[4]I looked, and, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst of it as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire. [5]Out of the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. [6]Everyone had four faces, and everyone of them had four wings. [7]Their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished brass. [8]They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings thus: [9]their wings were joined one to another; they didn't turn when they went; they went everyone straight forward. [10]As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and they four had the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four had also the face of an eagle. [11]Their faces and their wings were separate above; two wings of everyone were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. [12]They went everyone straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. [13]As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. [14]The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

[15]Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. [16]The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a bareket: and they four had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. [17]When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. [18]As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and they four had their rims full of eyes round about. 19When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. 20Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. 21When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

22Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like the awesome crystal to look on, stretched forth over their heads above. 23Under the expanse were their wings straight, the one toward the other: everyone had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. 24When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of Almighty (Shaddai), a noise of tumult like the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings. 25There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings.

He said to me, Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you. 2The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. 3He said to me, Son of man, I send you to the children of Isreal (Yisrael), to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. 4The children are impudent and stiff-hearted: I do sent you to them; and you shall tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 5They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. 6You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 7You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.

8But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; don't be you rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you. 9When I looked, behold, a hand was put forth to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was therein; 10He spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

He said to me, Son of man, eat that which you find; eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Isreal (Yisrael). 2So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. 3He said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4He said to me, Son of man, go, get you to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), and speak with my words to them. 5For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Isreal (Yisrael); 6not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. 7But the house of Isreal (Yisrael) will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Isreal (Yisrael) are of hard forehead and of a stiff heart. 8Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. 9As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. 10Moreover he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. 11Go, get you to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH ; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of YaHWeH from his place. 13*I heard* the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. 14So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of YaHWeH was strong on me. 15Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-Aviv, that lived by the river Kebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

16It happened at the end of seven days, that the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 17Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Isreal (Yisrael): therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. 18When I tell the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. 19Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. 20Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. 21Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul.

22The hand of YaHWeH was there on me; and he said to me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you. 23Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of YaHWeH stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Kebar; and I fell on my face. 24Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself within your house. 25But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: 26and I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. 27But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before you, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): 2and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about. 3Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Isreal (Yisrael).

4Moreover lie you on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Isreal (Yisrael) on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. 5For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so shall you bear the iniquity of the house of Isreal (Yisrael). 6Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah (Yahudah): forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you. 7You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. 8Behold, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege.

9Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make you bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, shall you eat of it. 10Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shall you eat it. 11You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shall you drink. 12You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man. 13YaHWeH said, Even thus shall the children of Isreal (Yisrael) eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them. 14Then said I, Ah Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH! behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. 15Then he said to me, Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread thereon. 16Moreover he said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: 17that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

You, son of man, take a sharp sword; as a barber's razor shall you take it to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. 2A third part shall you burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword round about it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. 3You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. 4Of these again shall you take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come forth into all the house of Isreal (Yisrael). 5Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : This is Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are round about her. 6She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them. 7Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you; 8therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. 9I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. [10]Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds. [11]Therefore, as I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. [12]A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

[13]Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, YaHWeH, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. [14]Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are round about you, in the sight of all that pass by. [15]So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are round about you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, YaHWeH, have spoken it;) [16]when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; [17]and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, YaHWeH, have spoken it.

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [2]Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), and prophesy to them, [3]and say, You mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), hear the word of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. [4]Your altars shall become desolate, and your sun-images shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. [5]I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Isreal (Yisrael) before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. [6]In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your sun-images may be hewn down, and your works may be abolished. [7]The slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

[8]Yet will I leave a remnant, in that you shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. [9]Those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with they eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. 10They shall know that I am YaHWeH: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.

11Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Smite with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Isreal (Yisrael); for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. 12He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath on them. 13You shall know that I am YaHWeH, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered sweet savor to all their idols. 14I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2You, son of man, thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH to Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), An end: the end is come on the four corners of the land. 3Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. 4My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you: and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

5Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes. 6An end is come, the end is come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes. 7Your doom is come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time is come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. 8Now will I shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. 9My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be in the midst of you; and you shall know that I, YaHWeH, do strike.

10Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom is gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. 11Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness; none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth: neither shall there be eminency among them. 12The time is come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all the multitude of it. 13For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

14They have blown the trumpet (shofar), and have made all ready; but none goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all the multitude of it. 15The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. 16But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. 17All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. 18They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. 19They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of YaHWeH: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. 20As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing. 21I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. 22My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it. 23Make the chain;

For the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. 24Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. 25Destruction comes; and they shall seek shalom, and there shall be none. 26Mischief shall come on mischief, and rumor shall be on rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the Priest, and counsel from the Elders (Zakenim). 27The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

It happened in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the Elders (Zakenim) of Judah (Yahudah) sat before me, that the hand of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH fell there on me. 2Then I saw, and, behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loins and downward, fire; and from his loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. 3He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. 4Behold, the glory of the God of Isreal (Yisrael) was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.

5Then said he to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. 6He said to me, Son of man, see you what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Isreal (Yisrael) do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but you shall again see yet other great abominations.

7He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. 8Then said he to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door. 9He said to me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here. 10So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), portrayed on the wall round about. 11There stood before them seventy men of the Elders (Zakenim) of the house of Isreal (Yisrael); and in the midst of them stood Ya`Azanyah the son of Shafan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up. 12Then said he to me, Son of man, have you seen what the Elders (Zakenim) of the house of Isreal (Yisrael) do in the dark, every man in his chambers of imagery? for they say, YaHWeH doesn't see us; YaHWeH has forsaken the land. 13He said also to me, You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do.

16He brought me into the inner court of YaHWeH's house; and see, at the door of the temple of YaHWeH, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward the temple of YaHWeH, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east. 17Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah (Yahudah) that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and, behold, they put the branch to their nose. 18Therefore will I also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause you them that have charge over the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. 2Behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.

3The glory of the God of Isreal (Yisrael) was gone up from the Kerub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. 4YaHWeH said to him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in the midst of it. 5To the others he said in my hearing, Go you through the city after him, and strike: don't let your eye spare, neither have you pity; 6kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men that were before the house. 7He said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go you forth. They went forth, and struck in the city. 8It happened, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH! will you destroy all the residue of Isreal (Yisrael) in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)?

9Then said he to me, The iniquity of the house of Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah) is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of wrestling of judgment: for they say, YaHWeH has forsaken the land, and YaHWeH doesn't see. 10As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head.

11Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as you have commanded me.

Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the Kerubim there appeared above them as it were a sappir stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. 2He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the Kerub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the Kerubim, and scatter them over the city. He went in as I watched. 3Now the Kerubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. 4The glory of YaHWeH mounted up from the Kerub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of YaHWeH's glory. 5The sound of the wings of the Kerubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of El Almighty (Shaddai) when he speaks.

6It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the Kerubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. 7The Kerub stretched forth his hand from between the Kerubim to the fire that was between the Kerubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. 8There appeared in the Kerubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the Kerubim, one wheel beside one Kerub, and another wheel beside another Kerub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a bareket stone. 10As for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel have been within a wheel. 11When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. 12Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. 13As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels. 14Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the Kerub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15The Kerubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Kebar. 16When the Kerubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the Kerubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. 17When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

20This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Isreal (Yisrael) by the river Kebar; and I knew that they were Kerubim. 21Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. 22As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Kebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of YaHWeH's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw in the midst of them Ya`Azanyah the son of Azur, and Pelatyah the son of Benayah, princes of the people. 2He said to me, Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; 3who say, The time is not near to build houses: this city is the caldron, and we are the flesh. 4Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man.

5The Spirit of YaHWeH fell on me, and he said to me, Speak, Thus says YaHWeH: Thus have you said, house of Isreal (Yisrael); for I know the things that come into your mind. 6You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled the streets of it with the slain. 7Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but you shall be brought forth out of the midst of it. 8You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 9I will bring you forth out of the midst of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. 10You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Isreal (Yisrael); and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. 11This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall you be the flesh in the midst of it; I will judge you in the border of Isreal (Yisrael); 12and you shall know that I am YaHWeH: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you.

13It happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatyah the son of Benayah died. Then fell I down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH! will you make a full end of the remnant of Isreal (Yisrael)?

14The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 15Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Isreal (Yisrael), all of them, are they to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) have said, Get you far from YaHWeH; to us is this land given for a possession. 16Therefore say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they are come. 17Therefore say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you Earth-Isreal (Yisrael). 18They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all the abominations of it from there. 19I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; [20]that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. [21]But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[22]Then did the Kerubim lift up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Isreal (Yisrael) was over them above. [23]The glory of YaHWeH went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. [24]The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Kasdim, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. [25]Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that YaHWeH had shown me.

The word of YaHWeH also came to me, saying, [2]Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. [3]Therefore, you son of man, prepare you stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and you shall remove from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. [4]You shall bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and you shall go forth yourself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. [5]Dig you through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby. [6]In their sight shall you bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Isreal (Yisrael).

[7]I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight.

[8]In the morning came the word of YaHWeH to me, saying, [9]Son of man, has not the house of Isreal (Yisrael), the rebellious house, said to you, What do you? [10]Say you to them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and all the house of Isreal (Yisrael) among whom they are. [11]Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity. [12]The prince who is among them shall bear on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. [13]My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babel to the land of the Kasdim; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. [14]I will scatter toward every wind all who are round about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. 15They shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. 16But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

17Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 18Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; 19and tell the people of the land, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and Earth-Isreal (Yisrael): They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and despoiled of all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. 20The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

21The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 22Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails? 23Tell them therefore, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Isreal (Yisrael); but tell them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. 24For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Isreal (Yisrael). 25For I am YaHWeH; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

26Again the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 27Son of man, behold, they of the house of Isreal (Yisrael) say, The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off. 28Therefore tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : There shall none of my words be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Isreal (Yisrael) who prophesy, and say you to those who prophesy out of their own heart, Hear you the word of YaHWeH: 3Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! 4Isreal (Yisrael), your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. 5You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Isreal (Yisrael), to stand in the battle in the day of YaHWeH. 6They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, YaHWeH says; but YaHWeH has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. 7Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, YaHWeH says; but I have not spoken?

8Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 9My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), neither shall they enter into Earth-Isreal (Yisrael); and you shall know that I am Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 10Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Shalom; and there is no shalom; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they daub it with whitewash: 11tell those who daub it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. 12Behold, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which you have daubed it? 13Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. 14So will I break down the wall that you have daubed with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation of it shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it: and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. 15Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have daubed it with whitewash; and I will tell you, The wall is no more, neither those who daubed it; 16*to wit*, the prophets of Isreal (Yisrael) who prophesy concerning Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and who see visions of shalom for her, and there is no shalom, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

20Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls who you hunt to make them fly. 21Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. 22Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: 23Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

Then came certain of the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael) to me, and sat before me. 2The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 3Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? 4Therefore speak to them, and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Every man of the house of Isreal (Yisrael) who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I YaHWeH will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols; 5that I may take the house of Isreal (Yisrael) in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6Therefore tell the house of Isreal (Yisrael), Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Return you, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. 7For everyone of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), or of the strangers who sojourn in Isreal (Yisrael), who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I YaHWeH will answer him by myself: 8and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. 9If the prophet be deceived and speak a word, I, YaHWeH, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Isreal (Yisrael). 10They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him who seeks to him; 11that the house of Isreal (Yisrael) may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

in it, as I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. 17Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal; 18though these three men were in it, as I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. 19Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; 20though Noah (Noach), Daniel (Danitesyel), and Job (Iyob), were in it, as I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? 3Shall wood be taken of it to make any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? 4Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned: is it profitable for any work? 5Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work! 6Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 7I will set my face against them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I set my face against them. 8I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

16

to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): Your birth and your birth is of the land of the Canaanites (Kanaan); the Amori was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. 4As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you weren't salted at all, nor swaddled at all. 5No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born.

6When I passed by you, and saw you weltering in your blood, I said to you, Though you are in your blood, live; yes, I said to you, Though you are in your blood, live. 7I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare.

8Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , and you became mine. 9Then washed I you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. 10I clothed you also with embroidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I girded you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. 11I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. 12I put a ring on your nose, and ear-rings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. 13Thus was you decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you did prosper to royal estate. 14Your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

15But you did trust in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was. 16You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. 17You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; 18and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and did set my oil and my incense before them. 19My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you did even set it before them for a sweet savor; and thus it was, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 20Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and these have you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your prostitution a small matter, 21that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? 22In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and was weltering in your blood.

23It is happen after all your wickedness, (woe, woe to you! says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH ,) 24that you have built to you a vaulted place, and have made you a lofty place in every street. 25You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. 26You have also committed sexual immorality with the Mitzrim, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. 27See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines (Pelishtim), who are ashamed of your lewd way. 28You have played the prostitute also with the Ashshur, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. 29You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Kasdim; and yet you weren't satisfied with this.

30How weak is your heart, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , seeing you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; 31in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay. 32A wife who commits adultery! who takes strangers instead of her husband! 33They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. 34You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that none follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different.

35Therefore, prostitute, hear the word of YaHWeH: 36Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; 37therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. 38I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. 39I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare. 40They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. 41They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no hire any more. [42]So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. [43]Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH :

You shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations. [44]Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. [45]You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amori. [46]Your elder sister is Samaria (Shomron), who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. [47]Yet have you not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. [48]As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. [49]Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. [50]They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. [51]Neither has Samaria (Shomron) committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. [52]You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous that you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.

[53]I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria (Shomron) and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in the midst of them; [54]that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. [55]Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria (Shomron) and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. [56]For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, [57]before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Aram, and of all who are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines (Pelishtim), who do despite to you round about. [58]You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says YaHWeH.

[59]For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant. [60]Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. 61Then shall you remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. 62I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH; 63that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Isreal (Yisrael); 3and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: 4he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. 5He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree. 6It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots of it were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. 8It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. 9Say you, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots of it, and cut off the fruit of it, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? and not by a strong arm or much people can it be raised from the roots of it. 10Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? it shall wither in the beds where it grew.

11Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 12Say now to the rebellious house, Don't you know what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babel came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and took the king of it, and the princes of it, and brought them to him to Babel: 13and he took of the seed royal, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; 14that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. 15But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt (Mitzrayim), that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape who does such things? shall he break the covenant, and yet escape? 16As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babel he shall die. 17Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. 18For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape. 19Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. 20I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babel, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. 21All his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, YaHWeH, have spoken it.

22Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: 23in the mountain of the height of Isreal (Yisrael) will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of the branches of it shall they dwell. 24All the trees of the field shall know that I, YaHWeH, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, YaHWeH, have spoken and have done it.

The word of YaHWeH came to me again, saying, 2What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? 3As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , you shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Isreal (Yisrael). 4Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins, he shall die.

5But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, 6and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, 7and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; 8he who has not given forth on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, 9has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

10If he fathers a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does any one of these things, [11]and who does not any of those duties, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, [12]has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, [13]has given forth on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? he shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him.

[14]Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; [15]who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), has not defiled his neighbor's wife, [16]neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; [17]who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. [18]As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity.

[19]Yet say you, Why does not the son bear the iniquity of the father? when the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. [20]The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him.

[21]But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. [22]None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. [23]Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH ; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? [24]But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die.

[25]Yet you say, The way of YaHWeH is not equal. Hear now, house of Isreal (Yisrael): Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal? [26]When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. [27]Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. [28]Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. [29]Yet says the house of Isreal (Yisrael),

The way of YaHWeH is not equal. house of Isreal (Yisrael), are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30Therefore I will judge you, house of Isreal (Yisrael), everyone according to his ways, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . Return you, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. 31Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Isreal (Yisrael)? 32For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : therefore turn yourselves, and live.

Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Isreal (Yisrael), 2and say, What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her cubs. 3She brought up one of her cubs: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. 4The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 5Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. 6He went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. 7He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fullness of it, because of the noise of his roaring. 8Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. 9They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babel; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael). 10Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. 11It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. 12But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. 13Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. 14Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

It happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael) came to inquire of YaHWeH, and sat before me. 2The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 3Son of man, speak to the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael), and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , I will not be inquired of by you. 4Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; 5and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : In the day when I chose Isreal (Yisrael), and swore to the seed of the house of Jacob (Yakob), and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), when I swore to them, saying, I am YaHWeH your God; 6in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. 7I said to them, Cast you away every man the abominations of his eyes, and don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt (Mitzrayim); I am YaHWeH your God. 8But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt (Mitzrayim).

Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 9But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 10So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and brought them into the wilderness. 11I gave them my statutes, and shown them my ordinances, which if a man do, he shall live in them. 12Moreover also I gave them my Shabbatot, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am YaHWeH who sanctifies them. 13But the house of Isreal (Yisrael) rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my Shabbatot they greatly profaned.

Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. 14But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. 15Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; 16because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Shabbatot: for their heart went after their idols. 17Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.

18I said to their children in the wilderness, Don't you walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. 19I am YaHWeH your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; 20and make my Shabbatot holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am YaHWeH your God. 21But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my Shabbatot.

Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. 22Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. 23Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; 24because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Shabbatot, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. 25Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; 26and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am YaHWeH.

27Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. 28For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savor, and they poured out there their drink-offerings. 29Then I said to them, What means the high place whereunto you go? So the name of it is called Bamah to this day. 30Therefore tell the house of Isreal (Yisrael), Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Do you pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers? and play you the prostitute after their abominations? 31and when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, house of Isreal (Yisrael)? As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , I will not be inquired of by you;

32and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

33As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over you: 34and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; 35and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. 36Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), so will I enter into judgment with you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 37I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; 38and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter into Earth-Isreal (Yisrael): and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

39As for you, house of Isreal (Yisrael), thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Go you, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name shall you no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols.

40For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Isreal (Yisrael), says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , there shall all the house of Isreal (Yisrael), all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. 41As a sweet savor will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. 42You shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I shall bring you into Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. 43There shall you remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. 44You shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Isreal (Yisrael), says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

45The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 46Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; 47and tell the forest of the South, Hear the word of YaHWeH: Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby. 48All flesh shall see that I, YaHWeH, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched. 49Then said I, Ah Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH! they say of me, Isn't he a speaker of parables?

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and drop your word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against Earth-Isreal (Yisrael); 3and tell Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), Thus says YaHWeH: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. 4Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: 5and all flesh shall know that I, YaHWeH, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more. 6Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your loins and with bitterness shall you sigh before their eyes. 7It shall be, when they tell you, Why do you sigh? that you shall say, Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[8]The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [9]Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says YaHWeH: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; [10]it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my son, it condemns every tree. [11]It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer. [12]Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Isreal (Yisrael): they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. [13]For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more? says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[14]You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their chambers. [15]I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. [16]Gather you together, go to the right, set yourself in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. [17]I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, YaHWeH, have spoken it.

[18]The word of YaHWeH came to me again, saying, [19]Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babel may come; they both shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. [20]You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of `Ammon, and to Judah (Yahudah) in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) the fortified. [21]For the king of Babel stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the terafim, he looked in the liver. [22]In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. [23]It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken.

[24]Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand. [25]You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Isreal (Yisrael), whose day is come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, [26]thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. [27]I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

[28]You, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH concerning the children of `Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say you, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; [29]while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day is come in the time of the iniquity of the end. [30]Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. [31]I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of bRuth (Rut)ish men, skillful to destroy. [32]You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be no more remembered: for I, YaHWeH, have spoken it.

Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [2]You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? then cause her to know all her abominations. [3]You shall say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : A city that sheds blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! [4]You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and are come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. [5]Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one and full of tumult.

[6]Behold, the princes of Isreal (Yisrael), everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. [7]In you have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widow. [8]You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Shabbatot. [9]Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness. [10]In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. [11]One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. [12]In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[13]Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. [14]Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, YaHWeH, have spoken it, and will do it. [15]I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. [16]You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

[17]The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [18]Son of man, the house of Isreal (Yisrael) is become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. [19]Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you are all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [20]As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. [21]Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst of it. [22]As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall you be melted in the midst of it; and you shall know that I, YaHWeH, have poured out my wrath on you.

[23]The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [24]Son of man, tell her, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation. [25]There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst of it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in the midst of it. [26]Her Priests (Kohanim) have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my Shabbatot, and I am profaned among them. [27]Her princes in the midst of it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. [28]Her prophets have daubed for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , when YaHWeH has not spoken. [29]The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully. [30]I sought for a man among them, who should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none. [31]Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

The word of YaHWeH came again to me, saying, [2]Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: [3]and they played the prostitute in Egypt (Mitzrayim); they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. [4]The names of them were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria (Shomron) is Oholah, and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) Oholibah.

11Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitution which were more than the prostitution of her sister. 12She doted on the Ashshur, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. 13I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. 14She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Kasdim portrayed with vermilion, 15girded with girdles on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look on, after the likeness of the Bavlites in Kasdim, the land of their birth. 16As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Kasdim. 17The Bavlites came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. 18So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. 19Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 20She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. 21Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Mitzrim for the breasts of your youth.

22Therefore, Oholibah, thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: 23the Bavlites and all the Kasdim, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Ashshur with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. 24They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet round about; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. 25I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. 26They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. 27Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim); so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt (Mitzrayim) any more. 28For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; 29and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. 30These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. 31You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand. 32Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : You shall drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you shall ridiculed and had in derision; it contains much. 33You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria (Shomron). 34You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 35Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore bear you also your lewdness and your prostitution.

36YaHWeH said moreover to me: Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare to them their abominations. 37For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. 38Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Shabbatot. 39For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, behold, thus have they done in the midst of my house. 40Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and, behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and deck yourself with ornaments, 41and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you did set my incense and my oil. 42The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought Sava'im from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on the hands of them twain, and beautiful crowns on their heads.

43Then said I of her who was old in adulteries, Now will they play the prostitute with her, and she with them. 44They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. 45Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. 47The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. 48Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. 49They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, write you the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babel drew close to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) this same day. 3Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: 4gather the pieces of it into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. 5Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the caldron; make it boil well; yes, let the bones of it be boiled in the midst of it.

6Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. 7For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. 8That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered. 9Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. 10Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. 11Then set it empty on the coals of it, that it may be hot, and the brass of it may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the rust of it may be consumed. 12She has wearied herself with toil; yet her great rust doesn't go forth out of her; her rust doesn't go forth by fire. 13In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. 14I, YaHWeH, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

15Also the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 16Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. 17Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat men's bread. 18So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19The people said to me, Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so? 20Then I said to them, The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 21Speak to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. 22You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. 23Your tires shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. 24Thus shall Ezekiel (Yechezkel) be to you a sign; according to all that he has done shall you do: when this comes, then shall you know that I am Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

25You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, 26that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? 27In that day shall your mouth be opened to him who is escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so shall you be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, set your face toward the children of `Ammon, and prophesy against them: 3and tell the children of `Ammon, Hear the word of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Because you said, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah (Yahudah), when they went into captivity: 4therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. 5I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of `Ammon a couching-place for flocks: and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. 6For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against Earth-Isreal (Yisrael); 7therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

8Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because Moab and Se`ir say, Behold, the house of Judah (Yahudah) is like all the nations; 9therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Ba`al-Me`on, and Kiryatayim, 10to the children of the east, to go against the children of `Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of `Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. 11and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

12Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah (Yahudah) by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them; 13therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. 14I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Isreal (Yisrael); and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

15Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because the Philistines (Pelishtim) have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity; 16therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines (Pelishtim), and I will cut off the Kereti, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. 17I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.

It happened in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, because Tyrus (Tzor) has said against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste: 3therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , Behold, I am against you, Tyrus (Tzor), and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. 4They shall destroy the walls of Tyrus (Tzor), and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. 5She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH ; and she shall become a spoil to the nations. 6Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

7For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will bring on Tyrus (Tzor) Nebuchadrezzar king of Babel, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and much people. 8He shall kill with the sword your daughters in the field; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. 9He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. 10By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. 11With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. 12They shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters. 13I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. 14I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I YaHWeH have spoken it, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

19For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; 20then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: 21I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet shall you never be found again, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

The word of YaHWeH came again to me, saying, [2]You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyrus (Tzor); [3]and tell Tyrus (Tzor), you who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many isles, thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : You, Tyrus (Tzor), have said, I am perfect in beauty. [4]Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty. [5]They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. [6]Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the isles of Kittiyim. [7]Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt (Mitzrayim) was your sail, that it might be to you for an ensign; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was your awning. [8]The inhabitants of Tzidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyrus (Tzor), were in you, they were your pilots. [9]The old men of GEbal and the wise men of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.

[10]Persians (Paras) and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness. [11]The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls round about, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls round about; they have perfected your beauty.

[12]Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. [13]Yavan, Tubal, and Meshekh, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise. [14]They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war-horses and mules. [15]The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many isles were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. [16]Aram was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. [17]Judah (Yahudah), and Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnit, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. [18]Damascus (Dammesek) was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. [19]Dan and Yavan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. [20]Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. [21]`Arav, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. [22]The traffickers of Sheba and Ra`mah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. [23]Haran and Kanneh and `Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Ashshur and Kilmad, were your traffickers. [24]These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. 25The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. 26Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. 27Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. 28At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. 29All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, 30and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: 31and they shall make themselves bald for you, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. 32In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, Who is there like Tyrus (Tzor), like her who is brought to silence in the midst of the sea? 33When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you did enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. 34In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company did fall in the midst of you. 35All the inhabitants of the isles are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. 36The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.

The word of YaHWeH came again to me, saying, 2Son of man, tell the prince of Tyrus (Tzor), Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are man, and not God, though you did set your heart as the heart of God;-3behold, you are wiser than Daniel (Danitesyel); there is no secret that is hidden from you; 4by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten you riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; 5by your great wisdom and by your traffic have you increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches;-6therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, 7therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. 8They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. 9Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am God? but you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you. 10You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

11Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 12Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyrus (Tzor), and tell him, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. 13You were in `Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: odem, pitdah, yahalom, tarshish, onx, yashefay, sappir, nofek, and bareket. Gold work of timbrels and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. 14You were the anointed Kerub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. 15You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. 16By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering Kerub, from the midst of the stones of fire. 17Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. 18By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. 19All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.

20The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 21Son of man, set your face toward Tzidon, and prophesy against it, 22and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against you, Tzidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. 23For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

24There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), nor a hurting thorn of any that are round about them, that did despite to them; and they shall know that I am Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

25Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : When I shall have gathered the house of Isreal (Yisrael) from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob (Yakob). 26They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite round about them; and they shall know that I am

In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [2]Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt (Mitzrayim); [3]speak, and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitzrayim), the great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, My river is my own, and I have made it for myself. [4]I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. [5]I will cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers: you shall fall on the open field; you shall not be brought together, nor gathered; I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky.

[6]All the inhabitants of Egypt (Mitzrayim) shall know that I am YaHWeH, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Isreal (Yisrael). [7]When they took hold of you by your hand, you did break, and did tear all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and mad all their loins to be at a stand. [8]Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off from you man and animal. [9]The land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

Because he has said, The river is mine, and I have made it; [10]therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Seven even to the border of Kush. [11]No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. [12]I will make the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Mitzrim among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

[13]For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : At the end of forty years will I gather the Mitzrim from the peoples where they were scattered; [14]and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and will cause them to return into the land of Patros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. [15]It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. [16]It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

17It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 18Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babel caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus (Tzor): every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyrus (Tzor), for the service that he had served against it. 19Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will give the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babel; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. 20I have given him the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 21In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

The word of YaHWeH came again to me, saying, 2Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Wail, Alas for the day! 3For the day is near, even the day of YaHWeH is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations. 4A sword shall come on Egypt (Mitzrayim), and anguish shall be in Kush, when the slain shall fall in Egypt (Mitzrayim); and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. 5Kush, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Kuv, and the children of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6Thus says YaHWeH: They also who uphold Egypt (Mitzrayim) shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from Migdol to Seven shall they fall in it by the sword, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 7They shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. 8They shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I have set a fire in Egypt (Mitzrayim), and all her helpers are destroyed.

9In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Kushim afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt (Mitzrayim); for, behold, it comes.

10Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will also make the multitude of Egypt (Mitzrayim) to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babel. 11He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt (Mitzrayim), and fill the land with the slain. 12I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, YaHWeH, have spoken it.

13Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Mof; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim): and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 14I will make Patros desolate, and will set a fire in Tzo`an, and will execute judgments on No. 15I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt (Mitzrayim); and I will cut off the multitude of No. 16I will set a fire in Egypt (Mitzrayim): Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Mof shall have adversaries in the day-time. 17The young men of Aven and of Pi-Veset shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. 18At Techafneches also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. 19Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt (Mitzrayim); and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

20It happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 21Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitzrayim); and, behold, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. 22Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. 23I will scatter the Mitzrim among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. 24I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babel, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. 25I will hold up the arms of the king of Babel; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babel, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 26I will scatter the Mitzrim among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

It happened in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and to his multitude: Whom are you like in your greatness? 3Behold, the Ashshur was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs. 4The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: the rivers of it ran round about its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field. 5Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot them forth. 6All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches did all the animals of the field bring forth their young; and under its shadow lived all great nations. 7Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters. 8The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. 9I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of `Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.

10Therefore thus said Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; 11I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. 12Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. 13On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; 14to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with those who go down to the pit.

15Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : In the day when he went down to She'ol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the rivers of it; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. 16I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to She'ol with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of `Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. 17They also went down into She'ol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, that lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations. 18To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of `Eden? yet shall you be brought down with the trees of `Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [2]Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and tell him, You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet are you as a monster in the seas; and you did break forth with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. [3]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. [4]I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. [5]I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. [6]I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. [7]When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make the stars of it dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. [8]All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[9]I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. [10]Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall. [11]For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : The sword of the king of Babel shall come on you. [12]By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and all the multitude of it shall be destroyed. [13]I will destroy also all the animals of it from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. [14]Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . [15]When I shall make the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) desolate and waste, a land destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am YaHWeH. [16]This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt (Mitzrayim), and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[17]It happened also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [18]Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. [19]Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. [20]They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. 21The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of She'ol with those who help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

24There is `Elam and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. 25They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are round about her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of those who are slain.

26There is Meshekh, Tubal, and all their multitude; their graves are round about them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. 27They shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who are gone down to She'ol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. 28But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword.

30There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Tzidonim, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

31Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 32For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [2]Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; [3]if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blow the trumpet (shofar), and warn the people; [4]then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet (shofar), and doesn't take warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. [5]He heard the sound of the trumpet (shofar), and didn't take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. [6]But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet (shofar), and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

[7]So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Isreal (Yisrael); therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. [8]When I tell the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you don't speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. [9]Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

[10]You, son of man, tell the house of Isreal (Yisrael): Thus you speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live? [11]Tell them, As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn you, turn you from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Isreal (Yisrael)? [12]You, son of man, tell the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins. [13]When I tell the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein shall he die. [14]Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; [15]if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. [16]None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

[17]Yet the children of your people say, The way of YaHWeH is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. [18]When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein. 19When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. 20Yet you say, The way of YaHWeH is not equal. House of Isreal (Yisrael), I will judge you everyone after his ways.

21It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) came to me, saying, The city has been struck. 22Now the hand of YaHWeH had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute.

23The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 24Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in Earth-Isreal (Yisrael) speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. 25Therefore tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? 26You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and you defile everyone his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land? 27Thus shall you tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. 28I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael) shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through. 29Then shall they know that I am YaHWeH, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

30As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, everyone to his brother, saying, Please come and hear what is the word that comes forth from YaHWeH. 31They come to you as the people comes, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. 32Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. 33When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes,) then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Isreal (Yisrael), prophesy, and tell them, even to the shepherds, Thus says

Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Woe to the shepherds of Isreal (Yisrael) who feed themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep? 3You eat the fat, and you clothe you with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you don't feed the sheep. 4You haven't strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor have you ruled over them. 5They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. 6My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was none who searched or sought.

7Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of YaHWeH: 8As I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep; 9therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of YaHWeH: 10Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.

11For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. 12As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. 13I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Isreal (Yisrael) shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael). 15I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 16I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice.

17As for you, O my flock, thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. 18Seems it a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? 19As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet.

20Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; 22therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. 24I, YaHWeH, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, YaHWeH, have spoken it.

25I will make with them a covenant of shalom, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. 26I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. 27The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. 28They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. 29I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. 30They shall know that I, YaHWeH, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Isreal (Yisrael), are my people, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 31You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, 2Son of man, set your face against Mount Se`ir, and prophesy against it, 3and tell it, Thus says Lord ( Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against you, Mount Se`ir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. 4I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. 5Because you have had a perpetual enmity, and have given over the children of Isreal (Yisrael) to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end; 6therefore, as I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , I will prepare you to blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. 7Thus will I make Mount Se`ir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns. 8I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword. [9]I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

[10]Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas YaHWeH was there: [11]therefore, as I live, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you. [12]You shall know that I, YaHWeH, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour. [13]You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it. [14]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. [15]As you did rejoice over the inheritance of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Se`ir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), and say, You mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), hear the word of YaHWeH. [2]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because the enemy has said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession; [3]therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; [4]therefore, you mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), hear the word of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are round about; [5]therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey. [6]Therefore prophesy concerning Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations: [7]therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I have sworn, saying, Surely the nations that are round about you, they shall bear their shame.

[8]But you, mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Isreal (Yisrael); for they are at hand to come. [9]For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; [10]and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Isreal (Yisrael), even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; [11]and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am YaHWeH. [12]Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Isreal (Yisrael); and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children. [13]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Because they say to you, You land are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation; [14]therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH ; [15]neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

[16]Moreover the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [17]Son of man, when the house of Isreal (Yisrael) lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. [18]Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; [19]and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. [20]When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of YaHWeH, and are gone forth out of his land. [21]But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Isreal (Yisrael) had profaned among the nations, where they went.

[22]Therefore tell the house of Isreal (Yisrael), Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : I don't do this for your sake, house of Isreal (Yisrael), but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. [23]I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am YaHWeH, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. [24]For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. [25]I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. [26]A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. [27]I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. [28]You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. [29]I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. [30]I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. [31]Then shall you remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. 32Nor for your sake do I this, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Isreal (Yisrael).

33Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. 34The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. 35They shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of `Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. 36Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, YaHWeH, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, YaHWeH, have spoken it, and I will do it.

The hand of YaHWeH was on me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of YaHWeH, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. 2He caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, behold, they were very dry. 3He said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? I answered, Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH, you know. 4Again he said to me, Prophesy over these bones, and tell them, you dry bones, hear the word of YaHWeH. 5Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. 6I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am YaHWeH.

7So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and, behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. 8I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. 9Then said he to me, Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. 10So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceeding great army.

11Then he said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Isreal (Yisrael): behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. 12Therefore prophesy, and tell them, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into Earth-Isreal (Yisrael). 13You shall know that I am YaHWeH, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. 14I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, YaHWeH, have spoken it and performed it, says YaHWeH.

24My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. 25They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob (Yakob) my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. 26Moreover I will make a covenant of shalom with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them forevermore. 27My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 28The nations shall know that I am YaHWeH who sanctifies Isreal (Yisrael), when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them forevermore.

The word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, [2]Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshekh, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, [3]and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshekh, and Tubal: [4]and I will turn you about, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; [5]Persians (Paras), Kush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; [6]Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.

[7]Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. [8]After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. [9]You shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.

[10]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : It shall happen in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device: [11]and you shall say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; [12]to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten cattle and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth. [13]Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, Are you come to take the spoil? have you assembled your company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil?

[14]Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : In that day when my people Isreal (Yisrael) dwells securely, shall you not know it? [15]You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; [16]and you shall come up against my people Isreal (Yisrael), as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes.

[17]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Are you he of whom I spoke in old time

by my servants the prophets of Isreal (Yisrael), who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them? 18It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. 19For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in Earth-Isreal (Yisrael); 20so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. 21I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : every man's sword shall be against his brother. 22With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. 23I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshekh, and Tubal: 2and I will turn you about, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael); 3and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. 4You shall fall on the mountains of Isreal (Yisrael), you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. 5You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 6I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the isles; and they shall know that I am YaHWeH.

7My holy name will I make known in the midst of my people Isreal (Yisrael); neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am YaHWeH, the Holy One in Isreal (Yisrael). 8Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH ; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

9Those who dwell in the cities of Isreal (Yisrael) shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; 10so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

11It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Isreal (Yisrael), the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-Gog. 12Seven months shall the house of Isreal (Yisrael) be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. 13Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 14They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. 15Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog. 16Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

21I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. 22So the house of Isreal (Yisrael) shall know that I am YaHWeH their God, from that day and forward. 23The nations shall know that the house of Isreal (Yisrael) went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. 24According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them.

25Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob (Yakob), and have mercy on the whole house of Isreal (Yisrael); and I will be jealous for my holy name. 26They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them afraid; 27when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. 28They shall know that I am YaHWeH their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; 29neither will I hide my face any more from them; for

In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of YaHWeH was on me, and he brought me there. 2In the visions of God brought he me into Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. 3He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. 4The man said to me, Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, are you brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Isreal (Yisrael).

5Behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. 6Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up the steps of it: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. 7Every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. 8He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. 9Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts of it, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. 10The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. 11He measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; 12and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. 13He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of twenty-five cubits; door against door. 14He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, round about the gate. 15*From* the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. 16There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward; and on each post were palm trees.

17Then brought he me into the outer court; and, behold, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were on the pavement.

18The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. 19Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. 20The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length of it and the breadth of it. 21The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts of it and the arches of it were after the measure of the first gate:
the length of it was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. 22The windows of it, and the arches of it, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and the arches of it were before them. 23There was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits.

24He led me toward the south; and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts of it and the arches of it according to these measures. 25There were windows in it and in the arches of it round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. 26There were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches of it were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on the posts of it. 27There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.

28Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; 29and the lodges of it, and the posts of it, and the arches of it, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches of it round about; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. 30There were arches round about, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits broad. 31The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on the posts of it: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

32He brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures; 33and the lodges of it, and the posts of it, and the arches of it, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches of it round about; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. 34The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on the posts of it, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

35He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; 36the lodges of it, the posts of it, and the arches of it: and there were windows therein round about; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. 37The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on the posts of it, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.

38A chamber with the door of it was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering. 39In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to kill thereon the burnt offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering. 40On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. 41Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices. 42There were four tables for the burnt offering, of hewn stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43The hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within round about: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44Outside of the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. 45He said to me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the Priests (Kohanim), the keepers of the charge of the house; 46and the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the Priests (Kohanim), the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Tzadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to YaHWeH to minister to him. 47He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.

48Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. 49The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tent. 2The breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length of it, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits. 3Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. 4He measured the length of it, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place.

5Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. 6The side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. 7The side-chambers were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle chamber. 8I saw also that the house had a raised base round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. 9The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that belonged to the house. 10Between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the house on every side. 11The doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length of it ninety cubits.

15He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at the back of it, and the galleries of it on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; 16the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings round about, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), 17to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall round about inside and outside, by measure. 18It was made with Kerubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between Kerub and Kerub, and every Kerub had two faces; 19so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. thus was it made through all the house round about: 20from the ground to above the door were Kerubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple.

21As for the temple, the door-posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it was as the appearance of the temple. 22The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length of it two cubits; and the corners of it, and the length of it, and the walls of it, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before YaHWeH. 23The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. 24The doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. 25There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, Kerubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. 26There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.

Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. 2Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. 3Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story. 4Before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. 5Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. 6For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. 7The wall that was outside by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length of it was fifty cubits. 8For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. 9From under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. 10In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were chambers. 11The way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. 12According to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.

13Then said he to me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they are the holy chambers, where the Priests (Kohanim) who are near to YaHWeH shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. 14When the Priests (Kohanim) enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people.

15Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about. 16He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. 17He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed round about. 18He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 19He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. 20He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east.
2Behold, the glory of the God of Isreal (Yisrael) came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. 3It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Kebar; and I fell on my face. 4The glory of YaHWeH came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. 5The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of YaHWeH filled the house.

6I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. 7He said to me, Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where
I will dwell in the midst of the children of Isreal (Yisrael) forever. The house of Isreal (Yisrael) shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; 8in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door-post beside my door-post, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger.
9Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in the midst of them forever.

10You, son of man, show the house to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. 11If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and the fashion of it, and the exits of it, and the entrances of it, and all the forms of it, and all the ordinances of it, and all the forms of it, and all the laws of it; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all the ordinances of it, and do them. 12This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit of it round about shall be most holy.
Behold, this is the law of the house.

13These are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border of it by the edge of it round about a span; and this shall be the base of the altar. 14From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. 15The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. 16The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, square in the four sides of it. 17The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides of it; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom of it shall be a cubit round about; and the steps of it shall look toward the east.

18He said to me, Son of man, thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. 19You shall give to the Priests (Kohanim) the Levites who are of the seed of Tzadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , a young bull for a sin-offering. 20You shall take of the blood of it, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border round about: thus shall you cleanse it and make atonement for it. 21You shall also take the bull of the sin-offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary. 22On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bull. 23When you have made an end of cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. 24You shall bring them near before YaHWeH, and the Priests (Kohanim) shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to YaHWeH. 25Seven days shall you prepare every day a goat for a sin-offering: they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. 26Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. 27When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the Priests (Kohanim) shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace-offerings; and I will accept you, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. 2YaHWeH said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. 3As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before YaHWeH; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and, behold, the glory of YaHWeH filled the house of YaHWeH: and I fell on my face. 5YaHWeH said to me, Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of YaHWeH, and all the laws of it; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. 6You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Isreal (Yisrael), Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : you house of Isreal (Yisrael), let it suffice you of all your abominations, 7in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. 8You have not kept the charge of my holy things; but you have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

15But the Priests (Kohanim) the Levites, the sons of Tzadok, who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Isreal (Yisrael) went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : 16they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge. 17It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. 18They shall have linen tires on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat. 19When they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments. 20Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. 21Neither shall any of the Priests (Kohanim) drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. 22Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), or a widow who is the widow of a Priest. 23They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. 24In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Shabbatot holy. 25They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. 26After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. 27In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin-offering, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

28They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Isreal (Yisrael); I am their possession. 29They shall eat the meal-offering, and the sin-offering, and the trespass-offering; and every devoted thing in Isreal (Yisrael) shall be theirs. 30The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the Priest: you shall also give to the Priests (Kohanim) the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. 31The Priests (Kohanim) shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or animal.

Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to YaHWeH, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all the border of it round about. 2Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits for the suburbs of it round about. 3Of this measure shall you measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. 4It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the Priests (Kohanim), the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to YaHWeH; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. 5Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty chambers.

6You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Isreal (Yisrael).

7*Whatever is* for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. 8In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Isreal (Yisrael): and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Isreal (Yisrael) according to their tribes.

13This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an efah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an efah from a homer of barley; 14and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) 15and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Isreal (Yisrael); -for a meal-offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace-offerings, to make atonement for them, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 16All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Isreal (Yisrael). 17It shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal-offerings, and the drink-offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Shabbatot, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Isreal (Yisrael): he shall prepare the sin-offering, and the meal-offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace-offerings, to make atonement for the house of Isreal (Yisrael).

21In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Pesach, a feast of seven days; matzah shall be eaten. 22On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin-offering. 23The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to YaHWeH, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin-offering. 24He shall prepare a meal-offering, an efah for a bull, and an efah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an efah. 25In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal-offering, and according to the oil.

Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the day of Shabbat it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. 2The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the Priests (Kohanim) shall prepare his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. 3The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before YaHWeH on the Shabbatot and on the new moons. 4The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to YaHWeH shall be on the day of Shabbat six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish; 5and the meal-offering shall be an efah for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an efah. 6On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish: 7and he shall prepare a meal-offering, an efah for the bull, and an efah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an efah. 8When the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way of it. 9But when the people of the land shall come before YaHWeH in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. 10The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out.

11In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal-offering shall be an efah for a bull, and an efah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an efah. 12When the prince shall prepare a freewill-offering, a burnt offering or peace-offerings as a freewill-offering to YaHWeH, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace-offerings, as he does on the day of Shabbat: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13You shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to

YaHWeH daily: morning by morning shall you prepare it. 14You shall prepare a meal-offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an efah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering to YaHWeH continually by a perpetual ordinance. 15Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal-offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.

19Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the Priests (Kohanim), which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. 20He said to me, This is the place where the Priests (Kohanim) shall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, and where they shall bake the meal-offering; that they not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people. 21Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. 22In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. 23There was a wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the walls round about. 24Then said he to me, These are the boiling-houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

He brought me back to the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. 2Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. 4Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the loins. [5]Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. [6]He said to me, Son of man, have you seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. [7]Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. [8]Then said he to me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Wilderness (Arabah); and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed. [9]It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters are come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. [10]It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from `En-Gedi even to `En-`Eglayim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. [11]But the miry places of it, and the marshes of it, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. [12]By the river on the bank of it, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall the fruit of it fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because the waters of it issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit of it shall be for food, and the leaf of it for healing.

[13]Thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Isreal (Yisrael): Joseph (Yosef) shall have two portions. [14]You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.

[15]This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hetlon, to the entrance of Tzedad; [16]Hamat, Berotah, Sivrai, which is between the border of Damascus (Dammesek) and the border of Hamat; the middle Hatzer, which is by the border of Havran. [17]The border from the sea, shall be Hatzar-`Enon at the border of Damascus (Dammesek); and on the north northward is the border of Hamat. This is the north side.

[18]The east side, between Hauran and Damascus (Dammesek) and Gil`ad, and Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), shall be the Jordan (Yarden); from the north border to the east sea shall you measure. This is the east side.

[19]The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Merivot-Kadesh, to the brook of Egypt (Mitzrayim), to the great sea. This is the south side southward.

[20]The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamat. This is the west side.

21So shall you divide this land to you according to the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael). 22It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the strangers who sojourn among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the home-born among the children of Isreal (Yisrael); they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael). 23It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger sojourns, there shall you give him his inheritance, says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .

Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hetlon to the entrance of Hamat, Hatzar-`Enan at the border of Damascus (Dammesek), northward beside Hamat, (and they shall have their sides east and west,) Dan, one portion. 2By the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, Asher, one portion. 3By the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naftali, one portion. 4By the border of Naftali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh (Menashsheh), one portion. 5By the border of Manasseh (Menashsheh), from the east side to the west side, Ephraim (Efrayim), one portion. 6By the border of Ephraim (Efrayim), from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion. 7By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah (Yahudah), one portion.

8By the border of Judah (Yahudah), from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. 9The offering that you shall offer to YaHWeH shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth. 10For these, even for the Priests (Kohanim), shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of YaHWeH shall be in the midst of it. 11*It shall be* for the Priests (Kohanim) who are sanctified of the sons of Tzadok, who have kept my charge, who didn't go astray when the children of Isreal (Yisrael) went astray, as the Levites went astray. 12It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites. 13Answerable to the border of the Priests (Kohanim), the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the breadth ten thousand. 14They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to YaHWeH.

thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst of it. 16These shall be the measures of it: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. 17The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. 18The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and the increase of it shall be for food to those who labor in the city. 19Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), shall until it. 20All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer the holy offering four-square, with the possession of the city.

30These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; 31and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah (Yahudah), one; the gate of Levi, one. 32At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph (Yosef), one; the gate of Benjamin (Binyamin), one; the gate of Dan, one. 33At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon (Shimon), one; the gate of Issacher (Yissakhar), one; the gate of Zebulun, one. 34At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naftali, one. [35]It shall be eighteen thousand reeds round about: and the name of the city from that day shall be, YaHWeH is there.

NEVI'IM

THE MINOR PROPHETS

Hosea

The word of YaHWeH that came to Hoshea the son of Be'eri, in the days of `Uzziyah, Yotam, Achaz, and Hezekiah (Hizkiyah), kings of Judah (Yahudah), and in the days of Yarobam the son of Yo'ash, king of Isreal (Yisrael). 2When YaHWeH spoke at the first by Hoshea, YaHWeH said to Hoshea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery against from YaHWeH."

3So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblayim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.

4YaHWeH said to him, "Call his name Yizreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Yizreel on the house of Yehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Isreal (Yisrael) to cease. 5It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Isreal (Yisrael) in the valley of Yizreel."

6She conceived again, and bore a daughter.

Then he said to him, "Call her name Lo-Ruhamah; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Isreal (Yisrael), that I should in any way pardon them. 7But I will have mercy on the house of Judah (Yahudah), and will save them by YaHWeH their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen."

8Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

9He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours.
10Yet the number of the children of Isreal (Yisrael) will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.' 11The children of Judah (Yahudah) and the children of Isreal (Yisrael) will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Yizreel.

"Say to your brothers, 'My people!' And to your sisters, 'My loved one!' 2Contend with your mother! Contend, for she is not my wife, Neither am I her husband; And let her put away her prostitution from her face, And her adulteries from between her breasts; 3Lest I strip her naked, And make her bare as in the day that she was born, And make her like a wilderness, And set her like a dry land, And kill her with thirst. 4Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy; For they are children of unfaithfulness; 5For their mother has played the prostitute. She who conceived them has done shamefully; For she said, 'I will go after my lovers, Who give me my bread and my water, My wool and my flax, My oil and my drink.' 6Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, And I will build a wall against her, That she can't find her way. 7She will follow after her lovers, But she won't overtake them; And she will seek them, But won't find them. Then she will say,
'I will go and return to my first husband; For then was it better with me than now.' 8For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, And multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Ba`al. 9Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, And my new wine in its season, And will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. 10Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, And no one will deliver her out of my hand. 11I will also cause all her celebrations to cease: Her feasts, her new moons, her Shabbatot, and all her solemn assemblies. 12I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, About which she has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me; And I will make them a forest,' And the animals of the field shall eat them. 13I will visit on her the days of the Ba`alim, To which she burned incense, When she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, And went after her lovers, And forgot me," says YaHWeH. 14"Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
And bring her into the wilderness, And speak tenderly to her. 15I will give her vineyards from there, And the valley of `Akhor for a door of hope; And she will respond there, As in the days of her youth, And as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 16It will be in that day," says YaHWeH, "That you will call me 'my husband,'
And no longer call me 'my master.' 17For I will take away the names of the Ba`alim out of her mouth, And they will no more be mentioned by their name. 18In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, And with the birds of the sky, And with the creeping things of the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land, And will make them lie down safely. 19I will betroth you to me forever. Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion. 20I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness; And you shall know YaHWeH. 21It will happen in that day, I will respond," says YaHWeH, I will respond to the heavens, And they will respond to the earth; 22And the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; And they will respond to Yizreel. 23I will sow her to me in the earth; And I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy; And I will tell those who were not my people, 'You are my people;' And they will say, 'My God!'"

YaHWeH said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as YaHWeH loves the children of Isreal (Yisrael), though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins." 2So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer and a half of barley. 3I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you." 4For the children of Isreal (Yisrael) shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without efod or idols. 5Afterward the children of Isreal (Yisrael) shall return, and seek YaHWeH their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to YaHWeH and to his blessings in the last days.

Hear the word of YaHWeH, you children of Isreal (Yisrael); For YaHWeH has a charge against the inhabitants of the land: "Indeed there is no truth, Nor goodness, Nor knowledge of God in the land. 2There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; They break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed. 3Therefore the land will mourn, And everyone who dwells therein will waste away. All living things in her, Even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky; Yes, the fish of the sea also die. 4"Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; For your people are like those who bring charges against a Priest. 5You will stumble in the day, And the prophet will also stumble with you in the night; And I will destroy your mother. 6My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, That you may be no Priest to me. Because you have your God's law, I will also forget your children. 7As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me. I will change their glory into shame. 8They feed on the sin of my people, And set their heart on their iniquity. 9It will be, like people, like Priest; And I will punish them for their ways, And will repay them for their deeds. [10]They will eat, and not have enough. They will play the prostitute, and will not increase; Because they have abandoned giving to YaHWeH. [11]Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding. [12]My people consult with their wooded idol, And answer to a stick of wood. Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray, And they have been unfaithful to their God. [13]They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, And burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, Because its shade is good. Therefore your daughters play the prostitute, And your brides commit adultery. [14]I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, Nor your brides when they commit adultery; Because the men consort with prostitutes, And they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes; And the people that does not understand will come to ruin. [15]"Though you, Isreal (Yisrael), play the prostitute, Yet don't let Judah (Yahudah) offend; And don't come to Gilgal, Neither go up to Beit-Aven, Nor swear, 'As YaHWeH lives.' [16]For Isreal (Yisrael) has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer. Then how will YaHWeH feed them like a lamb in a meadow. [17]Ephraim (Efrayim) is joined to idols. Leave him alone! [18]Their drink has become sour. They play the prostitute continually. Her rulers dearly love their shameful way. [19]The wind has wrapped her up in its wings; And they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.

"Listen to this, you Priests (Kohanim)! Listen, house of Isreal (Yisrael), And give ear, house of the king! For the judgment is against you; For you have been a snare at Mitzpah, And a net spread on Tavor. [2]The rebels are deep in slaughter; But I discipline all of them. [3]I know Ephraim (Efrayim), And Isreal (Yisrael) is not hidden from me; For now, Ephraim (Efrayim), you have played the prostitute. Isreal (Yisrael) is defiled. [4]Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their God; For the spirit of prostitution is within them, And they don't know YaHWeH. [5]The pride of Isreal (Yisrael) testifies to his face. Therefore Isreal (Yisrael) and Ephraim (Efrayim) will stumble in their iniquity. Judah (Yahudah) also will stumble with them. [6]They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek YaHWeH; But they won't find him. He has withdrawn himself from them. [7]They are unfaithful to YaHWeH; For they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their fields. [8]"Blow the cornet in Gebah, And the trumpet (shofar) in Ramah! Sound a battle cry at Beit-Aven, behind you, Benjamin (Binyamin)! [9]Ephraim (Efrayim) will become a desolation in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), I have made known that which will surely be. [10]The princes of Judah (Yahudah) are like those who remove a landmark. I will pour out my wrath on them like water. [11]Ephraim (Efrayim) is oppressed, He is crushed in judgment; Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols. [12]Therefore I am to Ephraim (Efrayim) like a moth, And to the house of Judah (Yahudah) like rottenness. [13]When Ephraim (Efrayim) saw his sickness, And Judah (Yahudah) his wound, Then Ephraim (Efrayim) went to Ashshur, And sent to king Yarev: But he is not able to heal you, Neither will he cure you of your wound. 14For I will be to Ephraim (Efrayim) like a lion, And like a young lion to the house of Judah (Yahudah). I myself will tear in pieces and go away. I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver. 15I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense, And seek my face. In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

"Come, and let us return to YaHWeH; For he has torn us to pieces, And he will heal us; He has injured us, And he will bind up our wounds. 2After two days will he revive us. On the third day he will raise us up, And we will live before him. 3Let us acknowledge YaHWeH. Let us press on to know YaHWeH. As surely as the sun rises, YaHWeH will appear. He will come to us like the rain, Like the spring rain that waters the earth." 4"Ephraim (Efrayim), what shall I do to you? Judah (Yahudah), what shall I do to you? For your love is like a morning cloud, And like the dew that disappears early. 5Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets; I killed them with the words of my mouth. Your judgments are like a flash of lightning. 6For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; And the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. 7But they, like Adam, have broken the covenant. They were unfaithful to me, there. 8Gil`ad is a city of those who work iniquity; It is stained with blood. 9As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man, So the company of Priests (Kohanim) murder in the way toward Shekhem, Committing shameful crimes. 10In the house of Isreal (Yisrael) I have seen a horrible thing. There is prostitution in Ephraim (Efrayim). Isreal (Yisrael) is defiled. 11"Also, Judah (Yahudah), there is a harvest appointed for you, When I restore the fortunes of my people.

When I would heal Isreal (Yisrael), Then the iniquity of Ephraim (Efrayim) is uncovered, Also the wickedness of Samaria (Shomron); For they commit falsehood, And the thief enters in, And the gang of robbers ravages outside. 2They don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. Now their own deeds have engulfed them. They are before my face. 3They make the king glad with their wickedness, And the princes with their lies. 4They are all adulterers. They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, From the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened. 5On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine. He joined his hand with mockers. 6For they have made ready their heart like an oven, While they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all the night. In the morning it burns as a flaming fire. 7They are all hot as an oven, And devour their judges. All their kings have fallen. There is no one among them who calls to me. 8Ephraim (Efrayim), he mixes himself among the nations. Ephraim (Efrayim) is a pancake not turned over. [9]Strangers have devoured his strength, And he doesn't realize it. Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him, And he doesn't realize it. [10]The pride of Isreal (Yisrael) testifies to his face; Yet they haven't returned to YaHWeH their God, Nor sought him, for all this. [11]"Ephraim (Efrayim) is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding. They call to Egypt (Mitzrayim). They go to Ashshur. [12]When they go, I will spread my net on them. I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard. [13]Woe to them! For they have wandered from me. Destruction to them! For they have trespassed against me. Though I would redeem them, Yet they have spoken lies against me. [14]They haven't cried to me with their heart, But they howl on their beds. They assemble themselves for grain and new wine. They turn away from me. [15]Though I have taught and strengthened their arms, Yet they plot evil against me. [16]They return, but not to Most high (Elyon). They are like a faulty bow. Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim).

"Put the trumpet (shofar) to your lips! Something like an eagle is over YaHWeH's house, Because they have broken my covenant, And rebelled against my law. [2]They cry to me, 'My God, we Isreal (Yisrael) acknowledge you!' [3]Isreal (Yisrael) has cast off that which is good. The enemy will pursue him. [4]They have set up kings, but not by me. They have made princes, and I didn't approve. Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols, That they may be cut off. [5]Let Samaria (Shomron) throw out his calf-idol! My anger burns against them! How long will it be before the are capable of purity? [6]For this is even from Isreal (Yisrael)! The workman made it, and it is no God; Indeed, the calf of Samaria (Shomron) shall be broken in pieces. [7]For they sow the wind, And they will reap the whirlwind. He has no standing grain. The stalk will yield no head. If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up. [8]Isreal (Yisrael) is swallowed up. Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing. [9]For they have gone up to Ashshur, Like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim (Efrayim) has hired lovers for himself. [10]But although they sold themselves among the nations, I will now gather them; and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones. [11]Because Ephraim (Efrayim) has multiplied altars for sinning, They became for him altars for sinning. [12]I wrote for him the many things of my law; But they were regarded as a strange thing. [13]As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; But YaHWeH doesn't accept them. Now he will remember their iniquity, And punish their sins. They will return to Egypt (Mitzrayim). [14]For Isreal (Yisrael) has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; And Judah (Yahudah) has multiplied fortified cities; But I will send a fire on his cities, And it will devour its fortresses."

Don't rejoice, Isreal (Yisrael), to jubilation like the nations; For you were unfaithful to your God. You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor. [2]The threshing floor and the winepress won't feed them, And the new wine will fail her. [3]They won't dwell in YaHWeH's land; But Ephraim (Efrayim) will return to Egypt (Mitzrayim), And they will eat unclean food in Ashshur. [4]They won't pour out wine offerings to YaHWeH, Neither will they be pleasing to him. Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners; All who eat of it will be polluted; For their bread will be for their appetite. It will not come into the house of YaHWeH. [5]What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, And in the day of the feast of YaHWeH? [6]For, behold, they have gone away from destruction. Egypt (Mitzrayim) will gather them up. Mof will bury them. Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver. Thorns will be in their tents. [7]The days of visitation have come. The days of reckoning have come. Isreal (Yisrael) will consider the prophet to be a fool, And the man who is inspired to be insane, Because of the abundance of your sins, And because your hostility is great. [8]A prophet watches over Ephraim (Efrayim) with my God. A fowler's snare is on all of his paths, And hostility in the house of his God. [9]They have deeply corrupted themselves, As in the days of Gebah. He will remember their iniquity. He will punish them for their sins. [10]I found Isreal (Yisrael) like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season; But they came to Ba`al-Pe`or, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, And became abominable like that which they loved. [11]As for Ephraim (Efrayim), their glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no birth, none with child, and no conception. [12]Though they bring up their children, Yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left. Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them! [13]Ephraim (Efrayim), like I have seen Tyrus (Tzor), is planted in a pleasant place; But Ephraim (Efrayim) will bring out his children to the killer. [14]Give them—YaHWeH what will you give? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. [15]"All their wickedness is in Gilgal; For there I hated them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house! I will love them no more. All their princes are rebels. [16]Ephraim (Efrayim) is struck. Their root has dried up. They will bear no fruit. Even though they bring forth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb." [17]My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him; And they will be wanderers among the nations.

Isreal (Yisrael) is a luxuriant vine that puts forth his fruit. According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars. As their land has prospered, they have

adorned their sacred stones. 2Their heart is divided. Now they will be found guilty. He will demolish their altars. He will destroy their sacred stones. 3Surely now they will say, "We have no king; for we don't fear YaHWeH; And the king, what can he do for us?" 4They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants. Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field. 5The inhabitants of Samaria (Shomron) will be in terror for the calves of Beit-Aven; For its people will mourn over it, Along with its Priests (Kohanim) who rejoiced over it, For its glory, because it has departed from it. 6It also will be carried to Ashshur for a present to a great king. Ephraim (Efrayim) will receive shame, And Isreal (Yisrael) will be ashamed of his own counsel. 7 Samaria (Shomron) and her king float away, Like a twig on the water. 8The high places also of Aven, the sin of Isreal (Yisrael), will be destroyed. The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars. They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!" and the hills, "Fall on us!" 9"Isreal (Yisrael), you have sinned from the days of Gebah. There they remained. The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gebah. 10When it is my desire, I will chastise them; And the nations will be gathered against them, When they are bound to their two transgressions. 11Ephraim (Efrayim) is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; So I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck. I will set a rider on Ephraim (Efrayim). Judah (Yahudah) will plow. Jacob (Yakob) will break his clods. 12Sow to yourselves in righteousness, Reap according to kindness. Break up your fallow ground; For it is time to seek YaHWeH, Until he comes and rains righteousness on you. 13You have plowed wickedness. You have reaped iniquity. You have eaten the fruit of lies, For you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. 14Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people, And all your fortresses will be destroyed, As Shalman destroyed Beit-Arbel in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces with her children. 15So Bethel (Beit-El) will do to you because of your great wickedness. At daybreak the king of Isreal (Yisrael) will be destroyed.

"When Isreal (Yisrael) was a child, then I loved him, And called my son out of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 2They called to them, so they went from them. They sacrificed to the Ba`alim, And burned incense to engraved images. 3Yet I taught Ephraim (Efrayim) to walk. I took them by his arms; But they didn't know that I healed them. 4I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love; And I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks; And I bent down to him and I fed him. 5"They won't return into the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim); But the Ashshur will be their king, Because they refused to repent. 6The sword will fall on their cities, And will consume their gate bars, And will put an end to their plans. 7My people are determined to turn from me. Though they call to Most high (Elyon), He certainly won't exalt them. 8"How can I give you up, Ephraim (Efrayim)? How can I hand you over, Isreal (Yisrael)? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Tzeboyim? My heart is turned within me, My compassion is aroused. [9]I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. I will not return to destroy Ephraim (Efrayim): For I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of you; And I will not come in wrath. [10]They will walk after YaHWeH, Who will roar like a lion; For he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west. [11]They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt (Mitzrayim), And like a dove out of the land of Ashshur; And I will settle them in their houses," says YaHWeH. [12]Ephraim (Efrayim) surrounds me with falsehood, And the house of Isreal (Yisrael) with deceit; And Judah (Yahudah) still us unruly with God, And is unfaithful to the Holy One.

Ephraim (Efrayim) feeds on wind, And chases the east wind. He continually multiplies lies and desolation. They make a covenant with Ashshur, And oil is carried into Egypt (Mitzrayim). [2]YaHWeH also has a controversy with Judah (Yahudah), And will punish Jacob (Yakob) according to his ways; According to his deeds he will repay him. [3]In the womb he took his brother by the heel; And in his manhood he had power with God. [4]Indeed, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; He wept, and made supplication to him. He found him at Beit-El, and there he spoke with us, [5]Even YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),; YaHWeH is his name of renown! [6]Therefore turn to your God. Keep kindness and justice, And wait for your God continually. [7]A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand. He loves to defraud. [8]Ephraim (Efrayim) said, "Surely I have become rich, I have found myself wealth. In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin." [9]"But I am YaHWeH your God from the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim). I will yet again make you to dwell in tents, As in the days of the solemn feast. [10]I have also spoken to the prophets, And I have multiplied visions; And by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables. [11]If Gil`ad is wicked, Surely they are worthless. In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field. [12]Jacob (Yakob) fled into the country of Aram, And Isreal (Yisrael) served to get a wife, And for a wife he tended flocks and herds. [13]By a prophet YaHWeH brought Isreal (Yisrael) up out of Egypt (Mitzrayim), And by a prophet he was preserved. [14]Ephraim (Efrayim) has provoked to anger most bitterly. Therefore his blood will be left on him, And his his Lord (Adonay) will repay his contempt.

When Ephraim (Efrayim) spoke, there was trembling. He exalted himself in Isreal (Yisrael), But when he became guilty in Ba`al, he died. [2]Now they sin more and more, And have made themselves molten images of their silver, Even idols according to their own understanding, All of them the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, "They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves." 3Therefore they will be like the morning cloud, And like the dew that passes away early, Like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, And like the smoke out of the chimney. 4"Yet I am YaHWeH your God from the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim); And you will know no god but me, And besides me there is no savior. 5I knew you in the wilderness, In the land of great drought. 6According to their pasture, so were they filled; They were filled, and their heart was exalted. Therefore they have forgotten me. 7Therefore am I to them like a lion; Like a leopard I will lurk by the path. 8I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs, And will tear the covering of their heart. And there I will devour them like a lioness. The wild animal will tear them. 9You are destroyed, Isreal (Yisrael), because you are against me, Against your help. 10Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities? And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?' 11I have given you a king in my anger, And have taken him away in my wrath. 12The guilt of Ephraim (Efrayim) is stored up. His sin is stored up. 13The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him. He is an unwise son; For when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb. 14I will ransom them from the power of She'ol. I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? She'ol, where is your destruction? Compassion will be hidden from my eyes. 15Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come, The breath of YaHWeH coming up from the wilderness; And his spring will become dry, And his fountain will be dried up. He will plunder the storehouse of treasure. 16 Samaria (Shomron) will bear her guilt; For she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed in pieces, And their pregnant women will be ripped open."

Isreal (Yisrael), return to YaHWeH your God; For you have fallen because of your sin. 2Take words with you, and return to YaHWeH. Tell him, "Forgive all our sins, And accept that which is good: So we offer like bulls our lips. 3Ashshur can't save us. We won't ride on horses; Neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!' For in you the fatherless finds mercy." 4"I will heal their waywardness. I will love them freely; For my anger is turned away from him. 5I will be like the dew to Isreal (Yisrael). He will blossom like the lily, And send down his roots like Lebanon. 6His branches will spread, And his beauty will be like the olive tree, And his fragrance like Lebanon. 7Men will dwell in his shade. They will revive like the grain, And blossom like the vine. Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon. 8Ephraim (Efrayim), what have I to do any more with idols? I answer, and will take care of him. I am like a green fir tree; From me your fruit is found." 9Who is wise, that he may understand these things? Who is prudent, that he may know them? For the ways of YaHWeH are right, And the righteous walk in them; But the rebellious stumble in them.

Notes:

Joel
(Yo'el)

The Word of YaHWeH that came to Yo'el, the son of Petu'el. 2Hear this, you Elders (Zakenim), And listen, all you inhabitants of the land. Has this ever happened in your days, Or in the days of your fathers? 3Tell your children about it, And have your children tell their children, And their children, another generation. 4What the swarming locust (arbeh) has left, the great locust (arbeh) has eaten. What the great locust (arbeh) has left, the cankerworm (khagav) has eaten. What the cankerworm (khagav) has left, the caterpillar has eaten. 5Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; For it is cut off from your mouth. 6For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number. His teeth are the teeth of a lion, And he has the fangs of a lioness. 7He has laid my vine waste, And stripped my fig tree. He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away. Its branches are made white. 8Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth! 9The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from YaHWeH's house. The Priests (Kohanim), YaHWeH's ministers, mourn. 10The field is laid waste. The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed, The new wine has dried up, And the oil languishes. 11Be confounded, you farmers! Wail, you vineyard keepers; For the wheat and for the barley; For the harvest of the field has perished. 12The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, Even all of the trees of the field are withered; For joy has withered away from the sons of men. 13Put on sackcloth and mourn, you Priests (Kohanim)! Wail, you ministers of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God, For the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house. 14Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Gather the Elders (Zakenim), And all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of YaHWeH, your God, And cry to YaHWeH. 15Alas for the day! For the day of YaHWeH is at hand, And it will come as destruction from Almighty (Shaddai). 16Isn't the food cut off before our eyes; Joy and gladness from the house of our God? 17The seeds rot under their clods. The granaries are laid desolate. The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered. 18How the animals groan! The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. 19YaHWeH, I cry to you, For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, And the flame has burned all the trees of the field. 20Yes, the animals of the field pant to you, For the water brooks have dried up, And the fire has devoured the pastures of the

Blow you the trumpet (shofar) in Zion (Tziyon), And sound an alarm in my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, For the day of YaHWeH comes, For it is close at hand: 2A day of darkness and gloominess, A day of clouds and thick darkness. As the dawn spreading on the mountains, A great and strong people; There has never been the like, Neither will there be any more after them, Even to the years of many generations. 3A fire devours before them, And behind them, a flame burns. The land is as the garden of `Eden before them, And behind them, a desolate wilderness. Yes, and no one has escaped them. 4The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses, And as horsemen, so do they run. 5Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, Like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, As a strong people set in battle array. 6At their presence the peoples are in anguish. All faces have grown pale. 7They run like mighty men. They climb the wall like warriors. They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course. 8Neither does one jostle another; They march everyone in his path, And they burst through the defenses, And don't break ranks. 9They rush on the city. They run on the wall. They climb up into the houses. They enter in at the windows like thieves. 10The earth quakes before them. The heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, And the stars withdraw their shining. 11YaHWeH thunders his voice before his army; For his forces are very great; For he is strong who obeys his command; For the day of YaHWeH is great and very awesome, And who can endure it? 12"Yet even now," says YaHWeH, "turn to me with all your heart, And with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning." 13Tear your heart, and not your garments, And turn to YaHWeH, your God; For he is gracious and merciful, Slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, And relents from sending calamity. 14Who knows? He may turn and relent, And leave a blessing behind him, Even a meal offering and a drink offering to YaHWeH, your God. 15Blow the trumpet (shofar) in Zion (Tziyon)! Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. 16Gather the people. Sanctify the assembly. Assemble the Elders (Zakenim). Gather the children, and those who suck the breasts. Let the bridegroom go forth from his room, And the bride out of her chamber. 17Let the Priests (Kohanim), the ministers of YaHWeH, weep between the porch and the altar, And let them say, "Spare your people, YaHWeH, And don't give your heritage to reproach, That the nations should rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'" 18Then YaHWeH was jealous for his land, And had pity on his people. 19YaHWeH answered his people, "Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil, And you will be satisfied with them; And I will no more make you a reproach among the nations. 20But I will remove the northern army far away from you, And will drive it into a barren and desolate land, Its front into the eastern sea, And its back into the western sea; And its stench will come up, And its bad smell will rise." Surely he has done great things. 21Land, don't be afraid. Be glad and rejoice, for YaHWeH has done great things. 22Don't be afraid, you animals of the field; For the pastures of the wilderness spring up, For the tree bears its fruit. The fig tree and the vine yield their strength. 23"Be glad then, you children of Zion (Tziyon), And rejoice in YaHWeH, your God; For he gives you the former rain in just measure, And he causes the rain to come down for you, The former rain and the latter rain, As before. 24The threshing floors will be full of wheat, And the vats will overflow with new wine and oil. 25I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust (arbeh) has eaten, The great locust (arbeh), the cankerworm (khagav), and the caterpillar, My great army, which I sent among you. 26You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, And will praise the name of YaHWeH, your God, Who has dealt wondrously with you; And my people will never again be disappointed. 27You will know that I am in the midst of Isreal (Yisrael), And that I am YaHWeH, your God, and there is no one else; And my people will never again be disappointed. 28"It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; And your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions. 29And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days, I will pour out my Spirit. 30I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: Blood, fire, and pillars of smoke. 31The sun will be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the great and terrible day of YaHWeH comes. 32It will happen that whoever will call on the name of YaHWeH shall be saved; For in Mount Zion (Tziyon) and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) there will be those who escape, As YaHWeH has said, And among the remnant, those whom YaHWeH calls.

"For, behold, in those days, And in that time, When I restore the fortunes of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), 2I will gather all nations, And will bring them down into the valley of Yehoshafat; And I will execute judgment on them there for my people, And for my heritage, Isreal (Yisrael), whom they have scattered among the nations. They have divided my land, 3And have cast lots for my people, And have given a boy for a prostitute, And sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. 4"Yes, and what are you to me, Tyrus (Tzor), and Tzidon, And all the regions of PeleSeth (Sheth)? Will you repay me? And if you repay me, I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head. 5Because you have taken my silver and my gold, And have carried my finest treasures into your temples, 6And have sold the children of Judah (Yahudah) and the children of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to the sons of the Yevanim, That you may remove them far from their border. 7Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, And will return your repayment on your own head; 8And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah (Yahudah), And they will sell them to the men of Sheba, To a faraway nation, For YaHWeH has spoken it." 9Proclaim this among the nations: Prepare war. Stir up the mighty men. Let all the warriors draw near. Let them come up. 10Beat your plowshares into swords, And your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak say, “I am strong.” 11Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, And gather yourselves together.” Cause your mighty ones to come down there, YaHWeH. 12“Let the nations arouse themselves, And come up to the valley of Yehoshafat; For there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations. 13Put in the sickle; For the harvest is ripe. Come, tread, for the winepress is full, The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.” 14Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of YaHWeH is near, in the valley of decision. 15The sun and the moon are darkened, And the stars withdraw their shining.” 16YaHWeH will roar from Zion (Tziyon), And thunder from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); And the heavens and the earth will shake; But YaHWeH will be a refuge to his people, And a stronghold to the children of Isreal (Yisrael). 17“So you will know that I am YaHWeH, your God, Dwelling in Zion (Tziyon), my holy mountain. Then Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will be holy, And no strangers will pass through her any more. 18It will happen in that day, That the mountains will drop down sweet wine, The hills will flow with milk, All the brooks of Judah (Yahudah) will flow with waters; And a fountain will come forth from the house of YaHWeH, And will water the valley of Shittim. 19Egypt (Mitzrayim) will be a desolation, And Edom will be a desolate wilderness, For the violence done to the children of Judah (Yahudah), Because they have shed innocent blood in their land. 20But Judah (Yahudah) will be inhabited forever, And Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) from generation to generation. 21I will cleanse their blood, That I have not cleansed: For YaHWeH dwells in Zion (Tziyon).”

Notes:

Amos

The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Isreal (Yisrael) in the days of `Uzziyah king of Judah (Yahudah), and in the days of Yarobam the son of Yo'ash king of Isreal (Yisrael), two years before the earthquake. 2He said:

"YaHWeH will roar from Zion (Tziyon), And utter his voice from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); And the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, And the top of Karmel will wither." 3Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of Damascus (Dammesek), yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because they have threshed Gil`ad with threshing instruments of iron; 4But I will send a fire into the house of Haza'el, And it will devour the palaces of Ben-Hadad. 5I will break the bar of Damascus (Dammesek), And cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, And him who holds the scepter from the house of `Eden; And the people of Aram shall go into captivity to Kir," says YaHWeH.
6Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of Gaza (`Aza), yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because they carried away captive the whole community, To deliver them up to Edom; 7But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza (`Aza), And it will devour its palaces. 8I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, And him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; And I will turn my hand against `Ekron; And the remnant of the Philistines (Pelishtim) will perish," says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 9Thus says YaHWeH:
"For three transgressions of Tyrus (Tzor), yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because they delivered up the whole community to Edom, And didn't remember the brotherly covenant; 10But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus (Tzor), And it will devour its palaces." 11Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because he pursued his brother with the sword, And cast off all pity, And his anger raged continually, And he kept his wrath forever; 12But I will send a fire on Teman, And it will devour the palaces of Botzrah." 13Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of the children of `Ammon, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment; Because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gil`ad, That they may enlarge their border. 14But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, And it will devour its palaces, With shouting in the day of battle, With a tempest in the day of the whirlwind; 15And their king will go into captivity, He and his princes

Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime; 2But I will send a fire on Moab, And it will devour the palaces of Keriyot; And Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet (shofar); 3And I will cut off the judge from their midst, And will kill all its princes with him," says YaHWeH. 4Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of Judah (Yahudah), yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because they have rejected Yaweh's law, And have not kept his statutes, And their lies have led them astray, After which their fathers walked; 5But I will send a fire on Judah (Yahudah), And it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)." 6Thus says YaHWeH: "For three transgressions of Isreal (Yisrael), yes, for four, I will not turn away its punishment; Because they have sold the righteous for silver, And the needy for a pair of shoes; 7They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, And deny justice to the oppressed; And a man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy name; 8And they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge; And in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined. 9Yet I destroyed the Amori before them, Whose height was like the height of the cedars, And he was strong as the oaks; Yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. 10Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) And led you forty years in the wilderness, To possess the land of the Amori. 11I raised up some of your sons for prophets, And some of your young men for Nazarite (Nazir)im. Isn't this true, You children of Isreal (Yisrael)?" says YaHWeH. 12"But you gave the Nazarite (Nazir)im wine to drink, And commanded the prophets, saying, 'Don't prophesy!' 13Behold, I will crush you in your place, As a cart crushes that is full of grain. 14Flight will perish from the swift; And the strong won't strengthen his force; Neither shall the mighty deliver himself; 15Neither shall he stand who handles the bow; And he who is swift of foot won't escape; Neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself; 16And he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked in that day," says YaHWeH.

Hear this word that YaHWeH has spoken against you, children of Isreal (Yisrael), against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), saying: 2"You only have I chosen of all the families of the earth. Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins." 3Do two walk together, Unless they have agreed? 4Will a lion roar in the thicket, When he has no prey? Does a young lion cry out of his den, If he has caught nothing? 5Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth, Where no snare is set for him? Does a snare spring up from the ground, When there is nothing to catch? 6Does the trumpet (shofar) alarm sound in a city, Without the people being afraid? Does evil happen to a city, And YaHWeH hasn't done it? 7Surely Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH will do nothing, Unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets. 8The lion has roared. Who will not fear? Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH has spoken. Who can but prophesy? 9Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, And in the palaces in the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), And say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria (Shomron), And see what unrest is in her, And what oppression is among them." 10"Indeed they don't know to do right," says YaHWeH, "Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces." 11Therefore thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : "An adversary will overrun the land; And he will pull down your strongholds, And your fortresses will be plundered." 12Thus says YaHWeH: "As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, Or a piece of an ear, So shall the children of Isreal (Yisrael) be rescued who sit in Samaria (Shomron) on the corner of a couch, And on the silken cushions of a bed." 13"Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob (Yakob)," says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , the God of Host (Tzba'ot),. 14"For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Isreal (Yisrael) on him, I will also visit the altars of Beit-El; And the horns of the altar will be cut off, And fall to the ground. 15I will strike the winter house with the summer house; And the houses of ivory will perish, And the great houses will have an end," says YaHWeH.

Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria (Shomron), who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their lords, "Bring, and let us drink." 2Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH has sworn by his holiness that behold, "The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, And the last of you with fish hooks. 3You will go out at the breaks in the wall, Everyone straight before her; And you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says YaHWeH. 4"Go to Beit-El, and sin; To Gilgal, and sin more. Bring your sacrifices every morning, Your tithes every three days, 5Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, And proclaim free will offerings and brag about them: For this pleases you, you children of Isreal (Yisrael)," says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 6"I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, And lack of bread in every town; Yet you haven't returned to me," says YaHWeH. 7"I also have withheld the rain from you, When there were yet three months to the harvest; And I caused it to rain on one city, And caused it not to rain on another city. One place was rained on, And the piece where it didn't rain withered. 8So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water, And were not satisfied: Yet you haven't returned to me," says YaHWeH. 9I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards; And your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust (arbeh) devoured: Yet you haven't returned to me," says YaHWeH. 10I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt (Mitzrayim). I have slain your young men with the sword, And have carried away your horses; And I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp Yet you haven't returned to me," says YaHWeH. 11"I have overthrown some of you, As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah (Amorah), And you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire; Yet you haven't returned to me," says YaHWeH. 12"Therefore thus will I do to you, Isreal (Yisrael); Because I will do this to you, Prepare to meet your God, Isreal (Yisrael). 13For, behold, he who forms the mountains, And creates the wind, And declares to man what is his thought; Who makes the morning darkness, And treads on the high places of the Earth: YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),, is his name."

Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Isreal (Yisrael). 2"The virgin of Isreal (Yisrael) has fallen; She shall rise no more. She is cast down on her land; There is no one to raise her up." 3For thus says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH : "The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, And that which went forth one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Isreal (Yisrael)." 4For thus says YaHWeH to the house of Isreal (Yisrael): "Seek me, and you will live; 5But don't seek Beit-El, Nor enter into Gilgal, And don't pass to Be'er-Sheba: For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, And Bethel (Beit-El) shall come to nothing. 6Seek YaHWeH, and you will live; Lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph (Yosef), And it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Beit-El. 7You who turn justice to wormwood, And cast down righteousness to the earth: 8Seek him who made the Kima and Kesil, And turns the shadow of death into the morning, And makes the day dark with night; Who calls for the waters of the sea, And pours them out on the surface of the earth, YaHWeH is his name, 9Who brings sudden destruction on the strong, So that destruction comes on the fortress. 10They hate him who reproves in the gate, And they abhor him who speaks blamelessly. 11Forasmuch therefore as you trample on the poor, And take taxes from him of wheat: You have built houses of hewn stone, But you will not dwell in them. You have planted pleasant vineyards, But you shall not drink their wine. 12For I know how many your offenses, And how great are your sins— You who afflict the just, Who take a bribe, And who turn aside the needy in the courts. 13Therefore he who is prudent shall keep silence in such a time; For it is an evil time. 14Seek good, and not evil, That you may live; And so YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),, will be with you, As you say. 15Hate evil, love good, And establish justice in the courts. It may be that YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph (Yosef)." 16Therefore thus says YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),, YaHWeH: "Wailing will be in all the broad ways; And they will say in all the streets, 'Alas! Alas!' And they will call the farmer to mourning, And those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing. 17In all vineyards there will be wailing; For I will pass through the midst of you," says YaHWeH. 18"Woe to you who desire the day of YaHWeH! Why do you long for the day of YaHWeH? It is darkness, And not light. 19As if a man fled from a lion, And a bear met him; Or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, And a snake bit him. 20Will the day of YaHWeH not be darkness, and not light? Even very dark, and no brightness in it? 21I hate, I despise your feasts, And I can't stand your solemn assemblies. 22Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal-offerings, I will not accept them; Neither will I regard the shalom offerings of your fat animals. 23Take away from me the noise of your songs! I will not listen to the music of your harps. 24But let justice roll on like rivers, And righteousness like a mighty stream. 25"Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Isreal (Yisrael)? 26Yes, you have borne the tent of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves. 27Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus (Dammesek)," says YaHWeH, whose name is the God of Host (Tzba'ot),.

Woe to those who are at ease in Zion (Tziyon), And to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria (Shomron), The notable men of the chief of the nations, To whom the house of Isreal (Yisrael) come! 2Go to Kalneh, and see; And from there go to Hamat the great; Then go down to Gat of the Philistines (Pelishtim). Are they better than these kingdoms? Or is their border greater than your border? 3Those who put far away the evil day, And cause the seat of violence to come near; 4Who lie on beds of ivory, And stretch themselves on their couches, And eat the lambs out of the flock, And the calves out of the midst of the stall; 5Who strum on the strings of a harp; Who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David; 6Who drink wine in bowls, And anoint themselves with the best oils; But they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph (Yosef). 7Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive; And the feasting and lounging will end. 8"Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH has sworn by himself," says YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),: "I abhor the pride of Jacob (Yakob), And detest his fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it. 9It will happen, if there remain ten men in one house, That they shall die. 10"When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?' And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention the name of YaHWeH.' 11"For, behold, YaHWeH commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, And the little house into bits. 12Do horses run on the rocky crags? Does one plow there with oxen? But you have turned justice into poison, And the fruit of righteousness into bitterness; 13You who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, 'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?' 14For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Isreal (Yisrael)," Says YaHWeH, the God of Host (Tzba'ot),; "And they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamat to the brook of the

Thus Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH showed me: and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, behold, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest. 2It happened that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob (Yakob) stand? For he is small." 3YaHWeH relented concerning this. "It shall not be," says YaHWeH. 4Thus Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH showed me and, behold, Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. 5Then I said, "Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob (Yakob) stand? For he is small." 6YaHWeH relented concerning this. "This also shall not be," says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH . 7Thus he showed me and, behold, YaHWeH stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. 8YaHWeH said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then YaHWeH said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Isreal (Yisrael). I will not again pass by them any more. 9The high places of Isaac (Yitzchak) will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Isreal (Yisrael) will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Yarobam with the sword." 10Then Amatzyah the Priest of Bethel (Beit-El) sent to Yarobam king of Isreal (Yisrael), saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Isreal (Yisrael). The land is not able to bear all his words. 11For Amos says, 'Yarobam will die by the sword, and Isreal (Yisrael) shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'" 12Amatzyah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah (Yahudah), and there eat bread, and prophesy there: 13but don't prophesy again any more at Beit-El; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!" 14Then Amos answered Amatzyah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore trees; 15and YaHWeH took me from following the flock, and YaHWeH said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Isreal (Yisrael).' 16Now therefore listen to the word of YaHWeH: 'You say, Don't prophesy against Isreal (Yisrael), and don't preach against the house of Isaac (Yitzchak).' 17Therefore thus says YaHWeH: 'Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Isreal (Yisrael) shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

Thus Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2He said, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then YaHWeH said to me, "The end has come on my people Isreal (Yisrael). I will not again pass by them any more. 3The songs of the temple will be wailings in that day," says Lord (Adonay)

YaHWeH . "The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence. 4Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, And cause the poor of the land to fail, 5Saying, 'When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? And the Shabbat, that we may market wheat, Making the efah small, and the shekel large, And dealing falsely with balances of deceit; 6That we may buy the poor for silver, And the needy for a pair of shoes, And sell the sweepings with the wheat?'" 7YaHWeH has sworn by the pride of Jacob (Yakob), "Surely I will never forget any of their works. 8Won't the land tremble for this, And everyone mourn who dwells in it? Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River; And it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 9"It will happen in that day," says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , "That I will cause the sun to go down at noon, And I will darken the earth in the clear day. 10I will turn your feasts into mourning, And all your songs into lamentation; And I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies, And baldness on every head. I will make it like the mourning for an only son, And the end of it like a bitter day. 11Behold, the days come," says Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , "That I will send a famine in the land, Not a famine of bread, Nor a thirst for water, But of hearing the words of YaHWeH. 12They will wander from sea to sea, And from the north even to the east; They will run back and forth to seek the word of YaHWeH, And will not find it. 13In that day the beautiful virgins And the young men will faint for thirst. 14Those who swear by the sin of Samaria (Shomron), And say, 'As your god, Dan, lives;' And, 'As the way of Be'er-Sheba lives;' They will fall, and never rise up again."

I saw YaHWeH standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. 2Though they dig into She'ol, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. 3Though they hide themselves in the top of Karmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. 4Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good. 5For the Lord (Adonay) (Adoni), YaHWeH of Hosts, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 6It is he who builds his chambers in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; YaHWeH is his name. 7Are you not like the children of the Kushim to me, children of Isreal (Yisrael)?" says YaHWeH. "Haven't I brought up Isreal (Yisrael) out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and the Philistines (Pelishtim) from Kaftor, and the Aram from Kir? 8Behold, the eyes of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob (Yakob)," says YaHWeH. 9"For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Isreal (Yisrael) among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth. 10All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil won't overtake nor meet us.' 11In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; 12that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says YaHWeH who does this. 13"Behold, the days come," says YaHWeH, "That the plowman shall overtake the reaper, And the one treading grapes him who sows seed; And sweet wine will drip from the mountains, And flow from the hills. 14I will bring back the captivity of my people Isreal (Yisrael), And they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them. They shall also make gardens, And eat the fruit of them. 15I will plant them on their land, And they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says YaHWeH your God.

Note:

Obadiah

The vision of Obadiah (Obadyah). This is what Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH says about Edom. We have heard news from YaHWeH, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, "Arise, and let's rise up against her in battle. 2Behold, I have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. 3The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, 'Who will bring me down to the ground?' 4Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there, says YaHWeH. 5If thieves came to you, if robbers by night— oh, what disaster awaits you— wouldn't they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn't they leave some gleaning grapes? 6How Esaw will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out! 7All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at shalom with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him.

8"Won't I in that day," says YaHWeH, "destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esaw? 9Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esaw by slaughter. 10For the violence done to your brother Jacob (Yakob), shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. 11In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), even you were like one of them. 12But don't look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don't rejoice over the children of Judah (Yahudah) in the day of their destruction. Don't speak proudly in the day of distress. 13Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don't look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. 14Don't stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don't deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. 15For the day of YaHWeH is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. 16For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been.

17But in Mount Zion (Tziyon), there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob (Yakob) will possess their possessions. 18The house of Jacob (Yakob) will be a fire, the house of Joseph (Yosef) a flame, and the house of Esaw for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esaw." Indeed, YaHWeH has spoken.

19Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esaw, and those of the lowland, the Philistines (Pelishtim). They will possess the field of Ephraim (Efrayim), and the field of Samaria (Shomron). Benjamin (Binyamin) will possess Gil`ad. 20The captives of this host of the children of Isreal (Yisrael), who are among the Canaanites (Kanaan), will possess even to Tzarfat; and the captives of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), who are in Sefarad, will possess the cities of the Negeb. 21Saviors will go up on Mount Zion (Tziyon) to judge the mountains of Esaw, and the kingdom will be YaHWeH's.

Jonah

Now the word of YaHWeH came to Yonah the son of Ammittai, saying, [2]"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me."

[3]But Yonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of YaHWeH. He went down to Yafo, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of YaHWeH. [4]But YaHWeH sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. [5]Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea, to lighten it. But Yonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. [6]So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your gods! Maybe the gods will notice us, so that we won't perish."

[7]They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Yonah. [8]Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?"

[9]He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear YaHWeH, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."

[10]Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of YaHWeH, because he had told them. [11]Then said they to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. [12]He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great tempest is on you."

[13]Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. [14]Therefore they cried to YaHWeH, and said, "We beg you, YaHWeH, we beg you, let us not perish for this man's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, YaHWeH, have done as it pleased you."

15So they took up Yonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. 16Then the men feared YaHWeH exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to YaHWeH, and made vows.

17YaHWeH prepared a great fish to swallow up Yonah, and Yonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Then Yonah prayed to YaHWeH, his God, out of the fish's belly. 2He said, "I called because of my affliction to YaHWeH. He answered me. Out of the belly of She'ol I cried.
You heard my voice. 3For you threw me into the depths, In the heart of the seas. The flood was all around me. All your waves and your billows passed over me. 4I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; Yet I will look again toward your holy temple.' 5The waters surrounded me, Even to the soul. The deep was around me. The weeds were wrapped around my head. 6I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. The earth barred me in forever: Yet have you brought up my life from the pit, YaHWeH my God. 7"When my soul fainted within me, I remembered YaHWeH. My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple. 8Those who regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy. 9But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving. I will pay that which I have vowed.
Salvation belongs to YaHWeH." 10YaHWeH spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Yonah on the dry land.

The word of YaHWeH came to Yonah the second time, saying, 2"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you."

3So Yonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of YaHWeH. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. 4Yonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!"

5The people of Nineveh beliEbed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. 6The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. 7He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; 8but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. 9Who knows whether God will not turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?"

10God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God repented of the evil which he said he would do to them, and he didn't do it.

But it displeased Yonah exceedingly, and he was angry. 2He prayed to YaHWeH, and said, "Please, YaHWeH, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you repent of the evil. 3Therefore now, YaHWeH, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live."

4YaHWeH said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

5Then Yonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. 6YaHWeH God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Yonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Yonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. 7But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. 8It happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Yonah's head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

9God said to Yonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?"

He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death."

10YaHWeH said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. 11Shouldn't I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?"

Notes:

Micah

1

The word of YaHWeH that came to Mikhah the Morashti in the days of Yotam, Achaz, and Hezekiah (Hizkiyah), kings of Judah (Yahudah), which he saw concerning Samaria (Shomron) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Hear, you peoples, all of you. Listen, O earth, and all that is therein: And let Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH be witness against you, YaHWeH from his holy temple. 3For, behold, YaHWeH comes forth out of his place, And will come down and tread on the high places of the earth. 4The mountains melt under him, And the valleys split apart, Like wax before the fire, Like waters that are poured down a steep place. 5"All this is for the disobedience of Jacob (Yakob), And for the sins of the house of Isreal (Yisrael). What is the disobedience of Jacob (Yakob)? Isn't it Samaria (Shomron)? And what are the high places of Judah (Yahudah)? Aren't they Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)? 6Therefore I will make Samaria (Shomron) like a rubble heap of the field, Like places for planting vineyards; And I will pour down its stones into the valley, And I will uncover its foundations. 7All her idols will be beaten to pieces, And all her temple gifts will be burned with fire, And all her images I will destroy; For of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them, And to the hire of a prostitute shall they return." 8For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will howl like the jackals, And moan like the daughters of owls. 9For her wounds are incurable; For it has come even to Judah (Yahudah). It reaches to the gate of my people, Even to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 10Don't tell it in Gat, Don't weep at all. At Beit-La`afrah I have rolled myself in the dust. 11Pass on, inhabitant of Shafir, in nakedness and shame. The inhabitant of Tza'anan won't come out. The wailing of Beit-Ha`etzel will take from you his protection. 12For the inhabitant of Marot waits anxiously for good, Because evil has come down from YaHWeH to the gate of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 13Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lakhish. She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion (Tziyon); For the transgressions of Isreal (Yisrael) were found in you. 14Therefore you will give a parting gift to MoreSeth (Sheth)-Gat. The houses of Akhziv will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Isreal (Yisrael). 15I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah, He who is the glory of Isreal (Yisrael) will come to `Adullam. 16Shave your heads, And cut off your hair for the children of your delight. Enlarge your baldness like the eagle. For they have gone into captivity from you!

Woe to those who devise iniquity And work evil on their beds! When the morning is light, they practice it, Because it is in the power of their hand. 2They covet fields, and seize them; And houses, and take them away: And they oppress a man and his house, Even a man and his heritage. 3Therefore thus says YaHWeH: "Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, From which you will not remove your necks, Neither will you walk haughtily; For it is an evil time. 4In that day they will take up a parable against you, And lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, 'We are utterly ruined! My people's possession is divided up. Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!'" 5Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in the assembly of YaHWeH.
6"Don't you prophesy!" They prophesy. "Don't prophesy about these things. Disgrace won't overtake us." 7Shall it be said, O house of Jacob (Yakob): "Is the Spirit of YaHWeH angry? Are these his doings? Don't my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?" 8But lately my people have risen up as an enemy. You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle. 9You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses; From their young children you take away my blessing forever. 10Arise, and depart! For this is not your resting place, Because of uncleanness that destroys, Even with a grievous destruction. 11If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies: 'I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;' He would be the prophet of this people. 12I will surely assemble, Jacob (Yakob), all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Isreal (Yisrael); I will put them together as the sheep of Botzrah, As a flock in the midst of their pasture; They will swarm with people. 13He who breaks open the way goes up before them. They break through the gate, and go out. And their king passes on before them, With YaHWeH at their head."

I said, "Please listen, you heads of Jacob (Yakob), And rulers of the house of Isreal (Yisrael): Isn't it for you to know justice? 2You who hate the good, And love the evil; Who tear off their skin, And their flesh from off their bones; 3Who also eat the flesh of my people, And flay their skin from off them, And break their bones, And chop them in pieces, as for the pot, And as flesh within the caldron. 4Then they will cry to YaHWeH, But he will not answer them. Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, Because they made their deeds evil." 5Thus says YaHWeH concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Shalom!" and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him: 6"Therefore night is over you, with no vision, And it is dark to you, that you may not divine; And the sun will go down on the prophets, And the day will be black over them. 7The seers shall be disappointed, And the diviners confounded. Yes, they shall all cover their lips; For there is no answer from God." 8But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of YaHWeH, And of judgment, and of might, To declare to Jacob (Yakob) his disobedience, And to Isreal (Yisrael) his sin. 9Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob (Yakob), And rulers of the house of Isreal (Yisrael), Who abhor justice, And pervert all equity. 10They build up Zion (Tziyon) with blood, And Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with iniquity. 11Her leaders judge for bribes, And her Priests (Kohanim) teach for a price, And her prophets of it tell forturnes for money: Yet they lean on YaHWeH, and say, Isn't YaHWeH in the midst of us? No disaster will come on us. 12Therefore Zion (Tziyon) for your sake will be plowed like a field, And Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will become heaps of rubble, And the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

But in the latter days, It will happen that the mountain of YaHWeH's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, And it will be exalted above the hills; And peoples will stream to it. 2Many nations will go and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of YaHWeH, And to the house of the God of Jacob (Yakob); And he will teach us of his ways, And we will walk in his paths." For out of Zion (Tziyon) will go forth the law, And the word of YaHWeH from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); 3And he will judge between many peoples, And will decide concerning strong nations afar off. They will beat their swords into plowshares, And their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, Neither will they learn war any more. 4But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; And no one will make them afraid: For the mouth of YaHWeH of Hosts has spoken. 5Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods; But we will walk in the name of YaHWeH our God forever and ever. 6"In that day," says YaHWeH, "I will assemble that which is lame, And I will gather that which is driven away, And that which I have afflicted; 7And I will make that which was lame a remnant, And that which was cast far off a strong nation: And YaHWeH will reign over them on Mount Zion (Tziyon) from then on, even forever. 8You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion (Tziyon), To you it will come, Yes, the former dominion will come, The kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 9Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, That pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail? 10Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, daughter of Zion (Tziyon), Like a woman in travail; For now you will go forth out of the city, And will dwell in the field, And will come even to Babel. There you will be rescued. There YaHWeH will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. 11Now many nations have assembled against you, that say, 'Let her be defiled, And let our eye gloat over Zion (Tziyon).' 12But they don't know the thoughts of YaHWeH, Neither do they understand his counsel; For he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor. 13Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion (Tziyon); For I will make your horn iron, And I will make your hoofs brass; And you will beat in pieces many peoples: And I will devote their gain to YaHWeH, And their substance to YaHWeH of the whole earth.

Now you shall gather yourself in troops, Daughter of troops. He has laid siege against us; They will strike the judge of Isreal (Yisrael) with a rod on the cheek. 2But you, Beit-Lechem Efratah, Being small among the clans of Judah (Yahudah), Out of you one will come forth to me that is to be ruler in Isreal (Yisrael); Whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting. 3Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth. Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Isreal (Yisrael). 4He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of YaHWeH, In the majesty of the name of YaHWeH his God: And they will live, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth. 5He will be our shalom when Ashshur invades our land, And when he marches through our fortresses, Then we will raise against him seven shepherds, And eight leaders of men. 6They will rule the land of Ashshur with the sword, And the land of Nimrod in its gates. He will deliver us from the Ashshur, When he invades our land, And when he marches within our border. 7The remnant of Jacob (Yakob) will be in the midst of many peoples, Like dew from YaHWeH, Like showers on the grass, That don't wait for man, Nor wait for the sons of men. 8The remnant of Jacob (Yakob) will be among the nations, In the midst of many peoples, Like a lion among the animals of the forest, Like a young lion among the flocks of sheep; Who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, And there is no one to deliver. 9Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, And let all of your enemies be cut off. 10"It will happen in that day," says YaHWeH, "That I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you, And will destroy your chariots. 11I will cut off the cities of your land, And will tear down all your strongholds. 12I will destroy witchcraft from your hand; And you shall have no soothsayers. 13I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out of your midst; And you shall no more worship the work of your hands. 14I will uproot your Asherim out of your midst; And I will destroy your cities. 15I will execute vengeance in anger, And wrath on the nations that didn't listen."

Listen now to what YaHWeH says: "Arise, plead your case before the mountains, And let the hills hear what you have to say. 2Hear, you mountains, YaHWeH's controversy, And you enduring foundations of the earth; For YaHWeH has a controversy with his people, And he will contend with Isreal (Yisrael). 3My people, what have I done to you? How have I burdened you? Answer me! 4For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), And redeemed you out of the house of bondage. I sent before you Moses (Moshe), Aharon, and Miryam. 5My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, And what Bil`am the son of Be'or answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, That you may know the righteous acts of YaHWeH." 6How shall I come before YaHWeH, And bow myself before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, With calves a year old? 7Will YaHWeH be pleased with thousands of rams? With tens of thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience? The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? 8He has shown you, O man, what is good. What does YaHWeH require of you, but to act justly, To love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God? 9YaHWeH's voice calls to the city, And wisdom sees your name: "Listen to the rod, And he who appointed it. 10Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, And a short efah that is accursed? 11Shall I be pure with dishonest scales, And with a bag of deceitful weights? 12Her rich men are full of violence, Her inhabitants speak lies, And their tongue is deceitful in their speech. 13Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound. I have made you desolate because of your sins. 14You shall eat, but not be satisfied. Your humiliation will be in your midst. You will store up, but not save; And that which you save I will give up to the sword. 15You will sow, but won't reap. You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil; And crush grapes, but won't drink the wine. 16For the statutes of `Omri are kept, And all the works of the house of Ahab (Ach'ab). You walk in their counsels, That I may make you a ruin, And her inhabitants a hissing; And you will bear the reproach of my people."

Misery is mine! Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vinyard: There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My soul desires to eat the early fig. 2The godly man has perished out of the earth, And there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; Every man hunts his brother with a net. 3Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. The ruler and judge ask for a bribe; And the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul. Thus they conspire together. 4The best of them is like a brier. The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchmen, Even your visitation, has come; Now is the time of their confusion. 5Don't trust in a neighbor. Don't put confidence in a friend. With the woman lying in your embrace, Be careful of the words of your mouth! 6For the son dishonors the father, The daughter rises up against her mother, The daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; A man's enemies are the men of his own house. 7But as for me, I will look to YaHWeH. I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me. 8Don't rejoice against me, my enemy. When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, YaHWeH will be a light to me.

9I will bear the indignation of YaHWeH, Because I have sinned against him, Until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me. He will bring me forth to the light. I will see his righteousness. 10Then my enemy will see it, And shame will cover her who said to me, Where is YaHWeH your God? Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame. Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets. 11A day to build your walls— In that day, he will extend your boundary. 12In that day they will come to you from Ashshur and the cities of Egypt (Mitzrayim), And from Egypt (Mitzrayim) even to the River, And from sea to sea, And mountain to mountain. 13Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein, For the fruit of their doings. 14Shepherd your people with your staff, The flock of your heritage, Who dwell by themselves in a forest, In the midst of fertile pasture land, let them feed; In Bashan and Gil`ad, as in the days of old.
15"As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), I will show them marvelous things." 16The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might. They will lay their hand on their mouth. Their ears will be deaf. 17They will lick the dust like a serpent. Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.
They will come with fear to YaHWeH our God, And will be afraid because of you. 18Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, And passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage? He doesn't retain his anger forever, Because he delights in loving kindness. 19He will again have compassion on us. He will tread our iniquities under foot;
And you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. 20You will give truth to Jacob (Yakob), and mercy to Abraham, As you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

An oracle about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nachum the Elkoshite.

2YaHWeH is a jealous God and avenges. YaHWeH avenges and is full of wrath. YaHWeH takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies.

3YaHWeH is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. YaHWeH has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Karmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes.

5The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it.

6Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him.

7YaHWeH is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him.

8But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.

9What do you plot against YaHWeH? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time.

10For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble.

11There is one gone forth out of you, who devises evil against YaHWeH, who counsels wickedness.

12Thus says YaHWeH: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.

13Now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart."

14YaHWeH has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

15Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes shalom! Keep your feasts, Judah (Yahudah)! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your loins! Fortify your power mightily!

2For YaHWeH restores the excellency of Jacob (Yakob), as the excellency of Isreal (Yisrael); for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches.

3The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished.

4The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the broad ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings.

5He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place.

6The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved.

7It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts.

8But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back.

9Take the spoil of silver. Take the spoil of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture.

10She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale.

11Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid

12The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey.

13"Behold, I am against you," says YaHWeH of Hosts, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart.

2The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots,

3the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, 4because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft.

5"Behold, I am against you," says YaHWeH of Hosts, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame.

6I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle.

7It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?"

8Are you better than No-Amon, who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea?

[9]Kush and Egypt (Mitzrayim) were her boundless strength. Put and Lubim were her helpers.

[10]Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

[11]You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy.

[12]All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.

[13]Behold, your troops in your midst are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars.

[14]Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong.

[15]There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the cankerworm (khagav). Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust (arbeh).

[16]You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away.

[17]Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

[18]Your shepherds slumber, king of Ashshur. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.

[19]There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

Notes:

The oracle which Habakkuk the prophet saw. 2YaHWeH, how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you "Violence!" and will you not save? 3Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. 4Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never goes forth; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice goes forth perverted.

5"Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you. 6For, behold, I raise up the Kasdim, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. 7They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. 8Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. 9All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. 10Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. 11Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god."

12Aren't you from everlasting, YaHWeH my God, my Holy One? We will not die. YaHWeH, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. 13You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, 14and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? 15He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. 16Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. 17Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

2YaHWeH answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he may run who reads it. 3For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay. 4Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith. 5Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. A haughty man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as She'ol, and he is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. 6Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?' 7Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? 8Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. 9Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! 10You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. 11For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. 12Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity!
13Behold, isn't it of YaHWeH of Hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? 14For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of YaHWeH, as the waters cover the sea.

15"Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! 16You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of YaHWeH's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. 17For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.

18"What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? 19Woe to him who says to the wood, 'Awake!' or to the mute stone, 'Arise!' Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it. 20But YaHWeH is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!"

A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music.

2YaHWeH, I have heard of your fame. I stand in awe of your deeds, YaHWeH. Renew your work in the midst of the years. In the midst of the years make it known. In wrath, you remember mercy. 3God came from Teman, The Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, And his praise filled the earth. 4His splendor is like the sunrise. Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden. 5Plague went before him, And pestilence followed his feet. 6He stood, and shook the earth. He looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains were crumbled. The age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal. 7I saw the tents of Kushan in affliction. The dwellings of the land of Midyan trembled. 8Was YaHWeH displeased with the rivers? Was your anger against the rivers, Or your wrath against the sea, That you rode on your horses, On your chariots of salvation? 9You uncovered your bow. You called for your sworn arrows. Selah. You split the earth with rivers. 10The mountains saw you, and were afraid. The tempest of waters passed by. The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high. 11The sun and moon stood still in the sky, At the light of your arrows as they went, At the shining of your glittering spear. 12You marched through the land in wrath. You threshed the nations in anger. 13You went forth for the salvation of your people, For the salvation of your anointed. You crushed the head of the land of wickedness. You stripped them head to foot. Selah. 14You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears. They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, Gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret. 15You trampled the sea with your horses, Churning mighty waters. 16I heard, and my body trembled. My lips quivered at the voice. Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place, Because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, For the coming up of the people who invade us. 17For though the fig tree doesn't flourish, Nor fruit be in the vines; The labor of the olive fails, The fields yield no food; The flocks are cut off from the fold, And there is no herd in the stalls: 18Yet I will rejoice in YaHWeH. I will be joyful in the God of my salvation! 19YaHWeH, the Lord (Adonay) (Adoni), is my strength. He makes my feet like deer's feet, And enables me to go in high places. For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

The word of YaHWeH which came to Tzefanyah, the son of Kushi, the son of Gedalyah, the son of Amaryah, the son of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah), in the days of Josiah (Yoshiyah), the son of Amon, king of Judah (Yahudah). 2I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says YaHWeH. 3I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says YaHWeH. 4I will stretch out my hand against Judah (Yahudah), and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). I will cut off the remnant of Ba`al from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan Priests (Kohanim), 5those who worship the host of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by YaHWeH and also swear by Malkam, 6those who have turned back from following YaHWeH, and those who haven't sought YaHWeH nor inquired after him. 7Be silent at the presence of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , for the day of YaHWeH is at hand. For YaHWeH has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. 8It will happen in the day of YaHWeH's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who as are clothed with foreign clothing. 9In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. 10In that day, says YaHWeH, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11Wail, you inhabitants of Makhtesh, for all the people of Canaan (Kanaan)are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. 12It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "YaHWeH will not do good, neither will he do evil." 13Their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. 14The great day of YaHWeH is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of YaHWeH. The mighty man cries there bitterly. 15That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, 16a day of the trumpet (shofar) and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. 17I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against YaHWeH, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. 18Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of YaHWeH's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame,
2 before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of YaHWeH comes on you, before the day of YaHWeH's anger comes on you.
3 Seek YaHWeH, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of YaHWeH's anger.
4 For Gaza (`Aza) will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and `Ekron will be rooted up.
5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Kereti! The word of YaHWeH is against you, Canaan (Kanaan), the land of the Philistines (Pelishtim). I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant.
6 The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks.
7 The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah (Yahudah). They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for YaHWeH, their God, will visit them, and restore them.
8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of `Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.
9 Therefore as I live, says YaHWeH of Hosts, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of `Ammon as Gomorrah (Amorah), a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them.
10 This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of YaHWeH of Hosts.
11 YaHWeH will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations.
12 You Kushi also, you will be killed by my sword.
13 He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Ashshur, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness.
14 Herds will lie down in the midst of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the ka`at and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams.
15 This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city!
2 She didn't obey

the voice. She didn't receive correction. She didn't trust in YaHWeH. She didn't draw near to her God. 3Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. 4Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her Priests (Kohanim) have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. 5YaHWeH, in the midst of her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. 6I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. 7I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. 8"Therefore wait for me," says YaHWeH, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. 9For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on the name of YaHWeH, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. 10From beyond the rivers of Kush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. 11In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. 12But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of YaHWeH. 13The remnant of Isreal (Yisrael) will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

14Sing, daughter of Zion (Tziyon)! Shout, Isreal (Yisrael)! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 15YaHWeH has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Isreal (Yisrael), YaHWeH, is in the midst of you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. 16In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), "Don't be afraid, Zion (Tziyon). Don't let your hands be slack." 17YaHWeH, your God, is in the midst of you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will rest in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. 18Those who are sad for the appointed feasts, I will remove from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. 19Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. 20At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring back your captivity before your eyes, says YaHWeH.

Notes:

Haggai

In the second year of Darius (DarYabesh) the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, the Word of YaHWeH came by Haggai, the prophet, to ZerubBabel, the son of She'alti'el, governor of Judah (Yahudah), and to Yahshua, the son of Yehotzadak, the Priest Gadol, saying, 2"This is what YaHWeH of Hosts says: These people say, 'The time hasn't yet come, the time for YaHWeH's house to be built.'"

3Then the Word of YaHWeH came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, 4"Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? 5Now therefore this is what YaHWeH of Hosts says: Consider your ways. 6You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you don't have enough. You drink, but you aren't filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it."

7This is what YaHWeH of Hosts says: "Consider your ways. 8Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says YaHWeH. 9"You looked for much, and, behold, it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says YaHWeH of Hosts, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. 10Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. 11I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground brings forth, on men, on cattle, and on all the labor of the hands."

12Then ZerubBabel, the son of She'alti'el, and Yahshua, the son of Yehotzadak, the Priest Gadol, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of YaHWeH, their God, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as YaHWeH, their God, had sent him; and the people feared YaHWeH.

13Then Haggai, YaHWeH's messenger, spoke in YaHWeH's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says YaHWeH.

14YaHWeH stirred up the spirit of ZerubBabel, the son of She'alti'el, governor of Judah (Yahudah), and the spirit of Yahshua, the son of Yehotzadak, the Priest Gadol, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of YaHWeH of Hosts, their God, 15in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius (DarYabesh) the king.

In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the Word of YaHWeH came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 2"Speak now to ZerubBabel, the son of She'alti'el, governor of Judah (Yahudah), and to Yahshua, the son of Yehotzadak, the Priest Gadol, and to the remnant of the people, saying, 3'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing? 4Yet now be strong, ZerubBabel,' says YaHWeH. 'Be strong, Yahshua, son of Yehotzadak, the Priest Gadol. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says YaHWeH, 'and work, for I am with you,' says YaHWeH of Hosts. 5This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and my Spirit lived among you. Don't be afraid.' 6For this is what YaHWeH of Hosts says: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; 7and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says YaHWeH of Hosts. 8The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says YaHWeH of Hosts. 9'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says YaHWeH of Hosts; 'and in this place will I give shalom,' says YaHWeH of Hosts."

10In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius (DarYabesh), the Word of YaHWeH came by Haggai the prophet, saying, 11"Thus says YaHWeH of Hosts: Ask now the Priests (Kohanim) concerning the law, saying, 12'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'"

The Priests (Kohanim) answered, "No."

13Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?"

The Priests (Kohanim) answered, "It will be unclean."

14Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says YaHWeH; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. 15Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of YaHWeH. 16Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. 17I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says YaHWeH. 18'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of YaHWeH's temple was laid, consider it. [19]Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't brought forth. From this day will I bless you.'"

[20]The Word of YaHWeH came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, [21]"Speak to ZerubBabel, governor of Judah (Yahudah), saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. [22]I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. [23]In that day, says YaHWeH of Hosts, will I take you, ZerubBabel, my servant, the son of She'alti'el,' says YaHWeH, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says YaHWeH of Hosts."

Notes:

Zechariah
(Zekharyah)

In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius (DarYabesh), the word of YAHWEH came to Zekharyah the son of Berekhyah, the son of `Iddo, the prophet, saying,
2"YAHWEH was very displeased with your fathers. 3Therefore tell them: Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: 'Return to me,' says YAHWEH of Hosts, 'and I will return to you,' says YAHWEH of Hosts. 4Don't you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Thus says YAHWEH of hosts, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;' but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says YAHWEH. 5Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn't they overtake your fathers?

"Then they repented and said, 'Just as YAHWEH of Hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.'" 7On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius (DarYabesh), the word of YAHWEH came to Zekharyah the son of Berekhyah, the son of `Iddo, the prophet, saying, 8"I had a vision in the night, and, behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. 9Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?'"

The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones YAHWEH has sent to go back and forth through the earth."

11They reported to the angel of YAHWEH who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and, behold, all the earth is at rest and in shalom." 12Then the angel of YAHWEH replied, "O YaHWeH of Hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and on the cities of Judah (Yahudah), against which you have had indignation these seventy years?"

13YAHWEH answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words.
14So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "I am jealous for Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and for Zion (Tziyon) with a great jealousy. 15I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity." 16Therefore thus says YAHWEH: "I have returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with mercy. My house shall be built in it," says YAHWEH of Hosts, "and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)."'

17"Proclaim further, saying, 'Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and YAHWEH will again comfort Zion (Tziyon), and will again choose Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)."'"

18I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns. 19I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?"

He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah (Yahudah), Isreal (Yisrael), and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)."

20YAHWEH showed me four craftsmen. 21Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?"

He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah (Yahudah), so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah (Yahudah) to scatter it."

I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand.
2Then I asked, "Where are you going?"

He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to see what is its breadth and what is its length."

3Behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, 4and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and cattle in it. 5For I,' says YAHWEH, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. 6Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says YAHWEH; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says YAHWEH. 7'Come, Zion (Tziyon)! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babel.' [8]For thus says YAHWEH of hosts: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. [9]For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that YAHWEH of Hosts has sent me. [10]Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion (Tziyon); for, behold, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,' says YAHWEH. [11]Many nations shall join themselves to YAHWEH in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that YAHWEH of Hosts has sent me to you. [12]YAHWEH will inherit Judah (Yahudah) as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [13]Be silent, all flesh, before YAHWEH; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

He showed me Yahshua the Priest Gadol standing before the angel of YAHWEH, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. [2]YAHWEH said to Satan, "YAHWEH rebuke you, Satan! Yes, YAHWEH who has chosen Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

[3]Now Yahshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. [4]He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and the angel of YAHWEH was standing by. [6]The angel of YAHWEH protested to Yahshua, saying, [7]"Thus says YAHWEH of hosts: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my charge, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. [8]Hear now, Yahshua the Priest Gadol, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, the Branch. [9]For, behold, the stone that I have set before Yahshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the engraving of it,' says YAHWEH of Hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. [10]In that day,' says YAHWEH of hosts, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. 2He said to me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I have seen, and, behold, a menorah all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; 3and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

4I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?"

5Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

6Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of YAHWEH to ZerubBabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says YAHWEH of Hosts. 7Who are you, great mountain? Before ZerubBabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it!'"

8Moreover the word of YAHWEH came to me, saying, 9"The hands of ZerubBabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that YAHWEH of Hosts has sent me to you. 10Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of ZerubBabel. These are the eyes of YAHWEH, which run back and forth through the whole earth."

11Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the menorah and on the left side of it?"

12I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive-branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"

13He answered me, "Don't you know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

14Then he said, "These are the two sons oil who stand by YAHWEH of the whole earth."

Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, a flying scroll. 2He said to me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits."

3Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. 4I will cause it to go out," says YAHWEH of Hosts, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the midst of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."

5Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing."

6I said, "What is it?"

