [35]A bondservant doesn't live in the house forever. A son remains forever. [36]If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. [37]I know that you are Abraham's seed, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. [38]I say the things which I have seen with my FATHER; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father."

YaHshua said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. [40]But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn't do this. [41]You do the works of your father."

They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God."

[42]Therefore YaHshua said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven't come of myself, but he sent me. [43]Why don't you understand my speech? Because you can't hear my word. [44]You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it. [45]But because I tell the truth, you don't believe me. [46]Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? [47]He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don't hear, because you are not of God."

48Then the Jew (Yehudim) answered him, "Don't we say well that you are a Samaria (Shomroni), and have a demon?"

49YaHshua answered, "I don't have a demon, but I honor my FATHER, and you dishonor me. 50But I don't seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. 51Most assuredly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death."

52Then the Jew (Yehudim) said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, 'If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.' 53Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?"

54YaHshua answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my FATHER who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God. 55You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, 'I don't know him,' I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. 56Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad."

57The Jew (Yehudim) therefore said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

58YaHshua said to them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I AM."

59Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but YaHshua was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through the midst of them, and so passed by.

As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. 2His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3YaHshua answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. 4I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. 5While I am in the world, I am the light of the world." 6When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud, 7and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Shiloach" (which means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. 8The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind before, said, "Isn't this he who sat and begged?" 9Others were saying, "It is he." Still others were saying, "He looks like him."

He said, "I am he." 10They therefore were asking him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11He answered, "A man called YaHshua made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Shiloach, and wash.' So I went away and washed, and I received sight."

12Then they asked him, "Where is he?"

He said, "I don't know."

13They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. 14It was a Shabbat when YaHshua made the mud and opened his eyes. 15Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."

16Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Shabbat." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was division among them. 17Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?"

He said, "He is a prophet."

18The Jew (Yehudim) therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, 19and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

20His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; 21but how he now sees, we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself." 22His parents said these things because they feared the Jew (Yehudim); for the Jew (Yehudim) had already agreed that if any man would confess him as the Messiah, he would be put out of the synagogue. 23Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

24So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

25He therefore answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."

26They said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

27He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't also want to become his disciples, do you?"

28They insulted him and said, "You are his disciple (talmid), but we are disciples of Moses (Moshe). 29We know that God has spoken to Moses (Moshe). But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."

30The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. 31We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does his will, he listens to him. 32Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. 33If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

34They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out.

35YaHshua heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

36He answered, "Who is he, Lord (Adoni), that I may believe in him?"

37YaHshua said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you."

38He said, "Lord (Adoni), I believe!" and he worshiped him.

39YaHshua said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."

40Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?"

41YaHshua said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

"Most assuredly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. 2But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. 3The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. 4Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. 5They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers." 6YaHshua spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.

7YaHshua therefore said to them again, "Most assuredly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. 8All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. 9I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. 10The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. 11I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. 12He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them. 13The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep. 14I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own; 15even as the FATHER knows me, and I know the FATHER. I lay down my life for the sheep. 16I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. 17Therefore the FATHER loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. 18No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this word (mitzvah) from my FATHER."

19Therefore a division arose again among the Jew (Yehudim) because of these words. 20Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?" 21Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"

22It was the Feast of Dedication (Hanukkah) at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 23It was winter, and YaHshua was walking in the temple, in Solomon (Shlomo)'s porch. 24The Jew (Yehudim) therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are theMessiah, tell us plainly."

25YaHshua answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my FATHER'S name, these testify about me. 26But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you. 27My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. 28I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. 29My FATHER, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my FATHER'S hand. 30I and the FATHER are one."

31Therefore Jew (Yehudim) took up stones again to stone him. 32YaHshua answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my FATHER. For which of those works do you stone me?"

33The Jew (Yehudim) answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

34YaHshua answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are Gods?' 35If he called them Gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can't be broken),

[36]Do you say of him whom the FATHER sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God?' [37]If I don't do the works of my FATHER, don't believe me. [38]But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the FATHER is in me, and I in my FATHER."

[39]They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. [40]He went away again beyond the Jordan (Yarden) into the place where John (Yochanan) was immersing at first, and there he stayed. [41]Many came to him. They said, "John (Yochanan) indeed did no sign, but everything that John (Yochanan) said about this man is true." [42]Many believed in him there.

Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus (Elazar) from Beit-Anyah, of the village of Miryam and her sister, Marta. [2]It was that Miryam who had anointed the Lord (Adoni) with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus (Elazar), was sick. [3]The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord (Adoni), behold, he for whom you have great affection is sick." [4]But when YaHshua heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it." [5]Now YaHshua loved Marta, and her sister, and Lazarus (Elazar). [6]When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. [7]Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go into Judah (Yehudah) again."

[8]The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Jew (Yehudim) were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

[9]YaHshua answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world. [10]But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him." [11]He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus (Elazar), has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."

[12]The disciples therefore said, "Lord (Adoni), if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

[13]Now YaHshua had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. [14]So YaHshua said to them plainly then, "Lazarus (Elazar) is dead. [15]I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him."

[16]Thomas (Toma) therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go also, that we may die with him."

17So when YaHshua came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. 18Now Beit-Anyah was near Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), about fifteen stadia away. 19Many of the Jew (Yehudim) had joined the women around Marta and Miryam, to console them concerning their brother. 20Then when Marta heard that YaHshua was coming, she went and met him, but Miryam stayed in the house. 21Therefore Marta said to YaHshua, "Lord (Adoni), if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died. 22Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you." 23YaHshua said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

24Marta said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

25YaHshua said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he die, yet will he live. 26Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

27She said to him, "Yes, Lord (Adoni). I have come to believe that you are theMessiah, God's Son, he who comes into the world."

28When she had said this, she went away, and called Miryam, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."

29When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. 30Now YaHshua had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Marta met him. 31Then the Jew (Yehudim) who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Miryam, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." 32Therefore when Miryam came to where YaHshua was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord (Adoni), if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died."

33When YaHshua therefore saw her weeping, and the Jew (Yehudim) weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34and said, "Where have you laid him?"

They told him, "Lord (Adoni), come and see."

35YaHshua wept.

36The Jew (Yehudim) therefore said, "See how much affection he had for him!" 37Some of them said, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?"

38YaHshua therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. 39YaHshua said, "Take away the stone."

Marta, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord (Adoni), by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

40YaHshua said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?"

41So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. YaHshua lifted up his eyes, and said, "FATHER, I thank you that you listened to me. 42I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me." 43When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus (Elazar), come out!"

44He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

YaHshua said to them, "Free him, and let him go."

45Therefore many of the Jew (Yehudim), who came to Miryam and saw what YaHshua did, believed in him. 46But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which YaHshua had done. 47The chief Priest (Kohanim) therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? For this man does many signs. 48If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

49But a certain one of them, Kayafa, being High Priest (Kohen Gadol) that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish." 51Now he didn't say this of himself, but being High Priest (Kohen Gadol) that year, he prophesied that YaHshua would die for the nation, 52and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. 53So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put him to death. 54YaHshua therefore walked no more openly among the Jew (Yehudim), but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Efrayim. He stayed there with his disciples.

Then six days before the Passover (Pesach), YaHshua came to Beit-Anyah, where Lazarus (Elazar) was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. 2So they made him a supper there. Marta served, but Lazarus (Elazar) was one of those who sat at the table with him. 3Miryam, therefore, took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of YaHshua, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. 4Then Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), Simon (Shimon)'s son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, 5"Why wasn't this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?" 6Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it. 7But YaHshua said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. 8For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me."

9A large crowd therefore of the Jew (Yehudim) learned that he was there, and they came, not for YaHshua's sake only, but that they might see Lazarus (Elazar) also, whom he had raised from the dead. 10But the chief Priest (Kohanim) conspired to put Lazarus (Elazar) to death also, 11because on account of him many of the Jew (Yehudim) went away and believed in YaHshua.

12On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that YaHshua was coming to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), 13they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hoshia`na! Blessed is he who comes in the name of YaHWeH, the King of Yisrael!"

14YaHshua, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written, 15"Don't be afraid, daughter of Zion (Tziyon). Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's colt." 16His disciples didn't understand these things at first, but when YaHshua was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him. 17The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus (Elazar) out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it. 18For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign. 19The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him."

20Now there were certain Gentiles (Yebanim) among those that went up to worship at the feast. 21These, therefore, came to Philip (Pilipos), who was from Beit-Tzaidah of the Galil, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see YaHshua." 22Philip (Pilipos) came and told Andrew (Andrai), and in turn, Andrew (Andrai) came with Philip (Pilipos), and they told YaHshua. 23YaHshua answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24Most assuredly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. 26If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the FATHER will honor him.

27"Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'FATHER, save me from this time?' But for this cause I came to this time. 28 FATHER, glorify your name!"

Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

30YaHshua answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes. 31Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. 32And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." 33But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. 34The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that theMessiah remains forever. How do you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up?' Who is this Son of Man?"

35YaHshua therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going. 36While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light." YaHshua said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. 37But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him, 38that the word of Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke,
"Lord (Adoni), who has believed our report?
To whom has the arm of YaHWeH been revealed?"

39For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah (Yeshayah) said again, 40"He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart,
Lest they should see with their eyes,
And perceive with their heart,
And would turn,
And I would heal them."

41Isaiah (Yeshayah) said these things when he saw his glory, and spoke of him. 42Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue, 43for they loved men's praise more than God's praise.

44YaHshua cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me. 45He who sees me sees him who sent me. 46I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness. 47If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day. 49For I spoke not from myself, but the FATHER who sent me, he gave me a word (mitzvah), what I should say, and what I should speak. 50I know that his word (mitzvah) is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the FATHER has said to me, so I speak."

Now before the feast of the Passover (Pesach), YaHshua knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the FATHER, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. 2After supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), Simon (Shimon)'s son, to betray him, 3YaHshua, knowing that the FATHER had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God, 4arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist. 5Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. 6Then he came to Simon Peter (Shimon Rock). He said to him, "Lord (Adoni), do you wash my feet?"

7YaHshua answered him, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."

8Simon (Shimon) said to him, "You will never wash my feet!"

YaHshua answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with me."

9Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) said to him, "Lord (Adoni), not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

10YaHshua said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." 11For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, "You are not all clean." 12So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? 13You call me, 'Teacher' and 'Lord (Adoni).' You say so correctly, for so I am. 14If I then, the Lord (Adoni) and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. 16Most assuredly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his Lord (Adoni), neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. 18I don't speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.' 19From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I AM. 20Most assuredly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me."

21When YaHshua had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Most assuredly I tell you that one of you will betray me."

25He, leaning back, as he was, on YaHshua's breast, asked him, "Lord (Adoni), who is it?"

26YaHshua therefore answered, "It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judah (Yehudah), the son of Simon Iscariot (Shimon Ish-K'riot). 27After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.

Then YaHshua said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him. 29For some thought, because Judah (Yehudah) had the money box, that YaHshua said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. 30Therefore, having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.

31When he had gone out, YaHshua said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and the FATHER has been glorified in him. 32If the FATHER has been glorified in him, the FATHER will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. 33Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jew (Yehudim), 'Where I am going, you can't come,' so now I tell you. 34A new word (mitzvah) I give to you, that you love one another, just like I have loved you; that you also love one another. 35By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

36Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) said to him, "Lord (Adoni), where are you going?"

YaHshua answered, "Where I am going, you can't follow now, but you will follow afterwards."

37Simon (Shimon) said to him, "Lord (Adoni), why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

38YaHshua answered him, "Will you lay down your life for me? Most assuredly I tell you, the rooster won't crow until you have denied me three times.

"Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me. 2In my FATHER'S house are many mansions. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. 3If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also. 4Where I go, you know, and you know the way."

5Thomas (Toma) says to him, "Lord (Adoni), we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

6YaHshua said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the FATHER, except through me. 7If you had known me, you would have known my FATHER also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him."

8Philip (Pilipos) said to him, "Lord (Adoni), show us the FATHER, and that will be enough for us."

9YaHshua said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip (Pilipos)? He who has seen me has seen the FATHER. How do you say, 'Show us the FATHER?' 10Don't you believe that I am in the FATHER, and the FATHER in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the FATHER who lives in me does his works. 11Believe me that I am in the FATHER, and the FATHER in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake. 12Most assuredly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these will he do; because I am going to my FATHER. 13Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the FATHER may be glorified in the Son. 14If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it. 15If you love me, keep my commandments (mitzvot). 16I will pray to the FATHER, and he will give you another Counselor, that he may be with you forever,—17the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. 18I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. 19Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. 20In that day you will know that I am in my FATHER, and you in me, and I in you. 21One who has my commandments (mitzvot) , and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my FATHER, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

22Judah (Yehudah) (not of K'riot) said to him, "Lord (Adoni), what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

23YaHshua answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My FATHER will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. 24He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the FATHER'S who sent me. 25I have said these things to you, while still living with you. 26But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), whom the FATHER will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. 27Peace (shalom) I leave with you. My peace (shalom) I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. 28You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said 'I am going to my FATHER;' for the FATHER is greater than I. 29Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. 30I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me. 31But that the world may know that I love the FATHER, and as the FATHER commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

"I am the true vine, and my FATHER is the farmer. 2Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. 3You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. 5I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. 6If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

8"In this is my FATHER glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples (talmidim). 9Even as the FATHER has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love. 10If you keep my commandments (mitzvot) , you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my FATHER'S commandments (mitzvot) , and remain in his love. 11I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.

12"This is my word (mitzvah), that you love one another, even as I have loved you.
13Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. 14You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. 15No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his Lord (Adoni) does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my FATHER, I have made known to you. 16You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the FATHER in my name, he may give it to you.

17"I command these things to you, that you may love one another. 18If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. 19If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. 20Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his Lord (Adoni).' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also. 21But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me. 22If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23He who hates me, hates my FATHER also. 24If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my FATHER. 25But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'

26"When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the FATHER, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the FATHER, he will testify about me. 27You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

"These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble. 2They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. 3They will do these things because they have not known the FATHER, nor me. 4But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. 5But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. 7Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. 8When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment; 9about sin, because they don't believe in me; 10about righteousness, because I am going to my FATHER, and you won't see me any more; 11about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

12"I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now. 13However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming. 14He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you. 15All things whatever the FATHER has are mine; therefore I said that he takes of mine, and will declare it to you. 16A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."

17Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the FATHER?'" 18They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while?' We don't know what he is saying."

19Therefore YaHshua perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?' 20Most assuredly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. 22Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

23"In that day you will ask me no questions. Most assuredly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the FATHER in my name, he will give it to you. 24Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. 25I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the FATHER. 26In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the FATHER for you, 27for the FATHER himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God. 28I came out from the FATHER, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the FATHER."

29His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech. 30Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from God."

31YaHshua answered them, "Do you now believe? 32Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the FATHER is with me. 33I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace (shalom). In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."

YaHshua said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "FATHER, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; 2even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. 3This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, YaHshua the Messiah. 4I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. 5Now, FATHER, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. 6I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. 7Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, 8for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they have believed that you sent me. 9I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. 10All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. 11I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy FATHER, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. 12While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. 14I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 15I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. 16They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. 17Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth. 18As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. 19For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. 20Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, 21that they may all be one; even as you, FATHER, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. 22The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; 23I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me. 24 FATHER, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. 25Righteous FATHER, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. 26I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

When YaHshua had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. [2]Now Judah (Yehudah), who betrayed him, also knew the place, for YaHshua often resorted there with his disciples. [3]Judah (Yehudah) then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. [4]YaHshua therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

[5]They answered him, "YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret)."

YaHshua said to them, "I AM."

Judah (Yehudah) also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. [6]When therefore he said to them, "I AM," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

[7]Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret)."

[8]YaHshua answered, "I told you that I AM. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," [9]that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."

[10]Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the High Priest (Kohen Gadol)'s servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Melekh. [11]YaHshua therefore said to Simon (Shimon), "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the FATHER has given me, shall I not surely drink it?"

[12]So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jew (Yehudim), seized YaHshua and bound him, [13]and led him to Anan first, for he was father-in-law to Kayafa, who was High Priest (Kohen Gadol) that year. [14]Now it was Kayafa who advised the Jew (Yehudim) that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. [15]Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) followed YaHshua, as did another disciple (talmid). Now that disciple (talmid) was known to the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), and entered in with YaHshua into the court of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol); [16]but Simon (Shimon) was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple (talmid), who was known to the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Simon

(Shimon). 17Then the maid who kept the door said to Simon (Shimon), "Are you also one of this man's disciples?"

He said, "I am not."

18Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Simon (Shimon) was with them, standing and warming himself. 19The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) therefore asked YaHshua about his disciples, and about his teaching. 20YaHshua answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jew (Yehudim) always meet. I said nothing in secret. 21Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."

22When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped YaHshua with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) like that?"

23YaHshua answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"

24Anan sent him bound to Kayafa, the High Priest (Kohen Gadol). 25Now Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You aren't also one of his disciples, are you?"

He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26One of the servants of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), being a relative of him whose ear Simon (Shimon) had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

27Simon (Shimon) therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

28They led YaHshua therefore from Kayafa into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover (Pesach). 29Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

30They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you."

31Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Jew (Yehudim) said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32that the word of YaHshua might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

33Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called YaHshua, and said to him,
"Are you the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?"

34YaHshua answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

35Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew (Yehudi), am I? Your own nation and the chief Priest (Kohanim) delivered you to me. What have you done?"

36YaHshua answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jew (Yehudim).
But now my kingdom is not from here."

37Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

YaHshua answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

38Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Jew (Yehudim), and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. 39But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover (Pesach). Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?"

40Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Bar-Abba!" Now Bar-Abba was

So Pilate then took YaHshua, and flogged him. 2The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. 3They kept saying, "Hail, King of the Jew (Yehudim)!" and they kept slapping him.

4Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him."

5YaHshua therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!"

6When therefore the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!"

Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him."

7The Jew (Yehudim) answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

8When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. 9He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to YaHshua, "Where are you from?" But YaHshua gave him no answer. 10Pilate therefore said to him, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

11YaHshua answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

12At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jew (Yehudim) cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

13When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought YaHshua out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabta." 14Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover (Pesach), at about the sixth hour. He said to the Jew (Yehudim), "Behold, your King!"

15They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!"

Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief Priest (Kohanim) answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

16So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took YaHshua and led him away. 17He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The Place of a Skull," which is called in Hebrew, "Gulgolta," 18where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and YaHshua in the middle. 19Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "YAHSHUA OF NAZARETH (NATZERET), THE KING OF THE JEW (YEHUDIM)." 20Therefore many of the Jew (Yehudim) read this title, for the place where YaHshua was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek (Yebanit). 21The chief Priest (Kohanim) of the Jew (Yehudim) therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jew (Yehudim),' but, 'he said, I am King of the Jew (Yehudim).'"

22Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23Then the soldiers, when they had crucified YaHshua, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. 24Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them.
For my cloak they cast lots."

Therefore the soldiers did these things. 25But there were standing by the cross of YaHshua his mother, and his mother's sister, Miryam the wife of Klofah, and Miryam from Magdala. 26Therefore when YaHshua saw his mother, and the disciple (talmid) whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!" 27Then he said to the disciple (talmid), "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple (talmid) took her to his own home.

28After this, YaHshua, seeing that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty." 29Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. 30When YaHshua therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31Therefore the Jew (Yehudim), because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Shabbat (for that Shabbat was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; 33but when they came to YaHshua, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs. 34However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. 36For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken." 37Again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced."

38After these things, Joseph (Yosef) of Ramatayim, being a disciple (talmid) of YaHshua, but secretly for fear of the Jew (Yehudim), asked of Pilate that he might take away YaHshua's body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. 39Nakdimon, who at first came to YaHshua by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. 40So they took YaHshua's body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jew (Yehudim) is to bury. 41Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. 42Then because of the Jew (Yehudim)' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid YaHshua there.

Now on the first day of the week, Miryam from Magdala went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. 2Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter (Shimon Rock), and to the other disciple (talmid) whom YaHshua loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord (Adoni) out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"

3Therefore Simon (Shimon) and the other disciple (talmid) went out, and they went toward the tomb. 4They both ran together. The other disciple (talmid) outran Simon (Shimon), and came to the tomb first. 5Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in. 6Then Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, 7and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8So then the other disciple (talmid) who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. 9For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. 10So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

11But Miryam was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, 12and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of YaHshua had lain. 13They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord (Adoni), and I don't know where they have laid him." 14When she had said this, she turned around and saw YaHshua standing, and didn't know that it was YaHshua.

15YaHshua said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

16YaHshua said to her, "Miryam."

She turned and said to him, "Rhabbouni!" which is to say, "Teacher!"

17YaHshua said to her, "Don't touch me, for I haven't yet ascended to my FATHER; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my FATHER and your FATHER, to my God and your God.'"

18Miryam from Magdala came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord (Adoni), and that he had said these things to her. 19When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jew (Yehudim), YaHshua came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace (shalom) be to you."

20When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord (Adoni). 21YaHshua therefore said to them again, "Peace (shalom) be to you. As the FATHER has sent me, even so I send you." 22When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)! 23Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained."

24But Thomas (Toma), one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when YaHshua came. 25The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord (Adoni)!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

26After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas (Toma) was with them. YaHshua came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace (shalom) be to you." 27Then he said to Thomas (Toma), "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."

28Thomas (Toma) answered him, "My Lord (Adoni) and my God!"

29YaHshua said to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."

30Therefore YaHshua did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; 31but these are written, that you may believe that YaHshua is theMessiah, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

After these things, YaHshua revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. 2Simon Peter (Shimon Rock), Thomas (Toma) called Didymus, Natan'el of Kanah in the Galil, and the sons of Zabdai, and two others of his disciples were together. 3Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) said to them, "I'm going fishing."

They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. 4But when day had already come, YaHshua stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was YaHshua. 5YaHshua therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?"

They answered him, "No."

6He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some."

They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. 7That disciple (talmid) therefore whom YaHshua loved said to Simon (Shimon), "It's the Lord (Adoni)!"

So when Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) heard that it was the Lord (Adoni), he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. 8But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish. 9So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10YaHshua said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

11Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.

12YaHshua said to them, "Come and eat breakfast."

None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord (Adoni).

13Then YaHshua came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. 14This is now the third time that YaHshua was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. 15So when they had eaten their breakfast, YaHshua said to Simon Peter (Shimon Rock), "Simon (Shimon), son of Yonah, do you love me more than these?"

He said to him, "Yes, Lord (Adoni); you know that I have affection for you."

He said to him, "Feed my lambs." 16He said to him again a second time, "Simon (Shimon), son of Yonah, do you love me?"

He said to him, "Yes, Lord (Adoni); you know that I have affection for you."

He said to him, "Tend my sheep." 17He said to him the third time, "Simon (Shimon), son of Yonah, do you have affection for me?"

Simon (Shimon) was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" He said to him, "Lord (Adoni), you know everything. You know that I have affection for you."

YaHshua said to him, "Feed my sheep. 18Most assuredly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don't want to go."

19Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

20Then Simon (Shimon), turning around, saw a disciple (talmid) following. This was the disciple (talmid) whom YaHshua sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on YaHshua's breast at the supper and asked, "Lord (Adoni), who is going to betray You?" 21Simon (Shimon) seeing him, said to YaHshua, "Lord (Adoni), what about this man?"

22YaHshua said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." 23This saying therefore went out among the brothers, that this disciple (talmid) wouldn't die. Yet YaHshua didn't say to him that he wouldn't die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?" 24This is the disciple (talmid) who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. 25There are also many other things which YaHshua did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't have room for the books that would be written.

Notes:

Matthew

The book of the generation of YaHshua the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham. 2Abraham became the father of Issac (Yitzchak). Issac (Yitzchak) became the father of Jacob (Yaaqob). Jacob (Yaaqob) became the father of Judah (Yehudah) and his brothers. 3Judah (Yehudah) became the father of Perets and Zerach by Tamar. Perets became the father of Hetzron. Hetzron became the father of Ram. 4Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nachshon. Nachshon became the father of Salmon. 5Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rachab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse (Yishai). 6Jesse (Yishai) became the father of David the king. David became the father of Solomon (Shlomo) by her who had been the wife of Uriyah. 7Solomon (Shlomo) became the father of Rechabam. Rechabam became the father of Abiyah. Abiyah became the father of Asa. 8Asa became the father of Yehoshafat. Yehoshafat became the father of Yoram. Yoram became the father of `Uzziyah. 9`Uzziyah became the father of Yotam. Yotam became the father of Achaz. Achaz became the father of Hizkiyah. 10Hizkiyah became the father of Menashsheh. Menashsheh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Yoshiyah. 11Yoshiyah became the father of Yekhonyah and his brothers, at the time of the exile to Babel. 12After the exile to Babel, Yekhonyah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel. 13Zerubbabel became the father of Abichud. Abichud became the father of Elyakim. Elyakim became the father of Azur. 14Azur became the father of Tzadok. Tzadok became the father of Yakhin. Yakhin became the father of Eliud. 15Eliud became the father of El`azar. El`azar became the father of Mattan. Mattan became the father of Jacob (Yaaqob). 16Jacob (Yaaqob) became the father of Joseph (Yosef), the husband of Miryam, from whom was born YaHshua, who is called the Messiah. 17So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babel fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babel to theMessiah, fourteen generations.

18Now the birth of YaHshua the Messiah was like this; for after his mother, Miryam, was engaged to Joseph (Yosef), before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 19Joseph (Yosef), her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. 20But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of El (God) appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph (Yosef), son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Miryam, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 21She shall bring forth a son. You shall call his name YaHshua, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins."

22Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by YaHWeH through the prophet, saying, 23"Behold, the virgin shall be with child,
And shall bring forth a son.
They shall call his name Immanuel;"
Which is, being interpreted, "God with us."

24Joseph (Yosef) arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of El (God) commanded him, and took his wife to himself; 25and didn't know her sexually until she had brought forth her firstborn son. He named him YaHshua.

Now when YaHshua was born in Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem) of Judah (Yehudah) in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, 2"Where is he who is born King of the Jew (Yehudim)? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him." 3When Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with him. 4Gathering together all the chief Priest (Kohanim) and Scribes of the people, he asked them where theMessiah would be born. 5They said to him, "In Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem) of Judah (Yehudah), for thus it is written through the prophet, 6'You Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem), land of Judah (Yehudah),
Are in no way least among the princes of Judah (Yehudah):
For out of you shall come forth a governor,
Who shall shepherd my people, Yisrael.'"

7Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. 8He sent them to Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem), and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him."

9They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was. 10When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. 11They came into the house and saw the young child with Miryam, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped

him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. 12Being warned in a dream that they shouldn't return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

13Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of EL (God) appeared to Joseph (Yosef) in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Eygpt (Mitzrayim), and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."

14He arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Eygpt (Mitzrayim), 15and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by YaHWeH through the prophet, saying, "Out of Eygpt (Mitzrayim) I called my son."

16Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem) and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. 17Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) the prophet was fulfilled, saying,
18"A voice was heard in Ramah,
Lamentation, weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children;
She wouldn't be comforted,
Because they are no more."

19But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of EL (God) appeared in a dream to Joseph (Yosef) in Eygpt (Mitzrayim), saying, 20"Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into Land-Yisrael, for those who sought the young child's life are dead."

21He arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into Land-Yisrael. 22But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judah (Yehudah) in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of the Galil, 23and came and lived in a city called Nazareth (Natzeret); that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazareth (Natzri)."

In those days, John (Yochanan) the immerser came, preaching in the wilderness of Judah (Yehudah), saying, 2"Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!" 3For this is he who was spoken of by Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet, saying,
"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ready the way of YaHWeH,
Make his paths straight."

10"Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 11I indeed immerse you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 12His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire."

13Then YaHshua came from the Galil to the Jordan (Yarden) to John (Yochanan), to be immersed by him. 14But John (Yochanan) would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be immersed by you, and you come to me?"

15But YaHshua, answering, said to him, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. 16YaHshua, when he was immersed, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of the FATHER descending as a dove, and coming on him. 17Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

Then YaHshua was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.
2When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. 3The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread."

4But he answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of YaHWeH.'"

5Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will give his angels charge concerning you.' and,
'On their hands they will bear you up,
So that you don't dash your foot against a stone.'"

7YaHshua said to him, "Again, it is written, 'You shall not test YaHWeH, your God (Elohim).'"

8Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. 9He said to him, "I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me."

10Then YaHshua said to him, "Get behind me, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship YaHWeH your God (Elohim), and him only shall you serve.'"

11Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him. 12Now when YaHshua heard that John (Yochanan) was delivered up, he withdrew into the Galil.
13Leaving Nazareth (Natzeret), he came and lived in Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naftali, 14that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet, saying, 15"The land of Zebulun and the land of Naftali, Toward the sea, beyond the Jordan (Yarden), Galil of the Gentiles (Goyim), 16The people who sat in darkness saw a great light,
To those who sat in the region and shadow of death,
To them light has dawned."

17From that time, YaHshua began to preach, and to say, "Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand."

18Walking by the sea of the Galil, he saw two brothers: Simon (Shimon), who is called Rock, and Andrew (Andrai), his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. 19He said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men."

20They immediately left their nets and followed him. 21Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, Jacob (Yaaqob) the son of Zabdai, and John (Yochanan) his brother, in the boat with Zabdai their father, mending their nets. He called them. 22They immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23YaHshua went about in all Galil, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 24The report about him went out into all Aram. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. 25Great multitudes from the Galil, Decapolis, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), Judah (Yehudah) and from beyond the Jordan (Yarden) followed him.

Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him. 2He opened his mouth and taught them, saying, 3"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
For theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
4Blessed are those who mourn,
For they shall be comforted.
5Blessed are the gentle,
For they shall inherit the earth.
6Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness,
For they shall be filled.
7Blessed are the merciful,
For they shall obtain mercy.
8Blessed are the pure in heart,
For they shall see God.
9Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called children of (El).
10Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness' sake,
For theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

11"Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. 12Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13"You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. 14You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can't be hidden. 15Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. 16Even so, let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your FATHER who is in heaven.

17"Don't think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn't come to destroy, but to fulfill. 18For most assuredly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter or one tiny pen stroke shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished. 19Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments (mitzvot) , and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. 20For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the Scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

21"You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, 'You shall not murder;' and 'Whoever shall murder shall be in danger of the judgment.' 22But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment; and whoever shall say to his brother, 'Reyka!'(worthless) shall be in danger of the council; and whoever shall say, 'Shoteh!'(fool) shall be in danger of the fire of Gehinnom.

23"If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, 24leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. 25Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him in the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. 26Most assuredly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last peruta.

27"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery;' 28but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole body to be cast into Gehinnom. 30If your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and throw it away from you: for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not your whole body be thrown into Gehinnom.

31"It was also said, 'Whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorce,' 32but I tell you that whoever puts away his wife, except for the cause of sexual immorality, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries her when she is put away commits adultery.

33"Again you have heard that it was said to them of old time, 'You shall not make false vows, but shall perform to YaHWeH your vows,' 34but I tell you, don't swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; 35nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), for it is the city of the great King. 36Neither shall you swear by your head, for you can't make one hair white or black. 37But let your 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No' be 'no.' Whatever is more than these is of the evil one.

38"You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.' 39But I tell you, don't resist him who is evil; but whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40If anyone sues you to take away your coat, let him have your cloak also. 41Whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two. 42Give to him who asks you, and don't turn away him who desires to borrow from you.

43"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy.' 44But I tell you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you, 45that you may be children of your FATHER who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. 46For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? 47If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don't even the tax collectors do the same? 48Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your FATHER in heaven is perfect.

"Be careful that you don't do your charitable giving before men, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward from your FATHER who is in heaven. 2Therefore when you do merciful deeds, don't sound a trumphet (shofarl) before yourself, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may get glory from men. Most assuredly I tell you, they have received their reward. 3But when you do merciful deeds, don't let your left hand know what your right hand does, 4so that your merciful deeds may be in secret, then your FATHER who sees in secret will reward you openly.

5"When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most assuredly, I tell you, they have received their reward. 6But you, when you pray, enter into your inner chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your FATHER who is in secret, and your FATHER who sees in secret will reward you openly. 7In praying, don't use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles (Goyim) do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking. 8Therefore don't be like them, for your FATHER knows what things you need, before you ask him. 9Pray like this: 'Our FATHER in heaven, may your name be kept holy. 10Let your kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. 11Give us today our daily bread. 12Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. 13Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. .'

14"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly FATHER will also forgive you. 15But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your FATHER forgive your trespasses.

16"Moreover when you fast, don't be like the hypocrites, with sad faces. For they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by men to be fasting. Most assuredly I tell you, they have received their reward. 17But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face; 18so that you are not seen by men to be fasting, but by your FATHER who is in secret, and your FATHER, who sees in secret, will reward you.

19"Don't lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal; 20but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves don't break through and steal; 21for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

22"The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light. 23But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

24"No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon. 25Therefore, I tell you, don't be anxious for your life: what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing? 26See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly FATHER feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?

27"Which of you, by being anxious, can add one cubit to the measure of his life? 28Why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin, 29yet I tell you that even Solomon (Shlomo) in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. 30But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, won't he much more clothe you, you of little faith?

31"Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?' 32For the Gentiles (Goyim) seek after all these things, for your heavenly FATHER knows that you need all these things. 33But seek first The FATHER's Kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well.
34Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

"Don't judge, so that you won't be judged. 2For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you.
3Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? 4Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye? 5You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

6"Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither throw your pearls before the pigs, lest perhaps they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

7"Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you. 8For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. 9Or who is there among you, who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? 10Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent? 11If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your FATHER who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! 12Therefore whatever you desire for men to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets.

13"Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it. 14How narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it.

15"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. 16By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? 17Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit. 18A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit. 19Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire. 20Therefore, by their fruits you will know them. 21Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord (Adoni), Lord (Adoni),' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my FATHER who is in heaven. 22Many will tell me in that day, 'Lord

(Adoni), Lord (Adoni), didn't we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?' 23Then I will tell them, 'I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.'

24"Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his house on a rock.25The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it didn't fall, for it was founded on the rock. 26Everyone who hears these words of mine, and doesn't do them will be like a foolish man, who built his house on the sand. 27The rain came down, the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat on that house; and it fell—and great was its fall."

28It happened, when YaHshua had finished saying these things, that the multitudes were astonished at his teaching, 29for he taught them with authority, and not like the Scribes.

When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. 2Behold, a leper came to him and worshiped him, saying, "Lord (Adoni), if you want to, you can make me clean."

3YaHshua stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4YaHshua said to him, "See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the Priest, and offer the gift that Moses (Moshe) commanded, as a testimony to them."

5When he came into Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), a centurion came to him, asking him, 6and saying, "Lord (Adoni), my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented."

7YaHshua said to him, "I will come and heal him."

8The centurion answered, "Lord (Adoni), I'm not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. 9For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and tell another, 'Come,' and he comes; and tell my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

10When YaHshua heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, "Most assuredly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Yisrael. 11I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Issac (Yitzchak), and Jacob (Yaaqob) in the Kingdom of Heaven, 12but the children of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth."

13YaHshua said to the centurion, "Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed." His servant was healed in that hour.

14When YaHshua came into Simon (Shimon)'s house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever. 15He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and served him. 16When evening came, they brought to him many possessed with demons. He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick; 17that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet, saying: "He took our infirmities, and bore our diseases." 18Now when YaHshua saw great multitudes around him, he gave the order to depart to the other side.

19A Scribe (Sofer) came, and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

20YaHshua said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head."

21Another of his disciples said to him, "Lord (Adoni), allow me first to go and bury my father."

22But YaHshua said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

23When he got into a boat, his disciples followed him. 24Behold, a great tempest arose in the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but he was asleep. 25They came to him, and woke him up, saying, "Save us, Lord (Adoni)! We are dying!"

26He said to them, "Why are you fearful, oh you of little faith?" Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.

27The men marveled, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

28When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gadarenes, two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass by that way. 29Behold, they cried out, saying, "What do we have to do with you, YaHshua, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" 30Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them. 31The demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs."

32He said to them, "Go!"

They came out, and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water. 33Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons. 34Behold, all the city came out to meet YaHshua. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

He entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. 2Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. YaHshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you."

3Behold, some of the Scribes said to themselves, "This man blasphemes."

4YaHshua, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? 5For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Get up, and walk?' 6But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." (then he said to the paralytic), "Get up, and take up your mat, and go up to your house."

9As YaHshua passed by from there, he saw a man called Mattityah sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, "Follow me." He got up and followed him. 10It happened as he sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with YaHshua and his disciples. 11When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

12When YaHshua heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. 13But you go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

15YaHshua said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. 17Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

18While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

19YaHshua got up and followed him, as did his disciples. 20Behold, a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the hem (tzitziyot) of his garment; 21for she said within herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be made well."

22But YaHshua, turning around and seeing her, said, "Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

23When YaHshua came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder, 24he said to them, "Make room, because the girl isn't dead, but sleeping."

They were ridiculing him. 25But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose. 26The report of this went out into all that land. 27As YaHshua passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, "Have mercy on us, son of David!"

28When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. YaHshua said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They told him, "Yes, Lord (Adoni)."

29Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." 30Their eyes were opened. YaHshua strictly charged them, saying, "See that no one knows about this." 31But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

32As they went out, behold, a mute man who was demon possessed was brought to him. 33When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Yisrael!"

34But the Pharisees said, "By the prince of the demons, he casts out demons."

35YaHshua went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 36But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. 37Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few. 38Pray therefore that the Lord (Adoni) of the harvest will send out laborers into his harvest."

He called to himself his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. [2]Now the names of the twelve apostles are these. The first, Simon (Shimon), who is called Peter (Rock); Andrew (Andrai), his brother; Jacob (Yaaqob) the son of Zabdai; John (Yochanan), his brother; [3]Philip (Pilipos); Bartholomew (Bar-Talmai); Thomas (Toma); Mattityah the tax collector; Jacob (Yaaqob) the son of Halfai; and Lebbai, whose surname was Taddi; [4]Simon (Shimon) the Canaanite (Kanaani); and Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), who also betrayed him.

[5]YaHshua sent these twelve out, and charged them, saying, "Don't go among the Gentiles (Goyim), and don't enter into any city of the Samaria (Shomroni). [6]Rather, go to the lost sheep of the house of Yisrael. [7]As you go, preach, saying, 'The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!' [8]Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons. Freely you received, so freely give. [9]Don't take any gold, nor silver, nor brass in your money belts. [10]Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food. [11]Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on. [12]As you enter into the household, greet it. [13]If the household is worthy, let your peace (shalom) come on it, but if it isn't worthy, let your peace (shalom) return to you. [14]Whoever doesn't receive you, nor hear your words, as you go out out of that house or that city, shake off the dust from your feet. [15]Most assuredly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sedom and `Amorah in the day of judgment than for that city.

[16]"Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. [17]But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you. [18]Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the Gentiles (Goyim). [19]But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say. [20]For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your FATHER who speaks in you.

[21]"Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. [22]You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. [23]But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most assuredly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Yisrael, until the Son of Man has come.

24"A disciple (talmid) is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his Lord (Adoni). 25It is enough for the disciple (talmid) that he be like his teacher, and the servant like his Lord (Adoni). If they have called the master of the house Baal-Zibbul, how much more those of his household! 26Therefore don't be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed; and hidden that will not be known. 27What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops. 28Don't be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehinnom.

29"Aren't two sparrows sold for an assarion? Not one of them falls on the ground apart from your FATHER'S will, 30but the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows. 32Everyone therefore who confesses me before men, him I will also confess before my FATHER who is in heaven. 33But whoever denies me before men, him I will also deny before my FATHER who is in heaven.

34"Don't think that I came to send peace (shalom) on the earth. I didn't come to send peace (shalom), but a sword. 35For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. 36A man's foes will be those of his own household. 37He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn't worthy of me. 38He who doesn't take his cross and follow after me, isn't worthy of me. 39He who finds his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it. 40He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. 41He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward: and he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. 42Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple (talmid), most assuredly I tell you he will in no way lose his reward."

It happened that when YaHshua had finished directing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities. 2Now when John (Yochanan) heard in the prison the works of the Messiah, he sent two of his disciples 3and said to him, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"

4YaHshua answered them, "Go and tell John (Yochanan) the things which you hear and see: 5the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. 6Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me."

Matthew

7As these went their way, YaHshua began to say to the multitudes concerning John (Yochanan), "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8But what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in king's houses. 9But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 10For this is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.' 11Most assuredly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John (Yochanan) the immerser; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. 12From the days of John (Yochanan) the immerser until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. 13For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John (Yochanan). 14If you are willing to receive it, this is Eliyah, who is to come. 15He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

16"But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions 17and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance. We mourned for you, and you didn't lament.' 18For John (Yochanan) came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by her children."

20Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn't repent. 21"Woe to you, Kora'zin! Woe to you, Beit-Tzaidah! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon) which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon) on the day of judgment than for you. 23You, Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), who are exalted to Heaven, you will go down to the grave (Sheol). For if the mighty works had been done in Sedom which were done in you, it would have remained until this day. 24But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sedom, on the day of judgment, than for you."

25At that time, YaHshua answered, "I thank you, FATHER, Lord (Adoni) of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants. 26Yes, FATHER, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. 27All things have been delivered to me by my FATHER. No one knows the Son, except the FATHER; neither does anyone know the FATHER, except the Son, and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

28"Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. 29Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart; and you will find rest for your souls. 30For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

At that time, YaHshua went on the day of Shabbat through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. 2But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, "Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Shabbat."

3But he said to them, "Haven't you read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him; 4how he entered into the house of God, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the Priest (Kohanim)? 5Or have you not read in the law, that on the day of Shabbat, the Priest (Kohanim) in the temple profane the Shabbat, and are guiltless? 6But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. 7But if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the guiltless. 8For the Son of Man is Lord (Adoni) of the Shabbat."

9He departed there, and went into their synagogue. 10And behold there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the day of Shabbat?" that they might accuse him.

11He said to them, "What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the day of Shabbat, won't he grab on to it, and lift it out? 12Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the day of Shabbat." 13Then he told the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other. 14But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. 15YaHshua, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, 16and charged them that they should not make him known: 17that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet, saying,
18"Behold, my servant whom I have chosen;
My beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:
I will put my Spirit on him.
He will proclaim justice to the Gentiles (Goyim).
19He will not strive, nor shout;
Neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.
20He won't break a bruised reed.
He won't quench a smoking flax,
Until he leads justice to victory.
21In his name, the Gentiles (Goyim) will hope."

22Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. 23All the multitudes were amazed, and said, "Can this be the son of David?" 24But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This man does not cast out demons, except by Baal-Zibbul, the prince of the demons."

30"He who is not with me is against me, and he who doesn't gather with me, scatters. 31Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. 32Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), it will not be forgiven him, neither in this world, nor in that which is to come.

33"Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit. 34You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. 35The good man out of his good treasure brings out good things, and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings out evil things. 36I tell you that every idle word that men speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. 37For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

39But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given it but the sign of Yonah the prophet. 40For as Yonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Yonah; and behold, someone greater than Yonah is here. 42The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon (Shlomo); and behold, someone greater than Solomon (Shlomo) is here. 43But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn't find it. 44Then he says, 'I will return into my house from which I came out,' and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. 45Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation."

46While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. 47One said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you."

48But he answered him who spoke to him, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" 49He stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! 50For whoever does the will of my FATHER who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

On that day YaHshua went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. 2Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the multitude stood on the beach. 3He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow. 4As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. 5Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. 6When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. 7Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them: 8and others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. 9He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

10The disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

11He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. 12For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. 13Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand. 14In them the prophecy of Isaiah (Yeshayah) is fulfilled, which says,
'By hearing you will hear,
And will in no way understand;
Seeing you will see,
And will in no way perceive:

15For this people's heart has grown callous,
Their ears are dull of hearing,
They have closed their eyes;
Or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes,
Hear with their ears,
Understand with their heart,
And should turn again;
And I would heal them.'

16"But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. 17For most assuredly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.

18"Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. 19When anyone hears the word of the kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. 20What was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; 21yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. 22What was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. 23What was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who most assuredly bears fruit, and brings forth, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty."

24He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25but while people slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel also among the wheat, and went away. 26But when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the darnel appeared also. 27The servants of the householder came and said to him, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Where did this darnel come from?'

28"He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.'

"The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and gather them up?'

29"But he said, 'No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel, you root up the wheat with them. 30Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the darnel, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn."'"

31He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field; 32which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."

33He spoke another parable to them. "The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, until it was all leavened."

34YaHshua spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn't speak to them, 35that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,
"I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

36Then YaHshua sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field."

37He answered them, "He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man, 38the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the kingdom; and the darnel are the children of the evil one. 39The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. 40As therefore the darnel is gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of this age. 41The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity, 42and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth. 43Then the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their FATHER. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

44"Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

45"Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46who having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47"Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind, 48which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away. 49So will it be in the end of the world. The angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from among the righteous, 50and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth." 51YaHshua said to them, "Have you understood all these things?"

They answered him, "Yes, Lord (Adoni)."

53It happened that when YaHshua had finished these parables, he departed from there. 54Coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom, and these mighty works? 55Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother called Miryam, and his brothers, Jacob (Yaaqob), Yosi, Simon (Shimon), and Judah (Yehudah)? 56Aren't all of his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all of these things?" 57They were offended by him.

But YaHshua said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house." 58He didn't do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning YaHshua, 2and said to his servants, "This is John (Yochanan) the immerser. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him." 3For Herod had laid hold of John (Yochanan), and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip (Pilipos)'s wife. 4For John (Yochanan) said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5When he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. 6But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced among them and pleased Herod. 7Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask. 8She, being prompted by her mother, said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John (Yochanan) the immerser."

9The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths, and of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it to be given, 10and he sent and beheaded John (Yochanan) in the prison. 11His head was brought on a platter, and given to the young lady: and she brought it to her mother. 12His disciples came, and took the body, and buried it; and they went and told YaHshua. 13Now when YaHshua heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat, to a deserted place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed him on foot from the cities.

14YaHshua went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them, and healed their sick. 15When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, "This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food."

16But YaHshua said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

18He said, "Bring them here to me." 19He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes. 20They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces. 21Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

22Immediately YaHshua made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. 23After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone. 24But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. 25In the fourth watch of the night, YaHshua came to them, walking on the sea. 26When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear. 27But immediately YaHshua spoke to them, saying "Cheer up! I AM! Don't be afraid."

28Simon (Shimon) answered him and said, "Lord (Adoni), if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."

29He said, "Come!"

Simon (Shimon) stepped down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to YaHshua. 30But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord (Adoni), save me!"

31Immediately YaHshua stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased. 33Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, "You are truly the Son of God!"

34When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Ginosar. 35When the men of that place recognized him, they sent into all that surrounding region, and brought to him all who were sick, 36and they begged him that they might just touch the hem (tzitzit) of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

Then Pharisees and Scribes came to YaHshua from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, 2"Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the Elders (Zakenim)? For they don't wash their hands when they eat bread."

3He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the word (mitzvah) of God because of your tradition? 4For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.' 5But you say, 'Whoever may tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God," 6he shall not honor his father or mother.' You have made the word (mitzvah) of God void because of your tradition. 7You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah (Yeshayah) prophesy of you, saying,
8'These people draw near to me with their mouth,
And honor me with their lips;
But their heart is far from me.
9And in vain do they worship me,
Teaching as doctrine rules made by men.'"

10He summoned the multitude, and said to them, "Hear, and understand. 11That which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

12Then the disciples came, and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?"

13But he answered, "Every plant which my heavenly FATHER didn't plant will be uprooted. 14Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit."

15Simon (Shimon) answered him, "Explain the parable to us."

16So YaHshua said, "Do you also still not understand? 17Don't you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and then out of the body? 18But the things which proceed out of the mouth come out of the heart, and they defile the man. 19For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies. 20These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn't defile the man."

21YaHshua went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon). 22Behold, a Canaanite (Kanaani) woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord (Adoni), you son of David! My daughter is severely demonized!"

23But he answered her not a word.

His disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away; for she cries after us."

24But he answered, "I wasn't sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Yisrael."

25But she came and worshiped him, saying, "Lord (Adoni), help me."

26But he answered, "It is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

27But she said, "Yes, Lord (Adoni), but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters' table."

28Then YaHshua answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29YaHshua departed there, and came near to the sea of the Galil; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. 30Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them, 31so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, injured whole, lame walking, and blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Yisrael.

32YaHshua summoned his disciples and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way."

33The disciples said to him, "Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?"

34YaHshua said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

35He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; 36and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 37They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. 38Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

The Pharisees and Sadducees (Tzedukim) came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven. [2]But he answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' [3]In the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can't discern the signs of the times! [4]An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of the prophet Yonah."

He left them, and departed. [5]The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. [6]YaHshua said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees (Tzedukim)."

[8]YaHshua, perceiving it, said, "Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, 'because you have brought no bread?' [9]Don't you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? [10]Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? [11]How is it that you don't perceive that I didn't speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees (Tzedukim)."

[12]Then they understood that he didn't tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees (Tzedukim). [13]Now when YaHshua came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

[14]They said, "Some say John (Yochanan) the immerser, some, Eliyah, and others, Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), or one of the prophets."

[15]He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

[16]Simon Peter (Shimon Rock) answered, "You are theMessiah, the Son of the living God."

[17]YaHshua answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon (Shimon) Bar-Yonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my FATHER who is in heaven. [18]I also tell you that you are Simon (Shimon), and on this rock I will build my assembly, and the gates of The grave (Sheol) will not prevail against it. [19]I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will be released in heaven." [20]Then he charged the disciples that they should tell no one that he is YaHshua the Messiah. [21]From that time, YaHshua began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and suffer many things from the Elders (Zakenim), chief Priest (Kohanim), and Scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

22Simon (Shimon) took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord (Adoni)! This will never be done to you."

23But he turned, and said to Simon (Shimon), "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." 24Then YaHshua said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. 25For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it. 26For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? 27For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his FATHER with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds. 28Most assuredly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

After six days, YaHshua took with him Simon (Shimon), Jacob (Yaaqob), and John (Yochanan) his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves. 2He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light. 3Behold, Moses (Moshe) and Eliyah appeared to them talking with him.

4Simon (Shimon) answered, and said to YaHshua, "Lord (Adoni), it is good for us to be here. If you want, let's make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses (Moshe), and one for Eliyah."

5While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

6When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid. 7YaHshua came and touched them and said, "Get up, and don't be afraid." 8Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except YaHshua alone. 9As they were coming down from the mountain, YaHshua commanded them, saying, "Don't tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

10His disciples asked him, saying, "Then why do the Scribes say that Eliyah must come first?"

11YaHshua answered them, "Eliyah indeed comes first, and will restore all things, 12but I tell you that Eliyah has come already, and they didn't recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them." 13Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John (Yochanan) the immerser.

14When they came to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him, saying, 15"Lord (Adoni), have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. 16So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him."

17YaHshua answered, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me." 18YaHshua rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

19Then the disciples came to YaHshua privately, and said, "Why weren't we able to cast it out?"

20He said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For most assuredly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. 21But this kind doesn't go out except by prayer and fasting."

22While they were staying in the Galil, YaHshua said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up."

They were exceedingly sorry. 24When they had come to Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), those who collected the didrachma coins came to Simon (Shimon), and said, "Doesn't your teacher pay the didrachma?" 25He said, "Yes."

When he came into the house, YaHshua anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon (Shimon)? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?"

26Simon (Shimon) said to him, "From strangers."

YaHshua said to him, "Therefore the children are exempt. 27But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, and cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

In that hour the disciples came to YaHshua, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"

2YaHshua called a little child to himself, and set him in the midst of them, 3and said, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 4Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. 5Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me, 6but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him that a huge millstone should be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depths of the sea.

7"Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes! 8If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. 9If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehinnom of fire. 10See that you don't despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my FATHER who is in heaven. 11For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

12"What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn't he leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray? 13If he finds it, most assuredly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray. 14Even so it is not the will of your FATHER who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

15"If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother. 16But if he doesn't listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. 17If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Goy or a tax collector. 18Most assuredly I tell you, whatever things you will bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever things you will release on earth will be released in heaven. 19Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my FATHER who is in heaven. 20For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them."

21Then Simon (Shimon) came and said to him, "Lord (Adoni), how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?"

22YaHshua said to him, "I don't tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven. 23Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to reconcile accounts with his servants. 24When he had begun to reconcile, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. 25But because he couldn't pay, his Lord (Adoni) commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26The servant therefore fell down and kneeled before him, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), have patience with me, and I will repay you all!' 27The Lord (Adoni) of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

29"So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you!' 30He would not, but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay back that which was due. 31So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their Lord (Adoni) all that was done. 32Then his Lord (Adoni) called him in, and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me. 33Shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?' 34His Lord (Adoni) was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him. 35So my heavenly FATHER will also do to you, if you don't each forgive your brother from your hearts for his misdeeds."

It happened when YaHshua had finished these words, he departed from the Galil, and came into the borders of Judah (Yehudah) beyond the Jordan (Yarden). 2Great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there. 3Pharisees came to him, testing him, and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?"

4He answered, "Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, 5and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall join to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh?' 6So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart."

7They asked him, "Why then did Moses (Moshe) command us to give her a bill of divorce, and divorce her?"

8He said to them, "Moses (Moshe), because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. 9I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery."

10His disciples said to him, "If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry."

11But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given. 12For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."

13Then little children were brought to him, that he should lay his hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. 14But YaHshua said, "Allow the little children, and don't forbid them to come to me; for to such belongs the Kingdom of Heaven." 15He laid his hands on them, and departed from there.

16Behold, one came to him and said, "Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"

17He said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments (mitzvot)."

18He said to him, "Which ones?"

YaHshua said, "'You shall not murder.' 'You shall not commit adultery.' 'You shall not steal.' 'You shall not offer false testimony.' 19'Honor your father and mother.' And, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"

20The young man said to him, "All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?"

21YaHshua said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." 22But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions. 23YaHshua said to his disciples, "Most assuredly I say to you, a rich man will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty. 24Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER."

25When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

26Looking at them, YaHshua said, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

27Then Simon (Shimon) answered, "Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?"

28YaHshua said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisrael. 29Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life. 30But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.

"For the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who was the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. 2When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3He went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace. 4To them he said, 'You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.' So they went their way. 5Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour, and did likewise. 6About the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle. He said to them, 'Why do you stand here all day idle?'

7"'They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.'

"He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.' 8When evening had come, the Lord (Adoni) of the vineyard said to his steward, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.'

9"'When those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius. 10When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius. 11When they received it, they murmured against the master of the household, [12]saying, 'These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!'

[13]"But he answered one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Didn't you agree with me for a denarius? [14]Take that which is yours, and go your way. It is my desire to give to this last just as much as to you. [15]Isn't it lawful for me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?' [16]So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen."

[17]As YaHshua was going up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, [18]"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief Priest (Kohanim) and Scribes, and they will condemn him to death, [19]and will hand him over to the Gentiles (Goyim) to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day he will be raised up."

[20]Then the mother of the sons of Zabdai came to him with her sons, kneeling and asking a certain thing of him. [21]He said to her, "What do you want?"

She said to him, "Command that these, my two sons, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your kingdom."

[22]But YaHshua answered, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?"

They said to him, "We are able."

[23]He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, and be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my FATHER."

[24]When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two brothers.

[25]But YaHshua summoned them, and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles (Goyim) Lord (Adoni) it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. [26]It shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant. [27]Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant, [28]even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

[29]As they went out from Yericho, a great multitude followed him. [30]Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that YaHshua was passing by, cried out, "Lord (Adoni), have mercy on us, you son of David!" [31]The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more, "Lord (Adoni), have mercy on us, you son of David!"

32YaHshua stood still, and called them, and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"

33They told him, "Lord (Adoni), that our eyes may be opened."

34YaHshua, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

When they drew near to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and came to Beit-Pagey, to the Mount of Olives, then YaHshua sent two disciples, 2saying to them, "Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me. 3If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord (Adoni) needs them,' and immediately he will send them."

4All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,
5"Tell the daughter of Zion (Tziyon),
Behold, your King comes to you,
Humble, and riding on a donkey,
On a colt, the foal of a donkey."

6The disciples went, and did just as YaHshua commanded them, 7and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their clothes on them; and he sat on them. 8A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road. 9The multitudes who went before him, and who followed kept shouting, "Hoshia`na (Oh save) to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord (Adoni)! Hoshia`na (Oh save) in the highest!"

10When he had come into Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), all the city was stirred up, saying, "Who is this?" 11The multitudes said, "This is the prophet, YaHshua, from Nazareth (Natzeret) of the Galil."

12YaHshua entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money-changers' tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. 13He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' but you have made it a den of robbers!"

14The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. 15But when the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, "Hoshia`na (Oh save) to the son of David!" they were indignant, 16and said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?"

YaHshua said to them, "Yes. Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?'"

17He left them, and went out of the city to Beit-Anyah, and lodged there. 18Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. 19Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, "Let there be no fruit from you forever!"

Immediately the fig tree withered away. 20When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?"

21YaHshua answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, if you have faith, and don't doubt, you will not only do what is done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it would be done. 22All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive."

23When he had come into the temple, the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Elders (Zakenim) of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?"

24YaHshua answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. 25The immersion of John (Yochanan), where was it from? From heaven or from men?"

They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, for all hold John (Yochanan) as a prophet." 27They answered YaHshua, and said, "We don't know."

He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. 28But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' 29He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind, and went. 30He came to the second, and said the same thing. He answered, 'I go, sir,' but he didn't go. 31Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They said to him, "The first."

YaHshua said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into the Kingdom of the FATHER before you. 32For John (Yochanan) came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

33"Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. 34When the season for the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruit. 35The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 36Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way. 37But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and seize his inheritance.' 39So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40When therefore the Lord (Adoni) of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

41They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruit in its season."

42YaHshua said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,
'The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner.
This was from YaHWeH.
It is marvelous in our eyes?'

43"Therefore I tell you, the Kingdom of the FATHER will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation bringing forth its fruits. 44He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whoever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust."

45When the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. 46When they sought to seize him, they feared the multitudes, because they considered him to be a prophet.

YaHshua answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, 2"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, 3and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. 4Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have made ready my dinner. My oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast!"' [5]But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, [6]and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. [7]When the king heard that, he was angry, and he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

[8]"Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. [9]Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.' [10]Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests. [11]But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, [12]and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. [13]Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' [14]For many are called, but few chosen."

[15]Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. [16]They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter who you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone. [17]Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

[18]But YaHshua perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites? [19]Show me the tax money."

They brought to him a denarius.

[20]He asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

[21]They said to him, "Caesar's."

Then he said to them, "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

[22]When they heard it, they marveled, and left him, and went away.

[23]On that day Sadducees (Tzedukim) (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him, [24]saying, "Teacher, Moses (Moshe) said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed for his brother.' [25]Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no seed left his wife to his brother. [26]In like manner the second also, and the third, to the seventh. [27]After them all, the woman died. [28]In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her."

[29]But YaHshua answered them, "You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God. [30]For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like God's angels in heaven. [31]But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven't you read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, [32]'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Issac (Yitzchak), and the God of Jacob (Yaaqob)?' God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

[33]When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. [34]But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had put the Sadducees (Tzedukim) to silence, gathered themselves together. [35]One of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him. [36]"Teacher, which is the greatest word (mitzvah) in the law?"

[37]YaHshua said to him, "'You shall love the LORD (ADONI) your FATHER with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.' [38]This is the first and great word (mitzvah). [39]A second likewise is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' [40]The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments (mitzvot)."

[41]Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, YaHshua asked them a question, [42]saying, "What do you think of theMessiah? Whose son is he?"

They said to him, "Of David."

[43]He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord (Adoni), saying,
[44]'YaHWeH said to my Lord (Adoni),
Sit on my right hand,
Until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet?'

[45]"If then David calls him Lord (Adoni), how is he his son?"

[46]No one was able to answer him a word, neither dared any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Then YaHshua spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples, [2]saying, "The Scribes and the Pharisees sat on Moses (Moshe) seat. [3]All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don't do their works; for they say, and don't do. [4]For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them. 5But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their tefillin broad, enlarge the tzitziyot (borders) of their garments, 6and love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, 7the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called 'Rabbi, Rabbi' by men. 8But don't you be called 'Rabbi,' for one is your teacher, theMessiah, and all of you are brothers. 9Call no man on the earth your father, for one is your FATHER, he who is in heaven. 10Neither be called masters, for one is your master, theMessiah. 11But he who is greatest among you will be your servant. 12Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

13"Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.

14"But woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don't enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter. 15Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much of a son of Gehinnom as yourselves.

16"Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.' 17You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold? 18'Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is a obligated.' 19You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20He therefore who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by everything on it. 21He who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by him who was living in it. 22He who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.

23"Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy, and faith. But you ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. 24You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel!

25"Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and unrighteousness. 26You blind Parush (Pharisees), first clean the inside of the cup and of the platter, that the outside of it may become clean also.

27"Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. [28]Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

[29]"Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous, [30]and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn't have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.' [31]Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are children of those who killed the prophets. [32]Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. [33]You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehinnom? [34]Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and Scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city; [35]that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel (Hebel) to the blood of Zekharyah son of Berekhyah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar. [36]Most assuredly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.

[37]"Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and you would not! [38]Behold, your house is left to you desolate. [39]For I tell you, you will not see me from now on, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the FATHER!'"

YaHshua went out from the temple, and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. [2]But he answered them, "Don't you see all of these things? Most assuredly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."

[3]As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?"

[4]YaHshua answered them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. [5]For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am theMessiah,' and will lead many astray. [6]You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet. [7]For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places. [8]But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. [9]Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake. [10]Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. [11]Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray. 12Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. 13But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. 14This Good News of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

15"When, therefore, you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of through Daniyel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), 16then let those who are in Judah (Yehudah) flee to the mountains. 17Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house. 18Let him who is in the field not return back to get his clothes. 19But woe to those who are with child and to nursing mothers in those days! 20Pray that your flight will not be in the winter, nor on a Shabbat, 21for then there will be great oppression, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be. 22Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen ones, those days will be shortened.

23"Then if any man tells you, 'Behold, here is theMessiah,' or, 'There,' don't believe it. 24For there will arise false the Messiahs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

25"Behold, I have told you beforehand. 26If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' don't go out; 'Behold, he is in the inner chambers,' don't believe it. 27For as the lightning comes forth from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 28For wherever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered together. 29But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; 30and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. 31He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumphet (shofarl), and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

32"Now from the fig tree learn this parable. When its branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near. 33Even so you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. 34Most assuredly I tell you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things are accomplished. 35Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 36But no one knows of that day and hour, not even the angels of heaven, but my FATHER only.

37"As the days of Noah (Noach) were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 38For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah (Noach) entered into the ark (teibah), 39and they didn't know until the flood came, and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. 40Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left; 41two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left. 42Watch therefore, for you don't know in what hour your Lord (Adoni) comes. 43But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. 44Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you don't expect, the Son of Man will come.

45"Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his Lord (Adoni) has set over his household, to give them their food in due season? 46Blessed is that servant whom his Lord (Adoni) finds doing so when he comes. 47Most assuredly I tell you that he will set him over all that he has. 48But if that evil servant should say in his heart, 'My Lord (Adoni) is delaying his coming,' 49and begins to beat his fellow-servants, and eat and drink with the drunken, 50the Lord (Adoni) of that servant will come in a day when he doesn't expect it, and in an hour when he doesn't know it, 51and will cut him in pieces, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.

"Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them, 4but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5Now while the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. 6But at midnight there was a cry, 'Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!' 7Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. 8The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9But the wise answered, saying, 'What if there isn't enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. 11Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), Lord (Adoni), open to us.' 12But he answered, 'Most assuredly I tell you, I don't know you.' 13Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

14"For it is like a man, going into another country, who called his own servants, and entrusted his goods to them. 15To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey. 16Immediately he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. 17In like manner he also who got the two gained another two. 18But he who received the one went away and dug in the earth, and hid his Lord (Adoni)'s money.

19"Now after a long time the Lord (Adoni) of those servants came, and reconciled accounts with them. 20He who received the five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them.'

21"His Lord (Adoni) said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your Lord (Adoni).'

22"He also who got the two talents came and said, 'Lord (Adoni), you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them.'

23"His Lord (Adoni) said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your Lord (Adoni).'

24"He also who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord (Adoni), I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. 25I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.'

26"But his Lord (Adoni) answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter. 27You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest. 28Take away therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. 29For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who has not, even that which he has will be taken away. 30Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

31"But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. 32Before him all the nations will be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33He will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. 34Then the King will tell those on his right hand, 'Come, blessed of my FATHER, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; 35for I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me drink; I was a stranger, and you took me in; 36naked, and you clothed me; I was sick, and you visited me; I was in prison, and you came to me.'

37"Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink? 38When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? 39When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?'

40"The King will answer them, 'Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' 41Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels; 42for I was hungry, and you didn't give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink; 43I was a stranger, and you didn't take me in; naked, and you didn't clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn't visit me.'

44"Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn't help you?'

45"Then he will answer them, saying, 'Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you didn't do it to one of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.' 46These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

It happened, when YaHshua had finished all these words, that he said to his disciples, 2"You know that after two days the Passover (Pesach) is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

3Then the chief Priest (Kohanim), the Scribes, and the Elders (Zakenim) of the people were gathered together in the court of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), who was called Kayafa. 4They took counsel together that they might take YaHshua by deceit, and kill him. 5But they said, "Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people."

10But YaHshua, knowing this, said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? Because she has done a good work for me. 11For you always have the poor with you; but you don't always have me. 12For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. 13Most assuredly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her."

14Then one of the twelve, who was called Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), went to the chief Priest (Kohanim), 15and said, "What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver him to you?" They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver. 16From that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17Now on the first day of unleaven bread (matzah), the disciples came to YaHshua, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover (Pesach)?"

18He said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover (Pesach) at your house with my disciples."'"

19The disciples did as YaHshua commanded them, and they prepared the Passover (Pesach). 20Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. 21As they were eating, he said, "Most assuredly I tell you that one of you will betray me."

22They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, "It isn't me, is it, Lord (Adoni)?"

23He answered, "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. 24The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

25Judah (Yehudah), who betrayed him, answered, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?"

He said to him, "You said it."

26As they were eating, YaHshua took bread, gave thanks for it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." 27He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "All of you drink it, 28for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. 29But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my FATHER's kingdom." 30When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31Then YaHshua said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' 32But after I am raised up, I will go before you into the Galil."

33But Simon (Shimon) answered him, "Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble."

34YaHshua said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you that tonight, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times."

35Simon (Shimon) said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." All of the disciples also said likewise.

36Then YaHshua came with them to a place called Gat-Shemanim, and said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go there and pray." 37He took with him Simon (Shimon) and the two sons of Zabdai, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled. 38Then he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me."

39He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My FATHER, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire."

40He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Simon (Shimon), "What, couldn't you watch with me for one hour? 41Watch and pray, that you don't enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, "My FATHER, if this cup can't pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done." 43He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. 45Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46Arise, let's be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

47While he was still speaking, behold, Judah (Yehudah), one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief Priest and Elders (Zakenim) of the people. 48Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, "Whoever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him." 49Immediately he came to YaHshua, and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed him.

50YaHshua said to him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then they came and laid hands on YaHshua, and took him. 51Behold, one of those who were with YaHshua stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), and struck off his ear. 52Then YaHshua said to him, "Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword. 53Or do you think that I couldn't ask my FATHER, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? 54How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?"

55In that hour YaHshua said to the multitudes, "Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. 56But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled."

Then all the disciples left him, and fled. 57Those who had taken YaHshua led him away to Kayafa the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), where the Scribes and the Elders (Zakenim) were gathered together. 58But Simon (Shimon) followed him from a distance, to the court of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. 59Now the chief Priest (Kohanim), the Elders (Zakenim), and the whole council sought false testimony against YaHshua, that they might put him to death; 60and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward, 61and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'"

62The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) stood up, and said to him, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?" 63But YaHshua held his peace (shalom). The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) answered him, "I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are theMessiah, the Son of God."

64YaHshua said to him, "You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, henceforth you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky."

65Then the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) tore his clothing, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. 66What do you think?"

They answered, "He is worthy of death!" 67Then they spit in his face and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, 68saying, "Prophesy to us, you the Messiah! Who hit you?"

69Now Simon (Shimon) was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to him, saying, "You were also with YaHshua, from the Galil!"

70But he denied it before them all, saying, "I don't know what you are talking about."

71When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him, and said to those who were there, "This man also was with YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret)."

72Again he denied it with an oath, "I don't know the man."

[73]After a little while those who stood by came and said to Simon (Shimon), "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known."

[74]Then he began to curse and to swear, "I don't know the man!"

Immediately the cock crowed. [75]Simon (Shimon) remembered the word which YaHshua had said to him, "Before the cock crows, you will deny me three times." He went out and wept bitterly.

Now when morning had come, all the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Elders (Zakenim) of the people took counsel against YaHshua to put him to death: [2]and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. [3]Then Judah (Yehudah), who betrayed him, when he saw that YaHshua was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief Priest (Kohanim) and Elders (Zakenim), [4]saying, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood."

But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it."

[5]He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself. [6]The chief Priest (Kohanim) took the pieces of silver, and said, "It's not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood." [7]They took counsel, and bought the potter's field with them, to bury strangers in. [8]Therefore that field was called "The Field of Blood" to this day. [9]Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) the prophet was fulfilled, saying,
"They took the thirty pieces of silver,
The price of him upon whom a price had been set,
Whom some of the children of Yisrael priced, [10]And they gave them for the potter's field,
As YaHWeH commanded me."

[11]Now YaHshua stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?"

YaHshua said to him, "So you say."

[12]When he was accused by the chief Priest (Kohanim) and Elders (Zakenim), he answered nothing. [13]Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?"

14He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. 15Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired. 16They had then a notable prisoner, called Bar-Abba. 17When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Bar-Abba, or YaHshua, who is called the Messiah?" 18For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

19While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him." 20Now the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Elders (Zakenim) persuaded the multitudes to ask for Bar-Abba, and destroy YaHshua. 21But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

They said, "Bar-Abba!"

22Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to YaHshua, who is called the Messiah?"

They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!"

23But the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?"

But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

24So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."

25All the people answered, "May his blood be on us, and on our children!"

32As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon (Shimon) by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross. 33They came to a place called "Gulgolta," that is to say, "The place of a skull." 34They gave him sour wine to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink. 35When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots, [36]and they sat and watched him there. [37]They set up over his head the accusation against him written, "THIS IS YAHSHUA, THE KING OF THE JEW (YEHUDIM)."

[38]Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left. [39]Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, [40]and saying, "You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"

[41]Likewise the chief Priest (Kohanim) also mocking, with the Scribes, the Pharisees, and the Elders (Zakenim), said, [42]"He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Yisrael, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. [43]He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" [44]The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

[45]Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. [46]About the ninth hour YaHshua cried with a loud voice, saying, "`Eli, `Eli, lima shavakhtani?" That is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

[47]Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, "This man is calling Eliyah."

[48]Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him a drink. [49]The rest said, "Let him be. Let's see whether Eliyah comes to save him."

[50]YaHshua cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. [51]Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split. [52]The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the holy ones who had fallen asleep were raised; [53]and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many. [54]Now the centurion, and those who were with him watching YaHshua, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, "Truly this was the Son of God."

[55]Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed YaHshua from the Galil, serving him. [56]Among them were Miryam from Magdala, Miryam the mother of Jacob (Yaaqob) and Yosi, and the mother of the sons of Zabdai. [57]When evening had come, a rich man from Ramatayim, named Joseph (Yosef), who himself was also YaHshua's disciple (talmid) came. [58]This man went to Pilate, and asked for YaHshua's body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. [59]Joseph (Yosef) took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, [60]and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.

61Miryam from Magdala was there, and the other Miryam, sitting opposite the tomb. 62Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, 63saying, "Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: 'After three days I will rise again.' 64Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead;' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

65Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can." 66So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

Now after the Shabbat, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Miryam from Magdala and the other Miryam came to see the tomb. 2Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of YaHWeH descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it. 3His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. 4For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men. 5The angel answered the women, "Don't be afraid, for I know that you seek YaHshua, who has been crucified. 6He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord (Adoni) was lying. 7Go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into the Galil; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."

8They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. 9As they went to tell his disciples, behold, YaHshua met them, saying, "Rejoice!"

They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

10Then YaHshua said to them, "Don't be afraid. Go tell my brothers that they should go into the Galil, and there they will see me."

11Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief Priest (Kohanim) all the things that had happened. 12When they were assembled with the Elders (Zakenim), and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers, 13saying, "Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. 14If this comes to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry." 15So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Jew (Yehudim), and continues until this day.

Matthew

[16]But the eleven disciples went into the Galil, to the mountain where YaHshua had sent them. [17]When they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some doubted. [18]YaHshua came to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. [19]Go, and make disciples of all nations, immersing them in the name of the FATHER and of the SON and of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), [20]teaching them to observe all things which I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." .

Notes:

Mark

The beginning of the Good News of YaHshua the Messiah, the Son of the FATHER. [2]As it is written in the prophets,
"Behold, I send my messenger before your face,
Who will prepare your way before you.
[3]The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Make ready the way of YaHWeH!
Make his paths straight!'"

[4]John (Yochanan) came immersing in the wilderness and preaching the immersion of repentance for forgiveness of sins. [5]All the country of Judah (Yehudah) and all those of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) went out to him. They were immersed by him in the Jordan (Yarden) river, confessing their sins. [6]John (Yochanan) was clothed with camel's hair and a leather belt around his loins. He ate locusts and wild honey. [7]He preached, saying, "After me comes he who is mightier than I, the thong of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen. [8]I immersed you in water, but he will immerse you in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)."

[9]It happened in those days, that YaHshua came from Nazareth (Natzeret) of the Galil, and was immersed by John (Yochanan) in the Jordan (Yarden). [10]Immediately coming up from the water, he saw the heavens parting, and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. [11]A voice came out of the sky, "You are my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

[12]Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. [13]He was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals; and the angels were ministering to him.

[14]Now after John (Yochanan) was taken into custody, YaHshua came into the Galil, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom of the FATHER, [15]and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of the FATHER is at hand! Repent, and believe in the Good News."

[16]Passing along by the sea of the Galil, he saw Simon (Shimon) and Andrew (Andrai) the brother of Simon (Shimon) casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen. [17]YaHshua said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men."

[18]Immediately they left their nets, and followed him. [19]Going on a little further from there, he saw Jacob (Yaaqob) the son of Zabdai, and John (Yochanan), his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. [20]Immediately he called them, and they left their father, Zabdai, in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him. [21]They went into Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), and immediately on the day of Shabbat he entered into the synagogue and taught. [22]They were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as having authority, and not as the Scribes. [23]Immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, [24]saying, "Ha! What do we have to do with you, YaHshua, you Nazareth (Natzri)? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"

[26]The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. [27]They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!" [28]The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of the Galil and its surrounding area.

[29]Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon (Shimon) and Andrew (Andrai), with Jacob (Yaaqob) and John (Yochanan). [30]Now Simon (Shimon)'s wife's mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. [31]He came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. [32]At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. [33]All the city was gathered together at the door. [34]He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He didn't allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

[35]Early in the night, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. [36]Simon (Shimon) and those who were with him followed after him; [37]and they found him, and told him, "Everyone is looking for you."

[38]He said to them, "Let's go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because for this reason I came forth." [39]He went into their synagogues throughout all Galil, preaching and casting out demons.

[40]There came to him a leper, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, "If you want to, you can make me clean."

[41]Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, "I want to. Be made clean." [42]When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. [43]He strictly warned him, and immediately sent him out, [44]and said to him, "See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the Priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses (Moshe) commanded, for a testimony to them."

45But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that YaHshua could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to him from everywhere.

When he entered again into Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum) after some days, it was heard that he was in the house. 2Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them. 3Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him. 4When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on. 5YaHshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

6But there were some of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7"Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

8Immediately YaHshua, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts? 9Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?' 10But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" —he said to the paralytic—11"I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house."

12He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

13He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them. 14As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Halfai, sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

15It happened, that he was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with YaHshua and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him. 16The Scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

17When YaHshua heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

18John (Yochanan)'s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, "Why do John (Yochanan)'s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"

19YaHshua said to them, "Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can't fast. 20But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. 21No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made. 22No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins."

23It happened that he was going on the day of Shabbat through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain. 24The Pharisees said to him, "Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the day of Shabbat?"

25He said to them, "Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry—he, and they who were with him? 26How he entered into the house of God when Avyatar was High Priest (Kohen Gadol), and ate the show bread, which it is not lawful to eat except for the Priest (Kohanim), and gave also to those who were with him?" 27He said to them, "The Shabbat was made for man, not man for the Shabbat. 28Therefore the Son of Man is Lord (Adoni) even of the Shabbat."

He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered. 2They watched him, whether he would heal him on the day of Shabbat, that they might accuse him. 3He said to the man who had his hand withered, "Stand up." 4He said to them, "Is it lawful on the day of Shabbat to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" But they were silent. 5When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other. 6The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7YaHshua withdrew to the sea with his disciples, and a great multitude followed him from the Galil, from Judah (Yehudah), 8from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan (Yarden), and those from around Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon). A great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came to him. 9He spoke to his disciples that a little boat should stay near him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn't press on him. 10For he had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on him that they might touch him. 11The unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, "You are the Son of God!" 12He sternly warned them that they should not make him known.

13He went up into the mountain, and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him. 14He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach, 15and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons: 16Simon (Shimon), to whom he gave the name Rock (Petra,Peter); 17Jacob (Yaaqob) the son of Zabdai; John (Yochanan), the brother of Jacob (Yaaqob), and he surnamed them Benei-Regesh, which means, Sons of Thunder; 18Andrew (Andrai); Philip (Pilipos); Bartholomew (Bar-Talmai); Mattityah; Thomas (Toma); Jacob (Yaaqob), the son of Halfai; Taddi; Simon (Shimon) the Zealot; 19and Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), who also betrayed him.