He said, "This is the efah basket that is appearing." He said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land 7(and, behold, a talent of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the efah basket." 8He said, "This is Wickedness;" and he threw her down into the midst of the efah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

9Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the efah basket between earth and the sky. 10Then said I to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the efah basket?"

11He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shin`ar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. 2In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; 3in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. 4Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go forth from standing before YAHWEH of all the earth. 6The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went forth toward the south country." 7The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, "Go around and through the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the earth.

8Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."

9The word of YAHWEH came to me, saying, 10"Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobiyah, and of Yedayah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah (Yoshiyah) the son of Tzefanyah, where they have come from Babel. 11Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Yahshua the son of Yehotzadak, the Priest Gadol; 12and speak to him, saying, 'Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts,
"Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of YAHWEH; 13even he shall build the temple of YAHWEH; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a Priest on his throne; and the counsel of shalom shall be between them both. 14The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobiyah, and to Yedayah, and to Hen the son of Tzefanyah, for a memorial in the temple of YAHWEH. 15Those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of YAHWEH; and you shall know that YAHWEH of hosts has sent me to you.
This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of YAHWEH your God.'"'"

It happened in the fourth year of king Darius (DarYabesh) that the word of YAHWEH came to Zekharyah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Kislev.
2The people of Bethel (Beit-El) sent Sar'etzer and Regem-Melekh, and their men, to entreat YAHWEH's favor, 3and to speak to the Priests (Kohanim) of the house of YAHWEH of Hosts, and to the prophets, saying, "Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?"

4Then the word of YAHWEH of Hosts came to me, saying, 5"Speak to all the people of the land, and to the Priests (Kohanim), saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me?
6When you eat, and when you drink, don't you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? 7Aren't these the words which YAHWEH proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?'"

8The word of YAHWEH came to Zekharyah, saying, 9"Thus has YAHWEH of Hosts spoken, saying, 'Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. 10Don't oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.' 11But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. 12Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which YAHWEH of Hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from YAHWEH of Hosts. 13It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said YAHWEH of Hosts; 14"but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."

The word of YAHWEH of Hosts came to me. 2Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "I am jealous for Zion (Tziyon) with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath."

3Thus says YAHWEH: "I have returned to Zion (Tziyon), and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of YAHWEH of Hosts, 'The Holy Mountain.'"

4Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), every man with his staff in his hand for very age. 5The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

6Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says YAHWEH of Hosts.

7Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; 8and I will bring them, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

9Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of YAHWEH of Hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. 10For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any shalom to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. 11But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says YAHWEH of Hosts. 12"For the seed of shalom and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. 13It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah (Yahudah) and house of Isreal (Yisrael), so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

14For thus says YAHWEH of hosts: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says YAHWEH of Hosts, "and I didn't repent; 15so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and to the house of Judah (Yahudah). Don't be afraid. 16These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and shalom in your gates, 17and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says YAHWEH.

20Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; 21and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of YAHWEH, and to seek YAHWEH of Hosts. I will go also.' 22Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek YAHWEH of Hosts in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and to entreat the favor of YAHWEH." 23Thus says YAHWEH of Hosts: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew (Yehudi), saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

An oracle. The word of YAHWEH is against the land of Hadrakh, And will rest upon Damascus (Dammesek); For the eye of man And of all the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael) is toward YAHWEH; 2And Hamat, also, which borders on it; Tyrus (Tzor) and Tzidon, because they are very wise. 3Tyrus (Tzor) built herself a stronghold, And heaped up silver like the dust, And fine gold like the mire of the streets. 4Behold, YAHWEH will dispossess her, And he will strike her power in the sea; And she will be devoured with fire. 5Ashkelon will see it, and fear; Gaza (`Aza) also, and will writhe in agony; As will `Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed; And the king will perish from Gaza (`Aza), And Ashkelon will not be inhabited. 6Foriegners will dwell in Ashdod, And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines (Pelishtim). 7I will take away his blood out of his mouth, And his abominations from between his teeth; And he also will be a remnant for our God; And he will be as a chieftain in Judah (Yahudah), And `Ekron as a Yebusites. 8I will encamp around my house against the army, That none pass through or return; And no oppressor will pass through them any more: For now I have seen with my eyes. 9Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion (Tziyon)! Shout, daughter of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)! Behold, your king comes to you! He is righteous, and having salvation; Lowly, and riding on a donkey, Even on a colt, the foal of a donkey. 10I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim (Efrayim), And the horse from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); And the battle bow will be cut off; And he will speak shalom to the nations: And his dominion will be from sea to sea, And from the River to the ends of the earth. 11As for you also, Because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water. 12Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. 13For indeed I bend Judah (Yahudah) as a bow for me. I have filled the bow with Ephraim (Efrayim); And I will stir up your sons, Zion (Tziyon), Against your sons, Greece, And will make you like the sword of a mighty man. 14YAHWEH will be seen over them; And his arrow will go flash like lightning; And YAHWEH YaHWeH will blow the trumpet (shofar), And will go with whirlwinds of the south. 15YAHWEH of Hosts will defend them; And they will destroy and overcome with sling-stones; And they will drink, and roar as through wine; And they will be filled like bowls, Like the corners of the altar. 16YAHWEH their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; For they are like the jewels of a crown, Lifted on high over his land. 17For how great is his goodness, And how great is his beauty! Grain will make the young men flourish, And new wine the virgins.

Ask of YAHWEH rain in the spring time, YAHWEH who makes storm clouds, And he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field. 2For the terafim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; And they have told false dreams. They comfort in vain. Therefore they go their way like sheep. They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd. 3My anger is kindled against the shepherds, And I will punish the male goats; For YAHWEH of Hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah (Yahudah), And will make them as his horse in the battle that he is proud of. 4From him will come forth the corner-stone, From him the nail, From him the battle bow, From him every ruler together. 5They shall be as mighty men, Treading down muddy streets in the battle; And they shall fight, because YAHWEH is with them; And the riders on horses will be confounded. 6"I will strengthen the house of Judah (Yahudah), And I will save the house of Joseph (Yosef), And I will bring them back; For I have mercy on them; And they will be as though I had not cast them off: For I am YAHWEH their God, and I will hear them. 7Ephraim (Efrayim) will be like a mighty man, And their heart will rejoice as through wine; Yes, their children will see it, and rejoice. Their heart will be glad in YAHWEH. 8I will signal for them, and gather them; For I have redeemed them; And they will increase as they have increased. 9I will sow them among the peoples; And they will remember me in far countries; And they will live with their children, and will return. 10I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), And gather them out of Ashshur; And I will bring them into the land of Gil`ad and Lebanon; And there won't be room enough for them. 11He will pass through the sea of affliction, And will strike the waves in the sea, And all the depths of the Nile will dry up; And the pride of Ashshur will be brought down, And the scepter of Egypt (Mitzrayim) will depart. 12I will strengthen them in YAHWEH; And they will walk up and down in his name," says YAHWEH.

Open your doors, Lebanon, That the fire may devour your cedars. 2Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen, Because the stately ones are destroyed. Wail, you oaks of Bashan, For the strong forest has come down. 3A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! For the pride of the Jordan (Yarden) is ruined. 4Thus says YAHWEH my God: "Feed the flock of slaughter. 5Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be YAHWEH, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds don't pity them. 6For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says YAHWEH; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them."

7So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor," and the other I called "Union," and I fed the flock. 8I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. 9Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." 10I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. 11It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was the word of YAHWEH. 12I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. 13YAHWEH said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of YAHWEH. 14Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah (Yahudah) and Isreal (Yisrael).

15YAHWEH said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. 16For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces.

17Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

An oracle. The word of YAHWEH concerning Isreal (Yisrael). YAHWEH, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: 2"Behold, I will make Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and on Judah (Yahudah) also will it be in the siege against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 3It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. 4In that day," says YAHWEH, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah (Yahudah), and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. 5The chieftains of Judah (Yahudah) will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) are my strength in YAHWEH of Hosts their God.' 6In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah (Yahudah) like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
7YAHWEH also will save the tents of Judah (Yahudah) first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) not be magnified above Judah (Yahudah). 8In that day YAHWEH will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of YAHWEH before them. 9It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 10I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. 11In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. 12The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Natan apart, and their wives apart; 13the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shim`i apart, and their wives apart; 14all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

"In that day there will be a spring opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), for sin and for uncleanness. 2It will come to pass in that day, says YAHWEH of Hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. 3It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in the name of YAHWEH;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. 4It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: 5but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' 6One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

7"Awake, sword, against my shepherd, And against the man who is close to me," says YAHWEH of Hosts. Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; And I will turn my hand against the little ones. 8It shall happen that in all the land," says YAHWEH, Two parts in it will be cut off and die; But the third will be left in it. 9I will bring the third part into the fire, And will refine them as silver is refined, And will test them like gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will hear them. I will say, 'It is my people;' And they will say, 'YAHWEH is my God.'"

Behold, a day of YAHWEH comes, when your spoil will be divided in your midst. 2For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. 3Then YAHWEH will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. 4His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. 5You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Atzel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of `Uzziyah king of Judah (Yahudah). YAHWEH my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. 6It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. 7It will be a unique day which is known to YAHWEH; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

8It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be.

9YAHWEH will be King over all the earth. In that day YAHWEH will be one, and his name one. 10All the land will be made like the Wilderness (Arabah), from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin (Binyamin)'s gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hanan'el to the king's wine-presses. 11Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will dwell safely. 12This will be the plague with which YAHWEH will strike all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. 13It will happen in that day, that a great panic from YAHWEH will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. 14Judah (Yahudah) also will fight at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

15So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. 16It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will go up from year to year to worship the King, YAHWEH of Hosts, and to keep the feast of booths. 17It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to worship the King, YAHWEH of Hosts, on them there will be no rain. 18If the family of Egypt (Mitzrayim) doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which YAHWEH will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. 19This will be the punishment of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. 20In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO YAHWEH;" and the pots in YAHWEH's house will be like the bowls before the altar. 21Yes, every pot in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and in Judah (Yahudah) will be holy to YAHWEH of Hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanites (Kanaan) in the house of YAHWEH of Hosts.

(Mal'akhy)

An oracle: the word of YaHWeH to Isreal (Yisrael) by Mal'akhi.

2"I have loved you," says YaHWeH.

Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

"Wasn't Esaw Jacob (Yakob)'s brother?" says YaHWeH, "Yet I loved Jacob (Yakob); 3but Esaw I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." 4Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" thus says YaHWeH of Hosts, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom YaHWeH shows wrath forever."

5Your eyes will see, and you will say, "YaHWeH is great—even beyond the border of Isreal (Yisrael)!"

6"A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says YaHWeH of Hosts to you, Priests (Kohanim), who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?' 7You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'YaHWeH's table contemptible.' 8When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says YaHWeH of Hosts.

9"Now, please entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says YaHWeH of Hosts.

10"Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says YaHWeH of hosts, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. 11For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says YaHWeH of Hosts. 12"But you profane it, in that you say, 'YaHWeH's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' 13You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it," says YaHWeH of Hosts; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says YaHWeH.

14"But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to YaHWeH a blemished thing; for I am a great King," says YaHWeH of hosts, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

"Now, you Priests (Kohanim), this word is for you. 2If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name," says YaHWeH of Hosts, "then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. 3Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. 4You will know that I have sent this word to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says YaHWeH of Hosts. 5"My covenant was with him of life and shalom; and I gave them to him who he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. 6The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in shalom and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. 7For the Priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of YaHWeH of Hosts. 8But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says YaHWeH of Hosts. 9"Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. 10Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? 11Judah (Yahudah) has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Isreal (Yisrael) and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); for Judah (Yahudah) has profaned the holiness of YaHWeH which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. 12YaHWeH will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob (Yakob), and him who offers an offering to YaHWeH of Hosts. 13This again you do: you cover the altar of YaHWeH with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. 14Yet you say, 'Why?' Because YaHWeH has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. 15Did he not make one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. 16For I hate divorce," says YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), "and him who covers his garment with violence!' says YaHWeH of Hosts. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you don't deal treacherously. 17You have wearied YaHWeH with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of YaHWeH, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'

"Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and YaHWeH, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!" says YaHWeH of hosts. 2"But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap; 3and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to YaHWeH offerings in righteousness. 4Then the offering of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) will be pleasant to YaHWeH, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. 5I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says YaHWeH of Hosts. 6"For I, YaHWeH, don't change; therefore you, sons of Jacob (Yakob), are not consumed. 7From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says YaHWeH of Hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?' 8Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. 9You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. 10Bring the whole tithe into the store-house, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says YaHWeH of hosts, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough for. 11I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says YaHWeH of Hosts. 12"All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says YaHWeH of Hosts.

13"Your words have been stout against me," says YaHWeH. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?' 14You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before YaHWeH of Hosts? 15Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.' 16Then those who feared YaHWeH spoke one with another; and YaHWeH listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before him, for those who feared YaHWeH, and who honored his name. 17They shall be mine," says YaHWeH of Hosts, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. 18Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

"For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says YaHWeH of Hosts, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. 2But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. 3You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says YaHWeH of Hosts.

4"Remember the law of Moses (Moshe) my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Isreal (Yisrael), even statutes and ordinances. 5Behold, I will send you EliYaH the prophet before the great and terrible day of YaHWeH comes. 6He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

KETHUVIM

The writings

Psalms

Psalm 1

1Blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor stand in the way of sinners,
Nor sit in the seat of scoffers;
2But his delight is in YaHWeH's law;
On his law he meditates day and night.
3He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also does not wither.
Whatever he does shall prosper.
4The wicked are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
5Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6For YaHWeH knows the way of the righteous,
But the way of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 2

1Why do the nations rage,
And the peoples plot a vain thing?
2The kings of the earth take a stand,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against YaHWeH, and against his Messiah, saying,
3"Let's break their bonds apart,
And cast away their cords from us."
4He who sits in the heavens will laugh.
YaHWeH will have them in derision.
5Then he will speak to them in his anger,
And terrify them in his wrath:
6"Yet I have set my king on my holy hill of Zion (Tziyon)."
7I will tell of the decree.

YaHWeH said to me, "You are my son.
Today I have become your father.
8Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance,
The uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.
9You shall break them with a rod of iron.
You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
10Now therefore be wise, you kings.
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
11Serve YaHWeH with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
12Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way,
For his wrath will soon be kindled.
Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Abshalom his son.

1YaHWeH, how my adversaries have increased!
Many are those who rise up against me.
2Many there are who say of my soul,
"There is no help for him in God."

Selah.

3But you, YaHWeH, are a shield around me,
My glory, and the one who lifts up my head.
4I cry to YaHWeH with my voice,
And he answers me out of his holy hill.

Selah.

5I laid myself down and slept.
I awakened; for YaHWeH sustains me.
6I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people
Who have set themselves against me on every side.
7Arise, YaHWeH!
Save me, my God!
For you have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone.
You have broken the teeth of the wicked.
8Salvation belongs to YaHWeH.
Your blessing be on your people.

Selah.

Psalm 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

[1]Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness.
Give me relief from my distress.
Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.
[2]You sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor?
Will you love vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Selah.

[3]But know that YaHWeH has set apart for himself him who is godly:
YaHWeH will hear when I call to him.
[4]Stand in awe, and don't sin.
Search your own heart on your bed, and be still.

Selah.

[5]Offer the sacrifices of righteousness.
Put your trust in YaHWeH.
[6]Many say, "Who will show us any good?"
YaHWeH, let the light of your face shine on us.
[7]You have put gladness in my heart,
More than when their grain and their new wine are increased.
[8]In shalom I will both lay myself down and sleep,
For you, YaHWeH alone, make me live in safety.

Psalm 5

For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

[1]Give ear to my words, YaHWeH.
Consider my meditation.
[2]Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God;
For to you do I pray.
[3]YaHWeH, in the morning you shall hear my voice.
In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly.

4For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness.
Evil can't live with you.
5The arrogant shall not stand in your sight.
You hate all workers of iniquity.
6You will destroy those who speak lies.
YaHWeH abhors the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.
7But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will come into your house:
I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of you.
8Lead me, YaHWeH, in your righteousness because of my enemies.
Make your way straight before my face.
9For there is no faithfulness in their mouth.
Their heart is destruction.
Their throat is an open tomb.
They flatter with their tongue.
10Hold them guilty, God.
Let them fall by their own counsels;
Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions,
For they have rebelled against you.
11But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice,
Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them.
Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.
12For you will bless the righteous.
YaHWeH, you will surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the sheminit. A Psalm by David.

1YaHWeH, don't rebuke me in your anger,
Neither discipline me in your wrath.
2Have mercy on me, YaHWeH, for I am faint.
YaHWeH, heal me, for my bones are troubled.
3My soul is also in great anguish.
But you, YaHWeH—how long?
4Return, YaHWeH. Deliver my soul,
And save me for your loving kindness' sake.
5For in death there is no memory of you.
In She'ol, who shall give you thanks?
6I am weary with my groaning;

Every night I flood my bed;
I drench my couch with my tears.
7My eye wastes away because of grief;
It grows old because of all my adversaries.
8Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity,
For YaHWeH has heard the voice of my weeping.
9YaHWeH has heard my supplication.
YaHWeH accepts my prayer.
10May all my enemies be ashamed and dismayed.
They shall turn back, they shall be disgraced suddenly.

Psalm 7

A shiggayon by David, which he sang to YaHWeH, concerning the words of Kush, the Benjamin (Binyamin)i.

1YaHWeH, my God, I take refuge in you.
Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me,
2Lest they tear apart my soul like a lion,
Ripping it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
3YaHWeH, my God, if I have done this,
If there is iniquity in my hands,
4If I have rewarded evil to him who was at shalom with me
(Yes, I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary), 5Let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;
Yes, let him tread my life down to the earth,
And lay my glory in the dust.

Selah.

6Arise, YaHWeH, in your anger.
Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries.
Awake for me. You have commanded judgment.
7Let the congregation of the peoples surround you.
Rule over them on high.
8YaHWeH administers judgment to the peoples.
Judge me, YaHWeH, according to my righteousness,
And to my integrity that is in me.
9Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,
But establish the righteous;
Their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God.

10My shield is with God,
Who saves the upright in heart.
11God is a righteous judge,
Yes, a God who has indignation every day.
12If a man doesn't relent, he will sharpen his sword;
He has bent and strung his bow.
13He has also prepared for himself the instruments of death.
He makes ready his flaming arrows.
14Behold, he travails with iniquity;
Yes, he has conceived mischief,
And brought forth falsehood.
15He has dug a hole,
And has fallen into the pit which he made.
16The trouble he causes shall return to his own head.
His violence shall come down on the crown of his own head.
17I will give thanks to YaHWeH according to his righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of YaHWeH Elyon.

Psalm 8

For the Chief Musician; on the gittit. A Psalm by David.

1YaHWeH, our Lord (Adonay), how majestic is your name in all the earth,
Who has set your glory above the heavens!
2From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength,
Because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.
3When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which you have ordained;
4What is man, that you think of him?
The son of man, that you care for him?
5For you have made him a little lower than God,
And crowned him with glory and honor.
6You make him ruler over the works of your hands.
You have put all things under his feet:
7All sheep and oxen,
Yes, and the animals of the field,
8The birds of the sky, the fish of the sea,
And whatever passes through the paths of the seas.
9YaHWeH, our Lord (Adonay),

How majestic is your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Death of the Son." A Psalm by David.

[1]I will give thanks to YaHWeH with my whole heart.
I will tell of all your marvelous works.
[2]I will be glad and rejoice in you.
I will sing praise to your name, O Elyon.
[3]When my enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish in your presence.
[4]For you have maintained my just cause.
You sit on the throne judging righteously.
[5]You have rebuked the nations.
You have destroyed the wicked.
You have blotted out their name forever and ever.
[6]The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin.
The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.
[7]But YaHWeH reigns forever.
He has prepared his throne for judgment.
[8]He will judge the world in righteousness.
He will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness.
[9]YaHWeH will also be a high tower for the oppressed;
A high tower in times of trouble.
[10]Those who know your name will put their trust in you,
For you, YaHWeH, have not forsaken those who seek you.
[11]Sing praises to YaHWeH, who dwells in Zion (Tziyon),
And declare among the people what he has done.
[12]For he who avenges blood remembers them.
He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.
[13]Have mercy on me, YaHWeH.
See my affliction by those who hate me,
And lift me up from the gates of death;
[14]That I may show forth all your praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion (Tziyon), I will rejoice in your salvation.
[15]The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made;
In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.
[16]YaHWeH has made himself known.

He has executed judgment.
The wicked is snared by the work of his own hands.

Meditation. Selah.

17The wicked shall be turned back to She'ol,
Even all the nations that forget God.
18For the needy shall not always be forgotten,
Nor the hope of the poor perish forever.
19Arise, YaHWeH! Don't let man prevail.
Let the nations be judged in your sight.
20Put them in fear, YaHWeH.
Let the nations know that they are only men.

Selah.

Psalm 10

1Why do you stand far off, YaHWeH?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
2In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak;
They are caught in the schemes that they devise.
3For the wicked boasts of his heart's cravings,
He blesses the greedy, and condemns YaHWeH.
4The wicked, in the pride of his face,
Has no room in his thoughts for God.
5His ways are prosperous at all times;
He is haughty, and your laws are far from his sight:
As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them.
6He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken;
For generations I shall have no trouble."
7His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression.
Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
8He lies in wait near the villages.
From ambushes, he murders the innocent.
His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.
9He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush.
He lies in wait to catch the helpless.
He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net.
10The helpless are crushed, they collapse,
They fall under his strength.

11He says in his heart, "God has forgotten.
He hides his face. He will never see it."

12Arise, YaHWeH!
God, lift up your hand!
Don't forget the helpless.
13Why does the wicked person condemn God,
And say in his heart, "God won't call me into account?"
14But you do see trouble and grief;
You consider it to take it into your hand.
You help the victim and the fatherless.
15Break the arm of the wicked.
As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none.
16YaHWeH is King forever and ever!
The nations will perish out of his land.
17YaHWeH, you have heard the desire of the humble.
You will prepare their heart.
You will cause your ear to hear,
18To judge the fatherless and the oppressed,
That man who is of the earth may terrify no more.

Psalm 11

For the Chief Musician. By David.

1In YaHWeH, I take refuge.
How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain!"
2For, behold, the wicked bend their bows.
They set their arrows on the strings,
That they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.
3If the foundations are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?
4YaHWeH is in his holy temple.
YaHWeH is on his throne in heaven.
His eyes observe.
His eyes examine the children of men.
5YaHWeH examines the righteous,
But the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates.
6On the wicked he will rain blazing coals;

Fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.
7For YaHWeH is righteous. He loves righteousness.
The upright shall see his face.

Psalm 12

For the Chief Musician; upon sheminit. A Psalm of David.

1Help, YaHWeH; for the godly man ceases.
For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
2Everyone lies to his neighbor.
They speak with flattering lips, and with a double heart.
3May YaHWeH cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that boasts,
4Who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail.
Our lips are our own.
Who is lord over us?"
5"Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy,
I will now arise," says YaHWeH;
"I will set him in safety from those who malign him."
6The words of YaHWeH are flawless words,
As silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.
7You will keep them, YaHWeH,
You will preserve them from this generation forever.
8The wicked walk on every side,
When what is vile is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1How long, YaHWeH? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
2How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart every day?
How long shall my enemy triumph over me?

3Behold, and answer me, YaHWeH, my God.
Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;
4Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him;"
Lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall.

5But I trust in your loving kindness.
My heart rejoices in your yeshuah (salvation).
6I will sing to YaHWeH,
Because he has been good to me.

Psalm 14

For the Chief Musician. By David.

1The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt.
They have done abominable works.
There is none who does good.
2YaHWeH looked down from heaven on the children of men,
To see if there were any who did understand,
Who did seek after God.
3They have all gone aside.
They have together become corrupt.
There is none who does good, no, not one.
4Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And don't call on YaHWeH?
5There they were in great fear,
For God is in the generation of the righteous.
6You frustrate the plan of the poor,
Because YaHWeH is his refuge.
7Oh that the yeshuah (salvation) of Isreal (Yisrael) would come out of Zion (Tziyon)!
When YaHWeH restores the fortunes of his people,
Then Jacob (Yakob) shall rejoice, and Isreal (Yisrael) shall be glad.

Psalm 15

A Psalm by David.

[1]YaHWeH, who shall dwell in your sanctuary?
Who shall live on your holy hill?
[2]He who walks blamelessly does what is right,
And speaks truth in his heart;
[3]He who doesn't slander with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his friend,
Nor casts slurs against his fellow man;
[4]In whose eyes a vile man is despised,
But who honors those who fear YaHWeH;
He who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change;
[5]He who doesn't lend out his money for usury,
Nor take a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things shall never be shaken.

Psalm 16

A Poem by David.

[1]Preserve me, God, for in you do I take refuge.
[2]My soul, you have said to YaHWeH, "You are my Lord (Adonay).
Apart from you I have no good thing."
[3]As for the holy ones who are in the earth,
They are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.

[4]Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god.
Their drink-offerings of blood I will not offer,
Nor take their names on my lips.
[5]YaHWeH assigned my portion and my cup.
You made my lot secure.

[6]The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places.
Yes, I have a good inheritance.
[7]I will bless YaHWeH, who has given me counsel.

Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
8I have set YaHWeH always before me.
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
9Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices.
My body shall also dwell in safety.
10For you will not leave my soul in She'ol,
Neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption.
11You will show me the path of life.
In your presence is fullness of joy.
In your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.

Psalm 17

A Prayer by David.

1Hear, YaHWeH, my righteous plea;
Give ear to my prayer, that doesn't go out of deceitful lips.
2Let my sentence come forth from your presence;
Let your eyes look on equity.
3You have proved my heart; you have visited me in the night;
You have tried me, and found nothing;
I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.
4As for the works of men, by the word of your lips
I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
5My steps have held fast to your paths,
My feet have not slipped.
6I have called on you, for you will answer me, God:
Turn your ear to me.
Hear my speech.
7Show your marvelous loving kindness,
You who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their enemies.
8Keep me as the apple of your eye;
Hide me under the shadow of your wings,
9From the wicked who oppress me,
My deadly enemies, who surround me.
10They close up their callous hearts.
With their mouth they speak proudly.
11They have now surrounded us in our steps.
They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.

12He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey,
As it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
13Arise, YaHWeH,
Confront him, cast him down.
Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;
14From men by your hand, YaHWeH,
From men of the world, whose portion is in this life.
You fill the belly of your cherished ones.
Your sons have plenty,
And they store up wealth for their children.
15As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness;
I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.

Psalm 18

For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of YaHWeH, who spoke to YaHWeH the words of this song in the day that YaHWeH delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Sha'ul. He said, 1I love you, YaHWeH, my strength.

2YaHWeH is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge;
My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.
3I call on YaHWeH, who is worthy to be praised;
And I am saved from my enemies.
4The cords of death surrounded me.
The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
5The cords of She'ol were round about me;
The snares of death came on me.
6In my distress I called on YaHWeH,
And cried to my God.
He heard my voice out of his temple,
My cry before him came into his ears.
7Then the earth shook and trembled.
The foundations also of the mountains quaked and were shaken,
Because he was angry.
8Smoke went out of his nostrils.

Consuming fire came out of his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.
9He bowed the heavens also, and came down.
Thick darkness was under his feet.
10He rode on a Kerub, and flew.
Yes, he soared on the wings of the wind.
11He made darkness his hiding-place, his pavilion around him,
Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
12At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,
Hailstones and coals of fire.
13YaHWeH also thundered in the sky,
The Elyon uttered his voice:
Hailstones and coals of fire.
14He sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
Yes, great lightning bolts, and routed them.
15Then the channels of waters appeared,
The foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, YaHWeH,
At the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
16He sent from on high.
He took me.
He drew me out of many waters.
17He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
18They came on me in the day of my calamity,
But YaHWeH was my support.
19He brought me forth also into a large place.
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
20YaHWeH has rewarded me according to my righteousness.
According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.
21For I have kept the ways of YaHWeH,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
22For all his ordinances were before me.
I didn't put away his statutes from me.
23I was also blameless with him.
I kept myself from my iniquity.
24Therefore YaHWeH has rewarded me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
25With the merciful you will show yourself merciful.
With the perfect man, you will show yourself perfect.
26With the pure, you will show yourself pure.

With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.
[27]For you will save the afflicted people,
But the haughty eyes you will bring down.
[28]For you will light my lamp, YaHWeH.
My God will light up my darkness.
[29]For by you, I advance through a troop.
By my God, I leap over a wall.
[30]As for God, his way is perfect.
The word of YaHWeH is tried.
He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
[31]For who is God, except YaHWeH?
Who is a rock, besides our God,
[32]The God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect?
[33]He makes my feet like deer's feet,
And sets me on my high places.
[34]He teaches my hands to war;
So that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
[35]You have also given me the shield of your salvation.
Your right hand sustains me.
Your gentleness has made me great.
[36]You have enlarged my steps under me,
My feet have not slipped.
[37]I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them.
Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.
[38]I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise.
They shall fall under my feet.
[39]For you have girded me with strength to the battle.
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
[40]You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me,
That I might cut off those who hate me.
[41]They cried, but there was none to save;
Even to YaHWeH, but he didn't answer them.
[42]Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind.
I cast them out as the mire of the streets.
[43]You have delivered me from the strivings of the people.
You have made me the head of the nations.
A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
[44]As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me.
The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.
[45]The foreigners shall fade away,

And shall come trembling out of their close places.
46YaHWeH lives; and blessed be my rock.
Exalted be the God of my salvation,
47Even the God who executes vengeance for me,
And subdues peoples under me.
48He rescues me from my enemies.
Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me.
You deliver me from the violent man.
49Therefore I will give thanks to you, YaHWeH, among the nations,
And will sing praises to your name.
50He gives great deliverance to his king,
And shows loving kindness to his anointed,
To David and to his seed, forevermore.

Psalm 19

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1The heavens declare the glory of God.
The expanse shows his handiwork.
2Day after day they pour forth speech,
And night after night they display knowledge.
3There is no speech nor language,
Where their voice is not heard.
4Their voice has gone out through all the earth,
Their words to the end of the world.
In them he has set a tent for the sun,
5Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
Like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.
6His going forth is from the end of the heavens,
His circuit to its ends;
There is nothing hidden from its heat.
7YaHWeH's law is perfect, restoring the soul.
YaHWeH's testimony is sure, making wise the simple.
8YaHWeH's precepts are right, rejoicing the heart.
YaHWeH's word is pure, enlightening the eyes.
9The fear of YaHWeH is clean, enduring forever.
YaHWeH's ordinances are true, and righteous altogether.
10More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the extract of the honeycomb.
11Moreover by them is your servant warned.
In keeping them there is great reward.
12Who can discern his errors?
Forgive me from hidden errors.

13Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins.
Let them not have dominion over me.
Then I will be upright,
I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.
14Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in your sight,
YaHWeH, my rock, and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1May YaHWeH answer you in the day of trouble.
May the name of the God of Jacob (Yakob) set you up on high,
2Send you help from the sanctuary,
Grant you support from Zion (Tziyon),
3Remember all your offerings,
And accept your burnt sacrifice.

Selah.

4May He grant you your heart's desire,
And fulfill all your counsel.
5We will triumph in your yeshuah (salvation).
In the name of our God we will set up our banners:
May YaHWeH grant all your requests.
6Now I know that YaHWeH saves his anointed.
He will answer him from his holy heaven,
With the saving strength of his right hand.
7Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
But we trust the name of YaHWeH our God.
8They are bowed down and fallen,
But we rise up, and stand upright.
9Save, YaHWeH;

Let the King answer us when we call!

Psalm 21

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

[1]The king rejoices in your strength, YaHWeH!
How greatly he rejoices in your yeshuah (salvation)!
[2]You have given him his heart's desire,
And have not withheld the request of his lips.

Selah.

[3]For you meet him with the blessings of goodness;
You set a crown of fine gold on his head.
[4]He asked life of you, you gave it to him,
Even length of days forever and ever.
[5]His glory is great in your salvation.
You lay honor and majesty on him.
[6]For you make him most blessed forever.
You make him glad with joy in your presence.
[7]For the king trusts in YaHWeH.
Through the loving kindness of Most high (Elyon), he shall not be moved.
[8]Your hand will find out all of your enemies.
Your right hand will find out those who hate you.
[9]You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger.
YaHWeH will swallow them up in his wrath.
The fire shall devour them.
[10]You will destroy their descendants from the earth,
Their posterity from among the children of men.
[11]For they intended evil against you.
They plotted evil against you which cannot succeed.
[12]For you will make them turn their back,
When you aim drawn bows at their face.
[13]Be exalted, YaHWeH, in your strength,
So we will sing and praise your power.

Psalm 22

For the Chief Musician; set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by David.

1My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?
2My God, I cry in the daytime, but you don't answer;
In the night season, and am not silent.
3But you are holy,
You who inhabit the praises of Isreal (Yisrael).
4Our fathers trusted in you.
They trusted, and you delivered them.
5They cried to you, and were delivered.
They trusted in you, and were not disappointed.
6But I am a worm, and no man;
A reproach of men, and despised by the people.
7All those who see me mock me.
They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads, saying,
8"He trusts in YaHWeH;
Let him deliver him;
Let him rescue him, since he delights in him."
9But you brought me out of the womb.
You made me trust at my mother's breasts.
10I was thrown on you from my mother's womb.
You are my God since my mother bore me.
11Don't be far from me, for trouble is near.
For there is none to help.
12Many bulls have surrounded me.
Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.
13They open their mouths wide against me,
Lions tearing prey and roaring.
14I am poured out like water.
All my bones are out of joint.
My heart is like wax;
It is melted within me.
15My strength is dried up like a potsherd.
My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You have brought me into the dust of death.
16For dogs have surrounded me.

A company of evil-doers have enclosed me.
They pierced my hands and my feet.
17I can count all of my bones.
They look and stare at me.
18They divide my garments among them.
They cast lots for my clothing.

19But don't be far off, YaHWeH.
You are my help: hurry to help me.
20Deliver my soul from the sword,
My precious life from the power of the dog.
21Save me from the lion's mouth;
Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen you have answered me.
22I will declare your name to my brothers.
In the midst of the assembly, I will praise you.
23You who fear YaHWeH, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob (Yakob), glorify him!
Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Isreal (Yisrael)!
24For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted,
Neither has he hidden his face from him;
But when he cried to him, he heard.

25Of you comes my praise in the great assembly.
I will pay my vows before those who fear him.
26The humble shall eat and be satisfied.
They shall Praise YaH who seek after him.
Let your hearts live forever.
27All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to YaHWeH.
All the relatives of the nations shall worship before you.
28For the kingdom is YaHWeH's.
He is the ruler over the nations.
29All the rich ones of the earth shall eat and worship.
All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him,
Even he who can't keep his soul alive.
30Posterity shall serve him.
Future generations shall be told about YaHWeH.
31They shall come and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born,
For he has done it.

Psalm 23

A Psalm by David.

1YaHWeH is my shepherd:
I shall lack nothing.
2He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
3He restores my soul.
He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
4Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me.
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
5You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil.
My cup runs over.
6Surely goodness and loving kindness shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in YaHWeH's house forever.

Psalm 24

A Psalm by David.

1The earth is YaHWeH's, with its fullness;
The world, and those who dwell therein.
2For he has founded it on the seas,
And established it on the floods.

3Who may ascend to YaHWeH's hill?
Who may stand in his holy place?
4He who has clean hands and a pure heart;
Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood,
And has not sworn deceitfully.
5He shall receive a blessing from YaHWeH,
Righteousness from the God of his salvation.
6This is the generation of those who seek Him,
Who seek your face—even Jacob (Yakob).

Selah.

7Lift up your heads, you gates;
Be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
The King of glory will come in.
8Who is the King of glory?
YaHWeH strong and mighty,
YaHWeH mighty in battle.
9Lift up your heads, you gates;
Yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors:
The King of glory will come in.
10Who is this King of glory?
YaHWeH of Hosts,
He is the King of glory.

Selah.

Psalm 25

By David.

1To you, YaHWeH, do I lift up my soul.
2My God, I have trusted in you,
Don't let me be shamed.
Don't let my enemies triumph over me.
3Yes, no one who waits for you shall be shamed.
They shall be shamed who deal treacherously without cause.

4Show me your ways, YaHWeH.
Teach me your paths.
5Guide me in your truth, and teach me,
For you are the God of my salvation,
I wait for you all day long.
6YaHWeH, remember your tender mercies and your loving kindness,
For they are from old times.
7Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions.
Remember me according to your loving kindness,
For your goodness' sake, YaHWeH.
8Good and upright is YaHWeH,

Therefore he will instruct sinners in the way.
9He will guide the humble in justice.
He will teach the humble his way.
10All the paths of YaHWeH are loving kindness and truth
To such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
11For your name's sake, YaHWeH,
Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
12What man is he who fears YaHWeH?
He shall instruct him in the way that he shall choose.
13His soul shall dwell at ease.
His seed shall inherit the land.
14The friendship of YaHWeH is with those who fear him.
He will show them his covenant.

15My eyes are ever on YaHWeH,
For he will pluck my feet out of the net.
16Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
For I am desolate and afflicted.
17The troubles of my heart are enlarged.
Oh bring me out of my distresses.
18Consider my affliction and my travail.
Forgive all my sins.
19Consider my enemies, for they are many.
They hate me with cruel hatred.
20Oh keep my soul, and deliver me.
Let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in you.
21Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,
For I wait for you.
22Redeem Isreal (Yisrael), God,
Out all of his troubles.

Psalm 26

By David.

1Judge me, YaHWeH, for I have walked in my integrity.
I have trusted also in YaHWeH without wavering.
2Examine me, YaHWeH, and prove me.
Try my heart and my mind.

3For your loving kindness is before my eyes.
I have walked in your truth.
4I have not sat with deceitful men,
Neither will I go in with hypocrites.
5I hate the assembly of evil-doers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
6I will wash my hands in innocence,
So I will go about your altar, YaHWeH;
7That I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard,
And tell of all your wondrous works.
8YaHWeH, I love the habitation of your house,
The place where your glory dwells.
9Don't gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men;
10In whose hands is wickedness,
Their right hand is full of bribes.

11But as for me, I will walk in my integrity.
Redeem me, and be merciful to me.
12My foot stands in an even place.
In the congregations I will bless YaHWeH.

Psalm 27

By David.

1YaHWeH is my light and my salvation.
Whom shall I fear?
YaHWeH is the strength of my life.
Of whom shall I be afraid?
2When evil-doers came at me to eat up my flesh,
Even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
3Though a host should encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear.
Though war should rise against me,
Even then I will be confident.
4One thing I have asked of YaHWeH, that I will seek after,
That I may dwell in the house of YaHWeH all the days of my life,

To see YaHWeH's beauty,
And to inquire in his temple.
5For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion.
In the covert of his tent he will hide me.
He will lift me up on a rock.
6Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me.
I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent.
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to YaHWeH.

7Hear, YaHWeH, when I cry with my voice.
Have mercy also on me, and answer me.
8When you said, "Seek my face,"
My heart said to you, "I will seek your face, YaHWeH."
9Don't hide your face from me.
Don't put your servant away in anger.
You have been my help.
Don't abandon me,
Neither forsake me, God of my salvation.
10When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then YaHWeH will take me up.
11Teach me your way, YaHWeH.
Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.
12Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries,
For false witnesses have risen up against me,
Such as breathe out cruelty.
13I am still confident of this:
I will see the goodness of YaHWeH in the land of the living.
14Wait for YaHWeH.
Be strong, and let your heart take courage.
Yes, wait for YaHWeH.

Psalm 28

By David.

1To you, YaHWeH, I call.
My rock, don't be deaf to me;
Lest, if you are silent to me,
I would become like those who go down into the pit.

2Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to you,
When I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
3Don't draw me away with the wicked,
With the workers of iniquity who speak shalom with their neighbors,
But mischief is in their hearts.
4Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings.
Give them according to the operation of their hands.
Bring back on them what they deserve.
5Because they don't regard the works of YaHWeH,
Nor the operation of his hands,
He will break them down and not build them up.

6Blessed be YaHWeH,
Because he has heard the voice of my petitions.
7YaHWeH is my strength and my shield.
My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices.
With my song I will thank him.
8YaHWeH is their strength.
He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.
9Save your people,
And bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd also,
And bear them up forever.

Psalm 29

A Psalm by David.

1Ascribe to YaHWeH, you sons of the mighty,
Ascribe to YaHWeH glory and strength.
2Ascribe to YaHWeH the glory due to his name.
Worship YaHWeH in holy array.

3YaHWeH's voice is on the waters.
The God of glory thunders, even YaHWeH on many waters.
4YaHWeH's voice is powerful.
YaHWeH's voice is full of majesty.
5The voice of YaHWeH breaks the cedars.

Yes, YaHWeH breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
6He makes them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Siryon like a young, wild ox.
7YaHWeH's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.
8YaHWeH's voice shakes the wilderness.
YaHWeH shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
9YaHWeH's voice makes the deer calve,
And strips the forests bare.
In his temple everything says, "Glory!"

10YaHWeH sat enthroned at the Flood.
Yes, YaHWeH sits as King forever.
11YaHWeH will give strength to his people.
YaHWeH will bless his people with shalom.

Psalm 30

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

1I will extol you, YaHWeH, for you have raised me up,
And have not made my foes to rejoice over me.
2YaHWeH my God, I cried to you,
And you have healed me.
3YaHWeH, you have brought up my soul from She'ol.
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
4Sing praise to YaHWeH, you holy ones of his.
Give thanks to his holy name.
5For his anger is but for a moment;
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night,
But joy comes in the morning.
6As for me, I said in my prosperity,
"I shall never be moved."
7You, YaHWeH, when you favored me, made my mountain to stand strong.
But when you hid your face, I was troubled.
8I cried to you, YaHWeH.
To YaHWeH I made supplication:
9"What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?

Shall the dust praise you?
Shall it declare your truth?
10Hear, YaHWeH, and have mercy on me.
YaHWeH, be my helper."
11You have turned my mourning into dancing for me.
You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness, 12To the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent.
YaHWeH my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Psalm 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1In you, YaHWeH, I take refuge.
Let me never be disappointed:
Deliver me in your righteousness.
2Bow down your ear to me.
Deliver me speedily.
Be to me a strong rock,
A house of defense to save me.
3For you are my rock and my fortress,
Therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.
4Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me,
For you are my stronghold.
5Into your hand I commend my spirit.
You redeem me, YaHWeH, God of truth.
6I hate those who regard lying vanities,
But I trust in YaHWeH.
7I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness,
For you have seen my affliction.
You have known my soul in adversities.
8You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
You have set my feet in a large place.
9Have mercy on me, YaHWeH, for I am in distress.
My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.
10For my life is spent with sorrow,
My years with sighing.
My strength fails because of my iniquity.
My bones are wasted away.

11Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors,
A fear to my acquaintances.
Those who saw me on the street fled from me.
12I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man.
I am like broken pottery.
13For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side,
While they conspire together against me,
They plot to take away my life.
14But I trust in you, YaHWeH.
I said, "You are my God."
15My times are in your hand.
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.
16Make your face to shine on your servant.
Save me in your loving kindness.
17Let me not be disappointed, YaHWeH, for I have called on you.
Let the wicked be disappointed. Let them be silent in She'ol.
18Let the lying lips be mute,
Which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.
19Oh how great is your goodness,
Which you have laid up for those who fear you,
Which you have worked for those who take refuge in you,
Before the sons of men!
20In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man.
You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.
21Praise be to YaHWeH,
For he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a strong city.
22As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before your eyes."
Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you.
23Oh love YaHWeH, all you his holy ones!
YaHWeH preserves the faithful,
And pays back him who deals proudly in full.
24Be strong, and let your heart take courage,
All you who hope in YaHWeH.

Psalm 32

By David. A maskil.

1Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven,

Whose sin is covered.
2Blessed is the man to whom YaHWeH doesn't impute iniquity,
In whose spirit there is no deceit.
3When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.
4For day and night your hand was heavy on me.
My strength was sapped in the heat of summer.

Selah.

5I acknowledged my sin to you.
I didn't hide my iniquity.
I said, I will confess my transgressions to YaHWeH,
And you forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Selah.

6For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found.
Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.
7You are my hiding place.
You will preserve me from trouble.
You will surround me with songs of deliverance.

Selah.

8I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.
I will counsel you with my eye on you.
9Don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding,
Whose are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.
10Many sorrows shall be to the wicked,
But he who trusts in YaHWeH, loving kindness shall surround him.
11Be glad in YaHWeH, and rejoice, you righteous!
Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

Psalm 33

1Rejoice in YaHWeH, you righteous!
Praise is fitting for the upright.
2Give thanks to YaHWeH with the lyre.
Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.
3Sing to him a new song.
Play skillfully with a shout of joy!
4For the word of YaHWeH is right.
All his work is done in faithfulness.
5He loves righteousness and justice.

The earth is full of the loving kindness of YaHWeH.
6By YaHWeH's word the heavens were made;
All their host by the breath of his mouth.
7He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap.
He lays up the deeps in storehouses.
8Let all the earth fear YaHWeH.
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
9For he spoke, and it was done.
He commanded, and it stood firm.
10YaHWeH brings the counsel of the nations to nothing.
He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.
11The counsel of YaHWeH stands fast forever,
The thoughts of his heart to all generations.
12Blessed is the nation whose God is YaHWeH,
The people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.
13YaHWeH looks from heaven.
He sees all the sons of men.
14From the place of his habitation he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth,
15He who fashions all of their hearts;
And he considers all of their works.
16There is no king saved by the multitude of a host.
A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
17A horse is a vain thing for safety,
Neither does he deliver any by his great power.
18Behold, YaHWeH's eye is on those who fear him,
On those who hope in his loving kindness;
19To deliver their soul from death,
To keep them alive in famine.
20Our soul has waited for YaHWeH.
He is our help and our shield.
21For our heart rejoices in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.
22Let your loving kindness be on us, YaHWeH,
Since we have hoped in you.

Psalm 34

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelekh, who drove him away, and he departed.

[1]I will bless YaHWeH at all times.
His praise will always be in my mouth.
[2]My soul shall boast in YaHWeH.
The humble shall hear of it, and be glad.
[3]Oh magnify YaHWeH with me.
Let us exalt his name together.
[4]I sought YaHWeH, and he answered me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
[5]They looked to him, and were radiant.
Their faces shall never be covered with shame.
[6]This poor man cried, and YaHWeH heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
[7]The angel of YaHWeH encamps round about those who fear him,
And delivers them.
[8]Oh taste and see that YaHWeH is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.
[9]Oh fear YaHWeH, you his holy ones,
For there is no lack with those who fear him.
[10]The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger,
But those who seek YaHWeH shall not lack any good thing.

[11]Come, you children, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of YaHWeH.
[12]Who is someone who desires life,
And loves many days, that he may see good?
[13]Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking lies.
[14]Depart from evil, and do good.
Seek shalom, and pursue it.
[15]YaHWeH's eyes are toward the righteous.
His ears listen to their cry.
[16]YaHWeH's face is against those who do evil,
To cut off the memory of them from the earth.
[17]The righteous cry, and YaHWeH hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
[18]YaHWeH is near to those who have a broken heart,
And saves those who have a crushed spirit.
[19]Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
But YaHWeH delivers him out of them all.
[20]He protects all of his bones.

Not one of them is broken.
21Evil shall kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
22YaHWeH redeems the soul of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him shall be condemned.

Psalm 35

By David.

1Contend, YaHWeH, with those who contend with me.
Fight against those who fight against me.
2Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.
3Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me.
Tell my soul, "I am your yeshuah (salvation)."
4Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor.
Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.
5Let them be as chaff before the wind,
YaHWeH's angel driving them on.
6Let their way be dark and slippery,
YaHWeH's angel pursuing them.
7For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me.
Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul.
8Let destruction come on him unawares.
Let his net that he has hidden catch himself.
Let him fall into that destruction.

9My soul shall be joyful in YaHWeH.
It shall rejoice in his yeshuah (salvation).
10All my bones shall say, "YaHWeH, who is like you,
Who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him,
Yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?"
11Unrighteous witnesses rise up.
They ask me about things that I don't know about.
12They reward me evil for good,
To the bereaving of my soul.

13But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.

I afflicted my soul with fasting.
My prayer returned into my own bosom.
14I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother.
I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother.
15But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together.
The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it.
They tore at me, and didn't cease.
16Like the profane mockers in feasts,
They gnashed their teeth at me.
17Lord (Adonay), how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their destruction,
My precious life from the lions.
18I will give you thanks in the great assembly.
I will praise you among many people.
19Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;
Neither let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.
20For they don't speak shalom,
But they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.
21Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me.
They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"
22You have seen it, YaHWeH. Don't keep silent.
Lord (Adonay), don't be far from me.
23Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God!
My Lord (Adonay), contend for me!
24Vindicate me, YaHWeH my God, according to your righteousness;
Don't let them gloat over me.
25Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha! That's the way we want it!"
Don't let them say, "We have swallowed him up!"
26Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity.
Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me.

27Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause.
Yes, let them say continually, "YaHWeH be magnified,
Who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant!"
28My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

Psalm 36

For the Chief Musician. By David, the servant of YaHWeH.

1An oracle is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked:
"There is no fear of God before his eyes."
2For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
Too much to detect and hate his sin.
3The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit.
He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
4He plots iniquity on his bed.
He sets himself in a way that is not good;
He doesn't abhor evil.

5Your loving kindness, YaHWeH, is in the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
6Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.
Your judgments are like a great deep.
YaHWeH, you preserve man and animal.
7How precious is your loving kindness, God!
The children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
8They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house.
You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.
9For with you is the spring of life.
In your light shall we see light.
10Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you,
Your righteousness to the upright in heart.
11Don't let the foot of pride come against me.
Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away.
12There the workers of iniquity are fallen.
They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

Psalm 37

By David.

1Don't fret because of evil-doers,
Neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.
2For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither like the green herb.
3Trust in YaHWeH, and do good.
Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture.

4Also delight yourself in YaHWeH,
And he will give you the desires of your heart.
5Commit your way to YaHWeH.
Trust also in him, and he will do this:
6He will make your righteousness go forth as the light,
And your justice as the noon day sun.
7Rest in YaHWeH, and wait patiently for him.
Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way,
Because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.
8Cease from anger, and forsake wrath.
Don't fret, it leads only to evildoing.
9For evildoers shall be cut off,
But those who wait for YaHWeH shall inherit the land.
10For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more.
Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there.
11But the humble shall inherit the land,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of shalom.
12The wicked plots against the just,
And gnashes at him with his teeth.
13YaHWeH will laugh at him,
For he sees that his day is coming.
14The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow,
To cast down the poor and needy,
To kill those who are upright in the way.
15Their sword shall enter into their own heart.
Their bows shall be broken.
16Better is a little that the righteous has,
Than the abundance of many wicked.
17For the arms of the wicked shall be broken,
But YaHWeH upholds the righteous.
18YaHWeH knows the days of the perfect.
Their inheritance shall be forever.
19They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil.
In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20But the wicked shall perish.
The enemies of YaHWeH shall be like the beauty of the fields.
They will vanish—
Vanish like smoke.
21The wicked borrow, and don't pay back,

But the righteous give generously.
22For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land.
Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.
23A man's goings are established by YaHWeH.
He delights in his way.
24Though he stumble, he shall not fall,
For YaHWeH holds him up with his hand.
25I have been young, and now am old,
Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
Nor his children begging for bread.
26All day long he deals graciously, and lends.
His seed is blessed.
27Depart from evil, and do good;
Live securely forever.
28For YaHWeH loves justice,
And doesn't forsake his holy ones.
They are preserved forever,
But the children of the wicked shall be cut off.
29The righteous shall inherit the land,
And live in it forever.

30The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom.
His tongue speaks justice.
31The law of his God is in his heart.
None of his steps shall slide.
32The wicked watches the righteous,
And seeks to kill him.
33YaHWeH will not leave him in his hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.
34Wait for YaHWeH, and keep his way,
And he will exalt you to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.

35I have seen the wicked in great power,
Spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
36But he passed away, and, behold, he was not.
Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.
37Mark the perfect man, and see the upright,
For there is a future for the man of shalom.
38As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together.
The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

39But the salvation of the righteous is from YaHWeH.
He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.
40YaHWeH helps them, and rescues them.
He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them,
Because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

1YaHWeH, don't rebuke me in your wrath,
Neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
2For your arrows have pierced me,
Your hand presses hard on me.
3There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation,
Neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.
4For my iniquities have gone over my head.
As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
5My wounds are loathsome and corrupt,
Because of my foolishness.
6I am pained and bowed down greatly.
I go mourning all day long.
7For my loins are filled with burning.
There is no soundness in my flesh.
8I am faint and severely bruised.
I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.
9Lord (Adonay), all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden from you.
10My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me.
11My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague.
My kinsmen stand far away.
12They also who seek after my life lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things,
And meditate deceits all day long.
13But I, as a deaf man, don't hear.
I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth.
14Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear,

In whose mouth are no reproofs.
15For in you, YaHWeH, do I hope.
You will answer, Lord (Adonay) my God.
16For I said, "Don't let them gloat over me,
Or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."
17For I am ready to fall.
My pain is continually before me.
18For I will declare my iniquity.
I will be sorry for my sin.
19But my enemies are vigorous and many.
Those who hate me without reason are numerous.
20They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me,
Because I follow what is good.
21Don't forsake me, YaHWeH.
My God, don't be far from me.
22Hurry to help me,
Lord (Adonay), my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the Chief Musician. For Yedutun. A Psalm by David.

1I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue.
I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."
2I was mute with silence.
I held my shalom, even from good.
My sorrow was stirred.
3My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned:
I spoke with my tongue:
4"YaHWeH, show me my end,
What is the measure of my days.
Let me know how frail I am.
5Behold, you have made my days handbreadths.
My lifetime is as nothing before you.
Surely every man stands as a breath."

Selah.

6"Surely every man walks like a shadow.

Surely they busy themselves in vain.
He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather.
7Now, Lord (Adonay), what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
8Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Don't make me the reproach of the foolish.
9I was mute.
I didn't open my mouth,
Because you did it.
10Remove your scourge away from me.
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
11When you rebuke and correct man for iniquity,
You consume his wealth like a moth.
Surely every man is but a breath."

Selah.

12"Hear my prayer, YaHWeH, and give ear to my cry.
Don't be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger with you,
A foreigner, as all my fathers were.
13Oh spare me, that I may recover strength,
Before I go away, and be no more."

Psalm 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1I waited patiently for YaHWeH.
He turned to me, and heard my cry.
2He brought me up also out of a horrible pit,
Out of the miry clay.
He set my feet on a rock,
And gave me a firm place to stand.
3He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.
Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in YaHWeH.
4Blessed is the man who makes YaHWeH his trust,
And doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
5Many, YaHWeH, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done,
And your thoughts which are toward us.

They can't be set in order to you;
If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.
6Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire.
You have opened my ears:
Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required.
7Then I said, "Behold, I have come.
It is written about me in the book in the scroll.
8I delight to do your will, my God.
Yes, your law is within my heart."
9I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly.
Behold, I will not seal my lips, YaHWeH, you know.
10I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart.
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation.
I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.
11Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, YaHWeH.
Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.
12For innumerable evils have surrounded me.
My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.
They are more than the hairs of my head.
My heart has failed me.
13Be pleased, YaHWeH, to deliver me.
Hurry to help me, YaHWeH.
14Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it.
Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.
15Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!"
16Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.
Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let YaHWeH be exalted!"
17But I am poor and needy;
May YaHWeH think about me.
You are my help and my deliverer.
Don't delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1Blessed is he who considers the poor:
YaHWeH will deliver him in the day of evil.

2YaHWeH will preserve him, and keep him alive,
He shall be blessed on the earth,
And he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.
3YaHWeH will sustain him on his sickbed,
And restore him from his bed of illness.
4I said, "YaHWeH, have mercy on me!
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."
5My enemies speak evil against me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"
6If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.
His heart gathers iniquity to itself.
When he goes abroad, he tells it.
7All who hate me whisper together against me.
They imagine the worst for me.
8"An evil disease," they say, "has afflicted him.
Now that he lies he shall rise up no more."
9Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,
Who ate bread with me,
Has lifted up his heel against me.

10But you, YaHWeH, have mercy on me, and raise me up,
That I may repay them.
11By this I know that you delight in me,
Because my enemy doesn't triumph over me.
12As for me, you uphold me in my integrity,
And set me in your presence forever.

13Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael),
From everlasting and to everlasting!
Amein and amein.

BOOK II

Psalm 42

For the Chief Musician. A maskil by the sons of Korach.

1As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So my soul pants after you, God.

2My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before God?
3My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"
4These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,
How I used to go with the crowd, and led them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.
5Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me?
Hope in God!
For I shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence.
6My God, my soul is in despair within me.
Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan (Yarden),
The heights of Hermon,, from the hill Mitz`ar.
7Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.
All your waves and your billows have swept over me.

8YaHWeH will command his loving kindness in the daytime.
In the night his song shall be with me:
A prayer to the God of my life.
9I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"
10As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me,
While they continually ask me, "Where is your God?"
11Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me?
Hope in God! For I shall still praise him,
The saving help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm 43

1Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.
Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked men.
2For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
3Oh, send out your light and your truth.
Let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy hill,

To your tents.
4Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God, my exceeding joy.
I will praise you on the harp, God, my God.
5Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me?
Hope in God!
For I shall still praise him:
My Savior, my helper, and my God.

Psalm 44

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korach. A maskil.

1We have heard with our ears, God;
Our fathers have told us,
What work you did in their days,
In the days of old.
2You drove out the nations with your hand,
But you planted them.
You afflicted the peoples,
But you spread them abroad.
3For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword,
Neither did their own arm save them;
But your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your face,
Because you were favorable to them.
4You are my King, God.
Command victories for Jacob (Yakob)!
5Through you, will we push down our adversaries.
Through your name, will we tread them under who rise up against us.
6For I will not trust in my bow,
Neither shall my sword save me.
7But you have saved us from our adversaries,
And have shamed those who hate us.
8In God we have made our boast all day long,
We will give thanks to your name forever.

Selah.

9But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor,
And don't go out with our armies.
10You make us turn back from the adversary.
Those who hate us take spoil for themselves.
11You have made us like sheep for food,
And have scattered us among the nations.
12You sell your people for nothing,
And have gained nothing from their sale.
13You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
A scoffing and a derision to those who are around us.
14You make us a byword among the nations,
A shaking of the head among the peoples.
15All day long my dishonor is before me,
And shame covers my face,
16At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
Because of the enemy and the avenger.
17All this has come on us,
Yet have we not forgotten you,
Neither have we been false to your covenant.
18Our heart has not turned back,
Neither have our steps strayed from your path,
19Though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals,
And covered us with the shadow of death.
20If we have forgotten the name of our God,
Or spread forth our hands to a strange god;
21Won't God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.
22Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long.
We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.
23Wake up!
Why do you sleep, Lord (Adonay)?
Arise!
Don't reject us forever.
24Why do you hide your face,
And forget our affliction and our oppression?
25For our soul is bowed down to the dust.
Our body cleaves to the earth.
26Rise up to help us.
Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake.

Psalm 45

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." A maskil by the sons of Korach. A wedding song.

1My heart overflows with a noble theme.
I recite my verses for the king.
My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
2You are the most excellent of the sons of men.
Grace has anointed your lips,
Therefore God has blessed you forever.
3Gird your sword on your thigh, mighty one:
Your splendor and your majesty.
4In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness.
Let your right hand display awesome deeds.
5Your arrows are sharp.
The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies.
6Your throne, God, is forever and ever.
A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
7You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
8All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
9Kings' daughters are among your honorable women.
At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ofir.
10Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear.
Forget your own people, and also your father's house.
11So the king will desire your beauty,
Honor him, for he is your lord.
12The daughter of Tyrus (Tzor) comes with a gift.
The rich among the people entreat your favor.
13The princess inside is all glorious.
Her clothing is interwoven with gold.
14She shall be led to the king in embroidered work.
The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you.
15With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led.
They shall enter into the king's palace.

16Your sons will take the place of your fathers.
You shall make them princes in all the earth.
17I will make your name to be remembered in all generations.
Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korach. According to `Alamot.

1God is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
2Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes,
Though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;
3Though the waters of it roar and are troubled,
Though the mountains tremble with their swelling.

Selah.

4There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad,
The holy place of the tents of Most high (Elyon).
5God is in her midst. She shall not be moved.
God will help her at dawn.
6The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved.
He lifted his voice, and the earth melted.
7YaHWeH of Hosts is with us.
The God of Jacob (Yakob) is our refuge.

Selah.

8Come, see YaHWeH's works,
What desolations he has made in the earth.
9He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.
He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear.
He burns the chariots in the fire.
10"Be still, and know that I am God.
I will be exalted among the nations.
I will be exalted in the earth."
11YaHWeH of Hosts is with us.
The God of Jacob (Yakob) is our refuge.

Selah.

Psalm 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korach.

1Oh clap your hands, all you nations.
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
2For YaHWeH Elyon is awesome.
He is a great King over all the earth.
3He subdues nations under us,
And peoples under our feet.
4He chooses our inheritance for us,
The glory of Jacob (Yakob) whom he loved.

Selah.

5God has gone up with a shout,
YaHWeH with the sound of a trumpet (shofar).
6Sing praise to God, sing praises.
Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
7For God is the King of all the earth.
Sing praises with understanding.
8God reigns over the nations.
God sits on his holy throne.
9The princes of the peoples are gathered together,
The people of the God of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to God.
He is greatly exalted!

Psalm 48

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korach.

1Great is YaHWeH, and greatly to be praised,

In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
2Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion (Tziyon), on the north sides,
The city of the great King.
3God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge.
4For, behold, the kings assembled themselves,
They passed by together.
5They saw it, then they were amazed.
They were dismayed,
They hurried away.
6Trembling took hold of them there,
Pain, as of a woman in travail.
7With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.
8As we have heard, so we have seen,
In the city of YaHWeH of Hosts, in the city of our God.
God will establish it forever.

Selah.

9We have thought about your loving kindness, God,
In the midst of your temple.
10As is your name, God,
So is your praise to the ends of the earth.
Your right hand is full of righteousness.
11Let Mount Zion (Tziyon) be glad!
Let the daughters of Judah (Yahudah) rejoice,
Because of your judgments.
12Walk about Zion (Tziyon), and go around her.
Number its towers;
13Mark well her bulwarks.
Consider her palaces,
That you may tell it to the next generation.
14For this God is our God forever and ever.
He will be our guide even to death.

Psalm 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korach.

[1]Hear this, all you peoples.
Listen, all you inhabitants of the world,
[2]Both low and high,
Rich and poor together.
[3]My mouth will speak words of wisdom.
My heart shall utter understanding.
[4]I will incline my ear to a proverb.
I will open my riddle on the harp.
[5]Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
[6]Those who trust in their wealth,
And boast in the multitude of their riches—
[7]None of them can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor give God a ransom for him.
[8]For the redemption of their life is costly,
No payment is ever enough,
[9]That he should live on forever,
That he should not see corruption.
[10]For he sees that wise men die;
Likewise the fool and the senseless perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
[11]Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever,
And their dwelling places to all generations.
They name their lands after themselves.
[12]But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure.
He is like the animals that perish.

[13]This is the destiny of those who are foolish,
And of those who approve their sayings.

Selah.

[14]They are appointed as a flock for She'ol.
Death shall be their shepherd.
The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.
Their beauty shall decay in She'ol,
Far from their mansion.
[15]But God will redeem my soul from the power of She'ol,
For he will receive me.

Selah.

[16]Don't be afraid when a man is made rich,
When the glory of his house is increased.

17For when he dies he shall carry nothing away.
His glory shall not descend after him.
18Though while he lived he blessed his soul—
And men praise you when you do well for yourself—
19He shall go to the generation of his fathers.
They shall never see the light.
20A man who has riches without understanding,
Is like the animals that perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm by Asaf.

1The Mighty One, God, YaHWeH, speaks,
And calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.
2Out of Zion (Tziyon), the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.
3Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire devours before him.
It is very tempestuous around him.
4He calls to the heavens above,
To the earth, that he may judge his people:
5"Gather my holy ones together to me,
Those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."
6The heavens shall declare his righteousness,
For God himself is judge.

Selah.

7"Hear, my people, and I will speak;
Isreal (Yisrael), and I will testify against you.
I am God, your God.
8I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.
9I have no need for a bull from your stall,
Nor male goats from your pens.
10For every animal of the forest is mine,
And the cattle on a thousand hills.
11I know all the birds of the mountains.

The wild animals of the field are mine.
12If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
For the world is mine, and all that is in it.
13Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
14Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to Most high (Elyon).
15Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me."

16But to the wicked God says,
"What right do you have to declare my statutes,
That you have taken my covenant on your lips,
17Seeing you hate instruction,
And throw my words behind you?
18When you saw a thief, you consented with him,
And have participated with adulterers.
19"You give your mouth to evil.
You harnesses your tongue for deceit.
20You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own mother's son.
21You have done these things, and I kept silent.
You thought that the "I AM" was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.

22"Now consider this, you who forget God,
Lest I tear you into pieces, and there be none to deliver.
23Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me,
And prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him."

Psalm 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Natan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bath-Sheba.

1Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness.
According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.

2Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity.
Cleanse me from my sin.
3For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before me.
4Against you, and you only, have I sinned,
And done that which is evil in your sight;
That you may be proved right when you speak,
And justified when you judge.
5Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity.
In sin my mother conceived me.
6Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts.
You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
7Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
8Let me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.
9Hide your face from my sins,
And blot out all of my iniquities.
10Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me.
11Don't throw me from your presence,
And don't take your holy Spirit from me.
12Restore to me the joy of your salvation.
Uphold me with a willing spirit.
13Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
Sinners shall be converted to you.
14Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation.
My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.
15Lord (Adonay), open my lips.
My mouth shall declare your praise.
16For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.
You have no pleasure in burnt offering.
17The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

18Do well in your good pleasure to Zion (Tziyon).
Build the walls of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
19Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
In burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.
Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the Chief Musician. A maskil by David, when Do'eg the Edomite came and told Sha'ul, "David has come to Abimelekh's house."

[1]Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?
God's loving kindness endures continually.
[2]Your tongue plots destruction,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
[3]You love evil more than good,
Lying rather than speaking the truth.

Selah.

[4]You love all devouring words,
You deceitful tongue.
[5]God will likewise destroy you forever.
He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent,
And root you out of the land of the living.

Selah.

[6]The righteous also will see it, and fear,
And laugh at him, saying,
[7]"Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength,
But trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness."
[8]But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house.
I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever.
[9]I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it.
I will hope in your name, for it is good,
In the presence of your holy ones.

Psalm 53

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "on machalat." A maskil by David.

1The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity.
There is no one who does good.
2God looks down from heaven on the children of men,
To see if there are any who understood,
Who seek after God.
3Every one of them has gone back.
They have become filthy together.
There is no one who does good, no, not one.
4Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And don't call on God?
5There they were in great fear, where no fear was,
For God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you.
You have put them to shame,
Because God has rejected them.
6Oh that the yeshuah (salvation) of Isreal (Yisrael) would come out of Zion (Tziyon)!
When God brings back the captivity of his people,
Then Jacob (Yakob) shall rejoice.
Isreal (Yisrael) shall be glad.

Psalm 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A maskil by David, when the Zifim came and said to Sha'ul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

1Save me, God, by your name.
Vindicate me in your might.
2Hear my prayer, God.
Listen to the words of my mouth.
3For strangers have risen up against me.
Violent men have sought after my soul.
They haven't set God before them.

Selah.

4Behold, God is my helper.
YaHWeH is the one who sustains my soul.
5He will repay the evil to my enemies.

Destroy them in your truth.
6With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.
I will give thanks to your name, YaHWeH, for it is good.
7For he has delivered me out of all trouble.
My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A maskil by David.

1Listen to my prayer, God.
Don't hide yourself from my supplication.
2Attend to me, and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint, and moan,
3Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked.
For they bring suffering on me.
In anger they hold a grudge against me.
4My heart is severely pained within me.
The terrors of death have fallen on me.
5Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.
Horror has overwhelmed me.
6I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away, and be at rest.
7Behold, then I would wander far off.
I would lodge in the wilderness."

Selah.

8"I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and tempest."
9Confuse them, Lord (Adonay), and confound their language,
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
10Day and night they prowl around on its walls.
Malice and abuse are also within her.
11Destructive forces are within her.
Threats and lies don't depart from her streets.
12For it was not an enemy who insulted me,
Then I could have endured it.
Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me,

Then I would have hid myself from him.
13But it was you, a man like me,
My companion, and my familiar friend.
14We took sweet fellowship together.
We walked in God's house with company.
15Let death come suddenly on them.
Let them go down alive into She'ol.
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst of them.
16As for me, I will call on God.
YaHWeH will save me.
17Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.
He will hear my voice.
18He has redeemed my soul in shalom from the battle that was against me,
Although there are many who oppose me.
19God, who is enthroned forever,
Will hear, and answer them.

Selah.

They never change,
Who don't fear God.
20He raises his hands against his friends.
He has violated his covenant.
21His mouth was smooth as butter,
But his heart was war.
His words were softer than oil,
Yet they were drawn swords.

22Cast your burden on YaHWeH, and he will sustain you.
He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
23But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.
Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days,
But I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A miktam by David, when the Philistines (Pelishtim) seized him in Gat.

[1]Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up.
All day long, he attacks and oppresses me.
[2]My enemies want to swallow me up all day long,
For they are many who fight proudly against me.
[3]When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.
[4]In God, I praise his word.
In God, I put my trust.
I will not be afraid.
What can flesh do to me?
[5]All day long they twist my words.
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
[6]They conspire and lurk,
Watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.
[7]Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, God.
[8]You number my wanderings.
You put my tears into your bottle.
Aren't they in your book?
[9]Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.
I know this, that God is for me.
[10]In God, I will praise his word.
In YaHWeH, I will praise his word.
[11]I have put my trust in God.
I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
[12]Your vows are on me, God.
I will give thank offerings to you.
[13]For you have delivered my soul from death,
And prevented my feet from falling,
That I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "Do Not Destroy." A miktam by David, when he fled from Sha'ul, in the cave.

[1]Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me,
For my soul takes refuge in you.
Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge,
Until disaster has passed.
[2]I cry out to El `Elyon,
To God who accomplishes my requests for me.
[3]He will send from heaven, and save me,
He rebukes the one who is pursuing me.

Selah.

God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.
[4]My soul is among lions.
I lie among those who are set on fire,
Even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.
[5]Be exalted, God, above the heavens!
Let your glory be above all the earth!

[6]They have prepared a net for my steps.
My soul is bowed down.
They dig a pit before me.
They fall into the midst of it themselves.

Selah.

[7]My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast.
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.
[8]Wake up, my glory! Wake up, psaltery and harp!
I will wake up the dawn.
[9]I will give thanks to you, Lord (Adonay), among the peoples.
I will sing praises to you among the nations.
[10]For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens,
And your truth to the skies.
[11]Be exalted, God, above the heavens.
Let your glory be over all the earth.

Psalm 58

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "Do Not Destroy." A miktam by David.

[1]Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones?
Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men?
[2]No, in your heart you plot injustice.
You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.
[3]The wicked go astray from the womb.
They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
[4]Their poison is like the poison of a snake;
Like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,
[5]Which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers,
No matter how skillful the charmer may be.
[6]Break their teeth, God, in their mouth.
Break out the great teeth of the young lions, YaHWeH.
[7]Let them vanish as water that flows away.
When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.
[8]Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away,
Like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.
[9]Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns,
He will sweep away the green and the burning alike.
[10]The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.
He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;
[11]So that men shall say, "Most assuredly there is a reward for the righteous.
Most assuredly there is a God who judges the earth."

Psalm 59

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "Do Not Destroy." A miktam by David, when Sha'ul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

[1]Deliver me from my enemies, my God.
Set me on high from those who rise up against me.
[2]Deliver me from the workers of iniquity.
Save me from the bloodthirsty men.
[3]For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul.
The mighty gather themselves together against me,
Not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, YaHWeH.
[4]I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.

Rise up, behold, and help me!
5You, YaHWeH God of Host (Tzba'ot), the God of Isreal (Yisrael), Rouse yourself to punish the nations.
Show no mercy to the wicked traitors.

Selah.

6They return at evening, howling like dogs,
And prowl around the city.
7Behold, they spew with their mouth.
Swords are in their lips,
"For," they say, "who hears us?"
8But you, YaHWeH, laugh at them.
You scoff at all the nations.
9Oh, my Strength, I watch for you,
For God is my high tower.
10My God will go before me with his loving kindness.
God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.
11Don't kill them, or my people may forget.
Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, Lord (Adonay) our shield.
12For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips,
Let them be caught in their pride,
For the curses and lies which they utter.
13Consume them in wrath.
Consume them, and they will be no more.
Let them know that God rules in Jacob (Yakob),
To the ends of the earth.

Selah.

14At evening let them return.
Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.
15They shall wander up and down for food,
And wait all night if they aren't satisfied.

16But I will sing of your strength.
Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning.
For you have been my high tower,
A refuge in the day of my distress.
17To you, my strength, I will sing praises.
For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "The Lily of the Covenant." A miktam by David, when he fought with Mesopotamia (Aram-Naharayim) and with Aram-Tzobah, and Yo'ab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

1God, you have rejected us.
You have broken us down.
You have been angry.
Restore us, again.
2You have made the land tremble.
You have torn it.
Mend its fractures,
For it quakes.
3You have shown your people hard things.
You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.
4You have given a banner to those who fear you,
That it may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah.

5So that your beloved may be delivered,
Save with your right hand, and answer us.
6God has spoken from his sanctuary:
"I will triumph.
I will divide Shekhem,
And measure out the valley of Sukkot.
7Gil`ad is mine, and Manasseh (Menashsheh) is mine.
Ephraim (Efrayim) also is the defense of my head.
Judah (Yahudah) is my scepter.
8Moab is my wash basin.
I will throw my shoe on Edom.
I shout in triumph over PeleSeth (Sheth)."

9Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who has led me to Edom?
10Haven't you, God, rejected us?
You don't go out with our armies, God.
11Give us help against the adversary,
For the help of man is vain.

12Through God we shall do valiantly,
For it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

1Hear my cry, God.
Listen to my prayer.
2From the end of the earth, I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed.
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
3For you have been a refuge for me,
A strong tower from the enemy.
4I will dwell in your tent forever.
I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.

Selah.

5For you, God, have heard my vows.
You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.
6You will prolong the king's life;
His years shall be for generations.
7He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever.
Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that they may preserve him.
8So I will sing praise to your name forever,
That I may fulfill my vows daily.

Psalm 62

For the Chief Musician. On Yedutun. A Psalm by David.

1My soul rests in God alone.
My yeshuah (salvation) is from him.
2He alone is my rock and my yeshuah (salvation), my fortress—
I will never be greatly shaken.

3How long will you assault a man,
Would all of you throw him down,
Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?
4They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place.
They delight in lies.
They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

Selah.

5My soul, wait in silence for God alone,
For my expectation is from him.
6He alone is my rock and my yeshuah (salvation), my fortress.
I will not be shaken.
7With God is my salvation and my honor.
The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
8Trust in him at all times, you people.
Pour out your heart before him.
God is a refuge for us.

Selah.

9Surely men of low degree are just a breath,
And men of high degree are a lie.
In the balances they will go up.
They are together lighter than a breath.
10Don't trust in oppression.
Don't become vain in robbery.
If riches increase,
Don't set your heart on them.
11God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this,
That power belongs to God.
12Also to you, Lord (Adonay), belongs loving kindness,
For you reward every man according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah (Yahudah).

1God, you are my God.
I will earnestly seek you.

My soul thirsts for you,
My flesh longs for you,
In a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
[2]So I have seen you in the sanctuary,
Watching your power and your glory.
[3]Because your loving kindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise you.
[4]So I will bless you while I live.
I will lift up my hands in your name.
[5]My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.
My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips,
[6]When I remember you on my bed,
And think about you in the night watches.
[7]For you have been my help.
I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
[8]My soul stays close to you.
Your right hand holds me up.
[9]But those who seek my soul, to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
[10]They shall be given over to the power of the sword.
They shall be jackal food.
[11]But the king shall rejoice in God.
Everyone who swears by him will praise him,
For the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

[1]Hear my voice, God, in my complaint.
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
[2]Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked,
From the noisy crowd of the ones doing evil;
[3]Who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
And aim their arrows, deadly words,
[4]To shoot innocent men from ambushes.
They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.

5They encourage themselves in evil plans.
They talk about laying snares secretly.
They say, "Who will see them?"
6They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!"
Surely man's mind and heart are cunning.
7But God will shoot at them.
They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
8Their own tongues shall ruin them.
All who see them will shake their heads.
9All mankind shall be afraid.
They shall declare the work of God,
And shall wisely ponder what he has done.
10The righteous shall be glad in YaHWeH,
And shall take refuge in him.
All the upright in heart shall praise him!

Psalm 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

1Praise waits for you, God, in Zion (Tziyon).
To you shall vows be performed.
2You who hear prayer,
To you all men will come.
3Sins overwhelmed me,
But you atoned for our transgressions.
4Blessed is one whom you choose, and cause to come near,
That he may live in your courts.
We will be filled with the goodness of your house,
Your holy temple.
5By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,
God of our salvation.
You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth,
Of those who are far away on the sea;
6Who by his power forms the mountains,
Having armed yourself with strength;
7Who stills the roaring of the seas,

The roaring of their waves,
And the turmoil of the nations.
8They also who dwell in far-away places are afraid at your wonders.
You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.
9You visit the earth, and water it.
You greatly enrich it.
The river of God is full of water.
You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it.
10You drench its furrows.
You level its ridges.
You soften it with showers.
You bless it with a crop.
11You crown the year with your bounty.
Your carts overflow with abundance.
12The wilderness grasslands overflow.
The hills are clothed with gladness.
13The pastures are covered with flocks.
The valleys also are clothed with grain.
They shout for joy!
They also sing.

Psalm 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.

1Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth!
2Sing to the glory of his name!
Offer glory and praise!
3Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds!
Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you.
4All the earth will worship you,
And will sing to you;
They will sing to your name."

Selah.

5Come, and see God's deeds—
Awesome work on behalf of the children of men.
6He turned the sea into dry land.

They went through the river on foot.
There, we rejoiced in him.
7He rules by his might forever.
His eyes watch the nations.
Don't let the rebellious rise up against him.

Selah.

8Praise our God, you peoples!
Make the sound of his praise heard,
9Who preserves our life among the living,
And doesn't allow our feet to be moved.
10For you, God, have tested us.
You have refined us, as silver is refined.
11You brought us into prison.
You laid a burden on our backs.
12You allowed men to ride over our heads.
We went through fire and through water,
But you brought us to the place of abundance.
13I will come into your temple with burnt offerings.
I will pay my vows to you, 14which my lips promised,
And my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.
15I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals,
With the offering of rams,
I will offer bulls with goats.

Selah.

16Come, and hear, all you who fear God.
I will declare what he has done for my soul.
17I cried to him with my mouth.
He was extolled with my tongue.
18If I cherished sin in my heart,
YaHWeH wouldn't have listened.
19But most assuredly, God has listened.
He has heard the voice of my prayer.
20Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
Nor his loving kindness from me.

Psalm 67

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

[1]May God be merciful to us, bless us,
And cause his face to shine on us.

Selah.

[2]That your way may be known on earth,
And your yeshuah (salvation) among all nations,
[3]Let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
[4]Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
For you will judge the peoples with equity,
And govern the nations on earth.

Selah.

[5]Let the peoples praise you, God.
Let all the peoples praise you.
[6]The earth has yielded its increase.
God, even our own God, will bless us.
[7]God will bless us.
All the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David. A song.

[1]Let God arise!
Let his enemies be scattered!
Let them who hate him also flee before him.
[2]As smoke is driven away,
So drive them away.
As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
[3]But let the righteous be glad.
Let them rejoice before God.
Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
[4]Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Extol him who rides on the clouds:
To YaH, his name!
Rejoice before him!

5A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows,
Is God in his holy habitation.
6God sets the lonely in families.
He brings out the prisoners with singing,
But the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.
7God, when you went forth before your people,
When you marched through the wilderness...

Selah.

8The earth trembled.
The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai—
At the presence of God, the God of Isreal (Yisrael).
9You, God, sent a plentiful rain.
You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.
10Your congregation lived therein.
You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.
11YaHWeH announced the word.
The ones who proclaim it are a great company.
12"Kings of armies flee! They flee!"
She who waits at home divides the spoil,
13While you sleep among the campfires,
The wings of a dove sheathed with silver,
Her feathers with shining gold.
14When Almighty (Shaddai) scattered kings in her,
It snowed on Tzalmon.
15The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains.
The mountains of Bashan are rugged.
16Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains,
At the mountain where God chooses to reign?
Yes, YaHWeH will dwell there forever.
17The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands.
YaHWeH is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary.
18You have ascended on high.
You have led away captives.
You have received gifts among men,
Yes, among the rebellious also, that YaH God (Alohim) might dwell there.

19Blessed be YaHWeH, who daily bears our burdens,
Even the God who is our salvation.

Selah.

20God is to us a God of deliverance.

To YaHWeH, the Lord (Adonay) (Adoni), belongs escape from death.
[21]But God will strike through the head of his enemies,
The hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.
[22]YaHWeH said, "I will bring you again from Bashan,
I will bring you again from the depths of the sea;
[23]That you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood,
That the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."
[24]They have seen your processions, God,
Even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.
[25]The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,
In the midst of the ladies playing with timbrels,
[26]"Bless God in the congregations,
Even YaHWeH in the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael)!"
[27]There is little Benjamin (Binyamin), their ruler,
The princes of Judah (Yahudah), their council,
The princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naftali.

[28]Your God has commanded your strength.
Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.
[29]Because of your temple at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
Kings shall bring presents to you.
[30]Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds,
The multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples.
Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver.
Scatter the nations that delight in war.
[31]Princes shall come out of Egypt (Mitzrayim).
Kush shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God.
[32]Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth!
Sing praises to YaHWeH!

Selah.

[33]To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old;
Behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
[34]Ascribe strength to God!
His excellency is over Isreal (Yisrael),
His strength is in the skies.
[35]You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries.
The God of Isreal (Yisrael) gives strength and power to his people.
Praise be to God!

Psalm 69

For the Chief Musician. On the shoshanim. By David.

[1]Save me, God,
For the waters have come up to my neck!
[2]I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.
I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
[3]I am weary with my crying.
My throat is dry.
My eyes fail, looking for my God.
[4]Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head.
Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty.
I have to restore what I didn't take away.
[5]God, you know my foolishness.
My sins aren't hidden from you.
[6]Don't let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH of Hosts.
Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Isreal (Yisrael).
[7]Because for your sake, I have borne reproach.
Shame has covered my face.
[8]I have become a stranger to my brothers,
An alien to my mother's children.
[9]For the zeal of your house consumes me.
The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.
[10]When I wept and I fasted,
That was to my reproach.
[11]When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a byword to them.
[12]Those who sit in the gate talk about me.
I am the song of the drunkards.
[13]But as for me, my prayer is to you, YaHWeH, in an acceptable time.
God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation.
[14]Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink.
Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.
[15]Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me,

Neither let the deep swallow me up.
Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me.
16Answer me, YaHWeH, for your loving kindness is good.
According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me.
17Don't hide your face from your servant,
For I am in distress.
Answer me speedily!
18Draw near to my soul, and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my enemies.
19You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor.
My adversaries are all before you.
20Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness.
I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;
For comforters, but I found none.
21They also gave me gall for my food.
In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.
22Let their table before them become a snare.
May it become a retribution and a trap.
23Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see.
Let their backs be continually bent.
24Pour out your indignation on them.
Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.
25Let their habitation be desolate.
Let no one dwell in their tents.
26For they persecute him whom you have wounded.
They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt.
27Charge them with crime upon crime.
Don't let them come into your righteousness.
28Let them be blotted out of the book of life,
And not be written with the righteous.
29But I am in pain and distress.
Let your yeshuah (salvation), God, protect me.
30I will praise the name of God with a song,
And will magnify him with thanksgiving.
31It will please YaHWeH better than an ox,
Or a bull that has horns and hoofs.
32The humble have seen it, and are glad.
You who seek after God, let your heart live.
33For YaHWeH hears the needy,
And doesn't despise his captive people.

34Let heaven and earth praise him;
The seas, and everything that moves therein!
35For God will save Zion (Tziyon), and build the cities of Judah (Yahudah).
They shall settle there, and own it.
36The children also of his servants shall inherit it.
Those who love his name shall dwell therein.

Psalm 70

For the Chief Musician. By David. A reminder.

1Hurry, God, to deliver me.
Come quickly to help me, YaHWeH.
2Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul.
Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.
3Let them be turned because of their shame
Who say, "Aha! Aha!"
4Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.
Let those who love your yeshuah (salvation) continually say,
"Let God be exalted!"
5But I am poor and needy.
Come to me quickly, God.
You are my help and my deliverer.
YaHWeH, don't delay.

Psalm 71

1In you, YaHWeH, I take refuge.
Never let me be disappointed.
2Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me.
Turn your ear to me, and save me.
3Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go.
Give the command to save me,
For you are my rock and my fortress.
4Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked,

From the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
[5]For you are my hope, Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH;
My confidence from my youth.
[6]I have relied on you from the womb.
You are he who took me out of my mother's womb.
I will always praise you.
[7]I am a marvel to many,
But you are my strong refuge.
[8]My mouth shall be filled with your praise,
With your honor all the day.
[9]Don't reject me in my old age.
Don't forsake me when my strength fails.
[10]For my enemies talk about me.
Those who watch for my soul conspire together,
[11]Saying, "God has forsaken him.
Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him."
[12]God, don't be far from me.
My God, hurry to help me.
[13]Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed.
Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me.
[14]But I will always hope,
And will add to all of your praise.
[15]My mouth will tell about your righteousness,
And of your salvation all day,
Though I don't know its full measure.
[16]I will come with the mighty acts of Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH .
I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone.
[17]God, you have taught me from my youth.
Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.
[18]Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me,
Until I have declared your strength to the next generation,
Your might to everyone who is to come.
[19]Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens;
You have done great things.
God, who is like you?
[20]You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles,
You will let me live.
You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
[21]Increase my honor,
And comfort me again.

22I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God.
I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Isreal (Yisrael).
23My lips shall shout for joy!
My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you!
24My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long,
For they are disappointed, and they are confounded,
who want to harm me.

Psalm 72

By Solomon (Shlomo).

1God, give the king your justice;
Your righteousness to the royal son.
2He will judge your people with righteousness,
And your poor with justice.
3The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people.
The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.
4He will judge the poor of the people.
He will save the children of the needy,
And will break the oppressor in pieces.
5They shall fear you while the sun endures;
And as long as the moon, throughout all generations.
6He will come down like rain on the mown grass,
As showers that water the earth.
7In his days, the righteous shall flourish,
And abundance of shalom, until the moon is no more.
8He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
From the River to the ends of the earth.
9Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him.
His enemies shall lick the dust.
10The kings of Tarshish and of the isles will bring tribute.
The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
11Yes, all kings shall fall down before him.
All nations shall serve him.
12For he will deliver the needy when he cries;
The poor, who has no helper.

13He will have pity on the poor and needy.
He will save the souls of the needy.
14He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
Their blood will be precious in his sight.
15They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba.
Men shall pray for him continually.
They shall bless him all day long.
16There shall be abundance of grain throughout the land.
Its fruit sways like Lebanon.
Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.
17His name endures forever.
His name continues as long as the sun.
Men shall be blessed by him.
All nations will call him blessed.
18Praise be to YaHWeH God, the God of Isreal (Yisrael),
Who alone does marvelous deeds.
19Blessed be his glorious name forever!
Let the whole earth be filled with his glory!
Amein and amein.

20This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse (Yishay).

BOOK III

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaf.

1Surely God is good to Isreal (Yisrael),
To those who are pure in heart.
2But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
My steps had nearly slipped.
3For I was envious of the arrogant,
When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
4For there are no struggles in their death,
But their strength is firm.
5They are free from burdens of men,

Neither are they plagued like other men.
[6]Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck.
Violence covers them like a garment.
[7]Their eyes bulge with fat.
Their minds pass the limits of conceit.
[8]They scoff and speak with malice.
In arrogance, they threaten oppression.
[9]They have set their mouth in the heavens.
Their tongue walks through the earth.
[10]Therefore their people return to them,
And they drink up waters of abundance.
[11]They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge in Most high (Elyon)?"
[12]Behold, these are the wicked.
Being always at ease, they increase in riches.
[13]Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart,
And washed my hands in innocence,
[14]For all day long have I been plagued,
And punished every morning.
[15]If I had said, "I will speak thus;"
Behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.
[16]When I tried to understand this,
It was too painful for me;
[17]Until I entered God's sanctuary,
And considered their latter end.
[18]Surely you set them in slippery places.
You throw them down to destruction.
[19]How they are suddenly destroyed!
They are completely swept away with terrors.
[20]As a dream when one wakes up,
So, Lord (Adonay), when you awake, you will despise their fantasies.
[21]For my soul was grieved.
I was embittered in my heart.
[22]I was so senseless and ignorant.
I was a bRuth (Rut)e beast before you.
[23]Nevertheless, I am continually with you.
You have held my right hand.
[24]You will guide me with your counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.
[25]Who do I have in heaven?

There is no one on earth who I desire besides you.
[26]My flesh and my heart fails,
But God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
[27]For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish.
You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.
[28]But it is good for me to come close to God.
I have made Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH my refuge,
That I may tell of all your works.

Psalm 74

A maskil by Asaf.

[1]God, why have you rejected us forever?
Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
[2]Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old,
Which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance;
Mount Zion (Tziyon), in which you have lived.
[3]Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins,
All the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
[4]Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly.
They have set up their standards as signs.
[5]They behaved like men wielding axes,
Cutting through a thicket of trees.
[6]Now all its carved work
They break down with hatchet and hammers.
[7]They have burned your sanctuary to the ground.
They have profaned the dwelling-place of your Name.
[8]They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely."
They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.
[9]We see no miraculous signs.
There is no longer any prophet,
Neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.
[10]How long, God, shall the adversary reproach?
Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
[11]Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand?
Take it out of your pocket and consume them!

12Yet God is my King of old,
Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
13You divided the sea by your strength.
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
14You broke the heads of Leviathan (livyatan) in pieces.
You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.
15You opened up spring and stream.
You dried up mighty rivers.
16The day is yours, the night is also yours.
You have prepared the light and the sun.
17You have set all the boundaries of the earth.
You have made summer and winter.

18Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, YaHWeH.
Foolish people have blasphemed your name.
19Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.
Don't forget the life of your poor forever.
20Honor your covenant,
For haunts of violence fill the dark places of the earth.
21Don't let the oppressed return ashamed.
Let the poor and needy praise your name.
22Arise, God! Plead your own cause.
Remember how the foolish man mocks you all day.
23Don't forget the voice of your adversaries.
The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.

Psalm 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaf. A song.

1We give thanks to you, God,
We give thanks, for your Name is near.
Men tell about your wondrous works.

2When I choose the appointed time,
I will judge blamelessly.
3The earth and all its inhabitants quake.

I firmly hold its pillars.

Selah.

4I said to the arrogant, “Don’t boast;”
To the wicked, “Don’t lift up the horn.
5Don’t lift up your horn on high.
Don’t speak with a stiff neck.”
6For neither from the east, nor from the west,
Nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.
7But God is the judge.
He puts down one, and lifts up another.
8For in the hand of YaHWeH there is a cup,
Full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
He pours it out.
Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.

9But I will declare this forever:
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob (Yakob).
10I will cut off all the horns of the wicked,
But the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaf. A song.

1In Judah (Yahudah), God is known.
His name is great in Isreal (Yisrael).
2His tent is also in Shalem;
His dwelling place in Zion (Tziyon).
3There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
The shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war.

Selah.

4Glorious are you, and excellent,
More than mountains of game.
5Valiant men lie plundered,
They have slept their last sleep.
None of the men of war can lift their hands.
6At your rebuke, God of Jacob (Yakob),

Both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.
7You, even you, are to be feared.
Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
8You pronounced judgment from heaven.
The earth feared, and was silent,
9When God arose to judgment,
To save all the afflicted ones of the earth.

Selah.

10Surely the wrath of man praises you.
The survivors of your wrath are restrained.
11Make vows to YaHWeH your God, and fulfill them!
Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.
12He will cut off the spirit of princes.
He is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the Chief Musician. To Yedutun. A Psalm by Asaf.

1My cry goes to God!
Indeed, I cry to God for help,
And for him to listen to me.
2In the day of my trouble I sought YaHWeH.
My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't get tired.
My soul refused to be comforted.
3I remember God, and I groan.
I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.

Selah.

4You hold my eyelids open.
I am so troubled that I can't speak.
5I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
6I remember my song in the night.
I consider in my own heart;
My spirit diligently inquires:
7"Will YaHWeH reject us forever?

Will he be favorable no more?
8Has his loving kindness vanished forever?
Does his promise fail for generations?
9Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"

Selah.

10Then I thought, "I will appeal to this:
The years of the right hand of Most high (Elyon)."
11I will remember YaH's deeds;
For I will remember your wonders of old.
12I will also meditate on all your work,
And consider your doings.
13Your way, God, is in the sanctuary.
What god is great like God?
14You are the God who does wonders.
You have made your strength known among the peoples.
15You have redeemed your people with your arm,
The sons of Jacob (Yakob) and Joseph (Yosef).

Selah.

16The waters saw you, God.
The waters saw you, and they writhed.
The depths also convulsed.
17The clouds poured out water.
The skies resounded with thunder.
Your arrows also flashed around.
18The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
The lightnings lit up the world.
The earth trembled and shook.
19Your way was through the sea;
Your paths through the great waters.
Your footsteps were not known.
20You led your people like a flock,
By the hand of Moses (Moshe) and Aharon.

Psalm 78

A maskil by Asaf.

[1]Hear my law, my people.
Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.
[2]I will open my mouth in a parable.
I will utter dark sayings of old,
[3]Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
[4]We will not hide them from their children,
Telling to the generation to come the praises of YaHWeH,
His strength, and his wondrous works that he has done.
[5]For he established a testimony in Jacob (Yakob),
And appointed a law in Isreal (Yisrael),
Which he commanded our fathers,
That they should make them known to their children;
[6]That the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born;
Who should arise and tell their children,
[7]That they might set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep his commandments (mitzvot),
[8]And might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation that didn't make their hearts loyal,
Whose spirit was not steadfast with God.
[9]The children of Ephraim (Efrayim), being armed and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
[10]They didn't keep God's covenant,
And refused to walk in his law.
[11]They forgot his doings,
His wondrous works that he had shown them.
[12]He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), in the field of Tzo`an.
[13]He split the sea, and caused them to pass through;
He made the waters stand as a heap.
[14]In the daytime he also led them with a cloud,
And all night with a light of fire.
[15]He split rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
[16]He brought streams also out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.
[17]Yet they still went on to sin against him,

To rebel against Most high (Elyon) in the desert.
18They tempted God in their heart
By asking food according to their desire.
19Yes, they spoke against God.
They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?
20Behold, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
Streams overflowed.
Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?"
21Therefore YaHWeH heard, and was angry.
A fire was kindled against Jacob (Yakob),
Anger also went up against Isreal (Yisrael),
22Because they didn't believe in God,
And didn't trust in his yeshuah (salvation).
23Yet he commanded the skies above,
And opened the doors of heaven.
24He rained down manna on them to eat,
And gave them food from the sky.
25Man ate the bread of angels.
He sent them food to the full.
26He caused the east wind to blow in the sky.
By his power he guided the south wind.
27He rained also flesh on them as the dust;
Winged birds as the sand of the seas.
28He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
Around their habitations.
29So they ate, and were well filled.
He gave them their own desire.
30They didn't turn from their cravings.
Their food was yet in their mouths,
31When the anger of God went up against them,
Killed some of the fattest of them,
And struck down the young men of Isreal (Yisrael).
32For all this they still sinned,
And didn't believe in his wondrous works.
33Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
And their years in terror.
34When he killed them, then they inquired after him.
They returned and sought God earnestly.
35They remembered that God was their rock,

The El `Elyon their redeemer.
[36]But they flattered him with their mouth,
And lied to him with their tongue.
[37]For their heart was not right with him,
Neither were they faithful in his covenant.
[38]But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them.
Yes, many times he turned his anger away,
And didn't stir up all his wrath.
[39]He remembered that they were but flesh,
A wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.
[40]How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness,
And grieved him in the desert!
[41]They turned again and tempted God,
And provoked the Holy One of Isreal (Yisrael).
[42]They didn't remember his hand,
Nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
[43]How he set his signs in Egypt (Mitzrayim),
His wonders in the field of Tzo`an,
[44]Turned their rivers into blood,
And their streams, so that they could not drink.
[45]He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them;
And frogs, which destroyed them.
[46]He gave also their increase to the caterpillar,
And their labor to the locust (arbeh).
[47]He destroyed their vines with hail,
Their sycamore-fig trees with frost.
[48]He gave over their cattle also to the hail,
And their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
[49]He threw on them the fierceness of his anger,
Wrath, indignation, and trouble,
And a band of angels of evil.
[50]He made a path for his anger.
He didn't spare their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the pestilence,
[51]And struck all the firstborn in Egypt (Mitzrayim),
The chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
[52]But he led forth his own people like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
[53]He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid,
But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

54He brought them to the border of his sanctuary,
To this mountain, which his right hand had taken.
55He also drove out the nations before them,
Allotted them for an inheritance by line,
And made the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael) to dwell in their tents.
56Yet they tempted and rebelled against Most high (Elyon) God,
And didn't keep his testimonies;
57But turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.
They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
58For they provoked him to anger with their high places,
And moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.
59When God heard this, he was angry,
And greatly abhorred Isreal (Yisrael);
60So that he forsook the tent of Shiloh,
The tent which he placed among men;
61And delivered his strength into captivity,
His glory into the adversary's hand.
62He also gave his people over to the sword,
And was angry with his inheritance.
63Fire devoured their young men;
Their virgins had no wedding song.
64Their Priests (Kohanim) fell by the sword,
And their widows couldn't weep.
65Then YaHWeH awakened as one out of sleep,
Like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
66He struck his adversaries backward.
He put them to a perpetual reproach.
67Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph (Yosef),
And didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim (Efrayim), 68But chose the tribe of Judah (Yahudah),
Mount Zion (Tziyon) which he loved.
69He built his sanctuary like the heights,
Like the earth which he has established forever.
70He also chose David his servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds;
71From following the ewes that have their young,
He brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob (Yakob), his people,
And Isreal (Yisrael), his inheritance.
72So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart,
And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm by Asaf.

[1]God, the nations have come into your inheritance.
They have defiled your holy temple.
They have laid Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) in heaps.
[2]They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky,
The flesh of your holy ones to the animals of the earth.
[3]Their blood they have shed like water around Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
There was no one to bury them.
[4]We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
A scoffing and derision to those who are around us.
[5]How long, YaHWeH?
Will you be angry forever?
Will your jealousy burn like fire?
[6]Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you;
On the kingdoms that don't call on your name;
[7]For they have devoured Jacob (Yakob),
And destroyed his homeland.
[8]Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.
Let your tender mercies speedily meet us,
For we are in desperate need.
[9]Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name.
Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.
[10]Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"
Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes,
That vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.
[11]Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you.
According to the greatness of your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death;
[12]Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom
Their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord (Adonay).
[13]So we, your people and sheep of your pasture,
Will give you thanks forever.
We will praise you forever, to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaf.

[1]Hear us, Shepherd of Isreal (Yisrael),
You who lead Joseph (Yosef) like a flock,
You who sit above the Kerubim, shine forth.
[2]Before Ephraim (Efrayim) and Benjamin (Binyamin) and Manasseh (Menashsheh), stir up your might!
Come to save us!
[3]Turn us again, God.
Cause your face to shine,
And we will be saved.

[4]YaHWeH God of Host (Tzba'ot),
How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?
[5]You have fed them with the bread of tears,
And given them tears to drink in large measure.
[6]You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.
Our enemies laugh among themselves.
[7]Turn us again, God of Host (Tzba'ot).
Cause your face to shine,
And we will be saved.
[8]You brought a vine out of Egypt (Mitzrayim).
You drove out the nations, and planted it.
[9]You cleared the ground for it.
It took deep root, and filled the land.
[10]The mountains were covered with its shadow.
Its boughs were like God's cedars.
[11]It sent out its branches to the sea,
Its shoots to the River.
[12]Why have you broken down its walls,
So that all those who pass by the way pluck it?
[13]The boar out of the wood ravages it.
The wild animals of the field feed on it.
[14]Turn again, we beg you, God of Host (Tzba'ot).
Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine,
[15]The stock which your right hand planted,

The branch that you made strong for yourself.
16It's burned with fire.
It's cut down.
They perish at your rebuke.
17Let your hand be on the man of your right hand,
On the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
18So we will not turn away from you.
Revive us, and we will call on your name.
19Turn us again, YaHWeH God of Host (Tzba'ot).
Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the Chief Musician. On the gittit. By Asaf.

1Sing aloud to God, our strength!
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob (Yakob)!
2Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine,
The pleasant lyre with the harp.
3Blow the trumpet (shofar) at the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our feast day.
4For it is a statute for Isreal (Yisrael),
An ordinance of the God of Jacob (Yakob).
5He appointed it in Joseph (Yosef) for a testimony,
When he went out over the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim),
I heard a language that I didn't know.
6"I removed his shoulder from the burden.
His hands were freed from the basket.
7You called in trouble, and I delivered you.
I answered you in the secret place of thunder.
I tested you at the waters of Merivah."

Selah.

8"Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,
Isreal (Yisrael), if you would listen to me!
9There shall be no strange god in you,
Neither shall you worship any foreign god.

10I am YaHWeH, your God,
Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim).
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
11But my people didn't listen to my voice.
Isreal (Yisrael) desired none of me.
12So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts,
That they might walk in their own counsels.
13Oh that my people would listen to me,
That Isreal (Yisrael) would walk in my ways!
14I would soon subdue their enemies,
And turn my hand against their adversaries.
15The haters of YaHWeH would cringe before him,
And their punishment would last forever.
16But he would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat.
I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaf.

1God presides in the great assembly.
He judges among the gods.
2"How long will you judge unjustly,
And show partiality to the wicked?"

Selah.

3"Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless.
Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.
4Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked."
5They don't know, neither do they understand.
They walk back and forth in darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
6I said, "You are gods,
All of you are sons of Most high (Elyon).
7Nevertheless you shall die like men,
And fall like one of the rulers."

8Arise, God, judge the earth,
For you inherit all of the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaf.

1God, don't keep silent.
Don't keep silent,
And don't be still, God.
2For, behold, your enemies are stirred up.
Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.
3They conspire with cunning against your people.
They plot against your cherished ones.
4"Come," they say, "and let's destroy them as a nation,
That the name of Isreal (Yisrael) may be remembered no more."
5For they have conspired together with one mind.
They form an alliance against you.
6The tents of Edom and the Yishme`elim;
Moab, and the Hagrim;
7GEbal, `Ammon, and `Amalek;
PeleSeth (Sheth) with the inhabitants of Tyrus (Tzor);
8Ashshur also is joined with them.
They have helped the children of Lot.

Selah.

9Do to them as you did to Midyan,
As to Sisera, as to Yabin, at the river Kishon;
10Who perished at `En-Dor,
Who became as dung for the earth.
11Make their nobles like `Oreb and Zeeb;
Yes, all their princes like Zebach and Tzalmunnah;
12Who said, "Let us take possession
Of God's pasturelands."
13My God, make them like tumbleweed;
Like chaff before the wind.
14As the fire that burns the forest,
As the flame that sets the mountains on fire,

15So pursue them with your tempest,
And terrify them with your storm.
16Fill their faces with confusion,
That they may seek your name, YaHWeH.
17Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever.
Yes, let them be confounded and perish;
18That they may know that you alone, whose name is YaHWeH,
Are Most high (Elyon) over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the Chief Musician. On the gittit. A Psalm by the sons of Korach.

1How lovely are your dwellings,
YaHWeH of Hosts!
2My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of YaHWeH.
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.
3Yes, the sparrow has found a home,
And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,
Near your altars, YaHWeH of Hosts, my King, and my God.
4Blessed are those who dwell in your house.
They are always praising you.

Selah.

5Blessed are those whose strength is in you;
Who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.
6Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs.
Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings.
7They go from strength to strength.
Everyone of them appears before God in Zion (Tziyon).
8YaHWeH, God of Host (Tzba'ot), hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob (Yakob).

Selah.

9Behold, God our shield,
Look at the face of your anointed.
10For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11For YaHWeH God is a sun and a shield.
YaHWeH will give grace and glory.
He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly.
12YaHWeH of Hosts,
Blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korach.

1YaHWeH, you have been favorable to your land.
You have restored the fortunes of Jacob (Yakob).
2You have forgiven the iniquity of your people.
You have covered all their sin.

Selah.

3You have taken away all your wrath.
You have turned from the fierceness of your anger.
4Turn us, God of our salvation,
And cause your indignation toward us to cease.
5Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you draw out your anger to all generations?
6Won't you revive us again,
That your people may rejoice in you?
7Show us your loving kindness, YaHWeH.
Grant us your salvation.
8I will hear what God, YaHWeH, will speak,
For he will speak shalom to his people, his holy ones;
But let them not turn again to folly.
9Surely his salvation is near those who fear him,
That glory may dwell in our land.
10Mercy and truth meet together.
Righteousness and shalom have kissed each other.
11Truth springs out of the earth.
Righteousness has looked down from heaven.
12Yes, YaHWeH will give that which is good.
Our land will yield its increase.
13Righteousness goes before him,

And prepares the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A Prayer by David.

[1]Hear, YaHWeH, and answer me,
For I am poor and needy.
[2]Preserve my soul, for I am godly.
You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you.
[3]Be merciful to me, Lord (Adonay),
For I call to you all day long.
[4]Bring joy to the soul of your servant,
For to you, Lord (Adonay), do I lift up my soul.
[5]For you, Lord (Adonay), are good, and ready to forgive;
Abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.
[6]Hear, YaHWeH, my prayer.
Listen to the voice of my petitions.
[7]In the day of my trouble I will call on you,
For you will answer me.
[8]There is no one like you among the gods, Lord (Adonay),
Nor any deeds like your deeds.
[9]All nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord (Adonay).
They shall glorify your name.
[10]For you are great, and do wondrous things.
You are God alone.
[11]Teach me your way, YaHWeH.
I will walk in your truth.
Make my heart undivided to fear your name.
[12]I will praise you, Lord (Adonay) my God, with my whole heart.
I will glorify your name forevermore.
[13]For your loving kindness is great toward me.
You have delivered my soul from the lowest She'ol.
[14]God, the proud have risen up against me.
A company of violent men have sought after my soul,
And they don't hold regard for you before them.
[15]But you, Lord (Adonay), are a merciful and gracious God,

Slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth.
16Turn to me, and have mercy on me!
Give your strength to your servant.
Save the son of your handmaid.
17Show me a sign of your goodness,
That those who hate me may see it, and be shamed,
Because you, YaHWeH, have helped me, and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm by the sons of Korach; a Song.

1His foundation is in the holy mountains.
2YaHWeH loves the gates of Zion (Tziyon) more than all the dwellings of Jacob (Yakob).
3Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God.
Selah.
4I will record Rachab and Babel among those who acknowledge me.
Behold, PeleSeth (Sheth), Tyrus (Tzor), and also Kush:
"This one was born there."
5Yes, of Zion (Tziyon) it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her;"
The Elyon himself will establish her.
6YaHWeH will count, when he writes up the peoples,
"This one was born there."
Selah.
7Those who sing as well as those who dance say,
"All my springs are in you."

Psalm 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korach. For the Chief Musician. To the tune "The Suffering of Affliction." A maskil by Heman, the Ezrachite.

1YaHWeH, the God of my salvation,

I have cried day and night before you.
2Let my prayer enter into your presence.
Turn your ear to my cry.
3For my soul is full of troubles.
My life draws near to She'ol.
4I am counted among those who go down into the pit.
I am like a man who has no help,
5Set apart among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom you remember no more.
They are cut off from your hand.
6You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In the darkest depths.
7Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You have afflicted me with all your waves.

Selah.

8You have taken my friends from me.
You have made me an abomination to them.
I am confined, and I can't escape.
9My eyes are dim from grief.
I have called on you daily, YaHWeH.
I have spread out my hands to you.
10Do you show wonders to the dead?
Do the dead rise up and praise you?

Selah.

11Is your loving kindness declared in the grave?
Or your faithfulness in Destruction?
12Are your wonders made known in the dark?
Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
13But to you, YaHWeH, I have cried.
In the morning, my prayer comes before you.
14YaHWeH, why do you reject my soul?
Why do you hide your face from me?
15I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up.
While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.
16Your fierce wrath has gone over me.
Your terrors have cut me off.
17They came around me like water all day long.
They completely engulfed me.
18You have put lover and friend far from me,

And my friends into darkness.

Psalm 89

A maskil by Etan, the Ezrachite.

[1]I will sing of the loving kindness of YaHWeH forever.
With my mouth, I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.
[2]I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever.
You established the heavens.
Your faithfulness is in them."

[3]"I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David, my servant,
[4]'I will establish your seed forever,
And build up your throne to all generations.'"

Selah.

[5]The heavens will praise your wonders, YaHWeH;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
[6]For who in the skies can be compared to YaHWeH?
Who among the sons of the heavenly beings is like YaHWeH,
[7]A very awesome God in the council of the holy ones,
To be feared above all those who are around him?
[8]YaHWeH, God of Host (Tzba'ot), who is a mighty one, like you?
YaH, your faithfulness is around you.
[9]You rule the pride of the sea.
When its waves rise up, you calm them.
[10]You have broken Rachab in pieces, like one of the slain.
You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
[11]The heavens are yours.
The earth also is yours;
The world and its fullness.
You have founded them.
[12]The north and the south, you have created them.
Tavor and Hermon, rejoice in your name.
[13]You have a mighty arm.
Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.

14Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Loving kindness and truth go before your face.
15Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim you.
They walk in the light of your presence, YaHWeH.
16In your name they rejoice all day.
In your righteousness, they are exalted.
17For you are the glory of their strength.
In your favor, our horn will be exalted.
18For our shield belongs to YaHWeH;
Our king to the Holy One of Isreal (Yisrael).
19Then you spoke in vision to your holy ones,
And said, "I have bestowed strength on the warrior.
I have exalted a young man from the people.
20I have found David, my servant.
I have anointed him with my holy oil,
21With whom my hand shall be established.
My arm will also strengthen him.
22No enemy will tax him.
No wicked man will oppress him.
23I will beat down his adversaries before him,
And strike those who hate him.
24But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.
In my name, his horn will be exalted.
25I will set his hand also on the sea,
And his right hand on the rivers.
26He will call to me, 'You are my Father,
My God, and the rock of my yeshuah (salvation)!#
27I will also appoint him my firstborn,
The highest of the kings of the earth.
28I will keep my loving kindness for him forevermore.
My covenant will stand firm with him.
29I will also make his seed endure forever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.
30If his children forsake my law,
And don't walk in my ordinances;
31If they break my statutes,
And don't keep my commandments (mitzvot);
32Then I will punish their sin with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
33But I will not completely take my loving kindness from him,

Nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
34I will not break my covenant,
Nor alter what my lips have uttered.
35Once have I sworn by my holiness,
I will not lie to David.
36His seed will endure forever,
His throne like the sun before me.
37It will be established forever like the moon,
The faithful witness in the sky."

Selah.

38But you have rejected and spurned.
You have been angry with your anointed.
39You have renounced the covenant of your servant.
You have defiled his crown in the dust.
40You have broken down all his hedges.
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
41All who pass by the way rob him.
He has become a reproach to his neighbors.
42You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries.
You have made all of his enemies rejoice.
43Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword,
And haven't supported him in battle.
44You have ended his splendor,
And thrown his throne down to the ground.
45You have shortened the days of his youth.
You have covered him with shame.

Selah.

46How long, YaHWeH?
Will you hide yourself forever?
Will your wrath burn like fire?
47Remember how short my time is!
For what vanity have you created all the children of men!
48What man is he who shall live and not see death,
Who shall deliver his soul from the power of She'ol?

Selah.

49Lord (Adonay), where are your former loving kindnesses,
Which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
50Remember, Lord (Adonay), the reproach of your servants,
How I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty peoples, 51With which your enemies have mocked, YaHWeH,

With which they have mocked the footsteps of your anointed one.

52Blessed be YaHWeH forevermore.
Amein, and Amein.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90

A Prayer by Moses (Moshe), the man of God.

1Lord (Adonay), you have been our dwelling place for all generations.
2Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever you had formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
3You turn man to destruction, saying,
"Return, you children of men."
4For a thousand years in your sight
Are but as yesterday when it is past,
As a watch in the night.
5You sweep them away as they sleep.
In the morning they sprout like new grass.
6In the morning it sprouts and springs up.
By evening, it is withered and dry.
7For we are consumed in your anger.
We are troubled in your wrath.
8You have set our iniquities before you,
Our secret sins in the light of your presence.
9For all our days have passed away in your wrath.
We bring our years to an end as a sigh.
10The days of our years are seventy,
Or even by reason of strength eighty years;
Yet their pride is but labor and sorrow,
For it passes quickly, and we fly away.
11Who knows the power of your anger,
Your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?

12So teach us to number our days,
That we may gain a heart of wisdom.
13Relent, YaHWeH!
How long?
Have compassion on your servants!
14Satisfy us in the morning with your loving kindness,
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
15Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,
For as many years as we have seen evil.
16Let your work appear to your servants;
Your glory to their children.
17Let the favor of YaHWeH our God be on us;
Establish the work of our hands for us;
Yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

1He who dwells in the secret place of Most high (Elyon)
Will rest in the shadow of Almighty (Shaddai).
2I will say of YaHWeH, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in whom I trust."
3For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler,
And from the deadly pestilence.
4He will cover you with his feathers.
Under his wings you will take refuge.
His faithfulness is your shield and rampart.
5You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day;
6Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.
7A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it will not come near you.
8You will only look with your eyes,
And see the recompense of the wicked.
9Because you have made YaHWeH your refuge,
And Most high (Elyon) your dwelling place,
10No evil shall happen to you,

Neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
11For he will give his angels charge over you,
To guard you in all your ways.
12They will bear you up in their hands,
So that you won't dash your foot against a stone.
13You will tread on the lion and cobra.
You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.
14"Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him.
I will set him on high, because he has known my name.
15He will call on me, and I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble.
I will deliver him, and honor him.
16I will satisfy him with long life,
And show him my yeshuah (salvation)."

Psalm 92

A Psalm. A song for the day of Shabbat.

1It is a good thing to give thanks to YaHWeH,
To sing praises to your name, Elyon;
2To proclaim your loving kindness in the morning,
And your faithfulness every night,
3With the ten-stringed lute, with the harp,
And with the melody of the lyre.
4For you, YaHWeH, have made me glad through your work.
I will triumph in the works of your hands.
5How great are your works, YaHWeH!
Your thoughts are very deep.
6A senseless man doesn't know,
Neither does a fool understand this:
7Though the wicked spring up as the grass,
And all the evil-doers flourish,
They will be destroyed forever.
8But you, YaHWeH, are on high forevermore.
9For, behold, your enemies, YaHWeH,
For, behold, your enemies shall perish.

All the evil-doers will be scattered.
10But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox.
I am anointed with fresh oil.
11My eye has also seen my enemies.
My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.
12The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.
He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13They are planted in YaHWeH's house.
They will flourish in our God's courts.
14They will still bring forth fruit in old age.
They will be full of sap and green,
15To show that YaHWeH is upright.
He is my rock,
And there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

1YaHWeH reigns!
He is clothed with majesty!
YaHWeH is armed with strength.
The world also is established.
It can't be moved.
2Your throne is established from long ago.
You are from everlasting.
3The floods have lifted up, YaHWeH,
The floods have lifted up their voice.
The floods lift up their waves.
4Above the voices of many waters,
The mighty breakers of the sea,
YaHWeH on high is mighty.
5Your statutes stand firm.
Holiness adorns your house,
YaHWeH, forevermore.

Psalm 94

1 YaHWeH, you God to whom vengeance belongs,
You God to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth.
2Rise up, you judge of the earth.
Pay back the proud what they deserve.
3 YaHWeH, how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked triumph?
4They pour out arrogant words.
All the evil-doers boast.
5They break your people in pieces, YaHWeH,
And afflict your heritage.
6They kill the widow and the alien,
And murder the fatherless.
7They say, "YaH will not see,
Neither will Jacob (Yakob)'s God consider."
8Consider, you senseless among the people;
You fools, when will you be wise?
9He who implanted the ear, won't he hear?
He who formed the eye, won't he see?
10He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish?
He who teaches man knows.
11YaHWeH knows the thoughts of man,
That they are futile.
12Blessed is the man whom you discipline, YaH,
And teach out of your law;
13That you may give him rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit is dug for the wicked.
14For YaHWeH won't reject his people,
Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
15For judgment will return to righteousness.
All the upright in heart shall follow it.
16Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against the evil-doers?
17Unless YaHWeH had been my help,
My soul would have soon lived in silence.
18When I said, "My foot is slipping!"
Your loving kindness, YaHWeH, held me up.
19In the multitude of my thoughts within me,
Your comforts delight my soul.
20Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you,
Which brings about mischief by statute?

21They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous,
And condemn the innocent blood.
22But YaHWeH has been my high tower,
My God, the rock of my refuge.
23He has brought on them their own iniquity,
And will cut them off in their own wickedness.
YaHWeH, our God, will cut them off.

Psalm 95

1Oh come, let's sing to YaHWeH.
Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!
2Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving.
Let's extol him with songs!
3For YaHWeH is a great God,
A great King above all gods.
4In his hand are the deep places of the earth.
The heights of the mountains are also his.
5The sea is his, and he made it.
His hands formed the dry land.
6Oh come, let's worship and bow down.
Let's kneel before YaHWeH, our Maker,
7For he is our God.
We are the people of his pasture,
And the sheep in his care.
Today, oh that you would hear his voice!
8Don't harden your heart, as at Merivah,
As in the day of Massah in the wilderness,
9When your fathers tempted me,
Tested me, and saw my work.
10Forty long years I was grieved with that generation,
And said, "It is a people that errs in their heart.
They have not known my ways."
11Therefore I swore in my wrath,
"They won't enter into my rest."

Psalm 96

[1]Sing to YaHWeH a new song!
Sing to YaHWeH, all the earth.
[2]Sing to YaHWeH!
Bless his name!
Proclaim his yeshuah (salvation) from day to day!
[3]Declare his glory among the nations,
His marvelous works among all the peoples.
[4]For great is YaHWeH, and greatly to be praised!
He is to be feared above all gods.
[5]For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
But YaHWeH made the heavens.
[6]Honor and majesty are before him.
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
[7]Ascribe to YaHWeH, you families of nations,
Ascribe to YaHWeH glory and strength.
[8]Ascribe to YaHWeH the glory due to his name.
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
[9]Worship YaHWeH in holy array.
Tremble before him, all the earth.
[10]Say among the nations, "YaHWeH reigns."
The world is also established.
It can't be moved.
He will judge the peoples with equity.
[11]Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice.
Let the sea roar, and it's fullness!
[12]Let the field and all that is in it exult!
Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy [13]Before YaHWeH; for he comes,
For he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
The peoples with his truth.

Psalm 97

[1]YaHWeH reigns!

Let the earth rejoice!
Let the multitude of islands be glad!
2Clouds and darkness are around him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
3A fire goes before him,
And burns up his adversaries on every side.
4His lightning lights up the world.
The earth sees, and trembles.
5The mountains melt like wax at the presence of YaHWeH,
At the presence of YaHWeH of the whole earth.
6The heavens declare his righteousness.
All the peoples have seen his glory.
7Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
Who boast in their idols.
Worship him, all you gods!
8Zion (Tziyon) heard and was glad.
The daughters of Judah (Yahudah) rejoiced,
Because of your judgments, YaHWeH.
9For you, YaHWeH, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.
10You who love YaHWeH, hate evil.
He preserves the souls of his holy ones.
He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
11Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
12Be glad in YaHWeH, you righteous people!
Give thanks to his holy Name.

Psalm 98

A Psalm.

1Sing to YaHWeH a new song,
For he has done marvelous things!
His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.
2YaHWeH has made known his yeshuah (salvation).
He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.

[3]He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Isreal (Yisrael).
All the ends of the earth have seen the yeshuah (salvation) of our God.
[4]Make a joyful noise to YaHWeH, all the earth!
Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!
[5]Sing praises to YaHWeH with the harp,
With the harp and the voice of melody.
[6]With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn,
Make a joyful noise before the King, YaHWeH.
[7]Let the sea roar with its fullness;
The world, and those who dwell therein.
[8]Let the rivers clap their hands.
Let the mountains sing for joy together.
[9]Let them sing before YaHWeH,
For he comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

[1]YaHWeH reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
He sits enthroned among the Kerubim.
Let the earth be moved.
[2]YaHWeH is great in Zion (Tziyon).
He is high above all the peoples.
[3]Let them praise your great and awesome name.
He is Holy!

[4]The King's strength also loves justice.
You do establish equity.
You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob (Yakob).
[5]Exalt YaHWeH our God.
Worship at his footstool.
He is Holy!
[6]Moses (Moshe) and Aharon were among his Priests (Kohanim),
Samuel (Shemu'el) among those who call on his name;
They called on YaHWeH, and he answered them.
[7]He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.

They kept his testimonies,
The statute that he gave them.
8You answered them, YaHWeH our God.
You are a God who forgave them,
Although you took vengeance for their doings.
9Exalt YaHWeH, our God.
Worship at his holy hill,
For YaHWeH, our God, is holy!

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

1Shout for joy to YaHWeH, all you lands!
2Serve YaHWeH with gladness.
Come before his presence with singing.
3Know that YaHWeH, he is God.
It is he who has made us, and we are his.
We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
4Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
Into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him, and bless his name.
5For YaHWeH is good.
His loving kindness endures forever,
His faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 101

A Psalm by David.

1I will sing of loving kindness and justice.
To you, YaHWeH, I will sing praises.
2I will be careful to live a blameless life.

When will you come to me?
I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.
3I will set no vile thing before my eyes.
I hate the deeds of faithless men.
They will not cling to me.
4A perverse heart will be far from me.
I will have nothing to do with evil.
5I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.
6My eyes will be on the faithful of the land,
That they may dwell with me.
He who walks in a perfect way,
He will serve me.
7He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house.
He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.
8Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land;
To cut off all the workers of iniquity from YaHWeH's city.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before YaHWeH.

1Hear my prayer, YaHWeH!
Let my cry come to you.
2Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress.
Turn your ear to me.
Answer me quickly in the day when I call.
3For my days consume away like smoke.
My bones are burned as a firebrand.
4My heart is blighted like grass, and withered,
For I forget to eat my bread.
5By reason of the voice of my groaning,
My bones stick to my skin.
6I am like a pelican of the wilderness.
I have become as an owl of the waste places.
7I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.

[8]My enemies reproach me all day.
Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.
[9]For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mixed my drink with tears,
[10]Because of your indignation and your wrath,
For you have taken me up, and thrown me away.
[11]My days are like a long shadow.
I have withered like grass.

[12]But you, YaHWeH, will abide forever;
Your renown endures to all generations.
[13]You will arise and have mercy on Zion (Tziyon);
For it is time to have pity on her.
Yes, the set time has come.
[14]For your servants take pleasure in her stones,
And have pity on her dust.
[15]So the nations will fear the name of YaHWeH;
All the kings of the earth your glory.
[16]For YaHWeH has built up Zion (Tziyon).
He has appeared in his glory.
[17]He has responded to the prayer of the destitute,
And has not despised their prayer.
[18]This will be written for the generation to come.
A people which will be created will praise YaH.
[19]For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary.
From heaven, YaHWeH saw the earth;
[20]To hear the groans of the prisoner;
To free those who are condemned to death;
[21]That men may declare the name of YaHWeH in Zion (Tziyon),
And his praise in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim);
[22]When the peoples are gathered together,
The kingdoms, to serve YaHWeH.

[23]He weakened my strength along the course.
He shortened my days.
[24]I said, “My God, don’t take me away in the midst of my days.
Your years are throughout all generations.
[25]Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth.
The heavens are the work of your hands.
[26]They will perish, but you will endure.
Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment.

You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.
[27]But you are the same.
Your years will have no end.
[28]The children of your servants will continue.
Their seed will be established before you."

Psalm 103

By David.

[1]Praise YaH, my soul!
All that is within me, praise his holy name!
[2]Praise YaH, my soul,
And don't forget all his benefits;
[3]Who forgives all your sins;
Who heals all your diseases;
[4]Who redeems your life from destruction;
Who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies;
[5]Who satisfies your desire with good things,
So that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
[6]YaHWeH executes righteous acts,
And justice for all who are oppressed.
[7]He made known his ways to Moses (Moshe),
His deeds to the children of Isreal (Yisrael).
[8]YaHWeH is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.
[9]He will not always accuse;
Neither will he stay angry forever.
[10]He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
Nor repaid us for our iniquities.
[11]For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him.
[12]As far as the east is from the west,
So far has he removed our transgressions from us.
[13]Like a father has compassion on his children,
So YaHWeH has compassion on those who fear him.
[14]For he knows how we are made.

He remembers that we are dust.
15As for man, his days are like grass.
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
16For the wind passes over it, and it is gone.
Its place remembers it no more.
17But YaHWeH's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him,
His righteousness to children's children;
18To those who keep his covenant,
To those who remember to obey his precepts.
19YaHWeH has established his throne in the heavens.
His kingdom rules over all.
20Praise YaH, you angels of his,
Who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word,
Obeying the voice of his word.
21Praise YaH, all you hosts of his,
You servants of his, who do his pleasure.
22Praise YaH, all you works of his,
In all places of his dominion.
Praise YaH, my soul.

Psalm 104

1Bless YaHWeH, my soul.
YaHWeH, my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with honor and majesty.
2He covers himself with light as with a garment.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain.
3He lays the beams of his chambers in the waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot.
He walks on the wings of the wind.
4He makes his messengers winds;
His servants flames of fire.
5He laid the foundations of the earth,
That it should not be moved forever.
6You covered it with the deep as with a cloak.
The waters stood above the mountains.
7At your rebuke they fled.

At the voice of your thunder they hurried away.
8The mountains rose,
The valleys sank down,
To the place which you had assigned to them.
9You have set a boundary that they may not pass over;
That they don't turn again to cover the earth.
10He sends forth springs into the valleys.
They run among the mountains.
11They give drink to every animal of the field.
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
12The birds of the sky nest by them.
They sing among the branches.
13He waters the mountains from his chambers.
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.
14He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And plants for man to cultivate,
That he may bring forth food out of the earth:
15Wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face to shine,
And bread that strengthens man's heart.
16YaHWeH's trees are well watered,
The cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;
17Where the birds make their nests.
The stork makes its home in the fir trees.
18The high mountains are for the wild goats.
The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.
19He appointed the moon for seasons.
The sun knows when to set.
20You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the animals of the forest prowl.
21The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
22The sun rises, and they steal away,
And lay down in their dens.
23Man goes forth to his work,
To his labor until the evening.
24YaHWeH, how many are your works!
In wisdom have you made them all.
The earth is full of your riches.
25There is the sea, great and wide,

In which are innumerable living things,
Both small and large animals.
[26]There the ships go,
And Leviathan (livyatan), whom you formed to play there.
[27]These all wait for you,
That you may give them their food in due season.
[28]You give to them; they gather.
You open your hand; they are satisfied with good.
[29]You hide your face: they are troubled;
You take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust.
[30]You send forth your Spirit: they are created.
You renew the face of the ground.
[31]Let the glory of YaHWeH endure forever.
Let YaHWeH rejoice in his works.
[32]He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
[33]I will sing to YaHWeH as long as I live.
I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.
[34]Let your meditation be sweet to him.
I will rejoice in YaHWeH.
[35]Let sinners be consumed out of the earth.
Let the wicked be no more.
Bless YaH, my soul.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 105

[1]Give thanks to YaH! Call on his name!
Make his doings known among the peoples.
[2]Sing to him, sing praises to him!
Tell of all his marvelous works.
[3]Glory in his holy name.
Let the heart of those who seek YaH rejoice.
[4]Seek YaH and his strength.
Seek his face forever more.
[5]Remember his marvelous works that he has done;
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,
[6]You seed of Abraham, his servant,

You children of Jacob (Yakob), his chosen ones.
7He is YaH, our God.
His judgments are in all the earth.
8He has remembered his covenant forever,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,
9The covenant which he made with Abraham,
His oath to Isaac (Yitzchak),
10And confirmed the same to Jacob (Yakob) for a statute;
To Isreal (Yisrael) for an everlasting covenant,
11Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan (Kanaan),
The lot of your inheritance;"
12When they were but a few men in number,
Yes, very few, and foreigners in it.
13They went about from nation to nation,
From one kingdom to another people.
14He allowed no one to do them wrong.
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,
15"Don't touch my anointed ones!
Do my prophets no harm!"
16He called for a famine on the land.
He destroyed the food supplies.
17He sent a man before them.
Joseph (Yosef) was sold for a slave.
18They bruised his feet with shackles.
His neck was locked in irons,
19Until the time that his word happened,
And YaH's word proved him true.
20The king sent and freed him;
Even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
21He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all of his possessions;
22To discipline his princes at his pleasure,
And to teach his Elders (Zakenim) wisdom.
23Isreal (Yisrael) also came into Egypt (Mitzrayim).
Jacob (Yakob) sojourned in the land of Ham.
24He increased his people greatly,
And made them stronger than their adversaries.
25He turned their heart to hate his people,
To conspire against his servants.
26He sent Moses (Moshe), his servant,

And Aharon, whom he had chosen.
[27]They performed miracles among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
[28]He sent darkness, and made it dark.
They didn't rebel against his words.
[29]He turned their waters into blood,
And killed their fish.
[30]Their land swarmed with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings.
[31]He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
And lice in all their borders.
[32]He gave them hail for rain,
With lightning in their land.
[33]He struck their vines and also their fig trees,
And shattered the trees of their country.
[34]He spoke, and the locusts came,
And the grasshoppers, without number,
[35]Ate up every plant in their land;
And ate up the fruit of their ground.
[36]He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
The first fruits of all their manhood.
[37]He brought them forth with silver and gold.
There was not one feeble person among his tribes.
[38]Egypt (Mitzrayim) was glad when they departed,
For the fear of them had fallen on them.
[39]He spread a cloud for a covering,
Fire to give light in the night.
[40]They asked, and he brought quails,
And satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
[41]He opened the rock, and waters gushed out.
They ran as a river in the dry places.
[42]For he remembered his holy word,
And Abraham, his servant.
[43]He brought forth his people with joy,
His chosen with singing.
[44]He gave them the lands of the nations.
They took the labor of the peoples in possession,
[45]That they might keep his statutes,
And observe his laws.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 106

[1]Praise YaH!
Give thanks to YaHWeH, for he is good,
For his loving kindness endures forever.
[2]Who can utter the mighty acts of YaHWeH,
Or fully declare all his praise?
[3]Blessed are those who keep justice.
Blesssed is one who does what is right at all times.
[4]Remember me, YaHWeH, with the favor that you show to your people.
Visit me with your yeshuah (salvation),
[5]That I may see the prosperity of your chosen,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
That I may glory with your inheritance.

[6]We have sinned with our fathers.
We have committed iniquity.
We have done wickedly.
[7]Our fathers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt (Mitzrayim).
They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses,
But were rebellious at the sea, even at the Sea of Suf.
[8]Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
That he might make his mighty power known.
[9]He rebuked the Sea of Suf also, and it was dried up;
So he led them through the depths, as through a desert.
[10]He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
[11]The waters covered their adversaries.
There was not one of them left.
[12]Then they beliEbed his words.
They sang his praise.

[13]They soon forgot his works.
They didn't wait for his counsel,
[14]But gave in to craving in the desert,
And tested God in the wasteland.
[15]He gave them their request,
But sent leanness into their soul.

16They envied Moses (Moshe) also in the camp,
And Aharon, YaHWeH's holy one.
17The earth opened and swallowed up Datan,
And covered the company of Aviram.
18A fire was kindled in their company.
The flame burned up the wicked.
19They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshiped a molten image.
20Thus they exchanged their glory
For an image of a bull that eats grass.
21They forgot God, their Savior,
Who had done great things in Egypt (Mitzrayim),
22Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
And awesome things by the Sea of Suf.
23Therefore he said that he would destroy them,
Had Moses (Moshe), his chosen, not stood before him in the breach,
To turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.
24Yes, they despised the pleasant land.
They didn't believe his word,
25But murmured in their tents,
And didn't listen to YaHWeH's voice.
26Therefore he swore to them
That he would overthrow them in the wilderness,
27That he would overthrow their seed among the nations,
And scatter them in the lands.
28They joined themselves also to Ba`al-Pe`or,
And ate the sacrifices of the dead.
29Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.
The plague broke in on them.
30Then Pinechas stood up, and executed judgment,
So the plague was stopped.
31That was credited to him for righteousness,
For all generations to come.
32They angered him also at the waters of Merivah,
So that Moses (Moshe) was troubled for their sakes;
33Because they were rebellious against his spirit,
He spoke rashly with his lips.
34They didn't destroy the peoples,
As YaHWeH commanded them,
35But mixed themselves with the nations,

And learned their works.
[36]They served their idols,
Which became a snare to them.
[37]Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
[38]They shed innocent blood,
Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan (Kanaan).
The land was polluted with blood.
[39]Thus were they defiled with their works,
And prostituted themselves in their deeds.
[40]Therefore YaHWeH burned with anger against his people.
He abhorred his inheritance.
[41]He gave them into the hand of the nations.
Those who hated them ruled over them.
[42]Their enemies also oppressed them.
They were brought into subjection under their hand.
[43]Many times he delivered them,
But they were rebellious in their counsel,
And were brought low in their iniquity.
[44]Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
When he heard their cry.
[45]He remembered for them his covenant,
And repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
[46]He made them also to be pitied
By all those who carried them captive.

[47]Save us, YaHWeH, our God,
Gather us from among the nations,
To give thanks to your holy name,
To triumph in your praise!

[48]Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael),
From everlasting even to everlasting!
Let all the people say, "Amein."
Praise YaH!

BOOK V

Psalm 107

[1]Give thanks to YaHWeH,
For he is good,
For his loving kindness endures forever.
[2]Let the redeemed by YaHWeH say so,
Whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
[3]And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.
[4]They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way.
They found no city to live in.
[5]Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
[6]Then they cried to YaHWeH in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses,
[7]He led them also by a straight way,
That they might go to a city to live in.
[8]Let them Praise YaH for his loving kindness,
For his wonderful works to the children of men!

[9]For he satisfies the longing soul.
He fills the hungry soul with good.
[10]Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron,
[11]Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And condemned the counsel of Most high (Elyon).
[12]Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.
They fell down, and there was none to help.
[13]Then they cried to YaHWeH in their trouble,
And he saved them out of their distresses.
[14]He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And broke their bonds in sunder.
[15]Let them Praise YaH for his loving kindness,
For his wonderful works to the children of men!

[16]For he has broken the gates of brass,
And cut through bars of iron.
[17]Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience,
And because of their iniquities.

18Their soul abhors all kinds of food.
They draw near to the gates of death.
19Then they cry to YaHWeH in their trouble,
He saves them out of their distresses.
20He sends his word, and heals them,
And delivers them from their graves.
21Let them Praise YaH for his loving kindness,
For his wonderful works to the children of men!

22Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with singing.
23Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business in great waters;
24These see YaHWeH's works,
And his wonders in the deep.
25For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up its waves.
26They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
Their soul melts away because of trouble.
27They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.
28Then they cry to YaHWeH in their trouble,
And he brings them out of their distress.
29He makes the storm a calm,
So that its waves are still.
30Then they are glad because it is calm,
So he brings them to their desired haven.
31Let them Praise YaH for his loving kindness,
For his wonderful works for the children of men!

32Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
And praise him in the seat of the Elders (Zakenim).
33He turns rivers into a desert,
Water springs into a thirsty ground,
34And a fruitful land into a salt waste,
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35He turns a desert into a pool of water,
And a dry land into water springs.
36There he makes the hungry live,
That they may prepare a city to live in,
37Sow fields, plant vineyards,

And reap the fruits of increase.
38He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly.
He doesn't allow their cattle to decrease.
39Again, they are diminished and bowed down
Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
40He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in a trackless waste.
41Yet he lifts the needy out of their affliction,
And increases their families like a flock.
42The upright will see it, and be glad.
All the wicked will shut their mouths.
43Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things.
They will consider the loving kindnesses of YaHWeH.

Psalm 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

1My heart is steadfast, God.
I will sing and I will make music with my soul.
2Wake up, harp and lyre!
I will wake up the dawn.
3I will give thanks to you, YaHWeH, among the nations.
I will sing praises to you among the peoples.
4For your loving kindness is great above the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
5Be exalted, God, above the heavens,
Let your glory be over all the earth.
6That your beloved may be delivered,
Save with your right hand, and answer us.
7God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,
I will divide Shekhem, and measure out the valley of Sukkot.
8Gil`ad is mine. Manasseh (Menashsheh) is mine.
Ephraim (Efrayim) also is my helmet.
Judah (Yahudah) is my scepter.
9Moab is my wash pot.
I will toss my sandal on Edom.

I will shout over PeleSeth (Sheth)."
10Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who has led me to Edom?
11Haven't you rejected us, God?
You don't go forth, God, with our armies.
12Give us help against the enemy,
For the help of man is vain.
13Through God, we will do valiantly.
For it is he who will tread down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1God of my praise, don't remain silent,
2For they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me.
They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.
3They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
And fought against me without a cause.
4In return for my love, they are my adversaries;
But I am in prayer.
5They have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.
6Set a wicked man over him.
Let an adversary stand at his right hand.
7When he is judged, let him come forth guilty.
Let his prayer be turned into sin.
8Let his days be few.
Let another take his office.
9Let his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.
10Let his children be wandering beggars.
Let them be sought from their ruins.
11Let the creditor seize all that he has.
Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.
12Let there be none to extend kindness to him,
Neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.

13Let his posterity be cut off.
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
14Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by YaHWeH.
Don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
15Let them be before YaHWeH continually,
That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth;
16Because he didn't remember to show kindness,
But persecuted the poor and needy man,
The broken in heart, to kill them.
17Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.
He didn't delight in blessing, and it was far from him.
18He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment.
It came into his inward parts like water,
Like oil into his bones.
19Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself,
For the belt that is always around him.
20This is the reward of my adversaries from YaHWeH,
Of those who speak evil against my soul.

21But deal with me, Lord (Adonay) YaHWeH , for your name's sake,
Because your loving kindness is good, deliver me;
22For I am poor and needy.
My heart is wounded within me.
23I fade away like an evening shadow.
I am shaken off like a locust (arbeh).
24My knees are weak through fasting.
My body is thin and lacks fat.
25I have also become a reproach to them.
When they see me, they shake their head.
26Help me, YaHWeH, my God.
Save me according to your loving kindness;
27That they may know that this is your hand;
That you, YaHWeH, have done it.
28They may curse, but you bless.
When they arise, they will be shamed,
But your servant shall rejoice.
29Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.
Let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
30I will give great thanks to YaHWeH with my mouth.
Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.

31For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,
To save him from those who judge his soul.

Psalm 110

A Psalm by David.

1YaHWeH says to my Lord (Adonay), "Sit at my right hand, Until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."
2YaHWeH will send forth the rod of your strength out of Zion (Tziyon).
Rule in the midst of your enemies.
3Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array.
Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.
4YaHWeH has sworn, and will not change his mind:
"You are a Priest forever in the order of Malki-Tzedek."
5YaHWeH is at your right hand.
He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.
6He will judge among the nations.
He will heap up dead bodies.
He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.
7He will drink of the brook in the way;
Therefore he will lift up his head.

Psalm 111

1Praise YaH!
I will give thanks to YaHWeH with my whole heart,
In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.
2YaHWeH's works are great,
Pondered by all those who delight in them.
3His work is honor and majesty.
His righteousness endures forever.
4He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered.
YaHWeH is gracious and merciful.
5He has given food to those who fear him.

He always remembers his covenant.
6He has shown his people the power of his works,
In giving them the heritage of the nations.
7The works of his hands are truth and justice.
All his precepts are sure.
8They are established forever and ever.
They are done in truth and uprightness.
9He has sent redemption to his people.
He has ordained his covenant forever.
His name is holy and awesome!
10The fear of YaHWeH is the beginning of wisdom.
All those who do his work have a good understanding.
His praise endures forever!

Psalm 112

1Praise YaH!
Blessed is the man who fears YaHWeH,
Who delights greatly in his commandments (mitzvot).
2His seed will be mighty in the land.
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
3Wealth and riches are in his house.
His righteousness endures forever.
4Light dawns in the darkness for the upright,
Gracious, merciful, and righteous.
5It is well with the man who deals graciously and lends.
He will maintain his cause in judgment.
6For he will never be shaken.
The righteous will be remembered forever.
7He will not be afraid of evil news.
His heart is steadfast, trusting in YaHWeH.
8His heart is established.
He will not be afraid in the end when he sees his adversaries.
9He has dispersed, he has given to the poor.
His righteousness endures forever.
His horn will be exalted with honor.
10The wicked will see it, and be grieved.
He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away.

The desire of the wicked will perish.

Psalm 113

[1]Praise YaH!
Praise, you servants of YaHWeH,
Praise the name of YaHWeH.
[2]Blessed be the name of YaHWeH,
From this time forth and forevermore.
[3]From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same,
YaHWeH's name is to be praised.
[4]YaHWeH is high above all nations,
His glory above the heavens.
[5]Who is like YaHWeH, our God,
Who has his seat on high,
[6]Who stoops down to see in heaven and in the earth?
[7]He raises up the poor out of the dust.
Lifts up the needy from the ash heap;
[8]That he may set him with princes,
Even with the princes of his people.
[9]He settles the barren woman in her home,
As a joyful mother of children.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 114

[1]When Isreal (Yisrael) went forth out of Egypt (Mitzrayim),
The house of Jacob (Yakob) from a people of foreign language;
[2]Judah (Yahudah) became his sanctuary,
Isreal (Yisrael) his dominion.
[3]The sea saw it, and fled.
The Jordan (Yarden) was driven back.
[4]The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.
[5]What was it, you sea, that you fled?
You Jordan (Yarden), that you turned back?

6You mountains, that you skipped like rams;
You little hills, like lambs?
7Tremble, you earth, at the presence of YaHWeH,
At the presence of the God of Jacob (Yakob),
8Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a spring of waters.

Psalm 115

1Not to us, YaHWeH, not to us,
But to your name give glory,
For your loving kindness, and for your truth's sake.
2Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God, now?"
3But our God is in the heavens.
He does whatever he pleases.
4Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
5They have mouths, but they don't speak;
They have eyes, but they don't see;
6They have ears, but they don't hear;
They have noses, but they don't smell;
7They have hands, but they don't feel;
They have feet, but they don't walk;
Neither do they speak through their throat.
8Those who make them will be like them;
Yes, everyone who trusts in them.
9Isreal (Yisrael), trust in YaHWeH!
He is their help and their shield.
10House of Aharon, trust in YaHWeH!
He is their help and their shield.
11You who fear YaHWeH, trust in YaHWeH!
He is their help and their shield.
12YaHWeH remembers us. He will bless us.
He will bless the house of Isreal (Yisrael).
He will bless the house of Aharon.
13He will bless those who fear YaHWeH,
Both small and great.

14May YaHWeH increase you more and more,
You and your children.
15Blessed are you by YaHWeH,
Who made heaven and earth.
16The heavens are the heavens of YaHWeH;
But the earth has he given to the children of men.
17The dead don't Praise YaH,
Neither any who go down into silence;
18But we will bless YaH,
From this time forth and forevermore.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 116

1I love YaHWeH, because he listens to my voice,
And my cries for mercy.
2Because he has turned his ear to me,
Therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
3The cords of death surrounded me,
The pains of She'ol got a hold of me.
I found trouble and sorrow.
4Then called I on the name of YaHWeH:
"YaHWeH, I beg you, deliver my soul."
5Gracious is YaHWeH, and righteous;
Yes, our God is merciful.
6YaHWeH preserves the simple.
I was brought low, and he saved me.
7Return to your rest, my soul,
For YaHWeH has dealt bountifully with you.
8For you have delivered my soul from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.
9I will walk before YaHWeH in the land of the living.
10I beliEbed, therefore I said,
"I was greatly afflicted."
11I said in my haste,
"All men are liars."
12What will I give to YaHWeH for all his benefits toward me?

13I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of YaHWeH.
14I will pay my vows to YaHWeH,
Yes, in the presence of all his people.
15Precious in the sight of YaHWeH is the death of his holy ones.
16 YaHWeH, truly I am your servant.
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid.
You have freed me from my chains.
17I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
And will call on the name of YaHWeH.
18I will pay my vows to YaHWeH,
Yes, in the presence of all his people,
19In the courts of YaHWeH's house,
In the midst of you, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
Praise YaH!

Psalm 117

1Praise YaH, all you nations!
Extol him, all you peoples!
2For his loving kindness is great toward us.
YaHWeH's faithfulness endures forever.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 118

1Give thanks to YaHWeH, for he is good,
For his loving kindness endures forever.
2Let Isreal (Yisrael) now say
That his loving kindness endures forever.
3Let the house of Aharon now say
That his loving kindness endures forever.
4Now let those who fear YaHWeH say
That his loving kindness endures forever.
5Out of my distress, I called on YaH.
YaH answered me with freedom.
6YaHWeH is on my side. I will not be afraid.

What can man do to me?
7YaHWeH is on my side among those who help me.
Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.
8It is better to take refuge in YaHWeH,
Than to put confidence in man.
9It is better to take refuge in YaHWeH,
Than to put confidence in princes.
10All the nations surrounded me,
But in the name of YaHWeH, I cut them off.
11They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me.
In the name of YaHWeH I indeed cut them off.
12They surrounded me like bees.
They are quenched like the burning thorns.
In the name of YaHWeH I cut them off.
13You pushed me back hard, to make me fall,
But YaHWeH helped me.
14YaH is my strength and song.
He has become my yeshuah (salvation).
15The voice of rejoicing and yeshuah (salvation) is in the tents of the righteous.
"The right hand of YaHWeH does valiantly.
16The right hand of YaHWeH is exalted!
The right hand of YaHWeH does valiantly!"
17I will not die, but live,
And declare YaH's works.
18YaH has punished me severely,
But he has not given me over to death.
19Open to me the gates of righteousness.
I will enter into them.
I will give thanks to YaH.
20This is the gate of YaHWeH;
The righteous will enter into it.
21I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,
And have become my yeshuah (salvation).
22The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner.
23This is YaHWeH's doing.
It is marvelous in our eyes.
24This is the day that YaHWeH has made.
We will rejoice and be glad in it!
25Save us now, we beg you, YaHWeH;
YaHWeH, we beg you, now send prosperity.

26Blessed is he who comes in the name of YaHWeH!
We have blessed you out of the house of YaHWeH.
27YaHWeH is God, and he has given us light.
Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
28You are my God, and I will give thanks to you.
You are my God, I will exalt you.
29Oh give thanks to YaHWeH, for he is good,
For his loving kindness endures forever.

Psalm 119

ALEPH

1Blessed are those whose ways are blameless,
Who walk according to Yaweh's law.
2Blessed are those who keep his statutes,
Who seek him with their whole heart.
3Yes, they do nothing wrong.
They walk in his ways.
4You have commanded your precepts,
That we should fully obey them.
5Oh that my ways were steadfast
To obey your statutes!
6Then I wouldn't be disappointed,
When I consider all of your commandments (mitzvot).
7I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart,
When I learn your righteous judgments.
8I will observe your statutes.
Don't utterly forsake me.

BEIT

9How can a young man keep his way pure?
By living according to your word.
10With my whole heart, I have sought you.
Don't let me wander from your commandments (mitzvot).

11I have hidden your word in my heart,
That I might not sin against you.
12Blessed are you, YaHWeH.
Teach me your statutes.
13With my lips,
I have declared all the ordinances of your mouth.
14I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
15I will meditate on your precepts,
And consider your ways.
16I will delight myself in your statutes.
I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

17Do good to your servant.
I will live and I will obey your word.
18Open my eyes,
That I may see wondrous things out of your law.
19I am a stranger on the earth.
Don't hide your commandments (mitzvot) from me.
20My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.
21You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
Who wander from your commandments (mitzvot).
22Take reproach and contempt away from me,
For I have kept your statutes.
23Though princes sit and slander me,
Your servant will meditate on your statutes.
24Indeed your statutes are my delight,
And my counselors.

DALED

25My soul is laid low in the dust.
Revive me according to your word!
26I declared my ways, and you answered me.
Teach me your statutes.
27Let me understand the teaching of your precepts!

Then I will meditate on your wondrous works.
[28]My soul is weary with sorrow:
Strengthen me according to your word.
[29]Keep me from the way of deceit.
Grant me your law graciously!
[30]I have chosen the way of truth.
I have set my heart on your law.
[31]I cling to your statutes, YaHWeH.
Don't let me be disappointed.
[32]I run in the path of your commandments (mitzvot),
For you have set my heart free.

HEY

[33]Teach me, YaHWeH, the way of your statutes.
I will keep them to the end.
[34]Give me understanding, and I will keep your law.
Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart.
[35]Direct me in the path of your commandments (mitzvot),
For I delight in them.
[36]Turn my heart toward your statutes,
Not toward selfish gain.
[37]Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.
Revive me in your ways.
[38]Fulfill your promise to your servant,
That you may be feared.
[39]Take away my disgrace that I dread,
For your ordinances are good.
[40]Behold, I long for your precepts!
Revive me in your righteousness.

WAW

[41]Let your loving kindness also come to me, YaHWeH,
Your yeshuah (salvation), according to your word.
[42]So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me,
For I trust in your word.
[43]Don't snatch the word of truth out of my mouth,

For I put my hope in your ordinances.
44So I will obey your law continually,
Forever and ever.
45I will walk in liberty,
For I have sought your precepts.
46I will also speak of your statutes before kings,
And will not be disappointed.
47I will delight myself in your commandments (mitzvot),
Because I love them.
48I reach out my hands for your commandments (mitzvot), which I love.
I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

49Remember your word to your servant,
Because you gave me hope.
50This is my comfort in my affliction,
For your word has revived me.
51The arrogant mock me excessively,
But I don't swerve from your law.
52I remember your ordinances of old, YaHWeH,
And have comforted myself.
53Indignation has taken hold on me,
Because of the wicked who forsake your law.
54Your statutes have been my songs,
In the house where I live.
55I have remembered your name, YaHWeH, in the night,
And I obey your law.
56This is my way,
That I keep your precepts.

CHET

57YaHWeH is my portion.
I promised to obey your words.
58I sought your favor with my whole heart.
Be merciful to me according to your word.
59I considered my ways,

And turned my steps to your statutes.
60I will hurry, and not delay,
To obey your commandments (mitzvot).
61The ropes of the wicked bind me,
But I won't forget your law.
62At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you,
Because of your righteous ordinances.
63I am a friend of all those who fear you,
Of those who observe your precepts.
64The earth is full of your loving kindness, YaHWeH.
Teach me your statutes.

TET

65Do good to your servant,
According to your word, YaHWeH.
66Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
For I believe in your commandments (mitzvot).
67Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
But now I observe your word.
68You are good, and do good.
Teach me your statutes.
69The proud have smeared a lie upon me.
With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.
70Their heart is as callous as the fat,
But I delight in your law.
71It is good for me that I have been afflicted,
That I may learn your statutes.
72The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YUD

73Your hands have made me and formed me.
Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments (mitzvot).
74Those who fear you will see me and be glad,
Because I have put my hope in your word.
75 YaHWeH, I know that your judgments are righteous,
That in faithfulness you have afflicted me.

76Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort,
According to your word to your servant.
77Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
For your law is my delight.
78Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully.
I will meditate on your precepts.
79Let those who fear you turn to me.
They will know your statutes.
80Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees,
That I may not be disappointed.

KAF

81My soul faints for your salvation.
I hope in your word.
82My eyes fail for your word.
I say, "When will you comfort me?"
83For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke.
I don't forget your statutes.
84How many are the days of your servant?
When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?
85The proud have dug pits for me,
Contrary to your law.
86All of your commandments (mitzvot) are faithful.
They persecute me wrongfully.
Help me!
87They had almost wiped me from the earth,
But I didn't forsake your precepts.
88Preserve my life according to your loving kindness,
So I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

LAMED

89 YaHWeH, your word is settled in heaven forever.
90Your faithfulness is to all generations.
You have established the earth, and it remains.
91Your laws remain to this day,
For all things serve you.

92Unless your law had been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.
93I will never forget your precepts,
For with them, you have revived me.
94I am yours.
Save me, for I have sought your precepts.
95The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me.
I will consider your statutes.
96I have seen a limit to all perfection,
But your commands are boundless.

MEM

97How love I your law!
It is my meditation all day.
98Your commandments (mitzvot) make me wiser than my enemies,
For your commandments (mitzvot) are always with me.
99I have more understanding than all my teachers,
For your testimonies are my meditation.
100I understand more than the aged,
Because I have kept your precepts.
101I have kept my feet from every evil way,
That I might observe your word.
102I have not turned aside from your ordinances,
For you have taught me.
103How sweet are your promises to my taste,
More than honey to my mouth!
104Through your precepts, I get understanding;
Therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

105Your word is a lamp to my feet,
And a light for my path.
106I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
That I will obey your righteous ordinances.
107I am afflicted very much.
Revive me, YaHWeH, according to your word.

[108]Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth.
YaHWeH, teach me your ordinances.
[109]My soul is continually in my hand,
Yet I won't forget your law.
[110]The wicked have laid a snare for me,
Yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.
[111]I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever,
For they are the joy of my heart.
[112]I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever,
Even to the end.

SAMEKH

[113]I hate double-minded men,
But I love your law.
[114]You are my hiding place and my shield.
I hope in your word.
[115]Depart from me, you evildoers,
That I may keep the commandments (mitzvot) of my God.
[116]Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.
Let me not be ashamed of my hope.
[117]Hold me up, and I will be safe,
And will have respect for your statutes continually.
[118]You reject all those who stray from your statutes,
For their deceit is in vain.
[119]You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.
Therefore I love your testimonies.
[120]My flesh trembles for fear of you.
I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

[121]I have done what is just and righteous.
Don't leave me to my oppressors.
[122]Ensure your servant's well-being.
Don't let the proud oppress me.
[123]My eyes fail watching for your yeshuah (salvation),
For your righteous word.

124Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness.
Teach me your statutes.
125I am your servant. Give me understanding,
That I may know your testimonies.
126It is time to act, YaHWeH,
For they break your law.
127Therefore I love your commandments (mitzvot) more than gold,
Yes, more than pure gold.
128Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.
I hate every false way.

PEY

129Your testimonies are wonderful,
Therefore my soul keeps them.
130The entrance of your words gives light.
It gives understanding to the simple.
131I opened my mouth wide and panted,
For I longed for your commandments (mitzvot).
132Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
As you always do to those who love your name.
133Establish my footsteps in your word.
Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.
134Redeem me from the oppression of man,
So I will observe your precepts.
135Make your face shine on your servant.
Teach me your statutes.
136Streams of tears run down my eyes,
Because they don't observe your law.

TZADI

137You are righteous, YaHWeH.
Your judgments are upright.
138You have commanded your statutes in righteousness.
They are fully trustworthy.
139My zeal wears me out,
Because my enemies ignore your words.

140Your promises have been thoroughly tested,
And your servant loves them.
141I am small and despised.
I don't forget your precepts.
142Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness.
Your law is truth.
143Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me.
Your commandments (mitzvot) are my delight.
144Your testimonies are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, that I may live.

KUF

145I have called with my whole heart.
Answer me, YaHWeH!
I will keep your statutes.
146I have called to you. Save me!
I will obey your statutes.
147I rise before dawn and cry for help.
I put my hope in your words.
148My eyes stay open through the night watches,
That I might meditate on your word.
149Hear my voice according to your loving kindness.
Revive me, YaHWeH, according to your ordinances.
150They draw near who follow after wickedness.
They are far from your law.
151You are near, YaHWeH.
All your commandments (mitzvot) are truth.
152Of old I have known from your testimonies,
That you have founded them forever.

RESH

153Consider my affliction, and deliver me,
For I don't forget your law.
154Plead my cause, and redeem me!
Revive me according to your promise.
155Salvation is far from the wicked,

For they don't seek your statutes.
156Great are your tender mercies, YaHWeH.
Revive me according to your ordinances.
157Many are my persecutors and my adversaries.
I haven't swerved from your testimonies.
158I look at the faithless with loathing,
Because they don't observe your word.
159Consider how I love your precepts.
Revive me, YaHWeH, according to your loving kindness.
160All of your words are truth.
Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.

SIN AND SHIN

161Princes have persecuted me without a cause,
But my heart stands in awe of your words.
162I rejoice at your word,
As one who finds great spoil.
163I hate and abhor falsehood.
I love your law.
164Seven times a day, I praise you,
Because of your righteous ordinances.
165Those who love your law have great shalom.
Nothing causes them to stumble.
166I have hoped for your yeshuah (salvation), YaHWeH.
I have done your commandments (mitzvot).
167My soul has observed your testimonies.
I love them exceedingly.
168I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies,
For all my ways are before you.

TAV

169Let my cry come before you, YaHWeH.
Give me understanding according to your word.
170Let my supplication come before you.
Deliver me according to your word.
171Let my lips utter praise,

For you teach me your statutes.
172Let my tongue sing of your word,
For all your commandments (mitzvot) are righteousness.
173Let your hand be ready to help me,
For I have chosen your precepts.
174I have longed for your yeshuah (salvation), YaHWeH.
Your law is my delight.
175Let my soul live, that I may praise you.
Let your ordinances help me.
176I have gone astray like a lost sheep.
Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments (mitzvot).

Psalm 120

A Ma`alot Song.

1In my distress, I cried to YaHWeH.
He answered me.
2Deliver my soul, YaHWeH, from lying lips,
From a deceitful tongue.
3What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you,
You deceitful tongue?
4Sharp arrows of the mighty,
With coals of juniper.
5Woe is me, that I live in Meshekh,
That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
6My soul has had her dwelling too long
With him who hates shalom.
7I am for shalom,
But when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A Ma`alot Song.

[1]I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
Where does my help come from?
[2]My help comes from YaHWeH,
Who made heaven and earth.
[3]He will not allow your foot to be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber.
[4]Behold, he who keeps Isreal (Yisrael)
Will neither slumber nor sleep.
[5]YaHWeH is your keeper.
YaHWeH is your shade on your right hand.
[6]The sun will not harm you by day,
Nor the moon by night.
[7]YaHWeH will keep you from all evil.
He will keep your soul.
[8]YaHWeH will keep your going out and your coming in,
From this time forth, and forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Ma`alot Song. By David.

[1]I was glad when they said to me,
"Let's go to YaHWeH's house!"
[2]Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim);
[3]Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), that is built as a city that is compact together;
[4]Where the tribes go up, even YaH's tribes,
According to an ordinance for Isreal (Yisrael),
To give thanks to the name of YaHWeH.
[5]For there are set thrones for judgment,
The thrones of David's house.
[6]Pray for the shalom of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
Those who love you will prosper.
[7]Shalom be within your walls,
And prosperity within your palaces.
[8]For my brothers' and companions' sakes,
I will now say, "Shalom be within you."

9For the sake of the house of YaHWeH our God,
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

A Ma`alot Song.

1To you I do lift up my eyes,
You who sit in the heavens.
2Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master,
As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;
So our eyes look to YaHWeH, our God,
Until he has mercy on us.
3Have mercy on us, YaHWeH, have mercy on us,
For we have endured much contempt.
4Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease,
With the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A Ma`alot Song. By David.

1If it had not been YaHWeH who was on our side,
Let Isreal (Yisrael) now say,
2If it had not been YaHWeH who was on our side,
When men rose up against us;
3Then they would have swallowed us up alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us;
4Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
The stream would have gone over our soul;
5Then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
6Blessed be YaHWeH,
Who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare.
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
8Our help is in the name of YaHWeH,
Who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Ma`alot Song.

1Those who trust in YaHWeH are as Mount Zion (Tziyon),
Which can't be moved, but remains forever.
2As the mountains surround Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
So YaHWeH surrounds his people from this time forth and forevermore.
3For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous;
So that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.
4Do good, YaHWeH, to those who are good,
To those who are upright in their hearts.
5But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
YaHWeH will lead them away with the workers of iniquity.
Shalom be on Isreal (Yisrael).

Psalm 126

A Ma`alot Song.

1When YaHWeH brought back those who returned to Zion (Tziyon),
We were like those who dream.
2Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
"YaHWeH has done great things for them."
3YaHWeH has done great things for us,
And we are glad.
4Restore our fortunes again, YaHWeH,
Like the streams in the Negeb.

5Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
6He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
Will assuredly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

Psalm 127

A Ma`alot Song. By Solomon (Shlomo).

1Unless YaHWeH builds the house,
They labor in vain who build it.
Unless YaHWeH watches over the city,
The watchman guards it in vain.
2It is vain for you to rise up early,
To stay up late,
Eating the bread of toil;
For he gives sleep to his loved ones.
3Behold, children are a heritage of YaHWeH.
The fruit of the womb is his reward.
4As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
So are the children of youth.
5Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them.
They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A Ma`alot Song.

1Blessed is everyone who fears YaHWeH,
Who walks in his ways.
2For you will eat the labor of your hands.
You will be happy, and it will be well with you.
3Your wife will be as a fruitful vine,
In the innermost parts of your house;
Your children like olive plants,
Around your table.
4Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears YaHWeH.

5May YaHWeH bless you out of Zion (Tziyon),
And may you see the good of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) all the days of your life.
6Yes, may you see your children's children.
Shalom be upon Isreal (Yisrael).

Psalm 129

A Ma`alot Song.

1Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up.
Let Isreal (Yisrael) now say,
2Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up,
Yet they have not prevailed against me.
3The plowers plowed on my back.
They made their furrows long.
4YaHWeH is righteous.
He has cut apart the cords of the wicked.
5Let them be disappointed and turned backward,
All those who hate Zion (Tziyon).
6Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
Which withers before it grows up;
7With which the reaper doesn't fill his hand,
Nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom.
8Neither do those who go by say,
"The blessing of YaHWeH be on you.
We bless you in the name of YaHWeH."

Psalm 130

A Ma`alot Song.
1Out of the depths I have cried to you, YaHWeH.
2Lord (Adonay), hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.
3If you, YaH, kept a record of sins,
Lord (Adonay), who could stand?
4But there is forgiveness with you,
Therefore you are feared.

5I wait for YaHWeH.
My soul waits.
I hope in his word.
6My soul longs for YaHWeH more than watchmen long for the morning;
More than watchmen for the morning.
7Isreal (Yisrael), hope in YaHWeH,
For with YaHWeH there is loving kindness.
With him is abundant redemption.
8He will redeem Isreal (Yisrael) from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Ma`alot Song. By David.

1 YaHWeH, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty;
Nor do I concern myself with great matters,
Or things too wonderful for me.
2Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul,
Like a weaned child with his mother,
Like a weaned child is my soul within me.
3Isreal (Yisrael), hope in YaHWeH,
From this time forth and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Ma`alot Song.

1 YaHWeH, remember David and all his affliction,
2How he swore to YaHWeH,
And vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob (Yakob):
3"Surely I will not come into the structure of my house,
Nor go up into my bed;
4I will not give sleep to my eyes,
Or slumber to my eyelids;
5Until I find out a place for YaHWeH,
A dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob (Yakob)."
6Behold, we heard of it in Efratah.

We found it in the field of Ya`ar:
7"We will go into his dwelling place.
We will worship at his footstool.
8Arise, YaHWeH, into your resting place;
You, and the ark of your strength.
9Let your Priest be clothed with righteousness.
Let your holy ones shout for joy!"
10For your servant David's sake,
Don't turn away the face of your anointed one.
11YaHWeH has sworn to David in truth.
He will not turn from it:
"I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.
12If your children will keep my covenant,
My testimony that I will teach them,
Their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."
13For YaHWeH has chosen Zion (Tziyon).
He has desired it for his habitation.
14"This is my resting place forever.
Here I will live, for I have desired it.
15I will abundantly bless her provision.
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16Her Priests (Kohanim) I will also clothe with salvation.
Her holy ones will shout aloud for joy.
17There I will make the horn of David to bud.
I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.
18I will clothe his enemies with shame,
But on himself, his crown will be resplendant."

Psalm 133

A Ma`alot Song. By David.

1See how good and how pleasant it is
For brothers to live together in unity!
2It is like the precious oil on the head,
That ran down on the beard,
Even Aharon's beard;
That came down on the edge of his robes;
3Like the dew of Hermon,,

That comes down on the hills of Zion (Tziyon):
For there YaHWeH gives the blessing,
Even life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A Ma`alot Song.

1Look! Praise YaH, all you servants of YaHWeH,
Who stand by night in YaHWeH's house!
2Lift up your hands in the sanctuary.
Praise YaH!
3May YaHWeH bless you from Zion (Tziyon);
Even he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

1Praise YaH!
Praise the name of YaHWeH!
Praise him, you servants of YaHWeH,
2You who stand in the house of YaHWeH,
In the courts of our God's house.
3Praise YaH, for YaHWeH is good.
Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.
4For YaH has chosen Jacob (Yakob) for himself;
Isreal (Yisrael) for his own possession.
5For I know that YaHWeH is great,
That our Lord (Adonay) is above all gods.
6Whatever YaHWeH pleased, that he has done,
In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;
7Who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth;
Who makes lightnings with the rain;
Who brings forth the wind out of his treasuries;
8Who struck the firstborn of Egypt (Mitzrayim),
Both of man and animal;
9Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, Egypt (Mitzrayim),
On Pharaoh, and on all his servants;

10Who struck many nations,
And killed mighty kings,
11Sichon king of the Amori,
`Og king of Bashan,
And all the kingdoms of Canaan (Kanaan),
12And gave their land for a heritage,
A heritage to Isreal (Yisrael), his people.
13Your name, YaHWeH, endures forever;
Your renown, YaHWeH, throughout all generations.
14For YaHWeH will judge his people,
And have compassion on his servants.
15The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
16They have mouths, but they can't speak;
They have eyes, but they can't see;
17They have ears, but they can't hear;
Neither is there any breath in their mouths.
18Those who make them will be like them;
Yes, everyone who trusts in them.
19House of Isreal (Yisrael), Praise YaH!
House of Aharon, Praise YaH!
20House of Levi, Praise YaH!
You who fear YaHWeH, Praise YaH!
21Blessed be YaHWeH from Zion (Tziyon),
Who dwells at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
Praise YaH!

Psalm 136

1Give thanks to YaHWeH, for he is good;
For his loving kindness endures forever.
2Give thanks to the God of gods;
For his loving kindness endures forever.
3Give thanks to YaHWeH of lords;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
4To him who alone does great wonders;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
5To him who by understanding made the heavens;
For his loving kindness endures forever:

[6]To him who spread out the earth above the waters;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[7]To him who made the great lights;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[8]The sun to rule by day;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[9]The moon and stars to rule by night;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[10]To him who struck down the Egyptian (Mitzrian) firstborn;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[11]And brought out Isreal (Yisrael) from among them;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[12]With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[13]To him who divided the Sea of Suf apart;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[14]And made Isreal (Yisrael) to pass through the midst of it;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[15]But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Sea of Suf;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[16]To him who led his people through the wilderness;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[17]To him who struck great kings;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[18]And killed mighty kings;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[19]Sichon king of the Amori;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[20]`Og king of Bashan;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[21]And gave their land as an inheritance;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[22]Even a heritage to Isreal (Yisrael) his servant;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[23]Who remembered us in our low estate;
For his loving kindness endures forever;
[24]And has delivered us from our adversaries;
For his loving kindness endures forever:
[25]Who gives food to every creature;
For his loving kindness endures forever.

[26]Oh give thanks to the God of heaven;
For his loving kindness endures forever.

Psalm 137

[1]By the rivers of Babel, there we sat down.
Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion (Tziyon).
[2]On the willows in the midst of it,
We hung up our harps.
[3]For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
Those who tormented us demanded songs of joy:
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion (Tziyon)!"
[4]How can we sing YaHWeH's song in a foreign land?
[5]If I forget you, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
Let my right hand forget its skill.
[6]Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you;
If I don't prefer Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) above my chief joy.
[7]Remember, YaHWeH, against the children of Edom,
The day of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim);
Who said, "Raze it!
Raze it even to its foundation!"
[8]Daughter of Babel, doomed to destruction,
He will be happy who rewards you,
As you have served us.
[9]Happy shall he be,
Who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

Psalm 138

By David.

[1]I will give you thanks with my whole heart.
Before the gods, I will sing praises to you.
[2]I will bow down toward your holy temple,
And give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth;
For you have exalted your Name and your Word above all.
[3]In the day that I called, you answered me.

You encouraged me with strength in my soul.
4All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, YaHWeH,
For they have heard the words of your mouth.
5Yes, they will sing of the ways of YaHWeH;
For great is YaHWeH's glory.
6For though YaHWeH is high, yet he looks after the lowly;
But the proud, he knows from afar.
7Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me.
You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies.
Your right hand will save me.
8YaHWeH will fulfill that which concerns me;
Your loving kindness, YaHWeH, endures forever.
Don't forsake the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

1 YaHWeH, you have searched me,
And you know me.
2You know my sitting down and my rising up.
You perceive my thoughts from afar.
3You search out my path and my lying down,
And are acquainted with all my ways.
4For there is not a word on my tongue,
But, behold, YaHWeH, you know it altogether.
5You hem me in behind and before.
You laid your hand on me.
6This knowledge is beyond me.
It's lofty.
I can't attain it.
7Where could I go from your Spirit?
Or where could I flee from your presence?
8If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
If I make my bed in She'ol, behold, you are there!
9If I take the wings of the dawn,
And settle in the uttermost parts of the sea;
10Even there your hand will lead me,
And your right hand will hold me.

11If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm me;
The light around me will be night;"
12Even the darkness doesn't hide from you,
But the night shines as the day.
The darkness is like light to you.
13For you formed my inmost being.
You knit me together in my mother's womb.
14I will give thanks to you,
For I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful.
My soul knows that very well.
15My frame wasn't hidden from you,
When I was made in secret,
Woven together in the depths of the earth.
16Your eyes saw my body.
In your book they were all written,
The days that were ordained for me,
When as yet there were none of them.
17How precious to me are your thoughts, God!
How vast is the sum of them!
18If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand.
When I wake up, I am still with you.
19If only you, God, would kill the wicked.
Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men!
20For they speak against you wickedly.
Your enemies take your name in vain.
21 YaHWeH, don't I hate those who hate you?
Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
22I hate them with perfect hatred.
They have become my enemies.
23Search me, God, and know my heart.
Try me, and know my thoughts.
24See if there is any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

[1]Deliver me, YaHWeH, from the evil man.
Preserve me from the violent man;
[2]Those who devise mischief in their hearts.
They continually gather themselves together for war.
[3]They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.
Viper's poison is under their lips.

Selah.

[4] YaHWeH, keep me from the hands of the wicked.
Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.
[5]The proud have hidden a snare for me,
They have spread the cords of a net by the path.
They have set traps for me.

Selah.

[6]I said to YaHWeH, "You are my God."
Listen to the cry of my petitions, YaHWeH.
[7]Lord (Adonay), YaHWeH, the strength of my yeshuah (salvation),
You have covered my head in the day of battle.
[8] YaHWeH, don't grant the desires of the wicked.
Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.

Selah.

[9]As for the head of those who surround me,
Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
[10]Let burning coals fall on them.
Let them be thrown into the fire,
Into miry pits, from where they never rise.
[11]An evil speaker won't be established in the earth.
Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him.
[12]I know that YaHWeH will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
And justice for the needy.
[13]Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.
The upright will dwell in your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm by David.

[1] YaHWeH, I have called on you.

Come to me quickly!
Listen to my voice when I call to you.
2Let my prayer be set before you like incense;
The lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice.
3Set a watch, YaHWeH, before my mouth.
Keep the door of my lips.
4Don't incline my heart to any evil thing,
To practice deeds of wickedness with men who work iniquity.
Don't let me eat of their delicacies.
5Let the righteous strike me, it is kindness;
Let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head;
Don't let my head refuse it;
Yet my prayer is always against evil deeds.
6Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.
They will hear my words, for they are well spoken.
7"As when one plows and breaks up the earth,
Our bones are scattered at the mouth of She'ol."
8For my eyes are on you, Lord (Adonay), YaHWeH.
In you, I take refuge.
Don't leave my soul destitute.
9Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me,
From the traps of the workers of iniquity.
10Let the wicked fall together into their own nets,
While I pass by.

Psalm 142

A maskil by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

1I cry with my voice to YaHWeH.
With my voice, I ask YaHWeH for mercy.
2I pour out my complaint before him.
I tell him my troubles.
3When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
You knew my path.
In the way in which I walk,
They have hidden a snare for me.
4Look on my right, and see;
For there is no one who is concerned for me.

Refuge has fled from me.
No one cares for my soul.
5I cried to you, YaHWeH.
I said, "You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living."
6Listen to my cry,
For I am in desperate need.
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than me.
7Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will surround me,
For you will be good to me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

1Hear my prayer, YaHWeH.
Listen to my petitions.
In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.
2Don't enter into judgment with your servant,
For in your sight no man living is righteous.
3For the enemy pursues my soul.
He has struck my life down to the ground.
He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.
4Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me.
My heart within me is desolate.
5I remember the days of old.
I meditate on all your doings.
I contemplate the work of your hands.
6I spread forth my hands to you.
My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land.

Selah.

7Hurry to answer me, YaHWeH.
My spirit fails.
Don't hide your face from me,
So that I don't become like those who go down into the pit.

8Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning,
For I trust in you.
Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
For I lift up my soul to you.
9Deliver me, YaHWeH, from my enemies.
I flee to you to hide me.
10Teach me to do your will,
For you are my God.
Your Spirit is good.
Lead me in the land of uprightness.
11Revive me, YaHWeH, for your name's sake.
In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.
12In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul,
For I am your servant.

Psalm 144

By David.

1Blessed be YaHWeH, my rock,
Who teaches my hands to war,
And my fingers to battle:
2My loving kindness, my fortress,
My high tower, my deliverer,
My shield, and he in whom I take refuge;
Who subdues my people under me.
3 YaHWeH, what is man, that you care for him?
Or the son of man, that you think of him?
4Man is like a breath.
His days are like a shadow that passes away.
5Part your heavens, YaHWeH, and come down.
Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
6Throw out lightning, and scatter them.
Send out your arrows, and rout them.
7Stretch out your hand from above,
Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
Out of the hands of foreigners;

8Whose mouths speak deceit,
Whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9I will sing a new song to you, God.
On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to you.
10You are he who gives salvation to kings,
Who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.
11Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners,
Whose mouths speak deceit,
Whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

12Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants,
Our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
13Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision.
Our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
14Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
There is no breaking in, and no going away,
And no outcry in our streets.
15Happy are the people who are in such a situation.
Happy are the people whose God is YaHWeH.

Psalm 145

A praise psalm by David.

1I will exalt you, my God, the King.
I will praise your name forever and ever.
2Every day I will praise you.
I will extol your name forever and ever.
3Great is YaHWeH, and greatly to be praised!
His greatness is unsearchable.
4One generation will commend your works to another,
And will declare your mighty acts.
5Of the glorious majesty of your honor,
Of your wondrous works, I will meditate.
6Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts.
I will declare your greatness.
7They will utter the memory of your great goodness,
And will sing of your righteousness.
8YaHWeH is gracious, merciful,

Slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.
9YaHWeH is good to all.
His tender mercies are over all his works.
10All your works will give thanks to you, YaHWeH.
Your holy ones will extol you.
11They will speak of the glory of your kingdom,
And talk about your power;
12To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
The glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
13Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
Your dominion endures throughout all generations.
14YaHWeH upholds all who fall,
And raises up all those who are bowed down.
15The eyes of all wait for you.
You give them their food in due season.
16You open your hand,
And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
17YaHWeH is righteous in all his ways,
And gracious in all his works.
18YaHWeH is near to all those who call on him,
To all who call on him in truth.
19He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him.
He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
20YaHWeH preserves all those who love him,
But all the wicked he will destroy.
21My mouth will speak the praise of YaHWeH.
Let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

1Praise YaH!
Praise YaHWeH, my soul.
2While I live, I will Praise YaH.
I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.
3Don't put your trust in princes,
Each a son of man in whom there is no help.
4His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth.
In that very day, his thoughts perish.
5Happy is he who has the God of Jacob (Yakob) for his help,

Whose hope is in YaHWeH, his God:
6Who made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that is in them;
Who keeps truth forever;
7Who executes justice for the oppressed;
Who gives food to the hungry.
YaHWeH frees the prisoners.
8YaHWeH opens the eyes of the blind.
YaHWeH raises up those who are bowed down.
YaHWeH loves the righteous.
9YaHWeH preserves the foreigners.
He upholds the fatherless and widow,
But the way of the wicked he turns upside down.
10YaHWeH will reign forever;
Your God, O Zion (Tziyon), to all generations.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 147

1Praise YaH,
For it is good to sing praises to our God;
For it is pleasant and fitting to praise him.
2YaHWeH builds up Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
He gathers together the outcasts of Isreal (Yisrael).
3He heals the broken in heart,
And binds up their wounds.
4He counts the number of the stars.
He calls them all by their names.
5Great is our Lord (Adonay), and mighty in power.
His understanding is infinite.
6YaHWeH upholds the humble.
He brings the wicked down to the ground.
7Sing to YaHWeH with thanksgiving.
Sing praises on the harp to our God,
8Who covers the sky with clouds,
Who prepares rain for the earth,
Who makes grass grow on the mountains.
9He provides food for the cattle,
And for the young ravens when they call.

10He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
11YaHWeH takes pleasure in those who fear him,
In those who hope in his loving kindness.
12Praise YaH, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)!
Praise your God, Zion (Tziyon)!
13For he has strengthened the bars of your gates.
He has blessed your children within you.
14He makes shalom in your borders.
He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
15He sends out his word to the earth.
His word runs very swiftly.
16He gives snow like wool,
And scatters frost like ashes.
17He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
Who can stand before his cold?
18He sends out his word, and melts them.
He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19He shows his word to Jacob (Yakob);
His statutes and his ordinances to Isreal (Yisrael).
20He has not done this for just any nation.
They don't know his ordinances.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 148

1Praise YaH!
Praise YaHWeH from the heavens!
Praise him in the heights!
2Praise him, all his angels!
Praise him, all his host!
3Praise him, sun and moon!
Praise him, all you shining stars!
4Praise him, you heavens of heavens,
You waters that are above the heavens.
5Let them praise the name of YaHWeH,
For he commanded, and they were created.
6He has also established them forever and ever.
He has made a decree which will not pass away.

7Praise YaH from the earth,
You great sea creatures, and all depths!
8Lightning and hail, snow and clouds;
Stormy wind, fulfilling his word;
9Mountains and all hills;
Fruit trees and all cedars;
10Wild animals and all cattle;
Small creatures and flying birds;
11Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
12Both young men and maidens;
Old men and children:
13Let them praise the name of YaHWeH,
For his name alone is exalted.
His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
14He has lifted up the horn of his people,
The praise of all his holy ones;
Even of the children of Isreal (Yisrael), a people near to him.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 149

1Praise YaH!
Sing to YaHWeH a new song,
His praise in the assembly of the holy ones.
2Let Isreal (Yisrael) rejoice in him who made them.
Let the children of Zion (Tziyon) be joyful in their King.
3Let them praise his name in the dance!
Let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp!
4For YaHWeH takes pleasure in his people.
He crowns the humble with yeshuah (salvation).
5Let the holy ones rejoice in honor.
Let them sing for joy on their beds.
6May the high praises of God be in their mouths,
And a two-edged sword in their hand;
7To execute vengeance on the nations,
And punishments on the peoples;
8To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;

9To execute on them the written judgment.
All his holy ones have this honor.
Praise YaH!

Psalm 150

1Praise YaH!
Praise God in his sanctuary!
Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power!
2Praise him for his mighty acts!
Praise him according to his excellent greatness!
3Praise him with the sounding of the trumpet (shofar)!
Praise him with harp and lyre!
4Praise him with tambourine and dancing!
Praise him with stringed instruments and flute!
5Praise him with loud cymbals!
Praise him with resounding cymbals!
6Let everything that has breath Praise YaH!
Praise YaH!

Proverbs
(Mishle)

1

The proverbs of Solomon (Shlomo), the son of David, king of Isreal (Yisrael):
[2]To know wisdom and instruction;
To discern the words of understanding;
[3]To receive instruction in wise dealing,
In righteousness, justice, and equity;
[4]To give prudence to the simple,
Knowledge and discretion to the young man:
[5]That the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;
That the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel:
[6]To understand a proverb, and parables,
The words and riddles of the wise.

[7]The fear of YaHWeH is the beginning of knowledge;
But the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.
[8]My son, listen to your father's instruction,
And don't forsake your mother's teaching:
[9]For they will be a garland to grace your head,
And chains around your neck.
[10]My son, if sinners entice you, don't consent.
[11]If they say, "Come with us,
Let's lay in wait for blood;
Let's lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
[12]Let's swallow them up alive like She'ol,
And whole, like those who go down into the pit.
[13]We'll find all valuable wealth.
We'll fill our houses with spoil.
[14]You shall cast your lot among us.
We'll all have one purse."
[15]My son, don't walk in the way with them.
Keep your foot from their path,
[16]For their feet run to evil.

They hurry to shed blood.
17For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird:
18But these lay wait for their own blood.
They lurk secretly for their own lives.
19So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.
It takes away the life of its owners.

20Wisdom calls aloud in the street.
She utters her voice in the public squares.
21She calls at the head of noisy places.
At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her words:
22"How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?
How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery,
And fools hate knowledge?
23Turn at my reproof.
Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you.
I will make known my words to you.
24Because I have called, and you have refused;
I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;
25But you have ignored all my counsel,
And wanted none of my reproof;
26I also will laugh at your disaster.
I will mock when calamity overtakes you;
27When calamity overtakes you like a storm,
When your disaster comes on like a whirlwind;
When distress and anguish come on you.
28Then will they call on me, but I will not answer.
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me;
29Because they hated knowledge,
And didn't choose the fear of YaHWeH.
30They wanted none of my counsel.
They despised all my reproof.
31Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way,
And be filled with their own schemes.
32For the backsliding of the simple will kill them.
The careless ease of fools will destroy them.
33But whoever listens to me will dwell securely,
And will be at ease, without fear of harm."

2

My son, if you will receive my words,
And store up my commandments (mitzvot) within you;
2So as to turn your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;
3Yes, if you call out for discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding;
4If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hidden treasures:
5Then you will understand the fear of YaHWeH,
And find the knowledge of God.
6For YaHWeH gives wisdom.
Out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
7He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.
He is a shield to those who walk in integrity;
8That he may guard the paths of justice,
And preserve the way of his holy ones.
9Then you will understand righteousness and justice,
Equity and every good path.
10For wisdom will enter into your heart.
Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
11Discretion will watch over you.
Understanding will keep you,
12To deliver you from the way of evil,
From the men who speak perverse things;
13Who forsake the paths of uprightness,
To walk in the ways of darkness;
14Who rejoice to do evil,
And delight in the perverseness of evil;
15Who are crooked in their ways,
And wayward in their paths:
16To deliver you from the strange woman,
Even from the foreigner who flatters with her words;
17Who forsakes the friend of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her God:
18For her house leads down to death,
Her paths to the dead.
19None who go to her return again,

Neither do they attain to the paths of life:
20That you may walk in the way of good men,
And keep the paths of the righteous.
21For the upright will dwell in the land.
The perfect will remain in it.
22But the wicked will be cut off from the land.
The treacherous will be rooted out of it.

3

My son, don't forget my teaching;
But let your heart keep my commandments (mitzvot):
2For length of days, and years of life,
And shalom, will they add to you.
3Don't let kindness and truth forsake you.
Bind them around your neck.
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
4So you will find favor,
And good understanding in the sight of God and man.
5Trust in YaHWeH with all your heart,
And don't lean on your own understanding.
6In all your ways acknowledge him,
And he will direct your paths.
7Don't be wise in your own eyes.
Fear YaHWeH, and depart from evil.
8It will be health to your body,
And nourishment to your bones.
9Honor YaHWeH with your substance,
With the first fruits of all your increase:
10So your barns will be filled with plenty,
And your vats will overflow with new wine.
11My son, don't despise YaHWeH's discipline,
Neither be weary of his reproof:
12For whom YaHWeH loves, he reproves;
Even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights.

13Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
The man who gets understanding.
14For her good profit is better than getting silver,
And her return is better than fine gold.

15She is more precious than rubies.
None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
16Length of days is in her right hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
17Her ways are ways of pleasantness.
All her paths are shalom.
18She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her.
Happy is everyone who retains her.
19By wisdom YaHWeH founded the earth.
By understanding, he established the heavens.
20By his knowledge, the depths were broken up,
And the skies drop down the dew.
21My son, let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep sound wisdom and discretion:
22So they will be life to your soul,
And grace for your neck.
23Then you shall walk in your way securely.
Your foot won't stumble.
24When you lie down, you will not be afraid.
Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
25Don't be afraid of sudden fear,
Neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes:
26For YaHWeH will be your confidence,
And will keep your foot from being taken.

27Don't withhold good from those to whom it is due,
When it is in the power of your hand to do it.
28Don't say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, Tomorrow I will give it to you,"
When you have it by you.
29Don't devise evil against your neighbor,
Seeing he dwells securely by you.
30Don't strive with a man without cause,
If he has done you no harm.
31Don't envy the man of violence.
Choose none of his ways.
32For the perverse is an abomination to YaHWeH,
But his friendship is with the upright.
33YaHWeH's curse is in the house of the wicked,
But he blesses the habitation of the righteous.

34Surely he mocks the mockers,
But he gives grace to the humble.
35The wise will inherit glory,
But shame will be the promotion of fools.

4

Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.
Pay attention and know understanding;
2For I give you sound learning.
Don't forsake my law.
3For I was a son to my father,
Tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.
4He taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my words.
Keep my commandments (mitzvot), and live.
5Get wisdom.
Get understanding.
Don't forget, neither swerve from the words of my mouth.
6Don't forsake her, and she will preserve you.
Love her, and she will keep you.
7Wisdom is supreme.
Get wisdom.
Yes, though it costs all your possessions, get understanding.
8Esteem her, and she will exalt you.
She will bring you to honor, when you embrace her.
9She will give to your head a garland of grace.
She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."

10Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.
The years of your life will be many.
11I have taught you in the way of wisdom.
I have led you in straight paths.
12When you go, your steps will not be hampered.
When you run, you will not stumble.
13Take firm hold of instruction.
Don't let her go.
Keep her, for she is your life.
14Don't enter into the path of the wicked.
Don't walk in the way of evil men.

15Avoid it, and don't pass by it.
Turn from it, and pass on.
16For they don't sleep, unless they do evil.
Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.
17For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.
18But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light,
That shines more and more until the perfect day.
19The way of the wicked is like darkness.
They don't know what they stumble over.

20My son, attend to my words.
Turn your ear to my sayings.
21Let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep them in the midst of your heart.
22For they are life to those who find them,
And health to their whole body.
23Keep your heart with all diligence,
For out of it is the wellspring of life.
24Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
Put corrupt lips far from you.
25Let your eyes look straight ahead.
Fix your gaze directly before you.
26Make the path of your feet level.
Let all of your ways be established.
27Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left.
Remove your foot from evil.

5

My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Turn your ear to my understanding:
2That you may maintain discretion,
That your lips may preserve knowledge.
3For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.
Her mouth is smoother than oil,
4But in the end she is as bitter as wormwood,
And as sharp as a two-edged sword.
5Her feet go down to death.
Her steps lead straight to She'ol.

6She gives no thought to the way of life.
Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it.

7Now therefore, my sons, listen to me.
Don't depart from the words of my mouth.
8Remove your way far from her.
Don't come near the door of her house,
9Lest you give your honor to others,
And your years to the cruel one;
10Lest strangers feast on your wealth,
And your labors enrich another man's house.
11You will groan at your latter end,
When your flesh and your body are consumed,
12And say, "How I have hated instruction,
And my heart despised reproof;
13Neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers,
Nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!
14I have come to the brink of utter ruin,
In the midst of the gathered assembly."

15Drink water out of your own cistern,
Running water out of your own well.
16Should your springs overflow in the streets,
Streams of water in the public squares?
17Let them be for yourself alone,
Not for strangers with you.
18Let your spring be blessed.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
19A loving doe and a graceful deer—
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
Be captivated always with her love.
20For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?
Why embrace the bosom of another?
21For the ways of man are before the eyes of YaHWeH.
He examines all his paths.
22The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him.
The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
23He will die for lack of instruction.
In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.

6

My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
If you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger;
2You are trapped by the words of your mouth.
You are ensnared with the words of your mouth.
3Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself,
Seeing you have come into the hand of your neighbor.
Go, humble yourself.
Press your plea with your neighbor.
4Give no sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids.
5Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
Like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

6Go to the ant, you sluggard.
Consider her ways, and be wise;
7Which having no chief, overseer, or ruler,
8Provides her bread in the summer,
And gathers her food in the harvest.
9How long will you sleep, sluggard?
When will you arise out of your sleep?
10A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep:
11So your poverty will come as a robber,
And your scarcity as an armed man.

12A worthless person, a man of iniquity,
Is he who walks with a perverse mouth;
13Who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet,
Who motions with his fingers;
14In whose heart is perverseness,
Who devises evil continually,
Who always sows discord.
15Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.
He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.

16There are six things which YaHWeH hates;
Yes, seven which are an abomination to him:

17 Haughty eyes, a lying tongue,
Hands that shed innocent blood;
18 A heart that devises wicked schemes,
Feet that are swift in running to mischief,
19 A false witness who utters lies,
And he who sows discord among brothers.

20 My son, keep your father's word,
And don't forsake your mother's teaching.
21 Bind them continually on your heart.
Tie them around your neck.
22 When you walk, it will lead you.
When you sleep, it will watch over you.
When you awake, it will talk with you.
23 For the word is a lamp,
And the law is light.
Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
24 To keep you from the immoral woman,
From the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue.
25 Don't lust after her beauty in your heart,
Neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.
26 For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.
The adulteress hunts for your precious life.
27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
And his clothes not be burned?
28 Or can one walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be scorched?
29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
Whoever touches her will not be unpunished.
30 Men don't despise a thief,
If he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry:
31 But if he is found, he shall restore seven times.
He shall give all the wealth of his house.
32 He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding.
He who does it destroys his own soul.
33 He will get wounds and dishonor.
His reproach will not be wiped away.
34 For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.
He won't spare in the day of vengeance.
35 He won't regard any ransom,

Neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

7

My son, keep my words.
Lay up my commandments (mitzvot) within you.
[2]Keep my commandments (mitzvot) and live;
Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.
[3]Bind them on your fingers.
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
[4]Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."
Call understanding your relative,
[5]That they may keep you from the strange woman,
From the foreigner who flatters with her words.
[6]For at the window of my house,
I looked out through my lattice.
[7]I saw among the simple ones.
I discerned among the youths a young man void of understanding,
[8]Passing through the street near her corner,
He went the way to her house,
[9]In the twilight, in the evening of the day,
In the middle of the night and in the darkness.
[10]Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute,
And with crafty intent.
[11]She is loud and defiant.
Her feet don't stay in her house.
[12]Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
And lurking at every corner.
[13]So she caught him, and kissed him.
With an impudent face she said to him:
[14]"Sacrifices of peace-offerings are with me.
This day I have paid my vows.
[15]Therefore I came out to meet you,
To diligently seek your face,
And I have found you.
[16]I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry,
With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt (Mitzrayim).
[17]I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
[18]Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning.
Let's solace ourselves with loving.

19For my husband isn't at home.
He has gone on a long journey.
20He has taken a bag of money with him.
He will come home at the full moon."
21With persuasive words, she led him astray.
With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.
22He followed her immediately,
As an ox goes to the slaughter,
As a fool stepping into a noose.
23Until an arrow strikes through his liver,
As a bird hurries to the snare,
And doesn't know that it will cost his life.
24Now therefore, sons, listen to me.
Pay attention to the words of my mouth.
25Don't let your heart turn to her ways.
Don't go astray in her paths,
26For she has thrown down many wounded.
Yes, all her slain are a mighty host.
27Her house is the way to She'ol,
Going down to the chambers of death.

8

Doesn't wisdom cry out?
Doesn't understanding raise her voice?
2On the top of high places by the way,
Where the paths meet, she stands.
3Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the entry doors, she cries aloud:
4"To you men, I call!
I send my voice to the sons of mankind.
5You simple, understand prudence.
You fools, be of an understanding heart.
6Hear, for I will speak excellent things.
The opening of my lips is for right things.
7For my mouth speaks truth.
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8All the words of my mouth are in righteousness.
There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
9They are all plain to him who understands,

Right to those who find knowledge.
10Receive my instruction rather than silver;
Knowledge rather than choice gold.
11For wisdom is better than rubies.
All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.

12"I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling.
Find out knowledge and discretion.
13The fear of YaHWeH is to hate evil.
I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.
14Counsel and sound knowledge are mine.
I have understanding and power.
15By me kings reign,
And princes decree justice.
16By me princes rule;
Nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.
17I love those who love me.
Those who seek me diligently will find me.
18With me are riches, honor,
Enduring wealth, and prosperity.
19My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold;
My yield than choice silver.
20I walk in the way of righteousness,
In the midst of the paths of justice;
21That I may give wealth to those who love me.
I fill their treasuries.

22"YaHWeH possessed me in the beginning of his work,
Before his deeds of old.
23I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
Before the earth existed.
24When there were no depths, I was brought forth,
When there were no springs abounding with water.
25Before the mountains were settled in place,
Before the hills, I was brought forth;
26While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,
Nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
27When he established the heavens, I was there;
When he set a circle on the surface of the deep,
28When he established the clouds above,

When the springs of the deep became strong,
29When he gave to the sea its boundary,
That the waters should not violate his word,
When he marked out the foundations of the earth;
30Then I was the craftsman by his side.
I was a delight day by day,
Always rejoicing before him,
31Rejoicing in his whole world.
My delight was with the sons of men.

32"Now therefore, my sons, listen to me,
For blessed are those who keep my ways.
33Hear instruction, and be wise.
Don't refuse it.
34Blessed is the man who hears me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at my door posts.
35For whoever finds me, finds life,
And will obtain favor from YaHWeH.
36But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.
All those who hate me love death."

9

Wisdom has built her house.
She has carved out her seven pillars.
2She has prepared her meat.
She has mixed her wine.
She has also set her table.
3She has sent out her maidens.
She cries from the highest places of the city:
4"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!"
As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,
5"Come, eat some of my bread,
Drink some of the wine which I have mixed!
6Leave your simple ways, and live.
Walk in the way of understanding."

7He who corrects a mocker invites insult.
He who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.

8Don't reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.
Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
9Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser.
Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
10The fear of YaHWeH is the beginning of wisdom.
The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11For by me your days will be multiplied.
The years of your life will be increased.
12If you are wise, you are wise for yourself.
If you mock, you alone will bear it.

13The foolish woman is loud,
Undisciplined, and knows nothing.
14She sits at the door of her house,
On a seat in the high places of the city,
15To call to those who pass by,
Who go straight on their ways,
16"Whoever is simple, let him turn in here."
As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him,
17"Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret is pleasant."
18But he doesn't know that the dead are there,
That her guests are in the depths of She'ol.

10

The proverbs of Solomon (Shlomo).
A wise son makes a glad father;
But a foolish son brings grief to his mother.
2Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
But righteousness delivers from death.
3YaHWeH will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry,
But he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
4He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand,
But the hand of the diligent brings wealth.
5He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
But he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.
6Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
7The memory of the righteous is blessed,

But the name of the wicked will rot.
[8]The wise in heart accept commandments (mitzvot),
But a chattering fool will fall.
[9]He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
But he who perverts his ways will be found out.
[10]One winking with the eye causes sorrow,
But a chattering fool will fall.
[11]The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
[12]Hatred stirs up strife,
But love covers all wrongs.
[13]Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment,
But a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding.
[14]Wise men lay up knowledge,
But the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.
[15]The rich man's wealth is his strong city.
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
[16]The labor of the righteous leads to life.
The increase of the wicked leads to sin.
[17]He is in the way of life who heeds correction,
But he who forsakes reproof leads others astray.
[18]He who hides hatred has lying lips.
He who utters a slander is a fool.
[19]In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience,
But he who restrains his lips does wisely.
[20]The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver.
The heart of the wicked is of little worth.
[21]The lips of the righteous feed many,
But the foolish die for lack of understanding.
[22]YaHWeH's blessing brings wealth,
And he adds no trouble to it.
[23]It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness,
But wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure.
[24]What the wicked fear, will overtake them,
But the desire of the righteous will be granted.
[25]When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more;
But the righteous stand firm forever.
[26]As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes,
So is the sluggard to those who send him.
[27]The fear of YaHWeH prolongs days,

But the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
28The prospect of the righteous is joy,
But the hope of the wicked will perish.
29The way of YaHWeH is a stronghold to the upright,
But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
30The righteous will never be removed,
But the wicked will not dwell in the land.
31The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
But the perverse tongue will be cut off.
32The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,
But the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

11

A false balance is an abomination to YaHWeH,
But accurate weights are his delight.
2When pride comes, then comes shame,
But with humility comes wisdom.
3The integrity of the upright shall guide them,
But the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
4Riches don't profit in the day of wrath,
But righteousness delivers from death.
5The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way,
But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
6The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them,
But the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.
7When a wicked man dies, hope perishes,
And expectation of power comes to nothing.
8A righteous person is delivered out of trouble,
And the wicked takes his place.
9With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor,
But the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.
10When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices.
When the wicked perish, there is shouting.
11By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted,
But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
12One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom,
But a man of understanding holds his shalom.
13One who brings gossip betrays a confidence,
But one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.

14Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls,
But in the multitude of counselors there is victory.
15He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it,
But he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.
16A gracious woman obtains honor,
But violent men obtain riches.
17The merciful man does good to his own soul,
But he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
18Wicked people earn deceitful wages,
But one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
19He who is truly righteous gets life.
He who pursues evil gets death.
20Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to YaHWeH,
But those whose ways are blameless are his delight.
21Most assuredly, the evil man will not be unpunished,
But the seed of the righteous will be delivered.
22Like a gold ring in a pig's snout,
Is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
23The desire of the righteous is only good.
The expectation of the wicked is wrath.
24There is one who scatters, and increases yet more.
There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty.
25The liberal soul shall be made fat.
He who waters shall be watered also himself.
26People curse someone who withholds grain,
But blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.
27He who diligently seeks good seeks favor,
But he who searches after evil, it shall come to him.
28He who trusts in his riches will fall,
But the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.
29He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind.
The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.
30The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life.
He who is wise wins souls.
31Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth;
How much more the wicked and the sinner!

12

Whoever loves correction loves knowledge,

But he who hates reproof is stupid.
2A good man shall obtain favor from YaHWeH,
But he will condemn a man of wicked devices.
3A man shall not be established by wickedness,
But the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
4A worthy woman is the crown of her husband,
But a disgraceful wife is as rottenness in his bones.
5The thoughts of the righteous are just,
But the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
6The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood,
But the speech of the upright rescues them.
7The wicked are overthrown, and are no more,
But the house of the righteous shall stand.
8A man shall be commended according to his wisdom,
But he who has a warped mind shall be despised.
9Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a servant,
Than he who honors himself, and lacks bread.
10A righteous man regards the life of his animal,
But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
11He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread,
But he who chases fantasies is void of understanding.
12The wicked desires the plunder of evil men,
But the root of the righteous flourishes.
13An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips,
But the righteous shall come out of trouble.
14A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth.
The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him.
15The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
But he who is wise listens to counsel.
16A fool shows his annoyance the same day,
But one who overlooks an insult is prudent.
17He who is truthful testifies honestly,
But a false witness lies.
18There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword,
But the tongue of the wise heals.
19Truth's lips will be established forever,
But a lying tongue is only momentary.
20Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
But joy comes to the promoters of shalom.
21No mischief shall happen to the righteous,

But the wicked shall be filled with evil.
22Lying lips are an abomination to YaHWeH,
But those who do the truth are his delight.
23A prudent man keeps his knowledge,
But the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.
24The hands of the diligent ones shall rule,
But laziness ends in slave labor.
25Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,
But a kind word makes it glad.
26A righteous person is cautious in friendship,
But the way of the wicked leads them astray.
27The slothful man doesn't roast his game,
But the possessions of diligent men are prized.
28In the way of righteousness is life;
In its path there is no death.

13

A wise son listens to his father's instruction,
But a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.
2By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things;
But the unfaithful crave violence.
3He who guards his mouth guards his soul.
One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
4The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing,
But the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.
5A righteous man hates lies,
But a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.
6Righteousness guards the way of integrity,
But wickedness overthrows the sinner.
7There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.
There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth.
8The ransom of a man's life is his riches,
But the poor hear no threats.
9The light of the righteous shines brightly,
But the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
10Pride only breeds quarrels,
But with ones who take advice is wisdom.
11Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away,
But he who gathers by hand makes it grow.

12Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
But when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.
13Whoever despises instruction will pay for it,
But he who respects a command will be rewarded.
14The teaching of the wise is a spring of life,
To turn from the snares of death.
15Good understanding wins favor;
But the way of the unfaithful is hard.
16Every prudent man acts from knowledge,
But a fool exposes folly.
17A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
But a trustworthy envoy gains healing.
18Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline,
But he who heeds correction shall be honored.
19Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul,
But fools detest turning from evil.
20One who walks with wise men grows wise,
But a companion of fools suffers harm.
21Misfortune pursues sinners,
But prosperity rewards the righteous.
22A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children,
But the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous.
23An abundance of food is in poor people's fields,
But injustice sweeps it away.
24One who spares the rod hates his son,
But one who loves him is careful to discipline him.
25The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul,
But the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

14

Every wise woman builds her house,
But the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.
2He who walks in his uprightness fears YaHWeH,
But he who is perverse in his ways despises him.
3The fool's talk brings a rod to his back,
But the lips of the wise protect them.
4Where no oxen are, the crib is clean,
But much increase is by the strength of the ox.
5A truthful witness will not lie,

But a false witness pours out lies.
6A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it,
But knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.
7Stay away from a foolish man,
For you won't find knowledge on his lips.
8The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way,
But the folly of fools is deceit.
9Fools mock at making atonement for sins,
But among the upright there is good will.
10The heart knows its own bitterness and joy;
He will not share these with a stranger.
11The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
But the tent of the upright will flourish.
12There is a way which seems right to a man,
But in the end it leads to death.
13Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful,
And mirth may end in heaviness.
14The unfaithful will be repaid for his own ways;
Likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways.
15A simple man believes everything,
But the prudent man carefully considers his ways.
16A wise man fears, and shuns evil,
But the fool is hotheaded and reckless.
17He who is quick to become angry will commit folly,
And a crafty man is hated.
18The simple inherit folly,
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
19The evil bow down before the good,
And the wicked, at the gates of the righteous.
20The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor,
But the rich person has many friends.
21He who despises his neighbor sins,
But blessed is he who has pity on the poor.
22Don't they go astray who plot evil?
But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.
23In all hard work there is profit,
But the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.
24The crown of the wise is their riches,
But the folly of fools crowns them with folly.
25A truthful witness saves souls,

But a false witness is deceitful.
26In the fear of YaHWeH is a secure fortress,
And he will be a refuge for his children.
27The fear of YaHWeH is a fountain of life,
Turning people from the snares of death.
28In the multitude of people is the king's glory,
But in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince.
29He who is slow to anger has great understanding,
But he who has a quick temper displays folly.
30The life of the body is a heart at shalom,
But envy rots the bones.
31He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker,
But he who is kind to the needy honors him.
32The wicked is brought down in his calamity,
But in death, the righteous has a refuge.
33Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding,
And is even made known in the inward part of fools.
34Righteousness exalts a nation,
But sin is a disgrace to any people.
35The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely,
But his wrath is toward one who causes shame.

15

A gentle answer turns away wrath,
But a harsh word stirs up anger.
2The tongue of the wise commends knowledge,
But the mouth of fools gush out folly.
3YaHWeH's eyes are everywhere,
Keeping watch on the evil and the good.
4A gentle tongue is a tree of life,
But deceit in it crushes the spirit.
5A fool despises his father's correction,
But he who heeds reproof shows prudence.
6In the house of the righteous is much treasure,
But the income of the wicked brings trouble.
7The lips of the wise spread knowledge;
Not so with the heart of fools.
8The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to YaHWeH,
But the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9The way of the wicked is an abomination to YaHWeH,
But he loves him who follows after righteousness.
10There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way:
Whoever hates reproof shall die.
11She'ol and Avaddon are before YaHWeH—
How much more then the hearts of the children of men!
12A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved;
He will not go to the wise.
13A glad heart makes a cheerful face;
But an aching heart breaks the spirit.
14The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge,
But the mouths of fools feed on folly.
15All the days of the afflicted are wretched,
But one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.
16Better is little, with the fear of YaHWeH,
Than great treasure with trouble.
17Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
Than a fattened calf with hatred.
18A wrathful man stirs up contention,
But one who is slow to anger appeases strife.
19The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch,
But the path of the upright is a highway.
20A wise son makes a father glad,
But a foolish man despises his mother.
21Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom,
But a man of understanding keeps his way straight.
22Where there is no counsel, plans fail;
But in a multitude of counselors they are established.
23Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth.
How good is a word at the right time!
24The path of life leads upward for the wise,
To keep him from going downward to She'ol.
25YaHWeH will uproot the house of the proud,
But he will keep the widow's borders intact.
26YaHWeH detests the thoughts of the wicked,
But the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.
27He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house,
But he who hates bribes will live.
28The heart of the righteous weighs answers,
But the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.

29YaHWeH is far from the wicked,
But he hears the prayer of the righteous.
30The light of the eyes rejoices the heart.
Good news gives health to the bones.
31The ear that listens to reproof lives,
And will be at home among the wise.
32He who refuses correction despises his own soul,
But he who listens to reproof gets understanding.
33The fear of YaHWeH teaches wisdom.
Before honor is humility.

16

The plans of the heart belong to man,
But the answer of the tongue is from YaHWeH.
2All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;
But YaHWeH weighs the motives.
3Commit your deeds to YaHWeH,
And your plans shall succeed.
4YaHWeH has made everything for its own end—
Yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
5Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to YaHWeH:
They shall assuredly not be unpunished.
6By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for.
By the fear of YaHWeH men depart from evil.
7When a man's ways please YaHWeH,
He makes even his enemies to be at shalom with him.
8Better is a little with righteousness,
Than great revenues with injustice.
9A man's heart plans his course,
But YaHWeH directs his steps.
10Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king.
He shall not betray his mouth.
11Honest balances and scales are YaHWeH's;
All the weights in the bag are his work.
12It is an abomination for kings to do wrong,
For the throne is established by righteousness.
13Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
They value one who speaks the truth.
14The king's wrath is a messenger of death,

But a wise man will pacify it.
15In the light of the king's face is life.
His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.
16How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!
Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
17The highway of the upright is to depart from evil.
He who keeps his way preserves his soul.
18Pride goes before destruction,
And a haughty spirit before a fall.
19It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor,
Than to divide the plunder with the proud.
20He who heeds the Word finds prosperity.
Whoever trusts in YaHWeH is blessed.
21The wise in heart shall be called prudent.
Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.
22Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it,
But the punishment of fools is their folly.
23The heart of the wise instructs his mouth,
And adds learning to his lips.
24Pleasant words are a honeycomb,
Sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
25There is a way which seems right to a man,
But in the end it leads to death.
26The appetite of the laboring man labors for him;
For his mouth urges him on.
27A worthless man devises mischief.
His speech is like a scorching fire.
28A perverse man stirs up strife.
A whisperer separates close friends.
29A man of violence entices his neighbor,
And leads him in a way that is not good.
30One who winks his eyes to plot perversities,
One who compresses his lips, is bent on evil.
31Gray hair is a crown of glory.
It is attained by a life of righteousness.
32One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;
One who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.
33The lot is cast into the lap,
But its every decision is from YaHWeH.

17

Better is a dry morsel with quietness,
Than a house full of feasting with strife.
2A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame,
And shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.
3The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold,
But YaHWeH tests the hearts.
4An evil-doer heeds wicked lips.
A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
5Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker.
He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.
6Children's children are the crown of old men;
The glory of children are their parents.
7Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool,
Much less do lying lips fit a prince.
8A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it;
Wherever he turns, he prospers.
9He who covers an offense promotes love;
But he who repeats a matter separates best friends.
10A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding
Than a hundred lashes into a fool.
11An evil man seeks only rebellion;
Therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
12Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man,
Rather than a fool in his folly.
13Whoever rewards evil for good,
Evil shall not depart from his house.
14The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam,
Therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out.
15He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous,
Both of them alike are an abomination to YaHWeH.
16Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom,
Seeing he has no understanding?
17A friend loves at all times;
And a brother is born for adversity.
18A man void of understanding strikes hands,
And becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor.
19He who loves disobedience loves strife.

One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.
20 One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity,
And one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.
21 He who becomes the father of a fool grieves.
The father of a fool has no joy.
22 A cheerful heart makes good medicine,
But a crushed spirit dries up the bones.
23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret,
To pervert the ways of justice.
24 Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding,
But the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.
25 A foolish son brings grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.
26 Also to punish the righteous is not good,
Nor to flog officials for their integrity.
27 He who spares his words has knowledge.
He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.
28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise.
When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.

18

An unfriendly man pursues selfishness,
And defies all sound judgment.
2 A fool has no delight in understanding,
But only in revealing his own opinion.
3 When wickedness comes, contempt also comes,
And with shame comes disgrace.
4 The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters.
The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.
5 To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good,
Nor to deprive the innocent of justice.
6 A fool's lips come into strife,
And his mouth invites beatings.
7 A fool's mouth is his destruction,
And his lips are a snare to his soul.
8 The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels:
They go down into a person's innermost parts.
9 One who is slack in his work
Is brother to him who is a master of destruction.

10The name of YaHWeH is a strong tower:
The righteous run to him, and are safe.
11The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
Like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.
12Before destruction the heart of man is proud,
But before honor is humility.
13He who gives answer before he hears,
That is folly and shame to him.
14A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness,
But a crushed spirit, who can bear?
15The heart of the discerning gets knowledge.
The ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
16A man's gift makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.
17He who pleads his cause first seems right;
Until another comes and questions him.
18The lot settles disputes,
And keeps strong ones apart.
19A brother offended is more difficult than a fortified city;
And disputes are like the bars of a castle.
20A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth.
With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.
21Death and life are in the power of the tongue;
Those who love it will eat its fruit.
22Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
And obtains favor of YaHWeH.
23The poor plead for mercy,
But the rich answer harshly.
24A man of many companions may be ruined,
But there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19

Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
2It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge;
Nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way.
3The foolishness of man subverts his way;
His heart rages against YaHWeH.
4Wealth adds many friends,

But the poor is separated from his friend.
5A false witness shall not be unpunished.
He who pours out lies shall not go free.
6Many will entreat the favor of a ruler,
And everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
7All the relatives of the poor shun him:
How much more do his friends avoid him!
He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone.
8He who gets wisdom loves his own soul.
He who keeps understanding shall find good.
9A false witness shall not be unpunished.
He who utters lies shall perish.
10Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool,
Much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
11The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger.
It is his glory to overlook an offense.
12The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion,
But his favor is like dew on the grass.
13A foolish son is the calamity of his father.
A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.
14House and riches are an inheritance from fathers,
But a prudent wife is from YaHWeH.
15Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep.
The idle soul shall suffer hunger.
16He who keeps the word keeps his soul,
But he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die.
17He who has pity on the poor lends to YaHWeH;
He will reward him.
18Discipline your son, for there is hope;
Don't be a willing party to his death.
19A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty,
For if you rescue him, you must do it again.
20Listen to counsel and receive instruction,
That you may be wise in your latter end.
21There are many plans in a man's heart,
But YaHWeH's counsel will prevail.
22That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness.
A poor man is better than a liar.
23The fear of YaHWeH leads to life, then contentment;
He rests and will not be touched by trouble.

24The sluggard buries his hand in the dish;
He will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
25Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;
Rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.
26He who robs his father and drives away his mother,
Is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.
27If you stop listening to instruction, my son,
You will stray from the words of knowledge.
28A corrupt witness mocks justice,
And the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.
29Penalties are prepared for scoffers,
And beatings for the backs of fools.

20

Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler;
Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
2The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion:
He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.
3It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife;
But every fool will be quarreling.
4The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter;
Therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.
5Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water;
But a man of understanding will draw it out.
6Many men claim to be men of unfailing love,
But who can find a faithful man?
7A righteous man walks in integrity.
Blessed are his children after him.
8A king who sits on the throne of judgment
Scatters away all evil with his eyes.
9Who can say, "I have made my heart pure.
I am clean and without sin?"
10Differing weights and differing measures,
Both of them alike are an abomination to YaHWeH.
11Even a child makes himself known by his doings,
Whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.
12The hearing ear, and the seeing eye,
YaHWeH has made even both of them.

13Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty;
Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.
14"It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer;
But when he is gone his way, then he boasts.
15There is gold and abundance of rubies;
But the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.
16Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger;
And hold him in pledge for a wayward woman.
17Fraudulent food is sweet to a man,
But afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.
18Plans are established by advice;
By wise guidance you wage war!
19He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets;
Therefore don't keep company with him who opens wide his lips.
20Whoever curses his father or his mother,
His lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.
21An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning,
Won't be blessed in the end.
22Don't say, "I will pay back evil."
Wait for YaHWeH, and he will save you.
23YaHWeH detests differing weights,
And dishonest scales are not pleasing.
24A man's steps are from YaHWeH;
How then can man understand his way?
25It is a snare to a man make a rash dedication,
And later reconsider his vows.
26A wise king winnows out the wicked,
And drives the threshing wheel over them.
27The spirit of man is YaHWeH's lamp,
Searching all his innermost parts.
28Love and faithfulness keep the king safe.
His throne is sustained by love.
29The glory of young men is their strength.
The splendor of old men is their gray hair.
30Wounding blows cleanse away evil,
And beatings purge the innermost parts.

21

The king's heart is in YaHWeH's hand like the watercourses.
He turns it wherever he desires.
[2]Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
But YaHWeH weighs the hearts.
[3]To do righteousness and justice
Is more acceptable to YaHWeH than sacrifice.
[4]A high look, and a proud heart,
The lamp of the wicked, is sin.
[5]The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit;
And everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.
[6]Getting treasures by a lying tongue
Is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.
[7]The violence of the wicked will drive them away,
Because they refuse to do what is right.
[8]The way of the guilty is devious,
But the conduct of the innocent is upright.
[9]It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
Than to share a house with a contentious woman.
[10]The soul of the wicked desires evil;
His neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.
[11]When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom;
When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.
[12]The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked,
And brings the wicked to ruin.
[13]Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor,
He will also cry out, but shall not be heard.
[14]A gift in secret pacifies anger;
And a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.
[15]It is joy to the righteous to do justice;
But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
[16]The man who wanders out of the way of understanding
Shall rest in the assembly of the dead.
[17]He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man:
He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.
[18]The wicked is a ransom for the righteous;
The treacherous for the upright.
[19]It is better to dwell in a desert land,

Than with a contentious and fretful woman.
20There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
But a foolish man swallows it up.
21He who follows after righteousness and kindness
Finds life, righteousness, and honor.
22A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
And brings down the strength of its confidence.
23Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue
Keeps his soul from troubles.
24The proud and haughty man, "scoffer" is his name;
He works in the arrogance of pride.
25The desire of the sluggard kills him,
For his hands refuse to labor.
26There are those who covet greedily all the day long;
But the righteous give and don't withhold.
27The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination:
How much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!
28A false witness will perish,
And a man who listens speaks to eternity.
29A wicked man hardens his face;
But as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
30There is no wisdom nor understanding
Nor counsel against YaHWeH.
31The horse is prepared for the day of battle;
But victory is with YaHWeH.

22

A good name is more desirable than great riches,
And loving favor is better than silver and gold.
2The rich and the poor have this in common:
YaHWeH is the maker of them all.
3A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself;
But the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
4The result of humility and the fear of YaHWeH
Is wealth, honor, and life.
5Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked:
Whoever guards his soul stays from them.
6Train up a child in the way he should go,

And when he is old he will not depart from it.
7The rich rule over the poor.
The borrower is servant to the lender.
8He who sows wickedness reaps trouble,
And the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
9He who has a generous eye will be blessed;
For he shares his food with the poor.
10Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out;
Yes, quarrels and insults will stop.
11He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully
Is the king's friend.
12The eyes of YaHWeH watch over knowledge;
But he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
13The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside!
I will be killed in the streets!"
14The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit:
He who is under YaHWeH's wrath will fall into it.
15Folly is bound up in the heart of a child:
The rod of discipline drives it far from him.
16Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich,
Both come to poverty.

17Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise.
Apply your heart to my teaching.
18For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you,
If all of them are ready on your lips.
19That your trust may be in YaHWeH,
I teach you today, even you.
20Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things
Of counsel and knowledge,
21To teach you truth, reliable words,
To give sound answers to the ones who sent you?

22Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor;
And don't crush the needy in court;
23For YaHWeH will plead their case,
And plunder the life of those who plunder them.

24Don't befriend a hot-tempered man,
And don't associate with one who harbors anger:

25Lest you learn his ways,
And ensnare your soul.

26Don't you be one of those who strike hands,
Of those who are collateral for debts.
27If you don't have means to pay,
Why should he take away your bed from under you?

28Don't move the ancient boundary stone,
Which your fathers have set up.

29Do you see a man skilled in his work?
He will serve kings;
He won't serve obscure men.

23

When you sit to eat with a ruler,
Consider diligently what is before you;
2Put a knife to your throat,
If you are a man given to appetite.
3Don't be desirous of his dainties,
Seeing they are deceitful food.
4Don't weary yourself to be rich.
In your wisdom, show restraint.
5Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?
For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky.
6Don't eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,
And don't crave his delicacies:
7For as he thinks about the cost, so he is.
"Eat and drink!" he says to you,
But his heart is not with you.
8The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up,
And lose your good words.

9Don't speak in the ears of a fool,
For he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10Don't move the ancient boundary stone.

Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless:
11For their Defender is strong.
He will plead their case against you.

12Apply your heart to instruction,
And your ears to the words of knowledge.
13Don't withhold correction from a child.
If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.
14Punish him with the rod,
And save his soul from She'ol.

15My son, if your heart is wise,
Then my heart will be glad, even mine:
16Yes, my heart will rejoice,
When your lips speak what is right.
17Don't let your heart envy sinners;
But rather fear YaHWeH all the day long.
18Indeed surely there is a future hope,
And your hope will not be cut off.
19Listen, my son, and be wise,
And keep your heart on the right path!
20Don't be among ones drinking too much wine,
Or those who gorge themselves on meat:
21For the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor;
And drowsiness clothes them in rags.
22Listen to your father who gave you life,
And don't despise your mother when she is old.
23Buy the truth, and don't sell it:
Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding.
24The father of the righteous has great joy.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.
25Let your father and your mother be glad!
Let her who bore you rejoice!
26My son, give me your heart;
And let your eyes keep in my ways.
27For a prostitute is a deep pit;
And a wayward wife is a narrow well.
28Yes, she lies in wait like a robber,
And increases the unfaithful among men.

29 Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has strife?
Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises?
Who has bloodshot eyes?
30 Those who stay long at the wine;
Those who go to seek out mixed wine.
31 Don't look at the wine when it is red,
When it sparkles in the cup,
When it goes down smoothly:
32 In the end, it bites like a snake,
And poisons like a viper.
33 Your eyes will see strange things,
And your mind will imagine confusing things.
34 Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea,
Or as he who lies on top of the rigging:
35 "They hit me, and I was not hurt;
They beat me, and I don't feel it!
When will I wake up? I can do it again.
I can find another."

24

Don't be envious of evil men;
Neither desire to be with them:
2 For their hearts plot violence,
And their lips talk about mischief.
3 Through wisdom a house is built;
By understanding it is established;
4 By knowledge the rooms are filled
With all rare and beautiful treasure.
5 A wise man has great power;
And a knowledgeable man increases strength;
6 For by wise guidance you wage your war;
And victory is in many advisors.
7 Wisdom is too high for a fool:
He doesn't open his mouth in the gate.

8One who plots to do evil
Will be called a schemer.
9The schemes of folly are sin.
The mocker is detested by men.
10If you falter in the time of trouble,
Your strength is small.
11Rescue those who are being led away to death!
Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter!
12If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this;"
Doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it?
Shall he not render to every man according to his work?
13My son, eat honey, for it is good;
The droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:
14So you shall know wisdom to be to your soul;
If you have found it, then there will be a reward,
Your hope will not be cut off.
15Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous.
Don't destroy his resting-place:
16For a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again;
But the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
17Don't rejoice when your enemy falls.
Don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown;
18Lest YaHWeH see it, and it displease him,
And he turn away his wrath from him.
19Don't fret yourself because of evildoers;
Neither be envious of the wicked:
20For there will be no reward to the evil man;
And the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out.
21My son, fear YaHWeH and the king.
Don't join those who are rebellious:
22For their calamity will rise suddenly;
The destruction from them both—who knows?

23These also are sayings of the wise.
To show partiality in judgment is not good.
24He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous;"
Peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor him—
25But it will go well with those who convict the guilty,
And a rich blessing will come on them.

[26]An honest answer
Is like a kiss on the lips.
[27]Prepare your work outside,
And get your fields ready.
Afterwards, build your house.
[28]Don't be a witness against your neighbor without cause.
Don't deceive with your lips.
[29]Don't say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will render to the man according to his work."
[30]I went by the field of the sluggard,
By the vineyard of the man void of understanding;
[31]Behold, it was all grown over with thorns.
Its surface was covered with nettles,
And its stone wall was broken down.
[32]Then I saw, and considered well.
I saw, and received instruction:
[33]A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep;
[34]So shall your poverty come as a robber,
And your want as an armed man.

25

These also are proverbs of Solomon (Shlomo), which the men of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) king of Judah (Yahudah) copied out.
[2]It is the glory of God to conceal a thing,
But the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
[3]As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth,
So the hearts of kings are unsearchable.
[4]Take away the dross from the silver,
And material comes out for the refiner;
[5]Take away the wicked from the king's presence,
And his throne will be established in righteousness.
[6]Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the king,
Or claim a place among great men;
[7]For it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here,"
Than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
Whom your eyes have seen.
[8]Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court.
What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you?

9Debate your case with your neighbor,
And don't betray the confidence of another;
10Lest one who hears it put you to shame,
And your bad reputation never depart.

11A word fitly spoken
Is like apples of gold in settings of silver.
12As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold,
So is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.
13As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
So is a faithful messenger to those who send him;
For he refreshes the soul of his masters.
14As clouds and wind without rain,
So is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.
15By patience a ruler is persuaded.
A soft tongue breaks the bone.
16Have you found honey?
Eat as much as is sufficient for you,
Lest you eat too much, and vomit it.
17Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house,
Lest he be weary of you, and hate you.
18A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor
Is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.
19Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble
Is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.
20As one who takes away a garment in cold weather,
Or vinegar on soda,
So is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
21If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat;
If he is thirsty, give him water to drink:
22For you will heap coals of fire on his head,
And YaHWeH will reward you.
23The north wind brings forth rain:
So a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.
24It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
Than to share a house with a contentious woman.
25Like cold water to a thirsty soul,
So is good news from a far country.
26Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well,
So is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.

27It is not good to eat much honey;
Nor is it honorable to seek ones own honor.
28Like a city that is broken down and without walls
Is a man whose spirit is without restraint.

26

Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,
So honor is not fitting for a fool.
2Like a fluttering sparrow,
Like a darting swallow,
So the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.
3A whip for the horse,
A bridle for the donkey,
And a rod for the back of fools!
4Don't answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest you also be like him.
5Answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest he be wise in his own eyes.
6One who sends a message by the hand of a fool
Is cutting off feet and drinking violence.
7Like the legs of the lame that hang loose:
So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
8As one who binds a stone in a sling,
So is he who gives honor to a fool.
9Like a thornbush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
10As an archer who wounds all,
So is he who hires a fool
Or he who hires those who pass by.
11As a dog that returns to his vomit,
So is a fool who repeats his folly.
12Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
13The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road!
A fierce lion roams the streets!"
14As the door turns on its hinges,
So does the sluggard on his bed.
15The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.
He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth.

16The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes
Than seven men who answer with discretion.
17Like one who grabs a dog's ears
Is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.
18Like a madman who shoots firebrands, arrows, and death,
19Is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?"
20For lack of wood a fire goes out;
Without gossip, a quarrel dies down.
21As coals are to hot embers,
And wood to fire,
So is a contentious man to kindling strife.
22The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
They go down into the innermost parts.
23Like silver dross on an earthen vessel
Are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart.
24A malicious man disguises himself with his lips,
But he harbors evil in his heart.
25When his speech is charming, don't believe him;
For there are seven abominations in his heart:
26His malice may be concealed by deception,
But his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.
27Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it.
Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.
28A lying tongue hates those it hurts;
And a flattering mouth works ruin.

27

Don't boast about tomorrow;
For you don't know what a day may bring forth.
2Let another man praise you,
And not your own mouth;
A stranger, and not your own lips.
3A stone is heavy,
And sand is a burden;
But a fool's provocation is heavier than both.
4Wrath is cruel,
And anger is overwhelming;
But who is able to stand before jealousy?
5Better is open rebuke

Than hidden love.
6Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
Although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
7A full soul loathes a honeycomb;
But to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.
8As a bird that wanders from her nest,
So is a man who wanders from his home.
9Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart;
So does earnest counsel from a man's friend.
10Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend.
Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster:
Better is a neighbor who is near than a distant brother.
11Be wise, my son,
And bring joy to my heart,
Then I can answer my tormentor.
12A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
But the simple pass on, and suffer for it:
13Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger;
Hold it for a wayward woman!
14He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning,
It will be taken as a curse by him.
15A continual dropping on a rainy day
And a contentious wife are alike:
16Restraining her is like restraining the wind,
Or like grasping oil in his right hand.

17Iron sharpens iron;
So a man sharpens his friend's countenance.
18Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
He who looks after his master shall be honored.
19As water reflects a face,
So a man's heart reflects the man.
20She'ol and Avaddon are never satisfied;
And a man's eyes are never satisfied.
21The crucible is for silver,
And the furnace for gold;
But man is refined by his praise.
22Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain,
Yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.

23Know well the state of your flocks,
And pay attention to your herds:
24For riches are not forever,
Nor does even the crown endure to all generations.
25The hay is removed, and the new growth appears,
The grasses of the hills are gathered in.
26The lambs are for your clothing,
And the goats are the price of a field.
27There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food,
For your family's food,
And for the nourishment of your servant girls.

28

The wicked flee when no one pursues;
But the righteous are as bold as a lion.
2In rebellion, a land has many rulers,
But order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.
3A needy man who oppresses the poor
Is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.
4Those who forsake the law praise the wicked;
But those who keep the law contend with them.
5Evil men don't understand justice;
But those who seek YaHWeH understand it fully.
6Better is the poor who walks in his integrity,
Than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.
7Whoever keeps the law is a wise son;
But he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
8He who increases his wealth by excessive interest
Gathers it for one who has pity on the poor.
9He who turns away his ear from hearing the law,
Even his prayer is an abomination.
10Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,
He will fall into his own trap;
But the blameless will inherit good.
11The rich man is wise in his own eyes;
But the poor who has understanding sees through him.
12When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
But when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.
13He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper,

But whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.
14Blessed is the man who always fears;
But one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.
15As a roaring lion or a charging bear,
So is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
16A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment.
One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days.
17A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death;
No one will support him.
18Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe;
But one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.
19One who works his land will have an abundance of food;
But one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
20A faithful man is rich with blessings;
But one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.
21To show partiality is not good;
Yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.
22A stingy man hurries after riches,
And doesn't know that poverty waits for him.
23One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor
Than one who flatters with the tongue.
24Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong."
He is a partner with a destroyer.
25One who is greedy stirs up strife;
But one who trusts in YaHWeH will prosper.
26One who trusts in himself is a fool;
But one who walks in wisdom, he is kept safe.
27One who gives to the poor has no lack;
But one who closes his eyes will have many curses.
28When the wicked rise, men hide themselves;
But when they perish, the righteous thrive.

29

He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck
Will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.
2When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice;
But when the wicked rule, the people groan.
3Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father;
But a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.

4The king by justice makes the land stable,
But he who takes bribes tears it down.
5A man who flatters his neighbor,
Spreads a net for his feet.
6An evil man is snared by his sin,
But the righteous can sing and be glad.
7The righteous care about justice for the poor.
The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.
8Mockers stir up a city,
But wise men turn away anger.
9If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man,
The fool rages or scoffs, and there is no shalom.
10The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity;
And they seek the life of the upright.
11A fool vents all of his anger,
But a wise man brings himself under control.
12If a ruler listens to lies,
All of his officials are wicked.
13The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
YaHWeH gives sight to the eyes of both.
14The king who fairly judges the poor,
His throne shall be established forever.
15The rod of correction gives wisdom,
But a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.
16When the wicked increase, sin increases;
But the righteous will see their downfall.
17Correct your son, and he will give you shalom;
Yes, he will bring delight to your soul.
18Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;
But one who keeps the law is blessed.
19A servant can't be corrected by words.
Though he understands, yet he will not respond.
20Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
21He who pampers his servant from youth
Will have him become a son in the end.
22An angry man stirs up strife,
And a wrathful man abounds in sin.
23A man's pride brings him low,
But one of lowly spirit gains honor.

24Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul.
He takes an oath, but dares not testify.
25The fear of man proves to be a snare,
But whoever puts his trust in YaHWeH is kept safe.
26Many seek the ruler's favor,
But a man's justice comes from YaHWeH.
27A dishonest man detests the righteous,
And the upright in their ways detest the wicked.

30

The words of Agur the son of Yakeh, the oracle:
The man says to 'Iti'el,
To 'Iti'el and Ucal:
2"Surely I am the most ignorant man,
And don't have a man's understanding.
3I have not learned wisdom,
Neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.
4Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in his garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?

5"Every word of God is flawless.
He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
6Don't you add to his words,
Lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.

7"Two things I have asked of you;
Don't deny me before I die:
8Remove far from me falsehood and lies.
Give me neither poverty nor riches.
Feed me with the food that is needful for me;
9Lest I be full, deny you, and say, 'Who is YaHWeH?'
Or lest I be poor, and steal,
And so dishonor the name of my God.

10"Don't slander a servant to his master,

Lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.
11There is a generation that curses their father,
And doesn't bless their mother.
12There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes,
Yet are not washed from their filthiness.
13There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes!
Their eyelids are lifted up.
14There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
And their jaws like knives,
To devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.

15"The leach has two daughters:
'Give, give.'

"There are three things that are never satisfied;
Four that don't say, 'Enough:'
16She'ol,
The barren womb;
The earth that is not satisfied with water;
And the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough.'

17The eye that mocks at his father,
And scorns obedience to his mother:
The ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
The young eagles shall eat it.

18"There are three things which are too amazing for me,
Four which I don't understand:
19The way of an eagle in the air;
The way of a serpent on a rock;
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
And the way of a man with a maiden.

20So is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,
And says, 'I have done nothing wrong.'

21"For three things the earth tremble,
And under four, it can't bear up:
22For a servant when he is king;

A fool when he is filled with food;
23For an unloved woman when she is married;
And a handmaid who is heir to her mistress.

24"There are four things which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
25The ants are not a strong people,
Yet they provide their food in the summer;
26The conies are but a feeble folk,
Yet make they their houses in the rocks;
27The locusts have no king,
Yet they advance in ranks;
28You can catch a lizard with your hands,
Yet it is in kings' palaces.

29"There are three things which are stately in their march,
Four which are stately in going:
30The lion, which is mightiest among animals,
And doesn't turn away for any;
31The greyhound,
The male goat also;
And the king against whom there is no rising up.

32"If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself,
Or if you have thought evil,
Put your hand over your mouth.
33For as the churning of milk brings forth butter,
And the wringing of the nose brings forth blood;
So the forcing of wrath brings forth strife."

31

The words of king Lemo'el; the oracle which his mother taught him.
2"Oh, my son!"
Oh, son of my womb!
Oh, son of my vows!
3Don't give your strength to women,
Nor your ways to that which destroys kings.
4It is not for kings, Lemo'el;
It is not for kings to drink wine;

Nor for princes to say, 'Where is strong drink?'
5Lest they drink, and forget the law,
And pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.
6Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish;
And wine to the bitter in soul:
7Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.
8Open your mouth for the mute,
In the cause of all who are left desolate.
9Open your mouth, judge righteously,
And serve justice to the poor and needy."

10Who can find a worthy woman?
For her price is far above rubies.
11The heart of her husband trusts in her.
He shall have no lack of gain.
12She does him good, and not harm,
All the days of her life.
13She seeks wool and flax,
And works eagerly with her hands.
14She is like the merchant ships.
She brings her bread from afar.
15She rises also while it is yet night,
Gives food to her household,
And portions for her servant girls.
16She considers a field, and buys it.
With the fruit of her hands, she plants a vineyard.
17She girds her loins with strength,
And makes her arms strong.
18She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp doesn't go out by night.
19She lays her hands to the distaff,
And her hands hold the spindle.
20She opens her arms to the poor;
Yes, she extends her hands to the needy.
21She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
For all her household are clothed with scarlet.
22She makes for herself carpets of tapestry.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
23Her husband is respected in the gates,

When he sits among the Elders (Zakenim) of the land.
[24]She makes linen garments and sells them,
And delivers sashes to the merchant.
[25]Strength and dignity are her clothing.
She laughs at the time to come.
[26]She opens her mouth with wisdom.
Faithful instruction is on her tongue.
[27]She looks well to the ways of her household,
And doesn't eat the bread of idleness.
[28]Her children rise up and call her blessed.
Her husband also praises her:
[29]"Many women do noble things,
But you excel them all."
[30]Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
But a woman who fears YaHWeH, she shall be praised.
[31]Give her of the fruit of her hands!
Let her works praise her in the gates!