He came into a house. 20The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. 21When his friends heard it, they went out to seize him: for they said, "He is insane." 22The Scribes who came down from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) said, "He has Baal-Zibbul," and, "By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons."

23He summoned them, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. 26If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can't stand, but has an end. 27But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house. 28Most assuredly I tell you, all of the children of men's sins will be forgiven them, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme; 29but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin" 30— because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

31His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him. 32A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, "Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you."

33He answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" 34Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! 35For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea. 2He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching, 3"Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow, 4and it happened, as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it. 5Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil. 6When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. 7Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some brought forth thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much."9He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."

10When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. 11He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of the Kingdom of the FATHER, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, 12that 'seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.'"

13He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? 14The farmer sows the word. 15These are the ones by the road, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them. 16These in like manner are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. 17They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. 18Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word, 19and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20These are those which were sown on the good ground: such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times."

21He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Isn't it put on a menorah? 22For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."

24He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear. 25For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has."

26He said, "The Kingdom of the FATHER is as if a man should cast seed on the earth, 27and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn't know how. 28For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. [29]But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."

[30]He said, "How will we liken the Kingdom of the FATHER? Or with what parable will we illustrate it? [31]It's like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth, [32]yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow."

[33]With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. [34]Without a parable he didn't speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained all things.

[35]On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side." [36]Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him. [37]There arose a great wind storm, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled. [38]He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?"

[39]He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace (shalom)! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. [40]He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?"

[41]They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadara. [2]When he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, [3]who had his dwelling in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains, [4]because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him. [5]Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. [6]When he saw YaHshua from afar, he ran and bowed down to him, [7]and crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, YaHshua, you Son of Ha`Elyon (Highest) God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me." [8]For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

[9]He asked him, "What is your name?"

He said to him, “My name is Legion, for we are many.” [10]He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country. [11]Now there was on the mountainside a great herd of pigs feeding. [12]All the demons begged him, saying, “Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them.”

[13]At once YaHshua gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea. [14]Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

The people came to see what it was that had happened. [15]They came to YaHshua, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid. [16]Those who saw it declared to them how it happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. [17]They began to beg him to depart from their region.

[18]As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. [19]He didn’t allow him, but said to him, “Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord (Adoni) has done for you, and how he had mercy on you.”

[20]He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how YaHshua had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

[21]When YaHshua had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. [22]Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Ya'ir by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, [23]and begged him much, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live.”

[24]He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. [25]A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, [26]and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, [27]having heard the things concerning YaHshua, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. [28]For she said, “If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well.” [29]Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

[30]Immediately YaHshua, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, “Who touched my clothes?”

[31]His disciples said to him, “You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, ‘Who touched me?’”

32He looked around to see her who had done this thing. 33But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace (shalom), and be cured of your disease."

36But YaHshua, when he heard the message spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe." 37He allowed no one to follow him, except Simon (Shimon), Jacob (Yaaqob), and John (Yochanan) the brother of Jacob (Yaaqob). 38He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. 39When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."

40They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child and her mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying. 41Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talita, kumi;" which means, being interpreted, "Girl, I tell you, get up." 42Immediately the girl rose up, and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement. 43He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. 2When the Shabbat had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? 3Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Miryam, and brother of Jacob (Yaaqob), Yosi, Judah (Yehudah), and Simon (Shimon)? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were offended at him.

4YaHshua said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." 5He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick folk, and healed them. 6He marveled because of their unbelief.

He went around the villages teaching. 7He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8He charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse, [9]but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. [10]He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. [11]Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sedom and `Amorah in the day of judgment than for that city!"

[12]They went out and preached that people should repent. [13]They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them. [14]King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, "John (Yochanan) the immerser has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him." [15]But others said, "It is Eliyah." Others said, "It is the Prophet, or like one of the prophets." [16]But Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John (Yochanan), whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead." [17]For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John (Yochanan), and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip (Pilipos)'s wife, for he had married her. [18]For John (Yochanan) said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." [19]Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn't, [20]for Herod feared John (Yochanan), knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.

[21]Then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of the Galil. [22]When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you." [23]He swore to her, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."

[24]She went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?"

She said, "The head of John (Yochanan) the immerser."

[25]She came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John (Yochanan) the immerser on a platter."

[26]The king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and of his dinner guests, he didn't wish to refuse her. [27]Immediately the king sent out a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John (Yochanan)'s head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison, [28]and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.

[30]The apostles gathered themselves together to YaHshua, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught. [31]He said to them, "You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. [32]They went away in the boat to a desert place by themselves. [33]They saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him. [34]YaHshua came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things. [35]When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, "This place is deserted, and it is late in the day. [36]Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat."

[37]But he answered them, "You give them something to eat."

They asked him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them something to eat?"

[38]He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go see."

When they knew, they said, "Five, and two fish."

[39]He commanded them that everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass. [40]They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. [41]He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all. [42]They all ate, and were filled. [43]They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish. [44]Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

[45]Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Beit-Tzaidah, while he himself sent the multitude away. [46]After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.

[47]When evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he was alone on the land. [48]Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and he would have passed by them, [49]but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; [50]for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid." [51]He got into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled; [52]for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

[53]When they had crossed over, they came to land at Ginosar, and moored to the shore. [54]When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him, [55]and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was. [56]Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the hem (tzitzit) of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

Then the Pharisees, and some of the Scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Now when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is, unwashed, hands, they found fault. 3(For the Pharisees, and all the Jew (Yehudim), don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the Elders (Zakenim). 4They don't eat when they come from the marketplace, unless they bathe themselves, and there are many other things, which they have received to hold to: washings of cups, pitchers, bronze vessels, and couches.) 5The Pharisees and the Scribes asked him, "Why don't your disciples walk according to the tradition of the Elders (Zakenim), but eat their bread with unwashed hands?"

6He answered them, "Well did Isaiah (Yeshayah) prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,
'This people honors me with their lips,
But their heart is far from me.
7But in vain do they worship me,
Teaching as doctrines the commandments (mitzvot) of men.'

8"For you set aside the word (mitzvah) of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things." 9He said to them, "Full well do you reject the word (mitzvah) of God, that you may keep your tradition. 10For Moses (Moshe) said, 'Honor your father and your mother;' and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.' 11But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban, that is to say, given to God(El);"' 12then you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, 13making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this."

14He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. 15There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. 16If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"

17When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable. 18He said to them, "Are you thus without understanding also? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can't defile him, 19because it doesn't go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine, thus making all foods clean?" [20]He said, "That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man. [21]For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, [22]covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. [23]All these evil things come from within, and defile the man."

[24]From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon). He entered into a house, and didn't want anyone to know it, but he couldn't escape notice. [25]For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. [26]Now the woman was a Greek (Yebanit), a Syrophoenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. [27]But YaHshua said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

[28]But she answered him, "Yes, Lord (Adoni). Yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

[29]He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

[30]She went away to her house, and found the child having been laid on the bed, with the demon gone out.

[31]Again he departed from the borders of Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon), and came to the sea of the Galil, through the midst of the region of Decapolis. [32]They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him. [33]He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue. [34]Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Hippatach!" that is, "Be opened!" [35]Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly. [36]He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. [37]They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!"

In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, YaHshua called his disciples to himself, and said to them, [2]"I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. [3]If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way."

4His disciples answered him, "From where could one satisfy these people with bread here in a deserted place?"

5He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

They said, "Seven."

6He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. 7They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also. 8They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. 9Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away.

10Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanuta. 11The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, and testing him. 12He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most assuredly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation."

13He left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side. 14They forgot to take bread; and they didn't have more than one loaf in the boat with them. 15He charged them, saying, "Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

16They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread."

17YaHshua, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do you reason that it's because you have no bread? Don't you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened? 18Having eyes, don't you see? Having ears, don't you hear? Don't you remember? 19When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

They told him, "Twelve."

20"When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?"

They told him, "Seven."

21He asked them, "Don't you understand, yet?"

22He came to Beit-Tzaidah. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. 23He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

[24]He looked up, and said, "I see men; for I see them like trees walking."

[25]Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly. [26]He sent him away to his house, saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."

[27]YaHshua went out, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"

[28]They told him, "John (Yochanan) the immerser, and others say Eliyah, but others: one of the prophets."

Simon (Shimon) answered, "You are theMessiah."

[30]He charged them that they should tell no one about him. [31]He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the Elders (Zakenim), the chief Priest (Kohanim), and the Scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. [32]He spoke to them openly. Simon (Shimon) took him, and began to rebuke him. [33]But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Simon (Shimon), and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men."

[34]He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. [35]For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the Good News will save it. [36]For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? [37]For what will a man give in exchange for his life? [38]For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

He said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see the Kingdom of the FATHER come with power."

[2]After six days YaHshua took with him Simon (Shimon), Jacob (Yaaqob), and John (Yochanan), and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. [3]His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. [4]Eliyah and Moses (Moshe) appeared to them, and they were talking with YaHshua.

5Simon (Shimon) answered YaHshua, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses (Moshe), and one for Eliyah." 6For he didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.

7A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

8Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except YaHshua only.

9As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. 10They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the "rising from the dead" meant.

11They asked him, saying, "Why do the Scribes say that Eliyah must come first?"

12He said to them, "Eliyah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised? 13But I tell you that Eliyah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him."

14Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and Scribes questioning them. 15Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. 16He asked the Scribes, "What are you asking them?"

17One of the multitude answered, "Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; 18and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able."

19He answered him, "Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me."

20They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

21He asked his father, "How long has it been since this has come to him?"

He said, "From childhood. 22Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."

23YaHshua said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes."

24Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!"

25When YaHshua saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!"

26Having cried out, and convulsed greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, "He is dead." 27But YaHshua took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.

28When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?" 29He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."

30They went out from there, and passed through the Galil. He didn't want anyone to know it. 31For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again."

32But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33He came to Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?"

34But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.

35He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all." 36He took a little child, and set him in the midst of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, 37"Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me."

38John (Yochanan) said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us."

39But YaHshua said, "Don't forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. 40For whoever is not against us is on our side. 41For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are the Messiah's, most assuredly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward. 42Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if he was thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck. 43If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehinnom, into the unquenchable fire, 44'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' 45If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off.

It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehinnom, into the fire that will never be quenched—[46]'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' [47]If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehinnom of fire, [48]'where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' [49]For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. [50]Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace (shalom) with one another."

He arose from there and came into the borders of Judah (Yehudah) and beyond the Jordan (Yarden). Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he was again teaching them. [2]Pharisees came to him testing him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

[3]He answered, "What did Moses (Moshe) command you?"

[4]They said, "Moses (Moshe) allowed a certificate of divorce to be written, and to divorce her."

[5]But YaHshua said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this word (mitzvah). [6]But from the beginning of the creation, 'God made them male and female. [7]For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife, [8]and the two will become one flesh,' so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. [9]What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

[10]In the house, his disciples asked him again about the same matter. [11]He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery against her. [12]If a woman herself divorces her husband, and marries another, she commits adultery."

[13]They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them. [14]But when YaHshua saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for the Kingdom of the FATHER belongs to such as these. [15]Most assuredly I tell you, whoever will not receive the Kingdom of the FATHER like a little child, he will in no way enter into it." [16]He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

[17]As he was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

18YaHshua said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God.
19You know the commandments (mitzvot) : 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and mother.'"

20He said to him, "Teacher, I have observed all these things from my youth."

21YaHshua looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

22But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions. 23YaHshua looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER!"

24The disciples were amazed at his words. But YaHshua answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER! 25It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER."

26They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"

27YaHshua, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

28Simon (Shimon) began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."

29YaHshua said, "Most assuredly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the Good News sake, 30but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. 31But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

32They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and YaHshua was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him.
33"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles (Goyim). 34They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again."

35Jacob (Yaaqob) and John (Yochanan), the sons of Zabdai, came near to him, saying,
"Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

[36]He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

[37]They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory."

[38]But YaHshua said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?"

YaHshua said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with; [40]but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

[42]YaHshua summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles (Goyim) Lord (Adoni) it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. [43]But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant. [44]Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondservant of all. [45]For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

[46]They came to Yericho. As he went out from Yericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timai, Bar-Timai, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. [47]When he heard that it was YaHshua the Nazareth (Natzri), he began to cry out, and say, "YaHshua, you son of David, have mercy on me!" [48]Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

[49]YaHshua stood still, and said, "Call him."

They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you!"

[50]He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to YaHshua.

[51]YaHshua asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man said to him, "Rabbani, that I may see again."

[52]YaHshua said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed YaHshua in the way.

When they drew near to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to Beit-Pagey and Beit-Anyah, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, 2and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him. 3If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord (Adoni) needs him;' and immediately he will send him back here."

4They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him. 5Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?" 6They said to them just as YaHshua had said, and they let them go.

7They brought the young donkey to YaHshua, and threw their garments on it, and YaHshua sat on it. 8Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road. 9Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried out, "Hoshia`na! Blessed is he who comes in the name of YaHWeH! 10Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of YaHWeH! Hoshia`na in the highest!"

11YaHshua entered into the temple in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Beit-Anyah with the twelve.

12The next day, when they had come out from Beit-Anyah, he was hungry. 13Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14YaHshua told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and his disciples heard it.

15They came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and YaHshua entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves. 16He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. 17He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?' But you have made it a den of robbers!"

18The chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19When evening came, he went out of the city. 20As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. 21Simon (Shimon), remembering, said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away."

22YaHshua answering said to them, "Have faith in God. 23For most assuredly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and doesn't doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says. 24Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them. 25Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your FATHER, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions. 26But if you do not forgive, neither will your FATHER in heaven forgive your transgressions."

27They came again to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and as he was walking in the temple, the chief Priest (Kohanim), and the Scribes, and the Elders (Zakenim) came to him, 28and they began saying to him, "By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"

29YaHshua said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30The immersion of John (Yochanan) — was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."

31They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we should say, 'From heaven;' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32If we should say, 'From men'" — they feared the people, for all held John (Yochanan) to really be a prophet. 33They answered YaHshua, "We don't know."

YaHshua said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country. 2When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard. 3They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. 4Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. 5Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some. 6Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9What therefore will the Lord (Adoni) of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. 10Haven't you even read this Scripture:

'The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner.
11This was from YaHWeH,
It is marvelous in our eyes'?"

12They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away. 13They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. 14When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? 15Shall we give, or shall we not give?"

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

16They brought it.

He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

They said to him, "Caesar's."

17YaHshua answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

They marveled greatly at him.

18There came to him Sadducees (Tzedukim), who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying, 19"Teacher, Moses (Moshe) wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.' 20There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring. 21The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise; 22and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. 23In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife."

24YaHshua answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? 25For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. 26But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses (Moshe), about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Issac (Yitzchak), and the God of Jacob (Yaaqob)?' [27]He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken."

[28]One of the Scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, "Which word (mitzvah) is the greatest of all?"

[29]YaHshua answered, "The greatest is, 'Hear, Yisrael, the FATHER our God, the FATHER is one: [30]you shall love the FATHER your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' This is the first word (mitzvah). [31]The second is like this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other word (mitzvah) greater than these."

[32]The Scribe (Sofer) said to him, "Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he, [33]and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

[34]When YaHshua saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the Kingdom of the FATHER."

No one dared ask him any question after that. [35]YaHshua responded, as he taught in the temple, "How is it that the Scribes say that theMessiah is the son of David? [36]For David himself said in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh),
'YaHWeH said to my Lord (Adoni),
Sit at my right hand,
Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.'

[37]Therefore David himself calls him Lord (Adoni), so how can he be his son?"

The common people heard him gladly. [38]In his teaching he said to them, "Beware of the Scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces, [39]and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts: [40]those who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

[41]YaHshua sat down opposite the treasury, and saw how the multitude cast money into the treasury. Many who were rich cast in much. [42]A poor widow came, and she cast in two small brass coins, which equal a quadrans coin. [43]He called his disciples to himself, and said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, this poor widow gave more than all those who are giving into the treasury, [44]for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on."

As he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!"

2YaHshua said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down."

3As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Simon (Shimon), Jacob (Yaaqob), John (Yochanan), and Andrew (Andrai) asked him privately, 4"Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be fulfilled?"

5YaHshua, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. 6For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and will lead many astray.

7"When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet. 8For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains. 9But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them. 10The Good News must first be published to all the nations. 11When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).

12"Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. 13You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. 14But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniyel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judah (Yehudah) flee to the mountains, 15and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house. 16Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak. 17But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days! 18Pray that your flight won't be in the winter. 19For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be. 20Unless the FATHER had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom he picked out, he shortened the days. 21Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, here is theMessiah!' or, 'Look, there!' don't believe it. 22For there will arise false the Messiahs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. 23But you watch.

"Behold, I have told you all things beforehand. 24But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, 25the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. 27Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.

28"Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near; 29even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors. 30Most assuredly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. 31Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 32But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the FATHER. 33Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.

34"It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch. 35Watch therefore, for you don't know when the Lord (Adoni) of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning; 36lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping. 37What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."

It was now two days before the feast of the Passover (Pesach) and the unleaven bread (matzah), and the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes sought how they might sieze him by deception, and kill him. 2For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."

3While he was at Beit-Anyah, in the house of Simon (Shimon) the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard— very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head. 4But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted? 5For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor." They grumbled against her.

6But YaHshua said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. 7For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. 8She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying. 9Most assuredly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."

10Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief Priest (Kohanim), that he might deliver him to them. 11They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him. 12On the first day of unleaven bread (matzah), when they sacrificed the Passover (Pesach), his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make ready that you may eat the Passover (Pesach)?"

13He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, 14and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover (Pesach) with my disciples?"' 15He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make ready for us there."

16His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover (Pesach).

17When it was evening he came with the twelve. 18As they sat and were eating, YaHshua said, "Most assuredly I tell you, one of you will betray me — he who eats with me."

19They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"

20He answered them, "It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish. 21For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

22As they were eating, YaHshua took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

23He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it. 24He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. 25Most assuredly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the Kingdom of the FATHER." 26When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

27YaHshua said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' 28However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into the Galil."

29But Simon (Shimon) said to him, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."

30YaHshua said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times."

31But he spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the same thing.

32They came to a place which was named Gat-Shemanim. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray." 33He took with him Simon (Shimon), Jacob (Yaaqob), and John (Yochanan), and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. 34He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."

35He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. 36He said, "Abba, FATHER, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire."

37He came and found them sleeping, and said to Simon (Shimon), "Simon (Shimon), are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour? 38Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

39Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. 40Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer him. 41He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

43Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judah (Yehudah), one of the twelve, came—and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief Priest (Kohanim), the Scribes, and the Elders (Zakenim). 44Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whoever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely." 45When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed him. 46They laid their hands on him, and seized him. 47But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), and cut off his ear.

48YaHshua answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? 49I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

50They all left him, and fled. 51A certain young man followed him, having a linen cloth thrown around himself, over his naked body. The young men grabbed him, 52but he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. 53They led YaHshua away to the High Priest (Kohen Gadol). All the chief Priest (Kohanim), the Elders (Zakenim), and the Scribes came together with him.

54Simon (Shimon) had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol). He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. 55Now the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the whole council sought witnesses against YaHshua to put him to death, and found none. [56]For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other. [57]Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying, [58]"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" [59]Even so, their testimony did not agree.

[60]The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) stood up in the midst, and asked YaHshua, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?" [61]But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) asked him, "Are you theMessiah, the Son of the Blessed?"

[62]YaHshua said, "I AM. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."

[63]The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses? [64]You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death. [65]Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophesy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

[66]As Simon (Shimon) was in the courtyard below, one of the maids of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) came, [67]and seeing Simon (Shimon) warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazareth (Natzri), YaHshua!"

[68]But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out on the porch, and the cock crowed.

[69]The maid saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them." [70]But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Simon (Shimon), "You truly are one of them, for you are from the Galil, and your speech shows it." [71]But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!" [72]The cock crowed the second time. Simon (Shimon) remembered the word, how that YaHshua said to him, "Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

Immediately in the morning the chief Priest (Kohanim), with the Elders (Zakenim) and Scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound YaHshua, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. [2]Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?"

He answered, "So you say."

3The chief Priest (Kohanim) accused him of many things. 4Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!"

5But YaHshua made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled.

6Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. 7There was one called Bar-Abba, bound with those who had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. 8The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them. 9Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?" 10For he perceived that for envy the chief Priest (Kohanim) had delivered him up. 11But the chief Priest (Kohanim) stirred up the multitude, that he should release Bar-Abba to them instead. 12Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?"

13They cried out again, "Crucify him!"

14Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?"

But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!"

15Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Bar-Abba to them, and handed over YaHshua, when he had flogged him, to be crucified. 16The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort. 17They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him. 18They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jew (Yehudim)!" 19They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him. 20When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him. 21They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon (Shimon) of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross. 22They brought him to the place called Gulgolta, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." 23They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it.

29Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, 30save yourself, and come down from the cross!"

31Likewise, also the chief Priest (Kohanim) mocking among themselves with the Scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself. 32Let theMessiah, the King of Yisrael, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." Those who were crucified with him insulted him.

33When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. 34At the ninth hour YaHshua cried with a loud voice, saying, "Elohi, Elohi, lama shavakhtani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

35Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he is calling Eliyah."

36One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Eliyah comes to take him down."

37YaHshua cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. 38The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. 39When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

40There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Miryam from Magdala, and Miryam the mother of Jacob (Yaaqob) the less and of Yosi, and Peace (shalom)it; 41who, when he was in the Galil, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

42When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Shabbat, 43Joseph (Yosef) of Ramatayim, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for the Kingdom of the FATHER, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for YaHshua's body. 44Pilate marveled if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead long. 45When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph (Yosef). 46He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47Miryam from Magdala and Miryam, the mother of Yosi, saw where he was laid.

When the Shabbat was past, Miryam from Magdala, and Miryam the mother of Jacob (Yaaqob), and Peace (shalom)it, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. 2Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. 3They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" 4for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.

5Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed. 6He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek YaHshua, the Nazareth (Natzri), who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him! 7But go, tell his disciples and Simon (Shimon), 'He goes before you into the Galil. There you will see him, as he said to you.'"

8They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.

9Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Miryam from Magdala, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved. 12After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. 13They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.

14Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen. 15He said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the Good News to the whole creation. 16He who believes and is immersed will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned. 17These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; 18they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."

19So then the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. 20They went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord (Adoni) working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. .

Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, [2]even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word delivered them to us, [3]it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; [4]that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

[5]There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judah (Yehudah), a certain Priest named Zekharyah, of the priestly division of Abiyah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aharon, and her name was Elisheba. [6]They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments (mitzvot) and ordinances of YaHWeH. [7]But they had no child, because Elisheba was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. [8]Now it happened, while he executed the Priest's office before God in the order of his division, [9]according to the custom of the Priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of YaHWeH and burn incense. [10]The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

[11]An angel of YaHWeH appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. [12]Zekharyah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. [13]But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zekharyah, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elisheba, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John (Yochanan). [14]You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. [15]For he will be great in the sight of YaHWeH, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), even from his mother's womb. [16]He will turn many of the children of Yisrael to YaHWeH, their God. [17]He will go before him in the spirit and power of Eliyah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for YaHWeH."

[18]Zekharyah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

[19]The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. [20]Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

21The people were waiting for Zekharyah, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. 22When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. 23It happened, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. 24After these days Elisheba, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, 25"Thus has YaHWeH done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men."

26Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of the Galil, named Nazareth (Natzeret), 27to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph (Yosef), of the house of David. The virgin's name was Miryam. 28Having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! YaHWeH is with you. Blessed are you among women!"

29But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. 30The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Miryam, for you have found favor with God. 31Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name 'YaHshua.' 32He will be great, and will be called the Son of Ha`Elyon (Highest). YaHWeH God will give him the throne of his father, David, 33and he will reign over the house of Jacob (Yaaqob) forever. There will be no end to his kingdom."

34Miryam said to the angel, "How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?"

35The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) will come on you, and the power of Ha`Elyon (Highest) will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God. 36Behold, Elisheba, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.
37For everything spoken by God is possible."

38Miryam said, "Behold, the handmaid of YaHWeH; be it to me according to your word."

The angel departed from her. 39Miryam arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah (Yehudah), 40and entered into the house of Zekharyah and greeted Elisheba. 41It happened, when Elisheba heard Miryam's greeting, that the baby leaped in her womb, and Elisheba was filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).
42She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord (Adoni) should come to me? 44For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! 45Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from YaHWeH!"

46Miryam said,
"My soul magnifies YaHWeH.
47My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, 48For he has looked at the humble state of his handmaid.
For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.
49For he who is mighty has done great things for me.
Holy is his name.
50His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him.
51He has shown strength with his arm.
He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart.
52He has put down princes from their thrones.
And has exalted the lowly.
53He has filled the hungry with good things.
He has sent the rich away empty.
54He has given help to Yisrael, his servant, that he might remember mercy, 55As he spoke to our fathers,
To Abraham and his seed forever."

56Miryam stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house. 57Now the time that Elisheba should give birth was fulfilled, and she brought forth a son. 58Her neighbors and her relatives heard that YaHWeH had magnified his mercy towards her, and they rejoiced with her. 59It happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zekharyah, after the name of the father. 60His mother answered, "Not so; but he will be called John (Yochanan)."

61They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."
62They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

63He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John (Yochanan)."

They all marveled. 64His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. 65Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judah (Yehudah). 66All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of YaHWeH was with him. 67His father, Zekharyah, was filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and prophesied, saying, 68"Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of Yisrael,
For he has visited and worked redemption for his people;
69And has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David 70(As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets who have been from of old), 71Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;
72To show mercy towards our fathers,

To remember his holy covenant,
73The oath which he spoke to Abraham, our father, 74To grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear, 75In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.
76And you, child, will be called a prophet of Ha`Elyon (Highest),
For you will go before the face of YaHWeH to make ready his ways, 77To give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins, 78Because of the tender mercy of our God,
Whereby the dawn from on high will visit us, 79To shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death;
To guide our feet into the way of peace (shalom)."

80The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Yisrael.

Now it happened in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. 2This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Aram. 3All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. 4Joseph (Yosef) also went up from the Galil, out of the city of Nazareth (Natzeret), into Judah (Yehudah), to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem), because he was of the house and family of David; 5to enroll himself with Miryam, who was pledged to be married to him as wife, being pregnant.

6It happened, while they were there, that the day had come that she should give birth. 7She brought forth her firstborn son, and she wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn. 8There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. 9Behold, an angel of the Lord (Adoni) (Adoni) stood by them, and the glory of the Lord (Adoni) (Adoni) shone around them, and they were terrified. 10The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. 11For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is the Messiah YaHWeH. 12This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough." 13Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 14"Glory to God in the highest,
On earth peace (shalom), good will toward men."

15It happened, when the angels went away from them into the sky, that the shepherds said one to another, "Let's go to Bethlehem (Beit-Lechem), now, and see this thing that has happened, which the LORD (ADONI) (Adoni) has made known to us." 16They came with haste, and found both Miryam and Joseph (Yosef), and the baby was lying in the feeding trough. 17When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child. 18All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. 19But Miryam kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. 20The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

22When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses (Moshe) were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to present him to YaHWeH 23(as it is written in the law of YaHWeH, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to YaHWeH"), 24and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of YaHWeH, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."

25Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) whose name was Simon (Shimon). This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Yisrael, and the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) was on him. 26It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord (Adoni)'s (Adoni) the Messiah. 27He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, YaHshua, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law, 28then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, 29"Now you are releasing your servant, Master,
According to your word, in peace (shalom);
30For my eyes have seen your yeshuah (salvation), 31Which you have prepared before the face of all peoples;
32A light for revelation to the Gentiles (Goyim),
And the glory of your people Yisrael."

33Joseph (Yosef) and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him, 34and Simon (Shimon) blessed them, and said to Miryam, his mother, "Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Yisrael, and for a sign which is spoken against. 35Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

36There was one Hanah, a prophetess, the daughter of Penu'el, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, 37and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshipping with fastings and petitions night and day. 38Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord (Adoni) (Adoni), and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

39When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of YaHWeH, they returned into the Galil, to their own city, Nazareth (Natzeret). 40The child was growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him. 41His parents went every year to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) at the feast of the Passover (Pesach).

42When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) according to the custom of the feast, 43and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy YaHshua stayed behind in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). Joseph (Yosef) and his mother didn't know it, 44but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. 45When they didn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), looking for him. 46It happened after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. 47All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. 48When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

49He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my FATHER's house?" 50They didn't understand the saying which he spoke to them. 51And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth (Natzeret). He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. 52And YaHshua increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judah (Yehudah), and Herod being tetrarch of the Galil, and his brother Philip (Pilipos) tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2in the Priest (Kohanim) Gedolim of Anan and Kayafa, the word of God came to John (Yochanan), the son of Zekharyah, in the wilderness. 3He came into all the region around the Jordan (Yarden), preaching the immersion of repentance for remission of sins. 4As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet,
"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Make ready the way of YaHWeH.
Make his paths straight.
5Every valley will be filled.

Every mountain and hill will be brought low.
The crooked will become straight,
And the rough ways smooth.
6All flesh will see God's salvation.'"

7He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be immersed by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? 8Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and don't begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones! 9Even now the axe also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

10The multitudes asked him, "What then must we do?"

11He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

12Tax collectors also came to be immersed, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

13He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."

14Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?"

He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

15As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John (Yochanan), whether perhaps he was theMessiah, 16John (Yochanan) answered them all, "I indeed immerse you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the latchet of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) and fire, 17whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

18Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people, 19but Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, 20added this also to them all, that he shut up John (Yochanan) in prison. 21Now it happened, when all the people were immersed, YaHshua also had been immersed, and was praying. The sky was opened, 22and the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) descended in a bodily form as a dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased."

23YaHshua himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph (Yosef), the son of Eli, 24the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Malki, the son of Yannai, the son of Joseph (Yosef), 25the son of Mattityah, the son of `Amos, the son of Nachum, the son of Hesli, the son of Naggai, 26the son of Machat, the son of Mattityah, the son of Shim`i, the son of Joseph (Yosef), the son of Judah (Yehudah), 27the son of John (Yochanan), the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, 28the son of Malki, the son of Addi, the son of Kosam, the son of Elmadan, the son of `Er, 29the son of YaHshua, the son of Eli`ezer, the son of Yoram, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, 30the son of Simon (Shimon), the son of Judah (Yehudah), the son of Joseph (Yosef), the son of Yonam, the son of Elyakim, 31the son of Mal'ah, the son of Manah, the son of Mattatah, the son of Natan, the son of David, 32the son of Jesse (Yishai), the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nachshon, 33the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, the son of Yoram, the son of Hetzron, the son of Perets, the son of Judah (Yehudah), 34the son of Jacob (Yaaqob), the son of Issac (Yitzchak), the son of Abraham, the son of Terach, the son of Nachor, 35the son of Serug, the son of Re`u, the son of Peleg, the son of `Ever, the son of Shelach 36the son of Kenan, the son of Arpakhshad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah (Noach), the son of Lamekh, 37the son of Metushelach, the son of Enoch (Hanokh), the son of Yered, the son of Mahalal'el, the son of Kenan, 38the son of Enosh, the son of Shet, the son of Adam, the son of God (Elohim).

YaHshua, full of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), returned from the Jordan (Yarden), and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness 2for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry. 3The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

4YaHshua answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of YaHWeh.'"

5The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want. 7If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."

8YaHshua answered him, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship YaHWeH your God (Elohim), and him only shall you serve.'"

9He led him to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here, 10for it is written,

'He will give his angels charge concerning you, to guard you;'

11and,
'On their hands they will bear you up,
Lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.'"

12YaHshua answering, said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt YaHWeH your God (Elohim).'"

13When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time.

14YaHshua returned in the power of the Spirit into the Galil, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. 15He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

16He came to Nazareth (Natzeret), where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the day of Shabbat, and stood up to read. 17The book of the prophet Isaiah (Yeshayah) was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,
18"The Spirit of the FATHER is on me,
Because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,
To proclaim release to the captives,
Recovering of sight to the blind,
To deliver those who are crushed,
19And to proclaim the acceptable year of YaHWeH."

20He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. 21He began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

22All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Joseph (Yosef)'s son?"

23He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, 'Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), do also here in your hometown.'" 24He said, "Most assuredly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. 25But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Yisrael in the days of Eliyah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. 26Eliyah was sent to none of them, except to Tzarfat, in the land of Sidon (Tzidon), to a woman who was a widow. 27There were many lepers in Yisrael in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Na`aman, the Arammian."

28They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. 29They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. 30But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way.

31He came down to Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), a city of the Galil. He was teaching them on the day of Shabbat, 32and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority. 33In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34saying, "Ah! what have we to do with you, YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret)? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"

35YaHshua rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

36Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" 37News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

42When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them. 43But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the Kingdom of the FATHER to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent." 44He was preaching in the synagogues of the Galil.

Now it happened, while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Ginosar. 2He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. 3He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon (Shimon)'s, and asked him to put out a little from the land.

He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. 4When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon (Shimon), "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

5Simon (Shimon) answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net." 6When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. 7They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8But Simon Peter (Shimon Rock), when he saw it, fell down at YaHshua's knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord (Adoni)." 9For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; 10and so also were Jacob (Yaaqob) and John (Yochanan), sons of Zabdai, who were partners with Simon (Shimon).

YaHshua said to Simon (Shimon), "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive."

11When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. 12It happened, while he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw YaHshua, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord (Adoni), if you want to, you can make me clean."

13He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean."

Immediately the leprosy left him. 14He charged him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the Priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses (Moshe) commanded, for a testimony to them." 15But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. 16But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

17It happened on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of the Galil, Judah (Yehudah), and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). The power of the FATHER was with him to heal them. 18Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before YaHshua. 19Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the midst before YaHshua. 20Seeing their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

21The Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

22But YaHshua, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts? 23Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?' [24]But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."

[25]Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. [26]Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

[27]After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me!"

[28]He left everything, and rose up and followed him. [29]Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. [30]Their Scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?" [31]YaHshua answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. [32]I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

[33]They said to him, "Why do John (Yochanan)'s disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?"

[34]He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? [35]But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days." [36]He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. [37]No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. [38]But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved. [39]No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

Now it happened on the second Shabbat after the first, that he was going through the grain fields. His disciples plucked the heads of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands. [2]But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the day of Shabbat?"

[3]YaHshua, answering them, said, "Haven't you read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him; [4]how he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the Priest (Kohanim) alone?" [5]He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord (Adoni) of the Shabbat."

[6]It also happened on another Shabbat that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered. [7]The Scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Shabbat, that they might find an accusation against him. [8]But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." He arose and stood. [9]Then YaHshua said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Shabbat to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" [10]He looked around at them all, and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other. [11]But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to YaHshua.

[12]It happened in these days, that he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God. [13]When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles: [14]Simon (Shimon), whom he also named Rock; Andrew (Andrai), his brother; Jacob (Yaaqob); John (Yochanan); Philip (Pilipos); Bartholomew (Bar-Talmai); [15]Mattityah; Thomas (Toma); Jacob (Yaaqob), the son of Halfai; Simon (Shimon), who was called the Zealot; [16]Judah (Yehudah) the son of Jacob (Yaaqob); and Judah (Yehudah) Iscariot (Kriot), who also became a traitor. [17]He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judah (Yehudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and the sea coast of Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon), who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; [18]as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed. [19]All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came out from him and healed them all.

[20]He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said,
"Blessed are you who are poor,
For yours is the Kingdom of the FATHER.
[21]Blessed are you who hunger now,
For you will be filled.
Blessed are you who weep now,
For you will laugh.
[22]Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.
[23]Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.

[24]"But woe to you who are rich!
For you have received your consolation.

25Woe to you, you who are full now!
For you will be hungry.
Woe to you who laugh now!
For you will mourn and weep.
26Woe, when men speak well of you!
For their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.

27"But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. 29To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don't withhold your coat also. 30Give to everyone who asks you, and don't ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.

31"As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them. 32If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. 33If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. 34If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much. 35But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of Ha`Elyon (Highest); for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.
36Therefore be merciful,
Even as your FATHER is also merciful.
37Don't judge,
And you won't be judged.
Don't condemn,
And you won't be condemned.
Set free,
And you will be set free.

38"Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."

39He spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit? 40A disciple (talmid) is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. 41Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? 42Or how can you tell your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,' when you yourself don't see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye. 43For there is no good tree that brings forth rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that brings forth good fruit. 44For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don't gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. 45The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.

46"Why do you call me, 'Lord (Adoni), Lord (Adoni),' and don't do the things which I say? 47Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like. 48He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock. 49But he who hears, and doesn't do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum). 2A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. 3When he heard about YaHshua, he sent to him Elders (Zakenim) of the Jew (Yehudim), asking him to come and save his servant. 4When they came to YaHshua, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, 5for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." 6YaHshua went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord (Adoni), don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. 7Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed. 8For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9When YaHshua heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Yisrael." 10Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.

11It happened soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Na`im. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him. 12Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. 13When the Lord (Adoni) saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don't cry." 14He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" 15He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother.

16Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited his people!" 17This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judah (Yehudah), and in all the surrounding region.

18The disciples of John (Yochanan) told him about all these things. 19John (Yochanan), calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to YaHshua, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?" 20When the men had come to him, they said, "John (Yochanan) the immerser has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?'"

21In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight. 22YaHshua answered them, "Go and tell John (Yochanan) the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. 23Blessed is he who is not offended by me."

24When John (Yochanan)'s messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John (Yochanan), "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. 26But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. 27This is he of whom it is written,
'Behold, I send my messenger before your face,
Who will prepare your way before you.'

28"For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John (Yochanan) the immerser, yet he who is least in the Kingdom of the FATHER is greater than he."

29When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been immersed with John (Yochanan)'s immersion. 30But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being immersed by him themselves.

31But the Lord (Adoni) said, "To what then will I liken the people of this generation? What are they like? 32They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call one to another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.' 33For John (Yochanan) the immerser came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' 34The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' 35Wisdom is justified by all her children."

36One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisees's house, and sat at the table. 37Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisees's house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment. 38Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. 39Now when the Parush (Pharisees) who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner."

40YaHshua answered him, "Simon (Shimon), I have something to tell you."

He said, "Teacher, say on."

41"A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. 42When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?"

43Simon (Shimon) answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most."

He said to him, "You have judged correctly." 44Turning to the woman, he said to Simon (Shimon), "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. 45You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. 46You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. 47Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little." 48He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

49Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

50He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace (shalom)."

It happened soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the Kingdom of the FATHER. With him were the twelve, 2and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Miryam who was called Magdala, from whom seven demons had gone out; 3and Yochanah, the wife of Kusa, Herod's steward; Shoshanah; and many others; who ministered to them from their possessions. 4When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable. 5"The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. 6Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. 7Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. 8Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

9Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?"

10He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of the FATHER, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.' 11Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. 12Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. 13Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. 14That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. 15That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. 17For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light. 18Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

19His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd. 20It was told him by some saying, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."

21But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

22Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. 23But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. 24They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm. 25He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?" 26They arrived at the country of the Gadara, which is opposite Galil.

27When YaHshua stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs. 28When he saw YaHshua, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, YaHshua, you Son of Ha`Elyon (Highest) God? I beg you, don't torment me!" 29For YaHshua was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

30YaHshua asked him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. 31They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss. 32Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. 33The demons came out from the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. 34When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

35People went out to see what had happened. They came to YaHshua, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at YaHshua's feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. 37All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadara asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned. 38But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but YaHshua sent him away, saying, 39"Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things YaHshua had done for him.

40It happened, when YaHshua returned, that the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. 41Behold, there came a man named Ya'ir, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at YaHshua's feet, and begged him to come into his house, 42for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. 43A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any, 44came behind him, and touched the hem (tzitzit) of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped. 45YaHshua said, "Who touched me?"

When all denied it, Simon (Shimon) and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

46But YaHshua said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me." 47When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. 48He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace (shalom)."

49While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't trouble the Teacher."

50But YaHshua hearing it, answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."

51When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Simon (Shimon), John (Yochanan), Jacob (Yaaqob), the father of the child, and her mother. 52All were weeping and mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, but sleeping."

53They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead. 54But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Child, arise!" 55Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat. 56Her parents were amazed, but he charged them to tell no one what had been done.

He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. 2He sent them forth to preach the Kingdom of the FATHER, and to heal the sick. 3He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey—neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece. 4Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. 5As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."

6They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News, and healing everywhere. 7Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John (Yochanan) had risen from the dead, 8and by some that Eliyah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. 9Herod said, "John (Yochanan) I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see him. 10The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done.

He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Beit-Tzaidah. 11But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of the Kingdom of the FATHER, and he cured those who needed healing. 12The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place."

13But he said to them, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people." 14For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15They did so, and made them all sit down. 16He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

18It happened, as he was praying alone, that the disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

19They answered, "'John (Yochanan) the immerser,' but others say, 'Eliyah,' and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."

20He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Simon (Shimon) answered, "The the Messiah of God."

21But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, 22saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the Elders (Zakenim), chief Priest (Kohanim), and Scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

23He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 24For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. 25For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? 26For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the FATHER, and of the holy angels. 27But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Kingdom of the FATHER."

28It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Simon (Shimon), John (Yochanan), and Jacob (Yaaqob), and went up onto the mountain to pray. 29As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. 30Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses (Moshe) and Eliyah, 31who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

32Now Simon (Shimon) and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. 33It happened, as they were parting from him, that Simon (Shimon) said to YaHshua, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses (Moshe), and one for Eliyah," not knowing what he said.

34While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. 35A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!" 36When the voice came, YaHshua was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met him. 38Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. 39Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. 40I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't."

41YaHshua answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

42While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But YaHshua rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which YaHshua did, he said to his disciples, 44"Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." 45But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

46There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. 47YaHshua, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, 48and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."

49John (Yochanan) answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us."

50YaHshua said to him, "Don't forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."

51It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), 52and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaria (Shomroni), so as to prepare for him. 53They didn't receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 54When his disciples, Jacob (Yaaqob) and John (Yochanan), saw this, they said, "Lord (Adoni), do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Eliyah did?"

55But he turned and rebuked them, "You don't know of what kind of spirit you are. 56For the Son of Man didn't come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

They went to another village. 57As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord (Adoni)."

59He said to another, "Follow me!"

But he said, "Lord (Adoni), allow me first to go and bury my father."

60But YaHshua said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce the Kingdom of the FATHER."

61Another also said, "I want to follow you, Lord (Adoni), but first allow me to bid farewell to those who are at my house."

62But YaHshua said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of the FATHER."

Now after these things, the Lord (Adoni) also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him into every city and place, where he was about to come. 2Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord (Adoni) of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest. 3Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. 4Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. 5Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace (shalom) be to this house.' 6If a son of peace (shalom) is there, your peace (shalom) will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. 7Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house. 8Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. 9Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, 'The Kingdom of the FATHER has come near to you.' 10But into whatever city you enter, and they don't receive you, go out into the streets of it and say, 11'Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the Kingdom of the FATHER has come near to you.' 12I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sedom than for that city.

13"Woe to you, Kora'zin! Woe to you, Beit-Tzaidah! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon) which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14But it will be more tolerable for Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon) in the judgment than for you. 15You, Capernaum (Kafar-Nachum), who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to The grave (Sheol). 16Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."

17The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord (Adoni), even the demons are subject to us in your name!"

18He said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven. 19Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. 20Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

21In that same hour YaHshua rejoiced in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and said, "I thank you, O FATHER, Lord (Adoni) of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, FATHER, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."

22Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me by my FATHER. No one knows who the Son is, except the FATHER, and who the FATHER is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him."

23Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, 24for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."

25Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"

27He answered, "You shall love YaHWeH your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

28He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."

29But he, desiring to justify himself, asked YaHshua, "Who is my neighbor?"

30YaHshua answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to Yericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31By chance a certain Priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. 33But a certain Samaria (Shomroni), as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, 34came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' 36Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

37He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then YaHshua said to him, "Go and do likewise."

38It happened as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Marta received him into her house. 39She had a sister called Miryam, who also sat at YaHshua's feet, and heard his word. 40But Marta was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord (Adoni), don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."

41YaHshua answered her, "Marta, Marta, you are anxious and troubled about many things, 42but one thing is needed. Miryam has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

It happened, that when he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord (Adoni), teach us to pray, just as John (Yochanan) also taught his disciples."

2He said to them, "When you pray, say,
'Our FATHER in heaven,
May your name be kept holy.
May your kingdom come.
May your will be done on Earth, as it is in heaven.
3Give us day by day our daily bread.
4Forgive us our sins,
For we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

Bring us not into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.'"

5He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, 6for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,' 7and he from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you'? 8I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

9"I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. 10For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.

11"Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? 12Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion, will he? 13If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly FATHER give the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) to those who ask him?"

14He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. It happened, when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled. 15But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Baal-Zibbul, the prince of the demons." 16Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. 17But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. 18If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Baal-Zibbul. 19But if I cast out demons by Baal-Zibbul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges. 20But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then the Kingdom of the FATHER has come to you.

21"When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe. 22But when someone stronger attacks him and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.

23"He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn't gather with me scatters. 24The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, 'I will turn back to my house from which I came out.' 25When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. 26Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

27It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"

28But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it."

29When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Yonah, the prophet. 30For even as Yonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation. 31The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon (Shlomo); and behold, one greater than Solomon (Shlomo) is here. 32The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Yonah, and behold, one greater than Yonah is here.

33"No man, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar, nor under a basket, but on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. 34The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. 35Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness. 36If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light."

37Now as he spoke, a certain Parush (Pharisees) asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table. 38When the Parush (Pharisees) saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner. 39The Lord (Adoni) said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also? 41But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. 42But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe the mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. 43Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. 44Woe to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don't know it."

45One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, in saying this you insult us also."

46He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. 47Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs. 49Therefore also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute, 50that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; 51from the blood of Abel (Hebel) to the blood of Zekharyah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.' Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. 52Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn't enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."

53As he said these things to them, the Scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him; 54lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.

Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. 3Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops.

4"I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehinnom. Yes, I tell you, fear him.

6"Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria coins? Not one of them is forgotten by God. 7But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.

8"I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God; 9but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God. 10Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) will not be forgiven. 11When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don't be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say; 12for the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) will teach you in that same hour what you must say."

13One of the multitude said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

14But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?" 15He said to them, "Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."

16He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth abundantly. 17He reasoned within himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?' 18He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry."'

20"But God said to him, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?' 21So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

22He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. 23Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. 24Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds! 25Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height? 26If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest? 27Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon (Shlomo) in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. 28But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? 29Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. 30For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your FATHER knows that you need these things. 31But seek The FATHER's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you. 32Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your FATHER's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. 33Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. 34For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35"Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning. 36Be like men watching for their Lord (Adoni), when he returns from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him. 37Blessed are those servants, whom the Lord (Adoni) will find watching when he comes. Most assuredly I tell you, that he will dress himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them. 38They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so. 39But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into. 40Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."

42The Lord (Adoni) said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his Lord (Adoni) will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times? 43Blessed is that servant whom his Lord (Adoni) will find doing so when he comes. 44Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. 45But if that servant says in his heart, 'My Lord (Adoni) delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken, 46then the Lord (Adoni) of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. 47That servant, who knew his Lord (Adoni)'s will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, 48but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whoever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

49"I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled. 50But I have a immersion to be immersed with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! 51Do you think that I have come to give peace (shalom) in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. 52For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. 53They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. 55When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. 56You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time? 57Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? 58For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. 59I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last peruta."

Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2YaHshua answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? 3I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. 4Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Shiloach fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)?

5I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."

6He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none. 7He said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?' 8He answered, 'Lord (Adoni), leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. 9If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'"

10He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the day of Shabbat. 11Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up. 12When YaHshua saw her, he called her, and said to her,
"Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." 13He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

14The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because YaHshua had healed on the Shabbat, said to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work.
Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the day of Shabbat!"

15Therefore the Lord (Adoni) answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Shabbat, and lead him away to water?
16Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the day of Shabbat?"

17As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18He said, "What is the Kingdom of the FATHER like? To what shall I compare it? 19It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky lodged in its branches."

20Again he said, "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of the FATHER? 21It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

22He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 23One said to him, "Lord (Adoni), are they few who are saved?"

He said to them, 24"Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. 25When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), Lord (Adoni), open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' 26Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drink in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' 27He will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.' [28]There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Issac (Yitzchak), Jacob (Yaaqob), and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of the FATHER, and yourselves being thrown outside. [29]They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the Kingdom of the FATHER. [30]Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."

[31]On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill you."

[32]He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission. [33]Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can't be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).'

[34]"Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused! [35]Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the FATHER!'"

It happened, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Shabbat to eat bread, that they were watching him. [2]Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. [3]YaHshua, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Shabbat?"

[4]But they were silent.

He took him, and healed him, and let him go. [5]He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Shabbat day?"

[6]They couldn't answer him regarding these things.

[7]He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, [8]"When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, [9]and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. [10]But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. 11For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

12He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. 13But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; 14and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."

15When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in the Kingdom of the God!"

16But he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. 17He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.' 18They all as one began to make excuses.

"The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.'

19"Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.'

20"Another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I can't come.'

21"That servant came, and told his Lord (Adoni) these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.'

22"The servant said, 'Lord (Adoni), it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.'

23"The Lord (Adoni) said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. 24For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'"

25Now great multitudes were going with him. He turned and said to them, 26"If anyone comes to me, and doesn't hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't be my disciple (talmid). 27Whoever doesn't bear his own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple (talmid). 28For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? 29Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, 30saying, 'This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish.' 31Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? 32Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace (shalom). 33So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be my disciple (talmid). 34Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? 35It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him. 2The Pharisees and the Scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."

3He told them this parable. 4"Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? 5When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them,
'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' 7I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. 8Or what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost one drachma coin, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? 9When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying,
'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.' 10Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."

11He said, "A certain man had two sons. 12The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of your property.' He divided his livelihood between them. 13Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country.
There he wasted his property with riotous living. 14When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. 15He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. 17But when he came to himself he said, 'How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I'm dying with hunger! 18I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. 19I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants."'

20"He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. 21The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22"But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. 23Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate; 24for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' They began to celebrate.

25"Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. 27He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' 28But he was angry, and would not go in.
Therefore his father came out, and begged him. 29But he answered his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a word (mitzvah) of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. 30But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.'

31"He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. 32But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again.
He was lost, and is found.'"

He also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. 2He called him, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'

3"The manager said within himself, 'What will I do, seeing that my Lord (Adoni) is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. 4I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.' 5Calling each one of his Lord (Adoni)'s debtors to him, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my Lord (Adoni)?' 6He said, 'A hundred batos of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' 7Then said he to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred cors of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

8"His Lord (Adoni) commended the dishonest manager because he had done wisely, for the children of this world are, in their own generation, wiser than the children of the light.
9I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents. 10He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. 11If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? 13No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and mammon."

14The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. 15He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. 16The law and the prophets were until John (Yochanan). From that time the Good News of the Kingdom of the FATHER is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. 17But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall. 18Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

19"Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. 20A certain beggar, named Lazarus (Elazar), was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22It happened that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. 23In The grave (Sheol), he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus (Elazar) at his bosom. 24He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus (Elazar), that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

25"But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus (Elazar), in like manner, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish. 26Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that none may cross over from there to us.'

27"He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house; 28for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.'

29"But Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses (Moshe) and the prophets. Let them listen to them.'

30"He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.'

31"He said to him, 'If they don't listen to Moses (Moshe) and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.'"

He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! 2It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. 4If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

5The apostles said to the Lord (Adoni), "Increase our faith."

6The Lord (Adoni) said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,' 8and will not rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink'? 9Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not. 10Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.'"

11It happened as he was on his way to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), that he was passing along the borders of Samaria (Shomron) and the Galil. 12As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance. 13They lifted up their voices, saying, "YaHshua, Master, have mercy on us!"

14When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the Priest (Kohanim)."
It happened that as they went, they were cleansed. 15One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. 16He fell on his face at YaHshua's feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaria (Shomroni). 17YaHshua answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine? 18Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?" 19Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."

20Being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The Kingdom of the FATHER doesn't come with observation; 21neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'Look, there!' for behold, the Kingdom of the FATHER is within you."

22He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Don't go away, nor follow after them, [24]for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day. [25]But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. [26]As it happened in the days of Noah (Noach), even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. [27]They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah (Noach) entered into the ark (teibah), and the flood came, and destroyed them all. [28]Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; [29]but in the day that Lot went out from Sedom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all. [30]It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. [31]In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. [32]Remember Lot's wife! [33]Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. [34]I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. [35]There will be two grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left." [36]

[37]They answering, asked him, "Where, Lord (Adoni)?"

He said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."

He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, [2]saying, "There was a judge in a certain city who didn't fear God, and didn't respect man. [3]A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!' [4]He wouldn't for a while, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God, nor respect man, [5]yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.'"

[6]The Lord (Adoni) said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. [7]Won't God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? [8]I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

[9]He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. [10]"Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Parush (Pharisees), and the other was a tax collector. [11]The Parush (Pharisees) stood and prayed to himself like this: 'God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. [12]I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.' [13]But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' [14]I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

15They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. 16YaHshua summoned them, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for the Kingdom of the FATHER belongs to such as these. 17Most assuredly, I tell you, whoever doesn't receive the Kingdom of the FATHER like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."

18A certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

19YaHshua asked him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—the FATHER. 20You know the commandments (mitzvot) : 'Don't commit adultery,' 'Don't murder,' 'Don't steal,' 'Don't give false testimony,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'"

21He said, "I have observed all these things from my youth up."

22When YaHshua heard these things, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me."

23But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

24YaHshua, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER! 25For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER."

26Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

27But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

28Simon (Shimon) said, "Look, we have left everything, and followed you."

29He said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the Kingdom of the FATHER's sake, 30who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life."

31He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. 32For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles (Goyim), will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. 33They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again."

34They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn't understand the things that were said. 35It happened, as he came near Yericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. 36Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant. 37They told him that YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret) was passing by.
38He cried out, "YaHshua, you son of David, have mercy on me!" 39Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

40Standing still, YaHshua commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, 41"What do you want me to do?"

He said, "Lord (Adoni), that I may see again."

42YaHshua said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you."

43Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

He entered and was passing through Yericho. 2There was a man named Zakkai. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3He was trying to see who YaHshua was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short. 4He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. 5When YaHshua came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zakkai, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." 6He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully.
7When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."

8Zakkai stood and said to the Lord (Adoni), "Behold, Lord (Adoni), half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."

9YaHshua said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. 10For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

11As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and they supposed that the Kingdom of the FATHER would be revealed immediately. 12He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins, and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.' 14But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, 'We don't want this man to reign over us.'

15"It happened when he had come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. 16The first came before him, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), your mina has made ten more minas.'

17"He said to him, 'Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

18"The second came, saying, 'Your mina, Lord (Adoni), has made five minas.'

19"So he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.' 20Another came, saying, 'Lord (Adoni), behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, 21for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.'

22"He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow. 23Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?' 24He said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.'

25"They said to him, 'Lord (Adoni), he has ten minas!' 26'For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him. 27But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.'" 28Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

29It happened, when he drew near to Beit-Pagey and Beit-Anyah, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples, 30saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it. 31If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' say to him: 'The Lord (Adoni) needs it.'"

32Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them. 33As they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34They said, "The Lord (Adoni) needs it." 35They brought it to YaHshua. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set YaHshua on them. 36As he went, they spread their cloaks in the way. 37As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen, [38]saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of God! Peace (shalom) in heaven, and glory in the highest!"

[39]Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"

[40]He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."

[41]When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it, [42]saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace (shalom)! But now, they are hidden from your eyes. [43]For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem (tzitzit) you in on every side, [44]and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."

[45]He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it, [46]saying to them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,' but you have made it a 'den of robbers'!"

[47]He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him. [48]They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

It happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, that the Priest (Kohanim) and Scribes came to him with the Elders (Zakenim). [2]They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"

[3]He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me: [4]the immersion of John (Yochanan), was it from heaven, or from men?"

[5]They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why didn't you believe him?' [6]But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John (Yochanan) was a prophet." [7]They answered that they didn't know where it was from.

[8]YaHshua said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

[9]He began to tell the people this parable. "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time. [10]At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. 11He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. 12He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out. 13The Lord (Adoni) of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.'

14"But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' 15They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the Lord (Adoni) of the vineyard do to them? 16He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others."

When they heard it, they said, "May it never be!"

17But he looked at them, and said, "Then what is this that is written,
'The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the chief cornerstone?'
18"Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces,
But it will crush whomever it falls on to dust."

19The chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes sought to lay hands on Him that very hour, but they feared the people—for they knew He had spoken this parable against them. 20They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor. 21They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. 22Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

23But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, "Why do you test me? 24Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?"

They answered, "Caesar's."

25He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent. 27Some of the Sadducees (Tzedukim) came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. 28They asked him, "Teacher, Moses (Moshe) wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother. 29There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. 30The second took her as wife, and he died childless. 31The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. 32Afterward the woman also died. [33]Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

[34]YaHshua said to them, "The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage. [35]But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. [36]For they can't die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. [37]But that the dead are raised, even Moses (Moshe) showed at the bush, when he called YaHWeH 'The God of Abraham, the God of Issac (Yitzchak), and the God of Jacob (Yaaqob).' [38]Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him."

[39]Some of the Scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well." [40]They didn't dare to ask him any more questions.

[41]He said to them, "Why do they say that theMessiah is David's son? [42]David himself says in the book of Tehillim,
'YaHWeH said to my Lord (Adoni),
"Sit at my right hand,
[43]Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."'

[44]"David therefore calls him Lord (Adoni), so how is he his son?"

[45]In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, [46]"Beware of the Scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts; [47]who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."

He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury. [2]He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins. [3]He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, [4]for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on."

[5]As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, [6]"As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."

[7]They asked him, "Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"

8He said, "Watch out that you don't get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, 'I AM,' and, 'The time is at hand.' Therefore don't follow them. 9When you hear of wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately."

10Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. 12But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name's sake. 13It will turn out as a testimony for you. 14Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, 15for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. 16You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. Some of you they will cause to be put to death. 17You will be hated by all men for my name's sake. 18And not a hair of your head will perish.

20"But when you see Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. 21Then let those who are in Judah (Yehudah) flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the midst of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein. 22For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. 23Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. 24They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will be trampled down by the Gentiles (Goyim), until the times of the Gentiles (Goyim) are fulfilled. 25There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; 26men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 27Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. 28But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."

29He told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees. 30When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. 31Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of the FATHER is near. 32Most assuredly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. 33Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

34"So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. 35For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. [36]Therefore be watchful all the time, asking that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

[37]Every day YaHshua was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. [38]All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

Now the feast of unleaven bread (matzah), which is called the Passover (Pesach), drew near. [2]The chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people. [3]Satan entered into Judah (Yehudah), who was surnamed Ish-K'riot, who was numbered with the twelve. [4]He went away, and talked with the chief Priest (Kohanim) and captains about how he might deliver him to them. [5]They were glad, and agreed to give him money. [6]He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude. [7]The day of unleaven bread (matzah) came, on which the Passover (Pesach) must be sacrificed. [8]He sent Simon (Shimon) and John (Yochanan), saying, "Go and prepare the Passover (Pesach) for us, that we may eat."

[9]They said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare?"

[10]He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. [11]Tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover (Pesach) with my disciples?"' [12]He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."

[13]They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover (Pesach). [14]When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve apostles. [15]He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover (Pesach) with you before I suffer, [16]for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of the FATHER." [17]He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves, [18]for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of the FATHER comes."

[19]He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." [20]Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. [21]But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. [22]The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"

23They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. 24There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. 25He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles (Goyim) Lord (Adoni) it over them, and those who have authority over them are called 'benefactors.' 26But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. 27For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it he who sits at the table? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves. 28But you are those who have continued with me in my trials. 29I confer on you a kingdom, even as my FATHER conferred on me, 30that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisrael."

31The Lord (Adoni) said, "Simon (Shimon), Simon (Shimon), behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat, 32but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers."

33He said to him, "Lord (Adoni), I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!"

34He said, "I tell you, Simon (Shimon), the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times."

35He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?"

They said, "Nothing."

36Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword. 37For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was counted with the lawless.' For that which concerns me has an end."

38They said, "Lord (Adoni), behold, here are two swords."

He said to them, "That is enough."

39He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him. 40When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don't enter into temptation."

41He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed, 42saying, "FATHER, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

43An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. 44Being in agony he prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

45When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief, 46and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

47While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judah (Yehudah), one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to YaHshua to kiss him.
48But YaHshua said to him, "Judah (Yehudah), do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said to him, "Lord (Adoni), shall we strike with the sword?" 50A certain one of them struck the servant of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), and cut off his right ear.

51But YaHshua answered, "Let me at least do this"—and he touched his ear, and healed him. 52YaHshua said to the chief Priest (Kohanim), captains of the temple, and Elders (Zakenim), who had come against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? 53When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn't stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

54They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the High Priest (Kohen Gadol)'s house. But Simon (Shimon) followed from a distance. 55When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Simon (Shimon) sat among them. 56A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him."

57He denied YaHshua, saying, "Woman, I don't know him."

58After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!"

But Simon (Shimon) answered, "Man, I am not!"

59After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Gelili!"

60But Simon (Shimon) said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!"
Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. 61The Lord (Adoni) turned, and looked at Simon (Shimon). Then Simon (Shimon) remembered the Lord (Adoni)'s word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times." 62He went out, and wept bitterly.

63The men who held YaHshua mocked him and beat him. 64Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, "Prophesy! Who is the one who struck you?" 65They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.

66As soon as it was day, the assembly of the Elders (Zakenim) of the people was gathered together, both chief Priest (Kohanim) and Scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying, 67"If you are theMessiah, tell us."

But he said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe, 68and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go. 69From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

70They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?"

He said to them, "You say it, because I AM."

71They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!"

The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate. 2They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king."

3Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jew (Yehudim)?"

He answered him, "So you say."

4Pilate said to the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

5But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judah (Yehudah), beginning from the Galil even to this place." 6But when Pilate heard Galil mentioned, he asked if the man was a Gelili. 7When he found out that he was in Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) during those days.

8Now when Herod saw YaHshua, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him. [9]He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers. [10]The chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. [11]Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate. [12]Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

[13]Pilate called together the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the rulers and the people, [14]and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him. [15]Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. [16]I will therefore chastise him and release him."

[17]Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast. [18]But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Bar-Abba!" — [19]one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.

[20]Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release YaHshua, [21]but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!"

[22]He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him." [23]But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief Priest (Kohanim) prevailed. [24]Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. [25]He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered YaHshua up to their will.

[26]When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon (Shimon) of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after YaHshua. [27]A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him. [28]But YaHshua, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. [29]For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' [30]Then they will begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.' [31]For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?"

[32]There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death. [33]When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

[34]YaHshua said, "FATHER, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing."

Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots. [35]The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is theMessiah of God, his chosen one!"

[36]The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, [37]and saying, "If you are the King of the Jew (Yehudim), save yourself!"

[38]An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek (Yebanit), Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEW (YEHUDIM)."

[39]One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are theMessiah, save yourself and us!"

[40]But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? [41]And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." [42]He said to YaHshua, "Lord (Adoni), remember me when you come into your kingdom."

[43]YaHshua said to him, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

[44]It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. [45]The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. [46]YaHshua, crying with a loud voice, said, "FATHER, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last.

[47]When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man." [48]All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. [49]All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from the Galil, stood at a distance, watching these things.

[50]Behold, a man named Joseph (Yosef), who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man [51](he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Ramatayim, a city of the Jew (Yehudim), who was also waiting for the Kingdom of the FATHER: [52]this man went to Pilate, and asked for YaHshua's body. [53]He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid. [54]It was the day of the Preparation, and the Shabbat was drawing near. [55]The women, who had come with him out of the Galil, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid. [56]They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Shabbat they rested according to the word (mitzvah).

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. [2]They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. [3]They entered in, and didn't find the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua's body. [4]It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. [5]Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth.

They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? [6]He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in the Galil, [7]saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"

[8]They remembered his words, [9]returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. [10]Now they were Miryam from Magdala, Yochanah, and Miryam the mother of Jacob (Yaaqob). The other women with them told these things to the apostles. [11]These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them. [12]But Simon (Shimon) got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

[13]Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Amma'us, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [14]They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. [15]It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that YaHshua himself came near, and went with them. [16]But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. [17]He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"

[18]One of them, named Klofah, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"

[19]He said to them, "What things?"

They said to him, "The things concerning YaHshua, the Nazareth (Natzri), who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; [20]and how the chief Priest (Kohanim) and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. [21]But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Yisrael. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. [22]Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; [23]and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. [24]Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him."

[25]He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! [26]Didn't theMessiah have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?" [27]Beginning from Moses (Moshe) and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. [28]They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

[29]They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over."

He went in to stay with them. [30]It happened, that when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. [31]Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. [32]They said one to another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" [33]They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, [34]saying, "The Lord (Adoni) is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon (Shimon)!" [35]They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

[36]As they said these things, YaHshua himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace (shalom) be to you."

[37]But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

[38]He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? [39]See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have." [40]When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. [41]While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

[42]They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. [43]He took them, and ate in front of them. [44]He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses (Moshe), the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled."

[45]Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. [46]He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for theMessiah to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, [47]and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [48]You are witnesses of these things. [49]Behold, I send forth the promise of my FATHER on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) until you are clothed with power from on high."

50He led them out as far as Beit-Anyah, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. 51It happened, while he blessed them, that he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven. 52They worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with great joy, 53and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. .

Notes:

Acts

The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that YaHshua began both to do and to teach, [2]until the day in which he was received up, after he had given word (mitzvah) through the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) to the apostles whom he had chosen. [3]To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about The FATHER's Kingdom. [4]Being assembled together with them, he charged them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), but wait for the promise of the FATHER, which you heard from me. [5]For John (Yochanan) indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) not many days from now."

[6]Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord (Adoni), are you now restoring the kingdom to Yisrael?"

[7]He said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the FATHER has set within His own authority. [8]But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), in all Judah (Yehudah) and Samaria (Shomron), and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

[9]When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. [10]While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing, [11]who also said, "You men of the Galil, why do you stand looking into the sky? This YaHshua, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."

[12]Then they returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), a Shabbat day's journey away. [13]When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Simon (Shimon), John (Yochanan), Jacob (Yaaqob), Andrew (Andrai), Philip (Pilipos), Thomas (Toma), Bartholomew (Bar-Talmai), Mattityah, Jacob (Yaaqob) the son of Halfai, Simon (Shimon) the Zealot, and Judah (Yehudah) the son of Jacob (Yaaqob). [14]All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Miryam the mother of YaHshua, and with his brothers.

15In these days, Simon (Shimon) stood up in the midst of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, 16"Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judah (Yehudah), who was guide to those who took YaHshua. 17For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry. 18Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. 19It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) that in their language that field was called 'Hakal-Dama,' that is, 'The field of blood.' 20For it is written in the book of Tehillim,
'Let his habitation be made desolate, Let no one dwell therein,'

and,
'Let another take his office.'

21Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua went in and out among us, 22beginning from the immersion of John (Yochanan), to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection."

23They put forward two, Joseph (Yosef) called Bar-Sabba, who was surnamed Justus, and Mattityah. 24They prayed, and said, "You, Lord (Adoni), who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen 25to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judah (Yehudah) fell away, that he might go to his own place." 26They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Mattityah, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Now when the day of Pentecost (Shavuot) had come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. 4They were all filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. 5Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) Jew (Yehudim), devout men, from every nation under the sky. 6When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. 7They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, aren't all these who speak from the Galil? 8How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? 9Parthians, Madai, Elamites, and people from Aram-Naharayim, Judah (Yehudah), Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, 10Phrygia, Pamphylia, Eygpt (Mitzrayim), the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jew (Yehudim) and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabiim: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!" 12 They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this mean?" 13 Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine."

14 But Simon (Shimon), standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, "You men of Judah (Yehudah), and all you who dwell at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), let this be known to you, and listen to my words. 15 For these aren't drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day. 16 But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Yo'el:
17 'It will be in the last days, says God,
That I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.
Your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your young men will see visions.
Your old men will dream dreams.
18 Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days,
I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.
19 I will show wonders in the sky above,
And signs on the earth beneath;
Blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.
20 The sun will be turned into darkness,
And the moon into blood,
Before the great and glorious day of the Lord (Adoni) comes.
21 It will be, that whoever will call on the name of the Lord (Adoni) will be saved.'

22 "Men of Yisrael, hear these words! YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret), a man approved by the FATHER to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which the FATHER did by him in the midst of you, even as you yourselves know, 23 him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of the FATHER, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed; 24 whom the FATHER raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. 25 For David says concerning him,
'I saw YaHWeH always before my face,
For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.
26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced.
Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;
27 Because you will not leave my soul in The grave (Sheol), Neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.
28 You made known to me the ways of life.
You will make me full of gladness with your presence.'

29"Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up theMessiah to sit on his throne, 31he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of theMessiah, that neither was his soul left in The grave (Sheol), nor did his flesh see decay. 32This YaHshua the FATHER raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. 33Being therefore exalted by the right hand of the FATHER, and having received from the FATHER the promise of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), he has poured out this, which you now see and hear. 34For David didn't ascend into the heavens, but he says himself,
'The Lord (Adoni) said to my Lord (Adoni), "Sit by my right hand, 35Until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."'

36"Let all the house of Yisrael therefore know assuredly that the FATHER has made him both Lord (Adoni) and the Messiah, this YaHshua whom you crucified."

37Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Simon (Shimon) and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

38Simon (Shimon) said to them, "Repent, and be immersed, everyone of you, in the name of YaHshua the Messiah for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 39For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the FATHER our God will call to himself." 40With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!"

41Then those who gladly received his word were immersed. There were added that day about three thousand souls. 42They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. 43Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. 44All who believed were together, and had all things in common. 45They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. 46Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord (Adoni) added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.

Simon (Shimon) and John (Yochanan) were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Yafeh, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple. 3Seeing Simon (Shimon) and John (Yochanan) about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. 4Simon (Shimon), fastening his eyes on him, with John (Yochanan), said, "Look at us." 5He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them. 6But Simon (Shimon) said, "Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of YaHshua the Messiah of Nazareth (Natzeret), get up and walk!" 7He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. 8Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. 9All the people saw him walking and praising God. 10They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Yafeh Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. 11As the lame man who was healed held on to Simon (Shimon) and John (Yochanan), all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon (Shlomo)'s, greatly wondering.

12When Simon (Shimon) saw it, he responded to the people, "You men of Yisrael, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or Godliness we had made him walk? 13The God of Abraham, Issac (Yitzchak), and Jacob (Yaaqob), the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant YaHshua, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. 14But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses. 16By faith in his name has his name made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17"Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that the Messiah should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

19"Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the FATHER, 20and that he may send the Messiah YaHshua, who was ordained for you before, 21whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which the FATHER spoke long ago by the mouth of his holy prophets. 22For Moses (Moshe) indeed said to the fathers, 'YaHWeH God (Elohim) will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you. 23It will be, that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.' 24Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel (Shemuel) and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. 25You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.' 26God, having raised up his servant, YaHshua, sent him to you first, to bless you, in turning away everyone of you from your wickedness."

As they spoke to the people, the Priest (Kohanim) and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees (Tzedukim) came to them, [2]being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in YaHshua the resurrection from the dead. [3]They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. [4]But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

[5]It happened in the morning, that their rulers, Elders (Zakenim), and Scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [6]Anan the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) was there, with Kayafa, John (Yochanan), Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the High Priest (Kohen Gadol). [7]When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?"

[8]Then Simon (Shimon), filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), said to them, "You rulers of the people, and Elders (Zakenim) of Yisrael, [9]if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, [10]be it known to you all, and to all the people of Yisrael, that in the name of YaHshua the Messiah of Nazareth (Natzeret), whom you crucified, whom the FATHER raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole. [11]He is 'the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.' [12]There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, by which we must be saved!"

[13]Now when they saw the boldness of Simon (Shimon) and John (Yochanan), and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with YaHshua. [14]Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. [15]But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, [16]saying, "What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and we can't deny it. [17]But so that this spreads no further among the people, let's threaten them, that from now on they don't speak to anyone in this name." [18]They called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of YaHshua.

[19]But Simon (Shimon) and John (Yochanan) answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, [20]for we can't help telling the things which we saw and heard."

21When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. 22For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

23Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Elders (Zakenim) had said to them. 24When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "O Lord (Adoni), you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; 25who by the mouth of your servant, David, said,
'Why do the nations rage,
And the peoples plot a vain thing?
26The kings of the earth take a stand,
And the rulers take council together,
Against the FATHER, and against his the Messiah.'

27For truly, in this city against your holy servant, YaHshua, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles (Goyim) and the people of Yisrael, were gathered together 28to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen. 29Now, Lord (Adoni), look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, 30while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant YaHshua."

31When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and they spoke the word of God with boldness. 32The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. 33With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua. Great grace was on them all. 34For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, 35and laid them at the apostles' feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need. 36Yosi, who by the apostles was surnamed Bar-Nabba (which is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, 37having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

But a certain man named Hananyah, with Shappirah, his wife, sold a possession, 2and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. 3But Simon (Shimon) said, "Hananyah, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and to keep back part of the price of the land? 4While you kept it, didn't it remain your own? After it was sold, wasn't it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You haven't lied to men, but to God."

5Hananyah, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things. 6The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. 7About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. 8Simon (Shimon) answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much."

She said, "Yes, for so much."

9But Simon (Shimon) asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord (Adoni)? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

10She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. 11Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things. 12By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon (Shlomo)'s porch. 13None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. 14More believers were added to the Lord (Adoni), multitudes of both men and women. 15They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Simon (Shimon) came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them. 16Multitudes also came together from the cities around Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

17But the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees (Tzedukim)), and they were filled with jealousy, 18and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody. 19But an angel of the FATHER opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, 20"Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

21When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Yisrael, and sent to the prison to have them brought. 22But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported, 23"We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!"

24Now when the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), the captain of the temple, and the chief Priest (Kohanim) heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. 25One came and told them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people." 26Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

27When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) questioned them, 28saying, "Didn't we strictly charge you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

29But Simon (Shimon) and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. 30The God of our fathers raised up YaHshua, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree. 31 The FATHER exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Yisrael, and remission of sins. 32We are His witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), whom the FATHER has given to those who obey him."

33But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and determined to kill them. 34But one stood up in the council, a Parush (Pharisees) named Gamli'el, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles out for a little while. 35He said to them, "You men of Yisrael, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. 36For before these days Todah rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. 37After this man, Judah (Yehudah) of the Galil rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. 39But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!"

40They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of YaHshua, and let them go. 41They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for YaHshua's name.

42Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching YaHshua, theMessiah.

Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Yebanian Jew (Yehudim) against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily service. 2The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. 3Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. 4But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

5These words pleased the whole multitude. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), Philip (Pilipos), Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch; 6whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. 7The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) exceedingly. A great company of the Priest (Kohanim) were obedient to the faith.

8Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. 9But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. 10They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. 11Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses (Moshe) and God." 12They stirred up the people, the Elders (Zakenim), and the Scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, 13and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. 14For we have heard him say that this YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret) will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses (Moshe) delivered to us." 15All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) said, "Are these things so?"

2He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God (Elohim) of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Aram-Naharayim, before he lived in Haran, 3and said to him, 'Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.' 4Then he came out of the land of the Kasdim, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God (Elohim) moved him into this land, where you are now living. 5He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he still had no child. 6God (Elohim) spoke in this way: that his seed would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. 7'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God (Elohim), 'and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.' 8He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Issac (Yitzchak), and circumcised him the eighth day. Issac (Yitzchak) became the father of Jacob (Yaaqob), and Jacob (Yaaqob) became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

9"The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph (Yosef), sold him into Eygpt (Mitzrayim). God was with him, 10and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharoh, king of Eygpt (Mitzrayim). He made him governor over Eygpt (Mitzrayim) and all his house. 11Now a famine came over all the land of Eygpt (Mitzrayim) and Kanaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food. 12But when Jacob (Yaaqob) heard that there was grain in Eygpt (Mitzrayim), he sent out our fathers the first time. 13On the second time Joseph (Yosef) was made known to his brothers, and Joseph (Yosef)'s race was revealed to Pharoh. 14Joseph (Yosef) sent, and summoned Jacob (Yaaqob), his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls. 15Jacob (Yaaqob) went down into Eygpt (Mitzrayim), and he died, himself and our fathers, 16and they were brought back to Shekhem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shekhem.

17"But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Eygpt (Mitzrayim), 18until there arose a different king, who didn't know Joseph (Yosef). 19The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn't stay alive. 20At that time Moses (Moshe) was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father's house. 21When he was thrown out, Pharoh's daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. 22Moses (Moshe) was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians (Mitzrim). He was mighty in his words and works. 23But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Yisrael. 24Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian (Mitzrian). 25He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand.

26"The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace (shalom) again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?' 27But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian (Mitzrian) yesterday?' 29Moses (Moshe) fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midyan, where he became the father of two sons.

30"When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of YaHWeH appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31When Moses (Moshe) saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of YaHWeH came to him, 32'I am the God (Elohim) of your fathers, the God (Elohim) of Abraham, the God (Elohim) of Issac (Yitzchak), and the God (Elohim) of Jacob (Yaaqob).' Moses (Moshe) trembled, and dared not look. 33YaHWeH said to him, 'Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. 34I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Eygpt (Mitzrayim), and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them.
Now come, I will send you into Eygpt (Mitzrayim).'

35"This Moses (Moshe), whom they refused, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'—God (Elohim) has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Eygpt (Mitzrayim), in the Sea of Suf, and in the wilderness for forty years.
37This is that Moses (Moshe), who said to the children of Yisrael, 'YaHWeH our God (Elohim) will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.' 38This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living oracles to give to us, 39to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Eygpt (Mitzrayim), 40saying to Aharon, 'Make us Gods (Elohim) that will go before us, for as for this Moses (Moshe), who led us out of the land of Eygpt (Mitzrayim), we don't know what has become of him.' 41They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. 42But God turned, and gave them up to serve the host of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets,
'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices
Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Yisrael?
43You took up the tent of Molekh,
The star of your God Reifan,
The figures which you made to worship.
I will carry you away beyond Babel.'