Notes:

Job

There was a man in the land of `Utz, whose name was Job (Iyob). That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil. 2There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. 3His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred she-donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. 4His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. 5It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job (Iyob) sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job (Iyob) said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Thus did Job (Iyob) continually.

6Now it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before YaHWeH, that Satan also came among them. 7YaHWeH said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Then Satan answered YaHWeH, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

8YaHWeH said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job (Iyob)? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."

9Then Satan answered YaHWeH, and said, "Does Job (Iyob) fear God for nothing? 10Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. 11But put forth your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face."

12YaHWeH said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only on himself don't put forth your hand."

So Satan went forth from the presence of YaHWeH.

13It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 14that there came a messenger to Job (Iyob), and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them, 15and the Seba'im attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

16While he was still speaking, there also came another, and said, "The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

17While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Kasdim made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

18While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 19and, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

20Then Job (Iyob) arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped. 21He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. YaHWeH gave, and YaHWeH has taken away. Blessed be the name of YaHWeH."

22In all this, Job (Iyob) did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

2

Again it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before YaHWeH, that Satan came also among them to present himself before YaHWeH.
2YaHWeH said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered YaHWeH, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

3YaHWeH said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job (Iyob)? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause."

4Satan answered YaHWeH, and said, "Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has will he give for his life. 5But put forth your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce you to your face."

6YaHWeH said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand. Only spare his life."

7So Satan went forth from the presence of YaHWeH, and struck Job (Iyob) with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head. 8He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat among the ashes.

9Then his wife said to him, "Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die."10But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?"In all this Job (Iyob) didn't sin with his lips.

11Now when Job (Iyob)'s three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Elifaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuchite, and Tzofar the Na`amatite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him. 12When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and didn't recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky. 13So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

After this Job (Iyob) opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth. 2Job (Iyob) answered: 3"Let the day perish in which I was born, The night which said, 'There is a man-child conceived.' 4Let that day be darkness; Don't let God from above seek for it, Neither let the light shine on it. 5Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that makes black the day terrify it. 6As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year. Let it not come into the number of the months. 7Behold, let that night be barren. Let no joyful voice come therein. 8Let them curse it who curse the day, Who are ready to rouse up Leviathan (livyatan). 9Let the stars of the twilight of it be dark. Let it look for light, but have none, Neither let it see the eyelids of the morning, 10Because it didn't shut up the doors of my mother's womb, Nor did it hide trouble from my eyes. 11"Why didn't I die from the womb? Why didn't I give up the spirit when my mother bore me? 12Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breast, that I should suck? 13For now should I have lain down and been quiet. I should have slept, then I would have been at rest, 14With kings and counselors of the earth, Who built up waste places for themselves; 15Or with princes who had gold, Who filled their houses with silver: 16Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been, As infants who never saw light. 17There the wicked cease from troubling; There the weary are at rest. 18There the prisoners are at ease together. They don't hear the voice of the taskmaster. 19The small and the great are there. The servant is free from his master.

20"Why is light given to him who is in misery, Life to the bitter in soul, 21Who long for death, but it doesn't come; Dig for it more than for hidden treasures, 22Who rejoice exceedingly, Are glad, when they can find the grave? 23Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, Whom God has hedged in? 24For my sighing comes before I eat, My groanings are poured out like water. 25For the thing which I fear comes on me, That which I am afraid of comes to me. 26I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest; But trouble comes."

4

Then Elifaz the Temanite answered, 2"If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? But who can withhold himself from speaking? 3Behold, you have instructed many, You have strengthened the weak hands. 4Your words have supported him who was falling, You have made firm the feeble knees. 5But now it is come to you, and you faint; It touches you, and you are troubled. 6Isn't your piety your confidence, The integrity of your ways your hope? 7"Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent? Or where were the upright cut off? 8According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity, And sow trouble, Reap the same. 9By the breath of God they perish, By the blast of his anger are they consumed. 10The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, The teeth of the young lions, are broken. 11The old lion perishes for lack of prey, The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad. 12"Now a thing was secretly brought to me, My ear received a whisper of it. 13In thoughts from the visions of the night, When deep sleep falls on men, 14Fear came on me, and trembling, Which made all my bones shake. 15Then a spirit passed before my face; The hair of my flesh stood up. 16It stood still, but I couldn't discern the appearance of it; A form was before my eyes. Silence, then I heard a voice, saying, 17'Shall mortal man be more just than God? Shall a man be more pure than his Maker? 18Behold, he puts no trust in his servants. He charges his angels with error. 19How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust, Who are crushed before the moth! 20Between morning and evening they are destroyed. They perish forever without any regarding it. 21Isn't their tent-cord plucked up within them?
They die, and that without wisdom.'

5

"Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?
2For resentment kills the foolish man, And jealousy kills the simple. 3I have seen the foolish taking root, But suddenly I cursed his habitation. 4His children are far from safety, They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there any to deliver them, 5Whose harvest the hungry eats up, And take it even out of the thorns; The snare gapes for their substance.

6For affliction doesn't come forth from the dust, Neither does trouble spring out of the ground; 7But man is born to trouble, As the sparks fly upward. 8"But as for me, I would seek God, To God would I commit my cause; 9Who does great things that can't be fathomed, Marvelous things without number; 10Who gives rain on the earth, And sends waters on the fields; 11So that he sets up on high those who are low, Those who mourn are exalted to safety. 12He frustrates the devices of the crafty, So that their hands can't perform their enterprise. 13He takes the wise in their own craftiness; The counsel of the cunning is carried headlong. 14They meet with darkness in the day-time, And grope at noonday as in the night. 15But he saves from the sword of their mouth, Even the needy from the hand of the mighty. 16So the poor has hope, And injustice shuts her mouth.
17"Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects: Therefore do not despise the chastening of Almighty (Shaddai). 18For he wounds, and binds up; He injures, and his hands make whole. 19He will deliver you in six troubles; Yes, in seven there shall no evil touch you.
20In famine he will redeem you from death; In war, from the power of the sword. 21You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, Neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes. 22At destruction and famine you shall laugh, Neither shall you be afraid of the animals of the earth. 23For you shall be in league with the stones of the field. The animals of the field shall be at shalom with you. 24You shall know that your tent is in shalom. You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing. 25You shall know also that your seed shall be great, Your offspring as the grass of the earth. 26You shall come to your grave in a full age, Like a shock of grain comes in its season. 27Look this, we have searched it, so it is; Hear it, and know it for your good."

6

Then Job (Iyob) answered, 2"Oh that my anguish were weighed, And all my calamity laid in the balances! 3For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, Therefore have my words been rash. 4For the arrows of Almighty (Shaddai) are within me, My spirit drinks up their poison. The terrors of God set themselves in array against me. 5Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder? 6Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
7My soul refuses to touch them; They are as loathsome food to me. 8"Oh that I might have my request; That God would grant the thing that I long for! 9Even that it would please God to crush me; That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off! 10Be it still my consolation, Yes, let me exult in pain that doesn't spare, That I have not denied the words of the Holy One. 11What is my strength, that I should wait? What is my end, that I should be patient? 12Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of brass? 13Isn't it that I have no help in me, That wisdom is driven quite from me? 14"To him who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from his friend; Even to him who forsakes the fear of Almighty (Shaddai). 15My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook, As the channel of brooks that pass away; 16Which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself: 17In the dry season, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. 18The caravans that travel beside them turn aside; They go up into the waste, and perish. 19The caravans of Tema looked, The companies of Sheba waited for them. 20They were distressed because they were confident; They came there, and were confounded. 21For now you are nothing. You see a terror, and are afraid. 22Did I say, 'Give to me?' Or, 'Offer a present for me from your substance?' 23Or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand?' Or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?' 24"Teach me, and I will hold my shalom; Cause me to understand wherein I have erred. 25How forcible are words of uprightness! But your reproof, what does it reprove? 26Do you intend to reprove words, Seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind? 27Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, And make merchandise of your friend. 28Now therefore be pleased to look at me, For surely I shall not lie to your face. 29Please return. Let there be no injustice; Yes, return again, my cause is righteous. 30Is there injustice on my tongue? Can't my taste discern mischievous things?

"Isn't a man forced to labor on earth? Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand? 2As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, As a hireling who looks for his wages, 3So am I made to possess months of misery, Wearisome nights are appointed to me. 4When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?' I toss and turn until the dawning of the day. 5My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh. 6My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, And are spent without hope. 7Oh remember that my life is a breath. My eye shall no more see good. 8The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more. Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be. 9As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, So he who goes down to She'ol shall come up no more. 10He shall return no more to his house, Neither shall his place know him any more. 11"Therefore I will not keep silent. I will speak in the anguish of my spirit. I will complain in the bitterness of my soul. 12Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, That you put a guard over me? 13When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me, My couch shall ease my complaint;' 14Then you scar me with dreams, And terrify me through visions: 15So that my soul chooses strangling, Death rather than my bones. 16I loathe my life. I don't want to live forever. Leave me alone; for my days are but a breath. 17What is man, that you should magnify him, That you should set your mind on him, 18That you should visit him every morning, And test him every moment? 19How long will you not look away from me, Nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle? 20If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of men? Why have you set me as a mark for you, So that I am a burden to myself? 21Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity? For now shall I lie down in the dust. You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be."

8

Then Bildad the Shuchite answered, 2"How long will you speak these things? Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind? 3Does God pervert justice? Or does Almighty (Shaddai) pervert righteousness? 4If your children have sinned against him, He has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience; 5If you want to seek God diligently, Make your supplication to Almighty (Shaddai). 6If you were pure and upright, Surely now he would awaken for you, And make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous. 7Though your beginning was small, Yet your latter end would greatly increase. 8"Please inquire of past generations, Find out about the learning of their fathers. 9(For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, Because our days on earth are a shadow.) 10Shall they not teach you, tell you, And utter words out of their heart? 11"Can the papyrus grow up without mire? Can the rushes grow without water? 12While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down, It withers before any other reed. 13So are the paths of all who forget God. The hope of the godless man shall perish, 14Whose confidence shall break apart, Whose trust is a spider's web. 15He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand. He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure. 16He is green before the sun, His shoots go forth over his garden. 17His roots are wrapped around the rock pile, He sees the place of stones. 18If he is destroyed from his place, Then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.' 19Behold, this is the joy of his way: Out of the earth shall others spring. 20"Behold, God will not cast away a blameless man, Neither will he uphold the evil-doers. 21He will still fill your mouth with laughter, Your lips with shouting. 22Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame. The tent of the wicked shall be no more."

9

Then Job (Iyob) answered, 2"Truly I know that it is so, But how can man be just with God? 3If he is pleased to contend with him, He can't answer him one time in a thousand. 4God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: Who has hardened himself against him, and prospered? 5Who removes the mountains, and they don't know it, When he overturns them in his anger 6Who shakes the earth out of its place; The pillars of it tremble; 7Who commands the sun, and it doesn't rise, And seals up the stars; 8Who alone stretches out the heavens, Treads on the waves of the sea; 9Who makes Ayish, Kesil, and the Kima, And the chambers of the south; 10Who does great things past finding out, Yes, marvelous things without number. 11Behold, he goes by me, and I don't see him. He passes on also, but I don't perceive him. [12]Behold, he snatches away; who can hinder him?

Who will ask him, 'What are you doing?' [13]"God will not withdraw his anger; The helpers of Rachab stoop under him. [14]How much less shall I answer him, Choose my words to argue with him? [15]Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer. I would make supplication to my judge. [16]If I had called, and he had answered me, Yet would I not believe that he listened to my voice. [17]For he breaks me with a tempest, Multiplies my wounds without cause. [18]He will not allow me to take my breath, But fills me with bitterness. [19]If it is a matter of strength, behold, he is mighty! If of justice, 'Who,' says he, 'will summon me?' [20]Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn me.
Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse. [21]I am blameless. I don't regard myself. I despise my life. [22]"It is all the same. Therefore I say, He destroys the blameless and the wicked. [23]If the scourge kills suddenly, He will mock at the trial of the innocent.
[24]The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of the judges of it. If not he, then who is it? [25]"Now my days are swifter than a runner. They flee away, they see no good, [26]They have passed away as the swift ships, As the eagle that swoops on the prey. [27]If I say, 'I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face, and cheer up;' [28]I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that you will not hold me innocent. [29]I shall be condemned; Why then do I labor in vain? [30]If I wash myself with snow, And cleanse my hands with lye, [31]Yet you will plunge me in the ditch. My own clothes shall abhor me.
[32]For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, That we should come together in judgment. [33]There is no umpire between us, That might lay his hand on us both. [34]Let him take his rod away from me, Let his terror not make me afraid: [35]Then I would speak, and not fear him, For I am not so in myself.

10

"My soul is weary of my life; I will give free course to my complaint. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. [2]I will tell God, 'Do not condemn me, Show me why you contend with me. [3]Is it good to you that you should oppress, That you should despise the work of your hands, And smile on the counsel of the wicked? [4]Do you have eyes of flesh? Or do you see as man sees? [5]Are your days as the days of mortals, Or your years as man's years, [6]That you inquire after my iniquity, And search after my sin? [7]Although you know that I am not wicked, There is no one who can deliver out of your hand. [8]'Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether; Yet you destroy me. [9]Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay. Will you bring me into dust again? [10]Haven't you poured me out like milk, And curdled me like cheese? [11]You have clothed me with skin and flesh, And knit me together with bones and sinews. [12]You have granted me life and loving kindness. Your visitation has preserved my spirit. [13]Yet you hid these things in your heart. I know that this is with you: [14]If I sin, then you mark me. You will not acquit me from my iniquity. [15]If I am wicked, woe to me. If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head, Being filled with disgrace, And conscious of my affliction. [16]If my head is held high, you hunt me like a lion. Again you show yourself powerful to me. [17]You renew your witnesses against me, And increase your indignation on me. Changes and warfare are with me. [18]"'Why, then, have you brought me forth out of the womb? I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me. [19]I should have been as though I had not been. I should have been carried from the womb to the grave. [20]Aren't my days few? Cease then, Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort, [21]Before I go where I shall not return from, To the land of darkness and of the shadow of death; [22]The land dark as midnight,

Of the shadow of death, without any order, Where the light is as midnight.'"

11

Then Tzofar, the Na`amatite, answered, [2]"Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered? Should a man full of talk be justified? [3]Should your boastings make men hold their shalom? When you mock, shall no man make you ashamed? [4]For you say, 'My doctrine is pure, I am clean in your eyes.' [5]But oh that God would speak, And open his lips against you, [6]That he would show you the secrets of wisdom! For true wisdom has two sides. Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.
[7]"Can you fathom the mystery of God? Or can you probe the limits of Almighty (Shaddai)? [8]They are high as heaven. What can you do? Deeper than She'ol: what can you know? [9]The measure of it is longer than the earth, And broader than the sea. [10]If he passes by, or confines, Or convenes a court, then who can oppose him? [11]For he knows false men.
He sees iniquity also, even though he doesn't consider it. [12]But vain man can become wise
If a man can be born as a wild donkey's colt. [13]"If you set your heart aright, Stretch out your hands toward him. [14]If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, Don't let unrighteousness dwell in your tents. [15]Surely then shall you lift up your face without spot; Yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear: [16]For you shall forget your misery;
You shall remember it as waters that are passed away, [17]Life shall be clearer than the noonday; Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning. [18]You shall be secure, because there is hope; Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety. [19]Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; Yes, many shall court your favor. [20]But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, They shall have no way to flee; Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit."

12

Then Job (Iyob) answered, [2]"No doubt, but you are the people, And wisdom shall die with you. [3]But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: Yes, who doesn't know such things as these? [4]I am like one who is a joke to his neighbor, I, who called on God, and he answered. The just, the blameless man is a joke. [5]In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune, It is ready for them whose foot slips. 6The tents of robbers prosper, Those who provoke God are secure; Who carry their God in their hands. 7"But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you; The birds of the sky, and they shall tell you. 8Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you; The fish of the sea shall declare to you. 9Who doesn't know that in all these, The hand of YaHWeH has done this, 10In whose hand is the life of every living thing, The breath of all mankind? 11Doesn't the ear try words, Even as the palate tastes its food? 12With aged men is wisdom, In length of days understanding. 13"With God is wisdom and might. He has counsel and understanding. 14Behold, he breaks down, and it can't be built again; He imprisons a man, and there can be no release. 15Behold, he withholds the waters, and they dry up; Again, he sends them out, and they overturn the earth. 16With him is strength and wisdom; The deceived and the deceiver are his. 17He leads counselors away stripped. He makes judges fools. 18He loosens the bond of kings, He binds their loins with a belt. 19He leads Priests (Kohanim) away stripped, And overthrows the mighty. 20He removes the speech of those who are trusted, And takes away the understanding of the Elders (Zakenim). 21He pours contempt on princes, And loosens the belt of the strong. 22He uncovers deep things out of darkness, And brings out to light the shadow of death. 23He increases the nations, and he destroys them. He enlarges the nations, and he leads them captive. 24He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, And causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. 25They grope in the dark without light. He makes them stagger like a drunken man.

"Behold, my eye has seen all this, My ear has heard and understood it. 2What you know, I know also. I am not inferior to you. 3"Surely I would speak to Almighty (Shaddai). I desire to reason with God. 4But you are forgers of lies. You are all physicians of no value. 5Oh that you would be completely silent! Then you would be wise. 6Hear now my reasoning. Listen to the pleadings of my lips. 7Will you speak unrighteously for God, And talk deceitfully for him? 8Will you show partiality to him? Will you contend for God? 9Is it good that he should search you out? Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive him? 10He will surely reprove you If you secretly show partiality. 11Shall not his majesty make you afraid, And his dread fall on you? 12Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, Your defenses are defenses of clay. 13"Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak. Let come on me what will. 14Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, And put my life in my hand? 15Behold, he will kill me; I have no hope. Nevertheless, I will maintain my ways before him. 16This also shall be my salvation, That a godless man shall not come before him. 17Hear diligently my speech. Let my declaration be in your ears. 18See now, I have set my cause in order. I know that I am righteous. 19Who is he who will contend with me? For then would I hold my shalom and give up the spirit. 20"Only don't do two things to me; Then I will not hide myself from your face: 21Withdraw your hand far from me; And don't let your terror make me afraid. 22Then call, and I will answer; Or let me speak, and you answer me. 23How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my disobedience and my sin. 24Why hide you your face, And hold me for your enemy? 25Will you harass a driven leaf? Will you pursue the dry stubble? 26For you write bitter things against me, And make me inherit the iniquities of my youth: 27You also put my feet in the stocks, And mark all my paths. You set a bound to the soles of my feet: 28Though I am decaying like a rotten thing, Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

"Man, who is born of a woman, Is of few days, and full of trouble. 2He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down. He also flees like a shadow, and doesn't continue. 3Do you open your eyes on such a one, And bring me into judgment with you? 4Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one. 5Seeing his days are determined, The number of his months is with you, And you have appointed his bounds that he can't pass; 6Look away from him, that he may rest, Until he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day. 7"For there is hope for a tree, If it is cut down, that it will sprout again, That the tender branch of it will not cease. 8Though the root of it grows old in the earth, And the stock of it dies in the ground; 9Yet through the scent of water it will bud, And put forth boughs like a plant. 10But man dies, and is laid low. Yes, man gives up the spirit, and where is he? 11As the waters fail from the sea, And the river wastes and dries up, 12So man lies down and doesn't rise; Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, Nor be roused out of their sleep. 13"Oh that you would hide me in She'ol, That you would keep me secret, until your wrath is past, That you would appoint me a set time, and remember me! 14If a man dies, shall he live again? All the days of my warfare would I wait, Until my release should come. 15You would call, and I would answer you. You would have a desire to the work of your hands. 16But now you number my steps. Don't you watch over my sin? 17My disobedience is sealed up in a bag. You fasten up my iniquity. 18"But the mountain falling comes to nothing; The rock is removed out of its place; 19The waters wear the stones; The torrents of it wash away the dust of the earth: So you destroy the hope of man. 20You forever prevail against him, and he passes; You change his face, and send him away. 21His sons come to honor, and he doesn't know it; They are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it of them. 22But his flesh on him has pain; His soul within him mourns."

15

Then Elifaz the Temanite answered, 2"Should a wise man answer with vain knowledge, And fill himself with the east wind? 3Should he reason with unprofitable talk, Or with speeches with which he can do no good? 4Yes, you do away with fear, And hinder devotion before God. 5For your iniquity teaches your mouth, And you choose the language of the crafty. 6Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; Yes, your own lips testify against you. 7"Are you the first man who was born? Or were you brought forth before the hills? 8Have you heard the secret counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself? 9What do you know, that we don't know? What do you understand, which is not in us? 10With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men, Much elder than your father. 11Are the consolations of God too small for you, Even the word that is gentle toward you? 12Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash, 13That you turn your spirit against God, And let such words go out of your mouth? 14What is man, that he should be clean? He who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? 15Behold, he puts no trust in his holy ones; Yes, the heavens are not clean in his sight: 16How much less one who is abominable and corrupt, A man who drinks iniquity like water! 17"I will show you, listen to me; That which I have seen I will declare: 18(Which wise men have told From their fathers, and have not hidden it; 19To whom alone the land was given, And no stranger passed among them): 20The wicked man travails with pain all his days, Even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor. 21A sound of terrors is in his ears; In prosperity the destroyer shall come on him. 22He doesn't believe that he shall return out of darkness, He is waited for by the sword. 23He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand. 24Distress and anguish make him afraid; They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle. 25Because he has stretched out his hand against God, And behaves himself proudly against Almighty (Shaddai); 26He runs at him with a stiff neck, With the thick shields of his bucklers; 27Because he has covered his face with his fatness, And gathered fat on his loins. 28He has lived in desolate cities, In houses which no one inhabited, Which were ready to become heaps. 29He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, Neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth. 30He shall not depart out of darkness; The flame shall dry up his branches, By the breath of God's mouth shall he go away. 31Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; For emptiness shall be his reward. 32It shall be accomplished before his time. His branch shall not be green. 33He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, And shall cast off his flower as the olive tree. 34For the company of the godless shall be barren, And fire shall consume the tents of bribery. 35They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. Their heart prepares deceit."

Then Job (Iyob) answered, 2"I have heard many such things. Miserable comforters are you all! 3Shall vain words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer? 4I also could speak as you do. If your soul were in my soul's place, I could join words together against you, And shake my head at you. 5But I would strengthen you with my mouth. The solace of my lips would relieve you. 6"Though I speak, my grief is not subsided. Though I forbear, what am I eased? 7But now, God, you have surely worn me out. You have made desolate all my company. [8]You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me. My leanness rises up against me, It testifies to my face. [9]He has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me; He has gnashed on me with his teeth: My adversary sharpens his eyes on me. [10]They have gaped on me with their mouth; They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully. They gather themselves together against me. [11]God delivers me to the ungodly, And casts me into the hands of the wicked. [12]I was at ease, and he broke me apart. Yes, he has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces. He has also set me up for his target. [13]His archers surround me. He splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare. He pours out my gall on the ground. [14]He breaks me with breach on breach. He runs on me like a Rafa. [15]I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, And have thrust my horn in the dust. [16]My face is red with weeping. Deep darkness is on my eyelids. [17]Although there is no violence in my hands, And my prayer is pure. [18]"Earth, don't cover my blood, Let my cry have no place to rest. [19]Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven. He who vouches for me is on high. [20]My friends scoff at me. My eyes pour out tears to God, [21]That he would maintain the right of a man with God, Of a son of man with his neighbor! [22]For when a few years are come, I shall go the way from whence I shall not return.

"My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct, And the grave is ready for me. [2]Surely there are mockers with me, My eye dwells on their provocation. [3]"Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with yourself. Who is there who will strike hands with me? [4]For you have hidden their heart from understanding, Therefore shall you not exalt them. [5]He who denounces his friends for a prey, Even the eyes of his children shall fail. [6]"But he has made me a byword of the people. They spit in my face. [7]My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow. All my members are as a shadow. [8]Upright men shall be astonished at this. The innocent shall stir up himself against the godless. [9]Yet shall the righteous hold on his way. He who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger. [10]But as for you all, come on now again; I shall not find a wise man among you. [11]My days are past, my plans are broken off, As are the thoughts of my heart. [12]They change the night into day, Saying 'The light is near' in the presence of darkness. [13]If I look for She'ol as my house, If I have spread my couch in the darkness, [14]If I have said to corruption, 'You are my father;' To the worm, 'My mother,' and 'my sister;' [15]Where then is my hope? As for my hope, who shall see it? [16]Shall it go down with me to the gates of She'ol, Or descend together into the dust?"

18

Then Bildad the Shuchite answered, [2]"How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and afterwards we will speak. [3]Why are we counted as animals, Which have become unclean in your sight? [4]You who tear yourself in your anger, Shall the earth be forsaken for you? Or shall the rock be removed out of its place? 5"Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, The spark of his fire shall not shine. 6The light shall be dark in his tent, His lamp above him shall be put out. 7The steps of his strength shall be shortened, His own counsel shall cast him down. 8For he is cast into a net by his own feet, And he wanders into its mesh. 9A snare shall take him by the heel; A trap shall lay hold on him. 10A noose is hidden for him in the ground, A trap for him in the way. 11Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, And shall chase him at his heels. 12His strength shall be famished, Calamity shall be ready at his side. 13The members of his body shall be devoured, The firstborn of death shall devour his members. 14He shall be rooted out of his tent where he trusts. He shall be brought to the king of terrors. 15There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his. Sulfur shall be scattered on his habitation. 16His roots shall be dried up beneath, Above shall his branch be cut off. 17His memory shall perish from the earth. He shall have no name in the street. 18He shall be driven from light into darkness, And chased out of the world. 19He shall have neither son nor grandson among his people, Nor any remaining where he sojourned. 20Those who come after shall be astonished at his day, As those who went before were frightened. 21Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous, This is the place of him who doesn't know God."

Then Job (Iyob) answered, 2"How long will you torment me, And crush me with words? 3You have reproached me ten times. You aren't ashamed that you attack me. 4If it is true that I have erred, My error remains with myself. 5If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, And plead against me my reproach; 6Know now that God has subverted me, And has surrounded me with his net. 7"Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry for help, but there is no justice. 8He has walled up my way so that I can't pass, And has set darkness in my paths. 9He has stripped me of my glory, And taken the crown from my head. 10He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone. My hope he has plucked up like a tree. 11He has also kindled his wrath against me. He counts me among his adversaries. 12His troops come on together, Build a siege ramp against me, And encamp around my tent. 13"He has put my brothers far from me. My acquaintances are wholly estranged from me. 14My relatives have gone away. My familiar friends have forgotten me. 15Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger. I am an alien in their sight. 16I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer; I beg him with my mouth. 17My breath is offensive to my wife. I am loathsome to the children of my own mother. 18Even young children despise me. If I arise, they speak against me. 19All my familiar friends abhor me. They whom I loved have turned against me. 20My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh. I have escaped by the skin of my teeth. 21"Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends; For the hand of God has touched me. 22Why do you persecute me as God, And are not satisfied with my flesh? 23"Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book! 24That with an iron pen and lead They were engraved in the rock forever! 25But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, he will stand upon the earth. 26After my skin is destroyed, Then in my flesh shall I see God, 27Whom I, even I, shall see on my side. My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger. "My heart is consumed within me. 28If you say, 'How we will persecute him!'

Because the root of the matter is found in me, 29Be afraid of the sword, For wrath brings the punishments of the sword, That you may know there is a judgment."

20

Then Tzofar the Na`amatite answered, 2"Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me, Even by reason of my haste that is in me. 3I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame; The spirit of my understanding answers me. 4Don't you know this from old time, Since man was placed on earth, 5That the triumphing of the wicked is short, The joy of the godless but for a moment? 6Though his height mount up to the heavens, And his head reach to the clouds, 7Yet he shall perish forever like his own dung, Those who have seen him shall say, 'Where is he?' 8He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found:
Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night. 9The eye which saw him shall see him no more, Neither shall his place any more see him. 10His children shall seek the favor of the poor. His hands shall give back his wealth. 11His bones are full of his youth, But youth shall lie down with him in the dust. 12"Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, Though he hide it under his tongue, 13Though he spare it, and will not let it go, But keep it still within his mouth; 14Yet his food in his bowels is turned. It is cobra venom within him. 15He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again. God will cast them out of his belly. 16He shall suck cobra venom. The viper's tongue shall kill him. 17He shall not look at the rivers, The flowing streams of honey and butter. 18That for which he labored he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down; According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice. 19For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor. He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up. 20"Because he knew no quietness within him, He shall not save anything of that in which he delights. 21There was nothing left that he didn't devour, Therefore his prosperity shall not endure. 22In the fullness of his sufficiency, distress shall overtake him: The hand of everyone who is in misery shall come on him. 23When he is about to fill his belly, God will cast the fierceness of his wrath on him. It will rain on him while he is eating. 24He shall flee from the iron weapon. The bronze arrow shall strike him through. 25He draws it forth, and it comes out of his body. Yes, the glittering point comes out of his liver. Terrors are on him. 26All darkness is laid up for his treasures. An unfanned fire shall devour him. It shall consume that which is left in his tent. 27The heavens shall reveal his iniquity, The earth shall rise up against him. 28The increase of his house shall depart; They shall rush away in the day of his wrath. 29This is the portion of a wicked man from God, The heritage appointed to him by God."

21

Then Job (Iyob) answered, [2]"Listen diligently to my speech. Let this be your consolation. [3]Allow me, and I also will speak; After I have spoken, mock on. [4]As for me, is my complaint to man? Why shouldn't I be impatient? [5]Look at me, and be astonished. Lay your hand on your mouth. [6]When I remember, I am troubled. Horror takes hold of my flesh. [7]"Why do the wicked live, Become old, yes, and grow mighty in power? [8]Their child is established with them in their sight, Their offspring before their eyes. [9]Their houses are safe from fear, Neither is the rod of God upon them. [10]Their bulls breed without fail. Their cows calve, and don't miscarry. [11]They send forth their little ones like a flock. Their children dance. [12]They sing to the tambourine and harp, And rejoice at the sound of the pipe. [13]They spend their days in prosperity. In an instant they go down to She'ol. [14]They tell God, 'Depart from us, For we don't want to know about your ways. [15]What is Almighty (Shaddai), that we should serve him? What profit should we have, if we pray to him?' [16]Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand: The counsel of the wicked is far from me. [17]"How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out? That their calamity comes on them? That God distributes sorrows in his anger? [18]That they are as stubble before the wind, As chaff that the storm carries away? [19]You say, 'God lays up his iniquity for his children.' Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it. [20]Let his own eyes see his destruction. Let him drink of the wrath of Almighty (Shaddai). [21]For what does he care for his house after him, When the number of his months is cut off? [22]"Shall any teach God knowledge, Seeing he judges those who are high? [23]One dies in his full strength, Being wholly at ease and quiet. [24]His pails are full of milk. The marrow of his bones is moistened. [25]Another dies in bitterness of soul, And never tastes of good. [26]They lie down alike in the dust, The worm covers them. [27]"Behold, I know your thoughts, The devices with which you would wrong me. [28]For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?' [29]Haven't you asked wayfaring men? Don't you know their evidences, [30]That the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity? That they are led forth to the day of wrath? [31]Who shall declare his way to his face? Who shall repay him what he has done? [32]Yet shall he be borne to the grave, Men shall keep watch over the tomb. [33]The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him. All men shall draw after him, As there were innumerable before him. [34]So how can you comfort me with nonsense, Seeing that in your answers there remains only falsehood?"

22

Then Elifaz the Temanite answered, [2]"Can a man be profitable to God? Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself. [3]Is it any pleasure to Almighty (Shaddai), that you are righteous? Or does it benefit him, that you make your ways perfect? 4Is it for your piety that he reproves you, That he enters with you into judgment? 5Isn't your wickedness great? Neither is there any end to your iniquities. 6For you have taken pledges from your brother for nothing, And stripped the naked of their clothing. 7You haven't given water to the weary to drink, And you have withheld bread from the hungry. 8But as for the mighty man, he had the earth. The honorable man, he lived in it. 9You have sent widows away empty, And the arms of the fatherless have been broken. 10Therefore snares are round about you. Sudden fear troubles you, 11Or darkness, so that you can not see, And floods of waters cover you. 12"Isn't God in the heights of heaven? See the height of the stars, how high they are! 13You say, 'What does God know? Can he judge through the thick darkness? 14Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he doesn't see. He walks on the vault of the sky.' 15Will you keep the old way Which wicked men have trodden, 16Who were snatched away before their time, Whose foundation was poured out as a stream, 17Who said to God, 'Depart from us;' And, 'What can Almighty (Shaddai) do for us?'

18Yet he filled their houses with good things, But the counsel of the wicked is far from me. 19The righteous see it, and are glad; The innocent ridicule them, 20Saying, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off, The fire has consumed the remnant of them.'
21"Acquaint yourself with him, now, and be at shalom. Thereby good shall come to you.
22Please receive instruction from his mouth, And lay up his words in your heart. 23If you return to Almighty (Shaddai), you shall be built up, If you put away unrighteousness far from your tents. 24Lay your treasure in the dust, The gold of Ofir among the stones of the brooks. 25The Almighty will be your treasure, Precious silver to you. 26For then shall you delight yourself in Almighty (Shaddai), And shall lift up your face to God. 27You shall make your prayer to him, and he will hear you. You shall pay your vows. 28You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you. Light shall shine on your ways.
29When they cast down, you shall say, 'be lifted up.' He will save the humble person. 30He will even deliver him who is not innocent; Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."

Then Job (Iyob) answered, 2"Even today is my complaint rebellious. His hand is heavy in spite of my groaning. 3Oh that I knew where I might find him! That I might come even to his seat! 4I would set my cause in order before him, And fill my mouth with arguments. 5I would know the words which he would answer me, And understand what he would tell me. 6Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No, but he would listen to me. 7There the upright might reason with him, So I should be delivered forever from my judge. 8"If I go east, he is not there; If west, I can't find him; 9He works to the north, but I can't see him; He turns south, but I can't catch a glimpse of him. 10But he knows the way that I take. When he has tried me, I shall come forth like gold. 11My foot has held fast to his steps. His way have I kept, and not turned aside. 12I haven't gone back from the word of his lips. I have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. 13But he stands alone, and who can oppose him? What his soul desires, even that he does. 14For he performs that which is appointed for me. Many such things are with him. 15Therefore I am terrified at his presence. When I consider, I am afraid of him. 16For God has made my heart faint. The Almighty has terrified me. 17Because I was not cut off before the darkness, Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

"Why aren't times laid up by Almighty (Shaddai)? Why don't those who know him see his days? 2There are people who remove the landmarks. They violently take away flocks, and feed them. 3They drive away the donkey of the fatherless, And they take the widow's ox for a pledge. 4They turn the needy out of the way. The poor of the earth all hide themselves. 5Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, They go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food; The wilderness yields them bread for their children. 6They cut their provender in the field. They glean the vineyard of the wicked. 7They lie all night naked without clothing, And have no covering in the cold. 8They are wet with the showers of the mountains, And embrace the rock for lack of a shelter. 9There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast, And take a pledge of the poor, 10So that they go around naked without clothing. Being hungry, they carry the sheaves. 11They make oil within the walls of these men. They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst. 12From out of the populous city, men groan. The soul of the wounded cries out, Yet God doesn't regard the folly. 13"These are of those who rebel against the light; They don't know the ways of it, Nor abide in the paths of it. 14The murderer rises with the light. He kills the poor and needy. In the night he is like a thief. 15The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, Saying, 'No eye shall see me.' He disguises his face. 16In the dark they dig through houses. They shut themselves up in the daytime. They don't know the light. 17For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, For they know the terrors of the thick darkness. 18"They are foam on the surface of the waters. Their portion is cursed in the earth: They don't turn into the way of the vineyards. 19Drought and heat consume the snow waters; So does She'ol those who have sinned. 20The womb shall forget him. The worm shall feed sweetly on him. He shall be no more remembered. Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree. 21He devours the barren who don't bear. He shows no kindness to the widow. 22Yet God preserves the mighty by his power. He rises up who has no assurance of life. 23God gives them security, and they rest in it. His eyes are on their ways. 24They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone. Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, And are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain. 25If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar, And make my speech worth nothing?"

25

Then Bildad the Shuchite answered, 2"Dominion and fear are with him; He makes shalom in his high places. 3Can his armies be counted? On whom does his light not arise? 4How then can man be just with God? Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean? 5Behold, even the moon has no brightness, And the stars are not pure in his sight; 6How much less man, who is a worm! The son of man, who is a worm!"

26

Then Job (Iyob) answered, 2"How have you helped him who is without power!
How have you saved the arm that has no strength! 3How have you counseled him who has no wisdom, And plentifully declared sound knowledge! 4To whom have you uttered words? Whose spirit came forth from you? 5"Those who are deceased tremble, Those beneath the waters and all that live in them. 6She'ol is naked before God, And Avaddon has no covering. 7He stretches out the north over empty space, And hangs the earth on nothing. 8He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, And the cloud is not burst under them. 9He encloses the face of his throne, And spreads his cloud on it. 10He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters, And to the confines of light and darkness. 11The pillars of heaven tremble And are astonished at his rebuke. 12He stirs up the sea with his power, And by his understanding he strikes through Rachab. 13By his Spirit the heavens are garnished. His hand has pierced the swift serpent. 14Behold, these are but the outskirts of his ways. How small a whisper do we hear of him! But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

27

Job (Iyob) again took up his parable, and said, 2"As God lives, who has taken away my right, The Almighty, who has made my soul bitter. 3(For the length of my life is still in me, And the spirit of God is in my nostrils); 4Surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness, Neither shall my tongue utter deceit. 5Far be it from me that I should justify you. Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me. 6I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go. My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
7"Let my enemy be as the wicked, Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
8For what is the hope of the godless, when he is cut off, When God takes away his life?
9Will God hear his cry, When trouble comes on him? 10Will he delight himself in Almighty (Shaddai), And call on God at all times? 11I will teach you about the hand of God. That which is with Almighty (Shaddai) will I not conceal. 12Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; Why then have you become altogether vain? 13"This is the portion of a wicked man with God, The heritage of oppressors, which they receive from Almighty (Shaddai). 14If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword. His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. 15Those who remain of him shall be buried in death. His widows shall make no lamentation. 16Though he heap up silver as the dust, And prepare clothing as the clay; 17He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, And the innocent shall divide the silver. 18He builds his house as the moth, As a booth which the watchman makes. 19He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again. He opens his eyes, and he is not. 20Terrors overtake him like waters; A tempest steals him away in the night. 21The east wind carries him away, and he departs; It sweeps him out of his place. 22For it hurls at him, and does not spare, As he flees away from his hand. 23Men shall clap their hands at him, And shall hiss him out of his place.

28

"Surely there is a mine for silver, And a place for gold which they refine. 2Iron is taken out of the earth, And copper is smelted out of the ore. 3Man sets an end to darkness, And searches out, to the furthest bound, The stones of obscurity and of thick darkness. 4He breaks open a shaft away from where people live. They are forgotten by the foot. They hang far from men, they swing back and forth. 5As for the earth, out of it comes bread; Underneath it is turned up as it were by fire. 6Sapphires come from its rocks. It has dust of gold. 7That path no bird of prey knows, Neither has the falcon's eye seen it. 8The proud animals have not trodden it, Nor has the fierce lion passed by there. 9He puts forth his hand on the flinty rock, And he overturns the mountains by the roots. 10He cuts out channels among the rocks. His eye sees every precious thing. 11He binds the streams that they don't trickle; The thing that is hidden he brings forth to light. 12"But where shall wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding? 13Man doesn't know its price;
Neither is it found in the land of the living. 14The deep says, 'It isn't in me.' The sea says,
'It isn't with me.' 15It can't be gotten for gold, Neither shall silver be weighed for its price.
16It can't be valued with the gold of Ofir, With the precious shoham, or the sappir. 17Gold and zekukeet can't equal it, Neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold. 18No mention shall be made of ra`mah or of gabeesh: Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19The pitdah of Kush shall not equal it, Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
20Whence then comes wisdom? Where is the place of understanding? 21Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, And kept close from the birds of the sky. 22Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.' 23"God understands its way,
And he knows its place. 24For he looks to the ends of the earth, And sees under the whole sky. 25He establishes the force of the wind; Yes, he measures out the waters by measure.
26When he made a decree for the rain, And a way for the lightning of the thunder; 27Then did he see it, and declare it. He established it, yes, and searched it out. 28To man he said, 'Behold, the fear of YaHWeH, that is wisdom. To depart from evil is understanding.'"

29

Job (Iyob) again took up his parable, and said, 2"Oh that I were as in the months of old,
As in the days when God watched over me; 3When his lamp shone on my head, And by his light I walked through darkness; 4As I was in the ripeness of my days, When the friendship of God was in my tent; 5When Almighty (Shaddai) was yet with me, And my children were around me; 6When my steps were washed with butter, And the rock poured out streams of oil for me! 7When I went forth to the city gate, When I prepared my seat in the street, 8The young men saw me and hid themselves, The aged rose up and stood; 9The princes refrained from talking, And laid their hand on their mouth; 10The voice of the nobles was hushed, And their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth. 11For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me; And when the eye saw me, it commended me:
12Because I delivered the poor who cried, And the fatherless also, who had none to help him. 13The blessing of him who was ready to perish came on me, And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. 14I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was as a robe and a diadem. 15I was eyes to the blind, And feet to the lame. 16I was a father to the needy. The cause of him who I didn't know, I searched out. 17I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, And plucked the prey out of his teeth. 18Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house, I shall number my days as the sand. 19My root is spread out to the waters, The dew lies all night on my branch; 20My glory is fresh in me, My bow is renewed in my hand.' 21"Men listened to me, waited, And kept silence for my counsel. 22After my words they didn't speak again; My speech fell on them. 23They waited for me as for the rain. Their mouths drank as with the spring rain. 24I smiled on them when they had no confidence. They didn't reject the light of my face. 25I chose out their way, and sat as chief.
I lived as a king in the army, As one who comforts the mourners.

30

"But now those who are younger than I, have me in derision, Whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs. 2Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, Men in whom ripe age has perished? 3They are gaunt from lack and famine.
They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation. 4They pluck mallukh by the bushes. The roots of the broom are their food. 5They are driven forth from the midst of men; They cry after them as after a thief; 6So that they dwell in frightful valleys, And in holes of the earth and of the rocks. 7Among the bushes they bray; And under the nettles they are gathered together. 8They are children of fools, yes, children of base men.
They were flogged out of the land. 9"Now I have become their song. Yes, I am a byword to them. [10]They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, And don't hesitate to spit in my face. [11]For he has untied his cord, and afflicted me; And they have thrown off restraint before me. [12]On my right hand rise the rabble. They thrust aside my feet, They cast up against me their ways of destruction. [13]They mar my path, They set forward my calamity, Without anyone's help. [14]As through a wide breach they come, In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in. [15]Terrors are turned on me. They chase my honor as the wind. My welfare has passed away as a cloud. [16]"Now my soul is poured out within me. Days of affliction have taken hold on me. [17]In the night season my bones are pierced in me, And the pains that gnaw me take no rest. [18]By great force is my garment disfigured. It binds me about as the collar of my coat. [19]He has cast me into the mire. I have become like dust and ashes. [20]I cry to you, and you do not answer me. I stand up, and you gaze at me. [21]You have turned to be cruel to me. With the might of your hand you persecute me. [22]You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it. You dissolve me in the storm. [23]For I know that you will bring me to death, To the house appointed for all living. [24]"However doesn't one stretch out a hand in his fall? Or in his calamity therefore cry for help? [25]Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy? [26]When I looked for good, then evil came; When I waited for light, there came darkness. [27]My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest. Days of affliction have come on me. [28]I go mourning without the sun. I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help. [29]I am a brother to jackals, And a companion to ostriches. [30]My skin grows black and peels from me. My bones are burned with heat. [31]Therefore is my harp turned to mourning, And my pipe into the voice of those who weep.

"I made a covenant with my eyes, How then should I look lustfully at a young woman? [2]For what is the portion from God above, And the heritage from Almighty (Shaddai) on high? [3]Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, And disaster to the workers of iniquity? [4]Doesn't he see my ways, And number all my steps? [5]"If I have walked with falsehood, And my foot has hurried to deceit [6](Let me be weighed in an even balance, That God may know my integrity); [7]If my step has turned out of the way, If my heart walked after my eyes, If any defilement has stuck to my hands, [8]Then let me sow, and let another eat; Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out. [9]"If my heart has been enticed to a woman, And I have laid wait at my neighbor's door; [10]Then let my wife grind for another, And let others sleep with her. [11]For that would be a heinous crime; Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges: [12]For it is a fire that consumes to destruction, And would root out all my increase. [13]"If I have despised the cause of my man-servant Or of my maid-servant, When they contended with me; [14]What then shall I do when God rises up? When he visits, what shall I answer him? [15]Didn't he who made me in the womb make him? Didn't one fashion us in the womb? [16]"If I have withheld the poor from their desire, Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, 17Or have eaten my morsel alone, And the fatherless has not eaten of it 18(No, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, Her have I guided from my mother's womb); 19If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, Or that the needy had no covering; 20If his heart hasn't blessed me, If he hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece; 21If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, Because I saw my help in the gate: 22Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder-blade, And my arm be broken from the bone. 23For calamity from God is a terror to me, By reason of his majesty I can do nothing. 24"If I have made gold my hope, And have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence;' 25If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, And because my hand had gotten much; 26If I have seen the sun when it shined, Or the moon moving in splendor, 27And my heart has been secretly enticed, My hand threw a kiss from my mouth: 28This also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; For I should have denied the God who is above. 29"If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, Or lifted up myself when evil found him; 30(Yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin By asking his life with a curse); 31If the men of my tent have not said, 'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?' 32(The foreigner has not lodged in the street; But I have opened my doors to the traveler); 33If like Adam I have covered my transgressions, By hiding my iniquity in my heart, 34Because I feared the great multitude, And the contempt of families terrified me, So that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door— 35Oh that I had one to hear me! (Behold, here is my signature, let Almighty (Shaddai) answer me); Let the accuser write my indictment! 36Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; And I would bind it to me as a crown. 37I would declare to him the number of my steps. As a prince would I go near to him. 38If my land cries out against me, And the furrows of it weep together; 39If I have eaten the fruits of it without money, Or have caused the owners of it to lose their life: 40Let briars grow instead of wheat, And stinkweed instead of barley." The words of Job (Iyob) are ended.

So these three men ceased to answer Job (Iyob), because he was righteous in his own eyes. 2Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barakh'el, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job (Iyob). His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God. 3Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job (Iyob). 4Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job (Iyob), because they were elder than he. 5When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled. 6Elihu the son of Barakh'el the Buzite answered, "I am young, and you are very old; Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion. 7I said, 'Days should speak, And multitude of years should teach wisdom.' 8But there is a spirit in man, And the breath of Almighty (Shaddai) gives them understanding. 9It is not the great who are wise, Nor the aged who understand justice.

10Therefore I said, 'Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.' 11"Behold, I waited for your words, And I listened for your reasoning, While you searched out what to say. 12Yes, I gave you my full attention, But there was no one who convinced Job (Iyob), Or who answered his words, among you. 13Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom, God may refute him, not man:' 14For he has not directed his words against me; Neither will I answer him with your speeches. 15"They are amazed. They answer no more. They don't have a word to say. 16Shall I wait, because they don't speak, Because they stand still, and answer no more? 17I also will answer my part, And I also will show my opinion. 18For I am full of words. The spirit within me constrains me. 19Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; Like new wineskins it is ready to burst. 20I will speak, that I may be refreshed.
I will open my lips and answer. 21Please don't let me respect any man's person, Neither will I give flattering titles to any man. 22For I don't know how to give flattering titles; Or else my Maker would soon take me away.

33

"However, Job (Iyob), Please hear my speech, And listen to all my words. 2See now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue has spoken in my mouth. 3My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart; That which my lips know they shall speak sincerely. 4The Spirit of God has made me, And the breath of Almighty (Shaddai) gives me life. 5If you can, answer me; Set your words in order before me, and stand forth. 6Behold, I am toward God even as you are: I am also formed out of the clay. 7Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, Neither shall my pressure be heavy on you. 8"Surely you have spoken in my hearing, I have heard the voice of your words, saying, 9'I am clean, without disobedience.
I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me: 10Behold, he finds occasions against me, He counts me for his enemy: 11He puts my feet in the stocks, He marks all my paths.' 12"Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just; For God is greater than man. 13Why do you strive against him, Because he doesn't give account of any of his matters? 14For God speaks once, Yes twice, though man pays no attention. 15In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls on men, In slumbering on the bed; 16Then he opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction, 17That he may withdraw man from his purpose, And hide pride from man. 18He keeps back his soul from the pit, And his life from perishing by the sword. 19He is chastened also with pain on his bed, With continual strife in his bones; 20So that his life abhors bread, And his soul dainty food. 21His flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen; His bones that were not seen stick out. 22Yes, his soul draws near to the pit, And his life to the destroyers. 23"If there is beside him an angel, An interpreter, one among a thousand, To show to man what is right for him; 24Then God is gracious to him, and says, 'Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.' 25His flesh shall be fresher than a child's; He returns to the days of his youth. 26He prays to God, and he is favorable to him, So that he sees his face with joy: He restores to man his righteousness. 27He sings before men, and says, 'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, And it didn't profit me. 28He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit, My life shall see the light.' 29"Behold, God works all these things, Twice, yes three times, with a man, 30To bring back his soul from the pit, That he may be enlightened with the light of the living. 31Mark well, Job (Iyob), and listen to me: Hold your shalom, and I will speak. 32If you have anything to say, answer me: Speak, for I desire to justify you. 33If not, listen to me: Hold your shalom, and I will teach you wisdom."

Moreover Elihu answered, 2"Hear my words, you wise men; Give ear to me, you who have knowledge. 3For the ear tries words, As the palate tastes food. 4Let us choose for us that which is right. Let us know among ourselves what is good. 5For Job (Iyob) has said, 'I am righteous, God has taken away my right: 6Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar; My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.' 7What man is like Job (Iyob), Who drinks scorn like water, 8Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, And walks with wicked men? 9For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing That he should delight himself with God.' 10"Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, From Almighty (Shaddai), that he should commit iniquity. 11For the work of a man will he render to him, And cause every man to find according to his ways. 12Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, Neither will Almighty (Shaddai) pervert justice. 13Who gave him a charge over the earth? Or who has appointed him over the whole world? 14If he set his heart on himself, If he gathered to himself his spirit and his breath; 15All flesh would perish together, And man would turn again to dust. 16"If now you have understanding, hear this. Listen to the voice of my words. 17Shall even one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty?— 18Who says to a king, 'Vile!' Or to nobles, 'Wicked!' 19Who doesn't respect the persons of princes, Nor regards the rich more than the poor; For they all are the work of his hands. 20In a moment they die, even at midnight; The people are shaken and pass away, The mighty are taken away without hand. 21"For his eyes are on the ways of a man, He sees all his goings. 22There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. 23For he doesn't need to consider a man further, That he should go before God in judgment. 24He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out, And sets others in their place. 25Therefore he takes knowledge of their works. He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed. 26He strikes them as wicked men In the open sight of others; 27Because they turned aside from following him, And wouldn't have regard in any of his ways: 28So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, He heard the cry of the afflicted. 29When he gives quietness, who then can condemn? When he hides his face, who then can see him? Alike whether to a nation, or to a man: 30That the godless man may not reign, That there be no one to ensnare the people. 31"For has any said to God, 'I am guilty, but I will not offend any more. 32Teach me that which I don't see. If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'? 33Shall his recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it? For you must choose, and not I. Therefore speak what you know. 34Men of understanding will tell me, Yes, every wise man who hears me: 35'Job (Iyob) speaks without knowledge, His words are without wisdom.' 36I wish that Job (Iyob) were tried to the end, Because of his answering like wicked men. 37For he adds rebellion to his sin. He claps his hands among us, And multiplies his words against God."

35

Moreover Elihu answered, 2"Do you think this to be your right, Or do you say, 'My righteousness is more than God's,' 3That you ask, 'What advantage will it be to you? What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?' 4I will answer you, And your companions with you. 5Look to the heavens, and see. See the skies, which are higher than you. 6If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him? If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him? 7If you are righteous, what do you give him? Or what does he receive from your hand? 8Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are; And your righteousness may profit a son of man. 9"By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty. 10But none says, 'Where is God my Maker, Who gives songs in the night, 11Who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, And makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?' 12There they cry, but none gives answer, Because of the pride of evil men. 13Surely God will not hear an empty cry, Neither will Almighty (Shaddai) regard it. 14How much less when you say you don't see him. The cause is before him, and you wait for him! 15But now, because he has not visited in his anger, Neither does he greatly regard arrogance. 16Therefore Job (Iyob) opens his mouth with empty talk, And he multiplies words without knowledge."

36

Elihu also continued, and said, 2"Bear with me a little, and I will show you; For I still have something to say on God's behalf. 3I will get my knowledge from afar, And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker. 4For truly my words are not false. One who is perfect in knowledge is with you. 5"Behold, God is mighty, and doesn't despise anyone. He is mighty in strength of understanding. 6He doesn't preserve the life of the wicked, But gives to the afflicted their right. 7He doesn't withdraw his eyes from the righteous, But with kings on the throne, He sets them forever, and they are exalted. 8If they are bound in fetters, And are taken in the cords of afflictions, 9Then he shows them their work, And their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly. 10He also opens their ears to instruction, And commands that they return from iniquity. 11If they listen and serve him, They shall spend their days in prosperity, And their years in pleasures. 12But if they don't listen, they shall perish by the sword; They shall die without knowledge. 13"But those who are godless in heart lay up anger. They don't cry for help when he binds them. 14They die in youth. Their life perishes among the unclean. 15He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, And opens their ear in oppression. 16Yes, he would have allured you out of distress, Into a broad place, where there is no restriction. That which is set on your table would be full of fatness. 17"But you are full of the judgment of the wicked. Judgment and justice take hold of you. 18Don't let riches entice you to wrath, Neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside. 19Would your wealth sustain you in distress, Or all the might of your strength? 20Don't desire the night, When people are cut off in their place. 21Take heed, don't regard iniquity; For this you have chosen rather than affliction. 22Behold, God is exalted in his power. Who is a teacher like him? 23Who has prescribed his way for him? Or who can say, 'You have committed unrighteousness?' 24"Remember that you magnify his work, Whereof men have sung. 25All men have looked thereon. Man sees it afar off. 26Behold, God is great, and we don't know him. The number of his years is unsearchable. 27For he draws up the drops of water, Which distill in rain from his vapor, 28Which the skies pour down And drop on man abundantly. 29Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds, And the thunderings of his pavilion? 30Behold, he spreads his light around him. He covers the bottom of the sea. 31For by these he judges the people. He gives food in abundance. 32He covers his hands with the lightning, And commands it to strike the mark. 33The noise of it tells about him, And the cattle also concerning the storm that comes up.

"Yes, at this my heart trembles, And is moved out of its place. 2Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice, The sound that goes out of his mouth. 3He sends it forth under the whole sky, And his lightning to the ends of the earth. 4After it a voice roars. He thunders with the voice of his majesty; He doesn't hold back anything when his voice is heard. 5God thunders marvelously with his voice. He does great things, which we can't comprehend. 6For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth;' Likewise to the shower of rain, And to the showers of his mighty rain. 7He seals up the hand of every man, That all men whom he has made may know it. 8Then the animals take cover, And remain in their dens. 9Out of its chamber comes the storm, And cold out of the north. 10By the breath of God, ice is given, And the breadth of the waters is frozen. 11Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture. He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning. 12It is turned round about by his guidance, That they may do whatever he commands them On the surface of the habitable world, 13Whether it is for correction, or for his land, Or for loving kindness, that he causes it to come. 14"Listen to this, Job (Iyob): Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. 15Do you know how God controls them, And causes the lightning of his cloud to shine? 16Do you know the workings of the clouds, The wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge? 17You whose clothing is warm, When the earth is still by reason of the south wind? 18Can you, with him, spread out the sky, Which is strong as a cast metal mirror? 19Teach us what we shall tell him; For we can't make our case by reason of darkness. 20Shall it be told him that I would speak? Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up? 21Now men don't see the light which is bright in the skies, But the wind passes, and clears them. 22Out of the north comes golden splendor; With God is awesome majesty. 23We can't reach Almighty (Shaddai), He is exalted in power; In justice and great righteousness he will not oppress. 24Therefore men revere him. He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."

38

Then YaHWeH answered Job (Iyob) out of the whirlwind, 2"Who is this who darkens counsel By words without knowledge? 3Brace yourself like a man, For I will question you, then you answer me! 4"Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding. 5Who determined the measures of it, if you know? Or who stretched the line on it? 6Whereupon were the foundations of it fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone, 7When the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy? 8"Or who shut up the sea with doors, When it broke forth from the womb, 9When I made clouds the garment of it, Thick darkness a swaddling-band for it, 10Marked out for it my bound, Set bars and doors, 11And said, 'Here you may come, but no further; Here shall your proud waves be stayed?' 12"Have you commanded the morning in your days, And caused the dawn to know its place; 13That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, And shake the wicked out of it? 14It is changed as clay under the seal, And stands forth as a garment. 15From the wicked, their light is withheld, The high arm is broken. 16"Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep? 17Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death? 18Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth? Declare, if you know it all. 19"What is the way to the dwelling of light? As for darkness, where is the place of it, 20That you should take it to the bound of it, That you should discern the paths to the house of it? 21Surely you know, for you were born then, And the number of your days is great! 22Have you entered the treasuries of the snow, Or have you seen the treasures of the hail, 23Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, Against the day of battle and war? 24By what way is the lightning distributed, Or the east wind scattered on the earth? 25Who has cut a channel for the flood water, Or the path for the thunderstorm; 26To cause it to rain on a land where no man is; On the wilderness, in which there is no man; 27To satisfy the waste and desolate ground, To cause the tender grass to spring forth? 28Does the rain have a father? Or who fathers the drops of dew?

[29]Out of whose womb came the ice? The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to it?
[30]The waters become hard like stone, When the surface of the deep is frozen. [31]"Can you bind the cluster of the Kima, Or loosen the cords of Kesil? [32]Can you lead forth the Mazzarot in their season? Or can you guide Ayish with her cubs? [33]Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you establish the dominion of it over the earth? [34]"Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, That abundance of waters may cover you? [35]Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go? Do they report to you, 'Here we are?' [36]Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind? [37]Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky, [38]When the dust runs into a mass, And the clods of earth stick together? [39]"Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, [40]When they crouch in their dens, And lie in wait in the thicket? [41]Who provides for the raven his prey, When his young ones cry to God, And wander for lack of food?

39

"Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears fawns? [2]Can you number the months that they fulfill? Or do you know the time when they give birth? [3]They bow themselves, they bring forth their young, They end their labor pains. [4]Their young ones become strong. They grow up in the open field. They go forth, and don't return again. [5]"Who has set the wild donkey free? Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey, [6]Whose home I have made the wilderness, And the salt land his dwelling-place? [7]He scorns the tumult of the city, Neither hears he the shouting of the driver. [8]The range of the mountains is his pasture, He searches after every green thing. [9]"Will the wild ox be content to serve you? Or will he stay by your feeding trough? [10]Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness? Or will he till the valleys after you? [11]Will you trust him, because his strength is great? Or will you leave to him your labor? [12]Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed, And gather the grain of your threshing floor? [13]"The wings of the bas haya`anah wave proudly; But are they the feathers and plumage of love? [14]For she leaves her eggs on the earth, Warms them in the dust, [15]And forgets that the foot may crush them, Or that the wild animal may trample them. [16]She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers.
Though her labor is in vain, she is without fear, [17]Because God has deprived her of wisdom, Neither has he imparted to her understanding. [18]When she lifts up herself on high, She scorns the horse and his rider. [19]"Have you given the horse might? Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane? [20]Have you made him to leap as a locust (arbeh)? The glory of his snorting is awesome. [21]He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength: He goes out to meet the armed men. [22]He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed; Neither does he turn back from the sword. [23]The quiver rattles against him, The flashing spear and the javelin. [24]He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, Neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet (shofar). 25As often as the trumpet (shofar) sounds he snorts, 'Aha!' He smells the battle afar off, The thunder of the captains, and the shouting. 26"Is it by your wisdom that the netz soars, And stretches her wings toward the south? 27Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, And makes his nest on high?

28On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, On the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
29From there he spies out the prey. His eyes see it afar off. 30His young ones also suck up blood. Where the slain are, there he is."

40

Moreover YaHWeH answered Job (Iyob), 2"Shall he who argues contend with Almighty (Shaddai)? He who argues with God, let him answer it." 3Then Job (Iyob) answered YaHWeH, 4"Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth. 5I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further." 6Then YaHWeH answered Job (Iyob) out of the whirlwind, 7"Now brace yourself like a man. I will question you, and you will answer me. 8Will you even annul my judgment? Will you condemn me, that you may be justified? 9Or have you an arm like God? Can you thunder with a voice like him? 10"Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity. Array yourself with honor and majesty. 11Pour forth the fury of your anger. Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low. 12Look on everyone who is proud, and humble him. Crush the wicked in their place. 13Hide them in the dust together. Bind their faces in the hidden place. 14Then I will also admit to you That your own right hand can save you. 15"See now, behemot, which I made as well as you. He eats grass as an ox. 16Look now, his strength is in his loins, His force is in the muscles of his belly. 17He moves his tail like a cedar: The sinews of his thighs are knit together. 18His bones are like tubes of brass. His limbs are like bars of iron. 19He is the chief of the ways of God. He who made him gives him his sword. 20Surely the mountains bring him forth food, Where all the animals of the field do play. 21He lies under the lotus trees, In the covert of the reed, and the marsh. 22The lotuses cover him with their shade. The willows of the brook surround him. 23Behold, if a river overflows, he doesn't tremble. He is confident, though the Jordan (Yarden) swells even to his mouth. 24Shall any take him when he is on the watch, Or pierce through his nose with a snare?

41

"Can you draw out Leviathan (livyatan) with a fishhook? Or press down his tongue with a cord? 2Can you put a rope into his nose? Or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
3Will he make many petitions to you? Or will he speak soft words to you? 4Will he make a covenant with you, That you should take him for a servant forever? 5Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your girls? 6Will traders barter for him? Will they part him among the merchants? 7Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, Or his head with fish-spears? 8Lay your hand on him. Remember the battle, and do so no more.

9Behold, the hope of him is in vain. Will not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
10None is so fierce that he dare stir him up. Who then is he who can stand before me?
11Who has first given to me, that I should repay him? Everything under the heavens is mine. 12"I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, Nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame. 13Who can strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his jaws?
14Who can open the doors of his face? Around his teeth is terror. 15Strong scales are his pride, Shut up together with a close seal. 16One is so near to another, That no air can come between them. 17They are joined one to another; They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart. 18His sneezing flashes forth light, His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning. 19Out of his mouth go burning torches, Sparks of fire leap forth. 20Out of his nostrils a smoke goes, As of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds. 21His breath kindles coals.
A flame goes forth from his mouth. 22In his neck there is strength. Terror dances before him. 23The flakes of his flesh are joined together. They are firm on him. They can't be moved. 24His heart is as firm as a stone, Yes, firm as the lower millstone. 25When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid. They retreat before his thrashing. 26If one lay at him with the sword, it can't avail; Nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft. 27He counts iron as straw; And brass as rotten wood. 28The arrow can't make him flee. Sling stones are like chaff to him. 29Clubs are counted as stubble. He laughs at the rushing of the javelin. 30His undersides are like sharp potsherds, Leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge. 31He makes the deep to boil like a pot. He makes the sea like a pot of ointment. 32He makes a path to shine after him. One would think the deep had white hair.
33On earth there is not his equal, That is made without fear. 34He sees everything that is high: He is king over all the sons of pride."

42

Then Job (Iyob) answered YaHWeH, 2"I know that you can do all things, And that no purpose of yours can be restrained. 3You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand, Things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know. 4You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer me.' 5I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you. 6Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

7It was so, that after YaHWeH had spoken these words to Job (Iyob), YaHWeH said to Elifaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job (Iyob) has. 8Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job (Iyob), and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job (Iyob) shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job (Iyob) has."

9So Elifaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuchite and Tzofar the Na`amatite went, and did what YaHWeH commanded them, and YaHWeH accepted Job (Iyob).

10YaHWeH turned the captivity of Job (Iyob), when he prayed for his friends. YaHWeH gave Job (Iyob) twice as much as he had before. 11Then came there to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that YaHWeH had brought on him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money, and everyone a ring of gold.

12So YaHWeH blessed the latter end of Job (Iyob) more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. 13He had also seven sons and three daughters. 14He called the name of the first, Yemimah; and the name of the second, Ketzi`a; and the name of the third, Keren-Happukh. 15In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job (Iyob). Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. 16After this Job (Iyob) lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations. 17So Job (Iyob) died, being old and full of days.

Notes:

The Song of Songs
(Shir Hashirim)

1

The Song of songs, which is Solomon (Shlomo)'s.

Beloved
[2]Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth;
For your love is better than wine.
[3]Your oils have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is oil poured forth,
Therefore the alamot love you.
[4]Take me away with you.
Let us hurry.
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Friends
We will be glad and rejoice in you.
We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved
They are right to love you.
[5]I am dark, but lovely,
You daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
Like Kedar's tents,
Like Solomon (Shlomo)'s curtains.
[6]Don't stare at me because I am dark,
Because the sun has scorched me.
My mother's sons were angry with me.
They made me keeper of the vineyards.
I haven't kept my own vineyard.
[7]Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
Where you graze your flock,

Where you rest them at noon;
For why should I be as one who is veiled
Beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover
8If you don't know, most beautiful among women,
Follow the tracks of the sheep.
Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

9I have compared you, my love,
To a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.
10Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings,
Your neck with strings of jewels.
11We will make you earrings of gold,
With studs of silver.

Beloved
12While the king sat at his table,
My perfume spread its fragrance.
13My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh,
That lies between my breasts.
14My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms
From the vineyards of `En-Gedi.

Lover
15Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
Behold, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves.

Beloved
16Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;
And our couch is verdant.

Lover
17The beams of our house are cedars.
Our rafters are firs.
Beloved

2

I am a rose of Sharon,
A lily of the valleys.

2As a lily among thorns,
So is my love among the daughters.

Beloved
3As the apple tree among the trees of the wood,
So is my beloved among the sons.
I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
His fruit was sweet to my taste.
4He brought me to the banquet hall.
His banner over me is love.
5Strengthen me with raisins,
Refresh me with apples;
For I am faint with love.
6His left hand is under my head.
His right hand embraces me.

7I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
By the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
That you not stir up, nor awaken love,
Until it so desires.

8The voice of my beloved!
Behold, he comes,
Leaping on the mountains,
Skipping on the hills.
9My beloved is like a roe or a young hart.
Behold, he stands behind our wall!
He looks in at the windows.
He glances through the lattice.

10My beloved spoke, and said to me,
Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
11For, behold, the winter is past.

The rain is over and gone.
12The flowers appear on the earth;
The time of the singing has come,
And the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land.
13The fig tree ripens her green figs.
The vines are in blossom;
They give forth their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
And come away.

Lover
14My dove in the clefts of the rock,
In the hiding places of the mountainside,
Let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice;
For your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

15Catch for us the foxes,
The little foxes that spoil the vineyards;
For our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved
16My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He browses among the lilies.
17Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
Turn, my beloved,
And be like a roe or a young hart on the mountains of Bether.

3

By night on my bed,
I sought him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I didn't find him.
2I will get up now, and go about the city;
In the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I didn't find him.
3The watchmen who go about the city found me;
"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

4I had scarcely passed from them,
When I found him whom my soul loves.
I held him, and would not let him go,
Until I had brought him into my mother's house,
Into the chamber of her who conceived me.

5I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
By the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
That you not stir up, nor awaken love,
Until it so desires.

6Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke,
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
With all spices of the merchant?
7Behold, it is Solomon (Shlomo)'s carriage!
Sixty mighty men are around it,
Of the mighty men of Isreal (Yisrael).
8They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh,
Because of fear in the night.
9King Solomon (Shlomo) made himself a carriage
Of the wood of Lebanon.
10He made its pillars of silver,
Its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
Its midst being paved with love,
From the daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
11Go forth, you daughters of Zion (Tziyon), and see king Solomon (Shlomo),
With the crown with which his mother has crowned him,
In the day of his weddings,
In the day of the gladness of his heart.

Lover

4

Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
Behold, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves behind your veil.

Your hair is as a flock of goats,
That descend from Mount Gil`ad.
2Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock,
Which have come up from the washing,
Where every one of them has twins.
None is bereaved among them.
3Your lips are like scarlet thread.
Your mouth is lovely.
Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.
4Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory,
Whereon there hang a thousand shields,
All the shields of the mighty men.
5Your two breasts are like two fawns
That are twins of a roe,
Which feed among the lilies.

6Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh,
To the hill of frankincense.

7You are all beautiful, my love.
There is no spot in you.
8Come with me from Lebanon, my bride,
With me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Senir and Hermon,,
From the lions' dens,
From the mountains of the leopards.
9You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.
You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes,
With one chain of your neck.
10How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much better is your love than wine!
The fragrance of your perfumes than all manner of spices!
11Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
12A locked up garden is my sister, my bride;
A locked up spring,

A sealed fountain.
13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits:
Henna with spikenard plants,
14 Spikenard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree;
Myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices,
15 A fountain of gardens,
A well of living waters,
Flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved
16 Awake, north wind; and come, you south;
Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.
Let my beloved come into his garden,
And taste his precious fruits.
Lover

5

I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends
Eat, friends!
Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved
2 I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks:
Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;
For my head is filled with dew,
My hair with the dampness of the night.
3 I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?
I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them?
4 My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening.
My heart pounded for him.

5I rose up to open for my beloved.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
My fingers with liquid myrrh,
On the handles of the lock.
6I opened to my beloved;
But my beloved left; gone away.
My heart went out when he spoke.
I looked for him, but I didn't find him.
I called him, but he didn't answer.
7The watchmen who go about the city found me.
They beat me.
They bruised me.
The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me.
8I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
If you find my beloved,
That you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends
9How is your beloved better than another beloved,
You fairest among women?
How is your beloved better than another beloved,
That you do so adjure us?

Beloved
10My beloved is white and ruddy.
The best among ten thousand.
11His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is bushy, black as a raven.
12His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks,
Washed with milk, mounted like jewels.
13His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.
His lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.
14His hands are like rings of gold set with bareket.
His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
15His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
16His mouth is sweetness;
Yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,

Daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

Friends

6

Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved
2My beloved has gone down to his garden,
To the beds of spices,
To feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
3I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies,

4You are beautiful, my love, as Tirtzah,
Lovely as Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),
Awesome as an army with banners.
5Turn away your eyes from me,
For they have overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats,
That lie along the side of Gil`ad.
6Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
Which have come up from the washing;
Of which every one has twins;
None is bereaved among them.
7Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.
8There are sixty queens, eighty concubines,
And virgins without number.
9My dove, my perfect one, is unique.
She is her mother's only daughter.
She is the favorite one of her who bore her.
The daughters saw her, and called her blessed,
The queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10Who is she who looks forth as the morning,
Beautiful as the moon,

Clear as the sun,
Awesome as an army with banners?

11I went down into the nut tree grove,
To see the green plants of the valley,
To see whether the vine budded,
And the pomegranates were in flower.
12Without realizing it,
My desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends
13Return, return, Shulammite!
Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover
Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammite,
As at the dance of Machanayim?

7

How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter!
Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skillful workman.
2Your body is like a round goblet,
No mixed wine is wanting.
Your waist is like a heap of wheat,
Set about with lilies.
3Your two breasts are like two fawns,
That are twins of a roe.
4Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath-rabbim;
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus (Dammesek).
5Your head on you is like Karmel,
The hair of your head like purple;
The king is held captive in its tresses.
6How beautiful and how pleasant are you,
Love, for delights!
7This, your stature, is like a palm tree,

Your breasts like its fruit.
8I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.
I will take hold of its fruit."
Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
The smell of your breath like apples,

Beloved
9Your mouth like the best wine,
That goes down smoothly for my beloved,
Gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

10I am my beloved's.
His desire is toward me.
11Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field.
Let us lodge in the villages.
12Let's go early up to the vineyards.
Let's see whether the vine has budded,
Its blossom is open,
And the pomegranates are in flower.
There I will give you my love.
13The dudaim give forth fragrance.
At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old,
Which I have stored up for you, my beloved.

8

Oh that you were like my brother,
Who sucked the breasts of my mother!
If I found you outside, I would kiss you;
Yes, and no one would despise me.
2I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's house,
Who would instruct me.
I would have you drink spiced wine,
Of the juice of my pomegranate.
3His left hand would be under my head.
His right hand would embrace me.

4I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim),

That you not stir up, nor awaken love,
Until it so desires.

Friends
5Who is this who comes up from the wilderness,
Leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple tree I aroused you.
There your mother conceived you.
There she was in labor and bore you.

6Set me as a seal on your heart,
As a seal on your arm;
For love is strong as death.
Jealousy is as cruel as She'ol;
Its flashes are flashes of fire,
A very flame of YaHWeH.
7Many waters can't quench love,
Neither can floods drown it.
If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love,
He would be utterly scorned.

Friends
8We have a little sister.
She has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
In the day when she is to be spoken for?
9If she is a wall,
We will build on her a turret of silver.
If she is a door,
We will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved
10I am a wall, and my breasts like towers,
Then I was in his eyes like one who found shalom.
11Solomon (Shlomo) had a vineyard at Ba`al Hamon.
He leased out the vineyard to keepers.
Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.
12My own vineyard is before me.

The thousand are for you, Solomon (Shlomo);
Two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover
13 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
Let me hear your voice!

Beloved
14 Come away, my beloved!
Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Ruth

It happened in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Beit-Lechem-Judah (Yahudah) went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. 2The name of the man was Elimelekh, and the name of his wife Na`omi, and the name of his two sons Machlon and Kilyon, Efratites of Beit-Lechem-Judah (Yahudah). They came into the country of Moab, and continued there. 3Elimelekh, Na`omi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons. 4They took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth (Rut): and they lived there about ten years. 5Machlon and Kilyon died both of them; and the woman was left of her two children and of her husband.

6Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that YaHWeH had visited his people in giving them bread. 7She went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah (Yahudah). 8Na`omi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each of you to her mother's house: YaHWeH deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. 9YaHWeH grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice, and wept. 10They said to her, No, but we will return with you to your people. 11Na`omi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will you go with me? have I yet sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? 12Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons; 13would you therefore wait until they were grown? would you therefore stay from having husbands? nay, my daughters, for it grieves me much for your sakes, for the hand of YaHWeH is gone forth against me. 14They lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth (Rut) joined with her.

15She said, Behold, your sister-in-law is gone back to her people, and to her god: return you after your sister-in-law. 16Ruth (Rut) said, "Don't entreat me to leave you, and to return from following after you, for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God; 17where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried: YaHWeH do so to me, and more also, if anything but death part you and me." 18When she saw that she was steadfastly minded to go with her, she left off speaking to her.

19So they two went until they came to Beit-Lechem. It happened, when they were come to Beit-Lechem, that all the city was moved about them, and the women said, Is this Na`omi? 20She said to them, "Don't call me Na`omi, call me Mara; for Almighty (Shaddai) has dealt very bitterly with me. 21I went out full, and YaHWeH has brought me home again empty; why do you call me Na`omi, seeing YaHWeH has testified against me, and Almighty (Shaddai) has afflicted me?"

22So Na`omi returned, and Ruth (Rut) the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beit-Lechem in the beginning of barley harvest.

Na`omi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelekh, and his name was Bo`az. 2Ruth (Rut) the Moabite said to Na`omi, Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor. She said to her, Go, my daughter. 3She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Bo`az, who was of the family of Elimelekh. 4Behold, Bo`az came from Beit-Lechem, and said to the reapers, YaHWeH be with you. They answered him, YaHWeH bless you. 5Then said Bo`az to his servant who was set over the reapers, Whose young lady is this? 6The servant who was set over the reapers answered, It is the Moabite lady who came back with Na`omi out of the country of Moab: 7She said, Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves. So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she stayed a little in the house.

8Then said Bo`az to Ruth (Rut), Don't you hear, my daughter? Don't go to glean in another field, neither pass from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens. 9Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them: haven't I charged the young men that they shall not touch you? and when you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn. 10Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, seeing I am a foreigner? 11Bo`az answered her, It has fully been shown me, all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband; and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn't know before. 12YaHWeH recompense your work, and a full reward be given you of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), under whose wings you are come to take refuge. 13Then she said, Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not as one of your handmaidens.

14At meal-time Bo`az said to her, Come here, and eat of the bread, and dip your morsel in the vinegar. She sat beside the reapers, and they reached her parched grain, and she ate, and was sufficed, and left of it. 15When she was risen up to glean, Bo`az commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and don't reproach her. 16Also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it, and let her glean, and don't rebuke her.

17So she gleaned in the field until even; and she beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an efah of barley. 18She took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth and gave to her that which she had left after she was sufficed. 19Her mother-in-law said to her, Where have you gleaned today? and where have you worked? blessed be he who did take knowledge of you. She shown her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, The man's name with whom I worked today is Bo`az. 20Na`omi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of YaHWeH, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead. Na`omi said to her, The man is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen. 21Ruth (Rut) the Moabite said, Yes, he said to me, You shall keep fast by my young men, until they have ended all my harvest. 22Na`omi said to Ruth (Rut) her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field. 23So she kept fast by the maidens of Bo`az, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Na`omi her mother-in-law said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you? 2Now isn't Bo`az our kinsman, with whose maidens you were? Behold, he winnows barley tonight in the threshing floor. 3Wash yourself therefore, and anoint you, and put your clothing on you, and get you down to the threshing floor, but don't make yourself known to the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking. 4It shall be, when he lies down, that you shall mark the place where he shall lie, and you shall go in, and uncover his feet, and lay you down; and he will tell you what you shall do. 5She said to her, All that you say I will do.

6She went down to the threshing floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law bade her. 7When Bo`az had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down. 8It happened at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself; and, behold, a woman lay at his feet. 9He said, Who are you? She answered, I am Ruth (Rut) your handmaid: spread therefore your skirt over your handmaid; for you are a near kinsman. 10He said, Blessed are you by YaHWeH, my daughter: you have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you didn't follow young men, whether poor or rich. 11Now, my daughter, don't be afraid; I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people does know that you are a worthy woman. 12Now it is true that I am a near kinsman; however there is a kinsman nearer than I. 13Stay this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform to you the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to you, then will I do the part of a kinsman to you, as YaHWeH lives: lie down until the morning.

14She lay at his feet until the morning. She rose up before one could discern another. For he said, Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor. 15He said, Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it; and she held it; and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and he went into the city. 16When she came to her mother-in-law, she said, Who are you, my daughter? She told her all that the man had done to her. 17She said, These six measures of barley gave he me; for he said, "Don't go empty to your mother-in-law." 18Then said she, "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest, until he has finished the thing this day."

4

Now Bo`az went up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the near kinsman of whom Bo`az spoke came by; to whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. He turned aside, and sat down. 2He took ten men of the Elders (Zakenim) of the city, and said, Sit you down here. They sat down. 3He said to the near kinsman, Na`omi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelekh's: 4I thought to disclose it to you, saying, Buy it before those who sit here, and before the Elders (Zakenim) of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it: but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know; for there is none to redeem it besides you; and I am after you. He said, I will redeem it. 5Then said Bo`az, What day you buy the field of the hand of Na`omi, you must buy it also of Ruth (Rut) the Moabite, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance. 6The near kinsman said, I can't redeem it for myself, lest I mar my own inheritance: take my right of redemption on you; for I can't redeem it.

7Now this was the custom in former time in Isreal (Yisrael) concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man drew off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the manner of attestation in Isreal (Yisrael). 8So the near kinsman said to Bo`az, Buy it for yourself. He drew off his shoe. 9Bo`az said to the Elders (Zakenim), and to all the people, You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelekh's, and all that was Kilyon's and Machlon's, of the hand of Na`omi. 10Moreover Ruth (Rut) the Moabite, the wife of Machlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place: you are witnesses this day. 11All the people who were in the gate, and the Elders (Zakenim), said, We are witnesses. YaHWeH make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Le'ah, which two built the house of Isreal (Yisrael): and do you worthily in Efratah, and be famous in Beit-Lechem: 12and let your house be like the house of Pearth, whom Tamar bore to Judah (Yahudah), of the seed which YaHWeH shall give you of this young woman.

13So Bo`az took Ruth (Rut), and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and YaHWeH gave her conception, and she bore a son. 14The women said to Na`omi, Blessed be YaHWeH, who has not left you this day without a near kinsman; and let his name be famous in Isreal (Yisrael). 15He shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him. 16Na`omi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it. 17The women her neighbors gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Na`omi; and they named him Obed: he is the father of Jesse (Yishay), the father of David.

18Now this is the history of the generations of Pearth: Pearth became the father of Hetzron, 19and Hetzron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of `AmmiNadab, 20and `AmmiNadab became the father of Nachshon, and Nachshon became the father of Salmon, 21and Salmon became the father of Bo`az, and Bo`az became the father of Obed, 22and Obed became the father of Jesse (Yishay), and Jesse (Yishay) became the father of David.

Lamentations
(Ekha)

1

How does the city sit solitary, that was full of people!
She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations!
She who was a princess among the provinces is become tributary!
[2]She weeps sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;
Among all her lovers she has none to comfort her:
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.
[3]Judah (Yahudah) is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude;
She dwells among the nations, she finds no rest:
All her persecutors overtook her within the straits.
[4]The ways of Zion (Tziyon) do mourn, because none come to the solemn assembly;
All her gates are desolate, her Priests (Kohanim) do sigh:
Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.
[5]Her adversaries are become the head, her enemies prosper;
For YaHWeH has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions:
Her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.
[6]From the daughter of Zion (Tziyon) all her majesty is departed:
Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture,
They are gone without strength before the pursuer.
[7]Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old:
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and none did help her,
The adversaries saw her, they did mock at her desolations.
[8]Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) has grievously sinned; therefore she is become as an unclean thing;
All who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness:
Yes, she sighs, and turns backward.

Lamentations

9Her filthiness was in her skirts; she didn't remember her latter end;
Therefore is she come down wonderfully; she has no comforter:
See, YaHWeH, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself.
10The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things:
For she has seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary,
Concerning whom you did command that they should not enter into your assembly.
11All her people sigh, they seek bread;
They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul:
Look, YaHWeH, and see; for I am become abject.

12Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look, and see if there be any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me,
With which YaHWeH has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.
13From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them;
He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back:
He has made me desolate and faint all the day.
14The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand;
They are knit together, they are come up on my neck; he has made my strength to fail:
YaHWeH has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.
15YaHWeH has set at nothing all my mighty men in the midst of me;
He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men:
YaHWeH has trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah (Yahudah).
16For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water;
Because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me:
My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.
17Zion (Tziyon) spreads forth her hands; there is none to comfort her;
YaHWeH has commanded concerning Jacob (Yakob), that those who are round about him should be his adversaries:
Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) is among them as an unclean thing.
18YaHWeH is righteous; for I have rebelled against his word:
Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow:
My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.
19I called for my lovers, but they deceived me:
My Priests (Kohanim) and my Elders (Zakenim) gave up the spirit in the city,
While they sought them food to refresh their souls.

20See, YaHWeH; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled;
My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:
Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death.

Lamentations

21They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me;
All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it:
You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like me.
22Let all their wickedness come before you;
Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions:
For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2

How has YaHWeH covered the daughter of Zion (Tziyon) with a cloud in his anger!
He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Isreal (Yisrael),
And hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.
2YaHWeH has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob (Yakob), and has not pitied:
He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah (Yahudah);
He has brought them down to the ground; he has profaned the kingdom and the princes of it.
3He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Isreal (Yisrael);
He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy:
He has burned up Jacob (Yakob) like a flaming fire, which devours round about.
4He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand as an adversary,
Has killed all that were pleasant to the eye:
In the tent of the daughter of Zion (Tziyon) he has poured out his wrath like fire.
5YaHWeH is become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Isreal (Yisrael);
He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds;
He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah (Yahudah) mourning and lamentation.
6He has violently taken away his tent, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly:
YaHWeH has caused solemn assembly and Shabbat to be forgotten in Zion (Tziyon),
Has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the Priest.
7YaHWeH has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary;
He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:
They have made a noise in the house of YaHWeH, as in the day of a solemn assembly.
8YaHWeH has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion (Tziyon);
He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying;
He has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.
9Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars:
Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not;
Yes, her prophets find no vision from YaHWeH.

Lamentations

10The Elders (Zakenim) of the daughter of Zion (Tziyon) sit on the ground, they keep silence;
They have cast up dust on their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth:
The virgins of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) hang down their heads to the ground.

11My eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled;
My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people,
Because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.
12They tell their mothers, Where is grain and wine?
When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,
When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.
13What shall I testify to you? what shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)?
What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion (Tziyon)?
For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you?
14Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions;
They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity,
But have seen for you false oracles and causes of banishment.
15All that pass by clap their hands at you;
They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying,
Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?
16All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you;
They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up;
Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.
17YaHWeH has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old;
He has thrown down, and has not pitied:
He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries.
18Their heart cried to YaHWeH:
wall of the daughter of Zion (Tziyon), let tears run down like a river day and night;
Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease.
19Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches;
Pour out your heart like water before the face of YaHWeH:
Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.

20Look, YaHWeH, and see to whom you have done thus!

Lamentations

Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands?
Shall the Priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of YaHWeH?
21The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets;
My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword:
You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied.
22You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side;
There was none that escaped or remained in the day of YaHWeH's anger:
Those that I have dandled and brought up has my enemy consumed.

I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.
2He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.
3Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day.
4My flesh and my skin has he made old; he has broken my bones.
5He has built against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.
6He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.
7He has walled me about, that I can't go forth; he has made my chain heavy.
8Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.
9He has walled up my ways with hewn stone; he has made my paths crooked.
10He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.
11He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate.
12He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.
13He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my reins.
14I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.
15He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.
16He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes.
17You have removed my soul far off from shalom; I forgot prosperity.
18I said, My strength is perished, and my expectation from YaHWeH.
19Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.
20My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me.
21This I recall to my mind; therefore have I hope.
22*It is of* YaHWeH's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail.
23They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
24YaHWeH is my portion, says my soul; therefore will I hope in him.
25YaHWeH is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.

Lamentations

[26]It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of YaHWeH.
[27]It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
[28]Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him.
[29]Let him put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.
[30]Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled full with reproach.
[31]For YaHWeH will not cast off forever.
[32]For though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
[33]For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.
[34]To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,
[35]To turn aside the right of a man before the face of Most high (Elyon), [36]To subvert a man in his cause, YaHWeH doesn't approve.
[37]Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when YaHWeH doesn't command it?
[38]Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of Most high (Elyon)?
[39]Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

[40]Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to YaHWeH.
[41]Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.
[42]We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned.
[43]You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have killed, you have not pitied.
[44]You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.
[45]You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.
[46]All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.
[47]Fear and the pit are come on us, devastation and destruction.
[48]My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
[49]My eye pours down, and doesn't cease, without any intermission, [50]Until YaHWeH look down, and see from heaven.
[51]My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.
[52]They have chased me sore like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause.
[53]They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.
[54]Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off.

[55]I called on your name, YaHWeH, out of the lowest dungeon.
[56]You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry.
[57]You drew near in the day that I called on you; you said, Don't be afraid.
[58]Lord (Adonay), you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life.
[59] YaHWeH, you have seen my wrong; judge you my cause.
[60]You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me.

Lamentations

61You have heard their reproach, YaHWeH, and all their devices against me, 62The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
63See you their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song.
64You will render to them a recompense, YaHWeH, according to the work of their hands.
65You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.
66You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of YaHWeH.

4

How is the gold become dim! how is the most pure gold changed!
The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.
2The precious sons of Zion (Tziyon), comparable to fine gold,
How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
3Even the jackals draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones:
The daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
4The tongue of the sucking child cleaves to the roof of his mouth for thirst:
The young children ask bread, and no man breaks it to them.
5Those who did feed delicately are desolate in the streets:
Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.
6For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,
That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on her.
7Her Nazarite (Nazir)ites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sappir.
8Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets:
Their skin cleaves to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
9Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger;
For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.
10The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children;
They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11YaHWeH has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger;
He has kindled a fire in Zion (Tziyon), which has devoured the foundations of it.
12The kings of the earth didn't believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world,
That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).
13*It is* because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her Priests (Kohanim),
That have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

Lamentations

14They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood,
So that men can't touch their garments.
15Depart you, they cried to them, Unclean! depart, depart, don't touch!
When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn here.
16The anger of YaHWeH has scattered them; he will no more regard them:
They didn't respect the persons of the Priests (Kohanim), they didn't favor the Elders (Zakenim).
17Our eyes do yet fail in looking for our vain help:
In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.
18They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets:
Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.
19Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky:
They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
20The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of YaHWeH, was taken in their pits;
Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.

21Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of `Utz:
The cup shall pass through to you also; you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked.
22The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion (Tziyon); he will no more carry you away into captivity:
He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

5

Remember, YaHWeH, what has come on us:
Look, and see our reproach.
2Our inheritance is turned to strangers,
Our houses to aliens.
3We are orphans and fatherless;
Our mothers are as widows.
4We have drunken our water for money;
Our wood is sold to us.
5Our pursuers are on our necks:
We are weary, and have no rest.
6We have given the hand to the Mitzrim,
To the Ashshur, to be satisfied with bread.

Lamentations

7Our fathers sinned, and are no more;
We have borne their iniquities.
8Servants rule over us:
There is none to deliver us out of their hand.
9We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
Because of the sword of the wilderness.
10Our skin is black like an oven,
Because of the burning heat of famine.
11They ravished the women in Zion (Tziyon),
The virgins in the cities of Judah (Yahudah).
12Princes were hanged up by their hand:
The faces of Elders (Zakenim) were not honored.
13The young men bare the mill;
The children stumbled under the wood.
14The Elders (Zakenim) have ceased from the gate,
The young men from their music.
15The joy of our heart is ceased;
Our dance is turned into mourning.
16The crown is fallen from our head:
Woe to us! for we have sinned.
17For this our heart is faint;
For these things our eyes are dim;
18For the mountain of Zion (Tziyon), which is desolate:
The foxes walk on it.

19You, YaHWeH, abide forever;
Your throne is from generation to generation.
20Why do you forget us forever,
And forsake us so long time?
21Turn you us to you, YaHWeH, and we shall be turned;
Renew our days as of old.
22But you have utterly rejected us;
You are very angry against us.

Notes:

Ecclesiastes

(Kohelet)

1

The words of Kohelet, the son of David, king in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim):

2"Vanity of vanities," says Kohelet; "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity." 3What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? 4One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. 5The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. 6The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. 7All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. 8All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done:
and there is no new thing under the sun. 10Is there a thing of which it may be said,
"Behold, this is new?" It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. 11There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after.

12I, Kohelet, was king over Isreal (Yisrael) in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 13I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 14I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 15That which is crooked can't be made straight; and that which is lacking can't be counted. 16I said to myself, "Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. 18For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;" and, behold, this also was vanity. 2I said of laughter, "It is foolishness;" and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?"

3I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. 4I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. 5I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. 6I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. 7I bought men-servants and maid-servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); 8I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. 9So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). My wisdom also remained with me. 10Whatever my eyes desired, I didn't keep from them. I didn't withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. 11Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and, behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

12I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king's successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. 13Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. 14The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. 15Then said I in my heart, "As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?" Then said I in my heart that this also is vanity. 16For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

17So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 18I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who comes after me. 19Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

20Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. 21For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? 23For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. 24There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. 25For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? 26For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

3

For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven:
2A time to be born,
And a time to die;
A time to plant,
And a time to pluck up that which is planted;
3A time to kill,
And a time to heal;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up;
4A time to weep,
And a time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
5A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing;
6A time to seek,
And a time to lose;
A time to keep,
And a time to cast away;
7A time to tear,
And a time to sew;
A time to keep silence,
And a time to speak;
8A time to love,
And a time to hate;

A time for war,
And a time for shalom.

9What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? 10I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 11He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. 12I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. 13Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. 14I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. 15That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away.

16Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. 17I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." 18I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. 19For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. 20All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. 21Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

22Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works;
for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

4

Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. 2Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. 3Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. 4Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor.
This also is vanity and a striving after wind. 5The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself.

6Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind.

7Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. 8There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment? This also is vanity, yes, it is a miserable business.

9Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. 10For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. 11Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? 12If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. 14For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. 15I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. 16There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him.
Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

5

Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil. 2Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. 3For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. 4When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. 5It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. 6Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?
7For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God.

8If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. 9Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

10He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. 11When goods increase, those who eat them are increased;
and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

12The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

13There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. 14Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. 15As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand.
16This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? 17All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

18Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. 19Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. 20For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

6

There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: 2a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he: 4for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. 5Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. 6Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place? 7All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. 8For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? 9Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.
10Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. 11For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? 12For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. 2It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. 3Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. 4The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. 5It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. 6For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. 7Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. 8Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. 9Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. 10Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

11Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun.
12For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

13Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked?
14In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

15All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evil-doing. 16Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself?
17Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? 18It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that don't withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come forth from them all. 19Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. 20Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. 21Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; 22for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. 23All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. 24That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? 25I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

[26]I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

[27]Behold, this have I found, says Kohelet, one to another, to find out the scheme; [28]which my soul still seeks; but I have not found: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found. [29]Behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes.

8

Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. [2]I say, "Keep the king's command!" because of the oath to God. [3]Don't be hasty to go out of his presence. Don't persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, [4]for the king's word is supreme.
Who can say to him, "What are you doing?" [5]Whoever keeps the word shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. [6]For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. [7]For he doesn't know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? [8]There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practices it.

[9]All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun.
There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. [10]So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. [11]Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.
[12]Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. [13]But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn't fear God.

[14]There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. [15]Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

16When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), 17then I saw all the work of God, that man can't find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won't find it. Yes, moreover, though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, yet he won't be able to find it.

9

For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn't know it; all is before them. 2All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn't sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. 3This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. 5For the living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. 6Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

7Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. 8Let your garments be always white, and don't let your head lack oil. 9Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. 10Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in She'ol, where you are going.

11I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. 12For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

13I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. 14There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. 15Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. 16Then said I,

Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. 17The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. 18Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

10

Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor. 2A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. 3Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to everyone that he is a fool. 4If the spirit of the ruler rises up against you, don't leave your place; for gentleness lays great offenses to rest.

5There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler. 6Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. 7I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. 8He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake. 9Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby. 10If the axe is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success.

11If the snake bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue.
12The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips.
13The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. 14A fool also multiplies words.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? 15The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.
16Woe to you, land, when your king is a child,
And your princes eat in the morning! 17Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles,

And your princes eat in due season, For strength, and not for drunkenness! 18By slothfulness the roof sinks in; And through idleness of the hands the house leaks. 19A feast is made for laughter, And wine makes the life glad; And money is the answer for all things. 20Don't curse the king, no, not in your thoughts; And don't curse the rich in your bedchamber: For a bird of the sky may carry your voice, And that which has wings may tell the matter.

11

Cast your bread on the waters; For you shall find it after many days. 2Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; For you don't know what evil will be on the earth. 3If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; And if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, In the place where the tree falls, there shall it be. 4He who observes the wind won't sow; And he who regards the clouds won't reap. 5As you don't know what is the way of the wind, Nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; Even so you don't know the work of God who does all. 6In the morning sow your seed, And in the evening don't withhold your hand; For you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, Or whether they both will be equally good. 7Truly the light is sweet, And a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun. 8Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; But let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity. 9Rejoice, young man, in your youth, And let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, And walk in the ways of your heart, And in the sight of your eyes; But know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. 10Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, And put away evil from your flesh; For youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

12

Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, Before the evil days come, and the years draw near, When you will say, "I have no pleasure in them;" 2Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, And the clouds return after the rain; 3In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, And the strong men shall bow themselves, And the grinders cease because they are few, And those who look out of the windows are darkened, 4And the doors shall be shut in the street; When the sound of the grinding is low, And one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, And all the daughters of music shall be brought low; 5Yes, they shall be afraid of heights, And terrors will be in the way; And the almond tree shall blossom, And the cankerworm (khagav) shall be a burden, And desire shall fail; Because man goes to his everlasting home, And the mourners go about the streets: 6Before the silver cord is severed, Or the golden bowl is broken, Or the pitcher is broken at the spring, Or the wheel broken at the cistern, 7And the dust returns to the earth as it was, And the spirit returns to God who gave it. 8Vanity of vanities, says Kohelet; All is vanity! 9Further, because Kohelet was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. 10The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. 11The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments (mitzvot); for this is the whole duty of man. 14For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Esther

(Ester)

1

Now it happened in the days of Achashverosh (this is Achashverosh who reigned from Hoddu even to Kush, over one hundred twenty-seven provinces), 2that in those days, when the king Achashverosh sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, 3in the third year of his reign, he made a feast to all his princes and his servants; the power of Persians (Paras) and Medes (Madai), the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him; 4when he shown the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred eighty days. 5When these days were fulfilled, the king made a feast to all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. 6*There were hangings of* white cloth, of green, and of blue, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, and white, and yellow, and black marble. 7They gave them drink in vessels of gold (the vessels being diverse one from another), and royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king. 8The drinking was according to the law; none could compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. 9Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Achashverosh.

10On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizeta, Harvona, Bigta, and Avagta, Zetar, and Karkas, the seven chamberlains who ministered in the presence of Achashverosh the king, 11to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the peoples and the princes her beauty; for she was beautiful to look on. 12But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's word by the chamberlains: therefore was the king very angry, and his anger burned in him.

13Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all who knew law and judgment; 14and the next to him were Karshena, Seth (Sheth)arShibah|Shiv`ah, Admata, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memukhan, the seven princes of Persians (Paras) and Medes (Madai), who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom), 15What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the king Achashverosh by the chamberlains? 16Memukhan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples who are in all the provinces of the king Achashverosh. 17For this deed of the queen will come abroad to all women, to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Achashverosh commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she didn't come. 18This day will the princesses of Persians (Paras) and Medes (Madai) who have heard of the deed of the queen say the like to all the king's princes. So will there arise much contempt and wrath. 19If it please the king, let there go forth a royal word from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians (Paras) and the Medes (Madai), that it not be altered, that Vashti come no more before king Achashverosh; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. 20When the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give to their husbands honor, both to great and small. 21The saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memukhan: 22for he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and should speak according to the language of his people.

After these things, when the wrath of king Achashverosh was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. 2Then said the king's servants who ministered to him, Let there be beautiful young virgins sought for the king: 3and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, to the custody of Hegai the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them; 4and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti. The thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5There was a certain Jew (Yehudi) in Shushan the palace, whose name was Mordekhai, the son of Ya'ir, the son of Shim`i, the son of Kish, a Benjamin (Binyamin)i, 6who had been carried away from Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with the captives who had been carried away with Yekhonyah king of Judah (Yahudah), whom Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king of Babel had carried away. 7He brought up Hadassah, who is, Ester, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordekhai took her for his own daughter. 8So it happened, when the king's word and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Ester was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. 9The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her things for her purification, with her portions, and the seven maidens who were meet to be given her out of the king's house: and he removed her and her maidens to the best place of the house of the women. 10Ester had not made known her people nor her relatives; for Mordekhai had charged her that she should not make it known. 11Mordekhai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Ester did, and what would become of her.

12Now when the turn of every maiden was come to go in to king Achashverosh, after it had been done to her as prescribed for the women twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors and with the things for the purifying of the women), 13then in this wise came the maiden to the king: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king's house. 14In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Sha`ashgaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines: she came in to the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and she were called by name.

19When the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordekhai was sitting in the king's gate. 20Ester had not yet made known her relatives nor her people; as Mordekhai had charged her: for Ester did the word of Mordekhai, like as when she was brought up with him. 21In those days, while Mordekhai was sitting in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who kept the threshold, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the king Achashverosh. 22The thing became known to Mordekhai, who shown it to Ester the queen; and Ester told the king of it in Mordekhai's name. 23When inquisition was made of the matter, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

After these things did king Achashverosh promote Haman the son of Hammedata the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. 2All the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, bowed down, and did reverence to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordekhai didn't bow down, nor did him reverence. 3Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordekhai, Why disobey you the king's word? 4Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordekhai's matters would stand: for he had told those who he was a Jew (Yehudi). 5When Haman saw that Mordekhai didn't bow down, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. 6But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordekhai alone; for they had made known to him the people of Mordekhai: therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jew (Yehudi) who were throughout the whole kingdom of Achashverosh, even the people of Mordekhai.

7In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Achashverosh, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. 8Haman said to king Achashverosh, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; and their laws are diverse from those of every people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them. 9If it please the king, let it be written that they be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who have the charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. 10The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedata the Agagite, the Jew (Yehudi)' enemy. 11The king said to Haman, The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you.

12Then were the king's Sofrim called in the first month, on the thirteenth day of it; and there was written according to all that Haman commanded to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Achashverosh was it written, and it was sealed with the king's ring. 13Letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jew (Yehudi), both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. 14A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. 15The posts went forth in haste by the king's word, and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Now when Mordekhai knew all that was done, Mordekhai tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; 2and he came even before the king's gate: for none might enter within the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. 3In every province, wherever the king's word and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jew (Yehudi), and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4Ester's maidens and her chamberlains came and told it her; and the queen was exceedingly grieved: and she sent clothing to clothe Mordekhai, and to take his sackcloth from off him; but he didn't receive it. 5Then called Ester for Hatakh, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend on her, and charged him to go to Mordekhai, to know what this was, and why it was. 6So Hatakh went forth to Mordekhai to the broad place of the city, which was before the king's gate. 7Mordekhai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jew (Yehudi), to destroy them. 8Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Ester, and to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him, for her people. 9Hatakh came and told Ester the words of Mordekhai. 10Then Ester spoke to Hatakh, and gave him a message to Mordekhai saying: 11All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days. 12They told to Mordekhai Ester's words. 13Then Mordekhai bade them return answer to Ester, Don't think to yourself that you shall escape in the king's house, more than all the Jew (Yehudi). 14For if you altogether hold your shalom at this time, then will relief and deliverance arise to the Jew (Yehudi) from another place, but you and your father's house will perish: and who knows whether you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this? 15Then Ester bade them return answer to Mordekhai, 16Go, gather together all the Jew (Yehudi) who are present in Shushan, and fast you for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast in like manner; and so will I go in to the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish. 17So Mordekhai went his way, and did according to all that Ester had commanded him.

Now it happened on the third day, that Ester put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, over against the entrance of the house. 2It was so, when the king saw Ester the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his sight; and the king held out to Ester the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Ester drew near, and touched the top of the scepter. 3Then said the king to her, What will you, queen Ester? and what is your request? it shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom. 4Ester said, If it seem good to the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him. 5Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that it may be done as Ester has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Ester had prepared. 6The king said to Ester at the banquet of wine, What is your petition? and it shall be granted you: and what is your request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. 7Then answered Ester, and said, My petition and my request is: 8if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said.

9Then went Haman forth that day joyful and glad of heart: but when Haman saw Mordekhai in the king's gate, that he didn't stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordekhai. 10Nevertheless Haman refrained himself, and went home; and he sent and fetched his friends and Zeresh his wife. 11Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. 12Haman said moreover, Yes, Ester the queen did let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow also am I invited by her together with the king. 13Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordekhai the Jew (Yehudi) sitting at the king's gate. 14Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends to him, Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak you to the king that Mordekhai may be hanged thereon: then go you in merrily with the king to the banquet. The thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

On that night the king couldn't sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles, and they were read before the king. 2It was found written that Mordekhai had told of Bigtana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, of those who kept the threshold, who had sought to lay hands on the king Achashverosh. 3The king said, What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordekhai for this? Then the king's servants who ministered to him said, "Nothing has been done for him."[4]The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak to the king to hang Mordekhai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. [5]The king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. The king said, Let him come in. [6]So Haman came in. The king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor? Now Haman said in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself? [7]Haman said to the king, For the man whom the king delights to honor, [8]let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set: [9]and let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man therewith whom the king delights to honor, and cause him to ride on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor. [10]Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordekhai the Jew (Yehudi), who sits at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that you have spoken. [11]Then took Haman the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordekhai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.

[12]Mordekhai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered. [13]Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and Zeresh his wife said to him, If Mordekhai, before whom you have begun to fall, be of the seed of the Jew (Yehudi), you shall not prevail against him, but shall surely fall before him.

[14]While they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Ester had prepared.

So the king and Haman came to banquet with Ester the queen. [2]The king said again to Ester on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Ester? and it shall be granted you: and what is your request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed. [3]Then Ester the queen answered, If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: [4]for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondservants and bondmaids, I had held my shalom, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's damage. [5]Then spoke the king Achashverosh and said to Ester the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that dared presume in his heart to do so? 6Ester said, An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. 7The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Ester the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. 8Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen on the couch whereon Ester was. Then said the king, Will he even force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. 9Then said Harvonah, one of the chamberlains who were before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordekhai, who spoke good for the king, stands in the house of Haman. The king said, Hang him thereon. 10So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordekhai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

8

On that day did the king Achashverosh give the house of Haman the Jew (Yehudi)' enemy to Ester the queen. Mordekhai came before the king; for Ester had told what he was to her. 2The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordekhai. Ester set Mordekhai over the house of Haman.

3Ester spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jew (Yehudi). 4Then the king held out to Ester the golden scepter. So Ester arose, and stood before the king. 5She said, If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedata the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jew (Yehudi) who are in all the king's provinces:
6for how can I endure to see the evil that shall come to my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives? 7Then the king Achashverosh said to Ester the queen and to Mordekhai the Jew (Yehudi), See, I have given Ester the house of Haman, and him they have hanged on the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jew (Yehudi).
8Write you also to the Jew (Yehudi), as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

9Then were the king's Sofrim called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day of it; and it was written according to all that Mordekhai commanded to the Jew (Yehudi), and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from Hoddu to Kush, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language, and to the Jew (Yehudi) according to their writing, and according to their language. 10He wrote the name of king Achashverosh, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by post on horseback, riding on swift steeds that were used in the king's service, bred of the stud: 11in which the king granted the Jew (Yehudi) who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, 12on one day in all the provinces of king Achashverosh, namely, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. 13A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, and that the Jew (Yehudi) should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14So the posts who rode on swift steeds that were used in the king's service went out, being hurried and pressed on by the king's word; and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace.

15Mordekhai went forth from the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad. 16The Jew (Yehudi) had light and gladness, and joy and honor. 17In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's word and his decree came, the Jew (Yehudi) had gladness and joy, a feast and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jew (Yehudi); for the fear of the Jew (Yehudi) was fallen on them.

Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's word and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jew (Yehudi) hoped to have rule over them, (whereas it was turned to the contrary, that the Jew (Yehudi) had rule over those who hated them,) 2the Jew (Yehudi) gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Achashverosh, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them was fallen on all the peoples. 3All the princes of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and those who did the king's business, helped the Jew (Yehudi); because the fear of Mordekhai was fallen on them. 4For Mordekhai was great in the king's house, and his fame went forth throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordekhai grew greater and greater. 5The Jew (Yehudi) struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they would to those who hated them. 6In Shushan the palace the Jew (Yehudi) killed and destroyed five hundred men. 7Parshandata, and Dalfon, and Aspata, 8and Porata, and Adalyah, and Aridata, 9and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaizata, 10the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedata, the Jew (Yehudi)'s enemy, killed they; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil.

11On that day the number of those who were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king. 12The king said to Ester the queen, The Jew (Yehudi) have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? and it shall be granted you: or what is your request further? and it shall be done. 13Then said Ester, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jew (Yehudi) who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows. 14The king commanded it so to be done: and a decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. 15The Jew (Yehudi) who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men in Shushan; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil.

16The other Jew (Yehudi) who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and killed of those who hated them seventy-five thousand; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil. 17*This was done* on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 18But the Jew (Yehudi) who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day of it, and on the fourteenth of it; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
19Therefore do the Jew (Yehudi) of the villages, who dwell in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20Mordekhai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jew (Yehudi) who were in all the provinces of the king Achashverosh, both near and far, 21to enjoin those who they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, 22as the days in which the Jew (Yehudi) had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the needy.

23The Jew (Yehudi) undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordekhai had written to them; 24because Haman the son of Hammedata, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jew (Yehudi), had plotted against the Jew (Yehudi) to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; 25but when the matter came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jew (Yehudi), should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. 26Therefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur.
Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, [27]the Jew (Yehudi) ordained, and took on them, and on their seed, and on all such as joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing of it, and according to the appointed time of it, every year; [28]and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jew (Yehudi), nor the memory of them perish from their seed.

[29]Then Ester the queen, the daughter of Abichayil, and Mordekhai the Jew (Yehudi), wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim. [30]He sent letters to all the Jew (Yehudi), to the hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Achashverosh, with words of shalom and truth, [31]to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordekhai the Jew (Yehudi) and Ester the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, in the matter of the fastings and their cry. [32]The word of Ester confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

The king Achashverosh laid a tribute on the land, and on the isles of the sea. [2]All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordekhai, whereunto the king advanced him, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Medes (Madai) and Persians (Paras)? [3]For Mordekhai the Jew (Yehudi) was next to king Achashverosh, and great among the Jew (Yehudi), and accepted of the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking shalom to all his seed.

-------- Apocrypha -------

[4]Then Mardocheus said, God hath done these things. [5]For I remember a dream which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof has failed. [6]A little fountain became a river, and there was light, and the sun, and much water: this river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen: [7]And the two dragons are I and Aman. [8]And the nations were those that were assembled to destroy the name of the Jews: [9]And my nation is this Israel, which cried to God, and were saved: for YaHWeH hath saved his people, and YaHWeH hath delivered us from all those evils, and God hath wrought signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the Gentiles. [10]Therefore hath he made two lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles. [11] And these two lots came at the hour, and time, and Day of Judgment, before God among all nations. [12]So God remembered his people, and justified his inheritance. [13]Therefore those days shall be unto them in the month Adar, the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the same month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladness before God, according to the generations forever among his people.

11

In the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemeus and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemeus his son, brought this epistle of Phurim, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the son of Ptolemeus, that was in Jerusalem, had interpreted it. [2] In the second year of the reign of Artexerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, Mardocheus the son of Jairus, the son of Semei, the son of Cisai, of the tribe of Benjamin, had a dream; [3]Who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of Susa, a great man, being a servitor in the king's court. [4]He was also one of the captives, which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Judea; and this was his dream: [5]Behold a noise of a tumult, with thunder, and earthquakes, and uproar in the land: [6]And, behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry was great. [7]And at their cry all nations were prepared to battle, that they might fight against the righteous people. [8]And lo a day of darkness and obscurity, tribulation and anguish, affliction and great uproar, upon earth. [9]And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own evils, and were ready to perish. [10]Then they cried unto God, and upon their cry, as it were from a little fountain, was made a great flood, even much water. [11]The light and the sun rose up, and the lowly were exalted, and devoured the glorious. [12]Now when Mardocheus, who had seen this dream, and what God had determined to do, was awake, he bare this dream in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it.

12

And Mardocheus took his rest in the court with Gabatha and Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, and keepers of the palace. [2]And he heard their devices, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artexerxes the king; and so he certified the king of them. [3]Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled. [4]And the king made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof. [5]So the king commanded, Mardocheus to serve in the court, and for this he rewarded him. [6]Howbeit Aman the son of Amadathus the Agagite, who was in great honor with the king, sought to molest Mardocheus and his people because of the two eunuchs of the king.

The copy of the letters was this: The great king Artexerxes writes these things to the princes and governors that are under him from India unto Ethiopia in an hundred and seven and twenty provinces. [2]After that I became lord over many nations and had dominion over the whole world, not lifted up with presumption of my authority, but carrying myself always with equity and mildness, I purposed to settle my subjects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom peaceable, and open for passage to the utmost coasts, to renew peace, which is desired of all men. [3]Now when I asked my counsellors how this might be brought to pass, Aman, that excelled in wisdom among us, and was approved for his constant good will and steadfast fidelity, and had the honor of the second place in the kingdom, [4]Declared unto us, that in all nations throughout the world there was scattered a certain malicious people, that had laws contrary to all nations, and continually despised the commandments of kings, so as the uniting of our kingdoms, honorably intended by us cannot go forward. [5]Seeing then we understand that this people alone is continually in opposition unto all men, differing in the strange manner of their laws, and evil affected to our state, working all the mischief they can that our kingdom may not be firmly established: [6]Therefore have we commanded, that all they that are signified in writing unto you by Aman, who is ordained over the affairs, and is next unto us, shall all, with their wives and children, be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, the fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar of this present year: [7]That they, who of old and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence go into the grave, and so ever hereafter cause our affairs to be well settled, and without trouble. [8]Then Mardocheus thought upon all the works of YaHWeH, and made his prayer unto him, [9]Saying, O Lord, Lord, the King Almighty: for the whole world is in thy power, and if you hast appointed to save Israel, there is no man that can gainsay you: [10]For you hast made heaven and earth, and all the wondrous things under the heaven. [11]You art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist you, which art YaHWeH. [12]You know all things, and you know, Lord, that it was neither in contempt nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that I did not bow down to proud Aman. [13]For I could have been content with good will for the salvation of Israel to kiss the soles of his feet. [14]But I did this, that I might not prefer the glory of man above the glory of God: neither will I worship any but you, O God, neither will I do it in pride. [15]And now, O Lord

God and King, spare thy people: for their eyes are upon us to bring us to naught; yea, they desire to destroy the inheritance, that hath been thine from the beginning. [16]Despise not the portion, which you hast delivered out of Egypt for thine own self. [17]Hear my prayer, and be merciful unto thine inheritance: turn our sorrow into joy, that we may live, O Lord, and praise thy name: and destroy not the mouths of them that praise you, O Lord. [18]All Israel in like manner cried most earnestly unto YaHWeH, because their death was before their eyes.

Queen Esther also, being in fear of death, resorted unto YaHWeH: [2]And laid away her glorious apparel, and put on the garments of anguish and mourning: and instead of precious ointments, she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body greatly, and all the places of her joy she filled with her torn hair. [3]And she prayed unto YaHWeH God of Israel, saying, O my Lord, you only art our King: help me, desolate woman, which have no helper but you: [4]For my danger is in mine hand. [5]From my youth up I have heard in the tribe of my family that you, O Lord, took Israel from among all people, and our fathers from all their predecessors, for a perpetual inheritance, and you hast performed whatsoever you didst promise them. [6]And now we have sinned before you: therefore hast you given us into the hands of our enemies, [7]Because we worshipped their God s: O Lord, you art righteous. [8]Nevertheless it satisfies them not, that we are in bitter captivity: but they have stricken hands with their idols, [9]That they will abolish the thing that you with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy thine inheritance, and stop the mouth of them that praise you, and quench the glory of thy house, and of thine altar, [10]And open the mouths of the heathen to set forth the praises of the idols, and to magnify a fleshly king forever. [11]O Lord, give not thy scepter unto them that be nothing, and let them not laugh at our fall; but turn their device upon themselves, and make him an example, that hath begun this against us. [12]Remember, O Lord, make thyself known in time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O King of the nations, and Lord of all power. [13]Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion: turn his heart to hate him that fights against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are likeminded to him: [14]But deliver us with thine hand, and help me that am desolate, and which have no other help but you. [15]You knows all things, O Lord; you knows that I hate the glory of the unrighteous, and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised, and of all the heathen. [16]You knows my necessity: for I abhor the sign of my high estate, which is upon mine head in the days wherein I shew myself, and that I abhor it as a menstruous rag, and that I wear it not when I am private by myself. [17]And that thine handmaid hath not eaten at Aman's table, and that I have not greatly esteemed the king's feast, nor drunk the wine of the drink offerings. [18]Neither had thine handmaid any joy since the day that I was brought hither to this present, but in you, O Lord God of Abraham. [19]O you mighty God above all, hear the voice of the forlorn and deliver us out of the hands of the mischievous, and deliver me out of my fear.

And upon the third day, when she had ended her prayers, she laid away her mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparel. [2]And being gloriously adorned, after she had called upon God, who is the beholder and savior of all things, she took two maids with her: [3]And upon the one she leaned, as carrying herself daintily; [4]And the other followed, bearing up her train. [5]And she was ruddy through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cheerful and very amiable: but her heart was in anguish for fear. [6]Then having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king, who sat upon his royal throne, and was clothed with all his robes of majesty, all glittering with gold and precious stones; and he was very dreadful. [7]Then lifting up his countenance that shone with majesty, he looked very fiercely upon her: and the queen fell down, and was pale, and fainted, and bowed herself upon the head of the maid that went before her. [8]Then God changed the spirit of the king into mildness, who in a fear leaped from his throne, and took her in his arms, till she came to herself again, and comforted her with loving words and said unto her, [9]Esther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheer: [10]You shalt not die, for our commandment be general: come near. [11]And so be held up his golden scepter, and laid it upon her neck, [12]And embraced her, and said, Speak unto me. [13]Then said she unto him, I saw you, my lord, as an angel of God, and my heart was troubled for fear of thy majesty. [14]For wonderful art you, lord, and thy countenance is full of grace. [15]And as she was speaking, she fell down for faintness. [16]Then the king was troubled, and ail his servants comforted her.