44"Our fathers had the tent of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses (Moshe) commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen; 45which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Yahoshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God (Elohim) drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David, 46who found favor in the sight of God (Elohim), and asked to find a habitation for the God (Elohim) of Jacob (Yaaqob). 47But Solomon (Shlomo) built him a house. 48However, Ha`Elyon (Highest) doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, 49'heaven is my throne,
And the earth a footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build me?' says the Lord (Adoni);
'Or what is the place of my rest?
50Didn't my hand make all these things?'

51"You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)! As your fathers did, so you do. 52Which of the prophets didn't your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers. 53You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!"

54Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. 55But he, being full of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of the FATHER, and YaHshua standing on the right hand of the FATHER, 56and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of the FATHER!"

57But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord. 58They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul (Shaul). 59They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, "Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, receive my Spirit!" 60He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Lord (Adoni), don't hold this sin against them!" When he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul (Shaul) was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judah (Yehudah) and Samaria (Shomron), except for the apostles. 2Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. 3But Saul (Shaul) ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. 4Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word. 5Philip (Pilipos) went down to the city of Samaria (Shomron), and proclaimed to them theMessiah. 6The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip (Pilipos), when they heard and saw the signs which he did. 7For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8There was great joy in that city.

9But there was a certain man, Simon (Shimon) by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria (Shomron), making himself out to be some great one, 10to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that great power of God." 11They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. 12But when they believed Philip (Pilipos) preaching good news concerning the Kingdom of the FATHER and the name of YaHshua the Messiah, they were immersed, both men and women. 13Simon (Shimon) himself also believed. Being immersed, he continued with Philip (Pilipos). Seeing signs and great miracles occuring, he was amazed.

14Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) heard that Samaria (Shomron) had received the word of God, they sent Simon(Peter (Shimon)) and John (Yochanan) to them, 15who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh); 16for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been immersed in the name of the Messiah YaHshua. 17Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 18Now when Simon (Shimon) saw that the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, 19saying, "Give me also this power, that whoever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)." 20But Simon(Peter (Shimon)) said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! 21You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God. 22Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. 23For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

24Simon (Shimon) answered, "Pray for me to the Lord (Adoni), that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

25They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord (Adoni), returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaria (Shomroni). 26But an angel of the Lord (Adoni) spoke to Philip (Pilipos), saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to Aza. This is a desert."

27He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Kush, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Kushim, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to worship. 28He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah (Yeshayah).

29The Spirit said to Philip (Pilipos), "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."

30Philip (Pilipos) ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah (Yeshayah) the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip (Pilipos) to come up and sit with him. 32Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this,
"He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.
As a lamb before his shearer is silent,
So he doesn't open his mouth.
33In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away.
Who will declare His generation?
For his life is taken from the earth."

34The eunuch answered Philip (Pilipos), "Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?"

35Philip (Pilipos) opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him
YaHshua. 36As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being immersed?"

37 38He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip (Pilipos) and the eunuch, and he immersed him.

39When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord (Adoni) caught Philip (Pilipos) away, and the eunuch didn't see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing.
40But Philip (Pilipos) was found at Ashdod. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

But Saul (Shaul), still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord (Adoni), went to the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), 2and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus (Dammesek), that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 3As he traveled, it happened that he got close to Damascus (Dammesek), and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him. 4He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him,
"Saul (Shaul), Saul (Shaul), why do you persecute me?"

5He said, "Who are you, Lord (Adoni)?"

The Lord (Adoni) said, "I am YaHshua, whom you are persecuting. 6But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

7The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one.
8Saul (Shaul) arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one.

They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus (Dammesek). [9]He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

[10]Now there was a certain disciple (talmid) at Damascus (Dammesek) named Hananyah. The Lord (Adoni) said to him in a vision, "Hananyah!"

He said, "Behold, it's me, Lord (Adoni)."

[11]The Lord (Adoni) said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah (Yehudah) for one named Saul (Shaul), a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, [12]and in a vision he has seen a man named Hananyah coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."

[13]But Hananyah answered, "Lord (Adoni), I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your holy ones at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [14]Here he has authority from the chief Priest (Kohanim) to bind all who call on your name."

[15]But the Lord (Adoni) said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Yisrael. [16]For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake."

[17]Hananyah departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul (Shaul), the Lord (Adoni), who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)." [18]Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was immersed. [19]He took food and was strengthened. Saul (Shaul) stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus (Dammesek). [20]Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed theMessiah, that he is the Son of God. [21]All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief Priest (Kohanim)!"

[22]But Saul (Shaul) increased more in strength, and confounded the Jew (Yehudim) who lived at Damascus (Dammesek), proving that this is theMessiah. [23]When many days were fulfilled, the Jew (Yehudim) conspired together to kill him, [24]but their plot became known to Saul (Shaul). They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, [25]but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. [26]When Saul (Shaul) had come to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple (talmid). [27]But Bar-Nabba took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord (Adoni) in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus (Dammesek) he had preached boldly in the name of YaHshua. [28]He was with them entering into Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), [29]preaching boldly in the name of the Lord (Adoni). He spoke and disputed against the Yebanian Jew (Yehudim), but they were seeking to kill him. [30]When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. [31]So the assemblies throughout all Judah (Yehudah) and the Galil and Samaria (Shomron) had peace (shalom), and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord (Adoni) and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).

[32]It happened, as Simon (Shimon) went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the holy ones who lived at Lud. [33]There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. [34]Simon (Shimon) said to him, "Aeneas, YaHshua the Messiah heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose. [35]All who lived at Lud and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord (Adoni).

[36]Now there was at Yafo a certain disciple (talmid) named Tabita, which when translated, means Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. [37]It happened in those days that she fell sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. [38]As Lud was near Yafo, the disciples, hearing that Simon (Shimon) was there, sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. [39]Simon (Shimon) got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. [40]Simon (Shimon) put them all out, and kneeled down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabita, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Simon (Shimon), she sat up. [41]He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the holy ones and widows, he presented her alive. [42]And it became known throughout all Yafo, and many believed in the Lord (Adoni). [43]It happened, that he stayed many days in Yafo with one Simon (Shimon), a tanner.

Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, [2]a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. [3]At about the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

[4]He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord (Adoni)?"

He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. [5]Now send men to Yafo, and get Simon (Shimon), who is surnamed Peter (Petrus). [6]He lodges with one Simon (Shimon), a tanner, whose house is by the seaside."

[7]When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. [8]Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Yafo. [9]Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Simon (Shimon) went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. [10]He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. [11]He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, [12]in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. [13]A voice came to him, "Rise, Simon (Shimon), kill and eat!"

[14]But Simon (Shimon) said, "Not so, Lord (Adoni); for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean."

[15]A voice came to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean." [16]This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. [17]Now while Simon (Shimon) was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon (Shimon)'s house, stood before the gate, [18]and called and asked whether Simon (Shimon), who was surnamed Peter (Petrus), was lodging there. [19]While Simon (Shimon) was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men seek you. [20]But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

[21]Simon (Shimon) went down to the men, and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek.
Why have you come?"

[22]They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jew (Yehudim), was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say." [23]So he called them in and lodged them.
On the next day Simon (Shimon) arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Yafo accompanied him. [24]On the next day they entered into Caesarea.
Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends.
[25]When it happened that Simon (Shimon) entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. [26]But Simon (Shimon) raised him up, saying, "Stand up! I myself am also a man." [27]As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. [28]He said to them, "You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew (Yehudi) to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn't call any man unholy or unclean. [29]Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?"

[30]Cornelius said, "Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour, I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, [31]and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. [32]Send therefore to Yafo, and summon Simon (Shimon), who is surnamed Peter (Petrus). He lodges in the house of Simon (Shimon) a tanner, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.' [33]Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God."

[34]Simon (Shimon) opened his mouth and said, "Truly I perceive that God doesn't show favoritism; [35]but in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him. [36]The word which he sent to the children of Yisrael, preaching good news of peace (shalom) by YaHshua the Messiah—he is Lord (Adoni) of all—[37]that spoken word you yourselves know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judah (Yehudah), beginning from the Galil, after the immersion which John (Yochanan) preached; [38]even YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret), how the FATHER anointed him with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for the FATHER was with him. [39]We are witnesses of everything he did both in the country of the Jew (Yehudim), and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); whom they also killed, hanging him on a tree. The FATHER raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed, [41]not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by the FATHER, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. [42]He charged us to preach to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by the FATHER as the Judge of the living and the dead. [43]All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins."

[44]While Simon (Shimon) was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) fell on all those who heard the word. [45]They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Simon (Shimon), because the gift of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) was also poured out on the Gentiles (Goyim). [46]For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying the FATHER.

Then Simon (Shimon) answered, [47]"Can any man forbid the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) as well as we should not be immersed?" [48]He commanded them to be immersed in the name of YaHshua the Messiah. Then they asked him to stay some days.

Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judah (Yehudah) heard that the Gentiles (Goyim) had also received the word of God. [2]When Simon (Shimon) had come up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), those who were of the circumcision contended with him, [3]saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!"

[4]But Simon (Shimon) began, and explained to them in order, saying, [5]"I was in the city of Yafo praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. [6]When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. [7]I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Simon (Shimon), kill and eat!' [8]But I said, 'Not so, Lord (Adoni), for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.' [9]But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, don't you call unclean.' [10]This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. [11]Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. [12]The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house. [13]He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, 'Send to Yafo, and get Simon (Shimon), whose surname is Peter (Petrus), [14]who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.' [15]As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. [16]I remembered the word of the Lord (Adoni), how he said, 'John (Yochanan) indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).' [17]If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, who was I, that I could withstand God?"

[18]When they heard these things, they held their peace (shalom), and glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles (Goyim) repentance to life!"

[19]They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jew (Yehudim) only. [20]But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Gentiles (Yebanim), preaching the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua. [21]The hand of the Lord (Adoni) was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord (Adoni). [22]The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). They sent out Bar-Nabba to go as far as Antioch, [23]who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord (Adoni). [24]For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord (Adoni).

25Bar-Nabba went out to Tarsus to look for Saul (Shaul). 26When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. It happened, that for a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Messianic in Antioch.

27Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to Antioch. 28One of them named Agab stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. 29As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judah (Yehudah); 30which they also did, sending it to the Elders (Zakenim) by the hands of Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul).

Now about that time, Herod the king stretched out his hands to oppress some of the assembly. 2He killed Jacob (Yaaqob), the brother of John (Yochanan), with the sword. 3When he saw that it pleased the Jew (Yehudim), he proceeded to seize Simon (Shimon) also. This was during the days of unleaven bread (matzah). 4When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover (Pesach). 5Simon (Shimon) therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for him. 6The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Simon (Shimon) was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

7And behold, an angel of the Lord (Adoni) stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Simon (Shimon) on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands. 8The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." 9And he went out and followed him. He didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. 10When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

11When Simon (Shimon) had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord (Adoni) has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jew (Yehudi) people were expecting." 12Thinking about that, he came to the house of Miryam, the mother of John (Yochanan) whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. 13When Simon (Shimon) knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. 14When she recognized Simon (Shimon)'s voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Simon (Shimon) was standing in front of the gate.

15They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." 16But Simon (Shimon) continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord (Adoni) had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to Jacob (Yaaqob), and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place.

18Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Simon (Shimon). 19When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judah (Yehudah) to Caesarea, and stayed there. 20Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre (Tzor) and Sidon (Tzidon). They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's chamberlain, their friend, they asked for peace (shalom), because their country depended on the king's country for food. 21On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. 22The people shouted, "The voice of a God, and not of a man!" 23Immediately an angel of the Lord (Adoni) struck him, because he didn't give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

24But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul) returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John (Yochanan) whose surname was Mark.

Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Bar-Nabba, Simon (Shimon) who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Menachem the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul (Shaul). 2As they served the Lord (Adoni) and fasted, the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) said, "Separate Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul) for me, for the work to which I have called them."

3Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. 4So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. 5When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jew (Yehudim). They had also John (Yochanan) as their attendant. 6When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew (Yehudi), whose name was Bar-Yahshua, 7who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned

Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul), and sought to hear the word of God. 8But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. 9But Saul (Shaul), who is also called Paul (Paulus), filled with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), fastened his eyes on him, 10and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord (Adoni)? 11Now, behold, the hand of the Lord (Adoni) is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!"

Immediately there fell on him a mist and darkness. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. 12Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord (Adoni).

13Now Saul (Shaul) and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John (Yochanan) departed from them and returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 14But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the day of Shabbat, and sat down. 15After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."

16Saul (Shaul) stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Yisrael, and you who fear God, listen. 17The God of this people chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Eygpt (Mitzrayim), and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. 18For period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. 19When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Kana`an, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred fifty years. 20After these things he gave them judges until Samuel (Shemuel) the prophet. 21Afterward they asked for a king, and God (Elohim) gave to them Saul (Shaul) the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Binyamin, for forty years. 22When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, 'I have found David the son of Jesse (Yishai), a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' 23From this man's seed, God (Elohim) has brought salvation to Yisrael according to his promise, 24before his coming, when John (Yochanan) had first preached the immersion of repentance to Yisrael. 25As John (Yochanan) was fulfilling his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.' 26Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you. 27For those who dwell in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and their rulers, because they didn't know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Shabbat, fulfilled them by condemning him. 28Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. 29When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30But the FATHER raised him from the dead, 31and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from the Galil to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), who are his witnesses to the people. 32We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, [33]that the FATHER has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up YaHshua. As it is also written in the second psalm,

'You are my Son.
Today I have become your FATHER.'

[34]"Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.' [35]Therefore he says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.' [36]For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God (Elohim), fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. [37]But he whom the FATHER raised up saw no decay. [38]Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins, [39]and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses (Moshe). [40]Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:
[41]'Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish;
For I work a work in your days,
A work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.'"

[42]So when the Jew (Yehudim) went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles (Goyim) begged that these words might be preached to them the next Shabbat. [43]Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jew (Yehudim) and of the devout proselytes followed Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. [44]The next Shabbat almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. [45]But when the Jew (Yehudim) saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Saul (Shaul), and blasphemed.

[46]Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God (Elohim)'s word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles (Goyim). [47]For so has the Lord (Adoni) commanded us, saying,
'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles (Goyim),
That you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.'"

[48]As the Gentiles (Goyim) heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed. [49]The Lord (Adoni)'s word was spread abroad throughout all the region. [50]But the Jew (Yehudim) stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba, and threw them out of their borders. [51]But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. [52]The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).

It happened in Iconium that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jew (Yehudim), and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jew (Yehudim) and of Gentiles (Yebanim) believed. 2But the disbelieving Jew (Yehudim) stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles (Goyim) against the brothers. 3Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord (Adoni), who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jew (Yehudim), and part with the apostles. 5When some of both the Gentiles (Goyim) and the Jew (Yehudim), with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, 6they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. 7There they preached the Good News.

8At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9He was listening to Saul (Shaul) speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, 10said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. 11When the multitude saw what Saul (Shaul) had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The Gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12They called Bar-Nabba "Jupiter," and Saul (Shaul) "Mercury," because he was the chief speaker. 13The Priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes. 14But when the apostles, Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul), heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out, 15"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; 16who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. 17Yet he didn't leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."

18Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them. 19But some Jew (Yehudim) from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Saul (Shaul), and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

20But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Bar-Nabba to Derbe. 21When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, 22confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the Kingdom of the FATHER. 23When they had appointed Elders (Zakenim) for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord (Adoni), on whom they had believed.

24They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. 25When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. 26From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles (Goyim). 28They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

Some men came down from Judah (Yehudah) and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses (Moshe), you can't be saved." 2Therefore when Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to the apostles and Elders (Zakenim) about this question. 3They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria (Shomron), declaring the conversion of the Gentiles (Goyim). They caused great joy to all the brothers. 4When they had come to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the Elders (Zakenim), and they reported all things that God had done with them.

5But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses (Moshe)."

6The apostles and the Elders (Zakenim) were gathered together to see about this matter. 7When there had been much discussion, Simon (Shimon) rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles (Goyim) should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. 8God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), just like he did to us. 9He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. 10Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, just as they are."

12All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul) reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles (Goyim) through them. 13After they were silent, Jacob (Yaaqob) answered, "Brothers, listen to me. 14Simon (Shimon) has reported how God first visited the Gentiles (Goyim), to take out of them a people for his name. 15This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written, 16'After these things I will return.

I will again build the tent of David, which has fallen.
I will again build its ruins.
I will set it up,
17That the rest of men may seek after YaHWeH;
All the Gentiles (Goyim) who are called by my name,
Says YaHWeH, who does all these things.
18All his works are known to God from eternity.'

19"Therefore my judgment is that we don't trouble those from among the Gentiles (Goyim) who turn to God, 20but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. 21For Moses (Moshe) from generations of old has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Shabbat."

22Then it seemed good to the apostles and the Elders (Zakenim), with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba: Judah (Yehudah) called Bar-Sabba, and Sila, chief men among the brothers. 23They wrote these things by their hand:

"The apostles, the Elders (Zakenim), and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles (Goyim) in Antioch, Aram, and Cilicia: greetings. 24Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, 'You must be circumcised and keep the law,' to whom we gave no word (mitzvah); 25it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Bar-Nabba and Saul (Shaul), 26men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. 27We have sent therefore Judah (Yehudah) and Sila, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: 29that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell."

30So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. 32Judah (Yehudah) and Sila, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. 33After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the apostles. 34 35But Saul (Shaul) and Bar-Nabba stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord (Adoni), with many others also.

36After some days Saul (Shaul) said to Bar-Nabba, "Let's return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord (Adoni), to see how they are doing." 37Bar-Nabba planned to take John (Yochanan), who was called Mark, with them also. 38But Saul (Shaul) didn't think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn't go with them to do the work. 39Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Bar-Nabba took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus, 40but Saul (Shaul) chose Sila, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. 41He went through Aram and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple (talmid) was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jew (Yehudi) who believed; but his father was a Greek (Yebanit).
2The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. 3Saul (Shaul) wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jew (Yehudim) who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek (Yebanit). 4As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and Elders (Zakenim) who were at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 5So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) to speak the word in Asia. 7When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn't allow them. 8Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9A vision appeared to Saul (Shaul) in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us." 10When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord (Adoni) had called us to preach the Good News to them. 11Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.

13On the day of Shabbat we went forth outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together. 14A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord (Adoni) opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Saul (Shaul). 15When she and her household were immersed, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord (Adoni), come into my house, and stay." So she persuaded us.

16It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. 17Following Saul (Shaul) and us, she cried out, "These men are servants of Ha`Elyon (Highest) God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation!" 18She was doing this for many days.

But Saul (Shaul), becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I charge you in the name of YaHshua the Messiah to come out of her!" It came out that very hour. 19But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Saul (Shaul) and Sila, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. 20When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jew (Yehudim), are agitating our city, 21and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."

22The multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods. 23When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely, 24who, having received such a charge, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.

25But about midnight Saul (Shaul) and Sila were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. 27The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28But Saul (Shaul) cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself, for we are all here!"

29He called for lights and sprang in, and, fell down trembling before Saul (Shaul) and Sila, 30and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

31They said, "Believe in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32They spoke the word of the Lord (Adoni) to him, and to all who were in his house.

33He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately immersed, he and all his household. 34He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

35But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."

36The jailer reported these words to Saul (Shaul), saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace (shalom)."

37But Saul (Shaul) said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most assuredly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"

38The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, 39and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. 40They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jew (Yehudim). 2Saul (Shaul), as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Shabbat days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3explaining and demonstrating that theMessiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This YaHshua, whom I proclaim to you, is theMessiah."

4Some of them were persuaded, and joined Saul (Shaul) and Sila, of the devout Gentiles (Yebanim) a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women. 5But the disobedient Jew (Yehudim) took along some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people. 6When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also, 7whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, YaHshua!" 8The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things. 9When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. 10The brothers immediately sent Saul (Shaul) and Sila away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jew (Yehudi) synagogue.

11Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. 12Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek (Yebanit) women, and not a few men. 13But when the Jew (Yehudim) of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Saul (Shaul) at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes. 14Then the brothers immediately sent out Saul (Shaul) to go as far as to the sea, and Sila and Timothy still stayed there. 15But those who escorted Saul (Shaul) brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a word (mitzvah) to Sila and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

16Now while Saul (Shaul) waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. 17So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jew (Yehudim) and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. 18Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached YaHshua and the resurrection.

19They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you? 20For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." 21Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

22Saul (Shaul) stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. 23For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. 24The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord (Adoni) of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, 25neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. 26He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings, 27that they should seek the Lord (Adoni), if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 28'For in him we live, and move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.' 29Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. 30The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, 31because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; whereof he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."

32Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

33Thus Saul (Shaul) went out from among them. 34But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things Saul (Shaul) departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. 2He found a certain Jew (Yehudi) named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jew (Yehudim) to depart from Rome. He came to them, 3and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. 4He reasoned in the synagogue every Shabbat, and persuaded Jew (Yehudim) and Gentiles (Yebanim). 5But when Sila and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Saul (Shaul) was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jew (Yehudim) that YaHshua was theMessiah. 6When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles (Goyim)!"

7He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. 8Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord (Adoni) with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were immersed. 9The Lord (Adoni) said to Saul (Shaul) in the night by a vision, "Don't be afraid, but speak and don't be silent; 10for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

11He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. 12But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jew (Yehudim) with one accord rose up against Saul (Shaul) and brought him before the judgment seat, 13saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

14But when Saul (Shaul) was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jew (Yehudim), "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jew (Yehudim), it would be reasonable that I should bear with you; 15but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don't want to be a judge of these matters." 16He drove them from the judgment seat.

17Then all the Gentiles (Yebanim) laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn't care about any of these things.

18Saul (Shaul), having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Aram, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow. 19He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jew (Yehudim). 20When they asked him to stay with them a longer time, he declined; 21but taking his leave of them, and saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), but I will return again to you if God wills," he set sail from Ephesus.

22When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch. 23Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples. 24Now a certain Jew (Yehudi) named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. 25This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord (Adoni); and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning YaHshua, although he knew only the immersion of John (Yochanan). 26He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

27When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; 28for he powerfully refuted the Jew (Yehudim), publicly showing by the Scriptures that YaHshua was theMessiah.

It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Saul (Shaul), having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples. 2He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) when you believed?"

They said to him, "No, we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)."

3He said, "Into what then were you immersed?"

They said, "Into John (Yochanan)'s immersion."

4Saul (Shaul) said, "John (Yochanan) indeed immersed with the immersion of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in YaHshua."

5When they heard this, they were immersed in the name of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua. 6When Saul (Shaul) had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied. 7They were about twelve men in all. 8He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the Kingdom of the FATHER.

9But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, both Jew (Yehudim) and Gentiles (Yebanim).

11God worked special miracles by the hands of Saul (Shaul), 12so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out. 13But some of the itinerant Jew (Yehudim), exorcists, took on themselves to name over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, saying, "We adjure you by YaHshua whom Saul (Shaul) preaches." 14There were seven sons of one Skeva, a Jew (Yehudi) chief Priest, who did this.

15The evil spirit answered, "YaHshua I know, and Saul (Shaul) I know, but who are you?" 16The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17This became known to all, both Jew (Yehudim) and Gentiles (Yebanim), who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua was magnified. 18Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. 19Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20So the word of the Lord (Adoni) was growing and becoming mighty.

21Now after these things had ended, Saul (Shaul) determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

22Having sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. 23About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way. 24For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, 25whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. 26You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Saul (Shaul) has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands. 27Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships."

28When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Saul (Shaul)'s companions in travel. 30When Saul (Shaul) wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him. 31Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. 32Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together. 33They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jew (Yehudim) putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. 34But when they perceived that he was a Jew (Yehudi), all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

35When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? 36Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess. 38If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. 39But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. 40For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion." 41When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

After the uproar had ceased, Saul (Shaul) sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. 2When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. 3When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jew (Yehudim) as he was about to set sail for Aram, he determined to return through Macedonia. 4These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. 5But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. 6We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

11When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. 12They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

13But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Saul (Shaul) aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. 14When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. 15Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus. 16For Saul (Shaul) had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) on the day of Pentecost (Shavuot).

17From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the Elders (Zakenim) of the assembly. 18When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, 19serving the Lord (Adoni) with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jew (Yehudim); 20how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, 21testifying both to Jew (Yehudim) and to Gentiles (Yebanim) repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua. 22Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), not knowing what will happen to me there; 23except that the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. 24But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of the FATHER.

25Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching the Kingdom of the FATHER, will see my face no more. 26Therefore I testify to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all men, 27for I didn't shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. 28Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of the Lord (Adoni) and the FATHER which he purchased with his own blood. 29For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. 30Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. 31Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. 32Now, brothers, I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. 33I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. 34You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me. 35In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

36When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. 37They all wept a lot, and fell on Saul (Shaul)'s neck and kissed him, 38sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. 2Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. 3When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Aram, and landed at Tyre (Tzor), for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Saul (Shaul) through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 5When it happened that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. 6After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

7When we had finished the voyage from Tyre (Tzor), we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. 8On the next day, we, who were Saul (Shaul)'s companions, departed, and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip (Pilipos) the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. 9Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. 10As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agab came down from Judah (Yehudah). 11Coming to us, and taking Saul (Shaul)'s belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh): 'So will the Jew (Yehudim) at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles (Goyim).'"

12When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 13Then Saul (Shaul) answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) for the name of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua."

14When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord (Adoni)'s will be done."

15After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 16Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple (talmid), with whom we would stay.

17When we had come to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), the brothers received us gladly. 18The day following, Saul (Shaul) went in with us to Jacob (Yaaqob); and all the Elders (Zakenim) were present. 19When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles (Goyim) through his ministry. 20They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jew (Yehudim) of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. 21They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jew (Yehudim) who are among the Gentiles (Goyim) to forsake Moses (Moshe), telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. 22What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. 23Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. 24Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law. 25But concerning the Gentiles (Goyim) who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."

26Then Saul (Shaul) took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. 27When the seven days were almost completed, the Jew (Yehudim) from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28crying out, "Men of Yisrael, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Gentiles (Yebanim) into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!" 29For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Saul (Shaul) had brought him into the temple.

30All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Saul (Shaul) and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut. 31As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) was in an uproar. 32Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Saul (Shaul). 33Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. 34Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

35When he came to the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!" 37As Saul (Shaul) was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, "May I speak to you?"

He said, "Do you know Greek (Yebanit)? 38Aren't you then the Egyptian (Mitzrian), who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"

39But Saul (Shaul) said, "I am a Jew (Yehudi), from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

40When he had given him permission, Saul (Shaul), standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

"Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you."

2When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, 3"I am indeed a Jew (Yehudi), born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are this day. 4I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5As also the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) and all the council of the Elders (Zakenim) testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus (Dammesek) to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) in bonds to be punished. 6It happened that, as I made my journey, and came close to Damascus (Dammesek), about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me. 7I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul (Shaul), Saul (Shaul), why are you persecuting me?' 8I answered, 'Who are you, Lord (Adoni)?' He said to me, 'I am YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret), whom you persecute.'

9"'Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn't understand the voice of him who spoke to me. 10I said, 'What shall I do, Lord (Adoni)?'
The Lord (Adoni) said to me, 'Arise, and go into Damascus (Dammesek). There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.' 11When I couldn't see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus (Dammesek). 12One Hananyah, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jew (Yehudim) who lived in Damascus (Dammesek), 13came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Brother Saul (Shaul), receive your sight!' In that very hour I looked up at him. 14He said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. 15For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16Now why do you wait? Arise, be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord (Adoni).'

17"It happened that, when I had returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, 18and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.' 19I said, 'Lord (Adoni), they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. 20When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.'

21"He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles (Goyim).'"

22They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn't fit to live!"

23As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, 24the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that. 25When they had tied him up with thongs, Saul (Shaul) asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?"

26When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, "Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!"

27The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?"

He said, "Yes."

28The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price."

Saul (Shaul) said, "But I was born a Roman."

29Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. 30But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jew (Yehudim), he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief Priest (Kohanim) and all the council to come together, and brought Saul (Shaul) down and set him before them.

Saul (Shaul), looking steadfastly at the council, said, "Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day."

2The High Priest (Kohen Gadol), Hananyah, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

3Then Saul (Shaul) said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

4Those who stood by said, "Do you malign God's High Priest (Kohen Gadol)?"

5Saul (Shaul) said, "I didn't know, brothers, that he was High Priest (Kohen Gadol). For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'" 6But when Saul (Shaul) perceived that the one part were Sadducees (Tzedukim) and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brothers, I am a Parush (Pharisees), a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

7When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees (Tzedukim), and the assembly was divided. 8For the Sadducees (Tzedukim) say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. 9A great clamor arose, and some of the Scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let's not fight against God!"

10When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Saul (Shaul) would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

11The following night, the Lord (Adoni) stood by him, and said, "Cheer up, Saul (Shaul), for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), so you must testify also at Rome."

12When it was day, some of the Jew (Yehudim) banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Saul (Shaul). 13There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. 14They came to the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Elders (Zakenim), and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Saul (Shaul). 15Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near."

16But Saul (Shaul)'s sister's son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Saul (Shaul). 17Saul (Shaul) summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."

18So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Saul (Shaul), the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you."

19The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

20He said, "The Jew (Yehudim) have agreed to ask you to bring Saul (Shaul) down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. 21Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you."

22So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." 23He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night." 24He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Saul (Shaul) on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. 25He wrote a letter like this:

26"Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings.

27"This man was seized by the Jew (Yehudim), and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. 28Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. 29I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. 30When I was told that the Jew (Yehudim) lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell."

31So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Saul (Shaul) and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. 33When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Saul (Shaul) to him. 34When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, 35"I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be kept in Herod's palace.

After five days, the High Priest (Kohen Gadol), Hananyah, came down with certain Elders (Zakenim) and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Saul (Shaul). 2When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace (shalom), and that excellent measures are coming to this nation, 3we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. 4But, that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. 5For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jew (Yehudim) throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Natzratim. 6He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. 7 8By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."

9The Jew (Yehudim) also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. 10When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Saul (Shaul) answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, 11seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 12In the temple they didn't find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. 13Nor can they prove to you the things whereof they now accuse me. 14But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets; 15having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. 16Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men. 17Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; 18amid which certain Jew (Yehudim) from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. 19They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me. 20Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council, 21unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!'"

22But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case." 23He ordered the centurion that Saul (Shaul) should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him. 24But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jew (Yehudi), and sent for Saul (Shaul), and heard him concerning the faith in the Messiah YaHshua. 25As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you." [26]Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Saul (Shaul), that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him. [27]But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jew (Yehudim), Felix left Saul (Shaul) in bonds.

Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) from Caesarea. [2]Then the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) and the principal men of the Jew (Yehudim) informed him against Saul (Shaul), and they begged him, [3]asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); plotting to kill him on the way. [4]However Festus answered that Saul (Shaul) should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly. [5]"Let them therefore," said he, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."

[6]When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Saul (Shaul) to be brought. [7]When he had come, the Jew (Yehudim) who had come down from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove, [8]while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jew (Yehudim), nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."

[9]But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jew (Yehudim), answered Saul (Shaul) and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and be judged by me there concerning these things?"

[10]But Saul (Shaul) said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jew (Yehudim), as you also know very well. [11]For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

[12]Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go."

[13]Now when some days had passed, Agrippa the King and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus. [14]As he stayed there many days, Festus laid Saul (Shaul)'s case before the King, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; [15]about whom, when I was at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), the chief Priest (Kohanim) and the Elders (Zakenim) of the Jew (Yehudim) informed me, asking for a sentence against him. [16]To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him. 17When therefore they had come together here, I didn't delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed; 19but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one YaHshua, who was dead, whom Saul (Shaul) affirmed to be alive. 20Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing go to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and there be judged concerning these matters. 21But when Saul (Shaul) had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

22Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

23So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Saul (Shaul) was brought in. 24Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jew (Yehudim) petitioned me, both at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. 25But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. 26Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my Lord (Adoni). Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. 27For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

Agrippa said to Saul (Shaul), "You may speak for yourself."

Then Saul (Shaul) stretched out his hand, and made his defense. 2"I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things whereof I am accused by the Jew (Yehudim), 3especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jew (Yehudim). Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

4"Indeed, all the Jew (Yehudim) know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); 5having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Parush (Pharisees). [6]Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, [7]which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jew (Yehudim), King Agrippa! [8]Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

[9]"I myself most assuredly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of YaHshua of Nazareth (Natzeret). [10]This I also did in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). I both shut up many of the holy ones in prisons, having received authority from the chief Priest (Kohanim), and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. [11]Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

[12]"Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus (Dammesek) with the authority and commission from the chief Priest (Kohanim), [13]at noon, O King, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. [14]When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul (Shaul), Saul (Shaul), why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

[15]"I said, 'Who are you, Lord (Adoni)?'

"He said, 'I am YaHshua, whom you are persecuting. [16]But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you; [17]delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles (Goyim), to whom I send you, [18]to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

[19]"Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, [20]but declared first to them of Damascus (Dammesek), at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and throughout all the country of Judah (Yehudah), and also to the Gentiles (Goyim), that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. [21]For this reason the Jew (Yehudim) seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me. [22]Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses (Moshe) said would happen, [23]how theMessiah must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles (Goyim)."

[24]As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Saul (Shaul), you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"

25But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. 26For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. 27King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

28Agrippa said to Saul (Shaul), "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Messianic?"

29Saul (Shaul) said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."

30The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them. 31When they had withdrawn, they spoke one to another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." 32Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Saul (Shaul) and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. 2Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. 3The next day, we touched at Sidon (Tzidon). Julius treated Saul (Shaul) kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. 4Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. 7When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. 8With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

9When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Saul (Shaul) admonished them, 10and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." 11But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Saul (Shaul). 12Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

13When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. 14But before long, a tempestuous wind beat down from shore, which is called Euroclydon. 15When the ship was caught, and couldn't face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. 16Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat.
17After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. 18As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. 19On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. 20When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small tempest pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

21When they had been long without food, Saul (Shaul) stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. 22Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, 24saying, 'Don't be afraid, Saul (Shaul). You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' 25Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. 26But we must run aground on a certain island."

27But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. 28They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms. After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.. 29Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. 30As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, 31Saul (Shaul) said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved." 32Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

33While the day was coming on, Saul (Shaul) begged them all to take some food, saying,
"This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing.
34Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads." 35When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. 36Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. 37In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship.
38When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. 40Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

42The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. 43But the centurion, desiring to save Saul (Shaul), stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; 44and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.

When we had escaped, then they learned that the island was called Malta. 2The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. 3But when Saul (Shaul) had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. 4When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live." 5However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed. 6But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a God.

7Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. 8It happened that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Saul (Shaul) entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. 9Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. 10They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

11After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Brothers." 12Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. 13From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, 14where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. 15From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Saul (Shaul) saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. 16When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Saul (Shaul) was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

17It happened that after three days Saul (Shaul) called together those who were the leaders of the Jew (Yehudim). When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) into the hands of the Romans, 18who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. 19But when the Jew (Yehudim) spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. 20For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Yisrael I am bound with this chain."

21They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judah (Yehudah) concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. 22But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

23When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about the Kingdom of the FATHER, and persuading them concerning YaHshua, both from the law of Moses (Moshe) and from the prophets, from morning until evening. 24Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. 25When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Saul (Shaul) had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) spoke rightly through Isaiah (Yeshayah), the prophet, to our fathers, 26saying, 'Go to this people, and say,
In hearing, you will hear,
But will in no way understand.
In seeing, you will see,
But will in no way perceive.
27For this people's heart has grown callous.
Their ears are dull of hearing.
Their eyes they have closed.
Lest they should see with their eyes,
Hear with their ears,
Understand with their heart,
And would turn again,
And I would heal them.'

28"Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles (Goyim). They will also listen."

29When he had said these words, the Jew (Yehudim) departed, having a great dispute among themselves.

[30]Saul (Shaul) stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who were coming to him, [31]preaching the Kingdom of the FATHER, and teaching the things concerning the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah with all boldness, without hinderance.

Saul (Shaul)'s Letter

Saul (Shaul), a servant of YaHshua the Messiah, called to be an apostle, set apart for the Good News of the FATHER, [2]which he promised before through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, [3]concerning his Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, [4]who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, YaHshua the Messiah our Lord (Adoni), [5]through whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake; [6]among whom you are also called to belong to YaHshua the Messiah; [7]to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be holy ones: Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

[8]First, I thank my FATHER through YaHshua the Messiah for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. [9]For the FATHER is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, [10]requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of the FATHER to come to you. [11]For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; [12]that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

[13]Now I don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles (Goyim). [14]I am debtor both to Gentiles (Yebanim) and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish. [15]So, as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. [16]For I am not ashamed of the Good News of the Messiah, for it is the power of the FATHER for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew (Yehudi) first, and also for the Greek (Yebanit). [17]For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith." [18]For the wrath of the FATHER is revealed from heaven against all unGodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, [19]because that which is known of the FATHER is revealed in them, for the FATHER revealed it to them. [20]For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse. 21Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.

22Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. 24Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves, 25who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. .

Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. 2We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. 3Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? 5But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God; 6who "will pay back to everyone according to their works:" 7to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and incorruptibility, eternal life; 8but to those who are self-seeking, and don't obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation, 9oppression and anguish, on every soul of man who works evil, on the Jew (Yehudi) first, and also on the Greek (Yebanit).

10But glory and honor and peace (shalom) to every man who works good, to the Jew (Yehudi) first, and also to the Greek (Yebanit). 11For there is no partiality with God. 12For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. 13For it isn't the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified 14(for when Gentiles (Goyim) who don't have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, 15in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) 16in the day when the FATHER will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by YaHshua the Messiah.

17Indeed you bear the name of a Jew (Yehudi), and rest on the law, and glory in God, 18and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, 20a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. 21You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn't steal, do you steal? 22You who say a man shouldn't commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor the FATHER? 24For "the name of the FATHER is blasphemed among the Gentiles (Goyim) because of you," just as it is written. 25For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? 27Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? 28For he is not a Jew (Yehudi) who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; 29but he is a Jew (Yehudi) who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from the FATHER.

Then what advantage does the Jew (Yehudi) have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the oracles of God. 3For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? 4May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written,
"That you might be justified in your words,
And might prevail when you come into judgment."

5But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. 6May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? 7For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come?" Those who say so are justly condemned. 9What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously charged both Jew (Yehudim) and Gentiles (Yebanim), that they are all under sin. 10As it is written,

"There is no one righteous.
No, not one.
11There is no one who understands.
There is no one who seeks after God.
12They have all turned aside.
They have together become unprofitable.
There is no one who does good,
No, not, so much as one."

13"Their throat is an open tomb.
With their tongues they have used deceit."

"The poison of vipers is under their lips;"
14"Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."

15"Their feet are swift to shed blood.
16Destruction and misery are in their ways.
17The way of peace (shalom), they haven't known."

18"There is no fear of God before their eyes."

19Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. 20Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. 21But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets; 22even the righteousness of the FATHER through faith in YaHshua the Messiah to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction, 23for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of the FATHER; 24being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in the Messiah YaHshua; 25whom the FATHER set forth to be an atoning sacrifice, through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in the FATHER's forbearance; 26to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in YaHshua.

27Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what manner of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. 28We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. 29Or is God the God of Jew (Yehudim) only? Isn't he the God of Gentiles (Goyim) also? Yes, of Gentiles (Goyim) also, 30since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. 31Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? 2For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward God. 3For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God (Elohim), and it was accounted to him for righteousness." 4Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as debt. 5But to him who doesn't work, but believes in him who justifies the unGodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness. 6Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works, 7"Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, Whose sins are covered.
8Blessed is the man whom the Lord (Adoni) will by no means charge with sin."

9Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. 10How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them. 12The father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. 13For the promise to Abraham and to his seed that he should be heir of the world wasn't through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. 15For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. 16For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. 17As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations." This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. 18Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your seed be." 19Without being weakened in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. 20Yet, looking to the promise of God (Elohim), he didn't waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God (Elohim), 21and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22Therefore it also was "reckoned to him for righteousness."

[23]Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone, [24]but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised YaHshua, our Lord (Adoni), from the dead, [25]who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace (shalom) with the FATHER through our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah; [2]through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of the FATHER. [3]Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance; [4]and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: [5]and hope doesn't disappoint us, because the FATHER's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) who was given to us. [6]For while we were yet weak, at the right time the Messiah died for the unGodly. [7]For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps for a righteous person someone would even dare to die. [8]But the FATHER commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, the Messiah died for us.

[9]Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from the FATHER's wrath through him. [10]For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to the FATHER through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

[11]Not only so, but we also rejoice in the FATHER through our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. [12]Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned. [13]For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. [14]Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses (Moshe), even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. [15]But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of the FATHER, and the gift by the grace of the one man, YaHshua the Messiah, abound to the many. [16]The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. [17]For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, YaHshua the Messiah. [18]So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life. [19]For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one will many be made righteous. [20]The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly; [21]that as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life through YaHshua the Messiah our Lord (Adoni).

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? [2]May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? [3]Or don't you know that all we who were immersed into the Messiah YaHshua were immersed into his death? [4]We were buried therefore with him through immersion to death, that just like the Messiah was raised from the dead through the glory of the FATHER, so we also might walk in newness of life. [5]For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; [6]knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. [7]For he who has died has been freed from sin. [8]But if we died with the Messiah, we believe that we will also live with him; [9]knowing that the Messiah, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him! [10]For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to the FATHER. [11]Thus also consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to the FATHER in the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni).

[12]Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. [13]Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to the FATHER, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to the FATHER. [14]For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. [15]What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! [16]Don't you know that to whom you present yourselves as servants to obedience, his servants you are whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? [17]But thanks be to the FATHER, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto you were delivered. [18]Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

[19]I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification. [20]For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. [21]What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. [22]But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of the FATHER, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life. [23]For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of the FATHER is eternal life in the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni).

Or don't you know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? 2For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. 3So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. 4Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of the Messiah, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit to the FATHER. 5For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit to death. 6But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

7What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet." 8But sin, finding occasion through the word (mitzvah), produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. 9I was alive apart from the law once, but when the word (mitzvah) came, sin revived, and I died. 10The word (mitzvah), which was for life, this I found to be for death; 11for sin, finding occasion through the word (mitzvah), deceived me, and through it killed me. 12Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the word (mitzvah) holy, and righteous, and good.

13Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the word (mitzvah) sin might become exceeding sinful. 14For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. 16But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. 17So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 18For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good. 19For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice. 20But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. 21I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. 22For I delight in God's law after the inward man, 23but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. 24What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25I thank the FATHER through YaHshua the Messiah, our Lord (Adoni)! So then with the mind, I myself serve the FATHER's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.

There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in the Messiah YaHshua, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. [2]For the law of the Spirit of life in the Messiah YaHshua made me free from the law of sin and of death. [3]For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, the FATHER did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; [4]that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. [5]For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. [6]For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace (shalom); [7]because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards the FATHER; for it is not subject to the FATHER's law, neither indeed can it be. [8]Those who are in the flesh can't please the FATHER. [9]But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of the FATHER dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of the Messiah, he is not his. [10]If the Messiah is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. [11]But if the Spirit of him who raised up YaHshua from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up the Messiah YaHshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. [12]So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. [13]For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. [14]For as many as are led by the Spirit of the FATHER, these are children of the FATHER. [15]For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! FATHER!"

[16]The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of the FATHER; [17]and if children, then heirs; heirs of the FATHER, and joint-heirs with the Messiah; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. [18]For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. [19]For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of the FATHER to be revealed. [20]For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope [21]that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of the FATHER. [22]For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. [23]Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. [24]For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? [25]But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience. [26]In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered.

27He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the holy ones according to the FATHER.

28We know that all things work together for good for those who love the FATHER, to those who are called according to his purpose. 29For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.

31What then shall we say about these things? If the FATHER is for us, who can be against us? 32He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? 33Who could bring a charge against the FATHER's chosen ones? It is the FATHER who justifies. 34Who is he who condemns? It is the Messiah who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of the FATHER, who also makes intercession for us.

35Who shall separate us from the love of the Messiah? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter." 37No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of the FATHER, which is in the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni).

I tell the truth in the Messiah. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), 2that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3For I could wish that I myself were accursed from the Messiah for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, 4who are Yisraelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; 5of whom are the fathers, and from whom is the Messiah as concerning the flesh, who is over all, the FATHER, blessed forever. .

6But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Yisrael, that are of Yisrael. 7Neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children. But, "In Issac (Yitzchak) will your seed be called." 8That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as a seed. 9For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son." 10Not only so, but Ribkal also conceived by one, by our father Issac (Yitzchak). 11For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, 12it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger." 13Even as it is written, "Jacob (Yaaqob) I loved, but Esav I hated."

14What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! 15For he said to Moses (Moshe), "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." 16So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. 17For the Scripture says to Pharoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth." 18So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. 19You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?" 20But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?" 21Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? 22What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction, 23and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory, 24us, whom he also called, not from the Jew (Yehudim) only, but also from the Gentiles (Goyim)? 25As he says also in Hoshea,
"I will call them 'my people,' which were not my people;
And her 'beloved,' who was not beloved."
26"It will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,'
There they will be called 'children of the living God (Elohim).'"

27Isaiah (Yeshayah) cries concerning Yisrael,
"If the number of the children of Yisrael are as the sand of the sea,
It is the remnant who will be saved;
28For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, Because YaHWeH will make a short work upon the earth."

29As Isaiah (Yeshayah) has said before,
"Unless YaHWeH of Hosts had left us a seed,
We would have become like Sedom,
And would have been made like `Amorah."

30What shall we say then? That the Gentiles (Goyim), who didn't follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; 31but Yisrael, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness. 32Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; 33even as it is written,
"Behold, I lay in Zion (Tziyon) a stumbling stone and a rock of offense;

And no one who believes in him will be disappointed."

Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to the FATHER is for Yisrael, that they may be saved. 2For I testify about them that they have a zeal for the FATHER, but not according to knowledge. 3For being ignorant of the FATHER's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to the righteousness of the FATHER. 4For the Messiah is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. 5For Moses (Moshe) writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them." 6But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' (that is, to bring the Messiah down); 7or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?' (that is, to bring the Messiah up from the dead.)" 8But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;" that is, the word of faith, which we preach: 9that if you will confess with your mouth the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, and believe in your heart that the FATHER raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed."

12For there is no distinction between Jew (Yehudi) and Greek (Yebanit); for the same Lord (Adoni) is Lord (Adoni) of all, and is rich to all who call on him. 13For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord (Adoni) will be saved." 14How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher? 15And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written:
"How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Good News of peace (shalom), Who bring glad tidings of good things!"

16But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah (Yeshayah) says, "Lord (Adoni), who has believed our report?" 17So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of the FATHER. 18But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most assuredly, "Their sound went out into all the earth,
Their words to the ends of the world."

19But I ask, didn't Yisrael know? First Moses (Moshe) says,
"I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,
With a nation void of understanding I will make you angry."

20Isaiah (Yeshayah) is very bold, and says,
"I was found by those who didn't seek me.

I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me."

21But as to Yisrael he says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

I ask then, Did God (Elohim) reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Yisraelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Binyamin. 2God (Elohim) didn't reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Eliyah? How he pleads with God (Elohim) against Yisrael: 3"YaHWeH, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life." 4But how does God (Elohim) answer him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal." 5Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. 6And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

7What then? That which Yisrael seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. 8According as it is written, "YaHWeH gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day." 9David says,
"Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,
A stumbling block, and a retribution to them.
10Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see.
Bow down their back always."

11I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles (Goyim), to provoke them to jealousy. 12Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles (Goyim); how much more their fullness? 13For I speak to you who are Gentiles (Goyim). Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles (Goyim), I glorify my ministry; 14if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. 15For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? 16If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches. 17But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree; 18don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. 19You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in." 20True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear; 21for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. [22]See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. [23]They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. [24]For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? [25]For I don't desire, brothers, to have you ignorant of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Yisrael, until the fullness of the Gentiles (Goyim) has come in, [26]and so all Yisrael will be saved. Even as it is written,

"There will come out of Zion (Tziyon) the Deliverer,
And he will turn away unGodliness from Jacob (Yaaqob).
[27]This is my covenant to them,
When I will take away their sins."

[28]Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the FATHER's sake. [29]For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. [30]For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, [31]even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. [32]For God has shut up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all. [33]Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of the FATHER! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out!
[34]"For who has known the mind of the FATHER?
Or who has been his counselor?"
[35]"Or who has first given to him,
And it will be repaid to him again?"

[36]For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever! .

Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of the FATHER, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to the FATHER, which is your spiritual service. [2]Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of the FATHER. [3]For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. [4]For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function, [5]so we, who are many, are one body in the Messiah, and individually members one of another. [6]Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy

according to the proportion of our faith; [7]or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; [8]or he who exhorts, to his exhorting: he who gives, let him do it with liberality; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

[9]Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. [10]In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate one to another; in honor preferring one another; [11]not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord (Adoni); [12]rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer; [13]contributing to the needs of the holy ones; given to hospitality. [14]Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse. [15]Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. [16]Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits. [17]Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. [18]If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace (shalom) with all men. [19]Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord (Adoni)." [20]Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him.
If he is thirsty, give him a drink.
For in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head."

[21]Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God. [2]Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment. [3]For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, [4]for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. [5]Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. [6]For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. [7]Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor. [8]Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

[9]For the commandments (mitzvot) , "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not give false testimony," "You shall not covet," and whatever other commandments (mitzvot) there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." [10]Love doesn't harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. [11]Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. [12]The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the works of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light. [13]Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. [14]But put on the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

Now receive one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. [2]One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. [3]Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has received him. [4]Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own Lord (Adoni) he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand.

[5]One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. [6]He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord (Adoni); and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord (Adoni) he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord (Adoni), for he gives the FATHER thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord (Adoni) he doesn't eat, and gives the FATHER thanks. [7]For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. [8]For if we live, we live to the Lord (Adoni). Or if we die, we die to the Lord (Adoni). If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord (Adoni)'s. [9]For to this end the Messiah died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord (Adoni) of both the dead and the living.

[10]But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of the Messiah. [11]For it is written,
"'As I live,' says the Lord (Adoni), 'to me every knee will bow.
Every tongue will confess to God.'"

[12]So then each one of us will give account of himself to God. [13]Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling. [14]I know, and am persuaded in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. [15]Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food him for whom the Messiah died. [16]Then don't let your good be slandered, [17]for the Kingdom of the FATHER is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace (shalom), and joy in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 18For he who serves the Messiah in these things is acceptable to the FATHER and approved by men. 19So then, let us follow after things which make for peace (shalom), and things by which we may build one another up. 20Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. 21It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, is offended, or is made weak.

22Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves. 23But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

24Now to him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of YaHshua the Messiah, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages, 25but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the word (mitzvah) of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; 26to the only wise God, through YaHshua the Messiah, to whom be the glory forever! .

Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. 3For even the Messiah didn't please himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." 4For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. 5Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to the Messiah YaHshua, 6that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

7Therefore receive one another, even as the Messiah also received you, to the glory of God. 8Now I say that the Messiah has been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of the FATHER, that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers, 9and that the Gentiles (Goyim) might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,
"Therefore will I give praise to you among the Gentiles (Goyim), And sing to your name."

10Again he says,
"Rejoice, you Gentiles (Goyim), with his people."

11Again,

"Praise YaHWeH, all you Gentiles (Goyim)!
Let all the peoples praise him."

12Again, Isaiah (Yeshayah) says,
"There will be the root of Jesse (Yishai),
He who arises to rule over the Gentiles (Goyim);
On him will the Gentiles (Goyim) hope."

13Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace (shalom) in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 14I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others. 15But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by the FATHER, 16that I should be a servant of the Messiah YaHshua to the Gentiles (Goyim), ministering as a Priest the Good News of the FATHER, that the offering up of the Gentiles (Goyim) might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). 17I have therefore my boasting in the Messiah YaHshua in things pertaining to the FATHER. 18For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which the Messiah worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles (Goyim), by word and deed, 19in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the FATHER's Spirit; so that from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of the Messiah; 20yes, making it my aim to preach the Good News, not where the Messiah was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation. 21But, as it is written,
"They will see, to whom no news of him came.
They who haven't heard will understand."

22Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you, 23but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you, 24whenever I journey to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while. 25But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), serving the holy ones. 26For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the holy ones who are at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 27Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles (Goyim) have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. 28When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain. 29I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of the Messiah.

30Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, 31that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judah (Yehudah), and that my service which

I have for Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) may be acceptable to the holy ones; 32that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest. 33Now the God of peace (shalom) be with you all. .

I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is a servant of the assembly that is at Cenchreae, 2that you receive her in the Lord (Adoni), in a way worthy of the holy ones, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.

3Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in the Messiah YaHshua, 4who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles (Goyim). 5Greet the assembly that is in their house. Greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is the first fruits of Achaia to the Messiah. 6Greet Miryam, who labored much for us. 7Greet Andronicus and Junias, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the apostles, who also were in the Messiah before me. 8Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord (Adoni). 9Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in the Messiah, and Stachys, my beloved. 10Greet Apelles, the approved in the Messiah. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus. 11Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet them of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord (Adoni). 12Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord (Adoni). Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Lord (Adoni). 13Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord (Adoni), and his mother and mine. 14Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them. 15Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the holy ones who are with them. 16Greet one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of the Messiah greet you.

17Now I beg you, brothers, look out for those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them. 18For those who are such don't serve our Lord (Adoni), YaHshua the Messiah, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent. 19For your obedience has become known to all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise in that which is good, but innocent in that which is evil. 20And the God of peace (shalom) will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with you.

21Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives. 22I, Tertius, who write the letter, greet you in the Lord (Adoni). 23Gaius, my host and host of the whole assembly, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, as does

Quartus, the brother. [24]The grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with you all! .[25]

1 Corinthians

Saul (Shaul)'s First Letter to Corinthians

Saul (Shaul), called to be an apostle of YaHshua the Messiah through the will of the FATHER, and our brother Sosthenes, 2to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in the Messiah YaHshua, called to be holy ones, with all who call on the name of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah in every place, both theirs and ours: 3Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

4I always thank my FATHER concerning you, for the grace of the FATHER which was given you in the Messiah YaHshua; 5that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; 6even as the testimony of the Messiah was confirmed in you: 7so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah; 8who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. 9 The FATHER is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, YaHshua the Messiah, our Lord (Adoni). 10Now I beg you, brothers, through the name of our Lord (Adoni), YaHshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. 12Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Saul (Shaul)," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Kefa," and, "I follow the Messiah." 13Is the Messiah divided? Was Saul (Shaul) crucified for you? Or were you immersed into the name of Saul (Shaul)? 14I thank the FATHER that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, 15so that no one should say that I had immersed you into my own name. 16(I also immersed the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I immersed any other.) 17For the Messiah sent me not to immerse, but to preach the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of the Messiah wouldn't be made void. 18For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of the FATHER. 19For it is written,
"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."

[20]Where is the wise? Where is the Scribe (Sofer)? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world? [21]For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe. [22]For Jew (Yehudim) ask for signs, Gentiles (Yebanim) seek after wisdom, [23]but we preach the Messiah crucified; a stumbling block to Jew (Yehudim), and foolishness to Gentiles (Yebanim), [24]but to those who are called, both Jew (Yehudim) and Gentiles (Yebanim), the Messiah is the power of God and the wisdom of God. [25]Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. [26]For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; [27]but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; [28]and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are: [29]that no flesh should boast before God. [30]But of him, you are in the Messiah YaHshua, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: [31]that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord (Adoni)."

When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of the FATHER. [2]For I determined not to know anything among you, except YaHshua the Messiah, and him crucified. [3]I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. [4]My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, [5]that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of the FATHER. [6]We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing. [7]But we speak the FATHER's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which the FATHER foreordained before the worlds for our glory, [8]which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord (Adoni) of glory. [9]But as it is written,
"Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear,
Which didn't enter into the heart of man,
These God has prepared for those who love him."

[10]But to us, the FATHER revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. [11]For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit. 12But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from the FATHER, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by the FATHER. 13Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. 14Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of the FATHER's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. 16"For who has known the mind of the Lord (Adoni), that he should instruct him?" But we have the Messiah's mind.

Brothers, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in the Messiah. 2I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready, 3for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of men? 4For when one says, "I follow Saul (Shaul)," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly? 5Who then is Apollos, and who is Saul (Shaul), but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord (Adoni) gave to him? 6I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase. 7So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. 8Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building. 10According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it. 11For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is YaHshua the Messiah. 12But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble; 13each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. 14If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. 15If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

16Don't you know that you are a temple of the FATHER, and that the FATHER's Spirit lives in you? 17If anyone destroys the temple of the FATHER, the FATHER will destroy him; for the FATHER's temple is holy, which you are. 18Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness." 20And again, "The Lord (Adoni) knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless." 21Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, [22]whether Saul (Shaul), or Apollos, or Kefa, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, [23]and you are the Messiah's, and the Messiah is the FATHER's.

So let a man think of us as the Messiah's servants, and stewards of the FATHER's mysteries. [2]Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful. [3]But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self. [4]For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord (Adoni). [5]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord (Adoni) comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from the FATHER.

[6]Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another. [7]For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? [8]You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. [9]For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men. [10]We are fools for the Messiah's sake, but you are wise in the Messiah. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. [11]Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. [12]We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. [13]Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now. [14]I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. [15]For though you have ten thousand tutors in the Messiah, yet not many fathers. For in the Messiah YaHshua, I became your father through the Good News. [16]I beg you therefore, be imitators of me. [17]Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord (Adoni), who will remind you of my ways which are in the Messiah, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly. [18]Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. [19]But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord (Adoni) is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. [20]For the Kingdom of our FATHER is not in word, but in power. [21]What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles (Goyim), that one has his father's wife. 2You are puffed up, and didn't rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. 3For I most assuredly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. 4In the name of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, 5are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua.

6Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? 7Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed the Messiah, our Passover (Pesach), has been sacrificed in our place. 8Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleaven bread (matzah) of sincerity and truth. 9I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; 10yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. 11But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Don't even eat with such a person. 12For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within? 13But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves."

Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the holy ones? 2Don't you know that the holy ones will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? 3Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? 4If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly? 5I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers? 6But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers! 7Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? 8No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers. 9Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of the FATHER? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, 10nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of the FATHER. 11Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, and in the Spirit of our God. 12"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything. 13"Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord (Adoni); and the Lord (Adoni) for the body. 14Now the FATHER raised up the Lord (Adoni), and will also raise us up by his power. 15Don't you know that your bodies are members of the Messiah? Shall I then take the members of the Messiah, and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! 16Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two," says he, "will become one flesh." 17But he who is joined to the Lord (Adoni) is one spirit. 18Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. 19Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) which is in you, which you have from the FATHER? You are not your own, 20for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify the FATHER in your body and in your spirit, which are the FATHER's.

Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2But, because of sexual immoralities, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3Let the husband render to his wife the affection owed her, and likewise also the wife to her husband. 4The wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but the wife. 5Don't deprive one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer, and may be together again, that Satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6But this I say by way of concession, not of word (mitzvah). 7Yet I wish that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. 8But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. 9But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. 10But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord (Adoni)—that the wife not leave her husband 11(but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

12But to the rest I—not the Lord (Adoni)—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. 13The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband. 14For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now are they holy. 15Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace (shalom). 16For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? 17Only, as the Lord (Adoni) has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.

18Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. 19Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments (mitzvot) of God. 20Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called. 21Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. 22For he who was called in the Lord (Adoni) being a bondservant is the Lord (Adoni)'s free man. Likewise he who was called being free is the Messiah's bondservant. 23You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men. 24Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with the FATHER.

25Now concerning virgins, I have no word (mitzvah) from the Lord (Adoni), but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord (Adoni) to be trustworthy. 26I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is. 27Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. 28But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. 29But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; 30and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess; 31and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away. 32But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord (Adoni), how he may please the Lord (Adoni); 33but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord (Adoni), that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. 35This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord (Adoni) without distraction. 36But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry. 37But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. 38So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better. 39A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whoever she desires, only in the Lord (Adoni). 40But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. 3But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. 4Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one. 5For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lord (Adoni)s;" 6yet to us there is one God, the FATHER, of whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord (Adoni), YaHshua the Messiah, through whom are all things, and we live through him. 7However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8But food will not commend us to the FATHER. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. 9But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. 10For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? 11And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake the Messiah died. 12Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against the Messiah. 13Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen YaHshua the Messiah, our Lord (Adoni)? Aren't you my work in the Lord (Adoni)? 2If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord (Adoni). 3My defense to those who examine me is this. 4Have we no right to eat and to drink? 5Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord (Adoni), and Kefa? 6Or have only Bar-Nabba and I no right to not work? 7What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk? 8Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing? 9For it is written in the law of Moses (Moshe), "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it for the oxen that God cares, 10or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. 11If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? 12If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of the Messiah. 13Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? 14Even so the Lord (Adoni) ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. 15But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. 16For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't preach the Good News. 17For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. 18What then is my reward? That, when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News of the Messiah without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. 19For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. 20To the Jew (Yehudim) I became as a Jew (Yehudi), that I might gain Jew (Yehudim); to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; 21to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward the Messiah), that I might win those who are without law. 22To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. 23Now I do this for the Good News sake, that I may be a joint partaker of it. 24Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. 25Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, 27but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2and were all immersed into Moses (Moshe) in the cloud and in the sea; 3and all ate the same spiritual food; 4and all drank the same spiritual drink.

For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was the Messiah. 5However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. 6Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. 7Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." 8Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. 9Neither let us test the Lord (Adoni), as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. 10Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. 11Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. 12Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall.

13No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. 14Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. 16The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a communion of the blood of the Messiah? The bread which we break, isn't it a communion of the body of the Messiah? 17Because we, who are many, are one bread, one body; for we all partake of the one bread. 18Consider Yisrael after the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices have communion with the altar?

19What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20But I say that the things which the Gentiles (Goyim) sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have communion with demons. 21You can't both drink the cup of the Lord (Adoni) and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord (Adoni), and of the table of demons. 22Or do we provoke the Lord (Adoni) to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? 23"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up. 24Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good. 25Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, 26for "the earth is the Lord (Adoni)'s, and its fullness." 27But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. 28But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord (Adoni)'s, and all its fullness." 29Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? 31Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of the FATHER. 32Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jew (Yehudim), or to Gentiles (Yebanim), or to the assembly of God; 33even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

Be imitators of me, even as I also am of the Messiah. 2Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3But I would have you know that the head of every man is the Messiah, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of the Messiah is the FATHER. 4Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. 5But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. 6For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. 7For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. 8For man is not from woman, but woman from man; 9for neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man. 10For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels.

11Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord (Adoni). 12For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from the FATHER. 13Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to the FATHER unveiled? 14Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. 16But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies.

17But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. 18For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. 19For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. 20When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord (Adoni)'s supper. 21For in your eating each one takes his own supper before others. One is hungry, and another is drunken. 22What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you.

23For I received from the Lord (Adoni) that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. 24When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." 25In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." [26]For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord (Adoni)'s death until he comes. [27]Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord (Adoni)'s cup in a manner unworthy of the Lord (Adoni) will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord (Adoni). [28]But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. [29]For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he doesn't discern the Lord (Adoni)'s body. [30]For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. [31]For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged. [32]But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord (Adoni), that we may not be condemned with the world. [33]Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for another. [34]But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant. [2]You know that when you were heathen, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. [3]Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by the FATHER's Spirit says, "YaHshua is accursed." No one can say, "YaHshua is Lord (Adoni)," but by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). [4]Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

[5]There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord (Adoni). [6]There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. [7]But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. [8]For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; [9]to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit; [10]and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages. [11]But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

[12]For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is the Messiah. [13]For in one Spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether Jew (Yehudim) or Gentiles (Yebanim), whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit. [14]For the body is not one member, but many. [15]If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. [16]If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. [17]If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? [18]But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. [19]If they were all one member, where would the body be? 20But now they are many members, but one body. 21The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." 22No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. 23Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety; 24whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, 25that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. 26When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27Now you are the body of the Messiah, and members individually. 28God has set some in the assembly: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. 29Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? 30Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? 31But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. 2If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. 3If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.

4Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, 5doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; 6doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. 9For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. 11When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. 12For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. 13But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. 3But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. 4He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly. 5Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up.

6But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? 7Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? 8For if the trumphet (shofarl) gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? 9So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. 10There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without meaning. 11If then I don't know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. 12So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. 13Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. 14For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amein" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? 17For you most assuredly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. 18I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all. 19However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

20Brothers, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. 21In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord (Adoni)." 22Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. 23If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? 24But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. 25And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

26What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. 27If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. 28But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. 30But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. 31For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. 32The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, 33for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace (shalom).

As in all the assemblies of the holy ones, 34let your wives keep silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the law also says. 35If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the assembly. 36What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? 37If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the word (mitzvah) of the Lord (Adoni). 38But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. 39Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages. 40Let all things be done decently and in order.

Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, 2by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. 3For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that the Messiah died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5and that he appeared to Kefa, then to the twelve. 6Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. 7Then he appeared to Jacob (Yaaqob), then to all the apostles, 8and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. 9For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. 10But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was bestowed on me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

12Now if the Messiah is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has the Messiah been raised. 14If the Messiah has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. 15Yes, we are found false witnesses of the FATHER, because we testified about the FATHER that he raised up the Messiah, whom he didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. 16For if the dead aren't raised, neither has the Messiah been raised. 17If the Messiah has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. 18Then they also who are fallen asleep in the Messiah have perished. 19If we have only hoped in the Messiah in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

20But now the Messiah has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. 21For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. 22For as in Adam all die, so also in the Messiah all will be made alive. 23But each in his own order: the Messiah the first fruits, then those who are the Messiah's, at his coming. 24Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the FATHER; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. 25For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. 26The last enemy that will be abolished is death. 27For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet." But when he says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him. 28When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that the FATHER may be all in all. 29Or else what will they do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they immersed for the dead? 30Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? 31I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni), I die daily. 32If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." 33Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." 34Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of the FATHER. I say this to your shame. 35But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" 36You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. 38But the FATHER gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. 39All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. 40There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. 41There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. 42So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. 43It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. 44It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

45So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. 47The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord (Adoni) from heaven. 48As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. 49As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's also bear the image of the heavenly. 50Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood can't inherit the Kingdom of the FATHER; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, 52in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumphet (shofarl). For the trumphet (shofarl) will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. 53For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory." 55"Death, where is your sting?
The grave (Sheol), where is your victory?"

56The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57But thanks be to the FATHER, who gives us the victory through our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. 58Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord (Adoni)'s work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord (Adoni).

Now concerning the collection for the holy ones, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. 2On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. 3When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 4If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. 5But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. 6But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. 7For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord (Adoni) permits. 8But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost (Shavuot), 9for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. [10]Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord (Adoni), as I also do. [11]Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace (shalom), that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

[12]Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

[13]Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be courageous! Be strong! [14]Let all that you do be done in love.

[15]Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to minister to the holy ones), [16]that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors. [17]I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. [18]For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

[19]The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord (Adoni), together with the assembly that is in their house. [20]All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

[21]This greeting is by me, Saul (Shaul), with my own hand. [22]If any man doesn't love the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, let him be accursed. Maranata! [23]The grace of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with you. [24]My love to all of you in the Messiah YaHshua. .

Saul (Shaul)'s Second Letter to Corinthians

Saul (Shaul), an apostle of the Messiah YaHshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in the whole of Achaia: 2Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

3Blessed be the God and FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, the FATHER of mercies and God of all comfort; 4who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5For as the sufferings of the Messiah abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through the Messiah. 6But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 7Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. 8For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. 9Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, 10who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us; 11you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf. 12For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; 14as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua. 15In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; 16and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judah (Yehudah). 17When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?" 18But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." 19For the Son of the FATHER, YaHshua the Messiah, who was preached among you by us, by me, Sila, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." 20For however many are the promises of the FATHER, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amein," to the glory of the FATHER through us.

21Now he who establishes us with you in the Messiah, and anointed us, is God; 22who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. 23But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you. 24Not that we have Lordship over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? 3And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. 4For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. 5But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. 6Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many; 7so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. 8Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him. 9For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. 10Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of the Messiah, 11that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

12Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of the Messiah, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord (Adoni), 13I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. 14Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in the Messiah, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. 15For we are a sweet aroma of the Messiah to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; 16to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?

17For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in the Messiah.

Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you? 2You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; 3being revealed that you are a letter of the Messiah, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. 4Such confidence we have through the Messiah toward the FATHER; 5not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from the FATHER; 6who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. 7But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Yisrael could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses (Moshe) for the glory of his face; which was passing away: 8won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? 9For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. 10For most assuredly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. 11For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint. 2But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of the FATHER deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of the FATHER. 3Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish; 4in whom the God of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of the Messiah, who is the image of the FATHER, should not dawn on them. 5For we don't preach ourselves, but the Messiah YaHshua as Lord (Adoni), and ourselves as your servants for YaHshua's sake; 6seeing it is the FATHER who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of the FATHER in the face of YaHshua the Messiah.

7But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. 8We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; 9pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; 10always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, that the life of YaHshua may also be revealed in our body. 11For we who live are always delivered to death for YaHshua's sake, that the life also of YaHshua may be revealed in our mortal flesh. 12So then death works in us, but life in you. 13But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." We also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14knowing that he who raised the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua will raise us also with YaHshua, and will present us with you. 15For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of the FATHER. 16Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. 17For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2For most assuredly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven; 3if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked. 4For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

6Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord (Adoni); 7for we walk by faith, not by sight. 8We are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord (Adoni). 9Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. 10For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of the Messiah; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. 11Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord (Adoni), we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. 12For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. 13For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. 14For the love of the Messiah constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. 15He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. 16Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known the Messiah after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. 17Therefore if anyone is in the Messiah, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new. 18But all things are of the FATHER, who reconciled us to himself through YaHshua the Messiah, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19namely, that the FATHER was in the Messiah reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. 20We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of the Messiah, as though the FATHER were entreating by us. We beg you on behalf of the Messiah, be reconciled to the FATHER. 21For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of the FATHER.

Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of the FATHER in vain, 2for he says,
"At an acceptable time I listened to you,
In a day of salvation I helped you."

Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. 3We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, 4but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of the FATHER, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, 5in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; 6in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), in sincere love, 7in the word of truth, in the power of the FATHER; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; 9as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; 10as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

[11]Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. [12]You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. [13]Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. [14]Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what communion has light with darkness? [15]What agreement has the Messiah with Beliya`al? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? [16]What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God (Elohim). Even as God (Elohim) said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God (Elohim), and they will be my people." [17]Therefore,
"'Come out from among them,
And be separate,' says YaHWeH.
'Touch no unclean thing.
I will receive you.
[18]I will be to you a Father.
You will be to me sons and daughters,' says YaHWeH Almighty."

Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. [2]Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. [3]I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. [4]Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. [5]For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. [6]Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; [7]and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

[8]For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. [9]I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a Godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. [10]For Godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death. [11]For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a Godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. [12]So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. 13Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. 16I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia; 2how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. 3For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the holy ones. 5This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord (Adoni), and to us through the will of God. 6So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. 7But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace. 8I speak not by way of word (mitzvah), but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9For you know the grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. 10I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. 11But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have. 13For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, 14but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. 15As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."

16But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. 17For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. 18We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the assemblies. 19Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord (Adoni) himself, and to show our readiness. 20We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us.

21Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord (Adoni), but also in the sight of men. 22We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. 23As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of the Messiah.
24Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the holy ones, 2for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them.
3But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, 4so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confident boasting. 5I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. 6Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. 7Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for the FATHER loves a cheerful giver. 8And the FATHER is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. 9As it is written,
"He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor.
His righteousness remains forever."

10Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God (EL the FATHER. 12For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the holy ones, but abounds also through many givings of thanks the FATHER; 13seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify the FATHER for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of the Messiah, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; 14while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of the FATHER in you. 15Now thanks be to the FATHER for his unspeakable gift!

Now I Saul (Shaul), myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of the Messiah; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you. 2Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. 3For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; 4for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds, 5throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of the FATHER, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of the Messiah; 6and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. 7Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is the Messiah's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is the Messiah's, so also we are the Messiah's. 8For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord (Adoni) gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, 9that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. 10For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." 11Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. 12For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. 13But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. 14For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of the Messiah, 15not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, 16so as to preach the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. 17But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord (Adoni)." 18For it isn't he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord (Adoni) commends.

I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. [2]For I am jealous over you with a Godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to the Messiah. [3]But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived EVE (Havah) in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in the Messiah. [4]For if he who comes preaches another YaHshua, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different Good News, which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. [5]For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. [6]But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. [7]Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? [8]I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. [9]When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. [10]As the truth of the Messiah is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. [11]Why? Because I don't love you? God knows. [12]But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. [13]For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as the Messiah's apostles. [14]And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. [15]It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

[16]I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. [17]That which I speak, I don't speak according to the Lord (Adoni), but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. [18]Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. [19]For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. [20]For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face. [21]I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. [22]Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Yisraelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I. [23]Are they servants of the Messiah? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. [24]Five times from the Jew (Yehudim) I received forty stripes minus one. [25]Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. [26]I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles (Goyim), perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; [27]in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

[28]Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies. [29]Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation? [30]If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. [31]The God and FATHER of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, he who is blessed forevermore, knows that I don't lie. [32]In Damascus (Dammesek) the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes desiring to arrest me. [33]Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord (Adoni). [2]I know a man in the Messiah, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven. [3]I know such a man (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows), [4]how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. [5]On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. [6]For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I forbear, so that no man may account of me above that which he sees in me, or hears from me. [7]By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted excessively. [8]Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord (Adoni) three times that it might depart from me. [9]He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of the Messiah may rest on me.

[10]Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for the Messiah's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. [11]I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. [12]Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. [13]For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

[14]Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. [15]I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? [16]But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. [17]Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? [18]I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps? [19]Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of the FATHER we speak in the Messiah. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. [20]For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; [21]that again when I come my FATHER would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word established." [2]I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; [3]seeing that you seek a proof of the Messiah who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. [4]For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of the FATHER. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of the FATHER toward you. [5]Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you know as to your own selves, that YaHshua the Messiah is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. [6]But I hope that you will know that we aren't disqualified.

[7]Now I pray to the FATHER that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. [8]For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. [9]For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. [10]For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord (Adoni) gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

[11]Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace (shalom), and the FATHER of love and peace (shalom) will be with you. [12]Greet one another with a holy kiss. [13]All the holy ones greet you. [14]The grace of the Lord (Adoni)

YaHshua the Messiah, the love of the FATHER, and the communion of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), be with you all. .

Galatians

Saul (Shaul)'s Letter to the Galatians

Saul (Shaul), an apostle (not from men, neither through man, but through YaHshua the Messiah, and God the FATHER, who raised him from the dead), [2]and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: [3]Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God the FATHER, and our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, [4]who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God our FATHER.[5]to whom be the glory forever and ever. .

[6]I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of the Messiah to a different Good News; [7]and there isn't another Good News. Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of the Messiah. [8]But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any Good News other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. [9]As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any Good News other than that which you received, let him be cursed. [10]For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn't be a servant of the Messiah. [11]But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. [12]For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of YaHshua the Messiah. [13]For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jew (Yehudim)' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it. [14]I advanced in the Jew (Yehudim)' religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. [15]But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, [16]to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles (Goyim), I didn't immediately confer with flesh and blood, [17]nor did I go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into `Arav. Then I returned to Damascus (Dammesek). [18]Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to visit Simon (Shimon), and stayed with him fifteen days. [19]But of the other apostles I saw no one, except Jacob (Yaaqob), the Lord (Adoni)'s brother. [20]Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I'm not lying. [21]Then I came to the regions of Aram and Cilicia. 22I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judah (Yehudah) which were in the Messiah, 23but they only heard: "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy." 24And they glorified God in me.

Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with Bar-Nabba, taking Titus also with me. 2I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles (Goyim), but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. 3But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek (Yebanit), was compelled to be circumcised. 4This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in the Messiah YaHshua, that they might bring us into bondage; 5to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. 6But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn't show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, 7but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Simon (Shimon) with the Good News for the circumcision 8(for he who appointed Simon (Shimon) to the apostleship of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles (Goyim)); 9and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, Jacob (Yaaqob) and Kefa and John (Yochanan), they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Bar-Nabba the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles (Goyim), and they to the circumcision. 10They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11But when Simon (Shimon) came to Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. 12For before some people came from Jacob (Yaaqob), he ate with the Gentiles (Goyim). But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. 13And the rest of the Jew (Yehudim) joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Bar-Nabba was carried away with their hypocrisy. 14But when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Simon (Shimon) before them all, "If you, being a Jew (Yehudi), live as the Gentiles (Goyim) do, and not as the Jew (Yehudim) do, why do you compel the Gentiles (Goyim) to live as the Jew (Yehudim) do?

15"We, being Jew (Yehudim) by nature, and not Gentile (Goy) sinners, 16yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through the faith of YaHshua the Messiah, even we believed in the Messiah YaHshua, that we might be justified by faith in the Messiah, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. 17But if, while we sought to be justified in the Messiah, we ourselves also were found sinners, is the Messiah a servant of sin? Certainly not! 18For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. 19For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God. 20I have been crucified with the Messiah, and it is no longer I that live, but the Messiah living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of the FATHER, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. 21I don't make void the grace of the FATHER. For if righteousness is through the law, then the Messiah died for nothing!"

Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes YaHshua the Messiah was openly set forth among you as crucified? 2I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? 3Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? 4Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? 5He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? 6Even as Abraham "believed God (Elohim), and it was counted to him for righteousness." 7Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham. 8The Scripture, foreseeing that God (Elohim) would justify the Gentiles (Goyim) by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed." 9So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. 10For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them." 11Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith." 12The law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live by them."