16

The great king Artexerxes unto the princes and governors of an hundred and seven and twenty provinces from India unto Ethiopia, and unto all our faithful subjects, greeting. [2]Many, the more often they are honored with the great bounty of their gracious princes, the more proud they are waxen, [3]And endeavor to hurt not our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practice also against those that do them good: [4]And take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the glorious words of lewd persons, that were never good, they think to escape the justice of God, that see all things and hates evil. [5]Oftentimes also fair speech of those that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remediless calamities: [6]Beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of their lewd disposition the innocence and goodness of princes. [7]Now ye may see this, as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behavior of them that are unworthily placed in authority. [8]And we must take care for the time to come, that our kingdom may be quiet and peaceable for all men, [9]Both by changing our purposes, and always judging things that are evident with more equal proceeding. [10]For Aman, a Macedonian, the son of Amadatha, being indeed a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, and as a stranger received of us, [11]Had so far forth obtained the favor that we shew toward every nation, as that he was called our father, and was continually honored of all the next person unto the king. [12]But he, not bearing his great dignity, went about to deprive us of our kingdom and life: [13]Having by manifold and cunning deceits sought of us the destruction, as well of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blameless Esther, partaker of our kingdom, with their whole nation. [14]For by these means he thought, finding us destitute of friends to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians. [15]But we find that the Jews, whom this wicked wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, are no evildoers, but live by most just laws: [16]And that they be children of the most high and most mighty, living God, who hath ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent manner. [17]Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution the letters sent unto you by Aman the son of Amadatha. [18]For he that was the worker of these things, is hanged at the gates of Susa with all his family: God, who rules all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his deserts. [19]Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places that the Jews may freely live after their own laws. [20]And ye shall aid them, that even the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, they may be avenged on them, who in the time of their affliction shall set upon them. [21]For Almighty God hath turned to joy unto them the day, wherein the chosen people should have perished. [22]Ye shall therefore among your solemn feasts keep it a high day with all feasting: [23]That both now and hereafter there may be safety to us and the well affected Persians; but to those which do conspire against us a memorial of destruction. [24]Therefore every city and country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be destroyed wiyout mercy with fire and sword, and shall be made not only unpassable for men, but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls forever.

Notes:

Daniel
(Daniel (Danitesyel))

In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) king of Judah (Yahudah) came Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) king of Babel to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and besieged it. 2YaHWeH gave Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) king of Judah (Yahudah) into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shin`ar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god. 3The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Isreal (Yisrael), even of the seed royal and of the nobles; 4youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Kasdim. 5The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end of it they should stand before the king. 6Now among these were, of the children of Judah (Yahudah), Daniel (Danitesyel), Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah. 7The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel (Danitesyel) he gave the name of Belteshatztzar; and to Hananyah, of Shadrakh; and to Misha'el, of Meshakh; and to Azaryah, of Abed-Nego.

8But Daniel (Danitesyel) purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9Now God made Daniel (Danitesyel) to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. 10The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel (Danitesyel), I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? so would you endanger my head with the king. 11Then said Daniel (Danitesyel) to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel (Danitesyel), Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah: 12Prove your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. 13Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants. 14So he listened to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. 15At the end of ten days their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. 16So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse.

17Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel (Danitesyel) had understanding in all visions and dreams. 18At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar). 19The king talked with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel (Danitesyel), Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah: therefore stood they before the king. 20In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. 21Daniel (Danitesyel) continued even to the first year of king Cyrus (Koresh).

In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. 2Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Kasdim, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. 3The king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. 4Then spoke the Kasdim to the king in the Arammian language, O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 5The king answered the Kasdim, The thing is gone from me: if you don't make known to me the dream and the interpretation of it, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. 6But if you show the dream and the interpretation of it, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and the interpretation of it. 7They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. 8The king answered, I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. 9But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me the interpretation of it. 10The Kasdim answered before the king, and said, There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Kasdai. 11It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babel. [13]So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel (Danitesyel) and his companions to be slain. [14]Then Daniel (Danitesyel) returned answer with counsel and prudence to Aryokh the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise men of Babel; [15]he answered Aryokh the king's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Aryokh made the thing known to Daniel (Danitesyel). [16]Daniel (Danitesyel) went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation.

[17]Then Daniel (Danitesyel) went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah, his companions: [18]that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel (Danitesyel) and his companions should nor perish with the rest of the wise men of Babel. [19]Then was the secret revealed to Daniel (Danitesyel) in a vision of the night. Then Daniel (Danitesyel) blessed the God of heaven. [20]Daniel (Danitesyel) answered, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. [21]He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; [22]he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. [23]I thank you, and praise you, you God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter.

[24]Therefore Daniel (Danitesyel) went in to Aryokh, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babel; he went and said thus to him: Don't destroy the wise men of Babel; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation. [25]Then Aryokh brought in Daniel (Danitesyel) before the king in haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah (Yahudah), who will make known to the king the interpretation. [26]The king answered Daniel (Danitesyel), whose name was Belteshatztzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation of it? [27]Daniel (Danitesyel) answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded can neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show to the king; [28]but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: [29]as for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen. [30]But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.

[31]You, O king, saw, and, behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and the aspect of it was awesome. [32]As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, 33its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. 34You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. 35Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation of it before the king. 37You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; 38and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. 39After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. 40The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. 41Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. 42As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. 43Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cling to one another, even as iron does not mingle with clay. 44In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty of it be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. 45Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation of it sure.

46Then the king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel (Danitesyel), and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him. 47The king answered to Daniel (Danitesyel), and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and YaHWeH of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret. 48Then the king made Daniel (Danitesyel) great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babel, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babel. 49Daniel (Danitesyel) requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, over the affairs of the province of Babel: but Daniel (Danitesyel) was in the gate of the king.

Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and the breadth of it six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babel. 2Then Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king had set up. 3Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) had set up. 4Then the herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, 5that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king has set up; 6and whoever doesn't fall down and worships shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 7Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king had set up.

8Therefore at that time certain Kasdim came near, and brought accusation against the Jew (Yehudi). 9They answered Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king, O king, live for ever. 10You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; 11and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12There are certain Jew (Yehudi) whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babel: Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego; these men, O king, have not regarded you: they don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

13Then Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) answered them, Is it on purpose, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to you fall down and worship the image which I have made, well: but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego answered the king, Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.

19Then was Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated. 20He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. 21Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. 22Therefore because the king's word was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego. 23These three men, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

--- Apocrypha --- The Song of the Three Holy Children

24And they walked in the midst of the fire, praising God, and blessing YaHWeH. 25Then Azarias stood up, and prayed on this manner; and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire said, 26Blessed are thou, O Lord God of our fathers: you name is worthy to be praised and glorified forevermore: 27For you are righteous in all the things that thou have done to us: yea, true are all your works, your ways are right, and all your judgments truth. 28In all the things that you have brought upon us, and upon the holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, you have executed true judgment: for according to truth and judgment didst you bring all these things upon us because of our sins. 29For we have sinned and committed iniquity, departing from you. 30In all things have we trespassed, and not obeyed your commandments, nor kept them, neither done as you have commanded us, that it might go well with us. 31Wherefore all that you have brought upon us, and everything that you have done to us, you have done in true judgment. 32And you didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hateful forsakers of God, and to an unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world. 33And now we cannot open our mouths, we are become a shame and reproach to your servants; and to them that worship you. 34Yet deliver us not up wholly, for your name's sake, neither disannul you your covenant: 35And cause not your mercy to depart from us, for your beloved Abraham's sake, for your servant Isaac's sake, and for your holy Israel's sake; 36To whom you have spoken and promised, that you would multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lies upon the seashore. 37For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins. [38]Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before you, and to find mercy. [39]Nevertheless in a contrite heart and a humble spirit let us be accepted. [40]Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: so let our sacrifice be in your sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after you: for they shall not be confounded that put their trust in you. [41]And now we follow you with all our heart, we fear you, and seek your face. [42]Put us not to shame: but deal with us after you lovingkindness, and according to the multitude of your mercies. [43]Deliver us also according to your marvelous works, and give glory to your name, O Lord: and let all them that do your servants hurt be ashamed; [44]And let them be confounded in all their power and might, and let their strength be broken; [45]And let them know that you are God, the only God, and glorious over the whole world. [46]And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the oven hot with rosin, pitch, tow, and small wood; [47]So that the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits. [48]And it passed through, and burned those Chaldeans it found about the furnace. [49]But the angel of YaHWeH came down into the oven together with Azarias and his fellows, and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven; [50]And made the midst of the furnace as it had been a moist whistling wind, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither hurt nor troubled them. [51]Then the three, as out of one mouth, praised, glorified, and blessed, God in the furnace, saying, [52]Blessed are thou, O Lord God of our fathers: and to be praised and exalted above all forever. And blessed is your glorious and holy name: and to be praised and exalted above all forever. [53]Blessed are you in the temple of your holy glory: and to be praised and glorified above all forever. [54]Blessed are you that beholds the depths, and sits upon the cherubim's: and to be praised and exalted above all forever. [55]Blessed are you on the glorious throne of your kingdom: and to be praised and glorified above all forever. [56]Blessed are you in the firmament of heaven: and above all to be praised and glorified forever. [57]O all you works of YaHWeH, bless you YaHWeH : praise and exalt him above all forever, [58]O you heavens, bless you YaHWeH : praise and exalt him above all forever. [59]O you angels of YaHWeH, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [60]O all you waters that be above the heaven, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [61]O all you powers of YaHWeH, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [62]O you sun and moon, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [63]O you stars of heaven, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [64]O every shower and dew, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [65]O all you winds, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever, [66]O you fire and heat, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [67]O you winter and summer, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [68]O you dews and storms of snow, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [69]O you nights and days, bless you YaHWeH: bless and exalt him above all forever. [70]O you light and darkness, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [71]O you ice and cold, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [72]O you frost and snow, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [73]O you lightning's and clouds, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [74]O let the earth bless YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [75]O you mountains and little hills, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [76]O all you things that grow in the earth, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [77]O you mountains, bless you YaHWeH: Praise and exalt him above all forever. [78]O you seas and rivers, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [79]O you whales, and all that move in the waters, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [81]O all you fowls of the air, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [81]O all you beasts and cattle, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [82]O you children of men, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [83]O Israel, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [84]O you priests of YaHWeH, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [85]O you servants of YaHWeH, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [86]O you spirits and souls of the righteous, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [87]O you holy and humble men of heart, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever. [88]O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, bless you YaHWeH: praise and exalt him above all forever: far he has delivered us from hell, and saved us from the hand of death, and delivered us out of the midst of the furnace and burning flame: even out of the midst of the fire has he delivered us. [89]O give thanks unto YaHWeH, because he is gracious: for his mercy endures forever. [90]O all you that worship YaHWeH, bless the God of God s, praise him, and give him thanks: for his mercy endures forever.

[91]Then Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spoke and said to his counselors, Didn't we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered the king, True, O king. [25]He answered, Look, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods.

[26]Then Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, you servants of Most high (Elyon) God, come forth, and come here. Then Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego came forth out of the midst of the fire. 27The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their pants changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. 28Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. 29Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver after this sort. 30Then the king promoted Shadrakh, Meshakh, and Abed-Nego in the province of Babel.

Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Shalom be multiplied to you. 2It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that Most high (Elyon) God has worked toward me. 3How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4I, Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. 5I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. 6Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babel before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. 7Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Kasdim, and the soothsayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me the interpretation of it. 8But at the last Daniel (Danitesyel) came in before me, whose name was Belteshatztzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, 9Belteshatztzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation of it. 10Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and, behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and the height of it was great. 11The tree grew, and was strong, and the height of it reached to the sky, and the sight of it to the end of all the earth. 12The leaves of it were beautiful, and the fruit of it much, and in it was food for all: the animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in the branches of it, and all flesh was fed from it.

13I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and, behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. 14He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. 15Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth: 16let his heart be changed from man's, and let a animal's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. 17The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that Most high (Elyon) rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whoever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men. 18This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), have seen; and you, Belteshatztzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.

19Then Daniel (Danitesyel), whose name was Belteshatztzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshatztzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshatztzar answered, My lord, the dream be to those who hate you, and the interpretation of it to your adversaries. 20The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and the sight of it to all the earth; 21whose leaves were beautiful, and the fruit of it much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation: 22it is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth. 23Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, Hew down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of the roots of it in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him; 24this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of Most high (Elyon), which is come on my lord the king: 25that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that Most high (Elyon) rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whoever he will. 26Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule. 27Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquillity.

28All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar). 29At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babel. 30The king spoke and said, Is not this great Babel, which I have built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? 31While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from the sky, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), to you it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from you: 32and you shall be driven from men; and they dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that Most high (Elyon) rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whoever he will. 33The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar): and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed Most high (Elyon), and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. 35All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or tell him, What do you? 36At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. 37Now I, Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

Belshatztzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. 2Belshatztzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from it. 3Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. 4They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the menorah on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. 6Then the king's face was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosened, and his knees struck one against another. 7The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Kasdim, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babel, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me the interpretation of it, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. 8Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. 9Then was king Belshatztzar greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.

10*Now* the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spoke and said, O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. 11There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) your father, the king, I say, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Kasdim, and soothsayers; 12because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel (Danitesyel), whom the king named Belteshatztzar. Now let Daniel (Danitesyel) be called, and he will show the interpretation.

13Then was Daniel (Danitesyel) brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel (Danitesyel), Are you that Daniel (Danitesyel), who are of the children of the captivity of Judah (Yahudah), whom the king my father brought out of Judah (Yahudah)? 14I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. 15Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. 16But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation of it, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17Then Daniel (Danitesyel) answered before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. 18You king, Most high (Elyon) God gave Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: 19and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. 20But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: 21and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that Most high (Elyon) God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whoever he will. 22You his son, Belshatztzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, 23but have lifted up yourself against YaHWeH of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified.

24Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. 25This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UFARSIN. 26This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; 27TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. 28PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes (Madai) and Persians (Paras).

29Then commanded Belshatztzar, and they clothed Daniel (Danitesyel) with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30In that night Belshatztzar the Kasdai King was slain. 31 Darius (DarYabesh) the Madian received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

It pleased Darius (DarYabesh) to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; 2and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel (Danitesyel) was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king should have no damage. 3Then this Daniel (Danitesyel) was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. 4Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel (Danitesyel) as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, because he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. 5Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel (Danitesyel), except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus to him, King Darius (DarYabesh), live forever. 7All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. 8Now, O king, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes (Madai) and Persians (Paras), which doesn't alter. 9Therefore king Darius (DarYabesh) signed the writing and the interdict.

10When Daniel (Danitesyel) knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. 11Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel (Danitesyel) making petition and supplication before his God. 12Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's interdict: Haven't you signed an interdict, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, save to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes (Madai) and Persians (Paras), which doesn't alter. 13Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel (Danitesyel), who is of the children of the captivity of Judah (Yahudah), doesn't regard you, O king, nor the interdict that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.

14Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased, and set his heart on Daniel (Danitesyel) to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. 15Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes (Madai) and Persians (Paras), that no interdict nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.

16Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel (Danitesyel), and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel (Danitesyel), Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you. 17A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel (Danitesyel). 18Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him.

19Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. 20When he came near to the den to Daniel (Danitesyel), he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel (Danitesyel), Daniel (Danitesyel), servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions? 21Then said Daniel (Danitesyel) to the king, O king, live forever. 22My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no hurt. 23Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel (Danitesyel) up out of the den. So Daniel (Danitesyel) was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. 24The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel (Danitesyel), and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.

25Then king Darius (DarYabesh) wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Shalom be multiplied to you. 26I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel (Danitesyel); for he is the living God, and steadfast forever, His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even to the end. 27He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel (Danitesyel) from the power of the lions.

28So this Daniel (Danitesyel) prospered in the reign of Darius (DarYabesh), and in the reign of Cyrus (Koresh) the Persian.

In the first year of Belshatztzar king of Babel Daniel (Danitesyel) had a dream and visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. 2Daniel (Danitesyel) spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke forth on the great sea. 3Four great animals came up from the sea, diverse one from another. 4The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I saw until the wings of it were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. 5Behold, another animal, a second, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh. 6After this I saw, and, behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the animal had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. 7After this I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. 8I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. 9I saw until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat: his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and the wheels of it burning fire. 10A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. 11I saw at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I saw even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. 12As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. 13I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. 14There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15As for me, Daniel (Danitesyel), my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. 16I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. 17These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. 18But the holy ones of Most high (Elyon) shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever.

19Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; 20and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. 21I saw, and the same horn made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them; 22until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the holy ones of Most high (Elyon), and the time came that the holy ones possessed the kingdom. 23Thus he said, The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. 24As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. 25He shall speak words against Most high (Elyon), and shall wear out the holy ones of Most high (Elyon); and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. 26But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. 27The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole the sky, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of Most high (Elyon): his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel (Danitesyel), my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

In the third year of the reign of king Belshatztzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel (Danitesyel), after that which appeared to me at the first. 2I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in Shushan the palace, which is in the province of `Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. 3Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. 4I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.

5As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. 6He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. 7I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him; and there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand. 8The male goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky.

9Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. 10It grew great, even to the host of the sky; and some of the host and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. 11Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the host; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. 12The host was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. 13Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt-offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? 14He said to me, To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15It happened, when I, even I Daniel (Danitesyel), had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. 16I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gavri'el, make this man to understand the vision. 17So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but he said to me, Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end. 18Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. 19He said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. 20The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Medes (Madai) and Persians (Paras). 21The rough male goat is the king of Yavan: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. 22As for that which was broken, in the place whereof four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. 23In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. 24His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. 25Through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. 26The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but seal up the vision; for it belongs to many days to come. 27I, Daniel (Danitesyel), fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but none understood it.

In the first year of Darius (DarYabesh) the son of Achashverosh, of the seed of the Medes (Madai), who was made king over the realm of the Kasdim, 2in the first year of his reign I, Daniel (Danitesyel), understood by the books the number of the years whereof the word of YaHWeH came to Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), even seventy years.

3I set my face to YaHWeH God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. 4I prayed to YaHWeH my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord (Adonay), the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments (mitzvot), 5we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances; 6neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. 7Lord (Adonay), righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah (Yahudah), and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and to all Isreal (Yisrael), who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. 8Lord (Adonay), to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. [9]To YaHWeH our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; [10]neither have we obeyed the voice of YaHWeH our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. [11]Yes, all Isreal (Yisrael) have transgressed your law, even turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore has the curse been poured out on us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses (Moshe) the servant of God; for we have sinned against him. [12]He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky has not been done as has been done on Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [13]As it is written in the law of Moses (Moshe), all this evil is come on us: yet have we not entreated the favor of YaHWeH our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. [14]Therefore has YaHWeH watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for YaHWeH our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice. [15]Now, Lord (Adonay) our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) with a mighty hand, and have gotten you renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. [16]Lord (Adonay), according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and your people are become a reproach to all who are round about us. [17]Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for YaHWeH's sake. [18]My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake. [19]Lord (Adonay), hear; Lord (Adonay), forgive; Lord (Adonay), listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name.

[20]While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Isreal (Yisrael), and presenting my supplication before YaHWeH my God for the holy mountain of my God; [21]yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gavri'el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. [22]He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, Daniel (Danitesyel), I am now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding. [23]At the beginning of your petitions the word went forth, and I am come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.

[24]Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. [25]Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the word to restore and to build Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to the Messiah the prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. 26After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end of it shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined. 27He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out on the desolate.

In the third year of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras) a thing was revealed to Daniel (Danitesyel), whose name was called Belteshatztzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2In those days I, Daniel (Danitesyel), was mourning three whole weeks. 3I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. 4In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, 5I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with pure gold of Ufaz: 6his body also was like the bareket, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. 7I, Daniel (Danitesyel), alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. 8So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. 9Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.

10Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. 11He said to me, Daniel (Danitesyel), you man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for to you am I now sent. When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. 12Then said he to me, Don't be afraid, Daniel (Danitesyel); for from the first day that you did set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I am come for your words' sake. 13But the prince of the kingdom of Persians (Paras) withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Mikha'el, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persians (Paras). 14Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days:

15and when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. 16Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength. 17For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.

18Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. 19He said, "Greatly beloved man, don't be afraid: shalom be to you, be strong, yes, be strong."

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me."

20Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persians (Paras). When I go forth, behold, the prince of Yavan shall come. 21But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none who holds with me against these, but Mikha'el your prince."

"As for me, in the first year of Darius (DarYabesh) the Madian, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

2Now will I show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persians (Paras); and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Yavan. 3A mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. 4When he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these.

5The king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. 6At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times.

7But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. 8Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt (Mitzrayim); and he shall refrain some years from the king of the north. 9He shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land.

10His sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress. 11The king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. 12The multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. 13The king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.

20Then shall stand up in his place one who shall cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. 21In his place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. 22The overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant. 23After the league made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. 24In time of security shall he come even on the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yes, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. 25He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. [26]Yes, they who eat of his dainties shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain. [27]As for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. [28]Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, and return to his own land.

[29]At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. [30]For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. [31]Forces shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate. [32]Such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. [33]Those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days. [34]Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries. [35]Some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

[36]The king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper until the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done. [37]Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above all. [38]But in his place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers didn't know shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. [39]He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.

[40]At the time of the end shall the king of the south contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through. [41]He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of `Ammon. [42]He shall stretch forth his hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim) shall not escape. [43]But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt (Mitzrayim); and the Lubbians and the Kushim shall be at his steps. 44But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. 45He shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

"At that time shall Mikha'el stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. 2Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3Those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. 4But you, Daniel (Danitesyel), shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run back and forth, and knowledge shall be increased."

5Then I, Daniel (Danitesyel), looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side. 6One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? 7I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. 8I heard, but I didn't understand: then said I, my lord, what shall be the issue of these things? 9He said, Go your way, Daniel (Danitesyel); for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. 10Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand. 11From the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. 12Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. 13But go you your way until the end be; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your lot, at the end of the days.

--- Apocrypha --- The history of Susanna

There dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim: [2]And he took a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, a very fair woman, and one that feared YaHWeH. [3]Her parents also were righteous, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moses. [4]Now Joacim was a great rich man, and had a fair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews; because he was more honorable than all others. [5]The same year were appointed two of the ancients of the people to be judges, such as YaHWeH spoke of, that wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who seemed to govern the people. [6]These kept much at Joacim's house: and all that had any suits in law came unto them. [7]Now when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk. [8]And the two elders saw her going in every day, and walking; so that their lust was inflamed toward her. [9]And they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes, that they might not look unto heaven, nor remember just judgments. [10]And albeit they both were wounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief. [11]For they were ashamed to declare their lust that they desired to have to do with her. [12]Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her. [13]And the one said to the other, Let us now go home: for it is dinner time. [14]So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone. [15]And it fell out, as they watched a fit time, she went in as before with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot. [16]And there was no body there save the two elders that had hid themselves, and watched her. [17]Then she said to her maids, bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the garden doors, that I may wash me. [18]And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doors, and went out themselves at privy doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: but they saw not the elders, because they were hid. [19]Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying, [20]Behold, the garden doors are shut, that no man can see us, and we are in love with you; therefore consent unto us, and lie with us. [21]If you will not, we will bear witness against you, that a young man was with you: and therefore you did send away your maids from you. [22]Then Susanna sighed, and said, I am straitened on every side: for if I do this thing, it is death unto me: and if I do it not I cannot escape your hands. [23]It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of YaHWeH. [24]With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her. [25]Then ran the one, and opened the garden door. [26]So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at the privy door, to see what was done unto her. [27]But when the elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna. [28]And it came to pass the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Joacim, the two elders came also full of mischievous imagination against Susanna to put her to death; [29]And said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Joacim's wife. And so they sent. [30]So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred. [31]Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and beautiful to behold. [32]And these wicked men commanded to uncover her face, (for she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty. [33]Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept. [34]Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, and laid their hands upon her head. [35]And she weeping looked up toward heaven: for her heart trusted in YaHWeH. [36]And the elders said, as we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away. [37]Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her. [38]Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickedness, ran unto them. [39]And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the door, and leaped out. [40]But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify. [41]Then the assembly believed them as those that were the elders and judges of the people: so they condemned her to death. [42]Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice, and said, O everlasting God, that knows the secrets, and knows all things before they be: [43]You knows that they have borne false witness against me, and, behold, I must die; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me. [44]And YaHWeH heard her voice. [45]Therefore when she was led to be put to death, YaHWeH raised up the holy spirit of a young youth whose name was Daniel: [46]Who cried with a loud voice, I am clear from the blood of this woman. [47]Then all the people turned them toward him, and said, what mean these words that you have spoken? [48]So he standing in the midst of them said, Are you such fools, you sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth you have condemned a daughter of Israel? [49]Return again to the place of judgment: for they have borne false witness against her. [50]Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said unto him, Come, sit down among us, and shew it us, seeing God has given you the honor of an elder. [51]Then said Daniel unto them, Put these two aside one far from another, and I will examine them. [52]So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said unto him, O you that are waxen old in wickedness, now your sins which you have committed aforetime are come to light. [53]For you have pronounced false judgment and have condemned the innocent and have let the guilty go free; albeit YaHWeH said, the innocent and righteous shalt you not slay. [54]Now then, if you have seen her, tell me, under what tree saw you them companying together? Who answered, under a mastick tree? [55]And Daniel said, Very well; you have lied against your own head; for even now the angel of God has received the sentence of God to cut you in two. [56]So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him, O you seed of Chanaan, and not of Juda, beauty has deceived you, and lust has perverted your heart. [57]Thus have you dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you: but the daughter of Juda would not abide your wickedness. [58]Now therefore tell me, under what tree didst you take them companying together? Who answered, under a holm tree. [59]Then said Daniel unto him, well; you have also lied against your own head: for the angel of God waiteth with the sword to cut you in two, that he may destroy you. [60]With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and praised God, who saves them that trust in him. [61]And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth: [62]And according to the law of Moses they did unto them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbour: and they put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saved the same day. [63]Therefore Chelcias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joacim her husband, and all the kindred, because there was no dishonesty found in her. [64]From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

--- Apocrypha --- The History of the Destruction of Bel and the Dragon

And king Astyages was gathered to his fathers, and Cyrus of Persia received his kingdom. [2]And Daniel conversed with the king, and was honored above all his friends. [3]Now the Babylonians had an idol, called Bel, and there were spent upon him every day twelve great measures of fine flour, and forty sheep, and six vessels of wine. [4]And the king worshipped it, and went daily to adore it: but Daniel worshipped his own God. And the king said unto him, why dost not you worship Bel? [5]Who answered and said, because I may not worship idols made with hands, but the living God, who has created the heaven and the earth, and has sovereignty over all flesh. [6]Then said the king unto him, Think you not that Bel is a living God? See you not how much he eats and drinks every day? [7]Then Daniel smiled, and said, O king, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brass without, and did never eat or drink anything. [8]So the king was wroth, and called for his priests, and said unto them, if you tell me not who this is that devoured these expenses, you shall die. [9]But if you can certify me that Bel devoured them, then Daniel shall die: for he has spoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the king, Let it be according to your word. [10](Now the priests of Bel were threescore and ten, beside their wives and children.) And the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel. [11]So Bel's priests said, Lo, we go out: but thou, O king, set on the meat, and make ready the wine, and shut the door

fast, and seal it with your own signet; [12]And tomorrow when you come in, if thou find not that Bel has eaten up all, we will suffer death; or else Daniel, that speaks falsely against us. [13]And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and consumed those things. [14]So when they were gone forth, the king set meats before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple in the presence of the king alone: then went they out, and shut the door, and sealed it with the king's signet, and so departed. [15]Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, (as they were wont to do,) and did eat and drink up all. [16]In the morning be time the king arose, and Daniel with him. [17]And the king said, Daniel, are the seals whole? And he said, Yes, O king, they be whole. [18]And as soon as he had opened the door, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, great are thou, O Bel, and with you is no deceit at all. [19]Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these. [20]And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women, and children. And then the king was angry, [21]And took the priests with their wives and children, who showed him the privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table. [22]Therefore the king slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, who destroyed him and his temple. [23]And in that same place there was a great dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped. [24]And the king said unto Daniel, Will you also say that this is of brass? Lo, he lives, he eats and drinks; you cannot say that he is no living God: therefore worship him. [25]Then said Daniel unto the king, I will worship YaHWeH my God: for he is the living God. [26]But give me leave, O king, and I shall slay this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give you leave. [27]Then Daniel took pitch, and fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the dragon's mouth, and so the dragon burst in sunder: and Daniel said, Lo, these are the God s you worship. [28]When they of Babylon heard that, they took great indignation, and conspired against the king, saying, the king is become a Jew, and he has destroyed Bel, he has slain the dragon, and put the priests to death. [29]So they came to the king, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy you and your house. [30]Now when the king saw that they pressed him sore, being constrained, he delivered Daniel unto them: [31]Who cast him into the lions' den: where he was six days. [32]And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day two carcasses, and two sheep: which then were not given to them, to the intent they might devour Daniel. [33]Now there was in Jewry a prophet, called Habbacuc, who had made pottage, and had broken bread in a bowl, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers. [34]But the angel of YaHWeH said unto Habbacuc, Go, carry the dinner that you have into Babylon unto Daniel, who is in the lions' den. [35]And Habbacuc said, Lord,

I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is. [36]Then the angel of YaHWeH took him by the crown, and bare him by the hair of his head, and through the vehemency of his spirit set him in Babylon over the den. [37]And Habbacuc cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner which God has sent you. [38]And Daniel said, you have remembered me, O God: neither have you forsaken them that seek you and love you. [39]So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the angel of YaHWeH set Habbacuc in his own place again immediately. [40]Upon the seventh day the king went to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and, behold, Daniel was sitting. [41]Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, great are thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other beside you. [42]And he drew him out, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den: and they were devoured in a moment before his face.

--- Apocrypha--- The prayer of Manasses

King of Judah O Lord, Almighty God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed; who have made heaven and earth, with all the ornament thereof; who have bound the sea by the word of you commandment; who have shut up the deep, and sealed it by your terrible and glorious name; whom all men fear, and tremble before your power; for the majesty of your glory cannot be borne, and your angry threatening toward sinners is importable: but your merciful promise is unmeasurable and unsearchable; for you are the most high Lord, of great compassion, longsuffering, very merciful, and repents of the evils of men. You, O Lord, according to your great goodness have promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against you: and of your infinite mercies have appointed repentance unto sinners, that they may be saved. You therefore, O Lord, that are the God of the just, have not appointed repentance to the just, as to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against you; but you have appointed repentance unto me that am a sinner: for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the sea. My transgressions, O Lord, are multiplied: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of mine iniquities. I am bowed down with many iron bands that I cannot lift up mine head, neither have any release: for I have provoked your wrath, and done evil before you: I did not your will, neither kept I you commandments: I have set up abominations, and have multiplied offences. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching you of grace. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities: wherefore, I humbly beseech you, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me forever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me into the lower parts of the earth. For thou are the God, even the God of them that repent; and in me you wilt shew all you goodness: for you wilt save me that am unworthy according to your great mercy. Therefore I will praise you forever all the days of my life: for all the powers of the heavens do praise you, and yours is the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Ezra

Now in the first year of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), that the word of YaHWeH by the mouth of Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) might be accomplished, YaHWeH stirred up the spirit of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2Thus says Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), All the kingdoms of the earth has YaHWeH, the God of heaven, given me; and he has charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), which is in Judah (Yahudah). 3Whoever there is among you of all his people, his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), which is in Judah (Yahudah), and build the house of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael) (he is God), which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 4Whoever is left, in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with animals, besides the freewill-offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

5Then rose up the heads of fathers' houses of Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), and the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up to build the house of YaHWeH which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 6All those who were round about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. 7Also Cyrus (Koresh) the king brought forth the vessels of the house of YaHWeH, which Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) had brought forth out of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and had put in the house of his gods; 8even those did Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras) bring forth by the hand of Mitredat the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbatztzer, the prince of Judah (Yahudah). 9This is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, one thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, 10thirty bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels one thousand. 11All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbatztzer bring up, when they of the captivity were brought up from Babel to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

Now these are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king of Babel had carried away to Babel, and who returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and Judah (Yahudah), everyone to his city; 2who came with ZerubBabel, Yeshua, Nechemyah, Serayah, Re`elayah, Mordekhai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigbai, Rechum, Ba`anah. 36The Priests (Kohanim): the children of Yedayah, of the house of Yeshua, nine hundred seventy-three. 37The children of Immer, one thousand fifty-two. 38The children of Pashchur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven. 39The children of Harim, one thousand seventeen.

59These were those who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-Harsha, Kerub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, and their seed, whether they were of Isreal (Yisrael): 60the children of Delayah, the children of Tobiyah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two. 61Of the children of the Priests (Kohanim): the children of Havayah, the children of Hakkotz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gil`adite, and was called after their name. 62These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. 63The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a Priest with Urim and with Tummim.

64The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, 65besides their men-servants and their maid-servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred singing men and singing women. 66Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; 67their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68Some of the heads of fathers' houses, when they came to the house of YaHWeH which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), offered willingly for the house of God to set it up in its place: 69they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred Priests (Kohanim)' garments.

70So the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the temple servants, lived in their cities, and all Isreal (Yisrael) in their cities.

When the seventh month was come, and the children of Isreal (Yisrael) were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Then stood up Yeshua the son of Yotzadak, and his brothers the Priests (Kohanim), and ZerubBabel the son of She'alti'el, and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Isreal (Yisrael), to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses (Moshe) the man of God. 3They set the altar on its base; for fear was on them because of the peoples of the countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon to YaHWeH, even burnt offerings morning and evening. 4They kept the feast of booths, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; 5and afterward the continual burnt-offering, and the offerings of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of YaHWeH that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill-offering to YaHWeH. 6From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings to YaHWeH: but the foundation of the temple of YaHWeH was not yet laid. 7They gave money also to the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, to them of Tzidon, and to them of Tyrus (Tzor), to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Yafo, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras).

8Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), in the second month, began ZerubBabel the son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua the son of Yotzadak, and the rest of their brothers the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, and all those who were come out of the captivity to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of YaHWeH. 9Then stood Yeshua with his sons and his brothers, Kadmi'el and his sons, the sons of Judah (Yahudah), together, to have the oversight of the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites.

10When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of YaHWeH, they set the Priests (Kohanim) in their clothing with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaf with cymbals, to Praise YaH, after the order of David king of Isreal (Yisrael). 11They sang one to another in praising and giving thanks to YaHWeH, saying, For he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever toward Isreal (Yisrael). All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised YaHWeH, because the foundation of the house of YaHWeH was laid. 12But many of the Priests (Kohanim) and Levites and heads of fathers' houses, the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: 13so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Now when the adversaries of Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin) heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael); 2then they drew near to ZerubBabel, and to the heads of fathers' houses, and said to them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to him since the days of Esar-Haddon king of Ashshur, who brought us up here. 3But ZerubBabel, and Yeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses of Isreal (Yisrael), said to them, You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), as king Cyrus (Koresh) the king of Persians (Paras) has commanded us.

4Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah (Yahudah), and troubled them in building, 5and hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), even until the reign of Darius (DarYabesh) king of Persians (Paras).

6In the reign of Achashverosh, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

7In the days of Artachshasta wrote Bishlam, Mitredat, Tav'el, and the rest of his companions, to Artachshasta king of Persians (Paras); and the writing of the letter was written in the Arammian character, and set forth in the Arammian language. 8Rechum the chancellor and Shimshai the Scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to Artachshasta the king in this sort: 9then wrote Rechum the chancellor, and Shimshai the Scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinites, and the Afarsatkhi, the Tarpelites, the Afarsi, the Arkevi, the Bavlites, the Shushankhites, the Dehites, the Elamites, 10and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnappar brought over, and set in the city of Samaria (Shomron), and in the rest of the country beyond the River, and so forth. 11This is the copy of the letter that they sent to Artachshasta the king: Your servants the men beyond the River, and so forth. 12Be it known to the king, that the Jew (Yehudi) who came up from you are come to us to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations. 13Be it known now to the king that if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings. 14Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and informed the king; 15that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so shall you find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time; for which cause was this city laid waste. 16We inform the king that, if this city be built, and the walls finished, by this means you shall have no portion beyond the River.

17*Then* sent the king an answer to Rechum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the Scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria (Shomron), and in the rest of the country beyond the River: Shalom, and so forth. 18The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. 19I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. 20There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them. 21Make you now a decree to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me. 22Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

23Then when the copy of king Artachshasta' letter was read before Rechum, and Shimshai the Scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to the Jew (Yehudi), and made them to cease by force and power. 24Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius (DarYabesh) king of Persians (Paras).

Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zekharyah the son of `Iddo, prophesied to the Jew (Yehudi) who were in Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); in the name of the God of Isreal (Yisrael) prophesied they to them. 2Then rose up ZerubBabel the son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua the son of Yotzadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

3At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Seth (Sheth)ar-Bozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall? 4Then we told them after this manner, what the names of the men were who were making this building. 5But the eye of their God was on the Elders (Zakenim) of the Jew (Yehudi), and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius (DarYabesh), and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it.

6The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Seth (Sheth)ar-Bozenai, and his companions the Afarsekhi, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius (DarYabesh) the king; 7they sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darius (DarYabesh) the king, all shalom. 8Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah (Yahudah), to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. 9Then asked we those Elders (Zakenim), and said to them thus, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall? 10We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at the head of them. 11Thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Isreal (Yisrael) built and finished. 12But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) king of Babel, the Kasdai, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babel. 13But in the first year of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Babel, Cyrus (Koresh) the king made a decree to build this house of God. 14The gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and brought into the temple of Babel, those did Cyrus (Koresh) the king take out of the temple of Babel, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbatztzer, whom he had made governor; 15and he said to him, Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and let the house of God be built in its place. 16Then came the same Sheshbatztzer, and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed. 17Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babel, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus (Koresh) the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

Then Darius (DarYabesh) the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babel. 2There was found at Achmeta, in the palace that is in the province of Medes (Madai), a scroll, and therein was thus written for a record: 3In the first year of Cyrus (Koresh) the king, Cyrus (Koresh) the king made a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid; the height of it sixty cubits, and the breadth of it sixty cubits; 4with three courses of great stones, and a course of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house. 5Also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and brought to Babel, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), everyone to its place; and you shall put them in the house of God.

6Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Seth (Sheth)ar-Bozenai, and your companions the Afarsekhi, who are beyond the River, be you far from there: 7let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jew (Yehudi) and the Elders (Zakenim) of the Jew (Yehudi) build this house of God in its place. 8Moreover I make a decree what you shall do to these Elders (Zakenim) of the Jew (Yehudi) for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses be given with all diligence to these men, that they be not hindered. 9That which they have need of, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the Priests (Kohanim) who are at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), let it be given them day by day without fail; 10that they may offer sacrifices of sweet savor to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. 11Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: 12and the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). I Darius (DarYabesh) have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence.

13Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Seth (Sheth)ar-Bozenai, and their companions, because that Darius (DarYabesh) the king had sent, did accordingly with all diligence. 14The Elders (Zakenim) of the Jew (Yehudi) built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zekharyah the son of `Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the word of the God of Isreal (Yisrael), and according to the decree of Cyrus (Koresh), and Darius (DarYabesh), and Artachshasta king of Persians (Paras). 15This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius (DarYabesh) the king.

16The children of Isreal (Yisrael), the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. 17They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin-offering for all Isreal (Yisrael), twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael). 18They set the Priests (Kohanim) in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); as it is written in the book of Moses (Moshe).

19The children of the captivity kept the Pesach on the fourteenth day of the first month. 20For the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the Pesach for all the children of the captivity, and for their brothers the Priests (Kohanim), and for themselves. 21The children of Isreal (Yisrael) who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), ate, 22and kept the feast of matzah seven days with joy: for YaHWeH had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Ashshur to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Isreal (Yisrael).

Now after these things, in the reign of Artachshasta king of Persians (Paras), Ezra the son of Serayah, the son of Azaryah, the son of Hilkiyah, 2the son of Shallum, the son of Tzadok, the son of Achitub, 3the son of Amaryah, the son of Azaryah, the son of Merayot, 4the son of Zerachyah, the son of `Uzzi, the son of Bukki, 5the son of Abishua, the son of Pinechas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aharon the chief Priest; 6this Ezra went up from Babel: and he was a ready Scribe in the law of Moses (Moshe), which YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of YaHWeH his God on him.

7There went up some of the children of Isreal (Yisrael), and of the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the temple servants, to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), in the seventh year of Artachshasta the king. 8He came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. 9For on the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babel; and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), according to the good hand of his God on him. 10For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of YaHWeH, and to do it, and to teach in Isreal (Yisrael) statutes and ordinances.

11Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artachshasta gave to Ezra the Priest, the Scribe, even the Scribe of the words of the commandments (mitzvot) of YaHWeH, and of his statutes to Isreal (Yisrael): 12Artachshasta, king of kings, to Ezra the Priest, the Scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect and so forth. 13I make a decree, that all those of the people of Isreal (Yisrael), and their Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), go with you. 14Because you are sent of the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), according to the law of your God which is in your hand, 15and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Isreal (Yisrael), whose habitation is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), 16and all the silver and gold that you shall find in all the province of Babel, with the freewill-offering of the people, and of the Priests (Kohanim), offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); 17therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal-offerings and their drink-offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 18Whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do you after the will of your God. 19The vessels that are given you for the service of the house of your God, deliver you before the God of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 20Whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure-house.

21I, even I Artachshasta the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the Priest, the Scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence, 22to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred measures of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. 23Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? 24Also we inform you, that touching any of the Priests (Kohanim) and Levites, the singers, porters, temple servants, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on them.

25You, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God who is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach you him who doesn't know them. 26Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of YaHWeH which is in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); 28and has extended loving kindness to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according to the hand of YaHWeH my God on me, and I gathered together out of Isreal (Yisrael) chief men to go up with me.

Now these are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babel, in the reign of Artachshasta the king: 2Of the sons of Pinechas, Gershom. Of the sons of Itamar, Daniel (Danitesyel). Of the sons of David, Hattush. 3Of the sons of Shekhanyah, of the sons of Par`osh, Zekharyah; and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males one hundred fifty. 4Of the sons of Pachat-Moab, Elyeho`enai the son of Zerachyah; and with him two hundred males. 5Of the sons of Shekhanyah, the son of Yachazi'el; and with him three hundred males. 6Of the sons of `Adin, `Ebed the son of Yonatan; and with him fifty males. 7Of the sons of `Elam, Yesha`yah the son of `Atalyah; and with him seventy males. 8Of the sons of Shefatyah, Zebadyah the son of Mikha'el; and with him eighty males. 9Of the sons of Yo'ab, Obadiah (Obadyah) the son of Yechi'el; and with him two hundred and eighteen males. 10Of the sons of Shelomit, the son of Yosifyah; and with him one hundred sixty males. 11Of the sons of Bebai, Zekharyah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males. 12Of the sons of Azgad, Yochanan the son of Katan; and with him one hundred ten males. 13Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Elifelet, Ye`u'el, and Shemayah; and with them sixty males. 14Of the sons of Bigbai, `Utai and Zakkur; and with them seventy males.

15I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the Priests (Kohanim), and found there none of the sons of Levi. 16Then sent I for Eli`ezer, for Ari'el, for Shemayah, and for Elnatan, and for Yarib, and for Elnatan, and for Natan, and for Zekharyah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Yoiarib, and for Elnatan, who were teachers. 17I sent them forth to `Iddo the chief at the place Kasifyah; and I told them what they should tell `Iddo, and his brothers the temple servants, at the place Kasifyah, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. 18According to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Machli, the son of Levi, the son of Isreal (Yisrael); and Sherebyah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; 19and Hashabyah, and with him Yesha`yah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; 20and of the temple servants, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple servants: all of them were mentioned by name.

21Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. 22For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him. 23So we fasted and begged our God for this: and he was entreated of us.

24Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the Priests (Kohanim), even Sherebyah, Hashabyah, and ten of their brothers with them, 25and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his princes, and all Isreal (Yisrael) there present, had offered: 26I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents; 27and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright brass, precious as gold. 28I said to them, You are holy to YaHWeH, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill-offering to YaHWeH, the God of your fathers. 29Watch you, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' houses of Isreal (Yisrael), at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), in the chambers of the house of YaHWeH. 30So the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to the house of our God.

31Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and the hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way. 32We came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and abode there three days. 33On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremot the son of Uriyah the Priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Pinechas; and with them was Yozabad the son of Yeshua, and No`adyah the son of Binnui, the Levite; 34the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time.

35The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Isreal (Yisrael), twelve bulls for all Isreal (Yisrael), ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt offering to YaHWeH. 36They delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

Now when these things were done, the princes drew near to me, saying, The people of Isreal (Yisrael), and the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites (Kanaan), the Hitti, the Perizzi, the Yebusites, the `Ammonim, the Moabites, the Mitzrim, and the Amori. 2For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands: yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass.

3When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. 4Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Isreal (Yisrael), because of the trespass of them of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. 5At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to YaHWeH my God; 6and I said, my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guiltiness is grown up to the heavens.

7Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our Priests (Kohanim), been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. 8Now for a little moment grace has been shown from YaHWeH our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. 9For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persians (Paras), to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the ruins of it, and to give us a wall in Judah (Yahudah) and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

10Now, our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken your commandments (mitzvot), 11which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness: 12now therefore don't give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their shalom or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever. 13After all that is come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that you our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant, 14shall we again break your commandments (mitzvot), and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? would not you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? 15 YaHWeH the God of Isreal (Yisrael), you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this.

Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there was gathered together to him out of Isreal (Yisrael) a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very sore. 2Shekhanyah the son of Yechi'el, one of the sons of `Elam, answered Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land: yet now there is hope for Isreal (Yisrael) concerning this thing. 3Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the word of our God; and let it be done according to the law. 4Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you: be of good courage, and do it. 5Then arose Ezra, and made the chiefs of the Priests (Kohanim), the Levites, and all Isreal (Yisrael), to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore.

6Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Yehochanan the son of Elyashib: and when he came there, he ate no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the trespass of them of the captivity. 7They made proclamation throughout Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); 8and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the Elders (Zakenim), all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity.

9Then all the men of Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin) gathered themselves together to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain. 10Ezra the Priest stood up, and said to them, You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Isreal (Yisrael). 11Now therefore make confession to YaHWeH, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women. 12Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, As you have said concerning us, so must we do. 13But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside: neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. 14Let now our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the Elders (Zakenim) of every city, and the judges of it, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter be dispatched. 15Only Yonatan the son of `Asa'el and Yachzeyah the son of Tikvah stood up against this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbetai the Levite helped them.

16The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the Priest, with certain heads of fathers' houses, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. 17They made an end with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.

18Among the sons of the Priests (Kohanim) there were found who had married foreign women: namely, of the sons of Yeshua, the son of Yotzadak, and his brothers, Ma`aseyah, and Eli`ezer, and Yarib, and Gedalyah. 19They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt. 20Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadyah. 21Of the sons of Harim: Ma`aseyah, and EliYaH, and Shemayah, and Yechi'el, and `Uzziyah. 22Of the sons of Pashchur: Elyo`enai, Ma`aseyah, Yishma'el, Netan'el, Yozabad, and El`asah.

23Of the Levites: Yozabad, and Shim`i, and Kelayah (the same is Kelita), Petachyah, Judah (Yahudah), and Eli`ezer. 24Of the singers: Elyashib. Of the porters: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25Of Isreal (Yisrael): Of the sons of Par`osh: Ramyah, and Yizziyah, and Malkiyah, and Miyamin, and Eleazar, and Malkiyah, and Benayah. 26Of the sons of `Elam: Mattanyah, Zekharyah, and Yechi'el, and Abdi, and Yeremot, and EliYaH. 27Of the sons of Zattu: Elyo`enai, Elyashib, Mattanyah, and Yeremot, and Zabad, and Aziza. 28Of the sons of Bebai: Yehochanan, Hananyah, Zakkai, `Atlai. 29Of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Mallukh, and `Adayah, Yashub, and She'al, Ramot. 30Of the sons of Pachat-Moab: `Adna, and Kelal, Benayah, Ma`aseyah, Mattanyah, Betzal'el, and Binnui, and Manasseh (Menashsheh). 31*of* the sons of Harim: Eli`ezer, Yishshiyah, Malkiyah, Shemayah, Simeon (Shimon), 32Benjamin (Binyamin), Mallukh, Shemaryah. 33Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Elifelet, Yeremai, Manasseh (Menashsheh), Shim`i. 34Of the sons of Bani: Ma`adai, `Amram, and U'el, 35Benayah, Bedeyah, Keluhu, 36Vanyah, Meremot, Elyashib, 37Mattanyah, Mattenai, and Ya`asai, 38and Bani, and Binnui, Shim`i, 39and Shelemyah, and Natan, and `Adayah, 40Makhnadvai, Shashai, Sharai, 41Azar'el, and Shelemyah, Shemaryah, 42Shallum, Amaryah, Joseph (Yosef). 43Of the sons of Nebo: Ye`i'el, Mattityah, Zabad, Zebina, Yaddai, and Yo'el, Benayah. 44All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Notes:

Nehemiah
(Nechemyah)

The words of Nechemyah the son of Hakhalyah. Now it happened in the month Kislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, 2that Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah (Yahudah); and I asked them concerning the Jew (Yehudi) who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 3They said to me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) also is broken down, and the gates of it are burned with fire.

4It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven, 5and said, I beg you, YaHWeH, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments (mitzvot): 6Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Isreal (Yisrael) your servants while I confess the sins of the children of Isreal (Yisrael), which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned: 7we have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments (mitzvot), nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses (Moshe). 8Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses (Moshe), saying, If you trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples: 9but if you return to me, and keep my commandments (mitzvot) and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there. 10Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. 11Lord (Adonay), I beg you, let now your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. Now I was cup bearer to the king.

It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artachshasta the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been before sad in his presence. 2The king said to me, Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid. 3I said to the king, Let the king live forever: why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and the gates of it are consumed with fire? 4Then the king said to me, For what do you make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. 5I said to the king, If it please the king, and if your servant have found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah (Yahudah), to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it. 6The king said to me (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall your journey be? and when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. 7Moreover I said to the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah (Yahudah); 8and a letter to Asaf the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the castle which appertains to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. The king granted me, according to the good hand of my God on me.

9Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. 10When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiyah the servant, the `Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Isreal (Yisrael).

11So I came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and was there three days. 12I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); neither was there any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. 13I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), which were broken down, and the gates of it were consumed with fire. 14Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. 15Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. 16The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jew (Yehudi), nor to the Priests (Kohanim), nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.

17Then said I to them, You see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) lies waste, and the gates of it are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), that we be no more a reproach. 18I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for the good work. 19But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiyah the servant, the `Ammonite, and Geshem the Arbian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that you do? will you rebel against the king? 20Then answered I them, and said to them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

Then Elyashib the Priest Gadol rose up with his brothers the Priests (Kohanim), and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even to the tower of Hammeah they sanctified it, to the tower of Hanan'el. 2Next to him built the men of Yericho. Next to them built Zakkur the son of Imri.

3The fish gate did the sons of Sena'ah build; they laid the beams of it, and set up the doors of it, the bolts of it, and the bars of it. 4Next to them repaired Meremot the son of Uriyah, the son of Hakkotz. Next to them repaired Meshullam the son of Berekhyah, the son of Meshezab'el. Next to them repaired Tzadok the son of Ba`anah. 5Next to them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles didn't put their necks to the work of their lord.

6The old gate repaired Yoiada the son of Pase'ach and Meshullam the son of Besodyah; they laid the beams of it, and set up the doors of it, and the bolts of it, and the bars of it. 7Next to them repaired Melatyah the Gibeoni, and Yadon the Meronotite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mitzpah, that appertained to the throne of the governor beyond the River. 8Next to him repaired `Uzzi'el the son of Harchayah, goldsmiths. Next to him repaired Hananyah one of the perfumers, and they fortified Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) even to the broad wall. 9Next to them repaired Refayah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 10Next to them repaired Yedayah the son of Harumaf, over against his house. Next to him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabneyah. 11Malkiyah the son of Harim, and Hashshub the son of Pachat-Moab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. 12Next to him repaired Shallum the son of Hallochesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), he and his daughters.

13The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of ZaNoach; they built it, and set up the doors of it, the bolts of it, and the bars of it, and one thousand cubits of the wall to the dung gate.

14The dung gate repaired Malkiyah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beit-Hakkerem; he built it, and set up the doors of it, the bolts of it, and the bars of it.

15The spring gate repaired Shallun the son of Kolchozeh, the ruler of the district of Mitzpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors of it, the bolts of it, and the bars of it, and the wall of the pool of Shelach by the king's garden, even to the stairs that go down from the city of David. 16After him repaired Nechemyah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beit-Tzur, to the place over against the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. 17After him repaired the Levites, Rechum the son of Bani. Next to him repaired Hashabyah, the ruler of half the district of Ke`ilah, for his district. 18After him repaired their brothers, Bavvai the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Ke`ilah. 19Next to him repaired Etzer the son of Yeshua, the ruler of Mitzpah, another portion, over against the ascent to the armory at the turning of the wall. 20After him Barukh the son of Zakkai earnestly repaired another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Elyashib the Priest Gadol. 21After him repaired Meremot the son of Uriyah the son of Hakkotz another portion, from the door of the house of Elyashib even to the end of the house of Elyashib. 22After him repaired the Priests (Kohanim), the men of the Plain. 23After them repaired Benjamin (Binyamin) and Hashshub over against their house. After them repaired Azaryah the son of Ma`aseyah the son of `Ananyah beside his own house. 24After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another portion, from the house of Azaryah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner. 25Palal the son of Uzai repaired over against the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedayah the son of Par`osh repaired. 26(Now the temple servants lived in `Ofel, to the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.) 27After him the Tekoites repaired another portion, over against the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of `Ofel.

28Above the horse gate repaired the Priests (Kohanim), everyone over against his own house. 29After them repaired Tzadok the son of Immer over against his own house. After him repaired Shemayah the son of Shekhanyah, the keeper of the east gate. 30After him repaired Hananyah the son of Shelemyah, and Hanun the sixth son of Tzalaf, another portion. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berekhyah over against his chamber. 31After him repaired Malkiyah one of the goldsmiths to the house of the temple servants, and of the merchants, over against the gate of Hammifkad, and to the ascent of the corner. 32Between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

But it happened that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jew (Yehudi). [2]He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria (Shomron), and said, What are these feeble Jew (Yehudi) doing? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, seeing they are burned? [3]Now Tobiyah the `Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they are building, if a fox go up, he shall break down their stone wall. [4]Hear, our God; for we are despised: and turn back their reproach on their own head, and give them up for a spoil in a land of captivity; [5]and don't cover their iniquity, and don't let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have provoked you to anger before the builders.

[6]So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half the height of it: for the people had a mind to work.

[7]But it happened that when Sanballat, Tobiyah, the `Aravi'im, the `Ammonim, and the Ashdodi heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) went forward, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very angry; [8]and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and to cause confusion therein. [9]But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

[10]Judah (Yahudah) said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. [11]Our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, until we come into the midst of them, and kill them, and cause the work to cease. [12]It happened that when the Jew (Yehudi) who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, You must return to us. [13]Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set there the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. [14]I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Don't be you afraid of them: remember YaHWeH, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

[15]It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work. [16]It happened from that time forth, that half of my servants worked in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah (Yahudah). [17]They all built the wall and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of his hands worked in the work, and with the other held his weapon; 18and the builders, everyone had his sword girded by his side, and so built. He who sounded the trumpet (shofar) was by me. 19I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another: 20in whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet (shofar), resort you there to us; our God will fight for us.

21So we worked in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. 22Likewise at the same time said I to the people, Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day. 23So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, everyone went with his weapon to the water.

Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jew (Yehudi). 2For there were that said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many: let us get grain, that we may eat and live. 3Some also there were that said, We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses: let us get grain, because of the dearth. 4There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute on our fields and our vineyards. 5Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children: and, behold, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage already: neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards.

6I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. 7Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, You exact usury, everyone of his brother. I held a great assembly against them. 8I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our brothers the Jew (Yehudi), that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us? Then held they their shalom, and found never a word. 9Also I said, The thing that you do is not good: ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? 10I likewise, my brothers and my servants, do lend them money and grain. Please let us leave off this usury. 11Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you exact of them. 12Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say. Then I called the Priests (Kohanim), and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise. 13Also I shook out my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that doesn't perform this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. All the assembly said, Amein, and praised YaHWeH. The people did according to this promise.

14Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah (Yahudah), from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artachshasta the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor. 15But the former governors who were before me were chargeable to the people, and took of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people: but I didn't do so, because of the fear of God. 16Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered there to the work. 17Moreover there were at my table, of the Jew (Yehudi) and the rulers, one hundred fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were round about us. 18Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I didn't demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people. 19Remember to me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

Now it happened, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiyah, and to Geshem the Arbian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates;) 2that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. 3I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down: why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you? 4They sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. 5Then sent Sanballat his servant to me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, 6in which was written, It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jew (Yehudi) think to rebel; for which cause you are building the wall: and you would be their king, according to these words. 7You have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, There is a king in Judah (Yahudah): and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together. 8Then I sent to him, saying, There are no such things done as you say, but you feign them out of your own heart. 9For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, God, strengthen you my hands.

10I went to the house of Shemayah the son of Delayah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you. 11I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. 12I discerned, and, behold, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me: and Tobiyah and Sanballat had hired him. 13For this cause was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me. 14Remember, my God, Tobiyah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess No`adyah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days. 16It happened, when all our enemies heard of it, that all the nations that were about us feared, and were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was worked of our God. 17Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah (Yahudah) sent many letters to Tobiyah, and the letters of Tobiyah came to them. 18For there were many in Judah (Yahudah) sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shekhanyah the son of Arach; and his son Yehochanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berekhyah as wife. 19Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiyah sent letters to put me in fear.

Now it happened, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 2that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananyah the governor of the castle, charge over Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. 3I said to them, Don't let the gates of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand on guard, let them shut the doors, and bar you them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), everyone in his watch, and everyone to be over against his house. 4Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built.

5My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written therein:

6These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) the king of Babel had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and to Judah (Yahudah), everyone to his city; 7who came with ZerubBabel, Yeshua, Nechemyah, Azaryah, Ra`amyah, Nachamani, Mordekhai, Bilshan, Misperet, Bigbai, Nechum, Ba`anah. The number of the men of the people of Isreal (Yisrael): 8The children of Par`osh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two. 9The children of Shefatyah, three hundred seventy-two. 10The children of Arach, six hundred fifty-two. 11The children of Pachat-Moab, of the children of Yeshua and Yo'ab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen. 12The children of `Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. 13The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty-five. 14The children of Zakkai, seven hundred sixty. 15The children of Binnui, six hundred forty-eight. 16The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty-eight. 17The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty-two. 18The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-seven. 19The children of Bigbai, two thousand sixty-seven. 20The children of `Adin, six hundred fifty-five. 21The children of Ater, of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah), ninety-eight. 22The children of Hashum, three hundred Twenty-eight. 23The children of Betzai, three hundred twenty-four. 24The children of Harif, one hundred twelve. 25The children of Gibeon, ninety-five. 26The men of Beit-Lechem and Netofah, one hundred eighty-eight. 27The men of `Anatot, one hundred twenty-eight. 28The men of Beit-`Azmavet, forty-two. 29The men of Kiryat-Ye`arim, Kefirah, and Be'erot, seven hundred forty-three. 30The men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one. 31The men of Mikhmas, one hundred and twenty-two. 32The men of Bethel (Beit-El) and `Ai, a hundred twenty-three. 33The men of the other Nebo, fifty-two. 34The children of the other `Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. 35The children of Harim, three hundred twenty. 36The children of Yericho, three hundred forty-five. 37The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty-one. 38The children of Sena'ah, three thousand nine hundred thirty.

39The Priests (Kohanim): The children of Yedayah, of the house of Yeshua, nine hundred seventy-three. 40The children of Immer, one thousand fifty-two. 41The children of Pashchur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven. 42The children of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.

60All the temple servants, and the children of Solomon (Shlomo)'s servants, were three hundred ninety-two.

61These were those who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, nor their seed, whether they were of Isreal (Yisrael): 62The children of Delayah, the children of Tobiyah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty-two. 63Of the Priests (Kohanim): the children of Havayah, the children of Hakkotz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gil`adite, and was called after their name. 64These sought their register among those who were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. 65The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a Priest with Urim and Tummim.

66The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, 67besides their men-servants and their maid-servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred forty-five singing men and singing women. 68Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; 69*their* camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred twenty.

70Some from among the heads of fathers' houses gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty Priests (Kohanim)' garments. 71Some of the heads of fathers' houses gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. 72That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven Priests (Kohanim)' garments.

73So the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the temple servants, and all Isreal (Yisrael), lived in their cities. When the seventh month was come, the children of Isreal (Yisrael) were in their cities.

All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the Scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses (Moshe), which YaHWeH had commanded to Isreal (Yisrael). 2Ezra the Priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. 3He read therein before the broad place that was before the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. 4Ezra the Scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattityah, and Shema, and `Anayah, and Uriyah, and Hilkiyah, and Ma`aseyah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedayah, and Misha'el, and Malkiyah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zekharyah, and Meshullam. 5Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: 6and Ezra blessed YaHWeH, the great God. All the people answered, Amein, Amein, with the lifting up of their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshiped YaHWeH with their faces to the ground. 7Also Yeshua, and Bani, and Sherebyah, Yamin, Akkub, Shabbetai, Hodiyah, Ma`aseyah, Kelita, Azaryah, Yozabad, Hanan, Pelayah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. 8They read in the book, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading.

9Nechemyah, who was the governor, and Ezra the Priest the Scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, This day is holy to YaHWeH your God; don't mourn, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10Then he said to them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord (Adonay): neither be you grieved; for the joy of YaHWeH is your strength. 11So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your shalom, for the day is holy; neither be you grieved. 12All the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

13On the second day were gathered together the heads of fathers' houses of all the people, the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, to Ezra the Scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law. 14They found written in the law, how that YaHWeH had commanded by Moses (Moshe), that the children of Isreal (Yisrael) should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; 15and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, Go forth to the mountain, and get olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. 16So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, everyone on the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim (Efrayim). 17All the assembly of those who were come again out of the captivity made booths, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Yeshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Isreal (Yisrael) had not done so. There was very great gladness. 18Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

Now in the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Isreal (Yisrael) were assembled with fasting, and with sackcloth, and earth on them. 2The seed of Isreal (Yisrael) separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. 3They stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of YaHWeH their God a fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshiped YaHWeH their God. 4Then stood up on the stairs of the Levites, Yeshua, and Bani, Kadmi'el, Shebanyah, Bunni, Sherebyah, Bani, and Kenani, and cried with a loud voice to YaHWeH their God. 5Then the Levites, Yeshua, and Kadmi'el, Bani, Hashabneyah, Sherebyah, Hodiyah, Shebanyah, and Petachyah, said, Stand up and bless YaHWeH your God from everlasting to everlasting; and blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6You are YaHWeH, even you alone; you have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all things that are thereon, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all; and the host of heaven worships you. 7You are YaHWeH the God, who did choose Abram, and brought him forth out of Ur of the Kasdim, and gave him the name of Abraham, 8and found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites (Kanaan), the Hittite, the Amori, and the Perizzi, and the Yebusites, and the Girgashi, to give it to his seed, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.

9You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt (Mitzrayim), and heard their cry by the Sea of Suf, 10and shown signs and wonders on Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for you knew that they dealt proudly against them, and did get you a name, as it is this day. 11You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers you did cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters. 12Moreover in a pillar of cloud you led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go. 13You came down also on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments (mitzvot), 14and made known to them your holy Shabbat, and commanded them commandments (mitzvot), and statutes, and a law, by Moses (Moshe) your servant, 15and gave them bread from the sky for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commanded those who they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.

16But they and our fathers dealt proudly and hardened their neck, and didn't listen to your commandments (mitzvot), 17and refused to obey, neither were mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and didn't forsake them. 18Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and had committed awful blasphemies; 19yet you in your manifold mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. 20You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and didn't withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. 21Yes, forty years did you sustain them in the wilderness, and they lacked nothing; their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet didn't swell. 22Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you did allot after their portions: so they possessed the land of Sichon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of `Og king of Bashan. 23Their children also multiplied you as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which you did say to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. 24So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites (Kanaan), and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would. 25They took fortified cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance: so they ate, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

26Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against you, and cast your law behind their back, and killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies. 27Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries. 28But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore left you them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times did you deliver them according to your mercies, [29]and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and didn't listen to your commandments (mitzvot), but sinned against your ordinances, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. [30]Yet many years did you bear with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gave you them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. [31]Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God.

[32]Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keep covenant and loving kindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you, that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our Priests (Kohanim), and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Ashshur to this day. [33]However you are just in all that is come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly; [34]neither have our kings, our princes, our Priests (Kohanim), nor our fathers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments (mitzvot) and your testimonies with which you did testify against them. [35]For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and fat land which you gave before them, neither turned they from their wicked works. [36]Behold, we are servants this day, and as for the land that you gave to our fathers to eat the fruit of it and the good of it, behold, we are servants in it. [37]It yields much increase to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. [38]Yet for all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our Priests (Kohanim), seal to it.

Now those who sealed were: Nechemyah the governor, the son of Hakhalyah, and Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah), [2]Serayah, Azaryah, Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), [3]Pashchur, Amaryah, Malkiyah, [4]Hattush, Shebanyah, Mallukh, [5]Harim, Meremot, Obadiah (Obadyah), [6]Daniel (Danitesyel), Ginneton, Barukh, [7]Meshullam, Abiyah, Miyamin, [8]Ma`azyah, Bilgai, Shemayah; these were the Priests (Kohanim). [9]The Levites: namely, Yeshua the son of Azanyah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmi'el; [10]and their brothers, Shebanyah, Hodiyah, Kelita, Pelayah, Hanan, [11]Mikha,Rechob, Hashabyah, [12]Zakkur, Sherebyah, Shebanyah, [13]Hodiyah, Bani, Beninu. [14]The chiefs of the people: Par`osh, Pachat-Moab, `Elam, Zattu, Bani, [15]Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, [16]Adoniyah, Bigbai, `Adin, 17Ater, Hezekiah (Ḥizkiyah), Azur, 18Hodiyah, Hashum, Betzai, 19Harif, `Anatot, Nebai, 20Magpi`ash, Meshullam, Hetzir, 21Meshezab'el, Tzadok, Yaddua, 22Pelatyah, Hanan, `Anayah, 23Hoshea, Hananyah, Hashshub, 24Hallochesh, Pilecha, Shovek, 25Rechum, Hashavnah, Ma`aseyah, 26and Achyah, Hanan, `Anan, 27Mallukh, Harim, Ba`anah.

28The rest of the people, the Priests (Kohanim), the Levites, the porters, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge, and understanding; 29They joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses (Moshe) the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments (mitzvot) of YaHWeH our Lord (Adonay), and his ordinances and his statutes; 30and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; 31and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the day of Shabbat to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Shabbat, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

32Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; 33for the show bread, and for the continual meal-offering, and for the continual burnt-offering, for the Shabbatot, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin-offerings to make atonement for Isreal (Yisrael), and for all the work of the house of our God. 34We cast lots, the Priests (Kohanim), the Levites, and the people, for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of YaHWeH our God, as it is written in the law; 35and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all manner of trees, year by year, to the house of YaHWeH; 36also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the Priests (Kohanim) who minister in the house of our God; 37and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, and our heave-offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, the new wine and the oil, to the Priests (Kohanim), to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. 38The Priest the son of Aharon shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure-house. 39For the children of Isreal (Yisrael) and the children of Levi shall bring the heave-offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the Priests (Kohanim) who minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

11

The princes of the people lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) the holy city, and nine parts in the other cities. 2The people blessed all the men who willingly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

3Now these are the chiefs of the province who lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): but in the cities of Judah (Yahudah) lived everyone in his possession in their cities, to wit, Isreal (Yisrael), the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and the temple servants, and the children of Solomon (Shlomo)'s servants. 4In Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) lived certain of the children of Judah (Yahudah), and of the children of Benjamin (Binyamin). Of the children of Judah (Yahudah): `Atayah the son of `Uzziyah, the son of Zekharyah, the son of Amaryah, the son of Shefatyah, the son of Mahalal'el, of the children of Pearth; 5and Ma`aseyah the son of Barukh, the son of Kolchozeh, the son of Hazayah, the son of `Adayah, the son of Yoiarib, the son of Zekharyah, the son of the Shiloni. 6All the sons of Pearth who lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) were four hundred sixty-eight valiant men.

7These are the sons of Benjamin (Binyamin): Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Yo`ed, the son of Pedayah, the son of Kolayah, the son of Ma`aseyah, the son of 'Iti'el, the son of Yesha`yah. 8After him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty-eight. 9Yo'el the son of Zikhri was their overseer; and Judah (Yahudah) the son of Senu'ah was second over the city.

10Of the Priests (Kohanim): Yedayah the son of Yoiarib, Yakhin, 11Serayah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Tzadok, the son of Merayot, the son of Achitub, the ruler of the house of God, 12and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two; and `Adayah the son of Yerocham, the son of Pelalyah, the son of Amtzi, the son of Zekharyah, the son of Pashchur, the son of Malkiyah, 13and his brothers, chiefs of fathers' houses, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azar'el, the son of Achzai, the son of Meshillemot, the son of Immer, 14and their brothers, mighty men of valor, one hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdi'el, the son of Haggedolim.

15Of the Levites: Shemayah the son of Hashshub, the son of `Azrikam, the son of Hashabyah, the son of Bunni; 16and Shabbetai and Yozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God; 17and Mattanyah the son of Mikha, the son of Zavdi, the son of Asaf, who was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukyah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Yedutun. 18All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty-four.

19Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred seventy-two. 20The residue of Isreal (Yisrael), of the Priests (Kohanim), the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah (Yahudah), everyone in his inheritance. 21But the temple servants lived in `Ofel: and Tzicha and Gishpa were over the temple servants.

22The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) was `Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabyah, the son of Mattanyah, the son of Mikha, of the sons of Asaf, the singers, over the business of the house of God. 23For there was a word from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required.
24Petachyah the son of Meshezab'el, of the children of Zerach the son of Judah (Yahudah), was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25As for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah (Yahudah) lived in Kiryat-Arba and the towns of it, and in Dibon and the towns of it, and in Yekavtze'el and the villages of it, 26and in Yeshua, and in Moladah, and Beit-Pelet, 27and in Hatzar-Shu`al, and in Be'er-Sheba and the towns of it, 28and in Tziklag, and in Mekhonah and in the towns of it, 29and in En-rimmon, and in Tyrus (Tzor)`ah, and in Yarmut, 30ZaNoach, `Adullam, and their villages, Lakhish and the fields of it, `Azeka and the towns of it. So they encamped from Be'er-Sheba to the valley of Hinnom. 31The children of Benjamin (Binyamin) also lived from Geba onward, at Mikhmash and Ayah, and at Bethel (Beit-El) and the towns of it, 32at `Anatot, Nob, `Ananyah, 33Hatzor, Ramah, Gittayim, 34Hadid, Tzevo`im, NEbalat, 35Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. 36Of the Levites, certain courses in Judah (Yahudah) were joined to Benjamin (Binyamin).

12

Now these are the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites who went up with ZerubBabel the son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua: Serayah, Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), Ezra, 2Amaryah, Mallukh, Hattush, 3Shekhanyah, Rechum, Meremot, 4`Iddo, Ginnetoi, Abiyah, 5Miyamin, Ma`adyah, Bilgah, 6Shemayah, and Yoiarib, Yedayah. 7Sallu, `Amok, Hilkiyah, Yedayah. These were the chiefs of the Priests (Kohanim) and of their brothers in the days of Yeshua.

8Moreover the Levites: Yeshua, Binnui, Kadmi'el, Sherebyah, Judah (Yahudah), and Mattanyah, who was over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers. 9Also Bakbukyah and Unno, their brothers, were over against them according to their offices. 10Yeshua became the father of Yoiakim, and Yoiakim became the father of Elyashib, and Elyashib became the father of Yoiada, 11and Yoiada became the father of Yonatan, and Yonatan became the father of Yaddua.

12In the days of Yoiakim were Priests (Kohanim), heads of fathers' houses: of Serayah, Merayah; of Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), Hananyah; 13of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amaryah, Yehochanan; 14of Malluchi, Yonatan; of Shebanyah, Joseph (Yosef); 15of Harim, `Adna; of Merayot, Helkai; 16of `Iddo, Zekharyah; of Ginneton, Meshullam; 17of Abiyah, Zikhri; of Minyamin, of Mo`adyah, Piltai; 18of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemayah, Yehonatan; 19and of Yoiarib, Mattenai; of Yedayah, `Uzzi; 20of Sallai, Kallai; of `Amok, Eber; 21of Hilkiyah, Hashabyah; of Yedayah, Netan'el.

22As for the Levites, in the days of Elyashib, Yoiada, and Yochanan, and Yaddua, there were recorded the heads of fathers' houses; also the Priests (Kohanim), in the reign of Darius (DarYabesh) the Persian. 23The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' houses, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Yochanan the son of Elyashib. 24The chiefs of the Levites: Hashabyah, Sherebyah, and Yeshua the son of Kadmi'el, with their brothers over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the word of David the man of God, watch next to watch. 25Mattanyah, and Bakbukyah, Obadiah (Obadyah), Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the watch at the store-houses of the gates. 26These were in the days of Yoiakim the son of Yeshua, the son of Yotzadak, and in the days of Nechemyah the governor, and of Ezra the Priest the Scribe.

27At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. 28The sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain round about Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and from the villages of the Netofati; 29also from Beit-Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and `Azmavet: for the singers had built them villages round about Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 30The Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31Then I brought up the princes of Judah (Yahudah) on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession; whereof one went on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate: 32and after them went Hosha`yah, and half of the princes of Judah (Yahudah), 33and Azaryah, Ezra, and Meshullam, 34Judah (Yahudah), and Benjamin (Binyamin), and Shemayah, and Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), 35and certain of the Priests (Kohanim)' sons with trumpets: Zekharyah the son of Yonatan, the son of Shemayah, the son of Mattanyah, the son of Mikhayah, the son of Zakkur, the son of Asaf; 36and his brothers, Shemayah, and Azar'el, Milalai, Gilalai, Ma`ai, Netan'el, and Judah (Yahudah), Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the Scribe was before them. 37By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water gate eastward.

38The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the broad wall, 39and above the gate of Ephraim (Efrayim), and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hanan'el, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard. 40So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; 41and the Priests (Kohanim), Elyakim, Ma`aseyah, Minyamin, Mikhayah, Elyo`enai, Zekharyah, and Hananyah, with trumpets; 42and Ma`aseyah, and Shemayah, and Eleazar, and `Uzzi, and Yehochanan, and Malkiyah, and `Elam, and Etzer. The singers sang loud, with Yizrachyah their overseer. 43They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) was heard even afar off.

44On that day were men appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the heave-offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the Priests (Kohanim) and Levites: for Judah (Yahudah) rejoiced for the Priests (Kohanim) and for the Levites who waited. 45They kept the charge of their God, and the charge of the purification, and so did the singers and the porters, according to the word of David, and of Solomon (Shlomo) his son. 46For in the days of David and Asaf of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. 47All Isreal (Yisrael) in the days of ZerubBabel, and in the days of Nechemyah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aharon.

On that day they read in the book of Moses (Moshe) in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that an `Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, 2because they didn't meet the children of Isreal (Yisrael) with bread and with water, but hired Bil`am against them, to curse them: however our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Isreal (Yisrael) all the mixed multitude.

4Now before this, Elyashib the Priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiyah, [5]had prepared for him a great chamber, where before they laid the meal-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by word to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the heave-offerings for the Priests (Kohanim). [6]But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); for in the two and thirtieth year of Artachshasta king of Babel I went to the king: and after certain days asked I leave of the king, [7]and I came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and understood the evil that Elyashib had done for Tobiyah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God. [8]It grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiyah out of the chamber. [9]Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and there brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal-offerings and the frankincense.

[10]I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, were fled everyone to his field. [11]Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? I gathered them together, and set them in their place. [12]Then brought all Judah (Yahudah) the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. [13]I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemyah the Priest, and Tzadok the Scribe, and of the Levites, Pedayah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zakkur, the son of Mattanyah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers. [14]Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the observances of it.

[15]In those days saw I in Judah (Yahudah) some men treading wine-presses on the Shabbat, and bringing in sheaves, and lading donkeys therewith; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) on the day of Shabbat: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. [16]There lived men of Tyrus (Tzor) also therein, who brought in fish, and all manner of wares, and sold on the Shabbat to the children of Judah (Yahudah), and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [17]Then I contended with the nobles of Judah (Yahudah), and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the day of Shabbat? [18]Didn't your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this evil on us, and on this city? yet you bring more wrath on Isreal (Yisrael) by profaning the Shabbat.

[19]It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) began to be dark before the Shabbat, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Shabbat: and some of my servants set I over the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the day of Shabbat. [20]So the merchants and sellers of all kind of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) once or twice. [21]Then I testified against them, and said to them, Why lodge you about the wall? if you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the Shabbat. [22]I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the day of Shabbat. Remember to me, my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness.

[23]In those days also saw I the Jew (Yehudi) who had married women of Ashdod, of `Ammon, and of Moab: [24]and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jew (Yehudi)' language, but according to the language of each people. [25]I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. [26]Did not Solomon (Shlomo) king of Isreal (Yisrael) sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Isreal (Yisrael): nevertheless even him did foreign women cause to sin. [27]Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?

[28]One of the sons of Yoiada, the son of Elyashib the Priest Gadol, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. [29]Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

[30]Thus cleansed I them from all foreigners, and appointed charges for the Priests (Kohanim) and for the Levites, everyone in his work; [31]and for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

[17]The sons of Shem: `Elam, and Ashshur, and Arpakhshad, and Lud, and Aram, and `Utz, and Hul, and Geter, and Meshekh. [18]Arpakhshad became the father of Shelach, and Shelach became the father of Eber. [19]To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg; for in his days the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Yoktan. [20]Yoktan became the father of Almodad, and Shelef, and Hatzarmavat, and Yerach, [21]and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah, [22]and `Ebal, and Abima'el, and Sheba, [23]and Ofir, and Havilah, and Yobab. All these were the sons of Yoktan.

[24]Shem, Arpakhshad, Shelach, [25]Eber, Peleg, Re`u, [26]Serug, Nachor, Terach, [27]Abram (the same is Abraham).

28The sons of Abraham: Isaac (Yitzchak), and Yishma'el. 29These are their generations: the firstborn of Yishma'el, Nebayot; then Kedar, and Adbe'el, and Mibsam, 30Mishma, and Dumah, Massa, Hadad, and Tema, 31Yetur, Nafish, and Kedemah. These are the sons of Yishma'el. 32The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, and Yokshan, and Medan, and Midyan, and Yishbak, and Shuach. The sons of Yokshan:
Sheba, and Dedan. 33The sons of Midyan: `Efah, and `Efer, and Enoch (Chanok), and Abida, and Elda`ah. All these were the sons of Keturah.

34Abraham became the father of Isaac (Yitzchak). The sons of Isaac (Yitzchak):
Esaw, and Isreal (Yisrael). 35The sons of Esaw: Elifaz, Re`u'el, and Ye`ush, and Ya`lam, and Korach. 36The sons of Elifaz: Teman, and Omar, Tzefi, and Ga`tam, Kenaz, and Timna, and `Amalek. 37The sons of Re`u'el: Nachat, Zerach, Shammah, and Mizzah.

38The sons of Se`ir: Lotan, and Shobal, and Tzib`on, and `Anah, and Dishon, and Etzer, and Dishan. 39The sons of Lotan: Hori, and Homam; and Timna was Lotan's sister.
40The sons of Shobal: `Alyan, and Manachat, and `Ebal, Shefi, and Onam. The sons of Tzib`on: Ayah, and `Anah. 41The sons of `Anah: Dishon. The sons of Dishon: Hamran, and Eshban, and Yitran, and Keran. 42The sons of Etzer: Bilhan, and Za`avan, Ya`akan.
The sons of Dishan: `Utz, and Aran.

43Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before there resigned any king over the children of Isreal (Yisrael): Bela the son of Be'or; and the name of his city was Dinhaba. 44Bela died, and Yobab the son of Zerach of Botzrah reigned in his place. 45Yobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temani reigned in his place.
46Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midyan in the field of Moab, reigned in his place; and the name of his city was `Avit. 47Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. 48Samlah died, and Sha'ul of Rechobot by the River reigned in his place. 49Sha'ul died, and Ba`al-Hanan the son of `Akhbor reigned in his place. 50Ba`al-Hanan died, and Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai: and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab. 51Hadad died. The chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief `Alvah, chief Yetet, 52chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, 53chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mivtzar, 54chief Magdi'el, chief `Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

2

These are the sons of Isreal (Yisrael): Reuben, Simeon (Shimon), Levi, and Judah (Yahudah), Issacher (Yissakhar), and Zebulun, 2Dan, Joseph (Yosef), and Benjamin (Binyamin), Naftali, Gad, and Asher. 3The sons of Judah (Yahudah): `Er, and Onan, and Shelach; which three were born to him of Shu`a's daughter the Canaanites (Kanaan)te.

`Er, Judah (Yahudah)'s firstborn, was wicked in the sight of YaHWeH; and he killed him.
4Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Pearth and Zerach. All the sons of Judah (Yahudah) were five.

5The sons of Pearth: Hetzron, and Hamul. 6The sons of Zerach: Zimri, and Etan, and Heman, and Kalkol, and Dara; five of them in all. 7The sons of Karmi: `Akar, the troubler of Isreal (Yisrael), who committed a trespass in the devoted thing. 8The sons of Etan: Azaryah.

9The sons also of Hetzron, who were born to him: Yerachme'el, and Ram, and Keluvai. 10Ram became the father of `AmmiNadab, and `AmmiNadab became the father of Nachshon, prince of the children of Judah (Yahudah); 11and Nachshon became the father of Salma, and Salma became the father of Bo`az, 12and Bo`az became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse (Yishay); 13and Jesse (Yishay) became the father of his firstborn Eli'ab, and Abinadab the second, and Shim`a the third, 14Netan'el the fourth, Raddai the fifth, 15Otzem the sixth, David the seventh; 16and their sisters were Tzeru'yah and Abigayil. The sons of Tzeru'yah: Abishai, and Yo'ab, and `Asa'el, three.
17Abigayil bore `Amasa; and the father of `Amasa was Yeter the Yishme`elite.

18Caleb the son of Hetzron became the father of children of Azubah his wife, and of Yeri`ot; and these were her sons: Yesher, and SHobab, and Ardon. 19Azubah died, and Caleb took to him Efrat, who bore him Hur. 20Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Betzal'el.

21Afterward Hetzron went in to the daughter of Makhir the father of Gil`ad, whom he took as wife when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Seguv. 22Seguv became the father of Ya'ir, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gil`ad. 23Geshur and Aram took the towns of Ya'ir from them, with Kenat, and the villages of it, even sixty cities. All these were the sons of Makhir the father of Gil`ad. 24After that Hetzron was dead in Caleb-Efratah, then Abiyah Hetzron's wife bore him Ashshur the father of Tekoa.

25The sons of Yerachme'el the firstborn of Hetzron were Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Otzem, Achiyah. 26Yerachme'el had another wife, whose name was `Atarah; she was the mother of Onam. 27The sons of Ram the firstborn of Yerachme'el were Ma`atz, and Yamin, and `Eker. 28The sons of Onam were Shammai, and Yada. The sons of Shammai: Nadab, and Abishur. 29The name of the wife of Abishur was Abichayil; and she bore him Achban, and Molid. 30The sons of Nadab: Seled, and Appayim; but Seled died without children. 31The sons of Appayim: Yish`i. The sons of Yish`i: Sheshan.
The sons of Sheshan: Achlai. 32The sons of Yada the brother of Shammai: Yeter, and Yonatan; and Yeter died without children. 33The sons of Yonatan: Pelet, and Zaza. These were the sons of Yerachme'el. 34Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. Sheshan had a servant, a Egyptian (Mitzrian), whose name was Yarcha. 35Sheshan gave his daughter to Yarcha his servant as wife; and she bore him `Attai. 36`Attai became the father of Natan, and Natan became the father of Zabad, 37and Zabad became the father of Eflal, and Eflal became the father of Obed, 38and Obed became the father of Yehu, and Yehu became the father of Azaryah, 39and Azaryah became the father of Heletz, and Heletz became the father of El`asah, 40and El`asah became the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum, 41and Shallum became the father of Yekamyah, and Yekamyah became the father of Elishama.

42The sons of Caleb the brother of Yerachme'el were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Zif; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. 43The sons of Hebron: Korach, and Tappuach, and Rekem, and Shema. 44Shema became the father of Racham, the father of Yorke`am; and Rekem became the father of Shammai. 45The son of Shammai was Ma`on; and Ma`on was the father of Beit-Tzur. 46`Efah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, and Motzah, and Gazez; and Haran became the father of Gazez. 47The sons of Yohdai: Regem, and Yotam, and Geshan, and Pelet, and `Efah, and Sha`af. 48Ma`akhah, Caleb's concubine, bore SHeber and Tirchanah. 49She bore also Sha`af the father of Madmannah, Sheba the father of Makhbena, and the father of Giv'ah; and the daughter of Caleb was `Akhsah. 50These were the sons of Caleb,

The son of Hur, the firstborn of Efratah: Shobal the father of Kiryat-Ye`arim, 51Salma the father of Beit-Lechem, Haref the father of Beit-Gader. 52Shobal the father of Kiryat-Ye`arim had sons: Haro'e, half of the Menuchot. 53The families of Kiryat-Ye`arim: The Yitri, and the Puti, and the Shumati, and the Mishra`i; of them came the Tyrus (Tzor)`ati and the Eshta'uli. 54The sons of Salma: Beit-Lechem, and the Netofati, Atrot-Beit-Yo'ab, and half of the Manachati, the Tyrus (Tzor)`i. 55The families of Sofrim who lived at Ya`betz: the Tir`atim, the Shim`atim, the Sukhatim. These are the Kinim who came of Hammat, the father of the house of Rechab.

Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn, Amnon, of Achino'am the Yizreelitete; the second, Daniel (Danitesyel), of Abigayil the Karmelite; 2the third, Abshalom the son of Ma`akhah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggit; 3the fifth, Shefatyah of Abital; the sixth, Yitre`am by `Eglah his wife: 4six were born to him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months. In Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) he reigned thirty-three years; 5and these were born to him in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): Shim`a, and SHobab, and Natan, and Solomon (Shlomo), four, of Bat-Shua the daughter of `Ammi'el; 6and Yibchar, and Elishama, and Elifelet, 7and Nogah, and Nefeg, and Yafia, 8and Elishama, and Elyada, and Elifelet, nine. 9All these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister.

10Solomon (Shlomo)'s son was Rechab`am, Abiyah his son, Asa his son, Yehoshafat his son, 11Yoram his son, Achazyah his son, Yo'ash his son, 12Amatzyah his son, Azaryah his son, Yotam his son, 13Achaz his son, Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) his son, Manasseh (Menashsheh) his son, 14Amon his son, Josiah (Yoshiyah) his son. 15The sons of Josiah (Yoshiyah): the firstborn Yochanan, the second Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) , the third Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah), the fourth Shallum. 16The sons of Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) : Yekhonyah his son, Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah) his son. 17The sons of Yekhonyah, the captive: She'alti'el his son, 18and Malkiram, and Pedayah, and Shenazzar, Yekamyah, Hoshama, and Nedabyah. 19The sons of Pedayah: ZerubBabel, and Shim`i. The sons of ZerubBabel: Meshullam, and Hananyah; and Shelomit was their sister; 20and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berekhyah, and Hasadyah, Yushav-Hesed, five. 21The sons of Hananyah: Pelatyah, and Yesha`yah; the sons of Refayah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah (Obadyah), the sons of Shekhanyah. 22The sons of Shekhanyah: Shemayah. The sons of Shemayah: Hattush, and Yig'al, and Bariach, and Ne`aryah, and Shafat, six. 23The sons of Ne`aryah: Elyo`enai, and Hizkiah, and `Azrikam, three. 24The sons of Elyo`enai: Hodabyah, and Elyashib, and Pelayah, and Akkub, and Yochanan, and Delayah, and `Anani, seven.

The sons of Judah (Yahudah): Pearth, Hetzron, and Karmi, and Hur, and Shobal. 2Re'ayah the son of Shobal became the father of Yachat; and Yachat became the father of Achumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Tyrus (Tzor)`ati. 3These were the sons of the father of `Etam: Yizreel, and Yishma, and Yidbash; and the name of their sister was Hatztzelel-Poni; 4and Penu'el the father of Gedor, and Etzer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Efratah, the father of Beit-Lechem. 5Ashshur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Hel'ah and Na`arah. 6Na`arah bore him Achuzzam, and Hefer, and Timni, and Achashtari. These were the sons of Na`arah. 7The sons of Hel'ah were Tzeret, Tzochar, and Etnan. 8Kotz became the father of Anub, and Tzobebah, and the families of Acharchel the son of Harum. 9Ya`betz was more honorable than his brothers: and his mother named him Ya`betz, saying, Because I bore him with sorrow. 10Ya`betz called on the God of Isreal (Yisrael), saying, Oh that you would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that your hand might be with me, and that you would keep me from evil, that it not be to my sorrow! God granted him that which he requested. 11Kelub the brother of Shuchah became the father of Mechir, who was the father of Eshton. 12Eshton became the father of Beit-Rafa, and Pase'ach, and Techinnah the father of Ir-Nachash. These are the men of Rekhah. 13The sons of Kenaz: `Otni'el, and Serayah. The sons of `Otni'el: Hatat. 14Me`onotai became the father of Ofrat: and Serayah became the father of Yo'ab the father of Ge-Harashim; for they were craftsmen. 15The sons of Caleb the son of Yefunneh: Iru, Elah, and Na`am; and the sons of Elah; and Kenaz. 16The sons of Yehallel'el: Zif, and Zifah, Tiryah, and Asar'el. 17The sons of Ezrah: Yeter, and Mered, and `Efer, and Yalon; and she bore Miryam, and Shammai, and Yishbach the father of Eshtemoa. 18His wife Yehudiyah bore Yared the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Sokho, and Yekuti'el the father of ZaNoach. These are the sons of Bityah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. 19The sons of the wife of Hodiyah, the sister of Nacham, were the father of Ke`ilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Ma`akhatite. 20The sons of Shimon: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon. The sons of Yish`i: Zochet, and Ben-Zochet. 21The sons of Shelah, the son of Judah (Yahudah): `Er the father of Lekha, and La`adah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, of the house of Ashbea; 22and Yokim, and the men of Kozeba, and Yo'ash, and Saraf, who had dominion in Moab, and Yashubi-Lechem. The records are ancient. 23These were the potters, and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah: there they lived with the king for his work.

24The sons of Simeon (Shimon): Nemu'el, and Yamin, Yarib, Zerach, Sha'ul; 25Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. 26The sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zakkur his son, Shim`i his son. 27Shim`i had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers didn't have many children, neither did all their family multiply like the children of Judah (Yahudah). 28They lived at Be'er-Sheba, and Moladah, and Hatzar-Shu`al, 29and at Bilhah, and at `Etzem, and at Tolad, 30and at Betu'el, and at Hormah, and at Tziklag, 31and at Beit-Markavot, and Hatzar-Susim, and at Beit-Bir'i, and at Sha`arayim. These were their cities to the reign of David. 32Their villages were `Etam, and `Ayin, Rimmon, and Tokhen, and `Ashan, five cities; 33and all their villages that were round about the same cities, to Ba`al. These were their habitations, and they have their genealogy.

34MesHobab, and Yamlekh, and Yoshah the son of Amatzyah, 35and Yo'el, and Yehu the son of Yoshibyah, the son of Serayah, the son of `Asi'el, 36and Elyo`enai, and Jacob (Yakob)ah, and Yeshochayah, and `Asayah, and `Adi'el, and Yesimi'el, and Benayah, 37and Ziza the son of Shif`i, the son of Allon, the son of Yedayah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemayah—38these mentioned by name were princes in their families: and their fathers' houses increased greatly. 39They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. 40They found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for those who lived there before were of Ham. 41These written by name came in the days of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) king of Judah (Yahudah), and struck their tents, and the Me`unim who were found there, and destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place; because there was pasture there for their flocks. 42Some of them, even of the sons of Simeon (Shimon), five hundred men, went to Mount Se`ir, having for their captains Pelatyah, and Ne`aryah, and Refayah, and `Uzzi'el, the sons of Yish`i. 43They struck the remnant of the `Amaleki who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Isreal (Yisrael) (for he was the firstborn; but, because he defiled his father's couch, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph (Yosef) the son of Isreal (Yisrael); and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. 2For Judah (Yahudah) prevailed above his brothers, and of him came the prince; but the birthright was Joseph (Yosef)'s:) 3the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Isreal (Yisrael): Enoch (Chanok), and Pallu, Hetzron, and Karmi. 4The sons of Yo'el: Shemayah his son, Gog his son, Shim`i his son, 5Mikhah his son, Re'ayah his son, Ba`al his son, 6Be'erah his son, whom Tilgat-Pilne'eser king of Ashshur carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenite. 7His brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned: the chief, Ye`i'el, and Zekharyah, 8and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Yo'el, who lived in `Aro`er, even to Nebo and Ba`al-Me`on: 9and eastward he lived even to the entrance of the wilderness from the river Perat, because their cattle were multiplied in the land of Gil`ad. 10In the days of Sha'ul, they made war with the Hagrim, who fell by their hand; and they lived in their tents throughout all the land east of Gil`ad.

11The sons of Gad lived over against them, in the land of Bashan to Salkhah: 12Yo'el the chief, and Shafam the second, and Ya`nai, and Shafat in Bashan. 13Their brothers of their fathers' houses: Mikha'el, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Yorai, and Ya`kan, and Zia, and Eber, seven. 14These were the sons of Abichayil, the son of Huri, the son of Yao`ach, the son of Gil`ad, the son of Mikha'el, the son of Yeshishai, the son of Yachdo, the son of Buz; 15Achi the son of Abdi'el, the son of Guni, chief of their fathers' houses. 16They lived in Gil`ad in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, as far as their borders. 17All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Yotam king of Judah (Yahudah), and in the days of Yarobam king of Isreal (Yisrael).

18The sons of Reuben, and the Gadite, and the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh), of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty, that were able to go forth to war. 19They made war with the Hagrim, with Yetur, and Nafish, and Nodab. 20They were helped against them, and the Hagrim were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them, because they put their trust in him. 21They took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred fifty thousand, and of donkeys two thousand, and of men one hundred thousand. 22For there fell many slain, because the war was of God. They lived in their place until the captivity.

23The children of the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh) lived in the land: they increased from Bashan to Ba`al-Hermon, and Senir and Mount Hermon,. 24These were the heads of their fathers' houses: even `Efer, and Yish`i, and Eli'el, and `Azri'el, and Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), and Hodabyah, and Yachdi'el, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' houses. 25They trespassed against the God of their fathers, and played the prostitute after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God destroyed before them. 26The God of Isreal (Yisrael) stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Ashshur, and the spirit of Tilgat-Pilne'eser king of Ashshur, and he carried them away, even the Reubenite, and the Gadite, and the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh), and brought them to Halach, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kehat, and Merari. 2The sons of Kehat: `Amram, Yitzhar, and Hebron, and `Uzzi'el. 3The children of `Amram: Aharon, and Moses (Moshe), and Miryam. The sons of Aharon: Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Itamar.
4Eleazar became the father of Pinechas, Pinechas became the father of Abishua, 5and Abishua became the father of Bukki, and Bukki became the father of `Uzzi, 6and `Uzzi became the father of Zerachyah, and Zerachyah became the father of Merayot, 7Merayot became the father of Amaryah, and Amaryah became the father of Achitub, 8and Achitub became the father of Tzadok, and Tzadok became the father of Achima`atz, 9and Achima`atz became the father of Azaryah, and Azaryah became the father of Yochanan, 10and Yochanan became the father of Azaryah, (he it is who executed the Priest's office in the house that Solomon (Shlomo) built in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)), 11and Azaryah became the father of Amaryah, and Amaryah became the father of Achitub, 12and Achitub became the father of Tzadok, and Tzadok became the father of Shallum, 13and Shallum became the father of Hilkiyah, and Hilkiyah became the father of Azaryah, 14and Azaryah became the father of Serayah, and Serayah became the father of Yehotzadak; 15Yehotzadak went into captivity, when YaHWeH carried away Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar).

16The sons of Levi: Gershom, Kehat, and Merari. 17These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Libni and Shim`i. 18The sons of Kehat were `Amram, and Yitzhar, and Hebron, and `Uzzi'el. 19The sons of Merari: Machli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses. 20Of Gershom: Libni his son, Yachat his son, Zimmah his son, 21Yo'ach his son, `Iddo his son, Zerach his son, Ye'aterai his son. 22The sons of Kehat: `AmmiNadab his son, Korach his son, Assir his son, 23Elkana his son, and Abi'asaf his son, and Assir his son, 24Tachat his son, Uri'el his son, `Uzziyah his son, and Sha'ul his son. 25The sons of Elkana: `Amasai, and Achimot. 26As for Elkana, the sons of Elkana: Tzafai his son, and Nachat his son, 27Eli'ab his son, Yerocham his son, Elkana his son. 28The sons of Samuel (Shemu'el): the firstborn Yo'el, and the second Abiyah. 29The sons of Merari: Machli, Libni his son, Shim`i his son, Uzzah his son, 30Shim`a his son, Haggiyah his son, `Asayah his son.

31These are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of YaHWeH, after that the ark had rest. 32They ministered with song before the tent of the tent of meeting, until Solomon (Shlomo) had built the house of YaHWeH in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and they waited on their office according to their order. 33These are those who waited, and their sons. Of the sons of the Kehati: Heman the singer, the son of Yo'el, the son of Samuel (Shemu'el), 34the son of Elkana, the son of Yerocham, the son of Eli'el, the son of To'ach, 35the son of Tzuf, the son of Elkana, the son of Machat, the son of `Amasai, 36the son of Elkana, the son of Yo'el, the son of Azaryah, the son of Tzefanyah, 37the son of Tachat, the son of Assir, the son of Abi'asaf, the son of Korach, 38the son of Yitzhar, the son of Kehat, the son of Levi, the son of Isreal (Yisrael). 39His brother Asaf, who stood on his right hand, even Asaf the son of Berekhyah, the son of Shim`a, 40the son of Mikha'el, the son of Ba`aseyah, the son of Malkiyah, 41the son of Etni, the son of Zerach, the son of `Adayah, 42the son of Etan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shim`i, 43the son of Yachat, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi. 44On the left hand their brothers the sons of Merari: Etan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Mallukh, 45the son of Hashabyah, the son of Amatzyah, the son of Hilkiyah, 46the son of Amtzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, 47the son of Machli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. 48Their brothers the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tent of the house of God.

49But Aharon and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Isreal (Yisrael), according to all that Moses (Moshe) the servant of God had commanded. 50These are the sons of Aharon: Eleazar his son, Pinechas his son, Abishua his son, 51Bukki his son, `Uzzi his son, Zerachyah his son, 52Merayot his son, Amaryah his son, Achitub his son, 53Tzadok his son, Achima`atz his son.

54Now these are their dwelling-places according to their encampments in their borders: to the sons of Aharon, of the families of the Kehati (for theirs was the first lot), 55to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah (Yahudah), and the suburbs of it round about it; 56but the fields of the city, and the villages of it, they gave to Caleb the son of Yefunneh. 57To the sons of Aharon they gave the cities of refuge, Hebron; Libna also with its suburbs, and Yattir, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs, 58and Hilen with its suburbs, Devir with its suburbs, 59and `Ashan with its suburbs, and Beth-shemesh with its suburbs; 60and out of the tribe of Benjamin (Binyamin), Geba with its suburbs, and `Allemet with its suburbs, and `Anatot with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

61To the rest of the sons of Kehat were given by lot, out of the family of the tribe, out of the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh (Menashsheh), ten cities. 62To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, out of the tribe of Issacher (Yissakhar), and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naftali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh) in Bashan, thirteen cities. 63To the sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. 64The children of Isreal (Yisrael) gave to the Levites the cities with their suburbs. 65They gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah (Yahudah), and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon (Shimon), and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin (Binyamin), these cities which are mentioned by name.

71To the sons of Gershom were given, out of the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh), Galon in Bashan with its suburbs, and `Ashtarot with its suburbs; 72and out of the tribe of Issacher (Yissakhar), Kedesh with its suburbs, Daberat with its suburbs, 73and Ramot with its suburbs, and `Anam with its suburbs; 74and out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its suburbs, and `Abdon with its suburbs, 75and Hukok with its suburbs, andRechob with its suburbs; 76and out of the tribe of Naftali, Kedesh in the Galil with its suburbs, and Hammon with its suburbs, and Kiryatayim with its suburbs. 77To the rest of the Levites, the sons of Merari, were given, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono with its suburbs, Tavor with its suburbs; 78and beyond the Jordan (Yarden) at Yericho, on the east side of the Jordan (Yarden), were given them, out of the tribe of Reuben, Betzer in the wilderness with its suburbs, and Yahtzah with its suburbs, 79and Kedemot with its suburbs, and Mefa`at with its suburbs; 80and out of the tribe of Gad, Ramot in Gil`ad with its suburbs, and Machanayim with its suburbs, 81and Heshbon with its suburbs, and Ya`zer with its suburbs.

Of the sons of Issacher (Yissakhar): Tola, and Pu`ah, Yashub, and Shimron, four. 2The sons of Tola: `Uzzi, and Refayah, and Yeri'el, and Yachmai, and Yibsam, and Samuel (Shemu'el), heads of their fathers' houses, to wit, of Tola; mighty men of valor in their generations: their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

3The sons of `Uzzi: Yizrachyah. The sons of Yizrachyah: Mikha'el, and Obadiah (Obadyah), and Yo'el, Yishshiyah, five; all of them chief men. 4With them, by their generations, after their fathers' houses, were bands of the host for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many wives and sons. 5Their brothers among all the families of Issacher (Yissakhar), mighty men of valor, reckoned in all by genealogy, were eighty-seven thousand.

6*The sons of* Benjamin (Binyamin): Bela, and Bekher, and Yedi`a'el, three. 7The sons of Bela: Etzbon, and `Uzzi, and `Uzzi'el, and Yerimot, and Iri, five; heads of fathers' houses, mighty men of valor; and they were reckoned by genealogy twenty-two thousand thirty-four. 8The sons of Bekher: Zemirah, and Yo'ash, and Eli`ezer, and Elyo`enai, and `Omri, and Yeremot, and Abiyah, and `Anatot, and `Alemet. All these were the sons of Bekher. 9They were reckoned by genealogy, after their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, twenty thousand two hundred. 10The sons of Yedi`a'el: Bilhan. The sons of Bilhan: Ye`ush, and Benjamin (Binyamin), and Ehud, and Kena`anah, and Zetan, and Tarshish, and Achishachar. 11All these were sons of Yedi`a'el, according to the heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, seventeen thousand and two hundred, who were able to go forth in the host for war. 12Shuppim also, and Huppim, the sons of Ir, Hushim, the sons of Acher.

13The sons of Naftali: Yachtziel, and Guni, and Yetzer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

14The sons of Manasseh (Menashsheh): Asri'el, whom his concubine the Arammian bore: she bore Makhir the father of Gil`ad: 15and Makhir took a wife of Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister's name was Ma`akhah; and the name of the second was Tzelohchad: and Tzelohchad had daughters. 16Ma`akhah the wife of Makhir bore a son, and she named him Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. 17The sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gil`ad the son of Makhir, the son of Manasseh (Menashsheh). 18His sister Hammolekhet bore Ishhod, and Abi-Ezer, and Machlah. 19The sons of Shemida were Achyan, and Shekhem, and Likchi, and Ani`am.

20The sons of Ephraim (Efrayim): Shutelach, and Bered his son, and Tachat his son, and El'adah his son, and Tachat his son, 21and Zabad his son, and Shutelach his son, and Etzer, and El'ad, whom the men of Gat who were born in the land killed, because they came down to take away their cattle. 22Ephraim (Efrayim) their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. 23He went in to his wife, and she conceived, and bore a son, and he named him Beri`ah, because it went evil with his house. 24His daughter was She'erah, who built Beit-Horon the lower and the upper, and Uzzen-She'erah. 25Refach was his son, and Reshef, and Telach his son, and Tachan his son, [26]La`dan his son, `Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, [27]Nun his son, Yahshua his son. [28]Their possessions and habitations were Bethel (Beit-El) and the towns of it, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with the towns of it; Shekhem also and the towns of it, to Azzah and the towns of it; [29]and by the borders of the children of Manasseh (Menashsheh), Beth-shean and its towns, Ta`nakh and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these lived the children of Joseph (Yosef) the son of Isreal (Yisrael).

[30]The sons of Asher: Yimna, and Yishvah, and Yishvi, and Beri`ah, and Serach their sister. [31]The sons of Beri`ah: Heber, and Malki'el, who was the father of Birzaith. [32]Heber became the father of Yaflet, and Shomer, and Hotam, and Shu`a their sister. [33]The sons of Yaflet: Pasach, and Bimhal, and `Asvat. These are the children of Yaflet. [34]The sons of Shemer: Achi, and Rohgah, Hubbah, and Aram. [35]The sons of Helem his brother: Tzofach, and Yimna, and Shelesh, and Amal. [36]The sons of Tzofach: Su'ach, and Harnefer, and Shual, and Ber, and Yimrah, [37]Betzer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Yitran, and Beera. [38]The sons of Yeter: Yefunneh, and Pispa, and Ara. [39]The sons of Ulla: Arach, and Hanni'el, and Ritzyah. [40]All these were the children of Asher, heads of the fathers' houses, choice and mighty men of valor, chief of the princes. The number of them reckoned by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

Benjamin (Binyamin) became the father of Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, and Achrach the third, [2]Nochah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. [3]Bela had sons: Addar, and Gera, and Abihud, [4]and Abishua, and Na`aman, and Achoach, [5]and Gera, and Shefufan, and Huram. [6]These are the sons of Echud: these are the heads of fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and they carried them captive to Manachat: [7]and Na`aman, and Achiyah, and Gera, he carried them captive: and he became the father of Uzza and Achichud. [8]Shacharayim became the father of children in the field of Moab, after he had sent them away; Hushim and Ba`ara were his wives. [9]He became the father of Hodesh his wife, Yobab, and Tzibyah, and Mesha, and Malkam, [10]and Ye`utz, and Sokhyah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of fathers' houses. [11]Of Hushim he became the father of Abitub and Elpa`al. [12]The sons of Elpa`al: Eber, and Mish`am, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod, with the towns of it; [13]and Beri`ah, and Shema, who were heads of fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Ayalon, who put to flight the inhabitants of Gat; [14]and Achyo, Shashak, and Yeremot, [15]and Zebadyah, and `Arad, and `Eder, [16]and Mikha'el, and Yishpah, and Yocha, the sons of Beri`ah, [17]and Zebadyah, and Meshullam, and Hizki, and Heber, [18]and Ishmerai, and Yizli'ah, and Yobab, the sons of Elpa`al, [19]and Yakim, and Zikhri, and Zavdi, [20]and Eli`esenai, and Tzilletai, and Eli'el, [21]and `Adayah, and Berayah, and Shimrat, the sons of Shim`i, [22]and Yishpan, and Eber, and Eli'el, [23]and `Abdon, and Zikhri, and Hanan, [24]and Hananyah, and `Elam, and `Antotiyah, [25]and Yifdeyah, and Penu'el, the sons of Shashak, [26]and Shamsherai, and Shecharyah, and `Atalyah, [27]and Ya`areshyah, and EliYaH, and Zikhri, the sons of Yerocham. [28]These were heads of fathers' houses throughout their generations, chief men: these lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

[29]In Gibon there lived the father of Gibeon, Ye`i'el, whose wife's name was Ma`akhah; [30]and his firstborn son `Abdon, and Tzur, and Kish, and Ba`al, and Nadab, [31]and Gedor, and Achyo, and Zekher. [32]Miklot became the father of Shim`a. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), over against their brothers. [33]Ner became the father of Kish; and Kish became the father of Sha'ul; and Sha'ul became the father of Yonatan, and Malki-Shua, and Abinadab, and Eshba`al. [34]The son of Yonatan was Merib-Ba`al; and Merib-Ba`al became the father of Mikhah. [35]The sons of Mikhah: Piton, and Melekh, and Ta'rea, and Achaz. [36]Achaz became the father of Yeho`addah; and Yeho`addah became the father of `Alemet, and `Azmavet, and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Motzah. [37]Motzah became the father of Bin`a; Rafah was his son, El`asah his son, Atzel his son. [38]Atzel had six sons, whose names are these: `Azrikam, Bokhru, and Yishma'el, and She`aryah, and Obadiah (Obadyah), and Hanan. All these were the sons of Atzel. [39]The sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam his firstborn, Ye`ush the second, and Elifelet the third. [40]The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, one hundred fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin (Binyamin).

So all Isreal (Yisrael) were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael): and Judah (Yahudah) was carried away captive to Babel for their disobedience. [2]Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Isreal (Yisrael), the Priests (Kohanim), the Levites, and the temple servants. [3]In Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) lived of the children of Judah (Yahudah), and of the children of Benjamin (Binyamin), and of the children of Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashsheh): [4]`Utai the son of `Ammihud, the son of `Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pearth the son of Judah (Yahudah). [5]Of the Shiloni: `Asayah the firstborn, and his sons. [6]Of the sons of Zerach: Ye`u'el, and their brothers, six hundred ninety. [7]Of the sons of Benjamin (Binyamin): Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodabyah, the son of Senu'ah, [8]and Yivneyah the son of Yerocham, and Elah the son of `Uzzi, the son of Mikhri, and Meshullam the son of Shefatyah, the son of Re`u'el, the son of Yibniyah; [9]and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers' houses by their fathers' houses.

[10]Of the Priests (Kohanim): Yedayah, and Yehoiarib, Yakhin, [11]and Azaryah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Tzadok, the son of Merayot, the son of Achitub, the ruler of the house of God; 12and `Adayah the son of Yerocham, the son of Pashchur, the son of Malkiyah, and Ma`asai the son of `Adi'el, the son of Yachzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemit, the son of Immer; 13and their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14Of the Levites: Shemayah the son of Hashshub, the son of `Azrikam, the son of Hashabyah, of the sons of Merari; 15and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattanyah the son of Mikha, the son of Zikhri, the son of Asaf, 16and Obadiah (Obadyah) the son of Shemayah, the son of Galal, the son of Yedutun, and Berekhyah the son of Asa, the son of Elkana, who lived in the villages of the Netofati.

17The porters: Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Achiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief), 18who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were the porters for the camp of the children of Levi. 19Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Abi'asaf, the son of Korach, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korchi, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent: and their fathers had been over the camp of YaHWeH, keepers of the entry. 20Pinechas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and YaHWeH was with him. 21Zekharyah the son of Meshelemyah was porter of the door of the tent of meeting. 22All these who were chosen to be porters in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel (Shemu'el) the seer did ordain in their office of trust. 23So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of YaHWeH, even the house of the tent, by wards. 24On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. 25Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them: 26for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the chambers and over the treasuries in the house of God. 27They lodged round about the house of God, because the charge of it was on them; and to them pertained the opening of it morning by morning.

28Certain of them had charge of the vessels of service; for by count were these brought in and by count were these taken out. 29Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. 30Some of the sons of the Priests (Kohanim) prepared the confection of the spices. 31Mattityah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korchite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans. 32Some of their brothers, of the sons of the Kehati, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Shabbat.

33These are the singers, heads of fathers' houses of the Levites, who lived in the chambers and were free from other service; for they were employed in their work day and night. 34These were heads of fathers' houses of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men: these lived at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

35In Gibon there lived the father of Gibeon, Ye`i'el, whose wife's name was Ma`akhah: 36and his firstborn son `Abdon, and Tzur, and Kish, and Ba`al, and Ner, and Nadab, 37and Gedor, and Achyo, and Zekharyah, and Miklot. 38Miklot became the father of Shim'am. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), over against their brothers. 39Ner became the father of Kish; and Kish became the father of Sha'ul; and Sha'ul became the father of Yonatan, and Malki-Shua, and Abinadab, and Eshba`al. 40The son of Yonatan was Merib-Ba`al; and Merib-Ba`al became the father of Mikhah. 41The sons of Mikhah: Piton, and Melekh, and Tachre`a, and Achaz. 42Achaz became the father of Ya`rah; and Ya`rah became the father of `Alemet, and `Azmavet, and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Motzah; 43and Motzah became the father of Bin`a; and Refayah his son, El`asah his son, Atzel his son. 44Atzel had six sons, whose names are these: `Azrikam, Bokhru, and Yishma'el, and She`aryah, and Obadiah (Obadyah), and Hanan: these were the sons of Atzel.

Now the Philistines (Pelishtim) fought against Isreal (Yisrael): and the men of Isreal (Yisrael) fled from before the Philistines (Pelishtim), and fell down slain on Mount Gilboa. 2The Philistines (Pelishtim) followed hard after Sha'ul and after his sons; and the Philistines (Pelishtim) killed Yonatan, and Abinadab, and Malki-Shua, the sons of Sha'ul. 3The battle went sore against Sha'ul, and the archers overtook him; and he was distressed by reason of the archers. 4Then said Sha'ul to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Sha'ul took his sword, and fell on it. 5When his armor-bearer saw that Sha'ul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died. 6So Sha'ul died, and his three sons; and all his house died together. 7When all the men of Isreal (Yisrael) who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines (Pelishtim) came and lived in them.

8It happened on the next day, when the Philistines (Pelishtim) came to strip the slain, that they found Sha'ul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9They stripped him, and took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines (Pelishtim) round about, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. 10They put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. 11When all Yabesh-Gil`ad heard all that the Philistines (Pelishtim) had done to Sha'ul, 12all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Sha'ul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Yabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Yabesh, and fasted seven days.

13So Sha'ul died for his trespass which he committed against YaHWeH, because of the word of YaHWeH, which he didn't keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire thereby, 14and didn't inquire of YaHWeH: therefore he killed him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse (Yishay).

Then all Isreal (Yisrael) gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. 2In times past, even when Sha'ul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Isreal (Yisrael): and YaHWeH your God said to you, You shall be shepherd of my people Isreal (Yisrael), and you shall be prince over my people Isreal (Yisrael). 3So all the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael) came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before YaHWeH; and they anointed David king over Isreal (Yisrael), according to the word of YaHWeH by Samuel (Shemu'el).

4David and all Isreal (Yisrael) went to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) (the same is Yebus); and the Yebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. 5The inhabitants of Yebus said to David, You shall not come in here. Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (Tziyon); the same is the city of David. 6David said, Whoever strikes the Yebusites first shall be chief and captain. Yo'ab the son of Tzeru'yah went up first, and was made chief. 7David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. 8He built the city round about, from Millo even round about; and Yo'ab repaired the rest of the city. 9David grew greater and greater; for YaHWeH of Hosts was with him.

10Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who shown themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Isreal (Yisrael), to make him king, according to the word of YaHWeH concerning Isreal (Yisrael). 11This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Yashobam, the son of a Hakhmoni, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time.

12After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Achochi, who was one of the three mighty men. 13He was with David at Pas-Dammim, and there the Philistines (Pelishtim) were gathered together to battle, where was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines (Pelishtim). 14They stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines (Pelishtim); and YaHWeH saved them by a great victory.

15Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of `Adullam; and the host of the Philistines (Pelishtim) were encamped in the valley of Refa'im. 16David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines (Pelishtim) was then in Beit-Lechem. 17David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Beit-Lechem, which is by the gate! 18The three broke through the host of the Philistines (Pelishtim), and drew water out of the well of Beit-Lechem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to YaHWeH, 19and said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this: shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

20Abishai, the brother of Yo'ab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. 21Of the three, he was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain: however he didn't attain to the first three.