13the Messiah redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree," 14that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles (Goyim) through the Messiah YaHshua; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. 15Brothers, I speak like men. Though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it. 16Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He doesn't say, "To seeds," as of many, but as of one, "To your seed," which is the Messiah. 17Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in the Messiah, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect. 18For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

19What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. [20]Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. [21]Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most assuredly righteousness would have been of the law. [22]But the Scriptures shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in YaHshua the Messiah might be given to those who believe. [23]But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, shut up to the faith which should afterwards be revealed. [24]So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to the Messiah, that we might be justified by faith. [25]But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. [26]For you are all children of the FATHER, through faith in the Messiah YaHshua. [27]For as many of you as were immersed into the Messiah have put on the Messiah. [28]There is neither Jew (Yehudi) nor Greek (Yebanit), there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in the Messiah YaHshua. [29]If you are the Messiah's, then you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to promise.

But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is Lord (Adoni) of all; [2]but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the FATHER. [3]So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elements of the world. [4]But when the fullness of the time came, the FATHER sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law, [5]that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children. [6]And because you are children, the FATHER sent out the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba, FATHER!" [7]So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of the FATHER through the Messiah. [8]However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not Gods. [9]But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elements, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? [10]You observe days, months, seasons, and years. [11]I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. [12]I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, [13]but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time. [14]That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as the Messiah YaHshua.

[15]What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. [16]So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? [17]They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them. [18]But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

19My little children, of whom I am again in travail until the Messiah is formed in you—20but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. 21Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don't you listen to the law? 22For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free woman. 23However, the son by the handmaid was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. 24These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. 25For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arab, and answers to the Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children. 26But the Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) that is above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27For it is written,
"Rejoice, you barren who don't bear.
Break forth and shout, you that don't travail.
For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband."

28Now we, brothers, as Issac (Yitzchak) was, are children of promise. 29But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. 30However what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the handmaid and her son, for the son of the handmaid will not inherit with the son of the free woman." 31So then, brothers, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the free woman.

Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which the Messiah has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. 2Behold, I, Saul (Shaul), tell you that if you receive circumcision, the Messiah will profit you nothing. 3Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4You are alienated from the Messiah, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. 5For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. 6For in the Messiah YaHshua neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. 7You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? 8This persuasion is not from him who calls you. 9A little yeast grows through the whole lump. 10I have confidence toward you in the Lord (Adoni) that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the cross has been removed. 12I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. 13For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. 14For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

15But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another.
16But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh. 17For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one other, that you may not do the things that you desire. 18But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. 19Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, 20idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, 21envyings, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of the FATHER.

22But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace (shalom), patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. 24Those who belong to the Messiah have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. 25If we live by the Spirit, let's also walk by the Spirit. 26Let's not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted. 2Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of the Messiah. 3For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4But let each man test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor. 5For each man will bear his own burden. 6But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. 7Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that will he also reap. 8For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption.
But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. 9Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up. 10So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

11See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand. 12As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of the Messiah. 13For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. 14But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15For in the Messiah YaHshua neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. 16As many as walk by this rule, peace (shalom) and mercy be on them, and on God's Yisrael. [17]From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua branded on my body.

[18]The grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with your spirit, brothers. .

Ephesians

Saul (Shaul)'s Letter to the Ephesians

Saul (Shaul), an apostle of the Messiah YaHshua through the will of the FATHER, to the holy ones who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in the Messiah YaHshua: 2Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

3Blessed be the God and FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in the Messiah; 4even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before him in love; 5having predestined us for adoption as children through YaHshua the Messiah to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, 6to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely bestowed favor on us in the Beloved, 7in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, 8which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him 10to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in the Messiah, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; 11in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his will; 12to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in the Messiah: 13in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) of promise, 14who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. 15For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the holy ones, 16don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17that the FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, the FATHER of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; 18having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the holy ones, 19and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might [20]which he worked in the Messiah, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, [21]far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. [22]He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly, [23]which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

You were made alive when you were dead in transgressions and sins, [2]in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the powers of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; [3]among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. [4]But the FATHER, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, [5]even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with the Messiah (by grace you have been saved), [6]and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in the Messiah YaHshua, [7]that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in the Messiah YaHshua; [8]for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of the FATHER, [9]not of works, that no one would boast. [10]For we are his workmanship, created in the Messiah YaHshua for good works, which the FATHER prepared before that we would walk in them.

[11]Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles (Goyim) in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision," (in the flesh, made by hands); [12]that you were at that time separate from the Messiah, alienated from the commonwealth of Yisrael, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. [13]But now in the Messiah YaHshua you who once were far off are made near in the blood of the Messiah. [14]For he is our peace (shalom), who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, [15]having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments (mitzvot) contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace (shalom); [16]and might reconcile them both in one body to the FATHER through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby. [17]He came and preached peace (shalom) to you who were far off and to those who were near. [18]For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the FATHER. [19]So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones, and of the household of the FATHER, [20]being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, the Messiah YaHshua himself being the chief cornerstone; [21]in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord (Adoni); 22in whom you also are built together for a habitation of the FATHER in the Spirit.

For this cause I, Saul (Shaul), am the prisoner of the Messiah YaHshua on behalf of you Gentiles (Goyim), 2if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; 3how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, 4by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of the Messiah; 5which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; 6that the Gentiles (Goyim) are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of his promise in the Messiah YaHshua through the Good News, 7whereof I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. 8To me, the very least of all holy ones, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles (Goyim) the unsearchable riches of the Messiah, 9and to make all men see what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God (Elohim), who created all things through YaHshua the Messiah; 10to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, 11according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni); 12in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him. 13Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

14For this cause, I bow my knees to the FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, 15from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, 16that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; 17that the Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18may be strengthened to comprehend with all the holy ones what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19and to know the Messiah's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of the FATHER. 20Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21to him be the glory in the assembly and in the Messiah YaHshua to all generations forever and ever. .

I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord (Adoni), beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2with all lowliness and humility, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love; [3]being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (shalom). [4]There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; [5]one Lord (Adoni), one faith, one immersion, [6]one God and FATHER of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all. [7]But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of the Messiah. [8]Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men." [9]Now this, "He ascended," what is it but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? [10]He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

[11]He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and teachers; [12]for the perfecting of the holy ones, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of the Messiah; [13]until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of the FATHER, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of the Messiah; [14]that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; [15]but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, the Messiah; [16]from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

[17]This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord (Adoni), that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles (Goyim) also walk, in the futility of their mind, [18]being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; [19]who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. [20]But you did not learn the Messiah that way; [21]if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in YaHshua: [22]that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; [23]and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, [24]and put on the new man, who in the likeness of the FATHER has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

[25]Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members one of another. [26]"Be angry, and don't sin." Don't let the sun go down on your wrath, [27]neither give place to the devil. [28]Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. [29]Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. [30]Don't grieve the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) of the FATHER, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. [31]Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. 32And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as the FATHER also in the Messiah forgave you.

Be therefore imitators of the FATHER, as beloved children. 2Walk in love, even as the Messiah also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. 3But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes holy ones; 4nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

5Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of the Messiah and God (EL the FATHER.

6Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. 7Therefore don't be partakers with them. 8For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord (Adoni). Walk as children of light, 9for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, 10proving what is well-pleasing to the Lord (Adoni). 11Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. 12For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. 13But all things, when they are reproved, are revealed by the light, for everything that is revealed is light. 14Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and the Messiah will shine on you."

22Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord (Adoni). 23For the husband is the head of the wife, and the Messiah also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. 24But as the assembly is subject to the Messiah, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

25Husbands, love your wives, even as the Messiah also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it; 26that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, [27]that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. [28]Even so ought husbands also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. [29]For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord (Adoni) also does the assembly; [30]because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones. [31]"For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh." [32]This mystery is great, but I speak concerning the Messiah and of the assembly. [33]Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord (Adoni), for this is right. [2]"Honor your father and mother," which is the first word (mitzvah) with a promise: [3]"that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth."

[4]You fathers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord (Adoni).

[5]Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to the Messiah; [6]not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men-pleasers; but as servants of the Messiah, doing the will of the FATHER from the heart; [7]with good will doing service, as to the Lord (Adoni), and not to men; [8]knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord (Adoni), whether he is bound or free.

[9]You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

[10]Finally, be strong in the Lord (Adoni), and in the strength of his might. [11]Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. [12]For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. [13]Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. [14]Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, [15]and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace (shalom); [16]above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. [17]And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of the FATHER; [18]with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the holy ones: [19]on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, [20]for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

[21]But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord (Adoni), will make known to you all things; [22]whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

[23]Peace (shalom) be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. [24]Grace be with all those who love our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah with incorruptible love. .

Philippians
Saul (Shaul)'s Letter to the Philippians

Saul (Shaul) and Timothy, servants of YaHshua the Messiah;

To all the holy ones in the Messiah YaHshua who are at Philippi, with the overseers and Deacons (Shammashim): [2]Grace to you, and peace (shalom) from God, our FATHER, and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. [3]I thank my FATHER whenever I remember you, [4]always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, [5]for your partnership in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; [6]being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of YaHshua the Messiah. [7]It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. [8]For the FATHER is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of the Messiah YaHshua.

[9]This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; [10]so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of the Messiah; [11]being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through YaHshua the Messiah, to the glory and praise of the FATHER.

[12]Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; [13]so that it became evident to the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in the Messiah; [14]and that most of the brothers in the Lord (Adoni), being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. [15]Some indeed preach the Messiah even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. [16]The former insincerly preach the Messiah from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; [17]but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News.

[18]What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, the Messiah is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. [19]For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of YaHshua the Messiah, [20]according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also the Messiah will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. [21]For to me to live is the Messiah, and to die is gain. [22]But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't make known what I will choose. [23]But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with the Messiah, which is far better. [24]Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. [25]Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, [26]that your rejoicing may abound in the Messiah YaHshua in me through my presence with you again.

[27]Only let your manner of life be worthy of the Good News of the Messiah, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; [28]and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from the FATHER. [29]Because it has been granted to you on behalf of the Messiah, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, [30]having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

If there is therefore any exhortation in the Messiah, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, [2]make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; [3]doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; [4]each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

[5]Have this in your mind, which was also in the Messiah YaHshua, [6]who, existing in the form of God (Elohim), didn't consider it robbery to be equal with God (Elohim), [7]but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. [8]And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross. [9]Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name; [10]that at the name of YaHshua every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, [11]and that every tongue should confess that YaHshua the Messiah is Lord (Adoni), to the glory of God the FATHER.

[12]So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. [13]For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. [14]Do all things without murmurings and disputes, [15]that you may become blameless and harmless, children of the FATHER without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, [16]holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of the Messiah, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain. [17]Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. [18]In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

[19]But I hope in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. [20]For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. [21]For they all seek their own, not the things of YaHshua the Messiah. [22]But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. [23]Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. [24]But I trust in the Lord (Adoni) that I myself also will come shortly. [25]But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and minister to my need; [26]since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. [27]For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. [28]I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. [29]Receive him therefore in the Lord (Adoni) with all joy, and hold such in honor, [30]because for the work of the Messiah he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord (Adoni). To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. [2]Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. [3]For we are the circumcision, who worship the FATHER in the Spirit, and rejoice in the Messiah YaHshua, and have no confidence in the flesh; [4]though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: [5]circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Yisrael, of the tribe of Binyamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Parush (Pharisees); [6]concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

[7]However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for the Messiah. [8]Yes most assuredly, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of the Messiah YaHshua, my Lord (Adoni), for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain the Messiah [9]and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in the Messiah, the righteousness which is from the FATHER by faith; [10]that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; [11]if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. [12]Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by the Messiah YaHshua.

[13]Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, [14]I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of the FATHER in the Messiah YaHshua. [15]Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, the FATHER will also reveal that to you. [16]Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind. [17]Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. [18]For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of the Messiah, [19]whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. [20]For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah; [21]who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord (Adoni), my beloved. [2]I exhort Evodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord (Adoni). [3]Yes, I beg you also, true yoke-fellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. [4]Rejoice in the Lord (Adoni) always! Again I will say, Rejoice! [5]Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord (Adoni) is at hand. [6]In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. [7]The peace (shalom) of the FATHER, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in the Messiah YaHshua.

[8]Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. [9]The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace (shalom) will be with you. [10]But I rejoice in the Lord (Adoni) greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. [11]Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. [12]I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. [13]I can do all things through the Messiah, who strengthens me. [14]However you did well that you shared in my affliction. [15]You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. [16]For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. [17]Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. [18]But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. [19]My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in the Messiah YaHshua. [20]Now to our God and FATHER be the glory forever and ever! .

[21]Greet every holy one in the Messiah YaHshua. The brothers who are with me greet you. [22]All the holy ones greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. [23]The grace of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with you all. .

Colossians

Saul (Shaul)'s Letter to the Colossians

Saul (Shaul), an apostle of the Messiah YaHshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2to the holy ones and faithful brothers in the Messiah at Colossae: Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER, and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

3We give thanks to God the FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, praying always for you, 4having heard of your faith in the Messiah YaHshua, and of the love which you have toward all the holy ones, 5because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, 6which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of the FATHER in truth; 7even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of the Messiah on our behalf, 8who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. 9For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10that you may walk worthily of the Lord (Adoni), to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of the FATHER; 11strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; 12giving thanks to the FATHER, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the holy ones in light; 13who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love; 14in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins; 15who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16For by him were all things created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and for him. 17He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. 18He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. 19For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him; 20and through him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace (shalom) through the blood of his cross.

21You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, 22yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him, 23if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Saul (Shaul), was made a servant.

24Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of the Messiah in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly; 25of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, 26the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his holy ones, 27to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles (Goyim), which is the Messiah in you, the hope of glory; 28whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in the Messiah YaHshua; 29for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; 2that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the FATHER and of the Messiah, 3in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. 5For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in the Messiah. 6As therefore you received the Messiah YaHshua, the Lord (Adoni), walk in him, 7rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. 8Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after the Messiah. 9For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily, 10and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; 11in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of the Messiah; 12having been buried with him in immersion, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. 13You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, 14wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; 15having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16Let no man therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or Shabbat, 17which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is the Messiah's. 18Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the FATHER's growth. 20If you died with the Messiah from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, 21"Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch" 22(all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? 23Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

If then you were raised together with the Messiah, seek the things that are above, where the Messiah is, seated on the right hand of the FATHER. 2Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth. 3For you died, and your life is hidden with the Messiah in the FATHER. 4When the Messiah, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory. 5Put to death therefore your members which are on the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, depraved passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; 6for which things' sake the wrath of the FATHER comes on the children of disobedience. 7You also once walked in those, when you lived in them; 8but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. 9Don't lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his doings, 10and have put on the new man, that is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his Creator, 11where there can't be Greek (Yebanit) and Jew (Yehudi), circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondservant, freeman; but the Messiah is all, and in all.

12Put on therefore, as the FATHER's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance; 13bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as the Messiah forgave you, so you also do.

14Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. 15And let the peace (shalom) of the FATHER rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. 16Let the word of the Messiah dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord (Adoni).

17Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, giving thanks to God the FATHER, through him.

18Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord (Adoni).

19Husbands, love your wives, and don't be bitter against them.

20Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord (Adoni).

21Fathers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.

22Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. 23And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord (Adoni), and not for men, 24knowing that from the Lord (Adoni) you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord (Adoni) the Messiah. 25But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

2Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of the Messiah, for which I am also in bonds; 4that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. 5Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

7All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord (Adoni). 8I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, 9together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here. 10Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Bar-Nabba (concerning whom you received commandments (mitzvot) , "if he comes to you, receive him"), [11]and Yahshua who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These are my only fellow workers for the Kingdom of the FATHER, men who have been a comfort to me.

[12]Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of the Messiah, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. [13]For I testify about him, that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. [14]Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. [15]Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in his house. [16]When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you also read the letter from Laodicea. [17]Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord (Adoni), that you fulfill it."

[18]The salutation of me, Saul (Shaul), with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. .

1 Thessalonians
Saul (Shaul)'s First Letter to the Thessalonians

Saul (Shaul), Sila, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah: Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

2We always give thanks to the FATHER for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, 3remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, before our God and FATHER. 4We know, brothers loved by the FATHER, that you are chosen, 5and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. 6You became imitators of us, and of the Lord (Adoni), having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), 7so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. 8For from you has sounded forth the word of the Lord (Adoni), not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone forth; so that we need not to say anything. 9For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, 10and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead— YaHshua, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you wasn't in vain, 2but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of the FATHER in much conflict. 3For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. 4But even as we have been approved by the FATHER to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. 5For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), 6nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of the Messiah. 7But we were gentle among of you, as when a nurse cherishes her own children.

8Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of the FATHER only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. 9For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of the FATHER. 10You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. 11As you know how we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. 13For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. 14For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judah (Yehudah) in the Messiah YaHshua; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jew (Yehudim); 15who killed both the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua and their own prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all men; 16forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles (Goyim) that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

17But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, 18because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Saul (Shaul), once and again— but Satan hindered us. 19For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua at his coming? 20For you are our glory and our joy.

Therefore, when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, 2and sent Timothy, our brother and the FATHER's servant in the Good News of the Messiah, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. 4For most assuredly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. 5For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. 6But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; [7]for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. [8]For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord (Adoni). [9]For what thanksgiving can we render again to the FATHER for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our the FATHER; [10]night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? [11]Now may our God and FATHER himself, and our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, direct our way to you; [12]and the Lord (Adoni) make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, [13]to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and FATHER, at the coming of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua with all his holy ones.

Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please the FATHER, that you abound more and more. [2]For you know what charge we gave you through the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua. [3]For this is the will of the FATHER: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, [4]that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor, [5]not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles (Goyim) who don't know God; [6]that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord (Adoni) is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. [7]For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. [8]Therefore he who rejects doesn't reject man, but the FATHER, who has also given his Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) to you.

[9]But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by the FATHER to love one another, [10]for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; [11]and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we charged you; [12]that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

[13]But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. [14]For if we believe that YaHshua died and rose again, even so those who have fallen asleep in YaHshua will the FATHER bring with him. [15]For this we tell you by the word of the Lord (Adoni), that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord (Adoni), will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. [16]For the Lord (Adoni) himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the chief angel, and with God's trumphet (shofarl). The dead in the Messiah will rise first, 17then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord (Adoni) in the air. So we will be with the Lord (Adoni) forever. 18Therefore comfort one another with these words.

But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. 2For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord (Adoni) comes like a thief in the night. 3For when they are saying, "Peace (shalom) and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. 4But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. 5You are all children of light, and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness, 6so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober. 7For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunken are drunken in the night. 8But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. 9For the FATHER didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, 10who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 11Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. 12But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord (Adoni), and admonish you, 13and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace (shalom) among yourselves. 14We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. 15See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

16Rejoice always. 17Pray without ceasing. 18In everything give thanks, for this is the will of the FATHER in the Messiah YaHshua toward you. 19Don't quench the Spirit. 20Don't despise prophesies. 21Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good. 22Abstain from every form of evil.

23May the God of peace (shalom) himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

24Faithful is he who calls you, who will also do it. 25Brothers, pray for us. 26Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27I solemnly charge you by the Lord (Adoni) that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

[28]The grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with you. .

2 Thessalonians

Saul (Shaul)'s Second Letter to the Thessalonians

Saul (Shaul), Sila, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our FATHER, and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah: 2Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

3We are bound to always give thanks to the FATHER for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; 4so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. 5This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of the FATHER, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the Kingdom of the FATHER, for which you also suffer. 6Since it is a righteous thing with the FATHER to repay affliction to those who afflict you, 7and to give relief to you that are afflicted with us, when the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, 8giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, 9who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord (Adoni) and from the glory of his might, 10when he comes to be glorified in his holy ones, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.

11To this end we also pray always for you, that our FATHER may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; 12that the name of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our the FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, and our gathering together to him, we ask you 2not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of the Messiah had come. 3Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction, 4he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called god or that is worshiped; so that he sits as god in the temple of God, setting himself up as god. 5Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. 8Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord (Adoni) will kill with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nothing by the brightness of his coming; 9even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; 12that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 13But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord (Adoni), because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; 14to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. 15So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

16Now our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah himself, and God our FATHER, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, 17comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord (Adoni) may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; 2and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. 3But the Lord (Adoni) is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. 4We have confidence in the Lord (Adoni) concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. 5May the Lord (Adoni) direct your hearts into the love of the FATHER, and into the patience of the Messiah.

6Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. 7For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you, 8neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; 9not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. [10]For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let him eat." [11]For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies. [12]Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

[13]But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing well. [14]If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. [15]Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

[16]Now may the Lord (Adoni) of peace (shalom) himself give you peace (shalom) at all times in all ways. The Lord (Adoni) be with you all.

[17]The greeting of me, Saul (Shaul), with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. [18]The grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with you all.

Notes:

1 Timothy
Saul (Shaul)'s First Letter to Timothy

Saul (Shaul), an apostle of the Messiah YaHshua according to the word (mitzvah) of God our Savior, and the Messiah YaHshua our hope; 2to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace (shalom), from God our FATHER and the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni).

3As I exhorted you to stay at Ephesus when I was going into Macedonia, that you might charge certain men not to teach a different doctrine, 4neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith—5but the end of the charge is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith; 6from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; 7desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. 8But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, 9as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the unGodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; 11according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 12And I thank him who enabled me, the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni), because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; 13although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 14The grace of our Lord (Adoni) abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in the Messiah YaHshua. 15The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that the Messiah YaHshua came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 16However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, YaHshua the Messiah might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. 17Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to the FATHER who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. .

18This charge I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; 19holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; 20of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men: 2for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all Godliness and reverence. 3For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; 4who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. 5For there is one the FATHER, and one mediator between God and men, the man the Messiah YaHshua, 6who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; 7to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth in the Messiah, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles (Goyim) in faith and truth.

8I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without wrath and doubting. 9In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; 10but (which becomes women professing Godliness) with good works. 11Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. 13For Adam was first formed, then EVE (Havah). 14Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; 15but she will be saved through her child-bearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.

This is a faithful saying: if a man seeks the office of an overseer, he desires a good work.
2The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; 3not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; 5(but if a man doesn't know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the assembly of God?) 6not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. 7Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

[8]Deacons (Shammashim), in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money; [9]holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. [10]Let them also first be tested; then let them serve as Deacons (Shammashim), if they are blameless. [11]Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. [12]Let Deacons (Shammashim) be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. [13]For those who have served well as Deacons (Shammashim) gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in the Messiah YaHshua.

[14]These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; [15]but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. [16]Without controversy, the mystery of Godliness is great:
God was revealed in the flesh,
Justified in the spirit,
Seen by angels,
Preached among the nations,
Believed on in the world,
And received up in glory.

But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, [2]through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; [3]forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. [4]For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. [5]For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. [6]If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of the Messiah YaHshua, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. [7]But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward Godliness. [8]For bodily exercise has some value, but Godliness has value for all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. [9]This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. [10]For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. [11]Command and teach these things.

[12]Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. [13]Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. [14]Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the Elders (Zakenim). 15Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. 16Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; 2the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. 3Honor widows who are widows indeed. 4But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of God. 5Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. 6But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. 7Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. 8But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. 9Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, 10being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the holy ones' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

11But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against the Messiah, they desire to marry; 12having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. 13Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. 14I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for reviling. 15For already some have turned aside after Satan. 16If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.

17Let the Elders (Zakenim) who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. 18For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."

19Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. 20Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. 21I charge you in the sight of God, and the Messiah YaHshua, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. 23Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

[24]Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later.
[25]In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of the FATHER and the doctrine not be blasphemed. [2]Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

[3]If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, and to the doctrine which is according to Godliness, [4]he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions, [5]constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that Godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such.

[6]But Godliness with contentment is great gain. [7]For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out. [8]But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. [9]But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction.
[10]For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

[11]But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, Godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. [12]Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. [13]I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before the Messiah YaHshua, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, [14]that you keep the word (mitzvah) without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah; [15]which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord (Adoni) of Lord (Adoni)s; [16]who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. .

17Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; 18that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; 19laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.

20Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; 21which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you. .

2 Timothy
Saul (Shaul)'s Second Letter to Timothy

Saul (Shaul), an apostle of YaHshua the Messiah through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in the Messiah YaHshua, 2to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace (shalom), from God the FATHER and the Messiah YaHshua our Lord (Adoni).

3I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day 4longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

6For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control. 8Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord (Adoni), nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, 9who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in the Messiah YaHshua before times eternal, 10but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, the Messiah YaHshua, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. 11For this, I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles (Goyim). 12For this cause I suffer also these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

13Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in the Messiah YaHshua. 14That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) who dwells in us.

15This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16May the Lord (Adoni) grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18(the Lord (Adoni) grant to him to find the Lord (Adoni)'s mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in the Messiah YaHshua. 2The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 3You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of the Messiah YaHshua. 4No soldier on service entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules. 6The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. 7Consider what I say, and may the Lord (Adoni) give you understanding in all things.

8Remember YaHshua the Messiah, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my Good News, 9in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained. 10Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in the Messiah YaHshua with eternal glory.
11This saying is faithful:
For if we died with him,
We will also live with him.
12If we endure,
We will also reign with him.
If we deny him,
He also will deny us.
13If we are faithless,
He remains faithful. He can't deny himself.

14Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord (Adoni), that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

15Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. 16But shun empty chatter, for they will proceed further in unGodliness, 17and their word will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; 18men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. 19However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord (Adoni) knows those who are his," and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord (Adoni) depart from unrighteousness."

[20]Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. [21]If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

[22]Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace (shalom) with those who call on the Lord (Adoni) out of a pure heart. [23]But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. [24]The Lord (Adoni)'s servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, [25]in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps the FATHER may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, [26]and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. [2]For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, [3]without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, [4]traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; [5]holding a form of Godliness, but having denied the power thereof. Turn away from these, also. [6]For of these are those who creep into houses, and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, [7]always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. [8]Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses (Moshe), so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith. [9]But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be. [10]But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, [11]persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. Out of them all the Lord (Adoni) delivered me. [12]Yes, and all who desire to live Godly in the Messiah YaHshua will suffer persecution. [13]But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. [14]But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. [15]From infancy, you have known the sacred writings which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in the Messiah YaHshua. [16]Every writing inspired by God is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction which is in righteousness, [17]that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

I charge you therefore before God and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: 2preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. 3For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; 4and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. 5But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.

6For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. 7I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. 8From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord (Adoni), the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing. 9Be diligent to come to me soon, 10for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. 11Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministering. 12But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. 13Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. 14Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord (Adoni) will repay him according to his works, 15of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.

16At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. 17But the Lord (Adoni) stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles (Goyim) might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. 18And the Lord (Adoni) will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his heavenly kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. .

19Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. 20Erastus remained at Corinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletus sick. 21Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers. 22The Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with your spirit. Grace be with you. .

Titus
Saul (Shaul)'s Letter to Titus

Saul (Shaul), a servant of God, and an apostle of YaHshua the Messiah, according to the faith of the FATHER's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to Godliness, 2in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before eternal times; 3but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the word (mitzvah) of God our Savior; 4to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace (shalom) from God the FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah our Savior.

5I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint Elders (Zakenim) in every city, as I directed you; 6if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. 7For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; 8but given to hospitality, as a lover of good, sober-minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; 9holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. 10For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. 12One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." 13This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14not paying attention to Jew (Yehudi) fables and commandments (mitzvot) of men who turn away from the truth. 15To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

But say the things which fit sound doctrine, 2that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober-minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience: 3and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; [4]that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, [5]to be sober-minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed. [6]Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober-minded; [7]in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility, [8]and soundness of speech that can't be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us. [9]Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; [10]not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. [11]For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, [12]instructing us to the intent that, denying unGodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and Godly in this present world; [13]looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great FATHER and Savior, YaHshua the Messiah; [14]who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. [15]Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.

Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, [2]to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. [3]For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. [4]But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, [5]not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), [6]which he poured out on us richly, through YaHshua the Messiah our Savior; [7]that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. [8]This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; [9]but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. [10]Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning; [11]knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

[12]When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. [13]Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. [14]Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

Saul (Shaul)'s Letter to Philemon

Saul (Shaul), a prisoner of the Messiah YaHshua, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, 2to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: 3Grace to you and peace (shalom) from God our FATHER and the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah.

4I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, 5hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, and toward all the holy ones; 6that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in the Messiah YaHshua. 7For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the holy ones have been refreshed through you, brother.

8Therefore, though I have all boldness in the Messiah to command you that which is appropriate, 9yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Saul (Shaul), the aged, but also a prisoner of YaHshua the Messiah. 10I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus, 11who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. 12I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, 13whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. 14But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. 15For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, 16no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord (Adoni).

17If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. 18But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. 19I, Saul (Shaul), write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). 20Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord (Adoni). Refresh my heart in the Lord (Adoni). 21Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

[22]Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

[23]Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in the Messiah YaHshua, greets you, [24]as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. [25]The grace of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with your spirit. .

Notes:

Hebrews

God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. 3His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself made purification for our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have. 5For to which of the angels did he say at any time,
"You are my Son,
Today have I become your father?"

and again,
"I will be to him a Father,
And he will be to me a Son?"

6Again, when he brings in the firstborn into the world he says, "Let all the angels of God worship him." 7Of the angels he says,
"Who makes his angels winds,
And his servants a flame of fire."

8but of the Son he says,
"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom.
9You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows."

10And,
"You, Lord (Adoni), in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth.
The heavens are the works of your hands.
11They will perish, but you continue.
They all will grow old like a garment does.
12As a mantle you will roll them up,

And they will be changed;
But you are the same.
Your years will not fail."

13But of which of the angels has he said at any time,
"Sit at my right hand,
Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?"

14Aren't they all ministering spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away. 2For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; 3how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation— which at the first having been spoken through the Lord (Adoni), was confirmed to us by those who heard; 4God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), according to his own will? 5For he didn't subject the world to come, whereof we speak, to angels. 6But one has somewhere testified, saying,
"What is man, that you think of him?
Or the son of man, that you care for him?
7You made him a little lower than the angels;
You crowned him with glory and honor.
8You have put all things in subjection under his feet."

For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don't see all things subjected to him, yet. 9But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, YaHshua, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of the FATHER he should taste of death for everyone. 10For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12saying,
"I will declare your name to my brothers.
In the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise."

13Again, "I will put my trust in him." Again, "Behold, here am I and the children whom the FATHER has given me." 14Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16For most assuredly, not to angels does he give help, but he gives help to the seed of Abraham. 17Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful High Priest (Kohen Gadol) in things pertaining to the FATHER, to make atonement for the sins of the people. 18For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest (Kohen Gadol) of our confession, YaHshua; 2who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses (Moshe) in all his house. 3For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses (Moshe), inasmuch as he who built the house has more honor than the house. 4For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. 5Moses (Moshe) indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, 6but the Messiah is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end. 7Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) says,
"Today if you will hear his voice,
8Don't harden your hearts, as in the provocation,
Like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness,
9Where your fathers tested me by proving me,
And saw my works for forty years.
10Therefore I was displeased with that generation,
And said, 'They always err in their heart,
But they didn't know my ways;'
11As I swore in my wrath,
'They will not enter into my rest.'"

12Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; 13but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today;" lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. 14For we have become partakers of the Messiah, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: 15while it is said,
"Today if you will hear his voice,
Don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."

16For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, didn't all those who came out of Eygpt (Mitzrayim) by Moses (Moshe)? 17With whom was he displeased forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? 18To whom did he swear that they wouldn't enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? 19We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps a promise being left of entering into his rest, anyone of you should seem to have come short of it. 2For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn't profit them, because it wasn't mixed with faith by those who heard. 3For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "God (Elohim) rested on the seventh day from all his works;" 5and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest."

6Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, 7he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said),
"Today if you will hear his voice,
Don't harden your hearts."

8For if Yahoshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. 9There remains therefore a Shabbat rest for the people of God. 10For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. 11Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. 12For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. 14Having then a great High Priest (Kohen Gadol), who has passed through the heavens, YaHshua, the Son of the FATHER, let us hold tightly to our confession. 15For we don't have a High Priest (Kohen Gadol) who can't be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin. 16Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

For every High Priest (Kohen Gadol), being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to the FATHER, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.
2The High Priest (Kohen Gadol) can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. 3Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. 4Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by the FATHER, just like Aharon was. 5So also the Messiah didn't glorify himself to be made a High Priest (Kohen Gadol), but it was he who said to him,
"You are my Son.
Today I have become your FATHER."

6As he says also in another place,
"You are a Priest forever,
After the order of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek)."

7He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his Godly fear, 8though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered.
9Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, 10named by the FATHER a High Priest (Kohen Gadol) after the order of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek). 11About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. 12For when by reason of the time you ought to be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. 13For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. 14But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

Therefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of the Messiah, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward the FATHER, 2of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3This will we do, if the FATHER permits. 4For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh), 5and tasted the good word of the FATHER, and the powers of the age to come, 6and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of the FATHER for themselves again, and put him to open shame. 7For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; 8but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

9But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. 10For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the holy ones, and still do serve them. 11We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, 12that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. 13For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself, 14saying, "Most surely I will bless you, and I will surely multiply you." 15Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. 17In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; 18that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. 19This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; 20where as a forerunner YaHshua entered for us, having become a High Priest (Kohen Gadol) forever after the order of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek).

For this Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek), king of Shalem, Priest of The most high God (El Elyon), who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Shalem, which is king of peace (shalom); 3without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of the FATHER), remains a Priest continually. 4Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best spoils. 5They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the Priest's office have a word (mitzvah) to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham, 6but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has taken tithes of Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. 7But without any dispute the less is blessed by the better. 8Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. 9So to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, 10for he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek) met him. 11Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another Priest to arise after the order of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek), and not be called after the order of Aharon? 12For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. 13For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. 14For it is evident that our Lord (Adoni) has sprung out of Judah (Yehudah), about which tribe Moses (Moshe) spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek) there arises another Priest, 16who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly word (mitzvah), but after the power of an endless life: 17for it is testified,

"You are a Priest forever,
According to the order of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek)."

18For there is an annulling of a foregoing word (mitzvah) because of its weakness and uselessness 19(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. 20Inasmuch as he was not made Priest without the taking of an oath 21(for they indeed have been made Priest (Kohanim) without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him,
"The Lord (Adoni) swore and will not change his mind,
'You are a Priest forever,
According to the order of Melchisedec (MalkiTzedek)'".

22By so much has YaHshua become the collateral of a better covenant. 23Many, indeed, have been made Priest (Kohanim), because they are hindered from continuing by death. 24But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. 25Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing he ever lives to make intercession for them.

26For such a High Priest (Kohen Gadol) was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; 27who doesn't need, like those Priestim Gedolim, to daily offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For this he did once for all, when he offered up himself. 28For the law appoints men as Priestim Gedolim who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a High Priest (Kohen Gadol), who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, 2a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord (Adoni) pitched, not man. 3For every High Priest (Kohen Gadol) is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this High Priest (Kohen Gadol) also have something to offer. 4For if he were on earth, he would not be a Priest at all, seeing there are Priest (Kohanim) who offer the gifts according to the law; 5who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses (Moshe) was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain." 6But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises. 7For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. 8For finding fault with them, he said,

"Behold, the days come," says the Lord (Adoni),
"That I will make a new covenant with the house of Yisrael and with the house of Judah (Yehudah); 9Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers,
In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Eygpt (Mitzrayim);
For they didn't continue in my covenant,
And I disregarded them," says the Lord (Adoni).
10"For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Yisrael.
After those days," says the Lord (Adoni);
"I will put my laws into their mind,
I will also write them on their heart.
I will be to them a God,
And they will be to me a people.
11They will not teach every man his fellow citizen,
Every man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord (Adoni),'
For all will know me,
From the least of them to the greatest of them.
12For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness.
I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more."

13In that he says, "A new covenant," he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. 2For there was a tabernacle prepared. In the first part were the menorah, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place. 3After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, 4having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aharon's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; 5and above it Kerubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't now speak in detail. 6Now these things having been thus prepared, the Priest (Kohanim) go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services, 7but into the second the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people. 8The Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn't yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; 9which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect; 10being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

11But the Messiah having come as a High Priest (Kohen Gadol) of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, 12nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption. 13For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: 14how much more will the blood of the Messiah, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to the FATHER, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living the FATHER? 15For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. 17For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. 18Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. 19For when every word (mitzvah) had been spoken by Moses (Moshe) to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."

21Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in like manner with the blood. 22According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. 23It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24For the Messiah hasn't entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of the FATHER for us; [25]nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, [26]or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. [27]Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment, [28]so the Messiah also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. [2]Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins? [3]But in those sacrifices there is yearly reminder of sins. [4]For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. [5]Therefore when he comes into the world, he says,
"Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire,
But a body did you prepare for me;
[6]In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you had no pleasure.
[7]Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (In the scroll of the book it is written of me)
To do your will, God.'"

[8]Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the law), [9]then he has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, [10]by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of YaHshua the Messiah once for all. [11]Every Priest indeed stands day by day ministering and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, [12]but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of the FATHER; [13]from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. [14]For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified.
[15]The Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) also testifies to us, for after saying, [16]"This is the covenant that I will make with them:
'After those days,' says the Lord (Adoni),
'I will put my laws on their heart,
I will also write them on their mind;'"

then he says,
[17]"I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more."

18Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. 19Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of YaHshua, 20by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21and having a great Priest over the house of God, 22let's draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, 23let us hold fast the confession of our hope unyieldingly. For he who promised is faithful.

24Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, 25not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching. 26For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, 27but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. 28A man who disregards Moses (Moshe) law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. 29How much worse punishment, do you think, will he be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me," says the Lord (Adoni), "I will repay." Again, "The Lord (Adoni) will judge his people." 31It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. 32But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings; 33partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so. 34For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. 35Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. 36For you need endurance so that, having done the will of the FATHER, you may receive the promise.
37"In a very little while,
He who comes will come, and will not wait.
38But the righteous will live by faith.
If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."

39But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. 2For by this, the Elders (Zakenim) obtained testimony. 3By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. 4By faith, Abel (Hebel) offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain (Kayin), through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God bearing witness with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. 5By faith, Enoch (Hanokh) was taken away, so that he wouldn't see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God. 6Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. 7By faith, Noah (Noach), being warned about things not yet seen, moved with Godly fear, prepared a ark (teibah) for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. 8By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. 9By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Issac (Yitzchak) and Jacob (Yaaqob), the heirs with him of the same promise. 10For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. 11By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised. 12Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. 13These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. 16But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore the FATHER is not ashamed of them, to be called their FATHER, for he has prepared a city for them.