22Benayah the son of Yehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kavtz'el, who had done mighty deeds, he killed the two sons of Ari'el of Moab: he went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. 23He killed a Egyptian (Mitzrian), a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian (Mitzrian)'s hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian (Mitzrian)'s hand, and killed him with his own spear. 24These things did Benayah the son of Yehoiada, and had a name among the three mighty men. 25Behold, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26Also the mighty men of the armies: `Asa'el the brother of Yo'ab, Elchanan the son of Dodo of Beit-Lechem, 27Shammot the Harorite, Heletz the Pelonite, 28`Ira the son of `Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abi-Ezer the `Antotite, 29Sibbekhai the Hushatite, Ilai the Achochi, 30Maharai the Netofatite, Heled the son of Ba`anah the Netofatite, 31Itai the son of Rivai of Gebah of the children of Benjamin (Binyamin), Benayah the Pir`atonite, 32Hurai of the brooks of Ga`ash, Aviel the `Arvati, 33`Azmavet the Baharumite, Elyachba the Shaalbonite, 34the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Yonatan the son of Shagee the Harari, 35Achi'am the son of Sacar the Harari, Eliphal the son of Ur, 36Hefer the Mekheratite, Achiyah the Pelonite, 37Hetzro the Karmelite, Na`arai the son of Ezbai, 38Yo'el the brother of Natan, Mivchar the son of Hagri, 39Tzelek the `Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Yo'ab the son of Tzeru'yah, 40`Ira the Yitri, Gareb the Yitri, 41Uriyah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Achlai, 42`Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenitete, a chief of the Reubenite, and thirty with him, [43]Hanan the son of Ma`akhah, and Yoshafat the Mitni, [44]Uzzia the `Ashterati, Shama and Ye`i'el the sons of Hotam the `Aro`eri, [45]Yedi`a'el the son of Shimri, and Yocha his brother, the Titzi, [46]Eli'el the Machavim, and Yerivai, and Yoshavyah, the sons of Elnaam, and Yitmah the Moabite, [47]Eli'el, and Obed, and Ya`asi'el the Mezobaite.

Now these are those who came to David to Tziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Sha'ul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. [2]They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Sha'ul's brothers of Benjamin (Binyamin). [3]The chief was Achi`ezer; then Yo'ash, the sons of Shema`ah the Giv`atite, and Yezi'el, and Pelet, the sons of `Azmavet, and Berakha, and Yehu the `Antotite, [4]and Yishma`yahu the Gibeoni, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), and Yachazi'el, and Yochanan, and Yozabad the Gederatite, [5]Eluzai, and Yerimot, and Bealiah, and Shemaryah, and Shefatyah the Harufite, [6]Elkana, and Yishshiyah, and Azar'el, and Yoezer, and Yashobam, the Korchi, [7]and Yo`elah, and Zebadyah, the sons of Yerocham of Gedor.

[8]Of the Gadite there separated themselves to David to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains; [9]Etzer the chief, Obadiah (Obadyah) the second, Eli'ab the third, [10]Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) the fifth, [11]`Attai the sixth, Eli'el the seventh, [12]Yochanan the eighth, ElZabad the ninth, [13]Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) the tenth, Makhbannai the eleventh. [14]These of the sons of Gad were captains of the host: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. [15]These are those who went over the Jordan (Yarden) in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

[16]There came of the children of Benjamin (Binyamin) and Judah (Yahudah) to the stronghold to David. [17]David went out to meet them, and answered them, If you be come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if you be come to betray me to my adversaries, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it. [18]Then the Spirit came on `Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse (Yishay): shalom, shalom be to you, and shalom be to your helpers; for your God helps you." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19Of Manasseh (Menashsheh) also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines (Pelishtim) against Sha'ul to battle: but they didn't help them; for YaHWeHs of the Philistines (Pelishtim) sent him away after consultation, saying, He will fall away to his master Sha'ul to the jeopardy of our heads. 20As he went to Tziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh (Menashsheh), `Adnach, and Yozabad, and Yedi`a'el, and Mikha'el, and Yozabad, and Elihu, and Tzilletai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh (Menashsheh). 21They helped David against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the host. 22For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great host, like the host of God.

23These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Sha'ul to him, according to the word of YaHWeH. 24The children of Judah (Yahudah) who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. 25Of the children of Simeon (Shimon), mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. 26Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred. 27Yehoiada was the leader of the house of Aharon; and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, 28and Tzadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains. 29Of the children of Benjamin (Binyamin), the brothers of Sha'ul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Sha'ul. 30Of the children of Ephraim (Efrayim) twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses. 31Of the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh) eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king. 32Of the children of Issacher (Yissakhar), men who had understanding of the times, to know what Isreal (Yisrael) ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their word. 33Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the host, who could set the battle in array, with all manner of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and who could order the battle array, and were not of double heart. 34Of Naftali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. 35Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. 36Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the host, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. 37On the other side of the Jordan (Yarden), of the Reubenite, and the Gadite, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh), with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand.

38All these being men of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Isreal (Yisrael): and all the rest also of Isreal (Yisrael) were of one heart to make David king. 39They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had made preparation for them.
40Moreover those who were near to them, even as far as Issacher (Yissakhar) and Zebulun and Naftali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, food of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Isreal (Yisrael).

David consulted with the captains of thousands and of hundreds, even with every leader. 2David said to all the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael), If it seem good to you, and if it be of YaHWeH our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our brothers who are left in all Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), with whom the Priests (Kohanim) and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us; 3and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we didn't seek it in the days of Sha'ul. 4All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5So David assembled all Isreal (Yisrael) together, from the Shichor the brook of Egypt (Mitzrayim) even to the entrance of Hamat, to bring the ark of God from Kiryat-Ye`arim. 6David went up, and all Isreal (Yisrael), to Ba`alah, that is, to Kiryat-Ye`arim, which belonged to Judah (Yahudah), to bring up from there the ark of God YaHWeH that sits above the Kerubim, that is called by the Name. 7They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Achyo drove the cart. 8David and all Isreal (Yisrael) played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. 10The anger of YaHWeH was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God. 11David was displeased, because YaHWeH had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Pearth-Uzzah, to this day. 12David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me? 13So David didn't move the ark to him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. 14The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months: and YaHWeH blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

Hiram king of Tyrus (Tzor) sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. 2David perceived that YaHWeH had established him king over Isreal (Yisrael); for his kingdom was exalted on high, for his people Isreal (Yisrael)'s sake.

3David took more wives at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and David became the father of more sons and daughters. 4These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): Shammua, and SHobab, Natan, and Solomon (Shlomo), 5and Yibchar, and Elishua, and Elpelet, 6and Nogah, and Nefeg, and Yafia, 7and Elishama, and Be`elyada, and Elifelet.

8When the Philistines (Pelishtim) heard that David was anointed king over all Isreal (Yisrael), all the Philistines (Pelishtim) went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. 9Now the Philistines (Pelishtim) had come and made a raid in the valley of Refa'im. 10David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines (Pelishtim)? and will you deliver them into my hand? YaHWeH said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand. 11So they came up to Ba`al-Peratzim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breach of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Ba`al-Peratzim. 12They left their gods there; and David gave word, and they were burned with fire.

13The Philistines (Pelishtim) yet again made a raid in the valley. 14David inquired again of God; and God said to him, You shall not go up after them: turn away from them, and come on them over against the mulberry trees. 15It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God is gone out before you to strike the host of the Philistines (Pelishtim). 16David did as God commanded him: and they struck the host of the Philistines (Pelishtim) from Gibon even to Gezer. 17The fame of David went out into all lands; and YaHWeH brought the fear of him on all nations.

15

David made him houses in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. 2Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them has YaHWeH chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister to him forever. 3David assembled all Isreal (Yisrael) at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to bring up the ark of YaHWeH to its place, which he had prepared for it. 4David gathered together the sons of Aharon, and the Levites: 5of the sons of Kehat, Uri'el the chief, and his brothers one hundred twenty; 6of the sons of Merari, `Asayah the chief, and his brothers two hundred twenty; 7of the sons of Gershom, Yo'el the chief, and his brothers one hundred thirty; 8of the sons of Elitzafan, Shemayah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; 9of the sons of Hebron, Eli'el the chief, and his brothers eighty; 10of the sons of `Uzzi'el, `AmmiNadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve. 11David called for Tzadok and Abyatar the Priests (Kohanim), and for the Levites, for Uri'el, `Asayah, and Yo'el, Shemayah, and Eli'el, and `AmmiNadab, 12and said to them, You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring up the ark of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), to the place that I have prepared for it. 13For because you didn't carry it at the first, YaHWeH our God made a breach on us, because we didn't seek him according to the ordinance. 14So the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 15The children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses (Moshe) commanded according to the word of YaHWeH.

16David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of music, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. 17So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Yo'el; and of his brothers, Asaf the son of Berekhyah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Etan the son of Kushayahu; 18and with them their brothers of the second degree, Zekharyah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramot, and Yechi'el, and Unni, Eli'ab, and Benayah, and Ma`aseyah, and Mattityah, and Eliflehu, and Mikneyah, and Obed-edom, and Ye`i'el, the doorkeepers. 19So the singers, Heman, Asaf, and Etan, were appointed with cymbals of brass to sound aloud; 20and Zekharyah, and Aziel, and Shemiramot, and Yechi'el, and Unni, and Eli'ab, and Ma`aseyah, and Benayah, with psalteries set to `Alamot; 21and Mattityah, and Eliflehu, and Mikneyah, and Obed-edom, and Ye`i'el, and Azazyah, with harps tuned to the sheminit, to lead. 22Kananyah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful. 23Berekhyah and Elkana were doorkeepers for the ark. 24Shebanyah, and Yoshafat, and Netan'el, and `Amasai, and Zekharyah, and Benayah, and Eli`ezer, the Priests (Kohanim), did blow the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Yechiyah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25So David, and the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael), and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH out of the house of Obed-edom with joy. 26It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. 27David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Kananyah the master of the song with the singers: and David had on him an efod of linen. 28Thus all Isreal (Yisrael) brought up the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with psalteries and harps.

They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings before God. 2When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of YaHWeH. 3He dealt to everyone of Isreal (Yisrael), both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion of flesh, and a cake of raisins.

4He appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of YaHWeH, and to celebrate and to thank and Praise YaH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael): 5Asaf the chief, and second to him Zekharyah, Ye`i'el, and Shemiramot, and Yechi'el, and Mattityah, and Eli'ab, and Benayah, and Obed-edom, and Ye`i'el, with psalteries and with harps; and Asaf with cymbals, sounding aloud; 6and Benayah and Yachazi'el the Priests (Kohanim) with trumpets continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

7Then on that day David first ordained to give thanks to YaHWeH, by the hand of Asaf and his brothers.
8Oh give thanks to YaHWeH, call on his name;
Make known his doings among the peoples.
9Sing to him, sing praises to him;
Talk you of all his marvelous works.
10Glory you in his holy name;
Let the heart of them rejoice who seek YaHWeH.
11Seek you YaHWeH and his strength;
Seek his face forever more.
12Remember his marvelous works that he has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,
13You seed of Isreal (Yisrael) his servant,
You children of Jacob (Yakob), his chosen ones.
14He is YaHWeH our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
15Remember his covenant forever,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,
16*The covenant* which he made with Abraham,
His oath to Isaac (Yitzchak),
17Confirmed the same to Jacob (Yakob) for a statute,
To Isreal (Yisrael) for an everlasting covenant,
18Saying, To you will I give the land of Canaan (Kanaan),
The lot of your inheritance;
19When you were but a few men in number,

Yes, very few, and foreigners in it;
20They went about from nation to nation,
From one kingdom to another people.
21He allowed no man to do them wrong;
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,
22*Saying*, Don't touch my anointed ones,
Do my prophets no harm.
23Sing to YaHWeH, all the earth;
Show forth his salvation from day to day.
24Declare his glory among the nations,
His marvelous works among all the peoples.
25For great is YaHWeH, and greatly to be praised:
He also is to be feared above all gods.
26For all the gods of the peoples are idols:
But YaHWeH made the heavens.
27Honor and majesty are before him:
Strength and gladness are in his place.
28Ascribe to YaHWeH, you relatives of the peoples,
Ascribe to YaHWeH glory and strength;
29Ascribe to YaHWeH the glory due to his name:
Bring an offering, and come before him:
Worship YaHWeH in holy array.
30Tremble before him, all the earth:
The world also is established that it can't be moved.
31Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
Let them say among the nations, YaHWeH reigns.
32Let the sea roar, and the fullness of it;
Let the field exult, and all that is therein;
33Then shall the trees of the wood sing for joy before YaHWeH;
For he comes to judge the earth.
34Oh give thanks to YaHWeH; for he is good;
For his loving kindness endures forever.
35Say you, Save us, God of our salvation,
Gather us together and deliver us from the nations,
To give thanks to your holy name,
To triumph in your praise.
36Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael),
From everlasting even to everlasting.

All the people said, Amein, and praised YaHWeH.

37So he left there, before the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH, Asaf and his brothers, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required; 38and Obed-edom with their brothers, sixty-eight; Obed-edom also the son of Yedutun and Hosah to be doorkeepers; 39and Tzadok the Priest, and his brothers the Priests (Kohanim), before the tent of YaHWeH in the high place that was at Gibeon, 40to offer burnt offerings to YaHWeH on the altar of burnt offering continually morning and evening, even according to all that is written in the law of YaHWeH, which he commanded to Isreal (Yisrael); 41and with them Heman and Yedutun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to YaHWeH, because his loving kindness endures forever; 42and with them Heman and Yedutun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and with instruments for the songs of God; and the sons of Yedutun to be at the gate.

43All the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

It happened, when David lived in his house, that David said to Natan the prophet, Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH dwells under curtains. 2Natan said to David, Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you.

3It happened the same night, that the word of God came to Natan, saying, 4Go and tell David my servant, Thus says YaHWeH, You shall not build me a house to dwell in: 5for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Isreal (Yisrael), to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. 6In all places in which I have walked with all Isreal (Yisrael), spoke I a word with any of the judges of Isreal (Yisrael), whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar? 7Now therefore thus shall you tell my servant David, Thus says YaHWeH of Hosts, I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Isreal (Yisrael): 8and I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. 9I will appoint a place for my people Isreal (Yisrael), and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first, 10and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Isreal (Yisrael); and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that YaHWeH will build you a house. 11It shall happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. 12He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.

13I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my loving kindness away from him, as I took it from him that was before you; 14but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever. 15According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Natan speak to David.

16Then David the king went in, and sat before YaHWeH; and he said, Who am I, YaHWeH God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? 17This was a small thing in your eyes, God; but you have spoken of your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, YaHWeH God. 18What can David say yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your servant? for you know your servant. 19 YaHWeH, for your servant's sake, and according to your own heart, have you worked all this greatness, to make known all these great things. 20 YaHWeH, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21What one nation in the earth is like your people Isreal (Yisrael), whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, to make you a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeem out of Egypt (Mitzrayim)? 22For your people Isreal (Yisrael) did you make your own people forever; and you, YaHWeH, became their God. 23Now, YaHWeH, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken. 24Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, YaHWeH of Hosts is the God of Isreal (Yisrael), even a God to Isreal (Yisrael): and the house of David your servant is established before you. 25For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house: therefore has your servant found in his heart to pray before you. 26Now, YaHWeH, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant: 27and now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you: for you, YaHWeH, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.

After this it happened, that David struck the Philistines (Pelishtim), and subdued them, and took Gat and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines (Pelishtim).

2He struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute.

3David struck Hadad`ezer king of Tzobah to Hamat, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Perat. 4David took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. 5When the Aram of Damascus (Dammesek) came to help Hadad`ezer king of Tzobah, David struck of the Aram twenty-two thousand men. 6Then David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus (Dammesek); and the Aram became servants to David, and brought tribute. YaHWeH gave victory to David wherever he went. 7David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadad`ezer, and brought them to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 8From Tibchat and from Cun, cities of Hadad`ezer, David took very much brass, with which Solomon (Shlomo) made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9When To`u king of Hamat heard that David had struck all the host of Hadad`ezer king of Tzobah, 10he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to Greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadad`ezer and struck him; (for Hadad`ezer had wars with To`u;) and he had with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass. 11These also did king David dedicate to YaHWeH, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of `Ammon, and from the Philistines (Pelishtim), and from `Amalek.

12Moreover Abishai the son of Tzeru'yah struck of the Edom in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand. 13He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edom became servants to David. YaHWeH gave victory to David wherever he went.

14David reigned over all Isreal (Yisrael); and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people. 15Yo'ab the son of Tzeru'yah was over the host; and Yehoshafat the son of Achilud was recorder; 16and Tzadok the son of Achitub, and Abimelekh the son of Abyatar, were Priests (Kohanim); and Shavsha was Scribe; 17and Benayah the son of Yehoiada was over the Kereti and the Peleti; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

It happened after this, that Nachash the king of the children of `Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. 2David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nachash, because his father shown kindness to me. So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of `Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. 3But the princes of the children of `Ammon said to Hanun, Think you that David does honor your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Aren't his servants come to you to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land? 4So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. 5Then there went certain persons, and told David how the men were served. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, Stay at Yericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6When the children of `Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of `Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia (Aram-Naharayim), and out of Arammaacah, and out of Tzobah. 7So they hired them thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Ma`akhah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. The children of `Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. 8When David heard of it, he sent Yo'ab, and all the host of the mighty men. 9The children of `Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

10Now when Yo'ab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Isreal (Yisrael), and put them in array against the Aram. 11The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of `Ammon. 12He said, If the Aram be too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of `Ammon be too strong for you, then I will help you. 13Be of good courage, and let us play the man for our people, and for the cities of our God: and YaHWeH do that which seems him good. 14So Yo'ab and the people who were with him drew near before the Aram to the battle; and they fled before him. 15When the children of `Ammon saw that the Aram were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Yo'ab came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

16When the Aram saw that they were put to the worse before Isreal (Yisrael), they sent messengers, and drew forth the Aram who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the host of Hadad`ezer at their head. 17It was told David; and he gathered all Isreal (Yisrael) together, and passed over the Jordan (Yarden), and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Aram, they fought with him. 18The Aram fled before Isreal (Yisrael); and David killed of the Aram the men of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host. 19When the servants of Hadad`ezer saw that they were put to the worse before Isreal (Yisrael), they made shalom with David, and served him: neither would the Aram help the children of `Ammon any more.

It happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that Yo'ab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the children of `Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). Yo'ab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. 2David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city, exceeding much. 3He brought forth the people who were therein, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Thus did David to all the cities of the children of `Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

4It happened after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines (Pelishtim): then Sibbekhai the Hushatite killed Sippai, of the sons of the Rafa; and they were subdued. 5There was again war with the Philistines (Pelishtim); and Elchanan the son of Ya'ir killed Lachmi the brother of Golyat the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. 6There was again war at Gat, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was born to the Rafa. 7When he defied Isreal (Yisrael), Yonatan the son of Shim`a David's brother killed him. 8These were born to the Rafa in Gat; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

Satan stood up against Isreal (Yisrael), and moved David to number Isreal (Yisrael). 2David said to Yo'ab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Isreal (Yisrael) from Be'er-Sheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them. 3Yo'ab said, YaHWeH make his people a hundred times as many as they are: but, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? why does my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of guilt to Isreal (Yisrael)? 4Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Yo'ab. Therefore Yo'ab departed, and went throughout all Isreal (Yisrael), and came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 5Yo'ab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. All those of Isreal (Yisrael) were one million one hundred thousand men who drew sword: and in Judah (Yahudah) were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew sword. 6But he didn't count Levi and Benjamin (Binyamin) among them; for the king's word was abominable to Yo'ab.

7God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Isreal (Yisrael). 8David said to God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly. 9YaHWeH spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, 10Go and speak to David, saying, Thus says YaHWeH, I offer you three things: choose you one of them, that I may do it to you. 11So Gad came to David, and said to him, Thus says YaHWeH, Take which you will: 12either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of YaHWeH, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of YaHWeH destroying throughout all the borders of Isreal (Yisrael). Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me. 13David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall, I pray, into the hand of YaHWeH; for very great are his mercies: and let me not fall into the hand of man.

14So YaHWeH sent a pestilence on Isreal (Yisrael); and there fell of Isreal (Yisrael) seventy thousand men. 15God sent an angel to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, YaHWeH saw, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now stay your hand. The angel of YaHWeH was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Yebusites. 16David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of YaHWeH standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). Then David and the Elders (Zakenim), clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. 17David said to God, Isn't it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O YaHWeH my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued.

18Then the angel of YaHWeH commanded Gad to tell David, that David should go up, and raise an altar to YaHWeH in the threshing floor of Ornan the Yebusites. 19David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of YaHWeH. 20Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat. 21As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. 22Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build thereon an altar to YaHWeH: for the full price shall you give it me, that the plague may be stayed from the people. 23Ornan said to David, Take it to you, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: behold, I give you the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal-offering; I give it all. 24King David said to Ornan, No; but I will most assuredly buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is your for YaHWeH, nor offer a burnt-offering without cost. 25So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight. 26David built there an altar to YaHWeH, and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings, and called on YaHWeH; and he answered him from the sky by fire on the altar of burnt offering. 27YaHWeH commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath of it.

28At that time, when David saw that YaHWeH had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Yebusites, then he sacrificed there. 29For the tent of YaHWeH, which Moses (Moshe) made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. 30But David couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of YaHWeH.

Then David said, This is the house of YaHWeH God, and this is the altar of burnt-offering for Isreal (Yisrael).

2David commanded to gather together the foreigners who were in Earth-Isreal (Yisrael); and he set masons to hew worked stones to build the house of God. 3David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and brass in abundance without weight; 4and cedar trees without number: for the Tzidonim and they of Tyrus (Tzor) brought cedar trees in abundance to David. 5David said, Solomon (Shlomo) my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for YaHWeH must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6Then he called for Solomon (Shlomo) his son, and charged him to build a house for YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 7David said to Solomon (Shlomo) his son, As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of YaHWeH my God. 8But the word of YaHWeH came to me, saying, You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars: you shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight. 9Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about; for his name shall be Solomon (Shlomo), and I will give shalom and quietness to Isreal (Yisrael) in his days: 10he shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Isreal (Yisrael) for ever. 11Now, my son, YaHWeH be with you; and prosper you, and build the house of YaHWeH your God, as he has spoken concerning you. 12Only YaHWeH give you discretion and understanding, and give you charge concerning Isreal (Yisrael); that so you may keep the law of YaHWeH your God. 13Then shall you prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which YaHWeH charged Moses (Moshe) with concerning Isreal (Yisrael): be strong, and of good courage; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed. 14Now, behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of YaHWeH one hundred thousand talents of gold, and one thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and you may add thereto. 15Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all men who are skillful in every manner of work: 16of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and YaHWeH be with you.

17David also commanded all the princes of Isreal (Yisrael) to help Solomon (Shlomo) his son, saying, 18Isn't YaHWeH your God with you? and hasn't he given you rest on every side? for he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before YaHWeH, and before his people. 19Now set your heart and your soul to seek after YaHWeH your God; arise therefore, and build you the sanctuary of YaHWeH God, to bring the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of YaHWeH.

Now David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon (Shlomo) his son king over Isreal (Yisrael).

2He gathered together all the princes of Isreal (Yisrael), with the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites. 3The Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty-eight thousand. 4Of these, twenty-four thousand were to oversee the work of the house of YaHWeH; and six thousand were officers and judges; 5and four thousand were doorkeepers; and four thousand praised YaHWeH with the instruments which I made, said David, to praise therewith. 6David divided them into courses according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kehat, and Merari.

7Of the Gershoni: La`dan and Shim`i. 8The sons of La`dan: Yechi'el the chief, and Zetham, and Yo'el, three. 9The sons of Shim`i: Shelomit, and Hazi'el, and Haran, three. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of La`dan. 10The sons of Shim`i: Yachat, Zina, and Ye`ush, and Beri`ah. These four were the sons of Shim`i. 11Yachat was the chief, and Zizah the second: but Ye`ush and Beri`ah didn't have many sons; therefore they became a fathers' house in one reckoning.

12The sons of Kehat: `Amram, Yitzhar, Hebron, and `Uzzi'el, four. 13The sons of `Amram: Aharon and Moses (Moshe); and Aharon was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before YaHWeH, to minister to him, and to bless in his name, forever. 14But as for Moses (Moshe) the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. 15The sons of Moses (Moshe): Gershom and Eli`ezer. 16The sons of Gershom: Shevu'el the chief. 17The sons of Eli`ezer were: Rechabyah the chief; and Eli`ezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rechabyah were very many. 18The sons of Yitzhar: Shelomit the chief. 19The sons of Hebron: Yeriyah the chief, Amaryah the second, Yachazi'el the third, and Yekam`am the fourth. 20The sons of `Uzzi'el: Mikhah the chief, and Yishshiyah the second.

21The sons of Merari: Machli and Mushi. The sons of Machli: Eleazar and Kish. 22Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only: and their brothers the sons of Kish took them to wife. 23The sons of Mushi: Machli, and `Eder, and Yeremot, three.

[24]These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' houses of those of those who were counted, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of YaHWeH, from twenty years old and upward. [25]For David said, YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), has given rest to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) forever: [26]and also the Levites shall no more have need to carry the tent and all the vessels of it for the service of it. [27]For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward. [28]For their office was to wait on the sons of Aharon for the service of the house of YaHWeH, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God; [29]for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal-offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all manner of measure and size; [30]and to stand every morning to thank and Praise YaH, and likewise at even; [31]and to offer all burnt offerings to YaHWeH, on the Shabbatot, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before YaHWeH; [32]and that they should keep the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aharon their brothers, for the service of the house of YaHWeH.

The courses of the sons of Aharon were these. The sons of Aharon: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Itamar. [2]But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Itamar executed the Priest's office. [3]David with Tzadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Achimelekh of the sons of Itamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service. [4]There were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Itamar; and thus were they divided: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers' houses; and of the sons of Itamar, according to their fathers' houses, eight. [5]Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Itamar. [6]Shemayah the son of Netan'el the Scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Tzadok the Priest, and Achimelekh the son of Abyatar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the Priests (Kohanim) and of the Levites; one fathers' house being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Itamar.

[7]Now the first lot came forth to Yehoiarib, the second to Yedayah, [8]the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, [9]the fifth to Malkiyah, the sixth to Miyamin, [10]the seventh to Hakkotz, the eighth to Abiyah, [11]the ninth to Yeshua, the tenth to Shekhanyah, [12]the eleventh to Elyashib, the twelfth to Yakim, [13]the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, [14]the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, [15]the seventeenth to Hetzir, the eighteenth to Happizzez, 16the nineteenth to Petachyah, the twentieth to Jehezkel, 17the one and twentieth to Yakhin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18the three and twentieth to Delayah, the four and twentieth to Ma`azyah. 19This was the ordering of them in their service, to come into the house of YaHWeH according to the ordinance given to them by Aharon their father, as YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), had commanded him.

20Of the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of `Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, Yechdeyah. 21Of Rechabyah: of the sons of Rechabyah, Yishshiyah the chief. 22Of the Izharites, Shelomit; of the sons of Shelomit, Yachat. 23The sons of Hebron: Yeriyah the chief, Amaryah the second, Yachazi'el the third, Yekam`am the fourth. 24The sons of `Uzzi'el, Mikhah; of the sons of Mikhah, Shamir. 25The brother of Mikhah, Yishshiyah; of the sons of Yishshiyah, Zekharyah. 26The sons of Merari: Machli and Mushi; the sons of Ya`aziyah: Beno. 27The sons of Merari: of Ya`aziyah, Beno, and Shoham, and Zakkur, and Ibri. 28Of Machli: Eleazar, who had no sons. 29Of Kish; the sons of Kish: Yerachme'el. 30The sons of Mushi: Machli, and `Eder, and Yerimot. These were the sons of the Levites after their fathers' houses. 31These likewise cast lots even as their brothers the sons of Aharon in the presence of David the king, and Tzadok, and Achimelekh, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the Priests (Kohanim) and of the Levites; the fathers' houses of the chief even as those of his younger brother.

Moreover David and the captains of the host set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaf, and of Heman, and of Yedutun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of those who did the work according to their service was: 2of the sons of Asaf: Zakkur, and Joseph (Yosef), and Netanyah, and Asar'elah, the sons of Asaf, under the hand of Asaf, who prophesied after the order of the king. 3Of Yedutun; the sons of Yedutun: Gedalyah, and Tzeri, and Yesha`yah, Hashabyah, and Mattityah, six, under the hands of their father Yedutun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising YaHWeH. 4Of Heman; the sons of Heman: Bukkyahu, Mattanyah, `Uzzi'el, Shevu'el, and Yerimot, Hananyah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Yoshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Machzi'ot. 5All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. 6All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of YaHWeH, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God; Asaf, Yedutun, and Heman being under the order of the king. 7The number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to YaHWeH, even all who were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight. 8They cast lots for their offices, all alike, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9Now the first lot came forth for Asaf to Joseph (Yosef): the second to Gedalyah;
he and his brothers and sons were twelve: 10the third to Zakkur, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 11the fourth to Itzri, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 12the fifth to Netanyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 13the sixth to Bukkyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve:
14the seventh to Yesar'elah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 15the eighth to Yesha`yah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 16the ninth to Mattanyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 17the tenth to Shim`i, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 18the eleventh to Azar'el, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 19the twelfth to Hashabyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 20for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 21for the fourteenth, Mattityah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 22for the fifteenth to Yeremot, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 23for the sixteenth to Hananyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 24for the seventeenth to Yoshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 25for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 26for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve: 27for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers,

For the courses of the doorkeepers: of the Korchi, Meshelemyah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaf. 2Meshelemyah had sons: Zekharyah the firstborn, Yedi`a'el the second, Zebadyah the third, Yatni'el the fourth, 3`Elam the fifth, Yehochanan the sixth, Elyeho`enai the seventh. 4Obed-edom had sons: Shemayah the firstborn, YehoZabad the second, Yo'ach the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Netan'el the fifth, 5`Ammi'el the sixth, Issacher (Yissakhar) the seventh, Peullethai the eighth; for God blessed him. 6Also to Shemayah his son were sons born, who ruled over the house of their father; for they were mighty men of valor. 7The sons of Shemayah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, ElZabad, whose brothers were valiant men, Elihu, and Semachyahu. 8All these were of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service;
sixty-two of Obed-edom. 9Meshelemyah had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen.
10Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief), 11Hilkiyah the second, TEbalyahu the third, Zekharyah the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen.

12Of these were the courses of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having offices like their brothers, to minister in the house of YaHWeH. 13They cast lots, as well the small as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. 14The lot eastward fell to Shelemyah. Then for Zekharyah his son, a discreet counselor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. 15To Obed-edom southward; and to his sons the store-house.

16To Shuppim and Hosah westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the causeway that goes up, watch against watch. 17Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the store-house two and two. 18For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar. 19These were the courses of the doorkeepers; of the sons of the Korchi, and of the sons of Merari.

20Of the Levites, Achiyah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things. 21The sons of La`dan, the sons of the Gershoni belonging to La`dan, the heads of the fathers' houses belonging to La`dan the Gershonite: Yechie'li.

22The sons of Yechie'li: Zetham, and Yo'el his brother, over the treasures of the house of YaHWeH. 23Of the `Amrami, of the Izharites, of the Hebroni, of the `Uzzi'eli: 24and Shevu'el the son of Gershom, the son of Moses (Moshe), was ruler over the treasures. 25His brothers: of Eli`ezer came Rechabyah his son, and Yesha`yah his son, and Yoram his son, and Zikhri his son, and Shelomit his son. 26This Shelomit and his brothers were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated. 27Out of the spoil won in battles did they dedicate to repair the house of YaHWeH. 28All that Samuel (Shemu'el) the seer, and Sha'ul the son of Kish, and Abiner the son of Ner, and Yo'ab the son of Tzeru'yah, had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomit, and of his brothers.

29Of the Izharites, Kananyah and his sons were for the outward business over Isreal (Yisrael), for officers and judges. 30Of the Hebroni, Hashabyah and his brothers, men of valor, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Isreal (Yisrael) beyond the Jordan (Yarden) westward, for all the business of YaHWeH, and for the service of the king. 31Of the Hebroni was Yeriyah the chief, even of the Hebroni, according to their generations by fathers' houses. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valor at Ya`zer of Gil`ad. 32His brothers, men of valor, were two thousand and seven hundred, heads of fathers' houses, whom king David made overseers over the Reubenite, and the Gadite, and the half-tribe of the Manashshi, for every matter pertaining to God, and for the affairs of the king.

27

Now the children of Isreal (Yisrael) after their number, to wit, the heads of fathers' houses and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king, in any matter of the courses which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year-of every course were twenty-four thousand.

2Over the first course for the first month was Yashobam the son of Zabdi'el: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 3*He was* of the children of Pearth, the chief of all the captains of the host for the first month. 4Over the course of the second month was Dodo the Achochi, and his course; and Miklot the ruler: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 5The third captain of the host for the third month was Benayah, the son of Yehoiada the Priest, chief: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 6This is that Benayah, who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty: and of his course was `AmmiZabad his son. 7The fourth captain for the fourth month was `Asa'el the brother of Yo'ab, and Zebadyah his son after him: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 8The fifth captain for this fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 9The sixth captain for the sixth month was `Ira the son of `Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 10The seventh captain for the seventh month was Heletz the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim (Efrayim): and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 11The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbekhai the Hushatite, of the Zarchi: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 12The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abi-Ezer the `Antotite, of the Benjamin (Binyamin)i: and in his course were twenty-four thousand. 13The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netofatite, of the Zarchi: and in his course were Twenty-four thousand. 14The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benayah the Pir`atonite, of the children of Ephraim (Efrayim): and in his course were Twenty-four thousand. 15The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netofatite, of `Otni'el: and in his course were twenty-four thousand.

16Furthermore over the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael): of the Reubenite was Eli`ezer the son of Zikhri the ruler: of the Simeon (Shimon)i, Shefatyah the son of Ma`akhah: 17of Levi, Hashabyah the son of Kemu'el: of Aharon, Tzadok: 18of Judah (Yahudah), Elihu, one of the brothers of David: of Issacher (Yissakhar), `Omri the son of Mikha'el: 19of Zebulun, Yishma`yahu the son of Obadiah (Obadyah): of Naftali, Yeremot the son of `Azri'el: 20of the children of Ephraim (Efrayim), Hoshea the son of Azazyah: of the half-tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh), Yo'el the son of Pedayah: 21of the half -tribe of Manasseh (Menashsheh) in Gil`ad, `Iddo the son of Zekharyah: of Benjamin (Binyamin), Ya`asi'el the son of Abiner: 22of Dan, Azar'el the son of Yerocham. These were the captains of the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael). 23But David didn't take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because YaHWeH had said he would increase Isreal (Yisrael) like the stars of the sky. 24Yo'ab the son of Tzeru'yah began to number, but didn't finish; and there came wrath for this on Isreal (Yisrael); neither was the number put into the account in the chronicles of king David.

25Over the king's treasures was `Azmavet the son of `Adi'el: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Yonatan the son of `Uzziyah: 26Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was `Ezri the son of Kelub: 27and over the vineyards was Shim`i the Ramatite: and over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars was Zavdi the Shifmite: 28and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Ba`al-Hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Yo'ash: 29and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shirtai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shafat the son of `Adlai: 30and over the camels was Ovil the Yishme`elite: and over the donkeys was Yechdeyah the Meronotite: and over the flocks was Yaziz the Hagrite. 31All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32Also Yonatan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a Scribe: and Yechi'el the son of Hakhmoni was with the king's sons: 33Achitofel was the king's counselor: and Hushai the Arki was the king's friend: 34and after Achitofel was Yehoiada the son of Benayah, and Abyatar: and the captain of the king's host was Yo'ab.

28

David assembled all the princes of Isreal (Yisrael), the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies who served the king by course, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers, and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valor, to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, Hear me, my brothers, and my people: as for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH, and for the footstool of our God; and I had made ready for the building. 3But God said to me, You shall not build a house for my name, because you are a man of war, and have shed blood. 4However YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Isreal (Yisrael)
forever: for he has chosen Judah (Yahudah) to be prince; and in the house of Judah (Yahudah), the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he took pleasure in me to make me king over all Isreal (Yisrael); 5Of all my sons (for YaHWeH has given me many sons), he has chosen Solomon (Shlomo) my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of YaHWeH over Isreal (Yisrael). 6He said to me, Solomon (Shlomo) your son, he shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. 7I will establish his kingdom forever, if he be constant to do my commandments
(mitzvot) and my ordinances, as at this day. 8Now therefore, in the sight of all Isreal (Yisrael), the assembly of YaHWeH, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments (mitzvot) of YaHWeH your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever.

9You, Solomon (Shlomo) my son, know you the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for YaHWeH searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts: if you seek him, he will be found of you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. 10Take heed now; for YaHWeH has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11Then David gave to Solomon (Shlomo) his son the pattern of the porch of the temple, and of the houses of it, and of the treasuries of it, and of the upper rooms of it, and of the inner chambers of it, and of the place of the mercy seat; 12and the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of YaHWeH, and for all the chambers round about, for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; 13also for the courses of the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of YaHWeH, and for all the vessels of service in the house of YaHWeH; 14of gold by weight for the vessels of gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; of silver for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; 15by weight also for the menorot of gold, and for the lamps of it, of gold, by weight for every menorah and for the lamps of it; and for the menorot of silver, silver by weight for every menorah and for the lamps of it, according to the use of every menorah; 16and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; 17and the flesh-hooks, and the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl; 18and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, even the Kerubim, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH. 19All this, said David, have I been made to understand in writing from the hand of YaHWeH, even all the works of this pattern.

20David said to Solomon (Shlomo) his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; for YaHWeH God, even my God, is with you; he will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of YaHWeH is finished. 21Behold, there are the courses of the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with you in all manner of work every willing man who has skill, for any manner of service: also the captains and all the people will be wholly at your word.

David the king said to all the assembly, Solomon (Shlomo) my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for YaHWeH God. 2Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the brass for the things of brass, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; shoham stones, and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of various colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. 3Moreover also, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, seeing that I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, 4even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ofir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; 5of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to YaHWeH?

6Then the princes of the fathers' houses, and the princes of the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly; 7and they gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents. 8They with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of YaHWeH, under the hand of Yechi'el the Gershonite. 9Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to YaHWeH: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10Therefore David blessed YaHWeH before all the assembly; and David said, Blessed be you, YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael) our father, forever and ever. 11Yours, YaHWeH, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heavens and in the earth is your; your is the kingdom, YaHWeH, and you are exalted as head above all. 12Both riches and honor come of you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and in your hand it is to make great, and to give strength to all. 13Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name.

14But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of you, and of your own have we given you. 15For we are strangers before you, and foreigners, as all our fathers were: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no abiding. 16 YaHWeH our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes of your hand, and is all your own. 17I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy your people, that are present here, offer willingly to you. 18 YaHWeH, the God of Abraham, of Isaac (Yitzchak), and of Isreal (Yisrael), our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart to you; 19and give to Solomon (Shlomo) my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments (mitzvot), your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision.

[20]David said to all the assembly, Now bless YaHWeH your God. All the assembly blessed YaHWeH, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshiped YaHWeH, and the king. [21]They sacrificed sacrifices to YaHWeH, and offered burnt offerings to YaHWeH, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Isreal (Yisrael), [22]and ate and drink before YaHWeH on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon (Shlomo) the son of David king the second time, and anointed him to YaHWeH to be prince, and Tzadok to be Priest. [23]Then Solomon (Shlomo) sat on the throne of YaHWeH as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Isreal (Yisrael) obeyed him. [24]All the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves to Solomon (Shlomo) the king. [25]YaHWeH magnified Solomon (Shlomo) exceedingly in the sight of all Isreal (Yisrael), and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Isreal (Yisrael).

[26]Now David the son of Jesse (Yishay) reigned over all Isreal (Yisrael). [27]The time that he reigned over Isreal (Yisrael) was forty years; seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty-three years reigned he in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [28]He died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor: and Solomon (Shlomo) his son reigned in his place. [29]Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Samuel (Shemu'el) the seer, and in the history of Natan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, [30]with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Isreal (Yisrael), and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

Notes:

II Chronicles
The Second Book of (Divre Hayamim)

1

Solomon (Shlomo) the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and YaHWeH his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2Solomon (Shlomo) spoke to all Isreal (Yisrael), to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Isreal (Yisrael), the heads of the fathers' houses. 3So Solomon (Shlomo), and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tent of meeting of God, which Moses (Moshe) the servant of YaHWeH had made in the wilderness. 4But the ark of God had David brought up from Kiryat-Ye`arim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 5Moreover the brazen altar, that Betzal'el the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tent of YaHWeH: and Solomon (Shlomo) and the assembly sought to it. 6Solomon (Shlomo) went up there to the brazen altar before YaHWeH, which was at the tent of meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it.

7In that night did God appear to Solomon (Shlomo), and said to him, Ask what I shall give you. 8Solomon (Shlomo) said to God, You have shown great loving kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his place. 9Now, YaHWeH God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude. 10Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this your people, that is so great? 11God said to Solomon (Shlomo), Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king: 12wisdom and knowledge is granted to you; and I will give you riches, and wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you; neither shall there any after you have the like. 13So Solomon (Shlomo) came from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and he reigned over Isreal (Yisrael).

14Solomon (Shlomo) gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 15The king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. 16The horses which Solomon (Shlomo) had were brought out of Egypt (Mitzrayim) and from Kue; the king's merchants purchased them from Kue. 17They brought up and brought out of Egypt (Mitzrayim) a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hitti, and the kings of Aram, did they bring them out by their means.

Now Solomon (Shlomo) purposed to build a house for the name of YaHWeH, and a house for his kingdom. 2Solomon (Shlomo) counted out seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand men who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them. 3Solomon (Shlomo) sent to Huram the king of Tyrus (Tzor), saying, As you did deal with David my father, and did send him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein, even so deal with me. 4Behold, I am about to build a house for the name of YaHWeH my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him incense of sweet spices, and for the continual show bread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Shabbatot, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of YaHWeH our God. This is an ordinance forever to Isreal (Yisrael). 5The house which I build is great; for great is our God above all gods. 6But who is able to build him a house, seeing heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn incense before him? 7Now therefore send me a man skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave all manner of engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Judah (Yahudah) and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), whom David my father did provide. 8Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon: and, behold, my servants shall be with your servants, 9even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. 10Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11Then Huram the king of Tyrus (Tzor) answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon (Shlomo), Because YaHWeH loves his people, he has made you king over them.

12Huram said moreover, Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), that made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for YaHWeH, and a house for his kingdom.

13Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, of Huram my father's, 14the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyrus (Tzor), skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to devise any device; that there may be a place appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father. 15Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants: 16and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Yafo; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

17Solomon (Shlomo) numbered all the foreigners who were in Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people at work.

Then Solomon (Shlomo) began to build the house of YaHWeH at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) on Mount Moriyah, where YaHWeH appeared to David his father, which he made ready in the place that David had appointed, in the threshing floor of Ornan the Yebusites. 2He began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. 3Now these are the foundations which Solomon (Shlomo) laid for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. 4The porch that was before the house, the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold. 5The greater house he made a ceiling with fir-wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and worked thereon palm trees and chains. 6He garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvayim. 7He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and the walls of it, and the doors of it, with gold; and engraved Kerubim on the walls.

8He made the most holy house: the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. 9The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper chambers with gold. 10In the most holy house he made two Kerubim of image work; and they overlaid them with gold. 11The wings of the Kerubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one Kerub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other Kerub. 12The wing of the other Kerub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other Kerub. 13The wings of these Kerubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house. 14He made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and worked Kerubim thereon.

15Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. 16He made chains in the oracle, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. 17He set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Yakhin, and the name of that on the left Bo`az.

Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length of it, and twenty cubits the breadth of it, and ten cubits the height of it. 2Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass; and the height of it was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about. 3Under it was the likeness of oxen, which did compass it round about, for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. 4It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. 5It was a handbreadth thick; and the brim of it was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths. 6He made also ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the Priests (Kohanim) to wash in.

7He made the ten menorot of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. 8He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold. 9Furthermore he made the court of the Priests (Kohanim), and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass. [10]He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south.

[11]Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Huram made an end of doing the work that he did for king Solomon (Shlomo) in the house of God: [12]the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, [13]and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. [14]He made also the bases, and the basins made he on the bases; [15]one sea, and the twelve oxen under it. [16]The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all the vessels of it, did Huram his father make for king Solomon (Shlomo) for the house of YaHWeH of bright brass. [17]In the plain of the Jordan (Yarden) did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Sukkot and Tzeredata. [18]Thus Solomon (Shlomo) made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

[19]Solomon (Shlomo) made all the vessels that were in the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon was the show bread; [20]and the menorot with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold; [21]and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold; [22]and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple, were of gold.

Thus all the work that Solomon (Shlomo) did for the house of YaHWeH was finished. Solomon (Shlomo) brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

[2]Then Solomon (Shlomo) assembled the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael), and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' houses of the children of Isreal (Yisrael), to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to bring up the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH out of the city of David, which is Zion (Tziyon). [3]nd all the men of Isreal (Yisrael) assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. [4]All the Elders (Zakenim) of Isreal (Yisrael) came: and the Levites took up the ark; [5]and they brought up the ark, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these did the Priests (Kohanim) the Levites bring up. [6]King Solomon (Shlomo) and all the congregation of Isreal (Yisrael), that were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. 7The Priests (Kohanim) brought in the ark of the covenant of YaHWeH to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the Kerubim. 8For the Kerubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the Kerubim covered the ark and the poles of it above. 9The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there it is to this day. 10There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses (Moshe) put there at Horeb, when YaHWeH made a covenant with the children of Isreal (Yisrael), when they came out of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 11It happened, when the Priests (Kohanim) were come out of the holy place, (for all the Priests (Kohanim) who were present had sanctified themselves, and did not keep their courses; 12also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaf, Heman, Yedutun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty Priests (Kohanim) sounding with trumpets;) 13it happened, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking YaHWeH; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised YaHWeH, saying, For he is good; for his loving kindness endures forever; that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of YaHWeH, 14so that the Priests (Kohanim) could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of YaHWeH filled the house of God.

Then spoke Solomon (Shlomo), YaHWeH has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. 2But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever. 3The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael): and all the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael) stood. 4He said, Blessed be YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, 5Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), I chose no city out of all the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael) to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be prince over my people Isreal (Yisrael): 6but I have chosen Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Isreal (Yisrael). 7Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 8But YaHWeH said to David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: 9nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the house for my name. 10YaHWeH has performed his word that he spoke; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Isreal (Yisrael), as YaHWeH promised, and have built the house for the name of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 11There have I set the ark, in which is the covenant of YaHWeH, which he made with the children of Isreal (Yisrael).

12He stood before the altar of YaHWeH in the presence of all the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael), and spread forth his hands 13(for Solomon (Shlomo) had made a brazen scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and kneeled down on his knees before all the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael), and spread forth his hands toward heaven;) 14and he said, YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; 15who have kept with your servant David my father that which you did promise him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day. 16Now therefore, YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Isreal (Yisrael), if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me. 17Now therefore, YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David.

18But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you; how much less this house which I have built! 19Yet have you respect to the prayer of your servant, and to his supplication, YaHWeH my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you; 20that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place whereof you have said that you would put your name there; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place. 21Listen you to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Isreal (Yisrael), when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

22If a man sin against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house; 23then hear from heaven, and do, and judge your servants, requiting the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

24If your people Isreal (Yisrael) be struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you, and shall turn again and confess your name, and pray and make supplication before you in this house; 25then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Isreal (Yisrael), and bring them again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.

[26]When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you do afflict them: [27]then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Isreal (Yisrael), when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

[28]If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting or mildew, locust (arbeh) or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there be; [29]whatever prayer and supplication be made by any man, or by all your people Isreal (Yisrael), who shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house: [30]then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of men;) [31]that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

[32]Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Isreal (Yisrael), when he shall come from a far country for your great name's sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house: [33]then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Isreal (Yisrael), and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

[34]If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; [35]then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

[36]If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn't sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near; [37]yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly; [38]if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name: [39]then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling-place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you. [40]Now, my God, let, I beg you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. [41]Now therefore arise, YaHWeH God, into your resting-place, you, and the ark of your strength: let your Priests (Kohanim), YaHWeH God, be clothed with yeshuah (salvation), and let your holy ones rejoice in goodness. [42] YaHWeH God, don't turn away the face of your anointed: remember your loving kindnesses to David your servant.

Now when Solomon (Shlomo) had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of YaHWeH filled the house. [2]The Priests (Kohanim) could not enter into the house of YaHWeH, because the glory of YaHWeH filled YaHWeH's house. [3]All the children of Isreal (Yisrael) looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of YaHWeH was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped, and gave thanks to YaHWeH, saying, For he is good; for his loving kindness endures for ever.

[4]Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before YaHWeH. [5]King Solomon (Shlomo) offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. [6]The Priests (Kohanim) stood, according to their offices; the Levites also with instruments of music of YaHWeH, which David the king had made to give thanks to YaHWeH, (for his loving kindness endures for ever,) when David praised by their ministry: and the Priests (Kohanim) sounded trumpets before them; and all Isreal (Yisrael) stood.

[7]Moreover Solomon (Shlomo) made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of YaHWeH; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon (Shlomo) had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat.

[8]So Solomon (Shlomo) held the feast at that time seven days, and all Isreal (Yisrael) with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamat to the brook of Egypt (Mitzrayim). [9]On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. [10]On the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that YaHWeH had shown to David, and to Solomon (Shlomo), and to Isreal (Yisrael) his people.

11Thus Solomon (Shlomo) finished the house of YaHWeH, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon (Shlomo)'s heart to make in the house of YaHWeH, and in his own house, he prosperously effected. 12YaHWeH appeared to Solomon (Shlomo) by night, and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice. 13If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust (arbeh) to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; 14if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 15Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. 16For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. 17As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; 18then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Isreal (Yisrael).

19But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments (mitzvot) which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; 20then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. 21This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, Why has YaHWeH done thus to this land, and to this house? 22They shall answer, Because they forsook YaHWeH, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them, and served them: therefore has he brought all this evil on them.

It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon (Shlomo) had built the house of YaHWeH, and his own house, 2that the cities which Huram had given to Solomon (Shlomo), Solomon (Shlomo) built them, and caused the children of Isreal (Yisrael) to dwell there.

3Solomon (Shlomo) went to Hamat-Tzobah, and prevailed against it. 4He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities, which he built in Hamat. 5Also he built Beit-Horon the upper, and Beit-Horon the lower, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars; 6and Ba`alat, and all the store-cities that Solomon (Shlomo) had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon (Shlomo) desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. 7As for all the people who were left of the Hitti, and the Amori, and the Perizzi, and the Hivvi, and the Yebusites, who were not of Isreal (Yisrael); 8of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Isreal (Yisrael) didn't consume, of them did Solomon (Shlomo) raise a levy of bondservants to this day. 9But of the children of Isreal (Yisrael) did Solomon (Shlomo) make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. 10These were the chief officers of king Solomon (Shlomo), even two hundred fifty, who ruled over the people.

11Solomon (Shlomo) brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Isreal (Yisrael), because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of YaHWeH has come.

12Then Solomon (Shlomo) offered burnt-offerings to YaHWeH on the altar of YaHWeH, which he had built before the porch, 13even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the word of Moses (Moshe), on the Shabbatot, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, even in the feast of matzah, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of booths. 14He appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the courses of the Priests (Kohanim) to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the Priests (Kohanim), as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their courses at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. 15They didn't depart from the word of the king to the Priests (Kohanim) and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16Now all the work of Solomon (Shlomo) was prepared to the day of the foundation of the house of YaHWeH, and until it was finished. So the house of YaHWeH was completed.

17Then went Solomon (Shlomo) to `Etzyon-Geber, and to Elot, on the seashore in the land of Edom. 18Huram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants who had knowledge of the sea; and they came with the servants of Solomon (Shlomo) to Ofir, and fetched from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon (Shlomo).

When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon (Shlomo), she came to prove Solomon (Shlomo) with hard questions at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), with a very great train, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon (Shlomo), she talked with him of all that was in her heart. 2Solomon (Shlomo) told her all her questions; and there was not anything hid from Solomon (Shlomo) which he didn't tell her. 3When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon (Shlomo), and the house that he had built, 4and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, his cup bearers also, and their clothing, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of YaHWeH; there was no more spirit in her.

5She said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. 6However I didn't believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: you exceed the fame that I heard. 7Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. 8Blessed be YaHWeH your God, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for YaHWeH your God: because your God loved Isreal (Yisrael), to establish them forever, therefore made he you king over them, to do justice and righteousness. 9She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon (Shlomo).

12King Solomon (Shlomo) gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants.

13Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon (Shlomo) in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 14besides that which the traders and merchants brought: and all the kings of `Arav and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon (Shlomo). 15King Solomon (Shlomo) made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one buckler. 16*he made* three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. 17Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. 18nd there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. 19Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. 20All king Solomon (Shlomo)'s drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon (Shlomo). 21For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22So king Solomon (Shlomo) exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. 23All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon (Shlomo), to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. 24They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. 25Solomon (Shlomo) had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 26He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines (Pelishtim), and to the border of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 27The king made silver to be in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. 28They brought horses for Solomon (Shlomo) out of Egypt (Mitzrayim), and out of all lands.

29Now the rest of the acts of Solomon (Shlomo), first and last, aren't they written in the history of Natan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Achiyah the Shiloni, and in the visions of `Iddo the seer concerning Yarobam the son of Nebat? 30Solomon (Shlomo) reigned in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) over all Isreal (Yisrael) forty years. 31Solomon (Shlomo) slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rechab`am his son reigned in his place.

Rechab`am went to Shekhem; for all Isreal (Yisrael) were come to Shekhem to make him king. 2It happened, when Yarobam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt (Mitzrayim), where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon (Shlomo),) that Yarobam returned out of Egypt (Mitzrayim). 3They sent and called him; and Yarobam and all Isreal (Yisrael) came, and they spoke to Rechab`am, saying, 4Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you. 5He said to them, Come again to me after three days. The people departed.

6King Rechab`am took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon (Shlomo) his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give you me to return answer to this people? 7They spoke to him, saying, If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever. 8But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. 9He said to them, What counsel give you, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your father did put on us lighter? 10The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus shall you tell the people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but make you it lighter to us; thus shall you say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins. 11Now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12So Yarobam and all the people came to Rechab`am the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day. 13The king answered them roughly; and king Rechab`am forsook the counsel of the old men, 14and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions. 15So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that YaHWeH might establish his word, which he spoke by Achiyah the Shiloni to Yarobam the son of Nebat.

16When all Isreal (Yisrael) saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse (Yishay): every man to your tents, Isreal (Yisrael): now see to your own house, David. So all Isreal (Yisrael) departed to their tents. 17But as for the children of Isreal (Yisrael) who lived in the cities of Judah (Yahudah), Rechab`am reigned over them. 18Then king Rechab`am sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the children of Isreal (Yisrael) stoned him to death with stones. King Rechab`am made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 19So Isreal (Yisrael) rebelled against the house of David to this day.

When Rechab`am was come to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), he assembled the house of Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), one hundred eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Isreal (Yisrael), to bring the kingdom again to Rechab`am. 2But the word of YaHWeH came to Shemayah the man of God, saying, 3Speak to Rechab`am the son of Solomon (Shlomo), king of Judah (Yahudah), and to all Isreal (Yisrael) in Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), saying, 4Thus says YaHWeH, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the words of YaHWeH, and returned from going against Yarov`am.

5Rechab`am lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and built cities for defense in Judah (Yahudah). 6He built Beit-Lechem, and `Etam, and Tekoa, 7Beit-Tzur, and Sokho, and `Adullam, 8and Gat, and Mareshah, and Zif, 9and Adorayim, and Lakhish, and `Azeka, 10and Tyrus (Tzor)`ah, and Ayalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah (Yahudah) and in Benjamin (Binyamin), fortified cities. 11He fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, and oil and wine. 12In every city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong. Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin) belonged to him.

13The Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites who were in all Isreal (Yisrael) resorted to him out of all their border. 14For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): for Yarobam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the Priest's office to YaHWeH; 15and he appointed him Priests (Kohanim) for the high places, and for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made. 16After them, out of all the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), such as set their hearts to seek YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to sacrifice to YaHWeH, the God of their fathers. 17So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah (Yahudah), and made Rechab`am the son of Solomon (Shlomo) strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon (Shlomo).

18Rechab`am took him a wife, Machalat the daughter of Yerimot the son of David, and of Abichayil the daughter of Eli'ab the son of Jesse (Yishay); 19and she bore him sons: Ye`ush, and Shemaryah, and Zaham. 20After her he took Ma`akhah the daughter of Abshalom; and she bore him Abiyah, and `Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomit. 21Rechab`am loved Ma`akhah the daughter of Abshalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.) 22Rechab`am appointed Abiyah the son of Ma`akhah to be chief, even the prince among his brothers; for he was minded to make him king. 23He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), to every fortified city: and he gave them food in abundance. He sought for them many wives.

It happened, when the kingdom of Rechab`am was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of YaHWeH, and all Isreal (Yisrael) with him. 2It happened in the fifth year of king Rechab`am, that Shishak king of Egypt (Mitzrayim) came up against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), because they had trespassed against YaHWeH, 3with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt (Mitzrayim): the Lubim, the Sukkiyim, and the Kushim. 4He took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah (Yahudah), and came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 5Now Shemayah the prophet came to Rechab`am, and to the princes of Judah (Yahudah), who were gathered together to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus says YaHWeH, You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak. 6Then the princes of Isreal (Yisrael) and the king humbled themselves; and they said, YaHWeH is righteous. 7When YaHWeH saw that they humbled themselves, the word of YaHWeH came to Shemayah, saying, They have humbled themselves: I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) by the hand of Shishak. 8Nevertheless they shall be his servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9So Shishak king of Egypt (Mitzrayim) came up against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and took away the treasures of the house of YaHWeH, and the treasures of the king's house: he took all away: he took away also the shields of gold which Solomon (Shlomo) had made. 10King Rechab`am made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house. 11It was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of YaHWeH, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber. 12When he humbled himself, the wrath of YaHWeH turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah (Yahudah) there were good things found.

13So king Rechab`am strengthened himself in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and reigned: for Rechab`am was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), the city which YaHWeH had chosen out of all the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), to put his name there: and his mother's name was Na`amah the `Ammonite. 14He did that which was evil, because he didn't set his heart to seek YaHWeH.

15Now the acts of Rechab`am, first and last, aren't they written in the histories of Shemayah the prophet and of `Iddo the seer, after the manner of genealogies? There were wars between Rechab`am and Yarobam continually. 16Rechab`am slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abiyah his son reigned in his place.

In the eighteenth year of king Yarobam began Abiyah to reign over Judah (Yahudah). 2Three years reigned he in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Mikhayah the daughter of Uri'el of Gebah. There was war between Abiyah and Yarov`am. 3Abiyah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Yarobam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor. 4Abiyah stood up on Mount Tzemaryim, which is in the hill-country of Ephraim (Efrayim), and said, Hear me, Yarobam and all Isreal (Yisrael): 5Ought you not to know that YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), gave the kingdom over Isreal (Yisrael) to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt? 6Yet Yarobam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon (Shlomo) the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. 7There were gathered to him worthless men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rechab`am the son of Solomon (Shlomo), when Rechab`am was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.

8Now you think to withstand the kingdom of YaHWeH in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Yarobam made you for gods. 9Haven't you driven out the Priests (Kohanim) of YaHWeH, the sons of Aharon, and the Levites, and made you Priests (Kohanim) after the manner of the peoples of other lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a Priest of those who are no gods. 10But as for us, YaHWeH is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and we have Priests (Kohanim) ministering to YaHWeH, the sons of Aharon, and the Levites in their work: 11and they burn to YaHWeH every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense: the show bread also set they in order on the pure table; and the menorah of gold with the lamps of it, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of YaHWeH our God; but you have forsaken him. 12Behold, God is with us at our head, and his Priests (Kohanim) with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Isreal (Yisrael), don't you fight against YaHWeH, the God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.

13But Yarobam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah (Yahudah), and the ambush was behind them. 14When Judah (Yahudah) looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to YaHWeH, and the Priests (Kohanim) sounded with the trumpets. 15Then the men of Judah (Yahudah) gave a shout: and as the men of Judah (Yahudah) shouted, it happened, that God struck Yarobam and all Isreal (Yisrael) before Abiyah and Judah (Yahudah). 16The children of Isreal (Yisrael) fled before Judah (Yahudah); and God delivered them into their hand. 17Abiyah and his people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Isreal (Yisrael) five hundred thousand chosen men. 18Thus the children of Isreal (Yisrael) were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah (Yahudah) prevailed, because they relied on YaHWeH, the God of their fathers. 19Abiyah pursued after Yarov`am, and took cities from him, Bethel (Beit-El) with the towns of it, and Yeshanah with the towns of it, and `Efron with the towns of it. 20Neither did Yarobam recover strength again in the days of Abiyah: and YaHWeH struck him, and he died. 21But Abiyah grew mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. 22The rest of the acts of Abiyah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet `Iddo.

So Abiyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. 2Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of YaHWeH his God: 3for he took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, 4and commanded Judah (Yahudah) to seek YaHWeH, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the word. 5Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah (Yahudah) the high places and the sun-images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. 6He built fortified cities in Judah (Yahudah); for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because YaHWeH had given him rest. 7For he said to Judah (Yahudah), Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars; the land is yet before us, because we have sought YaHWeH our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered. 8Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah (Yahudah) three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin (Binyamin), that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred eighty thousand: all these were mighty men of valor.

9There came out against them Zerach the Kushite with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah. 10Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Tzefatah at Mareshah. 11Asa cried to YaHWeH his God, and said, YaHWeH there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength: help us, YaHWeH our God; for we rely on you, and in your name are we come against this multitude. YaHWeH, you are our God; don't let man prevail against you. 12So YaHWeH struck the Kushim before Asa, and before Judah (Yahudah); and the Kushim fled. 13Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Kushim so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before YaHWeH, and before his host; and they carried away very much booty. 14They struck all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of YaHWeH came on them: and they despoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them. 15They struck also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

The Spirit of God came on Azaryah the son of `Oded: 2and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear you me, Asa, and all Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin): YaHWeH is with you, while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found of you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. 3Now for a long season Isreal (Yisrael) was without the true God, and without a teaching Priest, and without law: 4But when in their distress they turned to YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), and sought him, he was found of them. 5In those times there was no shalom to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great vexations were on all the inhabitants of the lands. 6They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God did vex them with all adversity. 7But be you strong, and don't let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded.

8When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of `Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill-country of Ephraim (Efrayim); and he renewed the altar of YaHWeH, that was before the porch of YaHWeH. 9He gathered all Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), and those who sojourned with them out of Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashsheh), and out of Simeon (Shimon): for they fell to him out of Isreal (Yisrael) in abundance, when they saw that YaHWeH his God was with him. 10So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. 11They sacrificed to YaHWeH in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. 12They entered into the covenant to seek YaHWeH, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; 13and that whoever would not seek YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. 14They swore to YaHWeH with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets. 15All Judah (Yahudah) rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and YaHWeH gave them rest round about.

16Also Ma`akhah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. 17But the high places were not taken away out of Isreal (Yisrael): nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. 18He brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. 19There was no more war to the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Ba`sha king of Isreal (Yisrael) went up against Judah (Yahudah), and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah (Yahudah). 2Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of YaHWeH and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who lived at Damascus (Dammesek), saying, 3*There is* a league between me and you, as there was between my father and your father: behold, I have sent you silver and gold; go, break your league with Ba`sha king of Isreal (Yisrael), that he may depart from me. 4Ben-Hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Isreal (Yisrael); and they struck `Iyon, and Dan, and Avel-Mayim, and all the store-cities of Naftali. 5It happened, when Ba`sha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and let his work cease. 6Then Asa the king took all Judah (Yahudah); and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber of it, with which Ba`sha had built; and he built therewith Geba and Mitzpah.

7At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah (Yahudah), and said to him, Because you have relied on the king of Aram, and have not relied on YaHWeH your God, therefore is the host of the king of Aram escaped out of your hand. 8Weren't the Kushim and the Lubim a huge host, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? yet, because you did rely on YaHWeH, he delivered them into your hand. 9For the eyes of YaHWeH run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein you have done foolishly; for from henceforth you shall have wars. 10Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison-house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.

11Behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah (Yahudah) and Isreal (Yisrael). 12In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he didn't seek YaHWeH, but to the physicians. 13Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. 14They buried him in his own tombs, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumers' are: and they made a very great burning for him.

Yehoshafat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Isreal (Yisrael). 2He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah (Yahudah), and set garrisons in the land of Judah (Yahudah), and in the cities of Ephraim (Efrayim), which Asa his father had taken. 3YaHWeH was with Yehoshafat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and didn't seek the Ba`alim, 4but sought to the God of his father, and walked in his commandments (mitzvot), and not after the doings of Isreal (Yisrael). 5Therefore YaHWeH established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah (Yahudah) brought to Yehoshafat tribute; and he had riches and honor in abundance. 6His heart was lifted up in the ways of YaHWeH: and furthermore he took away the high places and the Asherim out of Judah (Yahudah).

10The fear of YaHWeH fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah (Yahudah), so that they made no war against Yehoshafat. 11Some of the Philistines (Pelishtim) brought Yehoshafat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabi'im also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred male goats. 12Yehoshafat grew great exceedingly; and he built in Judah (Yahudah) castles and cities of store. 13He had many works in the cities of Judah (Yahudah); and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 14This was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: Of Judah (Yahudah), the captains of thousands: `Adnach the captain, and with him mighty men of valor three hundred thousand; [15]and next to him Yehochanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand; [16]and next to him `Amasyah the son of Zikhri, who willingly offered himself to YaHWeH; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. [17]Of Benjamin (Binyamin): Elyada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; [18]and next to him YehoZabad and with him one hundred eighty thousand ready prepared for war. [19]These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah (Yahudah).

Now Yehoshafat had riches and honor in abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab (Ach'ab). [2]After certain years he went down to Ahab (Ach'ab) to Samaria (Shomron). Ahab (Ach'ab) killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramot-Gil`ad. [3]Ahab (Ach'ab) king of Isreal (Yisrael) said to Yehoshafat king of Judah (Yahudah), Will you go with me to Ramot-Gil`ad? He answered him, I am as you are, and my people as your people; and we will be with you in the war.

[4]Yehoshafat said to the king of Isreal (Yisrael), Please inquire first for the word of YaHWeH. [5]Then the king of Isreal (Yisrael) gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall we go to Ramot-Gil`ad to battle, or shall I forbear? They said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king. [6]But Yehoshafat said, Isn't there here a prophet of YaHWeH besides, that we may inquire of him? [7]The king of Isreal (Yisrael) said to Yehoshafat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of YaHWeH: but I hate him; for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil: the same is Mikhayah the son of Imla. Yehoshafat said, Don't let the king say so. [8]Then the king of Isreal (Yisrael) called an officer, and said, Get quickly Mikhayah the son of Imla. [9]Now the king of Isreal (Yisrael) and Yehoshafat the king of Judah (Yahudah) sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria (Shomron); and all the prophets were prophesying before them. [10]Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah) the son of Kena`anah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus says YaHWeH, With these shall you push the Aram, until they be consumed. [11]All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramot-Gil`ad, and prosper; for YaHWeH will deliver it into the hand of the king.

[12]The messenger who went to call Mikhayah spoke to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth: let your word therefore, Please be like one of theirs, and speak you good. [13]Mikhayah said, As YaHWeH lives, what my God says, that will I speak. 14When he was come to the king, the king said to him, Mikhayah, shall we go to Ramot-Gil`ad to battle, or shall I forbear? He said, Go up, and prosper; and they shall be delivered into your hand. 15The king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of YaHWeH? 16He said, I saw all Isreal (Yisrael) scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and YaHWeH said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in shalom. 17The king of Isreal (Yisrael) said to Yehoshafat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil? 18*Mikhayah* said, Therefore hear you the word of YaHWeH: I saw YaHWeH sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. 19YaHWeH said, Who shall entice Ahab (Ach'ab) king of Isreal (Yisrael), that he may go up and fall at Ramot-Gil`ad? One spoke saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner. 20There came forth a spirit, and stood before YaHWeH, and said, I will entice him. YaHWeH said to him, 'How?' 21He said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' He said, 'You shall entice him, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.' 22Now therefore, behold, YaHWeH has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and YaHWeH has spoken evil concerning you.

23Then Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah) the son of Kena`anah came near, and struck Mikhayah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of YaHWeH from me to speak to you? 24Mikhayah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself. 25The king of Isreal (Yisrael) said, Take Mikhayah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Yo'ash the king's son; 26and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in shalom. 27Mikhayah said, If you return at all in shalom, YaHWeH has not spoken by me. He said, Hear, you peoples, all of you.

28So the king of Isreal (Yisrael) and Yehoshafat the king of Judah (Yahudah) went up to Ramot-Gil`ad. 29The king of Isreal (Yisrael) said to Yehoshafat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put you on your robes. So the king of Isreal (Yisrael) disguised himself; and they went into the battle. 30Now the king of Aram had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Isreal (Yisrael). 31It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Yehoshafat, that they said, It is the king of Isreal (Yisrael). Therefore they turned about to fight against him: but Yehoshafat cried out, and YaHWeH helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. 32It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Isreal (Yisrael), that they turned back from pursuing him. 33A certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Isreal (Yisrael) between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am sore wounded. 34The battle increased that day: however the king of Isreal (Yisrael) stayed himself up in his chariot against the Aram until the even; and about the time of the going down of the sun he died.

Yehoshafat the king of Judah (Yahudah) returned to his house in shalom to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Yehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Yehoshafat, Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate YaHWeH? for this thing wrath is on you from before YaHWeH. 3Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asherot out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God.

4Yehoshafat lived at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and he went out again among the people from Be'er-Sheba to the hill-country of Ephraim (Efrayim), and brought them back to YaHWeH, the God of their fathers. 5He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah (Yahudah), city by city, 6and said to the judges, Consider what you do: for you don't judge for man, but for YaHWeH; and he is with you in the judgment. 7Now therefore let the fear of YaHWeH be on you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with YaHWeH our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes

. 8Moreover in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) did Yehoshafat set of the Levites and the Priests (Kohanim), and of the heads of the fathers' houses of Isreal (Yisrael), for the judgment of YaHWeH, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 9He charged them, saying, Thus shall you do in the fear of YaHWeH, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. 10Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and word, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards YaHWeH, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers: this do, and you shall not be guilty. 11Behold, Amaryah the chief Priest is over you in all matters of YaHWeH; and Zebadyah the son of Yishma'el, the ruler of the house of Judah (Yahudah), in all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and YaHWeH be with the good.

It happened after this, that the children of Moab, and the children of `Ammon, and with them some of the Me`unim, came against Yehoshafat to battle. 2Then there came some who told Yehoshafat, saying, There comes a great multitude against you from beyond the sea from Aram; and, behold, they are in Hatzatzon-Tamar (the same is `En-Gedi). 3Yehoshafat feared, and set himself to seek to YaHWeH; and he proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah (Yahudah). 4Judah (Yahudah) gathered themselves together, to seek help of YaHWeH: even out of all the cities of Judah (Yahudah) they came to seek YaHWeH.

5Yehoshafat stood in the assembly of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), in the house of YaHWeH, before the new court; 6and he said, YaHWeH the God of our fathers, aren't you God in heaven? and aren't you ruler over all the kingdoms of the nations? and in your hand is power and might, so that none is able to withstand you. 7Did not you, our God, drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Isreal (Yisrael), and give it to the seed of Abraham your friend forever? 8They lived therein, and have built you a sanctuary therein for your name, saying, 9If evil come on us, the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we will stand before this house, and before you, (for your name is in this house,) and cry to you in our affliction, and you will hear and save. 10Now, behold, the children of `Ammon and Moab and Mount Se`ir, whom you would not let Isreal (Yisrael) invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt (Mitzrayim), but they turned aside from them, and didn't destroy them; 11behold, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of your possession, which you have given us to inherit. 12Our God, will you not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that comes against us; neither know we what to do: but out eyes are on you.

13All Judah (Yahudah) stood before YaHWeH, with their little ones, their wives, and their children. 14Then on Yachazi'el the son of Zekharyah, the son of Benayah, the son of Ye`i'el, the son of Mattanyah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaf, came the Spirit of YaHWeH in the midst of the assembly; 15and he said, Listen you, all Judah (Yahudah), and you inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and you king Yehoshafat: Thus says YaHWeH to you, Don't be afraid you, neither be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. 16Tomorrow go you down against them: behold, they come up by the ascent of Tzitz; and you shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Yeru'el. 17You shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand you still, and see the salvation of YaHWeH with you, O Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); don't be afraid, nor be dismayed: tomorrow go out against them: for YaHWeH is with you.

18Yehoshafat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Judah (Yahudah) and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) fell down before YaHWeH, worshipping YaHWeH. 19The Levites, of the children of the Kehati and of the children of the Korchi, stood up to Praise YaH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), with an exceeding loud voice.

[20]They rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Yehoshafat stood and said, Hear me, Judah (Yahudah), and you inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): believe in YaHWeH your God, so shall you be established; believe his prophets, so shall you prosper. [21]When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who should sing to YaHWeH, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to YaHWeH; for his loving kindness endures forever. [22]When they began to sing and to praise, YaHWeH set liers-in-wait against the children of `Ammon, Moab, and Mount Se`ir, who had come against Judah (Yahudah); and they were struck. [23]For the children of `Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Se`ir, utterly to kill and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Se`ir, everyone helped to destroy another.

[24]When Judah (Yahudah) came to the watch-tower of the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. [25]When Yehoshafat and his people came to take the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much. [26]On the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berakha; for there they blessed YaHWeH: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Berakha to this day. [27]Then they returned, every man of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and Yehoshafat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with joy; for YaHWeH had made them to rejoice over their enemies. [28]They came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) with psalteries and harps and trumpets to the house of YaHWeH. [29]The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that YaHWeH fought against the enemies of Isreal (Yisrael). [30]So the realm of Yehoshafat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

[31]Yehoshafat reigned over Judah (Yahudah): he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilchi. [32]He walked in the way of Asa his father, and didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH. [33]However the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts to the God of their fathers.

[34]Now the rest of the acts of Yehoshafat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Yehu the son of Hanani, which is inserted in the book of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael).

[35]After this did Yehoshafat king of Judah (Yahudah) join himself with Achazyah king of Isreal (Yisrael); the same did very wickedly: 36and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in `Etzyon-Geber. 37Then Eli`ezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Yehoshafat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Achazyah, YaHWeH has destroyed your works. The ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

Yehoshafat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Yehoram his son reigned in his place. 2He had brothers, the sons of Yehoshafat: Azaryah, and Yechi'el, and Zekharyah, and Azaryah, and Mikha'el, and Shefatyah; all these were the sons of Yehoshafat king of Isreal (Yisrael). 3Their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah (Yahudah): but the kingdom gave he to Yehoram, because he was the firstborn. 4Now when Yehoram was risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and various also of the princes of Isreal (Yisrael). 5Yehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 6He walked in the way of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael), as did the house of Ahab (Ach'ab); for he had the daughter of Ahab (Ach'ab) as wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH. 7However YaHWeH would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always.

8In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah (Yahudah), and made a king over themselves. 9Then Yehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edom who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. 10So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah (Yahudah) to this day: then did Libna revolt at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken YaHWeH, the God of his fathers.

11Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah (Yahudah), and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to play the prostitute, and led Judah (Yahudah) astray. 12There came a writing to him from EliYaH the prophet, saying, Thus says YaHWeH, the God of David your father, Because you have not walked in the ways of Yehoshafat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah (Yahudah), 13but have walked in the way of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael), and have made Judah (Yahudah) and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to play the prostitute, like as the house of Ahab (Ach'ab) did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself: 14behold, YaHWeH will strike with a great plague your people, and your children, and your wives, and all your substance; 15and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

16YaHWeH stirred up against Yehoram the spirit of the Philistines (Pelishtim), and of the Arabi'im who are beside the Kushim: 17and they came up against Judah (Yahudah), and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Yeho'achaz, the youngest of his sons.

The inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) made Achazyah his youngest son king in his place; for the band of men who came with the Arabi'im to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Achazyah the son of Yehoram king of Judah (Yahudah) reigned. 2Forty-two years old was Achazyah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was `Atalyah the daughter of `Omri. 3He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab (Ach'ab); for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly. 4He did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH, as did the house of Ahab (Ach'ab); for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5He walked also after their counsel, and went with Yehoram the son of Ahab (Ach'ab) king of Isreal (Yisrael) to war against Haza'el king of Aram at Ramot-Gil`ad: and the Aram wounded Yoram. 6He returned to be healed in Yizreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Haza'el king of Aram. Azaryah the son of Yehoram king of Judah (Yahudah) went down to see Yehoram the son of Ahab (Ach'ab) in Yizreel, because he was sick.

7Now the destruction of Achazyah was of God, in that he went to Yoram: for when he was come, he went out with Yehoram against Yehu the son of Nimshi, whom YaHWeH had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab (Ach'ab). 8It happened, when Yehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab (Ach'ab), that he found the princes of Judah (Yahudah), and the sons of the brothers of Achazyah, ministering to Achazyah, and killed them. 9He sought Achazyah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria (Shomron)), and they brought him to Yehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, He is the son of Yehoshafat, who sought YaHWeH with all his heart. The house of Achazyah had no power to hold the kingdom.

10Now when `Atalyah the mother of Achazyah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah (Yahudah). 11But Yehoshav`at, the daughter of the king, took Yo'ash the son of Achazyah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedchamber. So Yehoshav`at, the daughter of king Yehoram, the wife of Yehoiada the Priest (for she was the sister of Achazyah), hid him from `Atalyah, so that she didn't kill him. 12He was with them hid in the house of God six years: and `Atalyah reigned over the land.

In the seventh year Yehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azaryah the son of Yerocham, and Yishma'el the son of Yehochanan, and Azaryah the son of Obed, and Ma`aseyah the son of `Adayah, and Elishaphat the son of Zikhri, into covenant with him. 2They went about in Judah (Yahudah), and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah (Yahudah), and the heads of fathers' houses of Isreal (Yisrael), and they came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 3All the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. He said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as YaHWeH has spoken concerning the sons of David. 4This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Shabbat, of the Priests (Kohanim) and of the Levites, shall be porters of the thresholds; 5and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of YaHWeH. 6But let none come into the house of YaHWeH, save the Priests (Kohanim), and those who minister of the Levites; they shall come in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the charge of YaHWeH. 7The Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be slain: and be you with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out.

8So the Levites and all Judah (Yahudah) did according to all that Yehoiada the Priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Shabbat; with those who were to go out on the Shabbat; for Yehoiada the Priest didn't dismiss the shift. 9Yehoiada the Priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God. 10He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about. 11Then they brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king: and Yehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, Long live the king.

12When `Atalyah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of YaHWeH: 13and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets; the singers also played on instruments of music, and led the singing of praise. Then `Atalyah tore her clothes, and said, Treason! treason! 14Yehoiada the Priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Have her forth between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword: for the Priest said, Don't kill her in the house of YaHWeH. 15So they made way for her; and she went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house: and they killed her there.

16Yehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be YaHWeH's people. 17All the people went to the house of Ba`al, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the Priest of Ba`al before the altars. 18Yehoiada appointed the officers of the house of YaHWeH under the hand of the Priests (Kohanim) the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of YaHWeH, to offer the burnt offerings of YaHWeH, as it is written in the law of Moses (Moshe), with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David. 19He set the porters at the gates of the house of YaHWeH, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. 20He took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of YaHWeH: and they came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. 21So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. `Atalyah they had slain with the sword.

Yo'ash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Tzibyah, of Be'er-Sheba. 2Yo'ash did that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH all the days of Yehoiada the Priest. 3Yehoiada took for him two wives; and he became the father of sons and daughters.

4It happened after this, that Yo'ash was minded to restore the house of YaHWeH. 5He gathered together the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah (Yahudah), and gather of all Isreal (Yisrael) money to repair the house of your God from year to year; and see that you hasten the matter. However the Levites didn't hurry. 6The king called for Yehoiada the chief, and said to him, Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah (Yahudah) and out of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) the tax of Moses (Moshe) the servant of YaHWeH, and of the assembly of Isreal (Yisrael), for the tent of the testimony? 7For the sons of `Atalyah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of YaHWeH did they bestow on the Ba`alim.

8So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of YaHWeH. 9They made a proclamation through Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to bring in for YaHWeH the tax that Moses (Moshe) the servant of God laid on Isreal (Yisrael) in the wilderness. 10All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. 11It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's Scribe and the chief Priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. 12The king and Yehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of YaHWeH; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of YaHWeH, and also such as worked iron and brass to repair the house of YaHWeH. 13So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up the house of God in its state, and strengthened it. 14When they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Yehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of YaHWeH, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of YaHWeH continually all the days of Yehoiada.

15But Yehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; one hundred thirty years old was he when he died. 16They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Isreal (Yisrael), and toward God and his house.

17Now after the death of Yehoiada came the princes of Judah (Yahudah), and made obeisance to the king. Then the king listened to them. 18They forsook the house of YaHWeH, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came on Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) for this their guiltiness. 19Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to YaHWeH; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20The Spirit of God came on Zekharyah the son of Yehoiada the Priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, Thus says God, Why disobey you the commandments (mitzvot) of YaHWeH, so that you can't prosper? because you have forsaken YaHWeH, he has also forsaken you. 21They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the word of the king in the court of the house of YaHWeH. 22Thus Yo'ash the king didn't remember the kindness which Yehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, YaHWeH look on it, and require it.

23It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Aram came up against him: and they came to Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the king of Damascus (Dammesek). 24For the army of the Aram came with a small company of men; and YaHWeH delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken YaHWeH, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Yo'ash.

25When they were departed for him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Yehoiada the Priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the kings. 26These are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shim`at the `Ammonite, and YehoZabad the son of Shimrit the Moabite. 27Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid on him, and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amatzyah his son reigned in his place.

Amatzyah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Yeho`addan, of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2He did that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH, but not with a perfect heart. 3Now it happened, when the kingdom was established to him, that he killed his servants who had killed the king his father. 4But he didn't put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the book of Moses (Moshe), as YaHWeH commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.

5Moreover Amatzyah gathered Judah (Yahudah) together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin): and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield. 6He hired also one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Isreal (Yisrael) for one hundred talents of silver. 7But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, don't let the army of Isreal (Yisrael) go with you; for YaHWeH is not with Isreal (Yisrael), to wit, with all the children of Ephraim (Efrayim). 8But if you will go, do valiantly, be strong for the battle: God will cast you down before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to cast down. 9Amatzyah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Isreal (Yisrael)? The man of God answered, YaHWeH is able to give you much more than this. 10Then Amatzyah separated them, to wit, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim (Efrayim), to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah (Yahudah), and they returned home in fierce anger. 11Amatzyah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck of the children of Se`ir ten thousand. 12*other* ten thousand did the children of Judah (Yahudah) carry away alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. 13But the men of the army whom Amatzyah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah (Yahudah), from Samaria (Shomron) even to Beit-Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil.

14Now it happened, after that Amatzyah was come from the slaughter of the Edom, that he brought the gods of the children of Se`ir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. 15Therefore the anger of YaHWeH was kindled against Amatzyah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand? 16It happened, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, Have we made you of the king's counsel? Stop! Why should you be struck down? Then the prophet stopped, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel.

17Then Amatzyah king of Judah (Yahudah) took advice, and sent to Yo'ash, the son of Yeho'achaz the son of Yehu, king of Isreal (Yisrael), saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. 18Yo'ash king of Isreal (Yisrael) sent to Amatzyah king of Judah (Yahudah), saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife: and there passed by a wild animal that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle. 19You say, Behold, you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast: abide now at home; why should you meddle to your hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah (Yahudah) with you?

20But Amatzyah would not hear; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. 21So Yo'ash king of Isreal (Yisrael) went up; and he and Amatzyah king of Judah (Yahudah) looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah (Yahudah). 22Judah (Yahudah) was put to the worse before Isreal (Yisrael); and they fled every man to his tent. 23Yo'ash king of Isreal (Yisrael) took Amatzyah king of Judah (Yahudah), the son of Yo'ash the son of Yeho'achaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and broke down the wall of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) from the gate of Ephraim (Efrayim) to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. 24*He took* all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria (Shomron).

25Amatzyah the son of Yo'ash king of Judah (Yahudah) lived after the death of Yo'ash son of Yeho'achaz king of Isreal (Yisrael) fifteen years. 26Now the rest of the acts of Amatzyah, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah (Yahudah) and Isreal (Yisrael)? 27Now from the time that Amatzyah did turn away from following YaHWeH they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and he fled to Lakhish: but they sent after him to Lakhish, and killed him there. 28They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah (Yahudah).

All the people of Judah (Yahudah) took `Uzziyah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amatzyah. 2He built Elot, and restored it to Judah (Yahudah), after that the king slept with his fathers. 3Sixteen years old was `Uzziyah when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Yekholyah, of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 4He did that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH, according to all that his father Amatzyah had done. 5He set himself to seek God in the days of Zekharyah, who had understanding in the vision of God: and as long as he sought YaHWeH, God made him to prosper.

6He went forth and warred against the Philistines (Pelishtim), and broke down the wall of Gat, and the wall of Yabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities in the country of Ashdod, and among the Philistines (Pelishtim). 7God helped him against the Philistines (Pelishtim), and against the Arabi'im who lived in Gur-Ba`al, and the Me`unim. 8The `Ammonim gave tribute to `Uzziyah: and his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt (Mitzrayim); for he grew exceeding strong. 9Moreover `Uzziyah built towers in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them. 10He built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns, for he had much cattle; in the lowland also, and in the plain: and he had farmers and vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields; for he loved farming. [11]Moreover `Uzziyah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Ye`i'el the Scribe and Ma`aseyah the officer, under the hand of Hananyah, one of the king's captains. [12]The whole number of the heads of fathers' houses, even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand and six hundred. [13]Under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. [14]`Uzziyah prepared for them, even for all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging. [15]He made in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) engines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong.

[16]But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against YaHWeH his God; for he went into the temple of YaHWeH to burn incense on the altar of incense. [17]Azaryah the Priest went in after him, and with him eighty Priests (Kohanim) of YaHWeH, who were valiant men: [18]and they withstood `Uzziyah the king, and said to him, It pertains not to you, `Uzziyah, to burn incense to YaHWeH, but to the Priests (Kohanim) the sons of Aharon, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honor from YaHWeH God. [19]Then `Uzziyah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the Priests (Kohanim), the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the Priests (Kohanim) in the house of YaHWeH, beside the altar of incense. [20]Azaryah the chief Priest, and all the Priests (Kohanim), looked on him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; yes, himself hurried also to go out, because YaHWeH had struck him. [21]`Uzziyah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of YaHWeH: and Yotam his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

[22]Now the rest of the acts of `Uzziyah, first and last, did Isaiah (Yesha`yah) the prophet, the son of Amotz, write. [23]So `Uzziyah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Yotam his son reigned in his place.

Yotam was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Yerusha the daughter of Tzadok. [2]He did that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH, according to all that his father `Uzziyah had done: however he didn't enter into the temple of YaHWeH. The people did yet corruptly. 3He built the upper gate of the house of YaHWeH, and on the wall of `Ofel he built much. 4Moreover he built cities in the hill-country of Judah (Yahudah), and in the forests he built castles and towers. 5He fought also with the king of the children of `Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of `Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of `Ammon render to him, in the second year also, and in the third. 6So Yotam became mighty, because he ordered his ways before YaHWeH his God. 7Now the rest of the acts of Yotam, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah). 8He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 9Yotam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Achaz his son reigned in his place.

Achaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH, like David his father; 2but he walked in the ways of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael), and made also molten images for the Ba`alim. 3Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom YaHWeH cast out before the children of Isreal (Yisrael). 4He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5Therefore YaHWeH his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Aram; and they struck him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus (Dammesek). He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Isreal (Yisrael), who struck him with a great slaughter. 6For Pekach the son of Remalyah killed in Judah (Yahudah) one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken YaHWeH, the God of their fathers. 7Zikhri, a mighty man of Ephraim (Efrayim), killed Ma`aseyah the king's son, and `Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkana who was next to the king.

8The children of Isreal (Yisrael) carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria (Shomron). 9But a prophet of YaHWeH was there, whose name was `Oded: and he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria (Shomron), and said to them, Behold, because YaHWeH, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah (Yahudah), he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. 10Now you purpose to keep under the children of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) for bondservants and bondmaids to you: but aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against YaHWeH your God? 11Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive of your brothers; for the fierce wrath of YaHWeH is on you. 12Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim (Efrayim), Azaryah the son of Yochanan, Berekhyah the son of Meshillemot, and YecHezekiah (Hizkiyah) the son of Shallum, and `Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, 13and said to them, You shall not bring in the captives here: for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against YaHWeH, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Isreal (Yisrael). 14So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly. 15The men who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Yericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers: then they returned to Samaria (Shomron).

16At that time did king Achaz send to the kings of Ashshur to help him. 17For again the Edom had come and struck Judah (Yahudah), and carried away captives. 18The Philistines (Pelishtim) also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah (Yahudah), and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ayalon, and Kederot, and Sokho with the towns of it, and Timnah with the towns of it, Gimzo also and the towns of it: and they lived there. 19For YaHWeH brought Judah (Yahudah) low because of Achaz king of Isreal (Yisrael); for he had dealt wantonly in Judah (Yahudah), and trespassed severely against YaHWeH. 20Tilgat-Pilne'eser king of Ashshur came to him, and distressed him, but didn't strengthen him. 21For Achaz took away a portion out of the house of YaHWeH, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Ashshur: but it didn't help him

. 22In the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against YaHWeH, this same king Achaz. 23For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus (Dammesek), which struck him; and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Isreal (Yisrael). 24Achaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of YaHWeH; and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 25In every city of Judah (Yahudah) he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger YaHWeH, the God of his fathers. 26Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah (Yahudah) and Isreal (Yisrael). 27Achaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); for they didn't bring him into the tombs of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael): and Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and his mother's name was Abiyah, the daughter of Zekharyah. 2He did that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH, according to all that David his father had done.

3He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of YaHWeH, and repaired them. 4He brought in the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, 5and said to them, Hear me, you Levites; now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of YaHWeH, the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place. 6For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of YaHWeH, and turned their backs. 7Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 8Therefore the wrath of YaHWeH was on Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. 9For, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. 10Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), that his fierce anger may turn away from us. 11My sons, don't be negligent now; for YaHWeH has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense.

12Then the Levites arose, Machat, the son of `Amasai, and Yo'el the son of Azaryah, of the sons of the Kehati; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azaryah the son of Yehallel'el; and of the Gershoni, Yo'ach the son of Zimmah, and `Eden the son of Yo'ach; 13and of the sons of Elitzafan, Shimri and Ye`u'el; and of the sons of Asaf, Zekharyah and Mattanyah; 14and of the sons of Heman, Yechi'el and Shim`i; and of the sons of Yedutun, Shemayah and `Uzzi'el. 15They gathered their brothers, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the word of the king by the words of YaHWeH, to cleanse the house of YaHWeH. 16The Priests (Kohanim) went in to the inner part of the house of YaHWeH, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of YaHWeH into the court of the house of YaHWeH. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron. 17Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of YaHWeH; and they sanctified the house of YaHWeH in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. 18Then they went in to Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) the king within the palace, and said, We have cleansed all the house of YaHWeH, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels of it, and the table of show bread, with all the vessels of it. 19Moreover all the vessels, which king Achaz in his reign did cast away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and, behold, they are before the altar of YaHWeH.

20Then Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of YaHWeH. 21They brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah (Yahudah). He commanded the Priests (Kohanim) the sons of Aharon to offer them on the altar of YaHWeH. 22So they killed the bulls, and the Priests (Kohanim) received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. 23They brought near the male goats for the sin-offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them: 24and the Priests (Kohanim) killed them, and they made a sin-offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Isreal (Yisrael); for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Isreal (Yisrael).

25He set the Levites in the house of YaHWeH with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the word of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Natan the prophet; for the word was of YaHWeH by his prophets. 26The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the Priests (Kohanim) with the trumpets. 27Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of YaHWeH began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Isreal (Yisrael). 28All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29When they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped. 30Moreover Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to YaHWeH with the words of David, and of Asaf the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

31Then Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) answered, Now you have consecrated yourselves to YaHWeH; come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of YaHWeH. The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. 32The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to YaHWeH. 33The consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep. 34But the Priests (Kohanim) were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the Priests (Kohanim) had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the Priests (Kohanim). 35Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and with the drink-offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of YaHWeH was set in order. 36Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) sent to all Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah), and wrote letters also to Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashsheh), that they should come to the house of YaHWeH at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to keep the Pesach to YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 2For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), to keep the Pesach in the second month. 3For they could not keep it at that time, because the Priests (Kohanim) had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 4The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. 5So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Isreal (Yisrael), from Be'er-Sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Pesach to YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written. 6So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah), and according to the word of the king, saying, You children of Isreal (Yisrael), turn again to YaHWeH, the God of Abraham, Isaac (Yitzchak), and Isreal (Yisrael), that he may return to the remnant that have escaped of you out of the hand of the kings of Ashshur. 7Don't be you like your fathers, and like your brothers, who trespassed against YaHWeH, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see. 8Now don't you be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves to YaHWeH, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve YaHWeH your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. 9For if you turn again to YaHWeH, your brothers and your children shall find compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for YaHWeH your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him.

10So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashsheh), even to Zebulun: but they ridiculed them, and mocked them. 11Nevertheless certain men of Asher and Manasseh (Menashsheh) and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 12Also on Judah (Yahudah) came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the word of the king and of the princes by the word of YaHWeH.

13There assembled at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) much people to keep the feast of matzah in the second month, a very great assembly. 14They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. 15Then they killed the Pesach on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of YaHWeH. 16They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses (Moshe) the man of God: the Priests (Kohanim) sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. 17For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites had the charge of killing the Pesachim for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to YaHWeH. 18For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashsheh), Issacher (Yissakhar) and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the Pesach otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) had prayed for them, saying, The good YaHWeH pardon everyone 19who sets his heart to seek God, YaHWeH, the God of his fathers, though not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. 20YaHWeH listened to Hezekiah (Hizkiyah), and healed the people. 21The children of Isreal (Yisrael) who were present at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) kept the feast of matzah seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the Priests (Kohanim) praised YaHWeH day by day, singing with loud instruments to YaHWeH. 22Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of YaHWeH. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace-offerings, and making confession to YaHWeH, the God of their fathers.

23The whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept other seven days with gladness. 24For Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) king of Judah (Yahudah) did give to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of Priests (Kohanim) sanctified themselves. 25All the assembly of Judah (Yahudah), with the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Isreal (Yisrael), and the foreigners who came out of Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), and who lived in Judah (Yahudah), rejoiced. 26So there was great joy in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); for since the time of Solomon (Shlomo) the son of David king of Isreal (Yisrael) there was not the like in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 27Then the Priests (Kohanim) the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even to heaven.

Now when all this was finished, all Isreal (Yisrael) who were present went out to the cities of Judah (Yahudah), and broke in pieces the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), in Ephraim (Efrayim) also and Manasseh (Menashsheh), until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Isreal (Yisrael) returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) appointed the courses of the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, both the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of YaHWeH. 3*He appointed* also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Shabbatot, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of YaHWeH. 4Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) to give the portion of the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of YaHWeH. 5As soon as the word came abroad, the children of Isreal (Yisrael) gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. 6The children of Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah), who lived in the cities of Judah (Yahudah), they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to YaHWeH their God, and laid them by heaps. 7In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. 8When Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed YaHWeH, and his people Isreal (Yisrael). 9Then Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) questioned the Priests (Kohanim) and the Levites concerning the heaps. 10Azaryah the chief Priest, of the house of Tzadok, answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of YaHWeH, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for YaHWeH has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11Then Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) commanded to prepare chambers in the house of YaHWeH; and they prepared them. 12They brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Kananyah the Levite was ruler, and Shim`i his brother was second. 13Yechi'el, and Azazyah, and Nachat, and `Asa'el, and Yerimot, and Yozabad, and Eli'el, and Yismakhyahu, and Machat, and Benayah, were overseers under the hand of Kananyah and Shim`i his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) the king, and Azaryah the ruler of the house of God. 14Kore the son of Yimna the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill-offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of YaHWeH, and the most holy things. 15Under him were `Eden, and Minyamin, and Yeshua, and Shemayah, Amaryah, and Shekhanyah, in the cities of the Priests (Kohanim), in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by courses, as well to the great as to the small: 16besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of YaHWeH, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their courses; 17and those who were reckoned by genealogy of the Priests (Kohanim) by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their courses; 18and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. 19Also for the sons of Aharon the Priests (Kohanim), who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the Priests (Kohanim), and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites.

20Thus did Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) throughout all Judah (Yahudah); and he worked that which was good and right and faithful before YaHWeH his God. 21In every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments (mitzvot), to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

After these things, and this faithfulness, Sancheriv king of Ashshur came, and entered into Judah (Yahudah), and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself. 2When Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) saw that Sancheriv was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), 3he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city; and they helped him. 4So there was gathered much people together, and they stopped all the springs, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Ashshur come, and find much water? 5He took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it up to the towers, and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. 6He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, 7Be strong and of good courage, don't be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Ashshur, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater with us than with him: 8with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is YaHWeH our God to help us, and to fight our battles. The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) king of Judah (Yahudah).

9After this did Sancheriv king of Ashshur send his servants to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), (now he was before Lakhish, and all his power with him,) to Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) king of Judah (Yahudah), and to all Judah (Yahudah) who were at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, 10Thus says Sancheriv king of Ashshur, Whereon do you trust, that you abide the siege in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim)? 11Does not Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, YaHWeH our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Ashshur? 12Has not the same Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), saying, You shall worship before one altar, and on it shall you burn incense? 13 Don't you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any wise able to deliver their land out of my hand? 14Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? 15Now therefore don't let Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) deceive you, nor persuade you after this manner, neither believe you him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand?

16His servants spoke yet more against YaHWeH God, and against his servant Hezekiah (Hizkiyah). 17He wrote also letters, to rail on YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) not deliver his people out of my hand. 18They cried with a loud voice in the Jew (Yehudi)' language to the people of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. 19They spoke of the God of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.

20Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) the king, and Isaiah (Yesha`yah) the prophet the son of Amotz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. 21YaHWeH sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Ashshur. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he was come into the house of his god, those who came forth from his own bowels killed him there with the sword. 22Thus YaHWeH saved Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) from the hand of Sancheriv the king of Ashshur, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. 23Many brought gifts to YaHWeH to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and precious things to Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) king of Judah (Yahudah); so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24In those days Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) was sick even to death: and he prayed to YaHWeH; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign. 25But Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) didn't render again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 26Notwithstanding Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), so that the wrath of YaHWeH didn't come on them in the days of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah).

27Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) had exceeding much riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels; 28store-houses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of animals, and flocks in folds. 29Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance. 30This same Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gichon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) prospered in all his works. 31However in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babel, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah (Hizkiyah), and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah (Yesha`yah) the prophet the son of Amotz, in the book of the kings of Judah (Yahudah) and Isreal (Yisrael). 33Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David: and all Judah (Yahudah) and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) did him honor at his death. Manasseh (Menashsheh) his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh (Menashsheh) was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2He did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH, after the abominations of the nations whom YaHWeH cast out before the children of Isreal (Yisrael). 3For he built again the high places which Hezekiah (Hizkiyah) his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Ba`alim, and made

Asherot, and worshiped all the host of the sky, and served them. 4He built altars in the house of YaHWeH, whereof YaHWeH said, In Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) shall my name be forever. 5He built altars for all the host of the sky in the two courts of the house of YaHWeH. 6He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he practiced sorcery, and used enchantments, and practiced sorcery, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he worked much evil in the sight of YaHWeH, to provoke him to anger. 7He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon (Shlomo) his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Isreal (Yisrael), will I put my name forever: 8neither will I any more remove the foot of Isreal (Yisrael) from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given by Moses (Moshe). 9Manasseh (Menashsheh) seduced Judah (Yahudah) and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), so that they did evil more than did the nations whom YaHWeH destroyed before the children of Isreal (Yisrael).

10YaHWeH spoke to Manasseh (Menashsheh), and to his people; but they gave no heed. 11Therefore YaHWeH brought on them the captains of the host of the king of Ashshur, who took Manasseh (Menashsheh) in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babel. 12When he was in distress, he begged YaHWeH his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. 13He prayed to him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) into his kingdom. Then Manasseh (Menashsheh) knew that YaHWeH he was God.

18Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh (Menashsheh), and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael), behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael). 19His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before he humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history of Hozai. [20]So Manasseh (Menashsheh) slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his place.

[21]Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [22]He did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH, as did Manasseh (Menashsheh) his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh (Menashsheh) his father had made, and served them. [23]He didn't humble himself before YaHWeH, as Manasseh (Menashsheh) his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. [24]His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. [25]But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah (Yoshiyah) his son king in his place.

Josiah (Yoshiyah) was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [2]He did that which was right in the eyes of YaHWeH, and walked in the ways of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. [3]For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) from the high places, and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images. [4]They broke down the altars of the Ba`alim in his presence; and the sun-images that were on high above them he hewed down; and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. [5]He burnt the bones of the Priests (Kohanim) on their altars, and purged Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [6]So did he in the cities of Manasseh (Menashsheh) and Ephraim (Efrayim) and Simeon (Shimon), even to Naftali, in their ruins round about. [7]He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and hewed down all the sun-images throughout all Earth-Isreal (Yisrael), and returned to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

[8]Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shafan the son of Atzalyahu, and Ma`aseyah the governor of the city, and Yo'ach the son of Yo'achaz the recorder, to repair the house of YaHWeH his God. [9]They came to Hilkiyah the Priest Gadol, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh (Menashsheh) and Ephraim (Efrayim), and of all the remnant of Isreal (Yisrael), and of all Judah (Yahudah) and Benjamin (Binyamin), and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 10They delivered it into the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of YaHWeH; and the workmen who labored in the house of YaHWeH gave it to mend and repair the house; 11even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah (Yahudah) had destroyed. 12The men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Yachat and Obadiah (Obadyah), the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zekharyah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kehati, to set it forward; and others of the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music. 13Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were Sofrim, and officers, and porters.

14When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of YaHWeH, Hilkiyah the Priest found the book of the law of YaHWeH given by Moses (Moshe). 15Hilkiyah answered Shafan the Scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of YaHWeH. Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shafan. 16Shafan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. 17They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of YaHWeH, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen. 18Shafan the Scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiyah the Priest has delivered me a book. Shafan read therein before the king.

22So Hilkiyah, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhat, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) in the second quarter;) and they spoke to her to that effect. 23She said to them, Thus says YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael): Tell you the man who sent you to me, 24Thus says YaHWeH, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah (Yahudah). 25Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched. [26]But to the king of Judah (Yahudah), who sent you to inquire of YaHWeH, thus shall you tell him, Thus says YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael): As touching the words which you have heard, [27]because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against the inhabitants of it, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says YaHWeH. [28]Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in shalom, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring on this place, and on the inhabitants of it. They brought back word to the king

. [29]Then the king sent and gathered together all the Elders (Zakenim) of Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). [30]The king went up to the house of YaHWeH, and all the men of Judah (Yahudah) and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of YaHWeH. [31]The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before YaHWeH, to walk after YaHWeH, and to keep his commandments (mitzvot), and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. [32]He caused all who were found in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) and Benjamin (Binyamin) to stand to it. The inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. [33]Josiah (Yoshiyah) took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Isreal (Yisrael), and made all who were found in Isreal (Yisrael) to serve, even to serve YaHWeH their God. All his days they didn't depart from following YaHWeH, the God of their fathers.

35

Josiah (Yoshiyah) kept a Pesach to YaHWeH in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and they killed the Pesach on the fourteenth day of the first month. [2]He set the Priests (Kohanim) in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of YaHWeH. [3]He said to the Levites who taught all Isreal (Yisrael), who were holy to YaHWeH, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon (Shlomo) the son of David king of Isreal (Yisrael) did build; there shall no more be a burden on your shoulders: now serve YaHWeH your God, and his people Isreal (Yisrael). [4]Prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses by your courses, according to the writing of David king of Isreal (Yisrael), and according to the writing of Solomon (Shlomo) his son. [5]Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. 6Kill the Pesach, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of YaHWeH by Moses (Moshe).

7Josiah (Yoshiyah) gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all of them for the Pesach offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls: these were of the king's substance. 8His princes gave for a freewill- offering to the people, to the Priests (Kohanim), and to the Levites. Hilkiyah and Zekharyah and Yechi'el, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the Priests (Kohanim) for the Pesach offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen. 9Kananyah also, and Shemayah and Netan'el, his brothers, and Hashabyah and Ye`i'el and Yozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Pesach offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10So the service was prepared, and the Priests (Kohanim) stood in their place, and the Levites by their courses, according to the king's word. 11They killed the Pesach, and the Priests (Kohanim) sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them. 12They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to YaHWeH, as it is written in the book of Moses (Moshe). So did they with the oxen. 13They roasted the Pesach with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. 14Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the Priests (Kohanim), because the Priests (Kohanim) the sons of Aharon were busied in offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the Priests (Kohanim) the sons of Aharon. 15The singers the sons of Asaf were in their place, according to the word of David, and Asaf, and Heman, and Yedutun the king's seer; and the porters were at every gate: they didn't need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.

16So all the service of YaHWeH was prepared the same day, to keep the Pesach, and to offer burnt-offerings on the altar of YaHWeH, according to the word of king Josiah (Yoshiyah). 17The children of Isreal (Yisrael) who were present kept the Pesach at that time, and the feast of matzah seven days. 18There was no Pesach like that kept in Isreal (Yisrael) from the days of Samuel (Shemu'el) the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael) keep such a Pesach as Josiah (Yoshiyah) kept, and the Priests (Kohanim), and the Levites, and all Judah (Yahudah) and Isreal (Yisrael) who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 19In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah (Yoshiyah) was this Pesach kept.

20After all this, when Josiah (Yoshiyah) had prepared the temple, Nekho king of Egypt (Mitzrayim) went up to fight against Karkemish by the Perat: and Josiah (Yoshiyah) went out against him. 21But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with you, you king of Judah (Yahudah)? I come not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; and God has commanded me to make haste: forbear you from meddling with God, who is with me, that he not destroy you. 22Nevertheless Josiah (Yoshiyah) would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and didn't listen to the words of Nekho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. 23The archers shot at king Josiah (Yoshiyah); and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded. 24So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem (YaHshalayim); and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim) mourned for Josiah (Yoshiyah). 25Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) lamented for Josiah (Yoshiyah): and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah (Yoshiyah) in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Isreal (Yisrael): and, behold, they are written in the lamentations. 26Now the rest of the acts of Josiah (Yoshiyah), and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the law of YaHWeH, 27and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah).

Then the people of the land took Yeho'achaz the son of Josiah (Yoshiyah), and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 2Yo'achaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim). 3The king of Egypt (Mitzrayim) deposed him at Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 4The king of Egypt (Mitzrayim) made Elyakim his brother king over Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and changed his name to Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim). Nekho took Yo'achaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt (Mitzrayim).

5Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) was Twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and he did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH his God. 6Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) king of Babel, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babel. 7Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) also carried of the vessels of the house of YaHWeH to Babel, and put them in his temple at Babel. 8Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) , and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Isreal (Yisrael) and Judah (Yahudah): and Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) his son reigned in his place.

9Jehoiakim (Yehoiakim) was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): and he did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH. 10At the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar) sent, and brought him to Babel, with the goodly vessels of the house of YaHWeH, and made Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah) his brother king over Judah (Yahudah) and Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

11Zedekiah (Tzidkiyah) was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim): 12and he did that which was evil in the sight of YaHWeH his God; he didn't humble himself before Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) the prophet speaking from the mouth of YaHWeH. 13He also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar (Nebukhadnetztzar), who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to YaHWeH, the God of Isreal (Yisrael). 14Moreover all the chiefs of the Priests (Kohanim), and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of YaHWeH which he had made holy in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim).

17Therefore he brought on them the king of the Kasdim, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed: he gave them all into his hand. 18All the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of YaHWeH, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Babel. 19They burnt the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), and burnt all the palaces of it with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it. 20Those who had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babel; and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persians (Paras): 21to fulfill the word of YaHWeH by the mouth of Jeremiah (Yirmeyah), until the land had enjoyed its Shabbatot: for as long as it lay desolate it kept Shabbat, to fulfill seventy years.

22Now in the first year of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), that the word of YaHWeH by the mouth of Jeremiah (Yirmeyah) might be accomplished, YaHWeH stirred up the spirit of Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, [23]Thus says Cyrus (Koresh) king of Persians (Paras), All the kingdoms of the earth has YaHWeH, the God of heaven, given me; and he has charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem (YaHshalayim), which is in Judah (Yahudah). Whoever there is among you of all his people, YaHWeH his God be with him, and let him go up.

Books called Apocrypha

Presented in blue text

King James Version

King James Version of 1611 followed the lead of the Luther Bible in using an inter-testamental section labelled "Books called Apocrypha". We have added the Apocrypha books to this bible version not as Holy Scripture or replacement thereof but using the historical value of when these were written, use in time and in the area of Israel which makes them of great value. Plus the completion of the books Esther and Daniel. We have used the blue text to distinguish from the Holy Scriptures and the Witnesses New Covenant. These should be of great value to the reader but should never supersede the Holy Scriptures or the Witnesses New Covenant doctrines, teachings or writings.

And Josias held the feast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; [2]Having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord. [3]And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built: [4]And said, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God,and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your families and kindreds, [5]According as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the temple according to the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel,[6]Offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the Passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses. [7]And unto the people that was found there Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. [8]And Helkias, Zacharias, and Syelus, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the Passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. [9]And Jeconias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Assabias, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and seven hundred calves. [10]And when these things were done, the priests and Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely order according to the kindreds, [11]And according to the several dignities of the fathers, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus did they in the morning. [12]And they roasted the passover with fire, as appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots and pans with a good savour, [13]And set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. [14]For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. [15]The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Jeduthun, who was of the king's retinue. [16]Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.[17]Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that theymight hold the passover, [18]And offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josias. [19]So the children of Israel which were present held the passover at that time, and the feast of sweet bread seven days. [20]And such a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel. [21]Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Jerusalem. [22]In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this passover kept. [23]And the works or Josias were upright before his Lord with an heart full of godliness. [24]As for the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against the Lord above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved him exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel. [25]Now after all these acts of Josias it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchamis upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him. [26]But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, what have I to do with thee, O king of Judea? [27]I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord. [28]Howbeit Josias did not turn back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremy spoken by the mouth of the Lord: [29]But joined battle with him in the plain of Magiddo, and the princes came against king Josias. [30]Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle. [31]Then gat he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his father's sepulchre. [32]And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias, yea, Jeremy the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel.

[33]These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of Judah, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judea. [34]And the people took Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old. [35]And he reigned in Judea and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem. [36]And he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. [37]The king of Egypt also made king Joacim his brother king of Judea and Jerusalem. [38]And he bound Joacim and the nobles: but Zaraces his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt. [39]Five and twenty years old was Joacim when he was made king in the land of Judea and Jerusalem; and he did evil before the Lord. [40]Wherefore against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him into Babylon. [41]Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple at Babylon. [42]But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleaness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings. [43]And Joacim his son reigned in his stead: he was made king being eighteen years old; [44]And reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did evil before the Lord. [45]So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord; [46]And made Zedechias king of Judea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years: [47]And he did evil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremy from the mouth of the Lord. [48]And after that king Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord God of Israel. [49]The governors also of the people and of the priests did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem. [50]Nevertheless the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he spared them and his tabernacle also. [51]But they had his messengers in derision; and, look, when the Lord spake unto them, they made a sport of his prophets: [52]So far forth, that he, being wroth with his people for their great ungodliness, commanded the kings of the Chaldees to come up against them; [53]Who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them; for he delivered all into their hands. [54]And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of God, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon. [55]As for the house of the Lord, they burnt it, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and set fire upon her towers: [56]And as for her glorious things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them all to nought: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried unto Babylon: [57]Who became servants to him and his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremy: [58]Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she rest, until the full term of seventy years.

In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that he had promised by the mouth of Jeremy; [2] The Lord raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, [3]Saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the most high Lord, hath made me king of the whole world, [4]And commanded me to build him an house at Jerusalem in Jewry. [5]If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel for he is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem. [6] Whosoever then dwell in the places about, let them help him, those, I say, that are his neighbours, with gold, and with silver, [7]With gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem. [8] Then the chief of the families of Judea and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose mind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build an house for the Lord at Jerusalem, [9]And they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of a great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. [10] King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels, which Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols. [11] Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithridates his treasurer [12]And by him they were delivered to Sanabassar the governor of Judea. [13]And this was the number of them; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, censers of [4] silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels. [14]So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were five thousand four hundred threescore and nine. [15]These were brought back by Sanabassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem. [16]But in the time of Artexerxes king of the Persians Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and Semellius the secretary, with others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem these letters following; [17]To king Artexerxes our lord, Thy servants, Rathumus the storywriter, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Celosyria and Phenice. [18]Be it now known to the lord king, that the Jews that are up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem, that rebellious and wicked city, do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it and do lay the foundation of the temple. [19]Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings. [20]And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, [21] But to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers [22]And thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities [23]And that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein; for the which cause even this city was made desolate. [24]Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, O lord the king, that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into Celosyria and Phenice. [25]Then the king wrote back again to Rathumus the storywriter, to Beeltethmus, to Semellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phenice, after this manner; [26]I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that that city was from the beginning practising against kings; [27]And the men therein were given to rebellion and war and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Celosyria and Phenice. [28]Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it; [29]And that those wicked workers proceed no further to the annoyance of kings, [30]Then king Artexerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste toward Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

Now when Darius reigned, he made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the princes of Media and Persia, [2]And to all the governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, from India unto Ethiopia, of an hundred twenty and seven provinces. [3]And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bedchamber, and slept, and soon after awaked. [4]Then three young men, that were of the guard that kept the king's body, spake one to another; [5]Let every one of us speak a sentence he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king Darius give great gifts, and great things in token of victory [6]As, to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and an headtire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck [7]And he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin. [8]And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow; [9]And said that, when the king is risen, some will give him the writings; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as was appointed. [10] The first wrote, Wine is the strongest. [11] The second wrote, The king is strongest. [12] The third wrote, Women are strongest but above all things Truth beareth away the victory. [13] Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them [14] And sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and Media, and the governors, and the captains, and the lieutenants, and the chief officers; [15] And sat him down in the royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read before them. [16]And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences. So they were called, and came in. [17]And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings. Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine; [18]And he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine! it causeth all men to err that drink it [19] It maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich [20]It turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt [21] And it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor; and it maketh to speak all things by talents [22]And when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords [23]But when they are from the wine, they remember not what they have done. [24]O ye men, is not wine the strongest, that enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, [2]O ye men, do not men excel in strength that bear rule over sea and land and all things in them? [3]But yet the king is more mighty for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do. [4]If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains walls and towers. [5]They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. [6]Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbundry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king. [7]And yet he is but one man if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; [8]If he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; [9]If he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. [10]So all his people and his armies obey him furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest [11]And these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in any thing. [12]O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue. [13]Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was Zorobabel) began to speak. [14]O ye men, it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that excelleth; who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women? [15]Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. [16]Even of them came they and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh. [17]These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be. [18]Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty? [19]And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever? [20]A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. [21]He sticketh not to spend his life with his wife.and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. [22]By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman? [23]Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; [24]And looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love. [25]Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother. [26]Yea, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes. [27]Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women. [28]And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? [29]Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, [30]And taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the king with her left hand. [31]And yet for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth if she laughed upon him, he laughed also but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. [32]O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus? [33]Then the king and the princes looked one upon another so he began to speak of the truth. [34]O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. [35]Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things. [36]All the earth crieth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing. [37]Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked works; and there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. [38]As for the truth, it endureth, and is always strong; it liveth and conquereth for evermore. [39]With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works. [40]Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, kingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth. [41]And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is Truth, and mighty above all things. [42]Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin. [43]Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, [44]And to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them again thither. [45]Thou also hast vowed to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldees. [46]And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality proceeding from thyself I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the King of heaven. [47]Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem. [48]He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Celosyria and Phenice, and unto them in Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. [49]Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; [50] And that all the country which they hold should be free without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held [51]Yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built; [52]And other ten talents yearly, to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen [53]And that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away. [54]He wrote also concerning. the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; [55]And likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up. [56]And he commanded to give to all that kept the city pensions and wages. [57]He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem. [58]Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the King of heaven, [59]And said, From thee cometh victory, from thee cometh wisdom, and thine is the glory, and I am thy servant. [60]Blessed art thou, who hast given me wisdom for to thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers. [61]And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren. [62]And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them freedom and liberty [63]To go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by his name and they feasted with instruments of musick and gladness seven days.

After this were the principal men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to go up with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menservants and maidservants, and their cattle. [2]And Darius sent with them a thousand horsemen, till they had brought them back to Jerusalem safely, and with musical [instruments] tabrets and flutes. [3]And all their brethren played, and he made them go up together with them. [4]And these are the names of the men which went up, according to their families among their tribes, after their several heads. [5]The priests, the sons of Phinees the son of Aaron Jesus the son of Josedec, the son of Saraias, and Joacim the son of Zorobabel, the son of Salathiel, of the house of David, out of the kindred of Phares, of the tribe of Judah; [6]Who spake wise sentences before Darius the king of Persia in the second year of his reign, in the month Nisan, which is the first month. [7]And these are they of Jewry that came up from the captivity, where they dwelt as strangers, whom Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon. [8]And they returned unto Jerusalem, and to the other parts of Jewry, every man to his own city, who came with Zorobabel, with Jesus, Nehemias, and Zacharias, and Reesaias, Enenius, Mardocheus. Beelsarus, Aspharasus, Reelius, Roimus, and Baana, their guides. [9]The number of them of the nation, and their governors, sons of Phoros, two thousand an hundred seventy and two; the sons of Saphat, four hundred seventy and two [10]The sons of Ares, seven hundred fifty and six [11]The sons of Phaath Moab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve [12]The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four the sons of Zathul, nine hundred forty and five the sons of Corbe, seven hundred and five the sons of Bani, six hundred forty and eight [13]The sons of Bebai, six hundred twenty and three the sons of Sadas, three thousand two hundred twenty and two [14]The sons of Adonikam, six hundred sixty and seven the sons of Bagoi, two thousand sixty and six the sons of Adin, four hundred fifty and four [15]The sons of Aterezias, ninety and two the sons of Ceilan and Azetas threescore and seven the sons [7] of Azuran, four hundred thirty and two [16]The sons of Ananias, an hundred and one the sons of Arom, thirty two and the sons of Bassa, three hundred twenty and three the sons of Azephurith, an hundred and two [17]The sons of Meterus, three thousand and five the sons of Bethlomon, an hundred twenty and three [18]They of Netophah, fifty and five they of Anathoth, an hundred fifty and eight they of Bethsamos, forty and two [19]They of Kiriathiarius, twenty and five they of Caphira and Beroth, seven hundred forty and three they of Pira, seven hundred [20]They of Chadias and Ammidoi, four hundred twenty and two they of Cirama and Gabdes, six hundred twenty and one [21]They of Macalon, an hundred twenty and two they of Betolius, fifty and two the sons of Nephis, an hundred fifty and six [22]The sons of Calamolalus and Onus, seven hundred twenty and five the sons of Jerechus, two hundred forty and five [23]The sons of Annas, three thousand three hundred and thirty. [24]The priests the sons of Jeddu, the son of Jesus among the sons of Sanasib, nine hundred seventy and two the sons of Meruth, a thousand fifty and two [25]The sons of Phassaron, a thousand forty and seven the sons of Carme, a thousand and seventeen. [26]The Levites the sons of Jessue, and Cadmiel, and Banuas, and Sudias, seventy and four. [27]The holy singers the sons of Asaph, an hundred twenty and eight. [28]The porters the sons of Salum, the sons of Jatal, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Dacobi, the sons of Teta, the sons of Sami, in all an hundred thirty and nine. [29]The servants of the temple the sons of Esau, the sons of Asipha, the sons of Tabaoth, the sons of Ceras, the sons of Sud, the sons of Phaleas, the sons of Labana, the sons of Graba, [30]The sons of Acua, the sons of Uta, the sons of Cetab, the sons of Agaba, the sons of Subai, the sons of Anan, the sons of Cathua, the sons of Geddur, [31]The sons of Airus, the sons of Daisan, the sons of Noeba, the sons of Chaseba, the sons of Gazera, the sons of Azia, the sons of Phinees, the sons of Azare, the sons of

Bastai, the sons of Asana, the sons of Meani, the sons of Naphisi, the sons of Acub, the sons of Acipha, the sons of Assur, the sons of Pharacim, the sons of Basaloth, [32]The sons of Meeda, the sons of Coutha, the sons of Charea, the sons of Charcus, the sons of Aserer, the sons of Thomoi, the sons of Nasith, the sons of Atipha. [33]The sons of the servants of Solomon the sons of Azaphion, the sons of Pharira, the sons of Jeeli, the sons of Lozon, the sons of Israel, the sons of Sapheth, [34]The sons of Hagia, the sons of Pharacareth, the sons of Sabi, the sons of Sarothie, the sons of Masias, the sons of Gar, the sons of Addus, the sons of Suba, the sons of Apherra, the sons of Barodis, the sons of Sabat, the sons of Allom. [35]All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two. [36]These came up from Thermeleth and Thelersas, Charaathalar leading them, and Aalar; [37]Neither could they shew their families, nor their stock, how they were of Israel the sons of Ladan, the son of Ban, the sons of Necodan, six hundred fifty and two. [38]And of the priests that usurped the office of the priesthood, and were not found the sons of Obdia, the sons of Accoz, the sons of Addus, who married Augia one of the daughters of Barzelus, and was named after his name. [39]And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood [40]For unto them said Nehemias and Atharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there arose up an high priest clothed with doctrine and truth. [41]So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, they were all in number forty thousand, beside menservants and womenservants two thousand three hundred and sixty. [42]Their menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred forty and seven the singing men and singing women, two hundred forty and five [43]Four hundred thirty and five camels, seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five beasts used to the yoke. [44]And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in his own place according to their ability, [45]And to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and an hundred priestly vestments. [46]And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages. [47]But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came all together with one consent into the open place of the first gate which is toward the east. [48]Then stood up Jesus the son of Josedec, and his brethren the priests and Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, [49]To offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. [50]And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. [51]Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet [52]And after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifice of the sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all holy feasts. [53]And all they that had made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the first day of the seventh month, although the temple of the Lord was not yet built. [54]And they gave unto the masons and carpenters money, meat, and drink, with cheerfulness. [55]Unto them of Zidon also and Tyre they gave carrs, that they should bring cedar trees from Libanus, which should be brought by floats to the haven of Joppa, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians. [56]And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedec, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity [57]And they laid the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Jewry and Jerusalem. [58]And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord. Then stood up Jesus, and his sons and brethren, and Cadmiel his brother, and the sons of Madiabun, with the sons of Joda the son of Eliadun, with their sons and brethren, all Levites, with one accord setters forward of the business, labouring to advance the works in the house of God. So the workmen built the temple of the Lord. [59]And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals, [60]Singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, according as David the king of Israel had ordained. [61]And they sung with loud voices songs to the praise of the Lord, because his mercy and glory is for ever in all Israel. [62]And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. [63]Also of the priests and Levites, and of the chief of their families, the ancients who had seen the former house came to the building of this with weeping and great crying. [64]But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice, [65]Insomuch that the trumpets might not be heard for the weeping of the people yet the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off. [66]Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that noise of trumpets should mean. [67]And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. [68]So they went to Zorobabel and Jesus, and to the chief of the families, and said unto them, We will build together with you. [69]For we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto him from the days of Azbazareth the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. [70]Then Zorobabel and Jesus and the chief of the families of Israel said unto them, It is not for us and you to build together an house unto the Lord our God. [71]We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. [72] But the heathen of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and holding them strait, hindered their building; [73]And by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived so they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius.

Now in the second year of the reign of Darius Aggeus and Zacharias the son of Addo, the prophets, prophesied unto the Jews in Jewry and Jerusalem in the name of the Lord God of Israel, which was upon them. [2]Then stood up Zorobabel the son of Salatiel, and Jesus the son of Josedec, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them. [3]At the same time came unto them Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said unto them, [4]By whose appointment do ye build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the workmen that perform these things? [5]Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favour, because the Lord had visited the captivity; [6] And they were not hindered from building, until such time as signification was given unto Darius concerning them, and an answer received. [7] The copy of the letters which Sisinnes, governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote and sent unto Darius; To king Darius, greeting [8]Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem we found in the city of Jerusalem the ancients of the Jews that were of the captivity [9]Building an house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, and the timber already laid upon the walls. [10]And those works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made. [11]Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build ye this house, and lay the foundations of these works? [12]Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men. [13]So they gave us this answer, We are the servants [9] of the Lord which made heaven and earth. [14] And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. [15]But when our fathers provoked God unto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, he gave them over into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, of the Chaldees; [16]Who pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives unto Babylon. [17]But in the first year that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon Cyrus the king wrote to build up this house. [18]And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set them in his own temple those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to Zorobabel and to Sanabassarus the ruler, [19]With commandment that he should carry away the same vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in his place. [20]Then the same Sanabassarus, being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended. [21]Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the records of king Cyrus [22]And if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signify unto us thereof. [23]Then commanded king Darius to seek among the records at Babylon and so at Ecbatane the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a roll wherein these things were recorded. [24]In the first year of the reign of Cyrus king Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord at Jerusalem should be built again, where they do sacrifice with continual fire [25]Whose height shall be sixty cubits and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expences thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus [26]And that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. [27]And also he commanded that Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phenice, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the elders of the Jews, to build the house of the Lord in that place. [28]I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of the Lord be finished [29]And out of the tribute of Celosyria and Phenice a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs; [30]And also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent [31]That offerings may be made to the most high God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. [32]And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of any thing afore spoken or written, out of his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king. [33]The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. [34]I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with diligence.

Then Sisinnes the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions following the commandments of king Darius, [2]Did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the ancients of the Jews and governors of the temple. [3]And so the holy works prospered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the prophets prophesied. [4]And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord God of Israel, and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artexerxes, kings of Persia. [5]And thus was the holy house finished in the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of Darius king of the Persians [6]And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and others that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses. [7]And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered an hundred bullocks two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; [8]And twelve goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the chief of the tribes of Israel. [9]The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindreds, in the service of the Lord God of Israel, according to the book of Moses and the porters at every gate. [10]And the children of Israel that were of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, after that the priests and the Levites were sanctified. [11]They that were of the captivity were not all sanctified together but the Levites were all sanctified together. [12]And so they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. [13]And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought the Lord. [14]And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, [15]For that he had turned the counsel of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord God of Israel.

And after these things, when Artexerxes the king of the Persians reigned came Esdras the son of Saraias, the son of Ezerias, the son of Helchiah, the son of Salum, [2] The son of Sadduc, the son of Achitob, the son of Amarias, the son of Ezias, the son of Meremoth, the son of Zaraias, the son of Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisum, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest. [3]This Esdras went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel. [4]And the king did him honour for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. [5]There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, of the priest of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, [6] In the seventh year of the reign of Artexerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which the Lord gave them. [7] For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments. [8] Now the copy of the commission, which was written from Artexerxes the king, and came to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, is this that followeth; [9] King Artexerxes unto Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord sendeth greeting [10] Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites being within our realm, as are willing and desirous should go with thee unto Jerusalem. [11] As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counsellors; [12] That they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord; [13] And carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be found, to the Lord in Jerusalem, [14] With that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God at Jerusalem and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining; [15] To the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. [16] And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy God. [17] And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Jerusalem. [18] And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury. [19] And I king Artexerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and the reader of the law of the most high God shall send for, they should give it him with speed, [20] To the sum of an hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to an hundred cors, and an hundred pieces of wine, and other things in abundance. [21] Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. [22] I command you also, that ye require no tax, nor any other imposition, of any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose any thing upon them. [23] And thou, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach. [24] And whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment. [25] Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lord God of my fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem [26] And hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles. [27] Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me. [28] And these are the chief according to their families and several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artexerxes [29] Of the sons of Phinees, Gerson of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael of the sons of David, Lettus the son of Sechenias [30] Of the sons of Pharez, Zacharias; and with him were counted an hundred and fifty men [31] Of the sons of Pahath Moab, Eliaonias, the son of Zaraias, and with him two hundred men [32] Of the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him three hundred men of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men [33] Of the sons of Elam, Josias son of Gotholias, and with him seventy men [34] Of the sons of Saphatias, Zaraias son of Michael, and with him threescore and ten men [35] Of the sons of Joab, Abadias son of Jezelus, and with him two hundred and twelve men [36] Of the sons of Banid, Assalimoth son of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and threescore men [37] Of the sons of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men [38] Of the sons of Astath, Johannes son of Acatan, and with him an hundred and ten men [39] Of the sons of Adonikam the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Jewel, and Samaias, and with them seventy men [40] Of the sons of Bago, Uthi the son of

Istalcurus, and with him seventy men. 41 And these I gathered together to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days and then I surveyed them. 42 But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites, 43 Then sent I unto Eleazar, and Iduel, and Masman, 44 And Alnathan, and Mamaias, and Joribas, and Nathan, Eunatan, Zacharias, and Mosollamon, principal men and learned. 45 And I bade them that they should go unto Saddeus the captain, who was in the place of the treasury 46 And commanded them that they should speak unto Daddeus, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of the Lord. 47 And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of Moli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, Asebebia, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen. 48 And Asebia, and Annus, and Osaias his brother, of the sons of Channuneus, and their sons, were twenty men. 49 And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites to wit, the servants of the temple two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed. 50 And there I vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the cattle 51 For I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. 52 For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways. 53 And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us. 54 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Esebrias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them 55 And I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given. 56 And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, 57 And twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. 58 And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. 59 Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God. 60 So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of the Lord. 61 And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us and from the beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. 62 And when we had been there three days, the gold and silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri. 63 And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu and Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites all was delivered them by number and weight. 64 And all the weight of them was written up the same hour. 65 Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, 66 Threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. 67 And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards' and to the governors of Celosyria and Phenice; and they honoured the people and the temple of God. 68 Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said, 69 The nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor the pollutions of the Gentiles to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pheresites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites. 70 For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity. 71 And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and very heavy. 72 So all they that were then moved at the word of the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. 73 Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, 74 I said, O Lord, I am confounded and ashamed before thy face; 75 For our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven. 76 For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day. 12 77 And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day. 78 And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of thy sanctuary; 79 And to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us food in the time of our servitude. 80 Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food; 81 Yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Jewry and Jerusalem. 82 And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying, 83 That the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. 84 Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons. 85 Moreover ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore. 86 And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins; for thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, 87 And didst give unto us such a root but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the uncleanness of the nations of the land. 88 Mightest not thou be angry with us to destroy us, till thou hadst left us neither root, seed, nor name? 89 O Lord of Israel, thou art true for we are left a root this day. 90 Behold, now are we before thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before thee. 91 And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children for there was great weeping among the multitude. 9 2 Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel aloft. Let us make an oath to the Lord, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the heathen, with their children, 94 Like as thou hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of the Lord. 95 Arise and put in execution for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee do valiantly. So Esdras arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

And after these things, when Artexerxes the king of the Persians reigned came Esdras the son of Saraias, the son of Ezerias, the son of Helchiah, the son of Salum, 2 The son of Sadduc, the son of Achitob, the son of Amarias, the son of Ezias, the son of Meremoth, the son of Zaraias, the son of Savias, the son of Boccas, the son of Abisum, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest. 3 This Esdras went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the God of Israel. 4 And the king did him honour for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. 5 There went up with him also certain of the children of Israel, of the priest of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, 6 In the seventh year of the reign of Artexerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for

they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which the Lord gave them. 7 For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments. 8 Now the copy of the commission, which was written from Artexerxes the king, and came to Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, is this that followeth; 9 King Artexerxes unto Esdras the priest and reader of the law of the Lord sendeth greeting 10 Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites being within our realm, as are willing and desirous should go with thee unto Jerusalem. 11 As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and my seven friends the counsellors; 12 That they may look unto the affairs of Judea and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord; 13 And carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be found, to the Lord in Jerusalem, 14 With that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God at Jerusalem and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining; 15 To the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. 16 And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy God. 17 And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Jerusalem. 18 And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury. 19 And I king Artexerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoever Esdras the priest and the reader of the law of the most high God shall send for, they should give it him with speed, 20 To the sum of an hundred talents of silver, likewise also of wheat even to an hundred cors, and an hundred pieces of wine, and other things in abundance. 21 Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. 22 I command you also, that ye require no tax, nor any other imposition, of any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that no man have authority to impose any thing upon them. 23 And thou, Esdras, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach. 24 And whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment. 25 Then said Esdras the scribe, Blessed be the only Lord God of my fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify his house that is in Jerusalem [26] And hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles. [27] Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me. [28] And these are the chief according to their families and several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artexerxes [29] Of the sons of Phinees, Gerson of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael of the sons of David, Lettus the son of Sechenias [30] Of the sons of Pharez, Zacharias; and with him were counted an hundred and fifty men [31] Of the sons of Pahath Moab, Eliaonias, the son of Zaraias, and with him two hundred men [32] Of the sons of Zathoe, Sechenias the son of Jezelus, and with him three hundred men of the sons of Adin, Obeth the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men [33] Of the sons of Elam, Josias son of Gotholias, and with him seventy men [34] Of the sons of Saphatias, Zaraias son of Michael, and with him threescore and ten men [35] Of the sons of Joab, Abadias son of Jezelus, and with him two hundred and twelve men [36] Of the sons of Banid, Assalimoth son of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and threescore men [37] Of the sons of Babi, Zacharias son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men [38] Of the sons of Astath, Johannes son of Acatan, and with him an hundred and ten men [39] Of the sons of Adonikam the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Jewel, and Samaias, and with them seventy men [40] Of the sons of Bago, Uthi the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men. [41] And these I gathered together to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days and then I surveyed them. [42] But when I had found there none of the priests and Levites, [43] Then sent I unto Eleazar, and Iduel, and Masman, [44] And Alnathan, and Mamaias, and Joribas, and Nathan, Eunatan, Zacharias, and Mosollamon, principal men and learned. [45] And I bade them that they should go unto Saddeus the captain, who was in the place of the treasury [46] And commanded them that they should speak unto Daddeus, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of the Lord. [47] And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of Moli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, Asebebia, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen. [48] And Asebia, and Annus, and Osaias his brother, of the sons of Channuneus, and their sons, were twenty men. [49] And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites to wit, the servants of the temple two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed. [50] And there I vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the cattle [51] For I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. 52 For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways. 53 And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us. 54 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Esebrias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them 55 And I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given. 56 And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, 57 And twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. 58 And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. 59 Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God. 60 So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of the Lord. 61 And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us and from the beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. 62 And when we had been there three days, the gold and silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri. 63 And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu and Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites all was delivered them by number and weight. 64 And all the weight of them was written up the same hour. 65 Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, 66 Threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. 67 And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards' and to the governors of Celosyria and Phenice; and they honoured the people and the temple of God. 68 Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said, 69 The nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor the pollutions of the Gentiles to wit, of the Canaanites, Hittites, Pheresites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites. 70 For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity. 71 And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and very heavy. 72 So all they that were then moved at the word of the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. 73 Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, 74 I said, O Lord, I am confounded and ashamed before thy face; 75 For our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven. 76 For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day. 77 And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day. 78 And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of thy sanctuary; 79 And to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us food in the time of our servitude. 80 Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord; but he made us gracious before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food; 81 Yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Jewry and Jerusalem. 82 And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying, 83 That the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. 84 Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons. 85 Moreover ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore. 86 And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins; for thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, 87 And didst give unto us such a root but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the uncleanness of the nations of the land. 88 Mightest not thou be angry with us to destroy us, till thou hadst left us neither root, seed, nor name? 89 O Lord of Israel, thou art true for we are left a root this day. 90 Behold, now are we before thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before thee. And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children for there was great weeping among the multitude. 92 Then Jechonias the son of Jeelus, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Esdras, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel aloft. 93 Let us make an oath to the Lord, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the heathen, with their children, [94] Like as thou hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of the Lord. Arise and put in execution for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee do valiantly. [96] So Esdras arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

The second book of the prophet Esdras, the son of Saraias, the son of Azarias, the son of Helchias, the son of Sadamias, the sou of Sadoc, the son of Achitob, [2] The son of Achias, the son of Phinees, the son of Heli, the son of Amarias, the son of Aziei, the son of Marimoth, the son of And he spake unto the of Borith, the son of Abisei, the son of Phinees, the son of Eleazar, [3] The son of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi; which was captive in the land of the Medes, in the reign of Artexerxes king of the Persians. [4] And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, [5] Go thy way, and shew my people their sinful deeds, and their children their wickedness which they have done against me; that they may tell their children's children [6] Because the sins of their fathers are increased in them for they have forgotten me, and have offered unto strange gods. [7] Am not I even he that brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage? but they have provoked me unto wrath, and despised my counsels. [8] Pull thou off then the hair of thy head, and cast all evil upon them, for they have not been obedient unto my law, but it is a rebellious people. [9] How long shall I forbear them, into whom I have done so much good? [10] Many kings have I destroyed for their sakes; Pharaoh with his servants and all his power have I smitten down. [11] All the nations have I destroyed before them, and in the east I have scattered the people of two provinces, even of Tyrus and Sidon, and have slain all their enemies. [1 2] Speak thou therefore unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord, [13] I led you through the sea and in the beginning gave you a large and safe passage; I gave you Moses for a leader, and Aaron for a priest. [14] I gave you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders have I done among you; yet have ye forgotten me, saith the Lord. [15] Thus saith the Almighty Lord, The quails were as a token to you; I gave you tents for your safeguard nevertheless ye murmured there, [16] And triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies, but ever to this day do ye yet murmur. [17] Where are the benefits that I have done for you? when ye were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, did ye not cry unto me, [18] Saying, Why hast thou brought us into this wilderness to kill us? it had been better for us to have served the Egyptians, than to die in this wilderness. [19] Then had I pity upon your mournings, and gave you manna to eat; so ye did eat angels' bread. [20] When ye were thirsty, did I not cleave the rock, and waters flowed out to your fill? for the heat I covered you with the leaves of the trees. [21] I divided among you a fruitful land, I cast out the Canaanites, the Pherezites, and the Philistines, before you what shall I yet do more for you? saith the Lord. [22] Thus saith the Almighty Lord, When ye were in the wilderness, in the river of the Amorites, being athirst, and blaspheming my name, [23] I gave you not fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet. [24] What shall I do unto thee, O Jacob? thou, Juda, wouldest not obey me I will turn me to other nations, and unto those will I give my name, that they may keep my statutes. [25] Seeing ye have forsaken me, I will forsake you also; when ye desire me to be gracious unto you, I shall have no mercy upon you. [26] Whensoever ye shall call upon me, I will not hear you for ye have defiled your hands with blood, and your feet are swift to commit manslaughter. [27] Ye have not as it were forsaken me, but your own selves, saith the Lord. [28] Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Have I not prayed you as a father his sons, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, [29] That ye would be my people, and I should be your God; that ye would be my children, and I should be your father? [30] I gathered you together, as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings but now, what shall I do unto you? I will cast you out from my face. [31] When ye offer unto me, I will turn my face from you for your solemn feastdays, your new moons, and your circumcisions, have I forsaken. [32] I sent unto you my servants the prophets, whom ye have taken and slain, and torn their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, saith the Lord. [33] Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Your house is desolate, I will cast you out as the wind doth stubble. [34] And your children shall not be fruitful; for they have despised my commandment, and done the thing that is an evil before me. [35] Your houses will I give to a people that shall come; which not having heard of me yet shall believe me; to whom I have shewed no signs, yet they shall do that I have commanded them. [36] They have seen no prophets, yet they shall call their sins to remembrance, and acknowledge them. [37] I take to witness the grace of the people to come, whose little ones rejoice in gladness and though they have not seen me with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they believe the thing that I say. [38] And now, brother, behold what glory; and see the people that come from the east [39] Unto whom I will give for leaders, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Oseas, Amos, and Micheas, Joel, Abdias, and Jonas, [40] Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Aggeus, Zachary, and Malachy, which is called also an angel of the Lord.

Thus saith the Lord, I brought this people out of bondage, and I gave them my commandments by my servants the prophets; whom they would not hear, but despised my counsels. 2 The mother that bare them saith unto them, Go your way, ye children; for I am a widow and forsaken. 3 I brought you up with gladness; but with sorrow and heaviness have I lost you for ye have sinned before the Lord your God, and done that thing that is evil before him. 4 But what shall I now do unto you? I am a widow and forsaken go your way, O my children, and ask mercy of the Lord. 5 As for me, O father, I call upon thee for a witness over the mother of these children, which would not keep my covenant, 6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoil, that there may be no offspring of them. 7 Let them be scattered abroad among the heathen, let their names be put out of the earth for they have despised my covenant. 8 Woe be unto thee, Assur, thou that hidest the unrighteous in thee! O thou wicked people, remember what I did unto Sodom and Gomorrha; 9 Whose land lieth in clods of pitch and heaps of ashes even so also will I do unto them that hear me not, saith the Almighty Lord. 10 Thus saith the Lord unto Esdras, Tell my people that I will give them the kingdom of Jerusalem, which I would have given unto Israel. 11 Their glory also will I take unto me, and give these the everlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for them. 12 They shall have the tree of life for an ointment of sweet savour; they shall neither labour, nor be weary. 13 Go, and ye shall receive pray for few days unto you, that they may be shortened the kingdom is already prepared for you watch. 14 Take heaven and earth to witness; for I have broken the evil in pieces, and created the good for I live, saith the Lord. 15 Mother, embrace thy children, and bring them up with gladness, make their feet as fast as a pillar for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord. 16 And those that be dead will I raise up again from their places, and bring them out of the graves for I have known my name in Israel. 17 Fear not, thou mother of the children for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord. 18 For thy help will I send my servants Esau and Jeremy, after whose counsel I have sanctified and prepared for thee twelve trees laden with divers fruits, 19 And as many fountains flowing with milk and honey, and seven mighty mountains, whereupon there grow roses and lilies, whereby I will fill thy children with joy. 20 Do right to the widow, judge for the fatherless, give to the poor, defend the orphan, clothe the naked, [21] Heal the broken and the weak, laugh not a lame man to scorn, defend the maimed, and let the blind man come into the sight of my clearness. [22] Keep the old and young within thy walls. [23] Wheresoever thou findest the dead, take them and bury them, and I will give thee the first place in my resurrection. [24] Abide still, O my people, and take thy rest, for thy quietness still come. [25] Nourish thy children, O thou good nurse; stablish their feet. [26] As for the servants whom I have given thee, there shall not one of them perish; for I will require them from among thy number. [27] Be not weary for when the day of trouble and heaviness cometh, others shall weep and be sorrowful, but thou shalt be merry and have abundance. [28] The heathen shall envy thee, but they shall be able to do nothing against thee, saith the Lord. [29] My hands shall cover thee, so that thy children shall not see hell. [30] Be joyful, O thou mother, with thy children; for I will deliver thee, saith the Lord. [31] Remember thy children that sleep, for I shall bring them out of the sides of the earth, and shew mercy unto them for I am merciful, saith the Lord Almighty. [32] Embrace thy children until I come and shew mercy unto them for my wells run over, and my grace shall not fail. [33] I Esdras received a charge of the Lord upon the mount Oreb, that I should go unto Israel; but when I came unto them, they set me at nought, and despised the commandment of the Lord. [34] And therefore I say unto you, O ye heathen, that hear and understand, look for your Shepherd, he shall give you everlasting rest; for he is nigh at hand, that shall come in the end of the world. [35] Be ready to the reward of the kingdom, for the everlasting light shall shine upon you for evermore. [36] Flee the shadow of this world, receive the joyfulness of your glory I testify my Saviour openly. [37] O receive the gift that is given you, and be glad, giving thanks unto him that hath led you to the heavenly kingdom. [38] Arise up and stand, behold the number of those that be sealed in the feast of the Lord; [39] Which are departed from the shadow of the world, and have received glorious garments of the Lord. [40] Take thy number, O Sion, and shut up those of thine that are clothed in white, which have fulfilled the law of the Lord. [41] The number of thy children, whom thou longedst for, is fulfilled beseech the power of the Lord, that thy people, which have been called from the beginning, may be hallowed. [42] I Esdras saw upon the mount Sion a great people, whom I could not number, and they all praised the Lord with songs. [43] And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads he set crowns, and was more exalted; which I marvelled at greatly. [44] So I asked the angel, and said, Sir, what are these? [45] He answered and said unto me, These be they that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God now are they crowned, and receive palms. [46] Then said I unto the angel, What young person is it that crowneth them, and giveth them palms in their hands? [47] So he answered and said unto me, It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of the Lord. 48 Then the angel said unto me, Go thy way, and tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord thy God, thou hast seen.

In the thirtieth year after the ruin of the city I was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart 2 For I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon. 3 And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the most High, and said, 4 O Lord, who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth, and that thyself alone, and commandedst the people, 5 And gavest a body unto Adam without soul, which was the workmanship of thine hands, and didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before thee. 6 And thou leadest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted, before ever the earth came forward. 7 And unto him thou gavest commandment to love thy way which he transgressed, and immediately thou appointedst death in him and in his generations, of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kindreds, out of number. 8 And every people walked after their own will, and did wonderful things before thee, and despised thy commandments. 9 And again in process of time thou broughtest the flood upon those that dwelt in the world, and destroyedst them. 10 And it came to pass in every of them, that as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these. 11 Nevertheless one of them thou leftest, namely, Noah with his household, of whom came all righteous men. 1 2 And it happened, that when they that dwelt upon the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they began again to be more ungodly than the first. 13 Now when they lived so wickedly before thee, thou didst choose thee a man from among them, whose name was Abraham. 14 Him thou lovedst, and unto him only thou shewedst thy will 15 And madest an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that thou wouldest never forsake his seed. 16 And unto him thou gavest Isaac, and unto Isaac also thou gavest Jacob and Esau. As for Jacob, thou didst choose him to thee, and put by Esau and so Jacob became a great multitude. 17 And it came to pass, that when thou leadest his seed out of Egypt, thou broughtest them up to the mount Sinai. [18] And bowing the heavens, thou didst set fast the earth, movedst the whole world, and madest the depths to tremble, and troubledst the men of that age. [19] And thy glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that thou mightest give the law unto the seed of Jacob, and diligence unto the generation of Israel. [20] And yet tookest thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them. [21] For the first Adam bearing a wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and so be all they that are born of him. [2 2] Thus infirmity was made permanent; and the law (also) in the heart of the people with the malignity of the root; so that the good departed away, and the evil abode still. [23] So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end then didst thou raise thee up a servant, called David [24] Whom thou commandedst to build a city unto thy name, and to offer incense and oblations unto thee therein. [25] When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city forsook thee, [26] And in all things did even as Adam and all his generations had done for they also had a wicked heart [27] And so thou gavest thy city over into the hands of thine enemies. [28] Are their deeds then any better that inhabit Babylon, that they should therefore have the dominion over Sion? [29] For when I came thither, and had seen impieties without number, then my soul saw many evildoers in this thirtieth year, so that my heart failed me. [30] For I have seen how thou sufferest them sinning, and hast spared wicked doers and hast destroyed thy people, and hast preserved thine enemies, and hast not signified it. [31] I do not remember how this way may be left Are they then of Babylon better than they of Sion? [3 2] Or is there any other people that knoweth thee beside Israel? or what generation hath so believed thy covenants as Jacob? [33] And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruit for I have gone here and there through the heathen, and I see that they flow in wealth, and think not upon thy commandments. [34] Weigh thou therefore our wickedness now in the balance, and their's also that dwell the world; and so shall thy name no where be found but in Israel. [35] Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what people have so kept thy commandments? [36] Thou shalt find that Israel by name hath kept thy precepts; but not the heathen.

And the angel that was sent unto me, whose name was Uriel, gave me an answer, [2] And said, Thy heart hath gone to far in this world, and thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the most High? [3] Then said I, Yea, my lord. And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee three ways, and to set forth three similitudes before thee [4] Whereof if thou canst declare me one, I will shew thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart cometh. [5] And I said, Tell on, my lord. Then said he unto me, Go thy way, weigh me the weight of the fire, or measure me the blast of the wind, or call me again the day that is past. [6] Then answered I and said, What man is able to do that, that thou shouldest ask such things of me? [7] And he said unto me, If I should ask thee how great dwellings are in the midst of the sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deep, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of paradise [8] Peradventure thou wouldest say unto me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven. [9] Nevertheless now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day wherethrough thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou give me no answer of them. [10] He said moreover unto me, Thine own things, and such as are grown up with thee, canst thou not know; [11] How should thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the Highest, and, the world being now outwardly corrupted to understand the corruption that is evident in my sight? [12] Then said I unto him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we should live still in wickedness, and to suffer, and not to know wherefore. [13] He answered me, and said, I went into a forest into a plain, and the trees took counsel, [14] And said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods. [15] The floods of the sea also in like manner took counsel, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the woods of the plain, that there also we may make us another country. [16] The thought of the wood was in vain, for the fire came and consumed it. [17] The thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to nought, for the sand stood up and stopped them. [18] If thou wert judge now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou begin to justify? or whom wouldest thou condemn? [19] I answered and said, Verily it is a foolish thought that they both have devised, for the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to bear his floods. [20] Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgment, but why judgest thou not thyself also? [21] For like as the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his floods even so they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth and he that dwelleth above the heavens may only understand the things that are above the height of the heavens. [22] Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, let me have understanding

[23] For it was not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as pass by us daily, namely, wherefore Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loved is given over unto ungodly nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written covenants come to none effect, [24] And we pass away out of the world as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment and fear, and we are not worthy to obtain mercy. [25] What will he then do unto his name whereby we are called? of these things have I asked. [26] Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvel; for the world hasteth fast to pass away, [27] And cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come for this world is full of unrighteousness and infirmities. [28] But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee; for the evil is sown, but the destruction thereof is not yet come. [29] If therefore that which is sown be not turned upside down, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, then cannot it come that is sown with good. [30] For the grain of evil seed hath been sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much ungodliness hath it brought up unto this time? and how much shall it yet bring forth until the time of threshing come? [31] Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness the grain of evil seed hath brought forth. [32] And when the ears shall be cut down, which are without number, how great a floor shall they fill? [33] Then I answered and said, How, and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years few and evil? [34] And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten above the most Highest for thy haste is in vain to be above him, for thou hast much exceeded. [35] Did not the souls also of the righteous ask question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the floor of our reward? [36] And unto these things Uriel the archangel gave them answer, and said, Even when the number of seeds is filled in you for he hath weighed the world in the balance. [37] By measure hath he measured the times; and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doth not move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled. [38] Then answered I and said, O Lord that bearest rule, even we all are full of impiety. [39] And for our sakes peradventure it is that the floors of the righteous are not filled, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth. [40] So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her. [41] Then said I, No, Lord, that can she not. And he said unto me, In the grave the chambers of souls are like the womb of a woman [42] For like as a woman that travaileth maketh haste to escape the necessity of the travail even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them. [43] From the beginning, look, what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee. [44] Then answered I and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, [45] Shew me then whether there be more to come than is past, or more past than is to come. [46] What is past I know, but what is for to come I know not. [47] And he said unto me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude unto thee. [48] So I stood, and saw, and, behold, an hot burning oven passed by before me and it happened that when the flame was gone by I looked, and, behold, the smoke remained still. [49] After this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained still. [50] Then said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke; but the drops and the smoke remain behind so the quantity which is past did more exceed. [51] Then I prayed, and said, May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or what shall happen in those days? [52] He answered me, and said, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; for I do not know it.

Nevertheless as coming the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth shall be taken in a great number, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and the land shall be barren of faith. [2] But iniquity shall be increased above that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long ago. [3] And the land, that thou seest now to have root, shalt thou see wasted suddenly. [4] But if the most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see after the third trumpet that the sun shall suddenly shine again in the night, and the moon thrice in the day [5] And blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall give his voice, and the people shall be troubled [6] And even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the earth, and the fowls shall take their flight away together [7] And the Sodomitish sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known but they shall all hear the voice thereof. [8] There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft sent out again, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and menstruous women shall bring forth monsters [9] And salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into his secret chamber, [10] And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found then shall unrighteousness and incontinency be multiplied upon earth. [11] One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? And it shall say, No. [12] At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obtain they shall labour, but their ways shall not prosper. [13] To shew thee such tokens I have leave; and if thou wilt pray again, and weep as now, and fast even days, thou shalt hear yet greater things. [14] Then I awaked, and an extreme fearfulness went through all my body, and my mind was troubled, so that it fainted. [15] So the angel that was come to talk with me held me, comforted me, and set me up upon my feet. [16] And in the second night it came to pass, that Salathiel the captain of the people came unto me, saying, Where hast thou been? and why is thy countenance so heavy? [17] Knowest thou not that Israel is committed unto thee in the land of their captivity? [18] Up then, and eat bread, and forsake us not, as the shepherd that leaveth his flock in the hands of cruel wolves. [19] Then said I unto him, Go thy ways from me, and come not nigh me. And he heard what I said, and went from me. [20] And so I fasted seven days, mourning and weeping, like as Uriel the angel commanded me. [21] And after seven days so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous unto me again, [22] And my soul recovered the spirit of understanding, and I began to talk with the most High again, [23] And said, O Lord that bearest rule, of every wood of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee one only vine [24] And of all lands of the whole world thou hast chosen thee one pit and of all the flowers thereof one lily [25] And of all the depths of the sea thou hast filled thee one river and of all builded cities thou hast hallowed Sion unto thyself [26] And of all the fowls that are created thou hast named thee one dove and of all the cattle that are made thou hast provided thee one sheep [27] And among all the multitudes of people thou hast gotten thee one people and unto this people, whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all. [28] And now, O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over unto many? and upon the one root hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy only one people among many? [29] And they which did gainsay thy promises, and believed not thy covenants, have trodden them down. [30] If thou didst so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punish them with thine own hands. [31] Now when I had spoken these words, the angel that came to me the night afore was sent unto me, [32] And said unto me, Hear me, and I will instruct thee; hearken to the thing that I say, and I shall tell thee more. [33] And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, Thou art sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake lovest thou that people better than he that made them? [34] And I said, No, Lord but of very grief have I spoken for my reins pain me every hour, while I labour to comprehend the way of the most High, and to seek out part of his judgment. [35] And he said unto me, Thou canst not. And I said, Wherefore, Lord?

whereunto was I born then? or why was not my mother's womb then my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of Jacob, and the wearisome toil of the stock of Israel? [36] And he said unto me, Number me the things that are not yet come, gather me together the dross that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers green again that are withered, [37] Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut up, shew me the image of a voice and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to know. [38] And I said, O Lord that bearest rule, who may know these things, but he that hath not his dwelling with men? [39] As for me, I am unwise how may I then speak of these things whereof thou askest me? [40] Then said he unto me, Like as thou canst do none of these things that I have spoken of, even so canst thou not find out my judgment, or in the end the love that I have promised unto my people. [41] And I said, Behold, O Lord, yet art thou nigh unto them that be reserved till the end and what shall they do that have been before me, or we that be now, or they that shall come after us? [42] And he said unto me, I will liken my judgment unto a ring like as there is no slackness of the last, even so there is no swiftness of the first. [43] So I answered and said, Couldest thou not make those that have been made, and be now, and that are for to come, at once; that thou mightest shew thy judgment the sooner? [44] Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not haste above the maker; neither may the world hold them at once that shall be created therein. [45] And I said, As thou hast said unto thy servant, that thou, which givest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it even so it might now also bear them that now be present at once. [46] And he said unto me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say unto her, If thou bringest forth children, why dost thou it not together, but one after another? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once. [47] And I said, She cannot but must do it by distance of time. [48] Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to those that be sown in it in their times. [49] For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, even so have I disposed the world which I created. [50] And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee for our mother, of whom thou hast told me that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age. [51] He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee. [52] Say unto her, Wherefore are unto they whom thou hast now brought forth like those that were before, but less of stature? [53] And she shall answer thee, They that be born in thestrength of youth are of one fashion, and they that are born in the time of age, when the womb faileth, are otherwise. [54] Consider thou therefore also, how that ye are less of stature than those that were before you. [55] And so are they that come after you less than ye, as the creatures which now begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth. [56] Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, if I have found favour in thy sight, shew thy servant by whom thou visitest thy creature.

And he said unto me, In the beginning, when the earth was made, before the borders of the world stood, or ever the winds blew, [2] Before it thundered and lightened, or ever the foundations of paradise were laid, [3] Before the fair flowers were seen, or ever the moveable powers were established, before the innumerable multitude of angels were gathered together, [4] Or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before the measures of the firmament were named, or ever the chimneys in Sion were hot, [5] And ere the present years were sought out, and or ever the inventions of them that now sin were turned, before they were sealed that have gathered faith for a treasure [6] Then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other by me also they shall be ended, and by none other. [7] Then answered I and said, What shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth? [8] And he said unto me, From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of him, Jacob's hand held first the heel of Esau. [9] For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth. [10] The hand of man is betwixt the heel and the hand other question, Esdras, ask thou not. [11] I answered then and said, O Lord that bearest rule, if I have found favour in thy sight, [12] I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst me part the last night. [13] So he answered and said unto me, Stand up upon thy feet, and hear a mighty sounding voice. [14] And it shall be as it were a great motion; but the place where thou standest shall not be moved. [15] And therefore when it speaketh be not afraid for the word is of the end, and the foundation of the earth is understood. [16] And why? because the speech of these things trembleth and is moved for it knoweth that the end of these things must be changed. [17] And it happened, that when I had heard it I stood up upon my feet, and hearkened, and, behold, there was a voice that spake, and the sound of it was like the sound of many waters. [18] And it said, Behold, the days come, that I will begin to draw nigh, and to visit them that dwell upon the earth, [19] And will begin to make inquisition of them, what they be that have hurt unjustly with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Sion

shall be fulfilled; [20] And when the world, that shall begin to vanish away, shall be finished, then will I shew these tokens the books shall be opened before the firmament, and they shall see all together [21] And the children of a year old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth untimely children of three or four months old, and they shall live, and be raised up. [22] And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty [23] And tha trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man heareth, they shall be suddenly afraid. [24] At that time shall friends fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the fountains shall stand still, and in three hours they shall not run. [25] Whosoever remaineth from all these that I have told thee shall escape, and see my salvation, and the end of your world. [26] And the men that are received shall see it, who have not tasted death from their birth and the heart of the inhabitants shall be changed, and turned into another meaning. [27] For evil shall be put out, and deceit shall be quenched. [28] As for faith, it shall flourish, corruption shall be overcome, and the truth, which hath been so long without fruit, shall be declared. [29] And when he talked with me, behold, I looked by little and little upon him before whom I stood. [30] And these words said he unto me; I am come to shew thee the time of the night to come. [31] If thou wilt pray yet more, and fast seven days again, I shall tell thee greater things by day than I have heard. [32] For thy voice is heard before the most High for the Mighty hath seen thy righteous dealing, he hath seen also thy chastity, which thou hast had ever since thy youth. [33] And therefore hath he sent me to shew thee all these things, and to say unto thee, Be of good comfort and fear not [34] And hasten not with the times that are past, to think vain things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times. [35] And it came to pass after this, that I wept again, and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfil the three weeks which he told me. [36] And in the eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the most High. [37] For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress. [38] And I said, O Lord, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, even the first day, and saidst thus; Let heaven and earth be made; and thy word was a perfect work. [39] And then was the spirit, and darkness and silence were on every side; the sound of man's voice was not yet formed. [40] Then commandedst thou a fair light to come forth of thy treasures, that thy work might appear. [41] Upon the second day thou madest the spirit of the firmament, and commandedst it to part asunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might go up, and the other remain beneath. [42] Upon the third day thou didst command that the waters should be gathered in the seventh part of the earth six pats hast thou dried up, and kept them, to the intent that of these some being planted of God and tilled might serve thee. [43] For as soon as thy word went forth the work was made. 44 For immediately there was great and innumerable fruit, and many and divers pleasures for the taste, and flowers of unchangeable colour, and odours of wonderful smell and this was done the third day. 45 Upon the fourth day thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and the stars should be in order 46 And gavest them a charge to do service unto man, that was to be made. 47 Upon the fifth day thou saidst unto the seventh part, where the waters were gathered that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes and so it came to pass. 48 For the dumb water and without life brought 22 forth living things at the commandment of God, that all people might praise thy wondrous works. 49 Then didst thou ordain two living creatures, the one thou calledst Enoch, and the other Leviathan; 50 And didst separate the one from the other for the seventh part, namely, where the water was gathered together, might not hold them both. 51 Unto Enoch thou gavest one part, which was dried up the third day, that he should dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hills 52 But unto Leviathan thou gavest the seventh part, namely, the moist; and hast kept him to be devoured of whom thou wilt, and when. 53 Upon the sixth day thou gavest commandment unto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, cattle, and creeping things 54 And after these, Adam also, whom thou madest lord of all thy creatures of him come we all, and the people also whom thou hast chosen. 55 All this have I spoken before thee, O Lord, because thou madest the world for our sakes 56 As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast said that they are nothing, but be like unto spittle and hast likened the abundance of them unto a drop that falleth from a vessel. 57 And now, O Lord, behold, these heathen, which have ever been reputed as nothing, have begun to be lords over us, and to devour us. 58 But we thy people, whom thou hast called thy firstborn, thy only begotten, and thy fervent lover, are given into their hands. 59 If the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess an inheritance with the world? how long shall this endure?

And when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent unto me the angel which had been sent unto me the nights afore 2 And he said unto me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell thee. 3 And I said, Speak on, my God. Then said he unto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deep and great. [4] But put the case the entrance were narrow, and like a river; [5] Who then could go into the sea to look upon it, and to rule it? if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad? [6] There is also another thing; A city is builded, and set upon a broad field, and is full of all good things [7] The entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a dangerous place to fall, like as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water [8] And one only path between them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once. [9] If this city now were given unto a man for an inheritance, if he never shall pass the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance? [10] And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he unto me, Even so also is Israel's portion. [11] Because for their sakes I made the world and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was decreed that now is done. [12] Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, full of sorrow and travail they are but few and evil, full of perils, and very painful. [13] For the entrances of the elder world were wide and sure, and brought immortal fruit. [14] If then they that live labour not to enter these strait and vain things, they can never receive those that are laid up for them. [15] Now therefore why disquietest thou thyself, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moved, whereas thou art but mortal? [16] Why hast thou not considered in thy mind this thing that is to come, rather than that which is present? [17] Then answered I and said, O Lord that bearest rule, thou hast ordained in thy law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the ungodly should perish. [18] Nevertheless the righteous shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide for they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide. [19] And he said unto me. There is no judge above God, and none that hath understanding above the Highest. [20] For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the law of God that is set before them. [21] For God hath given strait commandment to such as came, what they should do to live, even as they came, and what they should observe to avoid punishment. [22] Nevertheless they were not obedient unto him; but spake against him, and imagined vain things; [23] And deceived themselves by their wicked deeds; and said of the most High, that he is not; and knew not his ways [24] But his law have they despised, and denied his covenants; in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not performed his works. [25] And therefore, Esdras, for the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things. [26] Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I have told thee shall come to pass, and the bride shall appear, and she coming forth shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the earth. [27] And whosoever is delivered from the foresaid evils shall see my wonders. [28] For my son Jesus shall be revealed with those that be with him, and they that remain shall rejoice within four hundred years. [29] After these years shall my son Christ die, and all men that have life. [30] And the world shall be turned into the old silence seven days, like as in the former judgments so that no man shall remain. [31] And after seven days the world, that yet awaketh not, shall be raised up, and that shall die that is corrupt [32] And the earth shall restore those that are asleep in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell in silence, and the secret places shall deliver those souls that were committed unto them. [33] And the most High shall appear upon the seat of judgment, and misery shall pass away, and the long suffering shall have an end [34] But judgment only shall remain, truth shall stand, and faith shall wax strong [35] And the work shall follow, and the reward shall be shewed, and the good deeds shall be of force, and wicked deeds shall bear no rule. [36] Then said I, Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness [37] And Jesus after him for Israel in the time of Achan [38] And Samuel and David for the destruction and Solomon for them that should come to the sanctuary [39] And Helias for those that received rain; and for the dead, that he might live [40] And Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib and many for many. [41] Even so now, seeing corruption is grown up, and wickedness increased, and the righteous have prayed for the ungodly wherefore shall it not be so now also? [42] He answered me, and said, This present life is not the end where much glory doth abide; therefore have they prayed for the weak. [43] But the day of doom shall be the end of this time, and the beginning of the immortality for to come, wherein corruption is past, [44] Intemperance is at an end, infidelity is cut off, righteousness is grown, and truth is sprung up. [45] Then shall no man be able to save him that is destroyed, nor to oppress him that hath gotten the victory. [46] I answered then and said, This is my first and last saying, that it had been better not to have given the earth unto Adam or else, when it was given him, to have restrained him from sinning. [47] For what profit is it for men now in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment? [48] O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for though it was thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee. [49] For what profit is it unto us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done the works that bring death? [50] And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves being most wicked are made vain? [51] And that there are laid up for us dwellings of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly? [52] And that the glory of the most High is kept to defend them which have led a wary life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all? [53] And that there should be shewed a paradise, whose fruit endureth for ever, wherein is security and medicine, since we shall not enter into it? [54] (For we have walked in unpleasant places.) [55] And that the faces of them which have used abstinence shall shine above the stars, whereas our faces shall be blacker than darkness? [56] For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death. [57] Then answered he me, and said, This is the condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight; [58] That, if he be overcome, he shall suffer as thou hast said but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say. [59] For this is the life whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, Choose thee life, that thou mayest live. [60] Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no nor me which have spoken unto them, [61] That there should not be such heaviness in their destruction, as shall be joy over them that are persuaded to salvation. [62] I answered then, and said, I know, Lord, that the most High is called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world, [63] And upon those also that turn to his law; [64] And that he is patient, and long suffereth those that have sinned, as his creatures; [65] And that he is bountiful, for he is ready to give where it needeth; [66] And that he is of great mercy, for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come. [67] For if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not continue with them that inherit therein. [68] And he pardoneth; for if he did not so of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousandth part of men should not remain living. [69] And being judge, if he should not forgive them that are cured with his word, and put out the multitude of contentions, [70] There should be very few left peradventure in an innumerable multitude.

And he answered me, saying, The most High hath made this world for many, but the world to come for few. [2] I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras; As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it giveth much mould whereof earthen vessels are made, but little dust that gold cometh of even so is the course of this present world. [3] There be many created, but few shall be saved. [4] So answered I and said, Swallow then down, O my soul, understanding, and devour wisdom. [5] For thou hast agreed to give ear, and art willing to prophesy for thou hast no longer space than only to live. [6] O Lord, if thou suffer not thy servant, that we may pray before thee, and thou give us seed unto our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it; how shall each man live that is corrupt, who beareth the place of a man? [7] For thou art alone, and we all one workmanship of thine hands, like as thou hast said. [8] For when the body is fashioned now in the mother's womb, and thou givest it members, thy creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months doth [24] thy workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her. [9] But that which keepeth and is kept shall both be preserved and when the time cometh, the womb preserved delivereth up the things that grew in it. [10] For thou hast commanded out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milk to be given, which is the fruit of the breasts, [11] That the thing which is fashioned may be nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy. [12] Thou broughtest it up with thy righteousness, and nurturedst it in thy law, and reformedst it with thy judgment. [13] And thou shalt mortify it as thy creature, and quicken it as thy work. [14] If therefore thou shalt destroy him which with so great labour was fashioned, it is an easy thing to be ordained by thy commandment, that the thing which was made might be preserved. [15] Now therefore, Lord, I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best; but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sorry; [16] And for thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and for Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled; [17] Therefore will I begin to pray before thee for myself and for them for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land. [18] But I have heard the swiftness of the judge which is to come. [19] Therefore hear my voice, and understand my words, and I shall speak before thee. This is the beginning of the words of Esdras, before he was taken up and I said, [20] O Lord, thou that dwellest in everlastingness which beholdest from above things in the heaven and in the air; [21] Whose throne is inestimable; whose glory may not be comprehended; before whom the hosts of angels stand with trembling, [22] Whose service is conversant in wind and fire; whose word is true, and sayings constant; whose commandment is strong, and ordinance fearful; [23] Whose look drieth up the depths, and indignation maketh the mountains to melt away; which the truth witnesseth [24] O hear the prayer of thy servant, and give ear to the petition of thy creature. [25] For while I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer. [26] O look not upon the sins of thy people; but on them which serve thee in truth. [27] Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen, but the desire of those that keep thy testimonies in afflictions. [28] Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee but remember them, which according to thy will have known thy fear. [29] Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy law. [30] Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that always put their trust in thy righteousness and glory. [31] For we and our fathers do languish of such diseases but because of us sinners thou shalt be called merciful. [32] For if thou hast a desire to have mercy upon us, thou shalt be called merciful, to us namely, that have no works of righteousness. [33] For the just, which have many good works laid up with thee, shall out of their own deeds receive reward. [34] For what is man, that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldest be so bitter toward it? [35] For in truth them is no man among them that be born, but he hath dealt wickedly; and among the faithful there is none which hath not done amiss. [36] For in this, O Lord, thy righteousness and thy goodness shall be declared, if thou be merciful unto them which have not the confidence of good works. [37] Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according unto thy words it shall be. [38] For indeed I will not think on the disposition of them which have sinned before death, before judgment, before destruction [39] But I will rejoice over the disposition of the righteous, and I will remember also their pilgrimage, and the salvation, and the reward, that they shall have. [40] Like as I have spoken now, so shall it come to pass. [41] For as the husbandman soweth much seed upon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sown good in his season cometh not up, neither doth all that is planted take root even so is it of them that are sown in the world; they shall not all be saved. [4 2] I answered then and said, If I have found grace, let me speak. [43] Like as the husbandman's seed perisheth, if it come not up, and receive not thy rain in due season; or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it [44] Even so perisheth man also, which is formed with thy hands, and is called thine own image, because thou art like unto him, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him unto the husbandman's seed. [45] Be not wroth with us but spare thy people, and have mercy upon thine own inheritance for thou art merciful unto thy creature. [46] Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for the present, and things to cometh for such as be to come. [47] For thou comest far short that thou shouldest be able to love my creature more than I but I have ofttimes drawn nigh unto thee, and unto it, but never to the unrighteous. [48] In this also thou art marvellous before the most High [49] In that thou hast humbled thyself, as it becometh thee, and hast not judged thyself worthy to be much glorified among the righteous. [50] For many great miseries shall be done to them that in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride. [51] But understand thou for thyself, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee. [52] For unto you is paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plenteousness is made ready, a city is builded, and rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodness and wisdom. [53] The root of evil is sealed up from you, weakness and the moth is hid from you, and corruption is fled into hell to be forgotten [54] Sorrows are passed, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortality. [55] And therefore ask thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish. [56] For when they had taken liberty, they despised the most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways. [57] Moreover they have trodden down his righteous, [58] And said in their heart, that there is no God; yea, and that knowing they must die. 59 For as the things aforesaid shalt receive you, so thirst and pain are prepared for them for it was not his will that men should come to nought 60 But they which be created have defiled the name of him that made them, and were unthankful unto him which prepared life for them. 61 And therefore is my judgment now at hand. 62 These things have I not shewed unto all men, but unto thee, and a few like thee. Then answered I and said, 63 Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders, which thou wilt begin to do in the last times but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

He answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in itself and when thou seest part of the signs past, which I have told thee before, 2 Then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made. 3 Therefore when there shall be seen earthquakes and uproars of the people in the world 4 Then shalt thou well understand, that the most High spake of those things from the days that were before thee, even from the beginning. 5 For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest 6 Even so the times also of the Highest have plain beginnings in wonder and powerful works, and endings in effects and signs. 7 And every one that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape by his works, and by faith, whereby ye have believed, 8 Shall be preserved from the said perils, and shall see my salvation in my land, and within my borders for I have sanctified them for me from the beginning. 9 Then shall they be in pitiful case, which now have abused my ways and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell in torments. 10 For such as in their life have received benefits, and have not known me; 11 And they that have loathed my law, while they had yet liberty, and, when as yet place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised it; 12 The same must know it after death by pain. 13 And therefore be thou not curious how the ungodly shall be punished, and when but enquire how the righteous shall be saved, whose the world is, and for whom the world is created. 14 Then answered I and said, 15 I have said before, and now do speak, and will speak it also hereafter, that there be many more of them which perish, than of them which shall be saved 16 Like as a wave is greater than a drop. 17 And

he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seed; as the flowers be, such are the colours also; such as the workman is, such also is the work; and as the husbandman ls himself, so is his husbandry also for it was the time of the world. [18] And now when I prepared the world, which was not yet made, even for them to dwell in that now live, no man spake against me. [19] For then every one obeyed but now the manners of them which are created in this world that is made are corrupted by a perpetual seed, and by a law which is unsearchable rid themselves. [20] So I considered the world, and, behold, there was peril because of the devices that were come into it. [21] And I saw, and spared it greatly, and have kept me a grape of the cluster, and a plant of a great people. [22] Let the multitude perish then, which was born in vain; and let my grape be kept, and my plant; for with great labour have I made it perfect. [23] Nevertheless, if thou wilt cease yet seven days more, (but thou shalt not fast in them, [24] But go into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and eat only the flowers of the field; taste no flesh, drink no wine, but eat flowers only;) [25] And pray unto the Highest continually, then will I come and talk with thee. [26] So I went my way into the field which is called Ardath, like as he commanded me; and there I sat among the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me. [27] After seven days I sat upon the grass, and my heart was vexed within me, like as before [28] And I opened my mouth, and began to talk before the most High, and said, [29] O Lord, thou that shewest thyself unto us, thou wast shewed unto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man treadeth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt. [30] And thou spakest saying, Hear me, O Israel; and mark my words, thou seed of Jacob. [31] For, behold, I sow my law in you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and ye shall be honoured in it for ever. [32] But our fathers, which received the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances and though the fruit of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine; [33] Yet they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them. [34] And, lo, it ls a custom, when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was sown or cast into, [35] That thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with us but with us it hath not happened so. [36] For we that have received the law perish by sin, and our heart also which received it [37] Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force. [38] And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked back with mine eyes, and upon the right side I saw a woman, and, behold, she mourned and wept with a loud voice, and was much grieved in heart, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes upon her head. [39] Then let I my thoughts go that I was in, and turned me unto her, [40] And said unto her, Wherefore weepest thou? why art thou so grieved in thy mind? [41] And she said unto me, Sir, let me alone, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I am sore vexed in my mind, and brought very low. 42 And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell me. 43 She said unto me, I thy servant have been barren, and had no child, though I had an husband thirty years, 44 And those thirty years I did nothing else day and night, and every hour, but make my, prayer to the Highest. 45 After thirty years God heard me thine handmaid, looked upon my misery, considered my trouble, and gave me a son and I was very glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbours and we gave great honour unto the Almighty. 46 And I nourished him with great travail. 47 So when he grew up, and came to the time that he should have a wife, I made a feast.

And it so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his wedding chamber, he fell down, and died. 2 Then we all overthrew the lights, and all my neighbours rose up to comfort me so I took my rest unto the second day at night. 3 And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, to the end I might be quiet; then rose I up by night and fled, and came hither into this field, as thou seest. 4 And I do now purpose not to return into the city, but here to stay, and neither to eat nor drink, but continually to mourn and to fast until I die. 5 Then left I the meditations wherein I was, and spake to her in anger, saying, 6 Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what happeneth unto us? 7 How that Sion our mother is full of all heaviness, and much humbled, mourning very sore? 8 And now, seeing we all mourn and are sad, for we are all in heaviness, art thou grieved for one son? 9 For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for the fall of so many that grow upon her. 10 For out of her came all at the first, and out of her shall all others come, and, behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and a multitude of them is utterly rooted out. 11 Who then should make more mourning than she, that hath lost so great a multitude; and not thou, which art sorry but for one? 12 But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, because I have lost the fruit of my womb, which I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows; 13 But the earth not so for the multitude present in it according to the course of the earth is gone, as it came 14 Then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labour; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever since the beginning unto him that made her. [15] Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage that which hath befallen thee. [16] For if thou shalt acknowledge the determination of God to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be commended among women. [17] Go thy way then into the city to thine husband. [18] And she said unto me, That will I not do I will not go into the city, but here will I die. [19] So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said, [20] Do not so, but be counselled. by me for how many are the adversities of Sion? be comforted in regard of the sorrow of Jerusalem. [21] For thou seest that our sanctuary is laid waste, our altar broken down, our temple destroyed; [22] Our psaltery is laid on the ground, our song is put to silence, our rejoicing is at an end, the light of our candlestick is put out, the ark of our covenant is spoiled, our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called upon us is almost profaned our children are put to shame, our priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, our virgins are defiled, and our wives ravished; our righteous men carried away, our little ones destroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak; [23] And, which is the greatest of all, the seal of Sion hath now lost her honour; for she is delivered into the hands of them that hate us. [24] And therefore shake off thy great heaviness, and put away the multitude of sorrows, that the Mighty may be merciful unto thee again, and the Highest shall give thee rest and ease from thy labour. [25] And it came to pass while I was talking with her, behold, her face upon a sudden shined exceedingly, and her countenance glistered, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be. [26] And, behold, suddenly she made a great cry very fearful so that the earth shook at the noise of the woman. [27] And I looked, and, behold, the woman appeared unto me no more, but there was a city builded, and a large place shewed itself from the foundations then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said, [28] Where is Uriel the angel, who came unto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall into many trances, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke. [29] And as I was speaking these words behold, he came unto me, and looked upon me. [30] And, lo, I lay as one that had been dead, and mine understanding was taken from me and he took me by the right hand, and comforted me, and set me upon my feet, and said unto me, [31] What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart? [32] And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I did according to thy words, and I went into the field, and, lo, I have seen, and yet see, that I am not able to express. [33] And he said unto me, Stand up manfully, and I will advise thee. [34] Then said I, Speak on, my lord, in me; only forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope. [35] For I have seen that I knew not, and hear that I do not know. [36] Or is my sense deceived, or my soul in a dream?

37 Now therefore I beseech thee that thou wilt shew thy servant of this vision. 38 He answered me then, and said, Hear me, and I shall inform thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid for the Highest will reveal many secret things unto thee. 39 He hath seen that thy way is right for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion. 40 This therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest 41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou begannest to comfort her 42 But now seest thou the likeness of the woman no more, but there appeared unto thee a city builded. 43 And whereas she told thee of the death of her son, this is the solution 44 This woman, whom thou sawest is Sion and whereas she said unto thee, even she whom thou seest as a city builded, 45 Whereas, I say, she said unto thee, that she hath been thirty years barren those are the thirty years wherein there was no offering made in her. 46 But after thirty years Solomon builded the city and offered offerings and then bare the barren a son. 47 And whereas she told thee that she nourished him with labour that was the dwelling in Jerusalem. 48 But whereas she said unto thee, That my son coming into his marriage chamber happened to have a fail, and died this was the destruction that came to Jerusalem. 49 And, behold, thou sawest her likeness, and because she mourned for her son, thou begannest to comfort her and of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee. 50 For now the most High seeth that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty 51 And therefore I bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded 52 For I knew that the Highest would shew this unto thee. 53 Therefore I commanded thee to go into the field, where no foundation of any building was. 54 For in the place wherein the Highest beginneth to shew his city, there can no man's building be able to stand. 55 And therefore fear not, let not thine heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see 56 And then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend. 57 For thou art blessed above many other, and art called with the Highest; and so are but few. 58 But to morrow at night thou shalt remain here; 59 And so shall the Highest shew thee visions of the high things, which the most High will do unto them that dwell upon the earth in the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.

Then saw I a dream, and, behold, there came up from the sea an eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and three heads. [2] And I saw, and, behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the winds of the air blew on her, and were gathered together. [3] And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grew other contrary feathers; and they became little feathers and small. [4] But her heads were at rest the head in the midst was greater than the other, yet rested it with the residue. [5] Moreover I beheld, and, lo, the eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned upon earth, and over them that dwelt therein. [6] And I saw that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon earth. [7] And I beheld, and, lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and spake to her feathers, saying, [8] Watch not all at once sleep every one in his own place, and watch by course [9] But let the heads be preserved for the last. [10] And I beheld, and, lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body. [11] And I numbered her contrary feathers, and, behold, there were eight of them. [12] And I looked, and, behold, on the right side there arose one feather, and reigned over all the earth; [13] And so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more so the next following stood up. and reigned, and had a great time; [14] And it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so that it appeared no more. [15] Then came there a voice unto it, and said, [16] Hear thou that hast borne rule over the earth so long this I say unto thee, before thou beginnest to appear no more, [17] There shall none after thee attain unto thy time, neither unto the half thereof. [18] Then arose the third, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also. [19] So went it with all the residue one after another, as that every one reigned, and then appeared no more. [20] Then I beheld, and, lo, in process of time the feathers that followed stood up upon the right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more [21] For some of them were set up, but ruled not. [22] After this I looked, and, behold, the twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the two little feathers [23] And there was no more upon the eagle's body, but three heads that rested, and six little wings. [24] Then saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side for the four continued in their place. [25] And I beheld, and, lo, the feathers that were under the wing thought to set up themselves and to have the rule. [26] And I beheld, and, lo, there was one set up, but shortly it appeared no more. [27] And the second was sooner away than the first. [28] And I beheld, and, lo, the two that remained thought also in themselves to reign [29] And when they so thought, behold, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads. 30 And then I saw that the two other heads were joined with it. 31 And, behold, the head was turned with them that were with it, and did eat up the two feathers under the wing that would have reigned. 32 But this head put the whole earth in fear, and bare rule in it over all those that dwelt upon the earth with much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been. 33 And after this I beheld, and, lo, the head that was in the midst suddenly appeared no more, like as the wings. 34 But there remained the two heads, which also in like sort ruled upon the earth, and over those that dwelt therein. 35 And I beheld, and, lo, the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side. 36 Then I head a voice, which said unto me, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest. 37 And I beheld, and lo, as it were a roaring lion chased out of the wood and I saw that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, and said, 38 Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Highest shall say unto thee, 39 Art not thou it that remainest of the four beasts, whom I made to reign in my world, that the end of their times might come through them? 40 And the fourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and had power over the world with great fearfulness, and over the whole compass of the earth with much wicked oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with deceit. 41 For the earth hast thou not judged with truth. 42 For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of such as did thee no harm. 43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come up unto the Highest, and thy pride unto the Mighty. 44 The Highest also hath looked upon the proud times, and, behold, they are ended, and his abominations are fulfilled. 45 And therefore appear no more, thou eagle, nor thy horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers nor thy malicious heads, nor thy hurtful claws, nor all thy vain body 46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and may return, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the judgment and mercy of him that made her.

And it came to pass, whiles the lion spake these words unto the eagle, I saw, 2 And, behold, the head that remained and the four wings appeared no more, and the two went unto it and set themselves up to reign, and their kingdom was small, and fill of uproar. 3 And I saw, and, behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt so that the earth was in great fear then awaked I out of the trouble and trance of my mind, and from great fear, and said unto my spirit, [4] Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou searchest out the ways of the Highest. [5] Lo, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; and little strength is there in me, for the great fear wherewith I was afflicted this night. [6] Therefore will I now beseech the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end. [7] And I said, Lord that bearest rule, if I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many others, and if my prayer indeed be come up before thy face; [8] Comfort me then, and shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain difference of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul. [9] For thou hast judged me worthy to shew me the last times. [10] And he said unto me, This is the interpretation of the vision [11] The eagle, whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is the kingdom which was seen in the vision of thy brother Daniel. [12] But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare it unto thee. [13] Behold, the days will come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it. [14] In the same shall twelve kings reign, one after another [15] Whereof the second shall begin to reign, and shall have more time than any of the twelve. [16] And this do the twelve wings signify, which thou sawest. [17] As for the voice which thou heardest speak, and that thou sawest not to go out from the heads but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation [18] That after the time of that kingdom there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in peril of failing nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning. [19] And whereas thou sawest the eight small under feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation [20] That in him there shall arise eight kings, whose times shall be but small, and their years swift. [21] And two of them shall perish, the middle time approaching four shall be kept until their end begin to approach but two shall be kept unto the end. [22] And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation [23] In his last days shall the most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many things therein, and they shall have the dominion of the earth, [24] And of those that dwell therein, with much oppression, above all those that were before them therefore are they called the heads of the eagle. [25] For these are they that shall accomplish his wickedness, and that shall finish his last end. [26] And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain. [27] For the two that remain shall be slain with the sword. [28] For the sword of the one shall devour the other but at the last shall he fall through the sword himself. [29] And whereas thou sawest two feathers under the wings passing over the head that is on the right side; [30] It signifieth that these are they, whom the Highest hath kept unto their end this is the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest. [31] And the lion, whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness with all the words which thou hast heard; 32 This is the anointed, which the Highest hath kept for them and for their wickedness unto the end he shall reprove them, and shall upbraid them with their cruelty. 33 For he shall set them before him alive in judgment, and shall rebuke them, and correct them. 34 For the rest of my people shall he deliver with mercy, those that have been pressed upon my borders, and he shall make them joyful until the coming of the day of judgment, whereof I have spoken unto thee from thebeginning. 35 This is the dream that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations. 36 Thou only hast been meet to know this secret of the Highest. 37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seen in a book, and hide them 38 And teach them to the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keep these secrets. 39 But wait thou here thyself yet seven days more, that it may be shewed thee, whatsoever it pleaseth the Highest to declare unto thee. And with that he went his way. 40 And it came to pass, when all the people saw that the seven days were past, and I not come again into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least unto the greatest, and came unto me, and said, 41 What have we offended thee? and what evil have we done against thee, that thou forsakest us, and sittest here in this place? 42 For of all the prophets thou only art left us, as a cluster of the vintage, and as a candle in a dark place, and as a haven or ship preserved from the tempest. 43 Are not the evils which are come to us sufficient? 44 If thou shalt forsake us, how much better had it been for us, if we also had been burned in the midst of Sion? 45 For we are not better than they that died there. And they wept with a loud voice. Then answered I them, and said, 46 Be of good comfort, O Israel; and be not heavy, thou house of Jacob 47 For the Highest hath you in remembrance, and the Mighty hath not forgotten you in temptation. 48 As for me, I have not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you but am come into this place, to pray for the desolation of Sion, and that I might seek mercy for the low estate of your sanctuary. 49 And now go your way home every man, and after these days will I come unto you. 50 So the people went their way into the city, like as I commanded them 51 But I remained still in the field seven days, as the angel commanded me; and did eat only in those days of the flowers of the field, and had my meat of the herbs

And it came to pass after seven days, I dreamed a dream by night [2] And, lo, there arose a wind from the sea, that it moved all the waves thereof. [3] And I beheld, and, lo, that man waxed strong with the thousands of heaven and when he turned his countenance to look, all the things trembled that were seen under him. [4] And whensoever the voice went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voice, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire. [5] And after this I beheld, and, lo, there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from the four winds of the heaven, to subdue the man that came out of the sea [6] But I beheld, and, lo, he had graved himself a great mountain, and flew up upon it. [7] But I would have seen the region or place whereout the hill was graven, and I could not. [8] And after this I beheld, and, lo, all they which were gathered together to subdue him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight. [9] And, lo, as he saw the violence of the multitude that came, he neither lifted up his hand, nor held sword, nor any instrument of war [10] But only I saw that he sent out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast out sparks and [30] tempests. [11] And they were all mixed together; the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest; and fell with violence upon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burned them up every one, so that upon a sudden of an innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only dust and smell of smoke when I saw this I was afraid. [12] Afterward saw I the same man come down from the mountain, and call unto him another peaceable Multitude. [13] And there came much people unto him, whereof some were glad, some were sorry, and some of them were bound, and other some brought of them that were offered then was I sick through great fear, and I awaked, and said, [14] Thou hast shewed thy servant these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy that thou shouldest receive my prayer [15] Shew me now yet the interpretation of this dream. [16] For as I conceive in mine understanding, woe unto them that shall be left in those days and much more woe unto them that are not left behind! [17] For they that were not left were in heaviness. [18] Now understand I the things that are laid up in the latter days, which shall happen unto them, and to those that are left behind. [19] Therefore are they come into great perils and many necessities, like as these dreams declare. [20] Yet is it easier for him that is in danger to come into these things, than to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen in the last days. And he answered unto me, and said, [21] The interpretation of the vision shall I shew thee, and I will open unto thee the thing that thou hast required. [22] Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation [23] He that shall endure the peril in that time hath kept himself they that be fallen into danger are such as have works, and faith toward the Almighty. [24] Know this therefore, that they which be left behind are more blessed than they that be dead. [25] This is the meaning of the vision Whereas thou sawest a man coming up from the midst of the sea [26] The same is he whom God the Highest hath kept a great season, which by his own self shall deliver his creature and he shall order them that are left behind. [27] And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast of wind, and fire, and storm; [28] And that he held neither sword, nor any instrument of war, but that the rushing in of him destroyed the whole multitude that came to subdue him; this is the interpretation [29] Behold, the days come, when the most High will begin to deliver them that are upon the earth. [30] And he shall come to the astonishment of them that dwell on the earth. [31] And one shall undertake to fight against another, one city against another, one place against another, one people against another, and one realm against another. [32] And the time shall be when these things shall come to pass, and the signs shall happen which I shewed thee before, and then shall my Son be declared, whom thou sawest as a man ascending. [33] And when all the people hear his voice, every man shall in their own land leave the battle they have one against another. [34] And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as thou sawest them, willing to come, and to overcome him by fighting. [35] But he shall stand upon the top of the mount Sion. [36] And Sion shall come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill graven without hands. [37] And this my Son shall rebuke the wicked inventions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest; [38] And shall lay before them their evil thoughts, and the torments wherewith they shall begin to be tormented, which are like unto a flame and he shall destroy them without labour by the law which is like unto me. [39] And whereas thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable multitude unto him; [40] Those are the ten tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, whom Salmanasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the waters, and so came they into another land. [41] But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt, [42] That they might there keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land. [43] And they entered into Euphrates by the narrow places of the river. [44] For the most High then shewed signs for them, and held still the flood, till they were passed over. [45] For through that country there was a great way to go, namely, of a year and a half and the same region is called Arsareth. [46] Then dwelt they there until the latter time; and now when they shall begin to come, [47] The Highest shall stay the springs of the stream again, that they may go through therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace. [48] But those that be left behind of thy people are they that are found within my borders. [49] Now when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend his people that remain. [50] And then shall he shew them great wonders. [51] Then said I, O Lord that bearest rule, shew me this Wherefore have I seen the man coming up from the midst of the sea? [52] And he said unto me, Like as thou canst neither seek out nor know the things that are in the deep of the sea even so can no man upon earth see my Son, or those that be with him, but in the day time. [53] This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and whereby thou only art here lightened. [54] For thou hast forsaken thine own way, and applied thy diligence unto my law, and sought it. [55] Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and hast called understanding thy mother. [56] And therefore have I shewed thee the treasures of the Highest after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee mighty and wondrous things. [57] Then went I forth into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the most High because of his wonders which he did in time; [58] And because he governeth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons and there I sat three days.

And it came to pass upon the third day, I sat under an oak, and, behold, there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras. [2] And I said, Here am I, Lord And I stood up upon my feet. [3] Then said he unto me, In the bush I did manifestly reveal myself unto Moses, and talked with him, when my people served in Egypt [4] And I sent him and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him up to the mount of where I held him by me a long season, [5] And told him many wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end; and commanded him, saying, [6] These words shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide. [7] And now I say unto thee, [8] That thou lay up in thy heart the signs that I have shewed, and the dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard [9] For thou shalt be taken away from all, and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my Son, and with such as be like thee, until the times be ended. [10] For the world hath lost his youth, and the times begin to wax old. [11] For the world is divided into twelve parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and half of a tenth part [12] And there remaineth that which is after the half of the tenth part. [13] Now therefore set thine house in order, and reprove thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption, [14] Let go from thee mortal thoughts, cast away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature, [15] And set aside the thoughts that are most heavy unto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times. [16] For yet greater evils than those which thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter. [17] For look how much the world shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein. [18] For the time is fled far away, and leasing is hard at hand for now hasteth the vision to come, which thou hast seen. [19] Then answered I before thee, and said, [20] Behold, Lord, I will go, as thou hast commanded me, and reprove the people which are present but they that shall be born afterward, who shall admonish them? thus the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light. [21] For thy law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the work that shall begin. [22] But if I have found grace before thee, send the Holy Ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, which were written in thy law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will live in the latter days may live. [23] And he answered me, saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, that they seek thee not for forty days. [24] But look thou prepare thee many box trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, and Asiel, these five which are ready to write swiftly; [25] And come hither, and I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write. [26] And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, and some things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise to morrow this hour shalt thou begin to write. [27] Then went I forth, as he commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said, [28] Hear these words, O Israel. [29] Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were delivered [30] And received the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also have transgressed after them. [31] Then was the land, even the land of Sion, parted among you by lot but your fathers, and ye yourselves, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Highest commanded you. [32] And forasmuch as he is a righteous judge, he took from you in time the thing that he had given you. [33] And now are ye here, and your brethren among you. [34] Therefore if so be that ye will subdue your own understanding, and reform your hearts, ye shall be kept alive and after death ye shall obtain mercy. [35] For after death shall the judgment come, when we shall live again and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works of the ungodly shall be declared. [36] Let no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me these forty days. [37] So I took the five men, as he commanded me, and we went into the field, and remained there. [38] And the next day, behold, a voice called me, saying, Esdras, open thy mouth, and drink that I give thee to drink. [39] Then opened I my mouth, and, behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was like fire. [40] And I took it, and drank and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my spirit strengthened my memory [41] And my mouth was opened, and shut no more. [42] The Highest gave understanding unto the five men, and they wrote the wonderful visions of the night that were told, which they knew not and they [32] sat forty days, and they wrote in the day, and at night they ate bread. [43] As for me. I spake in the day, and I held not my tongue by night. [44] In forty days they wrote two hundred and four books. [45] And it came to pass, when the forty days were filled, that the Highest spake, saying, The first that thou hast written publish openly, that the worthy and unworthy may read it [46] But keep the seventy last, that thou mayest deliver them only to such as be wise among the people [47] For in them is the spring of understanding, the fountain of wisdom, and the stream of knowledge. [48] And I did so.

Behold, speak thou in the ears of my people the words of prophecy, which I will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord [2] And cause them to be written in paper for they are faithful and true. [3] Fear not the imaginations against thee, let not the incredulity of them trouble thee, that speak against thee. [4] For all the unfaithful shall die in their unfaithfulness. [5] Behold, saith the Lord, I will bring plagues upon the world; the sword, famine, death, and destruction. [6] For wickedness hath exceedingly polluted the whole earth, and their hurtful works are fulfilled. [7] Therefore saith the Lord, [8] I will hold my tongue no more as touching their wickedness, which they profanely commit, neither will I suffer them in those things, in which they wickedly exercise themselves behold, the innocent and righteous blood crieth unto me, and the souls of the just complain continually. [9] And therefore, saith the Lord, I will surely avenge them, and receive unto me all the innocent blood from among them. [10] Behold, my people is led as a flock to the slaughter I will not suffer them now to dwell in the land of Egypt [11] But I will bring them with a mighty hand and a stretched out arm, and smite Egypt with plagues, as before, and will destroy all the land thereof. [12] Egypt shall mourn, and the foundation of it shall be smitten with the plague and punishment that God shall bring upon it. [13] They that till the ground shall mourn for their seeds shall fail through the blasting and hail, and with a fearful constellation. [14] Woe to the world and them that dwell therein! [15] For the sword and their destruction draweth nigh, and one people shall stand up and fight against another, and swords in their hands. [16] For there shall be sedition among men, and invading one another; they shall not regard their kings nor princes, and the course of their actions shall stand in their power. [17] A man shall desire to go into a city, and shall not be able. [18] For because of their pride the cities shall be troubled, the houses shall be destroyed, and men shall be afraid. [19] A man shall have no pity upon his neighbour, but shall destroy their houses with the sword, and spoil their goods, because of the lack of bread, and for great tribulation. [20] Behold, saith God, I will call together all the kings of the earth to reverence me, which are from the rising of the sun, from the south, from the east, and Libanus; to turn themselves one against another, and repay the things that they have done to them. [21] Like as they do yet this day unto my chosen, so will I do also, and recompense in their bosom. Thus saith the Lord God; [22] My right hand shall not spare the sinners, and my sword shall not cease over them that shed innocent blood upon the earth. [23] The fire is gone forth from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners, like the straw that is kindled. [24] Woe to them that sin, and keep not my commandments! saith the Lord. [25] I will not spare them go your way, ye children, from the power, defile not my sanctuary. [26] For the Lord knoweth all them that sin against him, and therefore delivereth he them unto death and destruction. [27] For now are the plagues come upon the whole earth and ye shall remain in them for God shall not deliver you, because ye have sinned against him. [28] Behold an horrible vision, and the appearance thereof from the east [29] Where the nations of the dragons of Arabia shall come out with many chariots, and the multitude of them shall be carried as the wind upon earth, that all they which hear them may fear and tremble. [30] Also the Carmanians raging in wrath shall go forth as the wild boars of the wood, and with great power shall they come, and join battle with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians. [31] And then shall the dragons have the upper hand, remembering their nature; and if they shall turn themselves, conspiring together in great power to persecute them, [32] Then these shall be troubled bled, and keep silence through their power, and shall flee. [33] And from the land of the Assyrians shall the enemy besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their host shall be fear and dread, and strife among their kings. [34] Behold clouds from the east and from the north unto the south, and they are very horrible to look upon, full of wrath and storm. [35] They shall smite one upon another, and they shall smite down a great multitude of stars upon the earth, even their own star; and blood shall be from the sword unto the belly, [36] And dung of men unto the camel's hough. [37] And there shall be great fearfulness and trembling upon earth and they that see the wrath shall be afraid, and trembling shall come upon them. [38] And then shall there come great storms from the south, and from the north, and another part from the west. [39] And strong winds shall arise from the east, and shall open it; and the cloud which he raised up in wrath, and the star stirred to cause fear toward the east and west wind, shall be destroyed. 40 The great and mighty clouds shall be puffed up full of wrath, and the star, that they may make all the earth afraid, and them that dwell therein; and they shall pour out over every high and eminent place an horrible star, 41 Fire, and hail, and flying swords, and many waters, that all fields may be full, and all rivers, with the abundance of great waters. 42 And they shall break down the cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn. 43 And they shall go stedfastly unto Babylon, and make her afraid. 44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, the star and all wrath shall they pour out upon her then shall the dust and smoke go up unto the heaven, and all they that be about her shall bewail her. 45 And they that remain under her shall do service unto them that have put her in fear. 46 And thou, Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person 47 Woe be unto thee, thou wretch, because thou hast made thyself like unto her; and hast decked thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have always desired to commit whoredom with thee. 48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her works and inventions therefore saith God, 49 I will send plagues upon thee; widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death. 50 And the glory of thy Power shall be dried up as a flower, the heat shall arise that is sent over thee. 51 Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that the mighty and lovers shall not be able to receive thee. 52 Would I with jealousy have so proceeded against thee, saith the Lord, 53 If thou hadst not always slain my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and saying over their dead, when thou wast drunken, 54 Set forth the beauty of thy countenance? 55 The reward of thy whoredom shall be in thy bosom, therefore shalt thou receive recompence. 56 Like as thou hast done unto my chosen, saith the Lord, even so shall God do unto thee, and shall deliver thee into mischief 57 Thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the sword thy cities shall be broken down, and all thine shall perish with the sword in the field. 58 They that be in the mountains shall die of hunger, and eat their own flesh, and drink their own blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water. 59 Thou as unhappy shalt come through the sea, and receive plagues again. 60 And in the passage they shall rush on the idle city, and shall destroy some portion of thy land, and consume part of thy glory, and shall return to Babylon that was destroyed. 61 And thou shalt be cast down by them as stubble, and they shall be unto thee as fire; 62 And shall consume thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountains; all thy woods and thy fruitful trees shall they burn up with fire. 63 Thy children shall they carry away captive, and, look, what thou hast, they shall spoil it, and mar the beauty of thy face.

Woe be unto thee, Babylon, and Asia! woe be unto thee, Egypt and Syria! [2] Gird up yourselves with cloths of sack and hair, bewail your children, and be sorry; for your destruction is at hand. [3] A sword is sent upon you, and who may turn it back? [4] A fire is sent among you, and who may quench it? [5] Plagues are sent unto you, and what is he that may drive them away? [6] May any man drive away an hungry lion in the wood? or may any one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath begun to burn? [7] May one turn again the arrow that is shot of a strong archer? [8] The mighty Lord sendeth the plagues and who is he that can drive them away? [9] A fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it? [10] He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not fear? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid? [11] The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence? [12] The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also, before the Lord, and before the glory of his power [13] For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, his arrows that he shooteth are sharp, and shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world. [14] Behold, the plagues are sent, and shall not return again, until they come upon the earth. [15] The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundation of the earth. [16] Like as an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer returneth not backward even so the plagues that shall be sent upon earth shall not return again. [17] Woe is me! woe is me! who will deliver me in those days? [18] The beginning of sorrows and great mournings; the beginning of famine and great death; the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in fear; the beginning of evils! what shall I do when these evils shall come? [19] Behold, famine and plague, tribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment. [20] But for all these things they shall not turn from their wickedness, nor be always mindful of the scourges. [21] Behold, victuals shall be so good cheap upon earth, that they shall think themselves to be in good case, and even then shall evils grow upon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion. [22] For many of them that dwell upon earth shall perish of famine; and the other, that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy. [23] And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall be cast down. [24] There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it [25] The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them? [26] The grapes shall ripen, and who shall tread them? for all places shall be desolate of men [27] So that one man shall desire to see another, and to hear his voice. [28] For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of the field, which shall hide themselves in the thick groves, and in the clefts of the rocks. [29] As in an orchard of Olives upon every tree there are left three or four olives; [30] Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through the vineyard [31] Even so in those days there shall be three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword. [3 2] And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her ways and all her paths shall grow full of thorns, because no man shall travel therethrough. [33] The virgins shall mourn, having no bridegrooms; the women shall mourn, having no husbands; their daughters shall mourn, having no helpers. [34] In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine. [35] Hear now these things and understand them, ye servants of the Lord. [36] Behold, the word of the Lord, receive it believe not the gods of whom the Lord spake. [37] Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slack. [38] As when a woman with child in the ninth month bringeth forth her son, with two or three hours of her birth great pains compass her womb, which pains, when the child cometh forth, they slack not a moment [39] Even so shall not the plagues be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall mourn, and sorrows shall come upon it on every side. [40] O my people, hear my word make you ready to thy battle, and in those evils be even as pilgrims upon the earth. [41] He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away and he that buyeth, as one that will lose [4 2] He that occupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein [43] He that soweth, as if he should not reap so also he that planteth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes [44] They that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowers. [45] And therefore they that labour labour in vain [46] For strangers shall reap their fruits, and spoil their goods, overthrow their houses, and take their children captives, for in captivity and famine shall they get children. [47] And they that occupy their merchandise with robbery, the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons [48] The more will I be angry with them for their sin, saith the Lord. [49] Like as a whore envieth a right honest and virtuous woman [50] So shall righteousness hate iniquity, when she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently searcheth out every sin upon earth. [51] And therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the works thereof. [5 2] For yet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign among you. [53] Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned for God shall burn coals of fire upon his head, which saith before the Lord God and his glory, I have not sinned. [54] Behold, the Lord knoweth all the works of men, their imaginations, their thoughts, and their hearts [55] Which spake but the word, Let the earth be made; and it was made Let the heaven be made; and it was created. [56] In his word were the stars made, and he knoweth the number of them. [57] He searcheth the deep, and the treasures thereof; he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth. [58] He hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth upon the waters. [59] He spreadeth out the heavens like a vault; upon the waters hath he founded it. [60] In the desert hath he made springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might pour down from the high rocks to water the earth. [61] He made man, and put his heart in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding. [6 2] Yea and the Spirit of Almighty God, which made all things, and searcheth out all hidden things in the secrets of the earth, [63] Surely he knoweth your inventions, and what ye think in your hearts, even them that sin, and would hide their sin. [64] Therefore hath the Lord exactly searched out all your works, and he will put you all to shame. [65] And when your sins are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, and your own sins shall be your accusers in that day. [66] What will ye do? or how will ye hide your sins before God and his angels? [67] Behold, God himself is the judge, fear him leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them for ever so shall God lead you forth, and deliver you from all trouble. [68] For, behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and feed you, being idle, with things offered unto idols. [69] And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and trodden under foot. For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear the Lord. [71] They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but still spoiling and destroying those that fear the Lord. [7 2] For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of their houses. [73] Then shall they be known, who are my chosen; and they shall be tried as the gold in the fire. [74] Hear, O ye my beloved, saith the Lord behold, the days of trouble are at hand, but I will deliver you from the same. [75] Be ye not afraid neither doubt; for God is your guide, [76] And the guide of them who keep my commandments and precepts, saith the Lord God let not your sins weigh you down, and let not your iniquities lift up themselves. [77] Woe be unto them that are bound with their sins, and covered with their iniquities like as a field is covered over with bushes, and the path thereof covered with thorns, that no man may travel through! [78] It is left undressed, and is cast into the fire to be consumed therewith.

Tobit

The Book of the Words of Tobit, son of Tobiel, the son of Ananiel, the son of Aduel, the son of Gabael, of the seed of Asael, of the tribe of Nephthali; [2] Who in the time of Enemessar king of the Assyrians was led captive out of Thisbe, which is at the right hand of that city, which is called properly Nephthali in Galilee above Aser. [3] I Tobit have walked all the days of my life in the ways of truth and justice, and I did many almsdeeds to my brethren, and my nation, who came with me to Nineve, into the land of the Assyrians. [4] And when I was in mine own country, in the land of Israel being but young, all the tribe of Nephthali my father fell from the house of Jerusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, where the temple of the habitation of the most High was consecrated and built for all ages. [5] Now all the tribes which together revolted, and the house of my father Nephthali, sacrificed unto the heifer Baal. [6] But I alone went often to Jerusalem at the feasts, as it was ordained unto all the people of Israel by an everlasting decree, having the firstfruits and tenths of increase, with that which was first shorn; and them gave I at the altar to the priests the children of Aaron. [7] The first tenth part of all increase I gave to the sons of Aaron, who ministered at Jerusalem another tenth part I sold away, and went, and spent it every year at Jerusalem [8] And the third I gave unto them to whom it was meet, as Debora my father's mother had commanded me, because I was left an orphan by my father. [9] Furthermore, when I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna of mine own kindred, and of her I begat Tobias. [10] And when we were carried away captives to Nineve, all my brethren and those that were of my kindred did eat of the bread of the Gentiles. [11] But I kept myself from eating; [12] Because I remembered God with all my heart. [13] And the most High gave me grace and favour before Enemessar, so that I was his purveyor. [14] And I went into Media, and left in trust with Gabael, the brother of Gabrias, at Rages a city of Media ten talents of silver. [15] Now when Enemessar was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his stead; whose estate was troubled, that I could not go into Media. [16] And in the time of Enemessar I gave many alms to my brethren, and gave my bread to the hungry, [17] And my clothes to the naked and if I saw any of my nation dead, or cast about the walls of Nineve, I buried him. [18] And if the king Sennacherib had slain any, when he was come, and fled from Judea, I buried them privily; for in his wrath he killed many; but the bodies were not found, when they were sought for of the king. 19 And when one of the Ninevites went and complained of me to the king, that I buried them, and hid myself; understanding that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear. 20 Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there any thing left me, beside my wife Anna and my son Tobias. 21 And there passed not five and fifty days, before two of his sons killed him, and they fled into the mountains of Ararath; and Sarchedonus his son reigned in his stead; who appointed over his father's accounts, and over all his affairs, Achiacharus my brother Anael's son. 2 2 And Achiacharus intreating for me, I returned to Nineve. Now Achiacharus was cupbearer, and keeper of the signet, and steward, and overseer of the accounts and Sarchedonus appointed him next unto him and he was my brother's son. 2 Now when I was come home again, and my wife Anna was restored unto me, with my son Tobias, in the feast of Pentecost, which is the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I sat down to eat. 2 And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man soever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and, lo, I tarry for thee. 3 But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace. 4 Then before I had tasted of any meat, I started up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun. 5 Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness, 6 Remembering that prophecy of Amos, as he said, Your feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation. 7 Therefore I wept and after the going down of the sun I went and made a grave, and buried him. 8 But my neighbours mocked me, and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter who fled away; and yet, lo, he burieth the dead again. 9 The same night also I returned from the burial, and slept by the wall of my courtyard, being polluted and my face was uncovered 10 And I knew not that there were sparrows in the wall, and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes, and a whiteness came in mine eyes and I went to the physicians, but they helped me not moreover Achiacharus did nourish me, until I went into Elymais. 11 And my wife Anna did take women's works to do. 1 2 And when she had sent them home to the owners, they paid her wages, and gave her also besides a kid. 13 And when it was in my house, and began to cry, I said unto her, From whence is this kid? is it not stolen? render it to the owners; for it is not lawful to eat any thing that is stolen. 14 But she replied upon me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. Howbeit I did not believe her, but bade her render it to the owners and I was abashed at her. But she replied upon me, Where are thine alms and thy righteous deeds? behold, thou and all thy works are known.

Then I being grieved did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying, [2] O Lord, thou art just, and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest truly and justly for ever. [3] Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and ignorances, and the sins of my fathers, who have sinned before thee [4] For they obeyed not thy commandments wherefore thou hast delivered us for a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed. [5] And now thy judgments are many and true deal with me according to my sins and my fathers' because we have not kept thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before thee. [6] Now therefore deal with me as seemeth best unto thee, and command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be dissolved, and become earth for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the everlasting place turn not thy face away from me. [7] It came to pass the same day, that in Ecbatane a city of Media Sara the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her father's maids; [8] Because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the evil spirit had killed, before they had lain with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands? thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them. [9] Wherefore dost thou beat us for them? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter. [10] Whe she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and I shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave. [11] Then she prayed toward the window, and said, Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honourable for ever let all thy works praise thee for ever. [12] And now, O Lord, I set I mine eyes and my face toward thee, [13] And say, Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach. [14] Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man, [15] And that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my father, in the land of my captivity I am the only daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to be his heir, neither any near kinsman, nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife my seven husbands are already dead; and why should I live? but if it please not thee that I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, that I hear no more reproach. 16 So the prayers of them both were heard before the majesty of the great God. 17 And Raphael was sent to heal them both, that is, to scale away the whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give Sara the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit; and to bind Asmodeus the evil spirit; because she belonged to Tobias by right of inheritance. The selfsame time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sara the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

In that day Tobit remembered the money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media, 2 And said with himself, I have wished for death; wherefore do I not call for my son Tobias that I may signify to him of the money before I die? 3 And when he had called him, he said, My son, when I am dead, bury me; and despise not thy mother, but honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not. 4 Remember, my son, that she saw many dangers for thee, when thou wast in her womb and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave. 5 My son, be mindful of the Lord our God all thy days, and let not thy will be set to sin, or to transgress his commandments do uprightly all thy life long, and follow not the ways of unrighteousness. 6 For if thou deal truly, thy doings shall prosperously succeed to thee, and to all them that live justly. 7 Give alms of thy substance; and when thou givest alms, let not thine eye be envious, neither turn thy face from any poor, and the face of God shall not be turned away from thee. 8 If thou hast abundance give alms accordingly if thou have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little 9 For thou layest up a good treasure for thyself against the day of necessity. 10 Because that alms do deliver from death, and suffereth not to come into darkness. 11 For alms is a good gift unto all that give it in the sight of the most High. 12 Beware of all whoredom, my son, and chiefly take a wife of the seed of thy fathers, and take not a strange woman to wife, which is not of thy father's tribe for we are the children of the prophets, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob remember, my son, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land. 13 Now therefore, my son, love thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sons and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them for in pride is destruction and much trouble, and in lewdness is decay and great want for lewdness is the mother of famine. 14 Let not the wages of any man, which hath wrought for thee, tarry with thee, but give him it out of hand for if thou serve God, he will also repay thee be circumspect my son, in all things thou doest, and be wise in all thy conversation. 15 Do that to no man which thou hatest drink not wine to make thee drunken neither let drunkenness go with thee in thy journey. 16 Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked; and according to thine abundance give alms and let not thine eye be envious, when thou givest alms. 17 Pour out thy bread on the burial of the just, but give nothing to the wicked. 18 Ask counsel of all that are wise, and despise not any counsel that is profitable. 19 Bless the Lord thy God always, and desire of him that thy ways may be directed, and that all thy paths and counsels may prosper for every nation hath not counsel; but the Lord himself giveth all good things, and he humbleth whom he will, as he will; now therefore, my son, remember my commandments, neither let them be put out of thy mind. 20 And now I signify this to they that I committed ten talents to Gabael the son of Gabrias at Rages in Media. 21 And fear not, my son, that we are made poor for thou hast much wealth, if thou fear God, and depart from all sin, and do that which is pleasing in his sight.

Tobias then answered and said, Father, I will do all things which thou hast commanded me 2 But how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not? 3 Then he gave him the handwriting, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, whiles I yet live, and I will give him wages and go and receive the money. 4 Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found Raphael that was an angel. 5 But he knew not; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to Rages? and knowest thou those places well? 6 To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well for I have lodged with our brother Gabael. 7 Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father. 8 Then he said unto him, Go and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee. 9 So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another. [10] Then Tobit said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art. [11] To whom he said, Dost thou seek for a tribe or family, or an hired man to go with thy son? Then Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and name. [12] Then he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren. [13] Then Tobit said, Thou art welcome, brother; be not now angry with me, because I have enquired to know thy tribe and thy family; for thou art my brother, of an honest and good stock for I know Ananias and Jonathas, sons of that great Samaias, as we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the firstborn, and the tenths of the fruits; and they were not seduced with the error of our brethren my brother, thou art of a good stock. [14] But tell me, what wages shall I give thee? wilt thou a drachm a day, and things necessary, as to mine own son? [15] Yea, moreover, if ye return safe, I will add something to thy wages. [16] So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and God send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things far the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and God, which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the angel of God keep you company. So they went forth both, and the young man's dog with them. [17] But Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our son? is he not the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us? [18] Be not greedy to add money to money but let it be as refuse in respect of our child. [19] For that which the Lord hath given us to live with doth suffice us. [20] Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, my sister; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him. [21] For the good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall return safe. [22] Then she made an end of weeping.

And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river Tigris, and they lodged there. [2] And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him. [3] Then the angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish, and drew it to land. [4] To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely. [5] So the young man did as the angel commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it then they both went on their way, till they drew near to Ecbatane. [6] Then the young man said to the angel, Brother Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gal of the fish? [7] And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed. [8] As for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed. [9] And when they were come near to Rages, [10] The angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath one only daughter, named Sara; I will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife. [11] For to thee doth the right of her appertain, seeing thou only art of her kindred. [12] And the maid is fair and wise now therefore hear me, and I will speak to her father; and when we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according to the law of Moses, but he shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other. [13] Then the young man answered the angel, I have heard, brother Azarias that this maid hath been given to seven men, who all died in the marriage chamber. [14] And now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest if I go in unto her, I die, as the other before for a wicked spirit loveth her, which hurteth no body, but those which come unto her; wherefore I also fear lest I die, and bring my father's and my mother's life because of me to the grave with sorrow for they have no other son to bury them. [15] Then the angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the precepts which thy father gave thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred? wherefore hear me, O my brother; for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of the evil spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage. [16] And when thou shalt come into the marriage chamber, thou shalt take the ashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it [17] And the devil shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more but when thou shalt come to her, rise up both of you, and pray to God which is merciful, who will have pity on you, and save you fear not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning; and thou shalt preserve her, and she shall go with thee. Moreover I suppose that she shall bear thee children. Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was effectually joined to her.

And when they were come to Ecbatane, they came to the house of Raguel, and Sara met them and after they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house. [2] Then said Raguel to Edna his wife, How like is this young man to Tobit my cousin! [3] And Raguel asked them, From whence are ye, brethren? To whom they said, We are of the sons of Nephthalim, which are captives in Nineve. [4] Then he said to them, Do ye know Tobit our kinsman? And they said, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health? [5] And they said, He is both alive, and in good health and Tobias said, He is my father. [6] Then Raguel leaped up, and kissed him, and wept, [7] And blessed him, and said unto him, Thou art the son of an honest and good man. But when he had heard that Tobit was blind, he was sorrowful, and wept. [8] And likewise Edna his wife and Sara his daughter wept. Moreover they entertained them cheerfully; and after that they had killed a ram of the flock, they set store of meat on the table. Then said Tobias to Raphael, Brother Azarias, speak of those things of which thou didst talk in the way, and let this business be dispatched. [9] So he communicated the matter with Raguel and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat and drink, and make merry [10] For it is meet that thou shouldest marry my daughter nevertheless I will declare unto thee the truth. [11] I have given my daughter in marriage to seven men, who died that night they came in unto her nevertheless for the present be merry. But Tobias said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and swear one to another. [12] Raguel said, Then take her from henceforth according to the manner, for thou art her cousin, and she is thine, and the merciful God give you good success in all things. [13] Then he called his daughter Sara, and she came to her father, and he took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her after the law of Moses, and lead her away to thy father. And he blessed them; [14] And called Edna his wife, and took paper, and did write an instrument of covenants, and sealed it. [15] Then they began to eat. [16] After Raguel called his wife Edna, and said unto her, Sister, prepare another chamber, and bring her in thither. [17] Which when she had done as he had bidden her, she brought her thither and she wept, and she received the tears of her daughter, and said unto her, [18] Be of good comfort, my daughter; the Lord of heaven and earth give thee joy for this thy sorrow be of good comfort, my daughter.

8

And when they had supped, they brought Tobias in unto her. [2] And as he went, he remembered the words of Raphael, and took the ashes of the perfumes, and put the heart and the liver of the fish thereupon, and made a smoke therewith. [3] The which smell when the evil spirit had smelled, he fled into the utmost parts of Egypt, and the angel bound him. [4] And after that they were both shut in together, Tobias rose out of the bed, and said, Sister, arise, and let us pray that God would have pity on us. [5] Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thy holy and glorious name for ever; let the heavens bless thee, and all thy creatures. [6] Thou madest Adam, and gavest him Eve his wife for an helper and stay of them came mankind thou hast said, It is not good that man should be alone; let us make unto him an aid like unto himself. [7] And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for lust but uprightly therefore mercifully ordain that we may become aged together. [8] And she said with him, Amen. [9] So they slept both that night. And Raguel arose, and went and made a grave, [10] Saying, I fear lest he also be dead. [11] But when Raguel was come into his house, [1 2] He said unto his wife Edna. Send one of the maids, and let her see whether he be alive if he be not, that we may bury him, and no man know it. [13] So the maid opened the door, and went in, and found them both asleep, [14] And came forth, and told them that he was alive. [15] Then Raguel praised God, and said, O God, thou art worthy to be praised with all pure and holy praise; therefore let thy saints praise thee with all thy creatures; and let all thine angels and thine elect praise thee for ever. [16] Thou art to be praised, for thou hast made me joyful; and that is not come to me which I suspected; but thou hast dealt with us according to thy great mercy. [17] Thou art to be praised because thou hast had mercy of two that were the only begotten children of their fathers grant them mercy, O Lord, and finish their life in health with joy and mercy. [18] Then Raguel bade his servants to fill the grave. [19] And he kept the wedding feast fourteen days. [20] For before the days of the marriage were finished, Raguel had said unto him by an oath, that he should not depart till the fourteen days of the marriage were expired; [21] And then he should take the half of his goods, and go in safety to his father; and should have the rest when I and my wife be dead.

Then Tobias called Raphael, and said unto him, [2] Brother Azarias, take with thee a servant, and two camels, and go to Rages of Media to Gabael, and bring me the money, and bring him to the wedding. 3 For Raguel hath sworn that I shall not depart. 4 But my father counteth the days; and if I tarry long, he will be very sorry. 5 So Raphael went out, and lodged with Gabael, and gave him the handwriting who brought forth bags which were sealed up, and gave them to him. 6 And early in the morning they went forth both together, and came to the wedding and Tobias blessed his wife.

10

Now Tobit his father counted every day and when the days of the journey were expired, and they came not, 2 Then Tobit said, Are they detained? or is Gabael dead, and there is no man to give him the money? 3 Therefore he was very sorry. 4 Then his wife said unto him, My son is dead, seeing he stayeth long; and she began to wail him, and said, 5 Now I care for nothing, my son, since I have let thee go, the light of mine eyes. 6 To whom Tobit said, Hold thy peace, take no care, for he is safe. 7 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deceive me not; my son is dead. And she went out every day into the way which they went, and did eat no meat on the daytime, and ceased not whole nights to bewail her son Tobias, until the fourteen days of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there. Then Tobias said to Raguel, Let me go, for my father and my mother look no more to see me. 8 But his father in law said unto him, Tarry with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare unto him how things go with thee. 9 But Tobias said, No; but let me go to my father. 10 Then Raguel arose, and gave him Sara his wife, and half his goods, servants, and cattle, and money 11 And he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, The God of heaven give you a prosperous journey, my children. 12 And he said to his daughter, Honour thy father and thy mother in law, which are now thy parents, 40 that I may hear good report of thee. And he kissed her. Edna also said to Tobias, The Lord of heaven restore thee, my dear brother, and grant that I may see thy children of my daughter Sara before I die, that I may rejoice before the Lord behold, I commit my daughter unto thee of special trust; where are do not entreat her evil.

11

After these things Tobias went his way, praising God that he had given him a prosperous journey, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew near unto Nineve. [2] Then Raphael said to Tobias, Thou knowest, brother, how thou didst leave thy father [3] Let us haste before thy wife, and prepare the house. [4] And take in thine hand the gall of the fish. So they went their way, and the dog went after them. [5] Now Anna sat looking about toward the way for her son. [6] And when she espied him coming, she said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and the man that went with him. [7] Then said Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes. [8] Therefore anoint thou his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and the whiteness shall fall away, and he shall see thee. [9] Then Anna ran forth, and fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, Seeing I have seen thee, my son, from henceforth I am content to die. And they wept both. [10] Tobit also went forth toward the door, and stumbled but his son ran unto him, [11] And took hold of his father and he strake of the gall on his fathers' eyes, saying, Be of good hope, my father. [12] And when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them; [13] And the whiteness pilled away from the corners of his eyes and when he saw his son, he fell upon his neck. [14] And he wept, and said, Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy name for ever; and blessed are all thine holy angels [15] For thou hast scourged, and hast taken pity on me for, behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media. [16] Then Tobit went out to meet his daughter in law at the gate of Nineve, rejoicing and praising God and they which saw him go marvelled, because he had received his sight. [17] But Tobias gave thanks before them, because God had mercy on him. And when he came near to Sara his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, Thou art welcome, daughter God be blessed, which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed be thy father and thy mother. And there was joy among all his brethren which were at Nineve. [18] And Achiacharus, and Nasbas his brother's son, came [19] And Tobias' wedding was kept seven days with great joy.

12

Then Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, My son, see that the man have his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more. [2] And Tobias said unto him, O father, it is no harm to me to give him half of those things which I have brought [3] For he hath brought me again to thee in safety, and made whole my wife, and brought me the money, and likewise healed thee. [4] Then the old man said, It is due unto him. [5] So he called the angel, and he said unto him, Take half of all that ye have brought and go away in safety. [6] Then he took them both apart, and said unto them, Bless God, praise him, and magnify him, and praise him for the things which he hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. It is good to praise God, and exalt his name, and honourably to shew forth the works of God; therefore be not slack to praise him. [7] It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honourable to reveal the works of God. Do that which is good, and no evil shall touch you. [8] Prayer is good with fasting and alms and righteousness. A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold [9] For alms doth deliver from death, and shall purge away all sin. Those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with life [10] But they that sin are enemies to their own life. [11] Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, It was good to keep close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable to reveal the works of God. [12] Now therefore, when thou didst pray, and Sara thy daughter in law, I did bring the remembrance of your prayers before the Holy One and when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee likewise. [13] And when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, to go and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me but I was with thee. [14] And now God hath sent me to heal thee and Sara thy daughter in law. [15] I am Raphael, one of the seven holy angels, which present the prayers of the saints, and which go in and out before the glory of the Holy One. [16] Then they were both troubled, and fell upon their faces for they feared. [17] But he said unto them, Fear not, for it shall go well with you; praise God therefore. [18] For not of any favour of mine, but by the will of our God I came; wherefore praise him for ever. [19] All these days I did appear unto you; but I did neither eat nor drink, but ye did see a vision. [20] Now therefore give God thanks for I go up to him that sent me; but write all things which are done in a book. [21] And when they arose, they saw him no more. [22] Then they confessed the great and wonderful works of God, and how the angel of the Lord had appeared unto them.

13

Then Tobit wrote a prayer of rejoicing, and said, Blessed be God that liveth for ever, and blessed be his kingdom. 2 For he doth scourge, and hath mercy he leadeth down to hell, and bringeth up again neither is there any that can avoid his hand. 3 Confess him before the Gentiles, ye children of Israel for he hath scattered us among them. 4 There declare his greatness, and extol him before all the living for he is our Lord, and he is the God our Father for ever. 5 And he will scourge us for our iniquities, and will have mercy again, and will gather us out of all nations, among whom he hath scattered us. 6 If ye turn to him with your whole heart, and with your whole mind, and deal uprightly before him, then will he turn unto you, and will not hide his face from you. Therefore see what he will do with you, and confess him with your whole mouth, and praise the Lord of might, and extol the everlasting King. In the land of my captivity do I praise him, and declare his might and majesty to a sinful nation. O ye sinners, turn and do justice before him who can tell if he will accept you, and have mercy on you? 7 I will extol my God, and my soul shall praise the King of heaven, and shall rejoice in his greatness. 8 Let all men speak, and let all praise him for his righteousness. 9 O Jerusalem, the holy city, he will scourge thee for thy children's works, and will have mercy again on the sons of the righteous. 10 Give praise to the Lord, for he is good and praise the everlasting King, that his tabernacle may be builded in thee again with joy, and let him make joyful there in thee those that are captives, and love in thee for ever those that are miserable. 11 Many nations shall come from far to the name of the Lord God with gifts in their hands, even gifts to the King of heaven; all generations shall praise thee with great joy. 12 Cursed are all they which hate thee, and blessed shall all be which love thee for ever. 13 Rejoice and be glad for the children of the just for they shall be gathered together, and shall bless the Lord of the just. 14 O blessed are they which love thee, for they shall rejoice in thy peace blessed are they which have been sorrowful for all thy scourges; for they shall rejoice for thee, when they have seen all thy glory, and shall be glad for ever. 15 Let my soul bless God the great King. 16 For Jerusalem shall be built up with sapphires and emeralds, and precious stone thy walls and towers and battlements with pure gold. 17 And the streets of Jerusalem shall be paved with beryl and carbuncle and stones of Ophir. 18 And all her streets shall say, Alleluia; and they shall praise him, saying, Blessed be God, which hath extolled it for ever.

14

So Tobit made an end of praising God. 2 And he was eight and fifty years old when he lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight years and he gave alms, and he increased in the fear of the Lord God, and praised him. 3 And when he was very aged he called his son, and the sons of his son, and said to him, My son, take thy children; for, behold, I am aged, and am ready to depart out of this life. 4 Go into Media my son, for I surely believe those things which Jonas the prophet spake of Nineve, that it shall be overthrown; and that for a time peace shall rather be in Media; and that our brethren shall lie scattered in the earth from that good land and Jerusalem shall be desolate, and the house of God in it shall be burned, and shall be desolate for a time; 5 And that again God will have mercy on them, and bring them again into the land, where they shall build a temple, but not like to the first, until the time of that age be fulfilled; and afterward they shall return from all places of their captivity, and build up Jerusalem gloriously, and the house of God shall be built in it for ever with a glorious building, as the prophets have spoken thereof. 6 And all nations shall turn, and fear the Lord God truly, and shall bury their idols. 7 So shall all nations praise the Lord, and his people shall confess God, and the Lord shall exalt his people; and all those which love the Lord God in truth and justice shall rejoice, shewing mercy to our brethren. 8 And now, my son, depart out of Nineve, because that those things which the prophet Jonas spake shall surely come to pass. 9 But keep thou the law and the commandments, and shew thyself merciful and just, that it may go well with thee. 10 And bury me decently, and thy mother with me; but tarry no longer at Nineve. Remember, my son, how Aman handled Achiacharus that brought him up, how out of light he brought him into darkness, and how he rewarded him again yet Achiacharus was saved, but the other had his reward for he went down into darkness. Manasses gave alms, and escaped the snares of death which they had set for him but Aman fell into the snare, and perished. 11 Wherefore now, my son, consider what alms doeth, and how righteousness doth deliver. When he had said these things, he gave up the ghost in the bed, being an hundred and eight and fifty years old; and he buried him honourably. 12 And when Anna his mother was dead, he buried her with his father. But Tobias departed with his wife and children to Ecbatane to Raguel his father in law, 13 Where he became old with honour, and he buried his father and mother in law honourably, and he inherited their substance, and his father Tobit's. 14 And he died at Ecbatane in Media, being an hundred and seven and twenty years old. 15 But before he died he heard of the destruction of Nineve, which was taken by Nabuchodonosor and Assuerus and before his death he rejoiced over Nineve.

Judith

In the twelfth year of the reign of Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineve, the great city; in the days of Arphaxad, which reigned over the Medes in Ecbatane, 2 And built in Ecbatane walls round about of stones hewn three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits 3 And set the towers thereof upon the gates of it an hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits 4 And he made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen 5 Even in those days king Nabuchodonosor made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of Ragau. 6 And there came unto him all they that dwelt in the hill country, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tigris and Hydaspes, and the plain of Arioch the king of the Elymeans, and very many nations of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle. 7 Then Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians sent unto all that dwelt in Persia, and to all that dwelt westward, and to those that dwelt in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt upon the sea coast, 8 And to those among the nations that were of Carmel, and Galaad, and the higher Galilee, and the great plain of Esdrelom, 9 And to all that were in Samaria and the cities thereof, and beyond Jordan unto Jerusalem, and Betane, and Chelus, and Kades, and the river of Egypt, and Taphnes, and Ramesse, and all the land of Gesem, 10 Until ye come beyond Tanis and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, until ye come to the borders of Ethiopia. 11 But all the inhabitants of the land made light of the commandment of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him yea, he was before them as one man, and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with disgrace. 12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this country, and sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of Cilicia, and Damascus, and Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, till ye come to the borders of the two seas. 13 Then he marched in battle array with his power against king Arphaxad in the seventeenth year, and he prevailed in his battle for he overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots, 14 And became lord of his cities, and came unto Ecbatane, and took the towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame. 15 He took also Arphaxad in the mountains of Ragau, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day. 16 So he returned afterward to Nineve, both he and all his company of sundry nations being a very great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease, and banqueted, both he and his army, an hundred and twenty days.

And in the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians that he should, as he said, avenge himself on all the earth. 2 So he called unto him all his officers, and all his nobles, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and concluded the afflicting of the whole earth out of his own mouth. 3 Then they decreed to destroy all flesh, that did not obey the commandment of his mouth. 4 And when he had ended his counsel, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians called Holofernes the chief captain of his army, which was next unto him, and said unto him. 5 Thus saith the great king, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their own strength, of footmen an hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand. 6 And thou shalt go against all the west country, because they disobeyed my commandment. 7 And thou shalt declare unto that they prepare for me earth and water for I will go forth in my wrath against them and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoil unto them 8 So that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow 9 And I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth. 10 Thou therefore shalt go forth. and take beforehand for me all their coasts and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt reserve them for me till the day of their punishment. 11 But concerning them that rebel, let not thine eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter, and spoil them wheresoever thou goest. 12 For as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I do by mine hand. 13 And take thou heed that thou transgress none of the commandments of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to do them. 14 Then Holofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called ail the governors and captains, and the officers of the army of Assur; 15 And he mustered the chosen men for the battle, as his lord had commanded him, unto an hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback; 16 And he ranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war. 17 And he took camels and asses for their carriages, a very great number; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision 18 And plenty of victual for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the king's house. 19 Then he went forth and all his power to go before king Nabuchodonosor in the voyage, and to cover all the face of the earth westward with their chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen footmen. 20 A great number also sundry countries came with them like locusts, and like the sand of the earth for the multitude was without number. 21 And they went forth of Nineve three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper Cilicia. 22 Then he took all his army, his footmen, and horsemen and chariots, and went from thence into the hill country; 23 And destroyed Phud and Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rasses, and the children of Israel, which were toward the wilderness at the south of the land of the Chellians. 24 Then he went over Euphrates, and went through Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till ye come to the sea. 25 And he took the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia. 26 He compassed also all the children of Madian, and burned up their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepcotes. 27 Then he went down into the plain of Damascus in the time of wheat harvest, and burnt up all their fields, and destroyed their flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities, and utterly wasted their countries, and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword. 28 Therefore the fear and dread of him fell upon all the inhabitants of the sea coasts, which were in Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwelt in Jemnaan; and they that dwelt in Azotus and Ascalon feared him greatly.

So they sent ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying, [2] Behold, we the servants of Nabuchodonosor the great king lie before thee; use us as shall be good in thy sight. [3] Behold, our houses, and all our places, and all our fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the lodges of our tents lie before thy face; use them as it pleaseth thee. [4] Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy servants; come and deal with them as seemeth good unto thee. [5] So the men came to Holofernes, and declared unto him after this manner. [6] Then came he down toward the sea coast, both he and his army, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aid. [7] So they and all the country round about received them with garlands, with dances, and with timbrels. [8] Yet he did cast down their frontiers, and cut down their groves for he had decreed to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god. [9] Also he came over against Esdraelon near unto Judea, over against the great strait of Judea. [10] And he pitched between Geba and Scythopolis, and there he tarried a whole month, that he might gather together all the carriages of his army.