17By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Issac (Yitzchak). Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son; 18even he to whom it was said, "In Issac (Yitzchak) will your seed be called;" 19accounting that the FATHER is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. 20By faith, Issac (Yitzchak) blessed Jacob (Yaaqob) and Esav, even concerning things to come. 21By faith, Jacob (Yaaqob), when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph (Yosef), and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. 22By faith, Joseph (Yosef), when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Yisrael; and gave instructions concerning his bones. 23By faith, Moses (Moshe), when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's word (mitzvah). 24By faith, Moses (Moshe), when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharoh's daughter, 25choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; [26]accounting the reproach of the Messiah greater riches than the treasures of Eygpt (Mitzrayim); for he looked to the reward. [27]By faith, he left Eygpt (Mitzrayim), not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. [28]By faith, he kept the Passover (Pesach), and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. [29]By faith, they passed through the Red sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians (Mitzrim) tried to do so, they were swallowed up. [30]By faith, the walls of Yericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. [31]By faith, Rachab the prostitute, didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace (shalom). [32]What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gidon, Barak, Shimshon, Yiftach, David, Samuel (Shemuel), and the prophets; [33]who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, [34]quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and turned to flight armies of aliens. [35]Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. [36]Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. [37]They were stoned. They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated [38](of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. [39]These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn't receive the promise, [40]God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, [2]looking to YaHshua, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the FATHER. [3]For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls. [4]You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin; [5]and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children,

"My son, don't take lightly the chastening of the Lord (Adoni), Nor faint when you are reproved by him;
[6]For whom the Lord (Adoni) loves, he chastens,
And scourges every son whom he receives."

Hebrews

7It is for discipline that you endure. the FATHER deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father doesn't discipline? 8But if you are without discipline, whereof all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. 9Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the FATHER of spirits, and live? 10For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. 11All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby. 12Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees, 13and make straight paths for your feet, so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. 14Follow after peace (shalom) with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord (Adoni), 15looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be defiled; 16lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, as Esav, who sold his birthright for one meal. 17For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears. 18For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, tempest, 19the sound of a trumphet (shofarl), and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, 20for they could not stand that which was commanded, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned;" 21and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses (Moshe) said, "I am terrified and trembling."

22But you have come to Mount Zion (Tziyon), and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and to innumerable hosts of angels, 23to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to the FATHER the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24to YaHshua, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel (Hebel).

25See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused him who warned on the Earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven, 26whose voice shook the earth, then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens." 27This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. 28Therefore, receiving a kingdom that can't be shaken, let us have grace, through which we serve our FATHER acceptably, with reverence and awe, 29for our FATHER is a consuming fire.

Let brotherly love continue. [2]Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. [3]Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. [4]Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

[5]Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you." [6]So that with good courage we say,
"The Lord (Adoni) is my helper. I will not fear.
What can man do to me?"

[7]Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. [8]YaHshua the Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and forever. [9]Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

[10]We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. [11]For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the High Priest (Kohen Gadol) as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp. [12]Therefore YaHshua also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. [13]Let us therefore go forth to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. [14]For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. [15]Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to the FATHER continually, that is, the fruit of lips which make confession to his name. [16]But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices the FATHER is well pleased.

[17]Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

[18]Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. [19]I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

[20]Now may the God of peace (shalom), who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua, [21]make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through YaHshua the Messiah, to whom be the glory forever and ever. .

[22]But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. [23]Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. [24]Greet all of your leaders and all the holy ones. The Italians greet you. [25]Grace be with you all. .

Notes:

Hebrews

James
Jacob (Yaaqob)

Jacob (Yaaqob), a servant of the FATHER and of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, to the twelve tribes which are in the Diaspora: Greetings. [2]Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various temptations, [3]knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. [4]Let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. [5]But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to him. [6]But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. [7]For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord (Adoni). [8]He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

[9]But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; [10]and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. [11]For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.

[12]Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord (Adoni) promised to those who love him. [13]Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. [14]But each one is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. [15]Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death. [16]Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers. [17]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the FATHER of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. [18]Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

[19]So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; [20]for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God. [21]Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. [22]But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. [23]For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror; [24]for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. [25]But he who looks into the perfect law, the law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.

[26]If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. [27]Pure religion and undefiled before our God and FATHER is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

My brothers, don't hold the faith of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah of glory with partiality. [2]For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your assembly, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in; [3]and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say, "Sit here in a good place;" and you tell the poor man, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool;" [4]haven't you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? [5]Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn't the FATHER choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to those who love him? [6]But you have dishonored the poor man. Don't the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? [7]Don't they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? [8]However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well. [9]But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. [10]For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he has become guilty of all. [11]For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," said also, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. [12]So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. [13]For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

[14]What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can that faith save him? [15]And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, [16]and one of you tells them, "Go in peace (shalom), be warmed and filled;" and yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it? [17]Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. [18]Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

[19]You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. [20]But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? [21]Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Issac (Yitzchak) his son on the altar? [22]You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; [23]and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness;" and he was called the friend of God. 24You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25In like manner wasn't Rachab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. 2For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn't stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. 3Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body. 4Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. 5So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! 6And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehinnom. 7For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and thing in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind. 8But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. 9With it we bless our God and FATHER, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. 10Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. 11Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? 12Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.

13Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. 14But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth. 15This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. 16For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. 17But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace (shalom) by those who make peace (shalom).

Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members? 2You lust, and don't have. You kill, covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask. 3You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. 4You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"? 6But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 7Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. 10Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord (Adoni), and he will exalt you.

11Don't speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. 12Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?

13Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let's go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit." 14Whereas you don't know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. 15For you ought to say, "If the Lord (Adoni) wills, we will both live, and do this or that." 16But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. 17To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn't do it, to him it is sin.

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. 2Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. 3Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. 4Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord (Adoni) of Hosts. 5You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you.

7Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord (Adoni). Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. 8You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord (Adoni) is at hand.

9Don't grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. 10Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord (Adoni). 11Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Iyov, and have seen the Lord (Adoni) in the outcome, and how the Lord (Adoni) is full of compassion and mercy. 12But above all things, my brothers, don't swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no;" so that you don't fall into hypocrisy.

13Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. 14Is any among you sick? Let him call for the Elders (Zakenim) of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord (Adoni), 15and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord (Adoni) will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. 16Confess your offenses to one another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effective, earnest prayer of a righteous man is powerfully effective. 17Eliyah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

19Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, 20let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

Simon (Shimon), an apostle of YaHshua the Messiah, to the chosen ones who are living as strangers in the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2according to the foreknowledge of God the FATHER, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey YaHshua the Messiah and be sprinkled in his blood: Grace to you and peace (shalom) be multiplied. 3Blessed be the God and FATHER of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, who according to his great mercy became our FATHER again to a living hope through the resurrection of YaHshua the Messiah from the dead, 4to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in heaven for you, 5who by the power of the FATHER are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials, 7that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of YaHshua the Messiah—8whom not having known you love; in whom, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory—9receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. 10Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, 11searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of the Messiah, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of the Messiah, and the glories that would follow them. 12To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

13Therefore, prepare your minds for action, be sober and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of YaHshua the Messiah—14as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, 15but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; 16because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy." 17If you call on him as FATHER, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as strangers here in reverent fear: 18knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers, [19]but with precious blood, as of a lamb without spot, the blood of the Messiah; [20]who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of times for your sake, [21]who through him are believers in the FATHER, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in the FATHER.

[22]Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently: [23]having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of the FATHER, which lives and remains forever. [24]For,
"All flesh is like grass,
And all of man's glory like the flower in the grass.
The grass withers, and its flower falls;
[25]But the Lord (Adoni)'s word endures forever."

This is the word of good news which was preached to you.

2

Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, [2]as newborn babes, long for the pure milk of the Word, that you may grow thereby, [3]if indeed you have tasted that the Lord (Adoni) is gracious: [4]coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by the FATHER, precious. [5]You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to the FATHER through YaHshua the Messiah. [6]Because it is contained in Scripture,
"Behold, I lay in Zion (Tziyon) a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious:
He who believes in him will not be disappointed."

[7]For you therefore who believe is the honor, but for such as are disobedient,
"The stone which the builders rejected,
Has become the chief cornerstone,"

[8]and,
"A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense."

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed. [9]But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may show forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: [10]who in time past were no people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. [11]Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; [12]having good behavior among the nations, so in that which they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify the FATHER in the day of visitation. [13]Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord (Adoni)'s sake: whether to the king, as supreme; [14]or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to those who do well. [15]For this is the will of the FATHER, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: [16]as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of the FATHER.

[17]Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear the FATHER. Honor the king. [18]Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked. [19]For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward the FATHER. [20]For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with the FATHER. [21]For to this you were called, because the Messiah also suffered for us, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps, [22]who did not sin, "neither was deceit found in his mouth." [23]Who, when he was cursed, didn't curse back. When he suffered, didn't threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously; [24]who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. [25]For you were going astray like sheep; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

In like manner, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; [2]seeing your pure behavior in fear. [3]Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; [4]but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of the FATHER very precious. [5]For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in the FATHER, also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: [6]as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him Lord (Adoni), whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

[7]You husbands, in like manner, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

8Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, courteous, 9not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. 10For,
"He who would love life,
And see good days,
Let him keep his tongue from evil,
And his lips from speaking deceit.
11Let him turn away from evil, and do good.
Let him seek peace (shalom), and pursue it.
12For the eyes of the Lord (Adoni) are on the righteous,
And his ears open to their prayer;
But the face of the Lord (Adoni) is against those who do evil."

13Now who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good? 14But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled." 15But sanctify the Lord (Adoni) God in your hearts; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear: 16having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good manner of life in the Messiah. 17For it is better, if the will of the FATHER should so will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil. 18Because the Messiah also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to the FATHER; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; 19in which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison, 20who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah (Noach), while the ark (teibah) was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water. 21This is a symbol of immersion, which now saves you - not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward the FATHER, through the resurrection of YaHshua the Messiah, 22who is at the right hand of the FATHER, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

Forasmuch then as the Messiah suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; 2that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of the FATHER. 3For we have spent enough of our past time living in doing the desire of the Gentiles (Goyim), and to have walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. 4They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming: 5who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6For to this end was the Good News preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit. 7But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer. 8And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. 9Be hospitable one to another without grumbling. 10According as each has received a gift, be ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the grace of the FATHER in its various forms. 11If any man speaks, let it be as it were oracles of the FATHER. If any man serves, let it be as of the strength which the FATHER supplies, that in all things the FATHER may be glorified through YaHshua the Messiah, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. .

12Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you. 13But because you are partakers of the Messiah's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory also you may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14If you are insulted for the name of the Messiah, blessed are you; because the Spirit of glory and of the FATHER rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified. 15For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or as a meddler in other men's matters. 16But if one of you suffers for being a Messianic, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify the FATHER in this matter. 17For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of the FATHER. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of the FATHER? 18"If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the unGodly and the sinner?" 19Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of the FATHER in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

I exhort the Elders (Zakenim) among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of the Messiah, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed. 2Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly; 3neither as Lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. 4When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.

5Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "the FATHER resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 6Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of the FATHER, that he may exalt you in due time; 7casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you.

[8]Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. [9]Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. [10]But may the FATHER of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by the Messiah YaHshua, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. [11]To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. .

[12]Through Sila, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of the FATHER in which you stand. [13]She who is in Babel, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Mark, my son. [14]Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace (shalom) be to you all who are in the Messiah YaHshua. .

Notes:

2 Peter

Simon (Shimon) Simon (Shimon), a servant and apostle of YaHshua the Messiah, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our FATHER and Savior, YaHshua the Messiah: 2Grace to you and peace (shalom) be multiplied in the knowledge of the FATHER and of YaHshua our Lord (Adoni), 3seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and Godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue; 4by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; 6and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience Godliness; 7and in Godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. 8For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. 9For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11For thus will be richly supplied to you the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord (Adoni) and Savior, YaHshua the Messiah.

12Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. 13I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; 14knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah made clear to me. 15Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure.
16For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17For he received from God the FATHER honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." 18This voice we heard come out of heaven when we were with him in the holy mountain.

19We have the more sure word of prophecy; whereunto you do well that you take heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the day star arises in your hearts: 20knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. 21For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh).

But there also arose false prophets among the people, as among you also there will be false teachers, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. 3In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber. 4For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved to judgment; 5and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah (Noach) with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the unGodly; 6and turning the cities of Sedom and Amorah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live unGodly; 7and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked 8(for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): 9the Lord (Adoni) knows how to deliver the Godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; 10but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; 11whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord (Adoni). 12But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, 13receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; 14having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; 15forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Bilam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrong-doing; 16but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. 17These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. 18For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error; 19promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for by whom a man is overcome, by the same is he also brought into bondage.

[20]For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord (Adoni) and Savior YaHshua the Messiah, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state has become worse with them than the first. [21]For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy word (mitzvah) delivered to them. [22]But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again," and "the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire."

This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; [2]that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments (mitzvot) of us, the apostles of the Lord (Adoni) and Savior: [3]knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts, [4]and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." [5]For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God (Elohim); [6]by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. [7]But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of unGodly men. [8]But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord (Adoni) as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. [9]The Lord (Adoni) is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. [10]But the day of the Lord (Adoni) will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. [11]Therefore since all these things are thus to be destroyed, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy living and Godliness, [12]looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? [13]But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwells righteousness.

[14]Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace (shalom), without blemish and blameless in his sight. [15]Regard the patience of our Lord (Adoni) as salvation; even as our beloved brother Saul (Shaul) also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; [16]as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. [17]You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware lest, being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness. [18]But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord (Adoni) and Savior YaHshua the Messiah. To him be the glory both now and forever. .

Notes:

1 John
John (Yochanan)'s First Letter

That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life
2(and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the FATHER, and was revealed to us); 3that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the FATHER, and with his Son, YaHshua the Messiah. 4And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

5This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that the FATHER is light, and in him is no darkness at all. 6If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth. 7But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of YaHshua the Messiah, his Son, cleanses us from all sin. 8If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor with the FATHER, YaHshua the Messiah, the righteous. 2And he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments (mitzvot). 4One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments (mitzvot) , is a liar, and the truth isn't in him. 5But whoever keeps his word, the FATHER's love has most assuredly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: 6he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

7Brothers, I write no new word (mitzvah) to you, but an old word (mitzvah) which you had from the beginning. The old word (mitzvah) is the word which you heard from the beginning. 8Again, I write a new word (mitzvah) to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. 9He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. 11But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children, because you know the FATHER.

14I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15Don't love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the FATHER's love isn't in him. 16For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the FATHER's, but is the world's. 17The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does the FATHER's will remains forever.

18Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Anti-the Messiah is coming, even now many anti-the Messiahs have arisen. By this we know that it is the end times. 19They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. 20You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know the truth. 21I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22Who is the liar but he who denies that YaHshua is theMessiah? This is the Anti-the Messiah, he who denies the FATHER and the Son. 23Whoever denies the Son, the same doesn't have the FATHER. He who confesses the Son has the FATHER also.

24Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the FATHER. 25This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life. 26These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. 27As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him. 28Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. [29]If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of him.

Behold, how great a love the FATHER has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of the FATHER! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him. [2]Beloved, now we are children of the FATHER, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. [3]Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. [4]Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. [5]You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in him is no sin. [6]Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him, neither knows him.

[7]Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. [8]He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of the FATHER was revealed, that he might destroy the works of the devil. [9]Whoever is born of the FATHER doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he can't sin, because he is born of the FATHER. [10]In this the children of the FATHER are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of the FATHER, neither is he who doesn't love his brother. [11]For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; [12]unlike Cain (Kayin), who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. [13]Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. [14]We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death. [15]Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

[16]By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. [17]But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of the FATHER remain in him? [18]My little children, let's not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. [19]And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him, [20]because if our heart condemns us, the FATHER is greater than our heart, and knows all things. [21]Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward the FATHER; [22]and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments (mitzvot) and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. [23]This is his word (mitzvah), that we should believe in the name of his Son, YaHshua the Messiah, and love one another, even as he commanded. [24]He who keeps his commandments (mitzvot) remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of the FATHER, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2By this you know the Spirit of the FATHER: every spirit who confesses that YaHshua the Messiah has come in the flesh is of the FATHER, 3and every spirit who doesn't confess that YaHshua the Messiah has come in the flesh is not of the FATHER, and this is the spirit of the anti-the Messiah, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. 4You are of the FATHER, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. 5They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. 6We are of the FATHER. He who knows the FATHER listens to us. He who is not of the FATHER doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of the FATHER; and everyone who loves is born of the FATHER, and knows the FATHER. 8He who doesn't love doesn't know the FATHER, for the FATHER is love. 9By this was the FATHER's love revealed in us, that the FATHER has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 10In this is love, not that we loved the FATHER, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. 11Beloved, if our FATHER loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. 12No one has seen the FATHER at any time. If we love one another, the FATHER remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us. 13By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. 14We have seen and testify that the FATHER has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. 15Whoever confesses that YaHshua is the Son of the FATHER, the FATHER remains in him, and he in the FATHER. 16We know and have believed the love which the FATHER has for us. the FATHER is love, and he who remains in love remains in the FATHER, and the FATHER remains in him. 17In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. 18There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. 19We love Him, because he first loved us. 20If a man says, "I love the FATHER," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love the FATHER whom he has not seen? 21This word (mitzvah) we have from him, that he who loves the FATHER should also love his brother.

Whoever believes that YaHshua is theMessiah is born of the FATHER. Whoever loves the FATHER also loves the child who is born of him. [2]By this we know that we love the children of the FATHER, when we love the FATHER and keep his commandments (mitzvot). [3]For this is the love of the FATHER, that we keep his commandments (mitzvot). His commandments (mitzvot) are not grievous. [4]For whatever is born of the FATHER overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith. [5]Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that YaHshua is the Son of the FATHER? [6]This is he who came by water and blood, YaHshua the Messiah; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth. [7]For there are three who testify: [8]the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. [9]If we receive the witness of men, the witness of the FATHER is greater; for this is the FATHER's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son. [10]He who believes in the Son of the FATHER has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe the FATHER has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that the FATHER has given concerning his Son. [11]The testimony is this, that the FATHER gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. [12]He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have the FATHER's Son doesn't have the life. [13]These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of the FATHER, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of the FATHER.

[14]This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. [15]And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

[16]If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and the FATHER will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. [17]All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. [18]We know that whoever is born of the FATHER doesn't sin, but he who was born of the FATHER keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him. [19]We know that we are of the FATHER, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. [20]We know that the Son of the FATHER has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son YaHshua the Messiah. This is the true the FATHER, and eternal life.

[21]Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 John
John (Yochanan)'s Second Letter

The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth; [2]for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever: [3]Grace, mercy, and peace (shalom) will be with us, from God the FATHER, and from the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah, the Son of the FATHER, in truth and love.

[4]I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the FATHER. [5]Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new word (mitzvah), but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. [6]This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments (mitzvot). This is the word (mitzvah), even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. [7]For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that YaHshua the Messiah came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Anti-the Messiah. [8]Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward. [9]Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of the Messiah, doesn't have the FATHER. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the FATHER and the Son. [10]If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him, [11]for he who welcomes him participates in his evil works.

[12]Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full. [13]The children of your chosen sister greet you. .

3 John
John (Yochanan)'s Third Letter

The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.

2Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. 3For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. 4I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

5Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. 6They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of the FATHER, 7because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles (Goyim). 8We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

9I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. 10Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly. 11Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of the FATHER. He who does evil hasn't seen the FATHER. 12Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

13I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; 14but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace (shalom) be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

Jude
The Letter from Judah (Yehudah)

Judah (Yehudah), a servant of YaHshua the Messiah, and brother of Jacob (Yaaqob), to those who are called, sanctified by God the FATHER, and kept for YaHshua the Messiah: [2]Mercy to you and peace (shalom) and love be multiplied.

[3]Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the holy ones. [4]For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: unGodly men, turning the grace of our the FATHER into lasciviousness, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord (Adoni), YaHshua the Messiah.

[5]Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord (Adoni), having saved a people out of the land of Eygpt (Mitzrayim), afterward destroyed those who didn't believe. [6]Messengers who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. [7]Even as Sedom and `Amorah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. [8]Yet in like manner these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. [9]But Mikhael, the chief angel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses (Moshe), dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord (Adoni) rebuke you!" [10]But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. What they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, in these things are they destroyed. [11]Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain (Kayin), and ran riotously in the error of Bil`am for hire, and perished in Korach's rebellion. [12]These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; [13]wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. [14]About these also Enoch (Hanokh), the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord (Adoni) came with ten thousands of his holy ones, [15]to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the unGodly of all their works of unGodliness which they have done in an unGodly way, and of all the hard things which unGodly sinners have spoken against him." [16]These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.

[17]But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah. [18]They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own unGodly lusts." [19]These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. [20]But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh). [21]Keep yourselves in the love of the FATHER, looking for the mercy of our Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah to eternal life. [22]On some have compassion, making a distinction, [23]and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

[24]Now to him who is able to keep them from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, [25]to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. .

Revelation

The Revelation to John (Yochanan)

1

This is the Revelation of YaHshua the Messiah, which the FATHER gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel to his servant, John (Yochanan), 2who testified to the FATHER's word, and of the testimony of YaHshua the Messiah, about everything that he saw.

3Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.

4John (Yochanan), to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace (shalom), from the FATHER, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; 5and from YaHshua the Messiah, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood; 6and he made us to be a kingdom, Priest (Kohanim) to his God and FATHER; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. .

7Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, .

8"I am the Alef and the Tav," says the Lord (Adoni) God, "who is and who was and who is to come, Shaddai."

9I John (Yochanan), your brother and partner with you in oppression, kingdom, and perseverance in the Messiah YaHshua, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of the FATHER's Word and the testimony of YaHshua the Messiah. 10I was in the Spirit on the Lord (Adoni)'s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumphet (shofarl) 11saying, "What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

12I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden menorot. 13And among the menorot was one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest. 14His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. 15His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters. 16He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. 17When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man.

He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last, 18and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. . I have the keys of Death and of the grave (Sheol). 19Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter; 20the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden menorot. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven menorot are seven assemblies.

2

To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write:

"He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks among of the seven golden menorot says these things:

2"I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false. 3You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary. 4But I have this against you, that you left your first love. 5Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your menorah out of its place, unless you repent.
6But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my FATHER.

8"To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write:

"The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

9"I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jew (Yehudim), and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.
10Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. 11He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death.

12"To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write:

"He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:

13"I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Bil`am, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Yisrael, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. 15So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise. 16Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. 17He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.

18"To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write:

"The Son of the FATHER, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things:

19I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first. 20But I have this against you, that you tolerate your woman, Izevel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. 22Behold, I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works. 23I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. 24But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you. 25Nevertheless, hold firmly that which you have, until I come. 26He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. 27He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; as I also have received of my FATHER: 28and I will give him the morning star. 29He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

"And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write:

He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things:

Revelation

"I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. 2Wake up, and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my FATHER. 3Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come upon you. 4Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. 5He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my FATHER, and before his angels. 6He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

7"To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write:

"He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things:

8"I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny my name. 9Behold, I give of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jew (Yehudim), and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. 10Because you kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. 11I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown. 12He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my FATHER, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my FATHER, and the name of the city of my FATHER, the New Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), which comes down out of heaven from my FATHER, and my own new name. 13He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

14"To the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write:

"The Amein, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of the FATHER's creation, says these things: 15"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. 16So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth. 17Because you say, 'I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;' and don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; 18I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. 19As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. 20Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me. [21]He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my FATHER on his throne. [22]He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies."

After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumphet (shofarl) speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."

[2]Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne [3]that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an yahalom (a gem's Hardness) to look at. [4]Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four Elders (Zakenim) sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. [5]Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. [6]Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. [7]The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. [8]The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around about and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy, holy is the Lord (Adoni) God, Shaddai, who was and who is and who is to come!"

[9]When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, [10]the twenty-four Elders (Zakenim) fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, [11]"Worthy are you, our Lord (Adoni) and God, the Holy One, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!"

I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. [2]I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?" [3]No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it. [4]And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it. [5]One of the Elders

(Zakenim) said to me, "Don't weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah (Yehudah), the Root of David, has overcome; he who opens the book and its seven seals."
6I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the Elders (Zakenim), a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. 7Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. 8Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four Elders (Zakenim) fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the holy ones. 9They sang a new song, saying,
"You are worthy to take the book,
And to open its seals:
For you were killed,
And bought us for God with your blood,
Out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, 10And made them kings and Priest (Kohanim) to our God,
And they reign on earth."

11I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the Elders (Zakenim); and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; 12saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!"

13I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amein!"

14The four living creatures said, "Amein!" The Elders (Zakenim) fell down and worshiped.

I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!" 2And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

3When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!"
4Another came forth, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace

(shalom) from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

5When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. 6I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"

7When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!" 8And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. The grave (Sheol) followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth.

9When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of the FATHER, and for the testimony which they had. 10They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

12I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. 13The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. 14The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. 16They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, 17for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. 2I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, 3saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!" 4I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Yisrael:

5Of the tribe of Judah (Yehudah) were sealed twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Re'uven twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,
6Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Naftali twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Menashsheh twelve thousand, 7Of the tribe of Simon (Shimon) twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Yissakhar twelve thousand,
8Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Joseph (Yosef) twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Binyamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. 10They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our FATHER, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

11All the angels were standing around the throne, the Elders (Zakenim), and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God, 12saying, "Amein! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! ."

13One of the Elders (Zakenim) answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"

14I told him, "My Lord (Adoni), you know."

He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. 15Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. 16They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; 17for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

8

When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2I saw the seven angels who stand before the FATHER, and seven trumpets were given to them. 3Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the holy ones on the golden altar which was before the throne. 4The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the holy ones, went up before the FATHER out of the angel's hand. 5The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

6The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. 7The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up, and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, 9and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

10The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. 11The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

12The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. 13I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!"

The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. 2He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. 3Then out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads. 5They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. 6In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. 7The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces. 8They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. 9They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war. 10They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm men for five months. 11They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon," but in Greek (Yebanit), he has the name "Apollyon." 12The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

13The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before the FATHER, 14saying to the sixth angel who had one trumphet (shofarl), "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Perat!"

15The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. 16The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million. I heard the number of them. 17Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. 18By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. 20The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. 21They didn't repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

I saw a mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. 2He had in his hand a little open book. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. 3He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices.

4When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them."

5The angel who I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky, 6and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, 7but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. 8The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."

9I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book.

He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."

10I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. 11They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. 2Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the gentiles. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. 3I will minister to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." 4These are the two Eliyahs and the two lampstands (menorot), standing before the Lord (Adoni) of the earth. 5If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. 6These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. 7When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sedom and Eygpt (Mitzrayim), where also their Lord (Adoni) was crucified. 9From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. 10Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. 11After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. 12I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. 13In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven. 14The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

15The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord (Adoni), and of his the Messiah. He will reign forever and ever!"

16The twenty-four Elders (Zakenim), who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17saying: "We give you thanks, Lord (Adoni) God, Shaddai, the one who is and who was; because you have taken your great power, and reigned. 18The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the holy ones, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

19 The FATHER's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Lord (Adoni)'s covenant was seen in his temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

Note to reader:

Verse 3 and 4 above were corrected due most modern translation kept the KJV but without the Italics showing added words which gave a different meaning

A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. 2She was with child. She cried out in pain, laboring to give birth. 3Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. 4His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. 5She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to the FATHER, and to his throne. 6The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by the FATHER, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

7There was war in the sky. Mikhael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war. 8They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven. 9The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. 10I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now is come the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his the Messiah; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. 11They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death. 12Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

13When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. 14Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. 16The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. 17The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep God's commandments (mitzvot) and hold YaHshua's testimony.

Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names. 2The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. 3One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast. 4They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" 5A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to him. 6He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. 7It was given to him to make war with the holy ones, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. 8All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. 9If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10If anyone has captivity, he will go. If anyone is with the sword, he must be killed. Here is the endurance and the faith of the holy ones.

11I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. 12He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. 13He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of people. 14He deceives my own people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. 15It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed. 16He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks on their right hands, or on their foreheads; 17and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion (Tziyon), and with him a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his FATHER, written on their foreheads. 2I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. 3They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the Elders (Zakenim). No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. 4These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by YaHshua from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. 5In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.

6I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. 7He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord (Adoni), and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

8Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babel the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

9Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, 10he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. 11The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. 12Here is the patience of the holy ones, those who keep the commandments (mitzvot) of God, and the faith of YaHshua."

13I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord (Adoni) from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

14I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. 15Another angel came out from the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send forth your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!" 16He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. 18Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!" 19The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20The winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out from the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.

I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God's wrath is finished. 2I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image, and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. 3They sang the song of Moses (Moshe), the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and marvelous are your works, Lord (Adoni) God, Shaddai; Righteous and true are your ways, you King of the nations.
4Who wouldn't fear you, Lord (Adoni),
And glorify your name?
For you only are holy.
For all the nations will come and worship before you.
For your righteous acts have been revealed."

5After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.

7One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angel's seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. 8The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!"

2The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

3The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.

4The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. 5I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you have judged these things. 6For they poured out the blood of the holy ones and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this." 7I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord (Adoni) God, Shaddai, true and righteous are your judgments."

8The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire. 9People were scorched with great heat, and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn't repent and give him glory.

10The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, 11and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn't repent of their works.

12The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Perat. Its water was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrise. 13I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; 14for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, Shaddai.

15"Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn't walk naked, and they see his shame." 16He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Megiddo.

17The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came forth out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. 19The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babel the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. 20Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. 21Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, 2with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality." 3He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. 4The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth. 5And on her forehead a name was written, "MYSTERY, BABEL THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." 6I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the holy ones, and with the blood of the martyrs of YaHshua. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. 7The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present. 9Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. 10They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. 11The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. 12The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. 13These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. 14These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord (Adoni) of Lord (Adoni)s, and King of kings. They also will overcome who are with him, called and chosen and faithful." 15He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. 16The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate, and will make her naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. 17For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. 18The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. 2He cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babel the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird! 3For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."

4I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues, 5for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. 6Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. 7However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.' 8Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord (Adoni) God who has judged her is strong. 9The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, 10standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babel, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' 11The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more; 12merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; 13and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, bodies, and people's souls. 14The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. 15The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; 16saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! 17For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every shipmaster, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, 18and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' 19They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!' For in one hour is she made desolate.

20Rejoice over her, O heaven, you holy ones, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her." 21A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babel, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. 22The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. 23The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. 24In her was found the blood of prophets and of holy ones, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Halleluyah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God: 2for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."

3A second said, "Halleluyah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever." 4The twenty-four Elders (Zakenim) and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amein! Halleluyah!"

5A voice came forth from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!"

6I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Halleluyah! For the Lord (Adoni) our God, Shaddai, reigns! 7Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready." 8It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the holy ones.

9He said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" He said to me, "These are true words of God."

10I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of YaHshua. Worship God, for the testimony of YaHshua is the Spirit of Prophecy."

11I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. 12His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself. 13He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called "The Word of God." 14The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. 15Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron. He treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, Shaddai. 16He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD (ADONI) OF LORD (ADONI)S."

17I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God, 18that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great." 19I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. 20The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. 21The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, 3and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. 4I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of YaHshua, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived, and reigned with the Messiah for the thousand years. 5The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be Priest (Kohanim) of God and of the Messiah, and will reign with him one thousand years.

7And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, 8and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9They went up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the holy ones, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from the FATHER, and devoured them. 10The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

11I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. 12I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and The grave (Sheol) gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. 14Death and The grave (Sheol) were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. 15If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. 2I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), coming down out of heaven from the FATHER, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband.
3I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, the FATHER's dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and the FATHER himself will be with them as their FATHER. 4He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."

5He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." He said, "Write, for these words of God are faithful and true." 6He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alef and the Tav, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. 7He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his the FATHER, and he will be my son. 8But for the cowardly (Faithless), unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

9One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb's bride." 10He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), coming down out of heaven from God, 11having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it was a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Yisrael. 13On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. 14The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb. 15He who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. 16The city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. He measured the city with the reed, Twelve thousand twelve stadia. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. 17Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. 18The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass.
19The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, yahalom; 20the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl;
the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst.
21The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. 22I saw no temple in it, for the Lord (Adoni) God, Shaddai, and the Lamb, are its temple. 23The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of the FATHER illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. 24The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. 25Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there), 26and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter. 27There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

He showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of the FATHER and of the Lamb, 2in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3There will be no curse any more. The throne of the FATHER and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants serve him. 4They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. 5There will be no night, and they need no lamp light; for the Lord (Adoni) God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever.

6He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord (Adoni) God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his bondservants the things which must happen soon."

7"Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

8Now I, John (Yochanan), am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. 9He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God." 10He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. 11He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

12"Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work. 13I am the Alef and the Tav, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. 14Blessed are those who do his commandments (mitzvot), that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. 15Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. [16]I, YaHshua, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David; the Bright and Morning Star."

[17]The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely. [18]I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may the FATHER add to him the plagues which are written in this book. [19]If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may the FATHER take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. [20]He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly."Amein! Yes, come, Lord (Adoni) YaHshua.

[21]The grace of the Lord (Adoni) YaHshua the Messiah be with all the holy ones. .

Glossary

This is a small list of names that have been given throughout the books but what is important notice that in almost every case the names given in the English bibles old and new testament's have attempted transliteration from the Hebrew language including what some call the inspired Greek which we conclude as being important but is still a translation so a question arises (did the Greeks attempt to also try and transliterate the names). Our examples are Joseph and Miriam plus many many more John, James, Simon and Saul to name a few are all hebrew names.

We find that the FATHER's name and the messiah's name appear to have been hidden deliberately since it is only their names that have been changed to another language or converted to a title, hopefully this version helps in resolving these errors.

Sacred Name Translations and Partial usage Translations:

The following versions are Bibles which systematically use some transliteration of the Tetragrammaton (usually "Yahweh") in both the Old and New Testament, as well as a Semitic form of the name of Jesus such as Yahshua or Yeshua. These Bibles apply this to both the names of the Father and Son, both of which are considered to be sacred.

- The New Testament of our Messiah and Saviour Yahshua (1950)
- Holy Name Bible (1963)
- Restoration of Original Sacred Name Bible (1970)[18]
- The Sacred Scriptures Bethel Edition (1981)
- The Book of Yahweh: The Holy Scriptures (1987)
- Sacred Scriptures, Family of Yah Edition (2000)
- The Word of Yahweh (2003)
- Hebraic Roots Bible (2009, 2012)[19]
- The Restoration Study Bible (2011), published by Yahweh's Restoration Ministry and using the King James Version. Available online.[20]
- Names of God Bible (2011, 2014), edited by Ann Spangler and published by Baker Publishing Group.[21] The core text uses the God's Word translation and the print edition has divine names printed in brown and includes a commentary. The text is also available online at BibleGateway.com. In a review published online,[22] this version has been praised for its "attention to detail", but it is noted that the translation only presents "the most significant names and titles of God" in their original forms and therefore some 'names of God' are not treated in the same way: for example, “Mighty One” (Avir) which appears in Psalms 132:2 and 132:5 and a total of 23 times (most referring to God) in the Old Testament is not highlighted.
- The Holy Bible – Urim-Thummim Version (2001)
- The Proper Names Version of the King James Bible, by Name Publisers, May 4, 2015. Uses Yahweh and Yahshua throughout, the King James Bible along with updating the language.

The following versions of Sacred Name Bibles present the Tetragrammaton without any vowels. They follow this practice in both the Old and New Testaments (though some translations are not complete).

- The Scriptures (ISR) Version (1993, 1998, 2009)
- Hebraic-Roots Version (2001, 2004)
- Restoration Scriptures: True Name Edition (2004)
- Zikarown Say'fer Memorial Scroll (2004)
- Sacred Name King James Bible (2005)
- The Seventh Millennium Version (2007)
- The Aramaic English New Testament (2008)
- HalleluYah Scriptures (2009, 2015)
- Abrahamic Faith Nazarene Hebraic Study Scriptures (2010)
- The Restored Name King James Version (2012?)
- Shem Qadosh Version (2014)
- His Name Tanakh (In Progress)
- Neno La Yahweh Swahili version (2014)

Some translations use a form of "Jehovah" or "Yahweh" only sporadically:

- The Complete Bible: An American Translation by John Merlin Powis Smith (1939), e.g. Exodus 3:15, 6:3, 17:15
- Holman Christian Standard Bible (1999, 2002), the Tetragrammaton is transliterated "Yahweh" in 495 places in its 2010 revision. In Psalm 29:1, 2 Chron. 30:8, Isaiah 24:5, and Jeremiah 26:9 it translates the Tetragrammaton once as "Yahweh" and once as "LORD". In 2 Chronicles 14:11, it translates the Tetragrammaton three times as "Lord" and once as "Yahweh". In Job 1:21, it translates the Tetragrammaton twice as "Lord" and one as "Yahweh". In Psalm 135, it translates the Tetragrammaton 14 times as Yahweh and twice as "LORD".
- The Emphatic Diaglott (1864), a translation of the New Testament by Benjamin Wilson, the name Jehovah appears eighteen times.
- King James Version (1611), renders Jehovah in Exodus 6:3, Psalm 83:18, Isaiah 12:2, Isaiah 26:4, and three times in compound place names at Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15 and Judges 6:24.
- Webster's Bible Translation (1833), by Noah Webster, a revision of the King James Bible, contains the form Jehovah in all cases where it appears in the original King James Version, as well as another seven times in Isaiah 51:21, Jeremiah 16:21; 23:6; 32:18; 33:16, Amos 5:8, and Micah 4:13.
- The English Revised Version (1885), renders the Tetragrammaton as Jehovah where it appears in the King James Version, and another eight times in Exodus 6:2,6–8, Psalm 68:20, Isaiah 49:14, Jeremiah 16:21, and Habakkuk 3:19.
- Amplified Bible (1954, 1987), generally uses Lord, but translates Exodus 6:3 as: "I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as God Almighty [El-Shaddai], but by My name the Lord [Yahweh—the redemptive name of God] I did not make Myself known to them [in acts and great miracles]."
- New English Bible (NT 1961, OT 1970), published by Oxford University Press uses Jehovah in Exodus 3:15 and 6:3, and in four place names at Genesis 22:14, Exodus 17:15, Judges 6:24 and Ezekiel 48:35.
- New Living Translation (1996, 2004), produced by Tyndale House Publishers as a successor to the Living Bible, generally uses LORD, but uses Yahweh in Exodus 3:15 and 6:3.
- Bible in Basic English (1949, 1964), uses "Yahweh" eight times, including Exodus 6:2–3.
- The American King James Version (1999) by Michael Engelbrite renders Jehovah in all the places where it appears in the original King James Version.

The following versions use either "Yahweh" or "Jehovah" only in the Old Testament:

- The Great Bible (1539) – Iehouah = YaH ouaH
- Geneva Version (1608) --- Iehouah = YaH ouaH
- Young's Literal Translation (1862)
- The Darby Bible (1890)
- Polygott, English Version (1836) – Psalms 83:18 - Jehovah = YaHoVaH
- American Standard Version (1901) Jehovah - YaHoVaH
- Rotherham's Emphasized Bible (1902)
- Jerusalem Bible (1966) – Yahweh = YaHWeH
- Living Bible (1971)
- The Bible in Living English (1972)
- Green's Literal Translation (1985)
- New Jerusalem Bible (1985)
- The Recovery Version (1999)
- World English Bible (2000)
- Divine Name King James Bible[25] (2011)