Now the children of Israel, that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Holofernes the chief captain of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to nought. [2] Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of the Lord their God [3] For they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people of Judea were lately gathered together and the vessels, and the altar, and the house, were sanctified after the profanation. [4] Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Samaria, and the villages and to Bethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of Salem [5] And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid up victuals for the provision of war for their fields were of late reaped. [6] Also Joacim the high priest, which was in those days in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in Bethulia, and Betomestham, which is over against Esdraelon toward the open country, near to Dothaim, [7] Charging them to keep the passages of the hill country for by them there was an entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them that would come up, because the passage was straight, for two men at the most. [8] And the children of Israel did as Joacim the high priest had commanded them, with the ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem. [9] Then every man of Israel cried to God with great fervency, and with great vehemency did they humble their souls [10] Both they, and their wives and their children, and their cattle, and every stranger and hireling, and their servants bought with money, put sackcloth upon their loins. [11] Thus every man and women, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, fell before the temple, and cast ashes upon their heads, and spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord also they put sackcloth about the altar, [12] And cried to the God of Israel all with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives for a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation and reproach, and for the nations to rejoice at. [13] So God heard their prayers, and looked upon their afflictions for the people fasted many days in all Judea and Jerusalem before the sanctuary of the Lord Almighty. [14] And Joacim the high priest, and all the priests that stood before the Lord, and they which ministered unto the Lord, had their loins girt with sackcloth, and offered the daily burnt offerings, with the vows and free gifts of the people, [15] And had ashes on their mitres, and cried unto the Lord with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel graciously.

Then was it declared to Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for war, and had shut up the passages of the hill country, and had fortified all the tops of the high hills and had laid impediments in the champaign countries [2] Wherewith he was very angry, and called all the princes of Moab, and the captains of Ammon, and all the governors of the sea coast, [3] And he said unto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Chanaan, who this people is, that dwelleth in the hill country, and what are the cities that they inhabit, and what is the multitude of their army, and wherein is their power and strength, and what king is set over them, or captain of their army; [4]

And why have they determined not to come and meet me, more than all the inhabitants of the west. 5 Then said Achior, the captain of all the sons of Ammon, Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will declare unto thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth near thee, and inhabiteth the hill countries and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant. 6 This people are descended of the Chaldeans 7 And they sojourned heretofore in Mesopotamia, because they would not follow the gods of their fathers, which were in the land of Chaldea. 8 For they left the way of their ancestors, and worshipped the God of heaven, the God whom they knew so they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many days. 9 Then their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to go into the land of Chanaan where they dwelt, and were increased with gold and silver, and with very much cattle. 10 But when a famine covered all the land of Chanaan, they went down into Egypt, and sojourned there, while they were nourished, and became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation. 11 Therefore the king of Egypt rose up against them, and dealt subtilly with them, and brought them low with labouring in brick, and made them slaves. 12 Then they cried unto their God, and he smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues so the Egyptians cast them out of their sight. 13 And God dried the Red sea before them, 14 And brought them to mount Sina, and CadesBarne, and cast forth all that dwelt in the wilderness. 15 So they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of Esebon, and passing over Jordan they possessed all the hill country. 16 And they cast forth before them the Chanaanite, the Pherezite, the Jebusite, and the Sychemite, and all the Gergesites, and they dwelt in that country many days. 17 And whilst they sinned not before their God, they prospered, because the God that hateth iniquity was with them. 18 But when they departed from the way which he appointed them, they were destroyed in many battles very sore, and were led captives into a land that was not their's, and the temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies. 19 But now are they returned to their God, and are come up from the places where they were scattered, and have possessed Jerusalem, where their sanctuary is, and are seated in the hill country; for it was desolate. 20 Now therefore, my lord and governor, if there be any error against this people, and they sin against their God, let us consider that this shall be their ruin, and let us go up, and we shall overcome them. 21 But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend them, and their God be for them, and we become a reproach before all the world. 22 And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent murmured, and the chief men of Holofernes, and all that dwelt by the sea side, and in Moab, spake that he should kill him. 23 For, say they, we will not be afraid of the face of the children of Israel for, lo, it is a people that have no strength nor power for a strong battle 24 Now therefore, lord Holofernes, we will go up, and they shall be a prey to be devoured of all thine army.

And when the tumult of men that were about the council was ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the army of Assur said unto Achior and all the Moabites before all the company of other nations, 2 And who art thou, Achior, and the hirelings of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied against us as to day, and hast said, that we should not make war with the people of Israel, because their God will defend them? and who is God but Nabuchodonosor? 3 He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God shall not deliver them but we his servants will destroy them as one man; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses. 4 For with them we will tread them under foot, and their mountains shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, saith king Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth for he said, None of my words shall be in vain. 5 And thou, Achior, an hireling of Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I take vengeance of this nation that came out of Egypt. 6 And then shall the sword of mine army, and the multitude of them that serve me, pass through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slain, when I return. 7 Now therefore my servants shall bring thee back into the hill country, and shall set thee in one of the cities of the passages 8 And thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them. 9 And if thou persuade thyself in thy mind that they shall be taken, let not thy countenance fall I have spoken it, and none of my words shall be in vain. 10 Then Holofernes commanded his servants, that waited in his tent, to take Achior, and bring him to Bethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel. 11 So his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into the plain, and they went from the midst of the plain into the hill country, and came unto the fountains that were under Bethulia. 12 And when the men of the city saw them, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city to the top of the hill and every man that used a sling kept them from coming up by casting of stones against them. [13] Nevertheless having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their lord. [14] But the Israelites descended from their city, and came unto him, and loosed him, and brought him to Bethulia, and presented him to the governors of the city [15] Which were in those days Ozias the son of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charmis the son of Melchiel. [16] And they called together all the ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women, to the assembly, and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done. [17] And he answered and declared unto them the words of the council of Holofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Holofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel. [18] Then the people fell down and worshipped God, and cried unto God. saying, [19] O Lord God of heaven, behold their pride, and pity the low estate of our nation, and look upon the face of those that are sanctified unto thee this day. [20] Then they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly. [21] And Ozias took him out of the assembly unto his house, and made a feast to the elders; and they called on the God of Israel all that night for help.

The next day Holofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should remove their camp against Bethulia, to take aforehand the ascents of the hill country, and to make war against the children of Israel. [2] Then their strong men removed their camps in that day, and the army of the men of war was an hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelve thousand horsemen, beside the baggage, and other men that were afoot among them, a very great multitude. [3] And they camped in the valley near unto Bethulia, by the fountain, and they spread themselves in breadth over Dothaim even to Belmaim, and in length from Bethulia unto Cynamon, which is over against Esdraelon. [4] Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbour, Now will these men lick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to bear their weight. [5] Then every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched all that night. 6 But in the second day Holofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel which were in Bethulia, 7 And viewed the passages up to the city, and came to the fountains of their waters, and took them, and set garrisons of men of war over them, and he himself removed toward his people. 8 Then came unto him all the chief of the children of Esau, and all the governors of the people of Moab, and the captains of the sea coast, and said, 9 Let our lord now hear a word, that there be not an overthrow in thine army. 10 For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, because it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains. 11 Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battle array, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish. 12 Remain in thy camp, and keep all the men of thine army, and let thy servants get into their hands the fountain of water, which issueth forth of the foot of the mountain 13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia have their water thence; so shall thirst kill them, and they shall give up their city, and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will camp upon them, to watch that none go out of the city. 14 So they and their wives and their children shall be consumed with fire, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell. 15 Thus shalt thou render them an evil reward; because they rebelled, and met not thy person peaceably. 16 And these words pleased Holofernes and all his servants, and he appointed to do as they had spoken. 17 So the camp of the children of Ammon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and took the waters, and the fountains of the waters of the children of Israel. 18 Then the children of Esau went up with the children of Ammon, and camped in the hill country over against Dothaim and they sent some of them toward the south, and toward the east over against Ekrebel, which is near unto Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plain, and covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and carriages were pitched to a very great multitude. 19 Then the children of Israel cried unto the Lord their God, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them. 20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots, and horsemen, four and thirty days, so that all their vessels of water failed all the inhibitants of Bethulia. 21 And the cisterns were emptied, and they had not water to drink their fill for one day; for they gave them drink by measure. 22 Therefore their young children were out of heart, and their women and young men fainted for thirst, and fell down in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them. 23 Then all the people assembled to Ozias, and to the chief of the city, both young men, and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and said before all the elders, [24] God be judge between us and you for ye have done us great injury, in that ye have not required peace of the children of Assur. [25] For now we have no helper but God hath sold us into their hands, that we should be thrown down before them with thirst and great destruction. [26] Now therefore call them unto you, and deliver the whole city for a spoil to the people of Holofernes, and to all his army. [27] For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them, than to die for thirst for we will be his servants, that our souls may live, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our children to die. [28] We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins and the sins of our fathers, that he do not according as we have said this day. [29] Then there was great weeping with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto the Lord God with a loud voice. [30] Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, let us yet endure five days, in the which space the Lord our God may turn his mercy toward us; for he will not forsake us utterly. [31] And if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do according to your word. [32] And he dispersed the people, every one to their own charge; and they went unto the walls and towers of their city, and sent the women and children into their houses and they were very low brought in the city.

Now at that time Judith heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Ozel, the son of Elcia, the son of Ananias, the son of Gedeon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Eliu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of Samael, the son of Salasadal, the son of Israel. [2] And Manasses was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in the barley harvest. [3] For as he stood overseeing them that bound sheaves in the field, the heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia and they buried him with his fathers in the field between Dothaim and Balamo. [4] So Judith was a widow in her house three years and four months. [5] And she made her a tent upon the top of her house, and put on sackcloth upon her loins and ware her widow's apparel. [6] And she fasted all the days of her widowhood, save the eves of the sabbaths, and the sabbaths, and the eves of the new moons, and the new moons and the feasts and solemn days of the house of Israel. 7 She was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautiful to behold and her husband Manasses had left her gold, and silver, and menservants and maidservants, and cattle, and lands; and she remained upon them. 8 And there was none that gave her an ill word; for she feared God greatly. 9 Now when she heard the evil words of the people against the governor, that they fainted for lack of water; for Judith had heard all the words that Ozias had spoken unto them, and that he had sworn to deliver the city unto the Assyrians after five days; 10 Then she sent her waitingwoman, that had the government of all things that she had, to call Ozias and Chabris and Charmis, the ancients of the city. 11 And they came unto her, and she said unto them, Hear me now, O ye governors of the inhabitants of Bethulia for your words that ye have spoken before the people this day are not right, touching this oath which ye made and pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turn to help you. 12 And now who are ye that have tempted God this day, and stand instead of God among the children of men? 13 And now try the Lord Almighty, but ye shall never know any thing. 14 For ye cannot find the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceive the things that he thinketh then how can ye search out God, that hath made all these things, and know his mind, or comprehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, provoke not the Lord our God to anger. 15 For if he will not help us within these five days, he hath power to defend us when he will, even every day, or to destroy us before our enemies. 16 Do not bind the counsels of the Lord our God for God is not as man, that he may be threatened; neither is he as the son of man, that he should be wavering. 17 Therefore let us wait for salvation of him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if it please him. 18 For there arose none in our age, neither is there any now in these days neither tribe, nor family, nor people, nor city among us, which worship gods made with hands, as hath been aforetime. 19 For the which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and had a great fall before our enemies. 20 But we know none other god, therefore we trust that he will not despise us, nor any of our nation. 21 For if we be taken so, all Judea shall lie waste, and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and he will require the profanation thereof at our mouth. 22 And the slaughter of our brethren, and the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will he turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, wheresoever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be an offence and a reproach to all them that possess us. 23 For our servitude shall not be directed to favour but the Lord our God shall turn it to dishonour. 24 Now therefore, O brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend upon us, and the sanctuary, and the house, and the altar, rest upon us. 25 Moreover let us give thanks to the Lord our God, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers. 26 Remember what things he did to Abraham, and how he tried Isaac, and what happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. 27 For he hath not tried us in the fire, as he did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us but the Lord doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them. 28 Then said Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words. 29 For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thy understanding, because the disposition of thine heart is good. 30 But the people were very thirsty, and compelled us to do unto them as we have spoken, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break. 31 Therefore now pray thou for us, because thou art a godly woman, and the Lord will send us rain to fill our cisterns, and we shall faint no more. 32 Then said Judith unto them, Hear me, and I will do a thing, which shall go throughout all generations to the children of our nation. 33 Ye shall stand this night in the gate, and I will go forth with my waitingwoman and within the days that ye have promised to deliver the city to our enemies the Lord will visit Israel by mine hand. 34 But enquire not ye of mine act for I will not declare it unto you, till the things be finished that I do. 35 Then said Ozias and the princes unto her, Go in peace, and the Lord God be before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies. 36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wards.

Judith fell upon her face, and put ashes upon her head, and uncovered the sackcloth wherewith she was clothed; and about the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Jerusalem in the house of the Lord Judith cried with a loud voice, and said, 2 O Lord God of my father Simeon, to whom thou gavest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maid to defile her, and discovered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproach; for thou saidst, It shall not be so; and yet they did so 3 Wherefore thou gavest their rulers to be slain, so that they dyed their bed in blood, being deceived, and smotest the servants with their lords, and the lords upon their thrones; 4 And hast given their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoils to be divided among thy dear children; which were moved with thy zeal, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called upon thee for aid O God, O my God, hear me also a widow. 5 For thou hast wrought not only those things, but also the things which fell out before, and which ensued after; thou hast thought upon the things which are now, and which are to come. 6 Yea, what things thou didst determine were ready at hand, and said, Lo, we are here for all thy ways are prepared, and thy judgments are in thy foreknowledge. 7 For, behold, the Assyrians are multiplied in their power; they are exalted with horse and man; they glory in the strength of their footmen; they trust in shield, and spear, and bow, and sling; and know not that thou art the Lord that breakest the battles the Lord is thy name. 8 Throw down their strength in thy power, and bring down their force in thy wrath for they have purposed to defile thy sanctuary, and to pollute the tabernacle where thy glorious name resteth and to cast down with sword the horn of thy altar. 9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath upon their heads give into mine hand, which am a widow, the power that I have conceived. 10 Smite by the deceit of my lips the servant with the prince, and the prince with the servant break down their stateliness by the hand of a woman. 11 For thy power standeth not in multitude nor thy might in strong men for thou art a God of the afflicted, an helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a protector of the forlorn, a saviour of them that are without hope. 12 I pray thee, I pray thee, O God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens and earth, Creator of the waters, king of every creature, hear thou my prayer 13 And make my speech and deceit to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed cruel things against thy covenant, and thy hallowed house, and against the top of Sion, and against the house of the possession of thy children. 14 And make every nation and tribe to acknowledge that thou art the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the people of Israel but thou.

Now after that she had ceased to cry unto the God of Israel, and bad made an end of all these words. 2 She rose where she had fallen down, and called her maid, and went down into the house in the which she abode in the sabbath days, and in her feast days, 3 And pulled off the sackcloth which she had on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body all over with water, and anointed herself with precious ointment, and braided the hair of her head, and put on a tire upon it, and put on her garments of gladness, wherewith she was clad during the life of Manasses her husband. 4 And she took sandals upon her feet, and put about her her bracelets, and her chains, and her rings, and her earrings, and all her ornaments, and decked herself bravely, to allure the eyes of all men that should see her. 5 Then she gave her maid a bottle of wine, and a cruse of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, and lumps of figs, and with fine bread; so she folded all these things together, and laid them upon her. 6 Thus they went forth to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and found standing there Ozias and the ancients of the city, Chabris and Charmis. 7 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her. 8 The God, the God of our fathers give thee favour, and accomplish thine enterprizes to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshipped God. 9 And she said unto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things whereof ye have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken. 10 And when they had done so, Judith went out, she, and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more. 11 Thus they went straight forth in the valley and the first watch of the Assyrians met her, 12 And took her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I am a woman of the Hebrews, and am fled from them for they shall be given you to be consumed 13 And I am coming before Holofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth; and I will shew him a way, whereby he shall go, and win all the hill country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men. 14 Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her, 15 Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come down to the presence of our lord now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall conduct thee, until they have delivered thee to his hands. 16 And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart, but shew unto him according to thy word; and he will entreat thee well. 17 Then they chose out of them an hundred men to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of Holofernes. 18 Then was there a concourse throughout all the camp for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Holofernes, till they told him of her. 19 And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbour, Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left who being let go might deceive the whole earth. 20 And they that lay near Holofernes went out, and all his servants and they brought her into the tent. 21 Now Holofernes rested upon his bed under a canopy, which was woven with purple, and gold, and emeralds, and precious stones. 22 So they shewed him of her; and he came out before his tent with silver lamps going before him. 23 And when Judith was come before him and his servants they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance; and she fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him and his servants took her up.

Then said Holofernes unto her, Woman, be of good comfort, fear not in thine heart for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Nabuchodonosor, the king of all the earth. 2 Now therefore, if thy people that dwelleth in the mountains had not set light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them but they have done these things to themselves. 3 But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come unto us for thou art come for safeguard; be of good comfort, thou shalt live this night, and hereafter 4 For none shall hurt thee, but entreat thee well, as they do the servants of king Nabuchodonosor my lord. 5 Then Judith said unto him, Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speak in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night. 6 And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring the thing perfectly to pass by thee; and my lord shall not fail of his purposes. 7 As Nabuchodonosor king of all the earth liveth, and as his power liveth, who hath sent thee for the upholding of every living thing for not only men shall serve him by thee, but also the beasts of the field, and the cattle, and the fowls of the air, shall live by thy power under Nabuchodonosor and all his house. 8 For we have heard of thy wisdom and thy policies, and it is reported in all the earth, that thou only art excellent in all the kingdom, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war. 9 Now as concerning the matter, which Achior did speak in thy council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia saved him, and he declared unto them all that he had spoken unto thee. 10 Therefore, O lord and governor, reject not his word; but lay it up in thine heart, for it is true for our nation shall not be punished, neither can sword prevail against them, except they sin against their God. 11 And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them, and their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they will provoke their God to anger whensoever they shall do that which is not fit to be done [12] For their victuals fail them, and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle, and purposed to consume all those things, that God hath forbidden them to eat by his laws [13] And are resolved to spend the firstfruits of thetenths of wine and oil, which they had sanctified, and reserved for the priests that serve in Jerusalem before the face of our God; the which things it is not lawful for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands. [14] For they have sent some to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done the like, to bring them a licence from the senate. [15] Now when they shall bring them word, they will forthwith do it, and they shall be given to thee to be destroyed the same day. [16] Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence; and God hath sent me to work things with thee, whereat all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall hear it. [17] For thy servant is religious, and serveth the God of heaven day and night now therefore, my lord, I will remain with thee, and thy servant will go out by night into the valley, and I will pray unto God, and he will tell me when they have committed their sins [18] And I will come and shew it unto thee then thou shalt go forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee. [19] And I will lead thee through the midst of Judea, until thou come before Jerusalem; and I will set thy throne in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them as sheep that have no shepherd, and a dog shall not so much as open his mouth at thee for these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared unto me, and I am sent to tell thee. [20] Then her words pleased Holofernes and all his servants; and they marvelled at her wisdom, and said, [21] There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty of face, and wisdom of words. [22] Likewise Holofernes said unto her. God hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands and destruction upon them that lightly regard my lord. [23] And now thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words surely if thou do as thou hast spoken thy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of king Nabuchodonosor, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

Then he commanded to bring her in where his plate was set; and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drink of his own wine. [2] And Judith said, I will not eat thereof, lest there be an offence but provision shall be made for me of the things that I have brought. 3 Then Holofernes said unto her, If thy provision should fail, how should we give thee the like? for there be none with us of thy nation. 4 Then said Judith unto him As thy soul liveth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before the Lord work by mine hand the things that he hath determined. 5 Then the servants of Holofernes brought her into the tent, and she slept till midnight, and she arose when it was toward the morning watch, 6 And sent to Holofernes, saving, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid may go forth unto prayer. 7 Then Holofernes commanded his guard that they should not stay her thus she abode in the camp three days, and went out in the night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed herself in a fountain of water by the camp. 8 And when she came out, she besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way to the raising up of the children of her people. 9 So she came in clean, and remained in the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening. 10 And in the fourth day Holofernes made a feast to his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet. 11 Then said he to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us. 12 For, lo, it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she will laugh us to scorn. 13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Holofernes, and came to her, and he said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with us and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which serve in the house of Nabuchodonosor. 14 Then said Judith unto him, Who am I now, that I should gainsay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him I will do speedily, and it shall be my joy unto the day of my death. 15 So she arose, and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire, and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Holofernes, which she had received of Bagoas far her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them. 16 Now when Judith came in and sat down, Holofernes his heart was ravished with her, and his mind was moved, and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her. 17 Then said Holofernes unto her, Drink now, and be merry with us. 18 So Judith said, I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born. 19 Then she took and ate and drank before him what her maid had prepared. 20 And Holofernes took great delight in her, and drank more wine than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

Now when the evening was come, his servants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his lord; and they went to their beds for they were all weary, because the feast had been long. 2 And Judith was left along in the tent, and Holofernes lying along upon his bed for he was filled with wine. 3 Now Judith had commanded her maid to stand without her bedchamber, and to wait for her. coming forth, as she did daily for she said she would go forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas according to the same purpose. 4 So all went forth and none was left in the bedchamber, neither little nor great. Then Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Lord God of all power, look at this present upon the works of mine hands for the exaltation of Jerusalem. 5 For now is the time to help thine inheritance, and to execute thine enterprizes to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against us. 6 Then she came to the pillar of the bed, which was at Holofernes' head, and took down his fauchion from thence, 7 And approached to his bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day. 8 And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and she took away his head from him. 9 And tumbled his body down from the bed, and pulled down the canopy from the pillars; and anon after she went forth, and gave Holofernes his head to her maid; 10 And she put it in her bag of meat so they twain went together according to their custom unto prayer and when they passed the camp, they compassed the valley, and went up the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof. 11 Then said Judith afar off, to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate God, even our God, is with us, to shew his power yet in Jerusalem, and his forces against the enemy, as he hath even done this day. 12 Now when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called the elders of the city. 13 And then they ran all together, both small and great, for it was strange unto them that she was come so they opened the gate, and received them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them. 14 Then she said to them with a loud voice, Praise, praise God, praise God, I say, for he hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night. 15 So she took the head out of the bag, and shewed it, and said unto them, behold the head of Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, and behold the canopy, wherein he did lie in his drunkenness; and the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a woman. 16 As the Lord liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath he not committed sin with me, to defile and shame me. [17] Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people. [18] Then said Ozias unto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of the most high God above all the women upon the earth; and blessed be the Lord God, which hath created the heavens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies. [19] For this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for ever. [20] And God turn these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things because thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our God. And all the people said; So be it, so be it.

Then said Judith unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this head, and hang it upon the highest place of your walls. [2] And so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, take ye every one his weapons, and go forth every valiant man out of the city, and set ye a captain over them, as though ye would go down into the field toward the watch of the Assyrians; but go not down. [3] Then they shall take their armour, and shall go into their camp, and raise up the captains of the army of Assur, and shall run to the tent of Holofernes, but shall not find him then fear shall fall upon them, and they shall flee before your face. [4] So ye, and all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they go. [5] But before ye do these things, call me Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to us as it were to his death. [6] Then they called Achior out of the house of Ozias; and when he was come, and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, and his spirit failed. [7] But when they had recovered him, he fell at Judith's feet, and reverenced her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the tabernacles of Juda, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be astonished. [8] Now therefore tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. Then Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the day that she went forth until that hour she spake unto them. [9] And when she had left off speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city. 10 And when Achior had seen all that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God greatly, and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined unto the house of Israel unto this day. 11 And as soon as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto the straits of the mountain. 12 But when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to their leaders, which came to their captains and tribunes, and to every one of their rulers. 13 So they came to Holofernes' tent, and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed. 14 Then went in Bagoas, and knocked at the door of the tent; for he thought that he had slept with Judith. 15 But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the floor dead, and his head was taken from him. 16 Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, and rent his garments. 17 After he went into the tent where Judith lodged and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cried, 18 These slaves have dealt treacherously; one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nabuchodonosor for, behold, Holofernes lieth upon the ground without a head. 19 When the captains of the Assyrians' army heard these words, they rent their coats and their minds were wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

And when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done. 2 And fear and trembling fell upon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out all together, they fled into every way of the plain, and of the hill country. 3 They also that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia fled away. Then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them. 4 Then sent Ozias to Betomasthem, and to Bebai, and Chobai, and Cola and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them. 5 Now when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell upon them with one consent, and slew them unto Chobai likewise also they that came from Jerusalem, and from all the hill country, (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies) and they that were in Galaad, and in Galilee, chased them with a great slaughter, until they were past Damascus and the borders thereof. [6] And the residue that dwelt at Bethulia, fell upon the camp of Assur, and spoiled them, and were greatly enriched. [7] And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter had that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, gat many spoils for the multitude was very great. [8] Then Joacim the high priest, and the ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to salute her. [9] And when they came unto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel, thou art the great rejoicing of our nation [10] Thou hast done all these things by thine hand thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith blessed be thou of the Almighty Lord for evermore. And all the people said, So be it. [11] And the people spoiled the camp the space of thirty days and they gave unto Judith Holofernes his tent, and all his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his stuff and she took it and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts, and laid them thereon. [12] Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her and she took branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that were with her. [13] And they put a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her, and she went before all the [52] people in the dance, leading all the women and all the men of Israel followed in their armour with garlands, and with songs in their mouths.

Then Judith began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang after her this song of praise. [2] And Judith said, Begin unto my God with timbrels, sing unto my Lord with cymbals tune unto him a new psalm exalt him, and call upon his name. [3] For God breaketh the battles for among the camps in the midst of the people he hath delivered me out of the hands of them that persecuted me. [4] Assur came out of the mountains from the north, he came with ten thousands of his army, the multitude whereof stopped the torrents, and their

horsemen have covered the hills. [5] He bragged that he would burn up my borders, and kill my young men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a prey, and my virgins as a spoil. [6] But the Almighty Lord hath disappointed them by the hand of a woman. [7] For the mighty one did not fall by the young men, neither did the sons of the Titans smite him, nor high giants set upon him but Judith the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her countenance. [8] For she put off the garment of her widowhood for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anointed her face with ointment, and bound her hair in a tire, and took a linen garment to deceive him. [9] Her sandals ravished his eyes, her beauty took his mind prisoner, and the fauchion passed through his neck. [10] The Persians quaked at her boldness, and the Medes were daunted at her hardiness. [11] Then my afflicted shouted for joy, and my weak ones cried aloud; but they were astonished these lifted up their voices, but they were overthrown. [12] The sons of the damsels have pierced them through, and wounded them as fugatives' children they perished by the battle of the Lord. [13] I will sing unto the Lord a new song O Lord, thou art great and glorious, wonderful in strength, and invincible. [14] Let all creatures serve thee for thou spakest, and they were made, thou didst send forth thy spirit, and it created them, and there is none that can resist thy voice. [15] For the mountains shall be moved from their foundations with the waters, the rocks shall melt as wax at thy presence yet thou art merciful to them that fear thee. [16] For all sacrifice is too little for a sweet savour unto thee, and all the fat is not sufficient for thy burnt offering but he that feareth the Lord is great at all times. [17] Woe to the nations that rise up against my kindred! the Lord Almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of judgment, in putting fire and worms in their flesh; and they shall feel them, and weep for ever. [18] Now as soon as they entered into Jerusalem, they worshipped the Lord; and as soon as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts. [19] Judith also dedicated all the stuff of Holofernes, which the people had given her, and gave the canopy, which she had taken out of his bedchamber, for a gift unto the Lord. [20] So the people continued feasting in Jerusalem before the sanctuary for the space of three months and Judith remained with them. [21] After this time every one returned to his own inheritance, and Judith went to Bethulia, and remained in her own possession, and was in her time honourable in all the country. [22] And many desired her, but none knew her all the days of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people. [23] But she increased more and more in honour, and waxed old in her husband's house, being an hundred and five years old, and made her maid free; so she died in Bethulia and they buried her in the cave of her husband Manasses. [24] And the house of Israel lamented her seven days and before she died, she did distribute her goods to all them that were nearest of kindred to Manasses her husband, and to them that were the nearest of her kindred. 25 And there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraid in the days of Judith, nor a long time after her death.

Wisdom of Solomon

1

Love righteousness, ye that be judges of the earth think of the Lord with a good (heart,) and in simplicity of heart seek him. 2 For he will be found of them that tempt him not; and sheweth himself unto such as do not distrust him. 3 For froward thoughts separate from God and his power, when it is tried, reproveth the unwise. 4 For into a malicious soul wisdom shall not enter; nor dwell in the body that is subject unto sin. 5 For the holy spirit of discipline will flee deceit, and remove from thoughts that are without understanding, and will not abide when unrighteousness cometh in. 6 For wisdom is a loving spirit; and will not acquit a blasphemer of his words for God is witness of his reins, and a true beholder of his heart, and a hearer of his tongue. 7 For the Spirit of the Lord filleth the world and that which containeth all things hath knowledge of the voice. 8 Therefore he that speaketh unrighteous things cannot be hid neither shall vengeance, when it punisheth, pass by him. 9 For inquisition shall be made into the counsels of the ungodly and the sound of his words shall come unto the Lord for the manifestation of his wicked deeds. 10 For the ear of jealousy heareth all things and the noise of murmurings is not hid. 11 Therefore beware of murmuring, which is unprofitable; and refrain your tongue from backbiting for there is no word so secret, that shall go for nought and the mouth that belieth slayeth the soul. 1 2 Seek not death in the error of your life and pull not upon yourselves destruction with the works of your hands. 13 For God made not death neither hath he pleasure in the destruction of the living. 14 For he created all things, that they might have their being and the generations of the world were healthful; and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor the kingdom of death upon the earth 15 (For righteousness is immortal) 16 But ungodly men with their works and words called it to them for when they thought to have it their friend, they consumed to nought, and made a covenant with it, because they are worthy to take part with it.

For the ungodly said, reasoning with themselves, but not aright, Our life is short and tedious, and in the death of a man there is no remedy neither was there any man known to have returned from the grave. [2] For we are born at all adventure and we shall be hereafter as though we had never been for the breath in our nostrils is as smoke, and a little spark in the moving of our heart [3] Which being extinguished, our body shall be turned into ashes, and our spirit shall vanish as the soft air, [4] And our name shall be forgotten in time, and no man shall have our works in remembrance, and our life shall pass away as the trace of a cloud, and shall be dispersed as a mist, that is driven away with the beams of the sun, and overcome with the heat thereof. [5] For our time is a very shadow that passeth away; and after our end there is no returning for it is fast sealed, so that no man cometh again. [6] Come on therefore, let us enjoy the good things that are present and let us speedily use the creatures like as in youth. [7] Let us fill ourselves with costly wine and ointments and let no flower of the spring pass by us [8] Let us crown ourselves with rosebuds, before they be withered [9] Let none of us go without his part of our voluptuousness let us leave tokens of our joyfulness in every place for this is our portion, and our lot is this. [10] Let us oppress the poor righteous man, let us not spare the widow, nor reverence the ancient gray hairs of the aged. [11] Let our strength be the law of justice for that which is feeble is found to be nothing worth. [12] Therefore let us lie in wait for the righteous; because he is not for our turn, and he is clean contrary to our doings he upbraideth us with our offending the law, and objecteth to our infamy the transgressings of our education. [13] He professeth to have the knowledge of God and he calleth himself the child of the Lord. [14] He was made to reprove our thoughts. [15] He is grievous unto us even to behold for his life is not like other men's, his ways are of another fashion. [16] We are esteemed of him as counterfeits he abstaineth from our ways as from filthiness he pronounceth the end of the just to be blessed, and maketh his boast that God is his father. [17] Let us see if his words be true and let us prove what shall happen in the end of him. [18] For if the just man be the son of God, he will help him, and deliver him from the hand of his enemies. [19] Let us examine him with despitefulness and torture, that we may know his meekness, and prove his patience. [20] Let us condemn him with a shameful death for by his own saying he shall be respected. [21] Such things they did imagine, and were deceived for their own wickedness hath blinded them. [22] As for the mysteries of God, they knew them not neither hoped they for the wages of righteousness, nor discerned a reward for blameless souls. [23] For God created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of his own eternity. [24] Nevertheless through envy of the devil came death into the world and they that do hold of his side do find it.

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and there shall no torment touch them. [2] In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die and their departure is taken for misery, [3] And their going from us to be utter destruction but they are in peace. [4] For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their hope full of immortality. [5] And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded for God proved them, and found them worthy for himself. [6] As gold in the furnace hath he tried them, and received them as a burnt offering. [7] And in the time of their visitation they shall shine, and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble. [8] They shall judge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reign for ever. [9] They that put their trust in him shall understand the truth and such as be faithful in love shall abide with him for grace and mercy is to his saints, and he hath care for his elect. [10] But the ungodly shall be punished according to their own imaginations, which have neglected the righteous, and forsaken the Lord. [11] For whoso despiseth wisdom and nurture, he is miserable, and their hope is vain, their labours unfruitful, and their works unprofitable [12] Their wives are foolish, and their children wicked [13] Their offspring is cursed. Wherefore blessed is the barren that is undefiled, which hath not known the sinful bed she shall have fruit in the visitation of souls. [14] And blessed is the eunuch, which with his hands hath wrought no iniquity, nor imagined wicked things against God for unto him shall be given the special gift of faith, and an inheritance in the temple of the Lord more acceptable to his mind. [15] For glorious is the fruit of good labours and the root of wisdom shall never fall away. [16] As for the children of adulterers, they shall not come to their perfection, and the seed of an unrighteous bed shall be rooted out. [17] For though they live long, yet shall they be nothing regarded and their last age shall be without honour. [18] Or, if they die quickly, they have no hope, neither comfort in the day of trial. [19] For horrible is the end of the unrighteous generation.

4

Better it is to have no children, and to have virtue for the memorial thereof is immortal because it is known with God, and with men. [2] When it is present, men take example at it; and when it is gone, they desire it it weareth a crown, and triumpheth for ever, having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards. [3] But the multiplying brood of the ungodly shall not thrive, nor take deep rooting from bastard slips, nor lay any fast foundation. [4] For though they flourish in branches for a time; yet standing not last, they shall be shaken with the wind, and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out. [5] The imperfect branches shall be broken off, their fruit unprofitable, not ripe to eat, yea, meet for nothing. [6] For children begotten of unlawful beds are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial. [7] But though the righteous be prevented with death, yet shall he be in rest. [8] For honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years. [9] But wisdom is the gray hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age. [10] He pleased God, and was beloved of him so that living among sinners he was translated. [11] Yea speedily was he taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul. [12] For the bewitching of naughtiness doth obscure things that are honest; and the wandering of concupiscence doth undermine the simple mind. [13] He, being made perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time [14] For his soul pleased the Lord therefore hasted he to take him away from among the wicked. [15] This the people saw, and understood it not, neither laid they up this in their minds, That his grace and mercy is with his saints, and that he hath respect unto his chosen. [16] Thus the righteous that is dead shall condemn the ungodly which are living; and youth that is soon perfected the many years and old age of the unrighteous. [17] For they shall see the end of the wise, and shall not understand what God in his counsel hath decreed of him, and to what end the Lord hath set him in safety. [18] They shall see him, and despise him; but God shall laugh them to scorn and they shall hereafter be a vile carcase, and a reproach among the dead for evermore. [19] For he shall rend them, and cast them down headlong, that they shall be speechless; and he shall shake them from the foundation; and they shall be utterly laid waste, and be in sorrow; and their memorial shall perish. [20] And when they cast up the accounts of their sins, they shall come with fear and their own iniquities shall convince them to their face.

Then shall the righteous man stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no account of his labours. [2] When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that they looked for. [3] And they repenting and groaning for anguish of spirit shall say within themselves, This was he, whom we had sometimes in derision, and a proverb of reproach [4] We fools accounted his life madness, and his end to be without honour [5] How is he numbered among the children of God, and his lot is among the saints! [6] Therefore have we erred from the way of truth, and the light of righteousness hath not shined unto us, and the sun of righteousness rose not upon us. [7] We wearied ourselves in the way of wickedness and destruction yea, we have gone through deserts, where there lay no way but as for the way of the Lord, we have not known it. [8] What hath pride profited us? or what good hath riches with our vaunting brought us? [9] All those things are passed away like a shadow, and as a post that hasted by; [10] And as a ship that passeth over the waves of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof cannot be found, neither the pathway of the keel in the waves; [11] Or as when a bird hath flown through the air, there is no token of her way to be found, but the light air being beaten with the stroke of her wings and parted with the violent noise and motion of them, is passed through, and therein afterwards no sign where she went is to be found; [12] Or like as when an arrow is shot at a mark, it parteth the air, which immediately cometh together again, so that a man cannot know where it went through [13] Even so we in like manner, as soon as we were born, began to draw to our end, and had no sign of virtue to shew; but were consumed in our own wickedness. [14] For the hope of the ungodly is like dust that is blown away with the wind; like a thin froth that is driven away with the storm; like as the smoke which is dispersed here and there with a tempest, and passeth away as the remembrance of a guest that tarrieth but a day. [15] But the righteous live for evermore; their reward also is with the Lord, and the care of them is with the most High. [16] Therefore shall they receive a glorious kingdom, and a beautiful crown from the Lord's hand for with his right hand shall he cover them, and with his arm shall he protect them. [17] He shall take to him his jealousy for complete armour, and make the creature his weapon for the revenge of his enemies. 18 He shall put on righteousness as a breastplate, and true judgment instead of an helmet. 19 He shall take holiness for an invincible shield. 20 His severe wrath shall he sharpen for a sword, and the world shall fight with him against the unwise. 21 Then shall the right aiming thunderbolts go abroad; and from the clouds, as from a well drawn bow, shall they fly to the mark. 22 And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast as out of a stone bow, and the water of the sea shall rage against them, and the floods shall cruelly drown them. 23 Yea, a mighty wind shall stand up against them, and like a storm shall blow them away thus iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and ill dealing shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

Hear therefore, O ye kings, and understand; learn, ye that be judges of the ends of the earth. 2 Give ear, ye that rule the people, and glory in the multitude of nations. 3 For power is given you of the Lord, and sovereignty from the Highest, who shall try your works, and search out your counsels. 4 Because, being ministers of his kingdom, ye have not judged aright, nor kept the law, nor walked after the counsel of God; 5 Horribly and speedily shall he come upon you for a sharp judgment shall be to them that be in high places. 6 For mercy will soon pardon the meanest but mighty men shall be mightily tormented. 7 For he which is Lord over all shall fear no man's person, neither shall he stand in awe of any man's greatness for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike. 8 But a sore trial shall come upon the mighty. 9 Unto you therefore, O kings, do I speak, that ye may learn wisdom, and not fall away. 10 For they that keep holiness holily shall be judged holy and they that have learned such things shall find what to answer. 11 Wherefore set your affection upon my words; desire them, and ye shall be instructed. 12 Wisdom is glorious, and never fadeth away yea, she is easily seen of them that love her, and found of such as seek her. 13 She preventeth them that desire her, in making herself first known unto them. 14 Whoso seeketh her early shall have no great travail for he shall find her sitting at his doors. 15 To think therefore upon her is perfection of wisdom and whoso watcheth for her shall quickly be without care. 16 For she goeth about seeking such as are worthy of her, sheweth herself favourably unto them in the ways, and meeteth them in every thought. [17] For the very true beginning of her is the desire of discipline; and the care of discipline is love; [18] And love is the keeping of her laws; and the giving heed unto her laws is the assurance of incorruption; [19] And incorruption maketh us near unto God [20] Therefore the desire of wisdom bringeth to a kingdom. [21] If your delight be then in thrones and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, honour wisdom, that ye may reign for evermore. [22] As for wisdom, what she is, and how she came up, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you but will seek her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not pass over the truth. [23] Neither will I go with consuming envy; for such a man shall have no fellowship with wisdom. [24] But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world and a wise king is the upholding of the people. [25] Receive therefore instruction through my words, and it shall do you good.

I myself also am a mortal man, like to all, and the offspring of him that was first made of the earth, [2] And in my mother's womb was fashioned to be flesh in the time of ten months, being compacted in blood, of the seed of man, and the pleasure that came with sleep. [3] And when I was born, I drew in the common air, and fell upon the earth, which is of like nature, and the first voice which I uttered was crying, as all others do. [4] I was nursed in swaddling clothes, and that with cares. [5] For there is no king that had any other beginning of birth. [6] For all men have one entrance into life, and the like going out. [7] Wherefore I prayed, and understanding was given me I called upon God, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. [8] I preferred her before sceptres and thrones, and esteemed riches nothing in comparison of her. [9] Neither compared I unto her any precious stone, because all gold in respect of her is as a little sand, and silver shall be counted as clay before her. [10] I loved her above health and beauty, and chose to have her instead of light for the light that cometh from her never goeth out. [11] All good things together came to me with her, and innumerable riches in her hands. [12] And I rejoiced in them all, because wisdom goeth before them and I knew not that she was the mother of them. [13] I learned diligently, and do communicate her liberally I do not hide her riches. [14] For she is a treasure unto men that never faileth which they that use become the friends of God, being commended for the gifts that come from learning. [15] God hath granted me to speak as I would, and to conceive as is meet for the things that are given me because it is he that leadeth unto wisdom, and directeth the wise. [16] For in his hand are both we and our words; all wisdom also, and knowledge of workmanship. [17] For he hath given me certain knowledge of the things that are, namely, to know how the world was made, and the operation of the elements [18] The beginning, ending, and midst of the times the alterations of the turning of the sun, and the change of seasons [19] The circuits of years, and the positions of stars [20] The natures of living creatures, and the furies of wild beasts the violence of winds, and the reasonings of men the diversities of plants and the virtues of roots [21] And all such things as are either secret or manifest, them I know. [22] For wisdom, which is the worker of all things, taught me for in her is an understanding spirit holy, one only, manifold, subtil, lively, clear, undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, loving the thing that is good quick, which cannot be letted, ready to do good, [23] Kind to man, steadfast, sure, free from care, having all power, overseeing all things, and going through all understanding, pure, and most subtil, spirits. [24] For wisdom is more moving than any motion she passeth and goeth through all things by reason of her pureness. [25] For she is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almighty therefore can no defiled thing fall into her. [26] For she is the brightness of the everlasting light, the unspotted mirror of the power of God, and the image of his goodness. [27] And being but one, she can do all things and remaining in herself, she maketh all things new and in all ages entering into holy souls, she maketh them friends of God, and prophets. [28] For God loveth none but him that dwelleth with wisdom. [29] For she is more beautiful than the sun, and above all the order of stars being compared with the light, she is found before it. [30] For after this cometh night but vice shall not prevail against wisdom.

Wisdom reacheth from one end to another mightily and sweetly doth she order all things. [2] I loved her, and sought her out from my youth, I desired to make her my spouse, and I was a lover of her beauty. [3] In that she is conversant with God, she magnifieth her nobility yea, the Lord of all things himself loved her. [4] For she is privy to the mysteries of the knowledge of God, and a lover of his works. [5] If riches be a possession to be desired in this life; what is richer than wisdom, that worketh all things? [6] And if prudence work;

who of all that are is a more cunning workman than she? 7 And if a man love righteousness her labours are virtues for she teacheth temperance and prudence, justice and fortitude which are such things, as en can have nothing more profitable in their life. 8 If a man desire much experience, she knoweth things of old, and conjectureth aright what is to come she knoweth the subtilties of speeches, and can expound dark sentences she foreseeth signs and wonders, and the events of seasons and times. 9 Therefore I purposed to take her to me to live with me, knowing that she would be a counsellor of good things, and a comfort in cares and grief. 10 For her sake I shall have estimation among the multitude, and honour with the elders, though I be young. 11 I shall be found of a quick conceit in judgment, and shall be admired in the sight of great men. 12 When I hold my tongue, they shall bide my leisure, and when I speak, they shall give good ear unto me if I talk much, they shall lay their hands upon their mouth. 13 Moreover by the means of her I shall obtain immortality, and leave behind me an everlasting memorial to them that come after me. 14 I shall set the people in order, and the nations shall be subject unto me. 15 Horrible tyrants shall be afraid, when they do but hear of me; I shall be found good among the multitude, and valiant in war. 16 After I am come into mine house, I will repose myself with her for her conversation hath no bitterness; and to live with her hath no sorrow, but mirth and joy. 17 Now when I considered these things in myself, and pondered them in my heart, how that to be allied unto wisdom is immortality; 18 And great pleasure it is to have her friendship; and in the works of her hands are infinite riches; and in the exercise of conference with her, prudence; and in talking with her, a good report; I went about seeking how to take her to me. 19 For I was a witty child, and had a good spirit. 20 Yea rather, being good, I came into a body undefiled. 21 Nevertheless, when I perceived that I could not otherwise obtain her, except God gave her me; and that was a point of wisdom also to know whose gift she was; I prayed unto the Lord, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said,

O God of my fathers, and Lord of mercy, who hast made all things with thy word, 2 And ordained man through thy wisdom, that he should have dominion over the creatures which thou hast made, 3 And order the world according to equity and righteousness, and execute judgment with an upright heart [4] Give me wisdom, that sitteth by thy throne; and reject me not from among thy children [5] For I thy servant and son of thine handmaid am a feeble person, and of a short time, and too young for the understanding of judgment and laws. [6] For though a man be never so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom be not with him, he shall be nothing regarded. [7] Thou hast chosen me to be a king of thy people, and a judge of thy sons and daughters [8] Thou hast commanded me to build a temple upon thy holy mount, and an altar in the city wherein thou dwellest, a resemblance of the holy tabernacle, which thou hast prepared from the beginning. [9] And wisdom was with thee which knoweth thy works, and was present when thou madest the world, and knew what was acceptable in thy sight, and right in thy commandments. [10] O send her out of thy holy heavens, and from the throne of thy glory, that being present she may labour with me, that I may know what is pleasing unto thee. [11] For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me soberly in my doings, and preserve me in her power. [12] So shall my works be acceptable, and then shall I judge thy people righteously, and be worthy to sit in my father's seat. [13] For what man is he that can know the counsel of God? or who can think what the will of the Lord is? [14] For the thoughts of mortal men are miserable, and our devices are but uncertain. [15] For the corruptible body presseth down the soul, and the earthy tabernacle weigheth down the mind that museth upon many things. [16] And hardly do we guess aright at things that are upon earth, and with labour do we find the things that are before us but the things that are in heaven who hath searched out? [17] And thy counsel who hath known, except thou give wisdom, and send thy Holy Spirit from above? [18] For so the ways of them which lived on the earth were reformed, and men were taught the things that are pleasing unto thee, and were saved through wisdom.

She preserved the first formed father of the world, that was created alone, and brought him out of his fall, [2] And gave him power to rule all things. [3] But when the unrighteous went away from her in his anger, he perished also in the fury wherewith he murdered his brother. [4] For whose cause the earth being drowned with the flood, wisdom again preserved it, and directed the course of the righteous in a piece of wood of small value. [5]

Moreover, the nations in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, she found out the righteous, and preserved him blameless unto God, and kept him strong against his tender compassion toward his son. [6] When the ungodly perished, she delivered the righteous man, who fled from the fire which fell down upon the five cities. [7] Of whose wickedness even to this day the waste land that smoketh is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness and a standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving soul. [8] For regarding not wisdom, they gat not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good; but also left behind them to the world a memorial of their foolishness so that in the things wherein they offended they could not so much as be hid. [9] Rut wisdom delivered from pain those that attended upon her. [10] When the righteous fled from his brother's wrath she guided him in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours. [11] In the covetousness of such as oppressed him she stood by him, and made him rich. [12] She defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and in a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that goodness is stronger than all. [13] When the righteous was sold, she forsook him not, but delivered him from sin she went down with him into the pit, [14] And left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him as for them that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory. [15] She delivered the righteous people and blameless seed from the nation that oppressed them. [16] She entered into the soul of the servant of the Lord, and withstood dreadful kings in wonders and signs; [17] Rendered to the righteous a reward of their labours, guided them in a marvellous way, and was unto them for a cover by day, and a light of stars in the night season; [18] Brought them through the Red sea, and led them through much water [19] But she drowned their enemies, and cast them up out of the bottom of the deep. [20] Therefore the righteous spoiled the ungodly, and praised thy holy name, O Lord, and magnified with one accord thine hand, that fought for them. [21] For wisdom opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of them that cannot speak eloquent.

She prospered their works in the hand of the holy prophet. [2] They went through the wilderness that was not inhabited, and pitched tents in places where there lay no way. [3] They stood against their enemies, and were avenged of their adversaries. [4] When they were thirsty, they called upon thee, and water was given them out of the flinty rock, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone. [5] For by what things their enemies were punished, by the same they in their need were benefited. [6] For instead of of a perpetual running river troubled with foul blood, [7] For a manifest reproof of that commandment, whereby the infants were slain, thou gavest unto them abundance of water by a means which they hoped not for [8] Declaring by that thirst then how thou hadst punished their adversaries. [9] For when they were tried albeit but in mercy chastised, they knew how the ungodly were judged in wrath and tormented, thirsting in another manner than the just. [10] For these thou didst admonish and try, as a father but the other, as a severe king, thou didst condemn and punish. [11] Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike. [12] For a double grief came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of things past. [13] For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, they had some feeling of the Lord. [14] For whom they respected with scorn, when he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of the infants, him in the end, when they saw what came to pass, they admired. [15] But for the foolish devices of their wickedness, wherewith being deceived they worshipped serpents void of reason, and vile beasts, thou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance; [16] That they might know, that wherewithal a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished. [17] For thy Almighty hand, that made the world of matter without form, wanted not means to send among them a multitude of bears or fierce lions, [18] Or unknown wild beasts, full of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapour, or filthy scents of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes [19] Whereof not only the harm might dispatch them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy them. [20] Yea, and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of vengeance, and scattered abroad through the breath of thy power but thou hast ordered all things in measure and number and weight. [21] For thou canst shew thy great strength at all times when thou wilt; and who may withstand the power of thine arm? [22] For the whole world before thee is as a little grain of the balance, yea, as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth. [23] But thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend. [24] For thou lovest all the things that are, and abhorrest nothing which thou hast made for never wouldest thou have made any thing, if thou hadst hated it. [25] And how could any thing have endured, if it had not been thy will? or been preserved, if not called by thee? [26] But thou sparest all for they are thine, O

Lord, thou lover of souls.

For thine incorruptible Spirit is in all things. 2 Therefore chastenest thou them by little and little that offend, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance wherein they have offended, that leaving their wickedness they may believe on thee, O 62 Lord. 3 For it was thy will to destroy by the hands of our fathers both those old inhabitants of thy holy land, 4 Whom thou hatedst for doing most odious works of witchcrafts, and wicked sacrifices; 5 And also those merciless murderers of children, and devourers of man's flesh, and the feasts of blood, 6 With their priests out of the midst of their idolatrous crew, and the parents, that killed with their own hands souls destitute of help 7 That the land, which thou esteemedst above all other, might receive a worthy colony of God's children. 8 Nevertheless even those thou sparedst as men, and didst send wasps, forerunners of thine host, to destroy them by little and little. 9 Not that thou wast unable to bring the ungodly under the hand of the righteous in battle, or to destroy them at once with cruel beasts, or with one rough word 10 But executing thy judgments upon them by little and little, thou gavest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a naughty generation, and that their malice was bred in them, and that their cogitation would never be changed. 11 For it was a cursed seed from the beginning; neither didst thou for fear of any man give them pardon for those things wherein they sinned. 12 For who shall say, What hast thou done? or who shall withstand thy judgment? or who shall accuse thee for the nations that perish, whom thou made? or who shall come to stand against thee, to be revenged for the unrighteous men? 13 For neither is there any God but thou that careth for all, to whom thou mightest shew that thy judgment is not unright. 14 Neither shall king or tyrant be able to set his face against thee for any whom thou hast punished. 15 Forsomuch then as thou art righteous thyself, thou orderest all things righteously thinking it not agreeable with thy power to condemn him that hath not deserved to be punished. 16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousness, and because thou art the Lord of all, it maketh thee to be gracious unto all. 17 For when men will not believe that thou art of a full power, thou shewest thy strength, and among them that know it thou makest their boldness manifest. 18 But thou, mastering thy power, judgest with equity, and orderest us with great favour for thou mayest use power when thou wilt. 19 But by such works hast thou taught thy people that the just man should be merciful, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope that thou givest repentance for sins. [20] For if thou didst punish the enemies of thy children, and the condemned to death, with such deliberation, giving them time and place, whereby they might be delivered from their malice [21] With how great circumspection didst thou judge thine own sons, unto whose fathers thou hast sworn, and made covenants of good promises? [22] Therefore, whereas thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that, when we judge, we should carefully think of thy goodness, and when we ourselves are judged, we should look for mercy. [23] Wherefore, whereas men have lived dissolutely and unrighteously, thou hast tormented them with their own abominations. [24] For they went astray very far in the ways of error, and held them for gods, which even among the beasts of their enemies were despised, being deceived, as children of no understanding. [25] Therefore unto them, as to children without the use of reason, thou didst send a judgment to mock them. [26] But they that would not be reformed by that correction, wherein he dallied with them, shall feel a judgment worthy of God. [27] For, look, for what things they grudged, when they were punished, that is, for them whom they thought to be gods; [now] being punished in them, when they saw it, they acknowledged him to be the true God, whom before they denied to know and therefore came extreme damnation upon them.

Surely vain are all men by nature, who are ignorant of God, and could not out of the good things that are seen know him that is neither by considering the works did they acknowledge the workmaster; [2] But deemed either fire, or wind, or the swift air, or the circle of the stars, or the violent water, or the lights of heaven, to be the gods which govern the world. [3] With whose beauty if they being delighted took them to be gods; let them know how much better the Lord of them is for the first author of beauty hath created them. [4] But if they were astonished at their power and virtue, let them understand by them, how much mightier he is that made them. [5] For by the greatness and beauty of the creatures proportionably the maker of them is seen. [6] But yet for this they are the less to be blamed for they peradventure err, seeking God, and desirous to find him. [7] For being conversant in his works they search him diligently, and believe their sight because the things are beautiful that are seen. [8] Howbeit neither are they to be pardoned. [9] For if they were able to know so much, that they could aim at the world; how did they not sooner find out the Lord thereof? 10 But miserable are they, and in dead things is their hope, who call them gods, which are the works of men's hands, gold and silver, to shew art in, and resemblances of beasts, or a stone good for nothing, the work of an ancient hand. 11 Now a carpenter that felleth timber, after he hath sawn down a tree meet for the purpose, and taken off all the bark skillfully round about, and hath wrought it handsomely, and made a vessel thereof fit for the service of man's life; 12 And after spending the refuse of his work to dress his meat, hath filled himself; 13 And taking the very refuse among those which served to no use, being a crooked piece of wood, and full of knots, hath carved it diligently, when he had nothing else to do, and formed it by the skill of his understanding, and fashioned it to the image of a man; 14 Or made it like some vile beast, laying it over with vermilion, and with paint colouring it red, and covering every spot therein; 15 And when he had made a convenient room for it, set it in a wall, and made it fast with iron 16 For he provided for it that it might not fall, knowing that it was unable to help itself; for it is an image, and hath need of help 17 Then maketh he prayer for his goods, for his wife and children, and is not ashamed to speak to that which hath no life. 18 For health he calleth upon that which is weak for life prayeth to that which is dead; for aid humbly beseecheth that which hath least means to help and for a good journey he asketh of that which cannot set a foot forward 19 And for gaining and getting, and for good success of his hands, asketh ability to do of him, that is most unable to do any thing.

Again, one preparing himself to sail, and about to pass through the raging waves, calleth upon a piece of wood more rotten than the vessel that carrieth him. 2 For verily desire of gain devised that, and the workman built it by his skill. 3 But thy providence, O Father, governeth it for thou hast made a way in the sea, and a safe path in the waves; 4 Shewing that thou canst save from all danger yea, though a man went to sea without art. 5 Nevertheless thou wouldest not that the works of thy wisdom should be idle, and therefore do men commit their lives to a small piece of wood, and passing the rough sea in a weak vessel are saved. 6 For in the old time also, when the proud giants perished, the hope of the world governed by thy hand escaped in a weak vessel, and left to all ages a seed of generation. 7 For blessed is the wood whereby righteousness cometh. 8 But that which is made with hands is cursed, as well it, as he that made it he, because he made it; and it, because, being corruptible, it was called god. 9 For the ungodly and his ungodliness are both alike hateful unto God. 10 For that which is made shall be punished together with him that made it. 11 Therefore even upon the idols of the Gentiles shall there be a visitation because in the creature of God they are become an abomination, and stumblingblocks to the souls of men, and a snare to the feet of the unwise. 12 For the devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them the corruption of life. 13 For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be for ever. 14 For by the vain glory of men they entered into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end. 15 For a father afflicted with untimely mourning, when he hath made an image of his child soon taken away, now honoured him as a god, which was then a dead man, and delivered to those that were under him ceremonies and sacrifices. 16 Thus in process of time an ungodly custom grown strong was kept as a law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandments of kings. 17 Whom men could not honour in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far, and made an express image of a king whom they honoured, to the end that by this their forwardness they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present. 18 Also the singular diligence of the artificer did help to set forward the ignorant to more superstition. 19 For he, peradventure willing to please one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance of the best fashion. 20 And so the multitude, allured by the grace of the work, took him now for a god, which a little before was but honoured. 21 And this was an occasion to deceive the world for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, did ascribe unto stones and stocks the incommunicable name. 22 Moreover this was not enough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of God; but whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace. 23 For whilst they slew their children in sacrifices, or used secret ceremonies, or made revellings of strange rites; 24 They kept neither lives nor marriages any longer undefiled but either one slew another traiterously, or grieved him by adultery. 25 So that there reigned in all men without exception blood, manslaughter, theft, and dissimulation, corruption, unfaithfulness, tumults, perjury, 26 Disquieting of good men, forgetfulness of good turns, defiling of souls, changing of kind, disorder in marriages, adultery, and shameless uncleanness. 27 For the worshipping of idols not to be named is the beginning, the cause, and the end, of all evil. 28 For either they are mad when they be merry, or prophesy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly forswear themselves. 29 For insomuch as their trust is in idols, which have no life; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt. 30 Howbeit for both causes shall they be justly punished both because they thought not well of God, giving heed unto idols, and also unjustly swore in deceit, despising holiness. 31 For it is not the power of them by whom they swear but it is the just vengeance of sinners, that punisheth always the offence of the ungodly.

But thou, O God, art gracious and true, longsuffering, and in mercy ordering all things, 2 For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy power but we will not sin, knowing that we are counted thine. 3 For to know thee is perfect righteousness yea, to know thy power is the root of immortality. 4 For neither did the mischievous invention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with divers colours, the painter's fruitless labour; 5 The sight whereof enticeth fools to lust after it, and so they desire the form of a dead image, that hath no breath. 6 Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such things to trust upon. 7 For the potter, tempering soft earth, fashioneth every vessel with much labour for our service yea, of the same clay he maketh both the vessels that serve for clean uses, and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary but what is the use of either sort, the potter himself is the judge. 8 And employing his labours lewdly, he maketh a vain god of the same clay, even he which a little before was made of earth himself, and within a little while after returneth to the same, out when his life which was lent him shall be demanded. 9 Notwithstanding his care is, not that he shall have much labour, nor that his life is short but striveth to excel goldsmiths and silversmiths, and endeavoureth to do like the workers in brass, and counteth it his glory to make counterfeit things. 10 His heart is ashes, his hope is more vile than earth, and his life of less value than clay 11 Forasmuch as he knew not his Maker, and him that inspired into him an active soul, and breathed in a living spirit. 12 But they counted our life a pastime, and our time here a market for gain for, say they, we must be getting every way, though it be by evil means. 13 For this man, that of earthly matter maketh brittle vessels and graven images, knoweth himself to offend above all others. 14 And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in subjection, are most foolish, and are more miserable than very babes. 15 For they counted all the idols of the heathen to be gods which neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw breath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle; and as for their feet, they are slow to go. 16 For man made them, and he that borrowed his own spirit fashioned them but no man can make a god like unto himself. 17 For being mortal, he worketh a dead thing with wicked hands for he himself is better than the things which he worshippeth whereas he lived once, but they never. 18 Yea, they worshipped those beasts also that are most hateful for being compared together, some are worse than others. 19 Neither are they beautiful, so much as to be desired in respect of beasts but they went without the praise of God and his blessing.

Therefore by the like were they punished worthily, and by the multitude of beasts tormented. 2 Instead of which punishment, dealing graciously with thine own people, thou preparedst for them meat of a strange taste, even quails to stir up their appetite 3 To the end that they, desiring food, might for the ugly sight of the beasts sent among them lothe even that, which they must needs desire; but these, suffering penury for a short space, might be made partakers of a strange taste. 4 For it was requisite, that upon them exercising tyranny should come penury, which they could not avoid but to these it should only be shewed how their enemies were tormented. 5 For when the horrible fierceness of beasts came upon these, and they perished with the stings of crooked serpents, thy wrath endured not for ever 6 But they were troubled for a small season, that they might be admonished, having a sign of salvation, to put them in remembrance of the commandment of thy law. 7 For he that turned himself toward it was not saved by the thing that he saw, but by thee, that art the Saviour of all. 8 And in this thou madest thine enemies confess, that it is thou who deliverest from all evil 9 For them the bitings of grasshoppers and flies killed, neither was there found any remedy for their life for they were worthy to be punished by such. 10 But thy sons not the very teeth of venomous dragons overcame for thy mercy was ever by them, and healed them. 11 For they were pricked, that they should remember thy words; and were quickly saved, that not falling into deep forgetfulness, they might be continually mindful of thy goodness. 12 For it was neither herb, nor mollifying plaister, that restored them to health but thy word, O Lord, which healeth all things. 13 For thou hast power of life and death thou leadest to the gates of hell, and bringest up again. 14 A man indeed killeth through his malice and the spirit, when it is gone forth, returneth not; neither the soul received up cometh again. 15 But it is not possible to escape thine hand. [16] For the ungodly, that denied to know thee, were scourged by the strength of thine arm with strange rains, hails, and showers, were they persecuted, that they could not avoid, and through fire were they consumed. [17] For, which is most to be wondered at, the fire had more force in the water, that quencheth all things for the world fighteth for the righteous. [18] For sometime the flame was mitigated, that it might not burn up the beasts that were sent against the ungodly; but themselves might see and perceive that they were persecuted with the judgment of God. [19] And at another time it burneth even in the midst of water above the power of fire, that it might destroy the fruits of an unjust land. [20] Instead whereof thou feddest thine own people with angels' food, and didst send them from heaven bread prepared without their labour, able to content every man's delight, and agreeing to every taste. [21] For thy sustenance declared thy sweetness unto thy children, and serving to the appetite of the eater, tempered itself to every man's liking. [2 2] But snow and ice endured the fire, and melted not, that they might know that fire burning in the hail, and sparkling in the rain, did destroy the fruits of the enemies. [23] But this again did even forget his own strength, that the righteous might be nourished. [24] For the creature that serveth thee, who art the Maker increaseth his strength against the unrighteous for their punishment, and abateth his strength for the benefit of such as put their trust in thee. [25] Therefore even then was it altered into all fashions, and was obedient to thy grace, that nourisheth all things, according to the desire of them that had need [26] That thy children, O Lord, whom thou lovest, might know, that it is not the growing of fruits that nourisheth man but that it is thy word, which preserveth them that put their trust in thee. [27] For that which was not destroyed of the fire, being warmed with a little sunbeam, soon melted away [28] That it might be known, that we must prevent the sun to give thee thanks, and at the dayspring pray unto thee. [29] For the hope of the unthankful shall melt away as the winter's hoar frost, and shall run away as unprofitable water.

For great are thy judgments, and cannot be expressed therefore unnurtured souls have erred. [2] For when unrighteous men thought to oppress the holy nation; they being shut up in their houses, the prisoners of darkness, and fettered with the bonds of a long night, lay [there] exiled from the eternal providence. 3 For while they supposed to lie hid in their secret sins, they were scattered under a dark veil of forgetfulness, being horribly astonished, and troubled with [strange] apparitions. 4 For neither might the corner that held them keep them from fear but noises [as of waters] falling down sounded about them, and sad visions appeared unto them with heavy countenances. 5 No power of the fire might give them light neither could the bright flames of the stars endure to lighten that horrible night. 6 Only there appeared unto them a fire kindled of itself, very dreadful for being much terrified, they thought the things which they saw to be worse than the sight they saw not. 7 As for the illusions of art magick, they were put down, and their vaunting in wisdom was reproved with disgrace. 8 For they, that promised to drive away terrors and troubles from a sick soul, were sick themselves of fear, worthy to be laughed at. 9 For though no terrible thing did fear them; yet being scared with beasts that passed by, and hissing of serpents, 10 They died for fear, denying that they saw the air, which could of no side be avoided. 11 For wickedness, condemned by her own witness, is very timorous, and being pressed with conscience, always forecasteth grievous things. 12 For fear is nothing else but a betraying of the succours which reason offereth. 13 And the expectation from within, being less, counteth the ignorance more than the cause which bringeth the torment. 14 But they sleeping the same sleep that night, which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them out of the bottoms of inevitable hell, 15 Were partly vexed with monstrous apparitions, and partly fainted, their heart failing them for a sudden fear, and not looked for, came upon them. 16 So then whosoever there fell down was straitly kept, shut up in a prison without iron bars, 17 For whether he were husbandman, or shepherd, or a labourer in the field, he was overtaken, and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided for they were all bound with one chain of darkness. 18 Whether it were a whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of water running violently, 19 Or a terrible sound of stones cast down, or a running that could not be seen of skipping beasts, or a roaring voice of most savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; these things made them to swoon for fear. 20 For the whole world shined with clear light, and none were hindered in their labour 21 Over them only was spread an heavy night, an image of that darkness which should afterward receive them but yet were they unto themselves more grievous than the darkness.

Nevertheless thy saints had a very great light, whose voice they hearing, and not seeing their shape, because they also had not suffered the same things, they counted them happy. [2] But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon for that they had been enemies. [3] Instead whereof thou gavest them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the unknown journey, and an harmless sun to entertain them honourably. [4] For they were worthy to be deprived of light and imprisoned in darkness, who had kept thy sons shut up, by whom the uncorrupt light of the law was to be given unto the world. [5] And when they had determined to slay the babes of the saints, one child being cast forth, and saved, to reprove them, thou tookest away the multitude of their children, and destroyedst them altogether in a mighty water. [6] Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that assuredly knowing unto what oaths they had given credence, they might afterwards be of good cheer. [7] So of thy people was accepted both the salvation of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies. [8] For wherewith thou didst punish our adversaries, by the same thou didst glorify us, whom thou hadst called. [9] For the righteous children of good men did sacrifice secretly, and with one consent made a holy law, that the saints should be like partakers of the same good and evil, the fathers now singing out the songs of praise. [10] But on the other side there sounded an ill according cry of the enemies, and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed. [11] The master and the servant were punished after one manner; and like as the king, so suffered the common person. [12] So they all together had innumerable dead with one kind of death; neither were the living sufficient to bury them for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed. [13] For whereas they would not believe any thing by reason of the enchantments; upon the destruction of the firstborn, they acknowledged this people to be the sons of God. [14] For while all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course, [15] Thine Almighty word leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne, as a fierce man of war into the midst of a land of destruction, [16] And brought thine unfeigned commandment as a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death; and it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth. [17] Then suddenly visions of horrible dreams troubled them sore, and terrors came upon them unlooked for. [18] And one thrown here, and another there, half dead, shewed the cause of his death. [19] For the dreams that troubled them did foreshew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted. [20] Yea, the tasting of death touched the righteous also, and there was a destruction of the multitude in the wilderness but the wrath endured not long. [21] For then the blameless man made haste, and stood forth to defend them; and bringing the shield of his proper ministry, even prayer, and the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that he was thy servant. 22 So he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of arms, but with a word subdued him that punished, alleging the oaths and covenants made with the fathers. 23 For when the dead were now fallen down by heaps one upon another, standing between, he stayed the wrath, and parted the way to the living. 24 For in the long garment was the whole world, and in the four rows of the stones was the glory of the fathers graven, and thy Majesty upon the daidem of his head. 25 Unto these the destroyer gave place, and was afraid of them for it was enough that they only tasted of the wrath.

As for the ungodly, wrath came upon them without mercy unto the end for he knew before what they would do; 2 How that having given them leave to depart, and sent them hastily away, they would repent and pursue them. 3 For whilst they were yet mourning and making lamentation at the graves of the dead, they added another foolish device, and pursued them as fugitives, whom they had intreated to be gone. 4 For the destiny, whereof they were worthy, drew them unto this end, and made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might fulfill the punishment which was wanting to their torments 5 And that thy people might pass a wonderful way but they might find a strange death. 6 For the whole creature in his proper kind was fashioned again anew, serving the peculiar commandments that were given unto them, that thy children might be kept without hurt 7 As namely, a cloud shadowing the camp; and where water stood before, dry land appeared; and out of the Red sea a way without impediment; and out of the violent stream a green field 8 Wherethrough all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing thy marvellous strange wonders. 9 For they went at large like horses, and leaped like lambs, praising thee, O Lord, who hadst delivered them. 10 For they were yet mindful of the things that were done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth flies instead of cattle, and how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes. 11 But afterwards they saw a new generation of fowls, when, being led with their appetite, they asked delicate meats. 12 For quails came up unto them from the sea for their contentment. [13] And punishments came upon the sinners not without former signs by the force of thunders for they suffered justly according to their own wickedness, insomuch as they used a more hard and hateful behaviour toward strangers. [14] For the Sodomites did not receive those, whom they knew not when they came but these brought friends into bondage, that had well deserved of them. [15] And not only so, but peradventure some respect shall be had of those, because they used strangers not friendly [16] But these very grievously afflicted them, whom they had received with feastings, and were already made partakers of the same laws with them. [17] Therefore even with blindness were these stricken, as those were at the doors of the righteous man when, being compassed about with horrible great darkness, every one sought the passage of his own doors. [18] For the elements were changed in themselves by a kind of harmony, like as in a psaltery notes change the name of the tune, and yet are always sounds; which may well be perceived by the sight of the things that have been done. [19] For earthly things were turned into watery, and the things, that before swam in the water, now went upon the ground. [20] The fire had power in the water, forgetting his own virtue and the water forgat his own quenching nature. [21] On the other side, the flames wasted not the flesh of the corruptible living things, though they walked therein; neither melted they the icy kind of heavenly meat that was of nature apt to melt. [22] For in all things, O Lord, thou didst magnify thy people, and glorify them, neither didst thou lightly regard them but didst assist them in every time and place.

Ecclesiasticus

This Jesus was the son of Sirach, and grandchild to Jesus of the same name with him: this man therefore lived in the latter times, after the people had been led away captive, and called home a again, and almost after all the prophets. Now his grandfather Jesus, as he himself witnesseth, was a man of great diligence and wisdom among the Hebrews, who did not only gather the grave and short sentences of wise men, that had been before him, but himself also uttered some of his own, full of much understanding and wisdom. When as therefore the first Jesus died, leaving this book almost perfected, Sirach his son receiving it after him left it to his own son Jesus, who, having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one volume, and called it Wisdom, intitulings it both by his own name, his father's name, and his grandfather's; alluring the hearer by the very name of Wisdom to have a greater love to the study of this book. It containeth therefore wise sayings, dark sentences, and parables, and certain particular ancient godly stories of men that pleased God; also his prayer and song; moreover, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues he had heaped upon their enemies. This Jesus did imitate Solomon, and was no less famous for wisdom and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and so reputed also. The Prologue of the Wisdom of Jesus the son of Sirach Whereas many and great things have been delivered unto us by the law and the prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom; and whereof not only the readers must needs become skillful themselves, but also they that desire to learn be able to profit them which are without, both by speaking and writing: my grandfather Jesus, when he had much given himself to the reading of the law, and the prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgment, was drawn on also himself to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom; to the intent that those which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the law. Wherefore let me intreat you to read it with favour and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words, which we have laboured to interpret. For the same things uttered in Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, have not the same force in them: and not only these things, but the law itself, and the prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small difference, when they are spoken in their own language. For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Euergetes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a book of no small learning: therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travail to interpret it; using great watchfulness and skill in that space to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which in a strange country are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the law.

All wisdom cometh from the Lord, and is with him for ever. [2] Who can number the sand of the sea, and the drops of rain, and the days of eternity? [3] Who can find out the height of heaven, and the breadth of the earth, and the deep, and wisdom? [4] Wisdom hath been created before all things, and the understanding of prudence from everlasting. [5] The word of God most high is the fountain of wisdom; and her ways are everlasting commandments. [6] To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed? or who hath known her wise counsels? [7] [Unto whom hath the knowledge of wisdom been made manifest? and who hath understood her great experience?] [8] There is one wise and greatly to be feared, the Lord sitting upon his throne. [9] He created her, and saw her, and numbered her, and poured her out upon all his works. [10] She is with all flesh according to his gift, and he hath given her to them that love him. [11] The fear of the Lord is honour, and glory, and gladness, and a crown of rejoicing. [12] The fear of the Lord maketh a merry heart, and giveth joy, and gladness, and a long life. [13] Whoso feareth the Lord, it shall go well with him at the last, and he shall find favour in the day of his death. [14] To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and it was created with the faithful in the womb. [15] She hath built an everlasting foundation with men, and she shall continue with their seed. [16] To fear the Lord is fullness of wisdom, and filleth men with her fruits. [17] She filleth all their house with things desirable, and the garners with her increase. [18] The fear of the Lord is a crown of wisdom, making peace and perfect health to flourish; both which are the gifts of God and it enlargeth their rejoicing that love him. [19] Wisdom raineth down skill and knowledge of understanding standing, and exalteth them to honour that hold her fast. [20] The root of wisdom is to fear the Lord, and the branches thereof are long life. [21] The fear of the Lord driveth away sins and where it is present, it turneth away wrath. [22] A furious man cannot be justified; for the sway of his fury shall be his destruction. [23] A patient man will bear for a time, and afterward joy shall spring up unto him. [24] He will hide his words for a time, and the lips of many shall declare his wisdom. [25] The parables of knowledge are in the treasures of wisdom but godliness is an abomination to a sinner. [26] If thou desire wisdom, keep the commandments, and the Lord shall give her unto thee. [27] For the fear of the Lord is wisdom and instruction and faith and meekness are his delight. [28] Distrust not the fear of the Lord when thou art poor and come not unto him with a double heart. [29] Be not an hypocrite in the sight of men, and take good heed what thou speakest. [30] Exalt not thyself, lest thou fall, and bring dishonour upon thy soul, and so God discover thy secrets, and cast thee down in the midst of the congregation, because thou camest not in truth to the fear of the Lord, but thy heart is full of deceit.

My son, if thou come to serve the Lord, prepare thy soul for temptation. [2] Set thy heart aright, and constantly endure, and make not haste in time of trouble. [3] Cleave unto him, and depart not away, that thou mayest be increased at thy last end. [4] Whatsoever is brought upon thee take cheerfully, and be patient when thou art changed to a low estate.

5 For gold is tried in the fire, and acceptable men in the furnace of adversity. 6 Believe in him, and he will help thee; order thy way aright, and trust in him. 7 Ye that fear the Lord, wait for his mercy; and go not aside, lest ye fall. 8 Ye that fear the Lord, believe him; and your reward shall not fail. 9 Ye that fear the Lord, hope for good, and for everlasting joy and mercy. 10 Look at the generations of old, and see; did ever any trust in the Lord, and was confounded? or did any abide in his fear, and was forsaken? or whom did he ever despise, that called upon him? 11 For the Lord is full of compassion and mercy, longsuffering, and very pitiful, and forgiveth sins, and saveth in time of affliction. 12 Woe be to fearful hearts, and faint hands, and the sinner that goeth two ways! 13 Woe unto him that is fainthearted! for he believeth not; therefore shall he not be defended. 14 Woe unto you that have lost patience! and what will ye do when the Lord shall visit you? 15 They that fear the Lord will not disobey his Word; and they that love him will keep his ways.
16 They that fear the Lord will seek that which is well, pleasing unto him; and they that love him shall be filled with the law. 17 They that fear the Lord will prepare their hearts, and humble their souls in his sight, 18 Saying, We will fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men for as his majesty is, so is his mercy.

3

Hear me your father, O children, and do thereafter, that ye may be safe. 2 For the Lord hath given the father honour over the children, and hath confirmed the authority of the mother over the sons. 3 Whoso honoureth his father maketh an atonement for his sins 4
And he that honoureth his mother is as one that layeth up treasure. 5 Whoso honoureth his father shall have joy of his own children; and when he maketh his prayer, he shall be heard. 6 He that honoureth his father shall have a long life; and he that is obedient unto the Lord shall be a comfort to his mother. 7 He that feareth the Lord will honour his father, and will do service unto his parents, as to his masters. 8 Honour thy father and mother both in word and deed, that a blessing may come upon thee from them. 9 For the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of children; but the curse of the mother rooteth out foundations. 10 Glory not in the dishonour of thy father; for thy father's dishonour is no glory unto thee. 11 For the glory of a man is from the honour of his father; and a mother in dishonour is a reproach to the children. 12 My son, help thy father in his age, and grieve him not as long as he liveth. [13] And if his understanding fail, have patience with him; and despise him not when thou art in thy full strength. [14] For the relieving of thy father shall not be forgot ten and instead of sins it shall be added to build thee up. [15] In the day of thine affliction it shall be remembered; thy sins also shall melt away, as the ice in the fair warm weather. [16] He that forsaketh his father is as a blasphemer; and he that angereth his mother is cursed of God. [17] My son, go on with thy business in meekness; so shalt thou be beloved of him that is approved. [18] The greater thou art, the more humble thyself, and thou shalt find favour before the Lord. [19] Many are in high place, and of renown but mysteries are revealed unto the meek. [20] For the power of the Lord is great, and he is honoured of the lowly. [21] Seek not out things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things that are above thy strength. [22] But what is commanded thee, think thereupon with reverence, for it is not needful for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are in secret. [23] Be not curious in unnecessary matters for more things are shewed unto thee than men understand. [24] For many are deceived by their own vain opinion; and an evil suspicion hath overthrown their judgment. [25] Without eyes thou shalt want light profess not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not. [26] A stubborn heart shall fare evil at the last; and he that loveth danger shall perish therein. [27] An obstinate heart shall be laden with sorrows; and the wicked man shall heap sin upon sin. [28] In the punishment of the proud there is no remedy; for the plant of wickedness hath taken root in him. [29] The heart of the prudent will understand a parable; and an attentive ear is the desire of a wise man. [30] Water will quench a flaming fire; and alms maketh an atonement for sins. [31] And he that requiteth good turns is mindful of that which may come hereafter; and when he falleth, he shall find a stay.

My son, defraud not the poor of his living, and make not the needy eyes to wait long. [2] Make not an hungry soul sorrowful; neither provoke a man in his distress. [3] Add not more trouble to an heart that is vexed; and defer not to give to him that is in need. [4] Reject not the supplication of the afflicted; neither turn away thy face from a poor man. [5] Turn not away thine eye from the needy, and give him none occasion to curse thee [6] For if he curse thee in the bitterness of his soul, his prayer shall be heard of him that made him. [7] Get thyself the love of the congregation, and bow thy head to a great man. [8] Let it not grieve thee to bow down thine ear to the poor, and give him a friendly answer with meekness. [9] Deliver him that suffereth wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not fainthearted when thou sittest in judgment. [10] Be as a father unto the fatherless, and instead of an husband unto their mother so shalt thou be as the son of the most High, and he shall love thee more than thy mother doth. [11] Wisdom exalteth her children, and layeth hold of them that seek her. [12] He that loveth her loveth life; and they that seek to her early shall be filled with joy. [13] He that holdeth her fast shall inherit glory; and wheresoever she entereth, the Lord will bless. [14] They that serve her shall minister to the Holy One and them that love her the Lord doth love. [15] Whoso giveth ear unto her shall judge the nations and he that attendeth unto her shall dwell securely. [16] If a man commit himself unto her, he shall inherit her; and his generation shall hold her in possession. [17] For at the first she will walk with him by crooked ways, and bring fear and dread upon him, and torment him with her discipline, until she may trust his soul, and try him by her laws. [18] Then will she return the straight way unto him, and comfort him, and shew him her secrets. [19] But if he go wrong, she will forsake him, and give him over to his own ruin. [20] Observe the opportunity, and beware of evil; and be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soul. [21] For there is a shame that bringeth sin; and there is a shame which is glory and grace. [22] Accept no person against thy soul, and let not the reverence of any man cause thee to fall. [23] And refrain not to speak, when there is occasion to do good, and hide not thy wisdom in her beauty. [24] For by speech wisdom shall be known and learning by the word of the tongue. [25] In no wise speak against the truth; but be abashed of the error of thine ignorance. [26] Be not ashamed to confess thy sins; and force not the course of the river. [27] Make not thyself an underling to a foolish man; neither accept the person of the mighty. [28] Strive for the truth unto death, and the Lord shall fight for thee. [29] Be not hasty in thy tongue, and in thy deeds slack and remiss. [30] Be not as a lion in thy house, nor frantick among thy servants. [31] Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive, and shut when thou shouldest repay.

Set thy heart upon thy goods; and say not, I have enough for my life. [2] Follow not thine own mind and thy strength, to walk in the ways of thy heart [3] And say not, Who shall control me for my works? for the Lord will surely revenge thy pride.

[4] Say not, I have sinned, and what harm hath happened unto me? for the Lord is longsuffering, he will in no wise let thee go. [5] Concerning propitiation, be not without fear to add sin unto sin [6] And say not His mercy is great; he will be pacified [70] for the multitude of my sins for mercy and wrath come from him, and his indignation resteth upon sinners. [7] Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord, and put not off from day to day for suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord come forth, and in thy security thou shalt be destroyed, and perish in the day of vengeance. [8] Set not thine heart upon goods unjustly gotten, for they shall not profit thee in the day of calamity. [9] Winnow not with every wind, and go not into every way for so doth the sinner that hath a double tongue. [10] Be stedfast in thy understanding; and let thy word be the same. [11] Be swift to hear; and let thy life be sincere; and with patience give answer. [1 2] If thou hast understanding, answer thy neighbour; if not, lay thy hand upon thy mouth. [13] Honour and shame is in talk and the tongue of man is his fall. [14] Be not called a whisperer, and lie not in wait with thy tongue for a foul shame is upon the thief, and an evil condemnation upon the double tongue. [15] Be not ignorant of any thing in a great matter or a small.

Instead of a friend become not an enemy; for [thereby] thou shalt inherit an ill name, shame, and reproach even so shall a sinner that hath a double tongue. [2] Extol not thyself in the counsel of thine own heart; that thy soul be not torn in pieces as a bull [straying alone.] [3] Thou shalt eat up thy leaves, and lose thy fruit, and leave thyself as a dry tree. [4] A wicked soul shall destroy him that hath it, and shall make him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies. [5] Sweet language will multiply friends and a fairspeaking tongue will increase kind greetings. [6] Be in peace with many nevertheless have but one counsellor of a thousand. [7] If thou wouldest get a friend, prove him first and be not hasty to credit him. [8] For some man is a friend for his own occasion, and will not abide in the day of thy trouble. [9] And there is a friend, who being turned to enmity, and strife will discover thy reproach. [10] Again, some friend is a companion at the table, and will not continue in the day of thy affliction. [11] But in thy prosperity he will be as thyself, and will be bold over thy servants. 12 If thou be brought low, he will be against thee, and will hide himself from thy face. 13 Separate thyself from thine enemies, and take heed of thy friends. 14 A faithful friend is a strong defence and he that hath found such an one hath found a treasure. 15 Nothing doth countervail a faithful friend, and his excellency is invaluable. 16 A faithful friend is the medicine of life; and they that fear the Lord shall find him. 17 Whoso feareth the Lord shall direct his friendship aright for as he is, so shall his neighbour be also. 18 My son, gather instruction from thy youth up so shalt thou find wisdom till thine old age. 19 Come unto her as one that ploweth and soweth, and wait for her good fruits for thou shalt not toil much in labouring about her, but thou shalt eat of her fruits right soon. 20 She is very unpleasant to the unlearned he that is without understanding will not remain with her. 21 She will lie upon him as a mighty stone of trial; and he will cast her from him ere it be long. 22 For wisdom is according to her name, and she is not manifest unto many. 23 Give ear, my son, receive my advice, and refuse not my counsel, 24 And put thy feet into her fetters, and thy neck into her chain. 25 Bow down thy shoulder, and bear her, and be not grieved with her bonds. 26 Come unto her with thy whole heart, and keep her ways with all thy power. 27 Search, and seek, and she shall be made known unto thee and when thou hast got hold of her, let her not go. 28 For at the last thou shalt find her rest, and that shall be turned to thy joy. 29 Then shall her fetters be a strong defence for thee, and her chains a robe of glory. 30 For there is a golden ornament upon her, and her bands are purple lace. 31 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour, and shalt put her about thee as a crown of joy. 32 My son, if thou wilt, thou shalt be taught and if thou wilt apply thy mind, thou shalt be prudent. 33 If thou love to hear, thou shalt receive understanding and if thou bow thine ear, thou shalt be wise, 34 Stand in the multitude of the elders; and cleave unto him that is wise. 35 Be willing to hear every godly discourse; and let not the parables of understanding escape thee. 36 And if thou seest a man of understanding, get thee betimes unto him, and let thy foot wear the steps of his door. 37 Let thy mind be upon the ordinances of the Lord and meditate continually in his commandments he shall establish thine heart, and give thee wisdom at thine owns desire.

Do no evil, so shall no harm come unto thee. 2 Depart from the unjust, and iniquity shall turn away from thee. [3] My son, sow not upon the furrows of unrighteousness, and thou shalt not reap them sevenfold. [4] Seek not of the Lord preeminence, neither of the king the seat of honour. [5] Justify not thyself before the Lord; and boast not of thy wisdom before the king. [6] Seek not to be judge, being not able to take away iniquity; lest at any time thou fear the person of the mighty, an stumblingblock in the way of thy uprightness. [7] Offend not against the multitude of a city, and then thou shalt not cast thyself down among the people. [8] Bind not one sin upon another; for in one thou shalt not be unpunished. [9] Say not, God will look upon the multitude of my oblations, and when I offer to the most high God, he will accept it. [10] Be not fainthearted when thou makest thy prayer, and neglect not to give alms. [11] Laugh no man to scorn in the bitterness of his soul for there is one which humbleth and exalteth. [12] Devise not a lie against thy brother; neither do the like to thy friend. [13] Use not to make any manner of lie for the custom thereof is not good. [14] Use not many words in a multitude of elders, and make not much babbling when thou prayest. [15] Hate not laborious work, neither husbandry, which the most High hath ordained. [16] Number not thyself among the multitude of sinners, but remember that wrath will not tarry long. [17] Humble thyself greatly for the vengeance of the ungodly is fire and worms. [18] Change not a friend for any good by no means; neither a faithful brother for the gold of Ophir. [19] Forego not a wise and good woman for her grace is above gold. [20] Whereas thy servant worketh truly, entreat him not evil. nor the hireling that bestoweth himself wholly for thee. [21] Let thy soul love a good servant, and defraud him not of liberty. [22] Hast thou cattle? have an eye to them and if they be for thy profit, keep them with thee. [23] Hast thou children? instruct them, and bow down their neck from their youth. [24] Hast thou daughters? have a care of their body, and shew not thyself cheerful toward them. [25] Marry thy daughter, and so shalt thou have performed a weighty matter but give her to a man of understanding. [26] Hast thou a wife after thy mind? forsake her not but give not thyself over to a light woman. [27] Honour thy father with thy whole heart, and forget not the sorrows of thy mother. [28] Remember that thou wast begotten of them; and how canst thou recompense them the things that they have done for thee? [29] Fear the Lord with all thy soul, and reverence his priests. [30] Love him that made thee with all thy strength, and forsake not his ministers. [31] Fear the Lord, and honor the priest; and give him his portion, as it is commanded thee; the firstfruits, and the trespass offering, and the gift of the shoulders, and the sacrifice of sanctification, and the firstfruits of the holy things. [32] And stretch thine hand unto the poor, that thy blessing may be perfected. [33] A gift hath grace in the sight of every man living; and for the dead detain it not. [34] Fail not to be with them that weep, and mourn with them that mourn. [35] Be not slow to visit the sick for that shall make thee to be beloved. [36] Whatsoever thou takest in hand, remember the end, and thou shalt never do amiss.

8

Strive not with a mighty man' lest thou fall into his hands. [2] Be not at variance with a rich man, lest he overweigh thee for gold hath destroyed many, and perverted the hearts of kings. [3] Strive not with a man that is full of tongue, and heap not wood upon his fire. [4] Jest not with a rude man, lest thy ancestors be disgraced. [5] Reproach not a man that turneth from sin, but remember that we are all worthy of punishment. [6] Dishonour not a man in his old age for even some of us wax old. [7] Rejoice not over thy greatest enemy being dead, but remember that we die all. [8] Despise not the discourse of the wise, but acquaint thyself with their proverbs for of them thou shalt learn instruction, and how to serve great men with ease. [9] Miss not the discourse of the elders for they also learned of their fathers, and of them thou shalt learn understanding, and to give answer as need requireth. [10] Kindle not the coals of a sinner, lest thou be burnt with the flame of his fire. [11] Rise not up [in anger] at the presence of an injurious person, lest he lie in wait to entrap thee in thy words [12] Lend not unto him that is mightier than thyself; for if thou lendest him, count it but lost. [13] Be not surety above thy power for if thou be surety, take care to pay it. [14] Go not to law with a judge; for they will judge for him according to his honour. [15] Travel not by the way with a bold fellow, lest he become grievous unto thee for he will do according to his own will, and thou shalt perish with him through his folly. [16] Strive not with an angry man, and go not with him into a solitary place for blood is as nothing in his sight, and where there is no help, he will overthrow thee. [17] Consult not with a fool; for he cannot keep counsel. [18] Do no secret thing before a stranger; for thou knowest not what he will bring forth. [19] Open not thine heart to every man, lest he requite thee with a shrewd turn.

Be not jealous over the wife of thy bosom, and teach her not an evil lesson against thyself.
2 Give not thy soul unto a woman to set her foot upon thy substance. 3 Meet not with an harlot, lest thou fall into her 7 2 snares. 4 Use not much the company of a woman that is a singer, lest thou be taken with her attempts. 5 Gaze not on a maid, that thou fall not by those things that are precious in her. 6 Give not thy soul unto harlots, that thou lose not thine inheritance. 7 Look not round about thee in the streets of the city, neither wander thou in the solitary place thereof. 8 Turn away thine eye from a beautiful woman, and look not upon another's beauty; for many have been deceived by the beauty of a woman; for herewith love is kindled as a fire. 9 Sit not at all with another man's wife, nor sit down with her in thine arms, and spend not thy money with her at the wine; lest thine heart incline unto her, and so through thy desire thou fall into destruction. 10 Forsake not an old friend; for the new is not comparable to him a new friend is as new wine; when it is old, thou shalt drink it with pleasure. 11 Envy not the glory of a sinner for thou knowest not what shall be his end. 1 2 Delight not in the thing that the ungodly have pleasure in; but remember they shall not go unpunished unto their grave. 13 Keep thee far from the man that hath power to kill; so shalt thou not doubt the fear of death and if thou come unto him, make no fault, lest he take away thy life presently remember that thou goest in the midst of snares, and that thou walkest upon the battlements of the city. 14 As near as thou canst, guess at thy neighbour, and consult with the wise. 15 Let thy talk be with the wise, and all thy communication in the law of the most High. 16 And let just men eat and drink with thee; and let thy glorying be in the fear of the Lord. 17 For the hand of the artificer the work shall be commended and the wise ruler of the people for his speech. 18 A man of an ill tongue is dangerous in his city; and he that is rash in his talk shall be hated.

A wise judge will instruct his people; and the government of a prudent man is well ordered. 2 As the judge of the people is himself, so are his officers; and what manner of man the ruler of the city is, such are all they that dwell therein. 3 An unwise king destroyeth his people; but through the prudence of them which are in authority the city shall be inhabited. [4] The power of the earth is in the hand of the Lord, and in due time he will set over it one that is profitable. [5] In the hand of God is the prosperity of man and upon the person of the scribe shall he lay his honour. [6] Bear not hatred to thy neighbour for every wrong; and do nothing at all by injurious practices. [7] Pride is hateful before God and man and by both doth one commit iniquity. [8] Because of unrighteous dealings, injuries, and riches got by deceit, the kingdom is translated from one people to another. [9] Why is earth and ashes proud? There is not a more wicked thing than a covetous man for such an one setteth his own soul to sale; because while he liveth he casteth away his bowels. [10] The physician cutteth off a long disease; and he that is to day a king to morrow shall die. [11] For when a man is dead, he shall inherit creeping things, beasts, and worms. [12] The beginning of pride is when one departeth from God, and his heart is turned away from his Maker. [13] For pride is the beginning of sin, and he that hath it shall pour out abomination and therefore the Lord brought upon them strange calamities, and overthrew them utterly. [14] The Lord hath cast down the thrones of proud princes, and set up the meek in their stead. [15] The Lord hath plucked up the roots of the proud nations, and planted the lowly in their place. [16] The Lord overthrew countries of the heathen, and destroyed them to the foundations of the earth. [17] He took some of them away, and destroyed them, and hath made their memorial to cease from the earth. [18] Pride was not made for men, nor furious anger for them that are born of a woman. [19] They that fear the Lord are a sure seed, and they that love him an honourable plant they that regard not the law are a dishonourable seed; they that transgress the commandments are a deceivable seed. [20] Among brethren he that is chief is honorable; so are they that fear the Lord in his eyes. [21] The fear of the Lord goeth before the obtaining of authority but roughness and pride is the losing thereof. [22] Whether he be rich, noble, or poor, their glory is the fear of the Lord. [23] It is not meet to despise the poor man that hath understanding; neither is it convenient to magnify a sinful man. [24] Great men, and judges, and potentates, shall be honoured; yet is there none of them greater than he that feareth the Lord. [25] Unto the servant that is wise shall they that are free do service and he that hath knowledge will not grudge when he is reformed. [26] Be not overwise in doing thy business; and boast not thyself in the time of thy distress. [27] Better is he that laboureth, and aboundeth in all things, than he that boasteth himself, and wanteth bread. [28] My son, glorify thy soul in meekness, and give it honour according to the dignity thereof. [29] Who will justify him that sinneth against his own soul? and who will honour him that dishonoureth his own life? [30] The poor man is honoured for his skill, and the rich man is honoured for his riches. [31] He that is honoured in poverty, how much more in riches? and he that is dishonourable in riches, how much more in poverty?

Wisdom lifteth up the head of him that is of low degree, and maketh him to sit among great men. [2] Commend not a man for his beauty; neither abhor a man for his outward appearance. [3] The bee is little among such as fly; but her fruit is the chief of sweet things. [4] Boast not of thy clothing and raiment, and exalt not thyself in the day of honour for the works of the Lord are wonderful, and his works among men are hidden. [5] Many kings have sat down upon the ground; and one that was never thought of hath worn the crown. [6] Many mighty men have been greatly disgraced; and the honourable delivered into other men's hands. [7] Blame not before thou hast examined the truth understand first, and then rebuke. [8] Answer not before thou hast heard the cause neither interrupt men in the midst of their talk. [9] Strive not in a matter that concerneth thee not; and sit not in judgment with sinners. [10] My son, meddle not with many matters for if thou meddle much, thou shalt not be innocent; and if thou follow after, thou shalt not obtain, neither shalt thou escape by fleeing. [11] There is one that laboureth, and taketh pains, and maketh haste, and is so much the more behind. [12] Again, there is another that is slow, and hath need of help, wanting ability, and full of poverty; yet the eye of the Lord looked upon him for good, and set him up from his low estate, [13] And lifted up his head from misery; so that many that saw from him is peace over all the [14] Prosperity and adversity, life and death, poverty and riches, come of the Lord. [15] Wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of the law, are of the Lord love, and the way of good works, are from him. [16] Error and darkness had their beginning together with sinners and evil shall wax old with them that glory therein. [17] The gift of the Lord remaineth with the ungodly, and his favour bringeth prosperity for ever. [18] There is that waxeth rich by his wariness and pinching, and this his the portion of his reward [19] Whereas he saith, I have found rest, and now will eat continually of my goods; and yet he knoweth not what time shall come upon him, and that he must leave those things to others, and die. [20] Be stedfast in thy covenant, and be conversant therein, and wax old in thy work. [21] Marvel not at the works of sinners; but trust in the Lord, and abide in thy labour for it is an easy thing in the sight of the Lord on the sudden to make a poor man rich. [22] The blessing of the Lord is in the reward of the godly, and suddenly he maketh his blessing flourish. [23] Say not, What profit is there of my service? and what good things shall I have hereafter? [24] Again, say not, I have enough, and possess many things, and what evil shall I have hereafter? [25] In the day of prosperity there is a forgetfulness of affliction and in the day of affliction there is no more remembrance of prosperity. [26] For it is an easy thing unto the Lord in the day of death to reward a man according to his ways.

27 The affliction of an hour maketh a man forget pleasure and in his end his deeds shall be discovered. 28 Judge none blessed before his death for a man shall be known in his children. 29 Bring not every man into thine house for the deceitful man hath many trains.
30 Like as a partridge taken [and kept] in a cage, so is the heart of the proud; and like as a spy, watcheth he for thy fall 31 For he lieth in wait, and turneth good into evil, and in things worthy praise will lay blame upon thee. 32 Of a spark of fire a heap of coals is kindled and a sinful man layeth wait for blood. 33 Take heed of a mischievous man, for he worketh wickedness; lest he bring upon thee a perpetual blot. 34 Receive a stranger into thine house, and he will disturb thee, and turn thee out of thine own.

When thou wilt do good know to whom thou doest it; so shalt thou be thanked for thy benefits. 2 Do good to the godly man, and thou shalt find a recompence; and if not from him, yet from the most High. 3 There can no good come to him that is always occupied in evil, nor to him that giveth no alms. 4 Give to the godly man, and help not a sinner. 5 Do well unto him that is lowly, but give not to the ungodly hold back thy bread, and give it not unto him, lest he overmaster thee thereby for [else] thou shalt receive twice as much evil for all the good thou shalt have done unto him. 6 For the most High hateth sinners, and will repay vengeance unto the ungodly, and keepeth them against the mighty day of their punishment. 7 Give unto the good, and help not the sinner. 8 A friend cannot be known in prosperity and an enemy cannot be hidden in adversity. 9 In the prosperity of a man enemies will be grieved but in his adversity even a friend will depart. 10 Never trust thine enemy for like as iron rusteth, so is his wickedness. 11 Though he humble himself, and go crouching, yet take good heed and beware of him, and thou shalt be unto him as if thou hadst wiped a lookingglass, and thou shalt know that his rust hath not been altogether wiped away. 12 Set him not by thee, lest, when he hath overthrown thee, he stand up in thy place; neither let him sit at thy right hand, lest he seek to take thy seat, and thou at the last remember my words, and be pricked therewith. 13 Who will pity a charmer that is bitten with a serpent, or any such as come nigh wild beasts? 14 So one that goeth to a sinner, and is defiled with him in his sins, who will pity? 15 For a while he will abide with thee, but if thou begin to fall, he will not tarry. 16 An enemy speaketh sweetly with his lips, but in his heart he imagineth how to throw thee into a pit he will weep with his eyes, but if he find opportunity, he will not be satisfied with blood. 17 If adversity come upon thee, thou shalt find him there first; and though he pretend to help thee, yet shall he undermine thee. 18 He will shake his head, and clap his hands, and whisper much, and change his countenance.

He that toucheth pitch shall be defiled therewith; and he that hath fellowship with a proud man shall be like unto him. 2 Burden not thyself above thy power while thou livest; and have no fellowship with one that is mightier and richer than thyself for how agree the kettle and the earthen pot together? for if the one be smitten against the other, it shall be broken. 3 The rich man hath done wrong, and yet he threateneth withal the poor is wronged, and he must intreat also. 4 If thou be for his profit, he will use thee but if thou have nothing, he will forsake thee. 5 If thou have any thing, he will live with thee yea, he will make thee bare, and will not be sorry for it. 6 If he have need of thee, he will deceive thee, and smile upon thee, and put thee in hope; he will speak thee fair, and say, What wantest thou? 7 And he will shame thee by his meats, until he have drawn thee dry twice or thrice, and at the last he will laugh thee to scorn afterward, when he seeth thee, he will forsake thee, and shake his head at thee. 8 Beware that thou be not deceived and brought down in thy jollity. 9 If thou be invited of a mighty man, withdraw thyself, and so much the more will he invite thee. 10 Press thou not upon him, lest thou be put back; stand not far off, lest thou be forgotten. 11 Affect not to be made equal unto him in talk, and believe not his many words for with much communication will he tempt thee, and smiling upon thee will get out thy secrets 12 But cruelly he will lay up thy words, and will not spare to do thee hurt, and to put thee in prison. 13 Observe, and take good heed, for thou walkest in peril of thy overthrowing when thou hearest these things, awake in thy sleep. 14 Love the Lord all thy life, and call upon him for thy salvation. 15 Every beast loveth his like, and every man loveth his neighbor. 16 All flesh consorteth according to kind, and a man will cleave to his like. 17 What fellowship hath the wolf with the lamb? so the sinner with the godly. 18 What agreement is there between the hyena and a dog? and what peace between the rich and the poor? 19 As the wild ass is the lion's prey in the wilderness so the rich eat up the poor. 20 As the proud hate humility so doth the rich abhor the poor. 21 A rich man beginning to fall is held up of his friends but a poor man being down is thrust away by his friends. 22 When a rich man is fallen, he hath many helpers he speaketh things not to be spoken, and yet men justify him the poor man slipped, and yet they rebuked him too; he spake wisely, and could have no place. 23 When a rich man speaketh, every man holdeth his tongue, and, look, what he saith, they extol it to the clouds but if the poor man speak, they say, What fellow is this? and if he stumble, they will help to overthrow him. 24 Riches are good unto him that hath no sin, and poverty is evil in the mouth of the ungodly. 25 The heart of a man changeth his countenance, whether it be for good or evil and a merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance. 26 A cheerful countenance is a token of a heart that is in prosperity; and the finding out of parables is a wearisome labour of the mind.

Blessed is the man that hath not slipped with his mouth, and is not pricked with the multitude of sins. 2 Blessed is he whose conscience hath not condemned him, and who is not fallen from his hope in the Lord. 3 Riches are not comely for a niggard and what should an envious man do with money? 4 He that gathereth by defrauding his own soul gathereth for others, that shall spend his goods riotously. 5 He that is evil to himself, to whom will he be good? he shall not take pleasure in his goods. 6 There is none worse than he that envieth himself; and this is a recompence of his wickedness. 7 And if he doeth good, he doeth it unwillingly; and at the last he will declare his wickedness. 8 The envious man hath a wicked eye; he turneth away his face, and despiseth men. 9 A covetous man's eye is not satisfied with his portion; and the iniquity of the wicked drieth up his soul. 10 A wicked eye envieth [his] bread, and he is a niggard at his table. 11 My son, according to thy ability do good to thyself, and give the Lord his due offering. 12 Remember that death will not be long in coming, and that the covenant of the grave is not shewed unto thee. 13 Do good unto thy friend before thou die, and according to thy ability stretch out thy hand and give to him. 14 Defraud not thyself of the good day, and let not the part of a good desire overpass thee. 15 Shalt thou not leave thy travails unto another? and thy labours to be divided by lot? 16 Give, and take, and sanctify thy soul; for there is no seeking of dainties in the grave. 17 All flesh waxeth old as a garment for the covenant from the beginning is, Thou shalt die the death. [18] As of the green leaves on a thick tree, some fall, and some grow; so is the generation of flesh and blood, one cometh to an end, and another is born. [19] Every work rotteth and consumeth away, and the worker thereof shall go withal. [20] Blessed is the man that doth meditate good things in wisdom, and that reasoneth of holy things by his understanding. [21] He that considereth her ways in his heart shall also have understanding in her secrets. [22] Go after her as one that traceth, and lie in wait in her ways. [23] He that prieth in at her windows shall also hearken at her doors. [24] He that doth lodge near her house shall also fasten a pin in her walls. [25] He shall pitch his tent nigh unto her, and shall lodge in a lodging where good things are. [26] He shall set his children under her shelter, and shall lodge under her branches. [27] By her he shall be covered from heat, and in her glory shall he dwell.

He that feareth the Lord will do good, and he that hath the knowledge of the law shall obtain her. [2] And as a mother shall she meet him, and receive him as a wife married of a virgin. [3] With the bread of understanding shall she feed him, and give him the water of wisdom to drink. [4] He shall be stayed upon her, and shall not be moved; and shall rely upon her, and shall not be confounded. [5] She shall exalt him above his neighbours, and in the midst of the congregation shall she open his mouth. [6] He shall find joy and a crown of gladness, and she shall cause him to inherit an everlasting name. [7] But foolish men shall not attain unto her, and sinners shall not see her. [8] For she is far from pride, and men that are liars cannot remember her. [9] Praise is not seemly in the mouth of a sinner, for it was not sent him of the Lord. [10] For praise shall be uttered in wisdom, and the Lord will prosper it. [11] Say not thou, It is through the Lord that I fell away for thou oughtest not to do the things that he hateth. [12] Say not thou, He hath caused me to err for he hath no need of the sinful man. [13] The Lord hateth all abomination; and they that fear God love it not. [14] He himself made man from the beginning, and left him in the hand of his counsel; [15] If thou wilt, to keep the commandments, and to perform acceptable faithfulness. [16] He hath set fire and water before thee stretch forth thy hand unto whether thou wilt. [17] Before man is life and death; and whether him liketh shall be given him. [18] For the wisdom of the Lord is great, and he is mighty in power, and beholdeth all things [19] And his eyes are upon them that fear him, and he knoweth every work of man. 20 He hath commanded no man to do wickedly, neither hath he given any man licence to sin.

Desire not a multitude of unprofitable children, neither delight in ungodly sons. 2 Though they multiply, rejoice not in them, except the fear of the Lord be with them. 3 Trust not thou in their life, neither respect their multitude for one that is just is better than a thousand; and better it is to die without children, than to have them that are ungodly. 4 For by one that hath understanding shall the city be replenished but the kindred of the wicked shall speedily become desolate. 5 Many such things have I seen with mine eyes, and mine ear hath heard greater things than these. 6 In the congregation of the ungodly shall a fire be kindled; and in a rebellious nation wrath is set on fire. 7 He was not pacified toward the old giants, who fell away in the strength of their foolishness. 8 Neither spared he the place where Lot sojourned, but abhorred them for their pride. 9 He pitied not the people of perdition, who were taken away in their sins 10 Nor the six hundred thousand footmen, who were gathered together in the hardness of their hearts. 11 And if there be one stiffnecked among the people, it is marvel if he escape unpunished for mercy and wrath are with him; he is mighty to forgive, and to pour out displeasure. 12 As his mercy is great, so is his correction also he judgeth a man according to his works 13 The sinner shall not escape with his spoils and the patience of the godly shall not be frustrate. 14 Make way for every work of mercy for every man shall find according to his works. 15 The Lord hardened Pharaoh, that he should not know him, that his powerful works might be known to the world. 16 His mercy is manifest to every creature; and he hath separated his light from the darkness with an adamant. 17 Say not thou, I will hide myself from the Lord shall any remember me from above? I shall not be remembered among so many people for what is my soul among such an infinite number of creatures? 18 Behold, the heaven, and the heaven of heavens, the deep, and the earth, and all that therein is, shall be moved when he shall visit. 19 The mountains also and foundations of the earth be shaken with trembling, when the Lord looketh upon them. 20 No heart can think upon these things worthily and who is able to conceive his ways? 21 It is a tempest which no man can see for the most part of his works are hid. 22 Who can declare the works of his justice? or who can endure them? for his covenant is afar off, and the trial of all things is in the end. [23] He that wanteth understanding will think upon vain things and a foolish man erring imagineth follies. [24] by son, hearken unto me, and learn knowledge, and mark my words with thy heart. [25] I will shew forth doctrine in weight, and declare his knowledge exactly. [26] The works of the Lord are done in judgment from the beginning and from the time he made them he disposed the parts thereof. [27] He garnished his works for ever, and in his hand are the chief of them unto all generations they neither labour, nor are weary, nor cease from their works. [28] None of them hindereth another, and they shall never disobey his word. [29] After this the Lord looked upon the earth, and filled it with his blessings. [30] With all manner of living things hath he covered the face thereof; and they shall return into it again.

The Lord created man of the earth, and turned him into it again. [2] He gave them few days, and a short time, and power also over the things therein. [3] He endued them with strength by themselves, and made them according to his image, [4] And put the fear of man upon all flesh, and gave him dominion over beasts and fowls. [5] They received the use of the five operations of the Lord, and in the sixth place he imparted them understanding, and in the seventh speech, an interpreter of the cogitations thereof.] [6] Counsel, and a tongue, and eyes, ears, and a heart, gave he them to understand. [7] Withal he filled them with the knowledge of understanding, and shewed them good and evil. [8] He set his eye upon their hearts, that he might shew them the greatness of his works. [9] He gave them to glory in his marvellous acts for ever, that they might declare his works with understanding. [10] And the elect shall praise his holy name. [11] Beside this he gave them knowledge, and the law of life for an heritage. [12] He made an everlasting covenant with them, and shewed them his judgments. [13] Their eyes saw the majesty of his glory, and their ears heard his glorious voice. [14] And he said unto them, Beware of all unrighteousness; and he gave every man commandment concerning his neighbour. [15] Their ways are ever before him, and shall not be hid from his eyes. [16] Every man from his youth is given to evil; neither could they make to themselves fleshy hearts for stony. [17] For in the division of the nations of the whole earth he set a ruler over every people; but

Israel is the Lord's portion [18] Whom, being his firstborn, he nourisheth with discipline, and giving him the light of his love doth not forsake him. [19] Therefore all their works are as the sun before him, and his eyes are continually upon their ways. [20] None of their unrighteous deeds are hid from him, but all their sins are before the Lord [21] But the Lord being gracious and knowing his workmanship, neither left nor forsook them, but spared them. [22] The alms of a man is as a signet with him, and he will keep the good deeds of man as the apple of the eye, and give repentance to his sons and daughters. [23] Afterwards he will rise up and reward them, and render their recompence upon their heads. [24] But unto them that repent, he granted them return, and comforted those that failed in patience. [25] Return unto the Lord, and forsake thy sins, make thy prayer before his face, and offend less. [26] Turn again to the most High, and turn away from iniquity for he will lead thee out of darkness into the light of health, and hate thou abomination vehemently. [27] Who shall praise the most High in the grave, instead of them which live and give thanks? [28] Thanksgiving perisheth from the dead, as from one that is not the living and sound in heart shall praise the Lord. [29] How great is the lovingkindness of the Lord our God, and his compassion unto such as turn unto him in holiness! [30] For all things cannot be in men, because the son of man is not immortal. [31] What is brighter than the sun? yet the light thereof faileth; and flesh and blood will imagine evil. [32] He vieweth the power of the height of heaven; and all men are but earth and ashes.

He that liveth for ever Hath created all things in general. [2] The Lord only is righteous, and there is none other but he, [3] Who governeth the world with the palm of his hand, and all things obey his will for he is the King of all, by his power dividing holy things among them from profane. [4] To whom hath he given power to declare his works? and who shall find out his noble acts? [5] Who shall number the strength of his majesty? and who shall also tell out his mercies? [6] As for the wondrous works of the Lord, there may nothing be taken from them, neither may any thing be put unto them, neither can the ground of them be found out. [7] When a man hath done, then he beginneth; and when he leaveth off, then he shall be doubtful. [8] What is man, and whereto serveth he? what is his good, and what is his evil? [9] The number of a man's days at the most are an hundred years. [10] As a drop of water unto the sea, and a gravelstone in comparison of the sand; so are a thousand years to the days of eternity. 11 Therefore is God patient with them, and poureth forth his mercy upon them. 12 He saw and perceived their end to be evil; there fore he multiplied his compassion. 13 The mercy of man is toward his neighbour; but the mercy of the Lord is upon all flesh he reproveth, and nurtureth, and teacheth and bringeth again, as a shepherd his flock. 14 He hath mercy on them that receive discipline, and that diligently seek after his judgments. 15 My son, blemish not thy good deeds, neither use uncomfortable words when thou givest any thing. 16 Shall not the dew asswage the heat? so is a word better than a gift. 17 Lo, is not a word better than a gift? but both are with a gracious man. 18 A fool will upbraid churlishly, and a gift of the envious consumeth the eyes. 19 Learn before thou speak, and use physick or ever thou be sick. 20 Before judgment examine thyself, and in the day of visitation thou shalt find mercy. 21 Humble thyself before thou be sick, and in the time of sins shew repentance. 22 Let nothing hinder thee to pay thy vow in due time, and defer not until death to be justified. 23 Before thou prayest, prepare thyself; and be not as one that tempteth the Lord. 24 Think upon the wrath that shall be at the end, and the time of vengeance, when he shall turn away his face. 25 When thou hast enough, remember the time of hunger and when thou art rich, think upon poverty and need. 26 From the morning until the evening the time is changed, and all things are soon done before the Lord. 27 A wise man will fear in every thing, and in the day of sinning he will beware of offence but a fool will not observe time. 28 Every man of understanding knoweth wisdom, and will give praise unto him that found her. 29 They that were of understanding in sayings became also wise themselves, and poured forth exquisite parables. 30 Go not after thy lusts, but refrain thyself from thine appetites. 31 If thou givest thy soul the desires that please her, she will make thee a laughingstock to thine enemies that malign thee. 32 Take not pleasure in much good cheer, neither be tied to the expence thereof. 33 Be not made a beggar by banqueting upon borrowing, when thou hast nothing in thy purse for thou shalt lie in wait for thine own life, and be talked on.

A labouring man that A is given to drunkenness shall not be rich and he that contemneth small things shall fall by little and little. [2] Wine and women will make men of understanding to fall away and he that cleaveth to harlots will become impudent. [3] Moths and worms shall have him to heritage, and a bold man shall be taken away. [4] He that is hasty to give credit is lightminded; and he that sinneth shall offend against his own soul. [5] Whoso taketh pleasure in wickedness shall be condemned but he that resisteth pleasures crowneth his life. [6] He that can rule his tongue shall live without strife; and he that hateth babbling shall have less evil. [7] Rehearse not unto another that which is told unto thee, and thou shalt fare never the worse. [8] Whether it be to friend or foe, talk not of other men's lives; and if thou canst without offence, reveal them not. [9] For he heard and observed thee, and when time cometh he will hate thee. [10] If thou hast heard a word, let it die with thee; and be bold, it will not burst thee. [11] A fool travaileth with a word, as a woman in labour of a child. [12] As an arrow that sticketh in a man's thigh, so is a word within a fool's belly. [13] Admonish a friend, it may be he hath not done it and if he have done it, that he do it no more. [14] Admonish thy friend, it may be he hath not said it and if he have, that he speak it not again. [15] Admonish a friend for many times it is a slander, and believe not every tale. [16] There is one that slippeth in his speech, but not from his heart; and who is he that hath not offended with his tongue? [17] Admonish thy neighbour before thou threaten him; and not being angry, give place to the law of the most High. [18] The fear of the Lord is the first step to be accepted [of him,] and wisdom obtaineth his love. [19] The knowledge of the commandments of the Lord is the doctrine of life and they that do things that please him shall receive the fruit of the tree of immortality. [20] The fear of the Lord is all wisdom; and in all wisdom is the performance of the law, and the knowledge of his omnipotency. [21] If a servant say to his master, I will not do as it pleaseth thee; though afterward he do it, he angereth him that nourisheth him. [22] The knowledge of wickedness is not wisdom, neither at any time the counsel of sinners prudence. [23] There is a wickedness, and the same an abomination; and there is a fool wanting in wisdom. [24] He that hath small understanding, and feareth God, is better than one that hath much wisdom, and transgresseth the law of the most High. [25] There is an exquisite subtilty, and the same is unjust; and there is one that turneth aside to make judgment appear; and there is a wise man that justifieth in judgment. [26] There is a wicked man that hangeth down his head sadly; but inwardly he is full of deceit, [27] Casting down his countenance, and making as if he heard not where he is not known, he will do thee a mischief before thou be aware. [28] And if for want of power he be hindered from sinning, yet when he findeth opportunity he will do evil. [29] A man may be known by his look, and one that hath understanding by his countenance, when thou meetest him. [30] A man's attire, and excessive laughter, and gait, shew what he is.

There is a reproof that is not comely again, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise.
2 It is much better to reprove, than to be angry secretly and he that confesseth his fault shall be preserved from hurt. 3 How good is it, when thou art reproved, to shew repentance! for so shalt thou escape wilful sin. 4 As is the lust of an eunuch to deflower a virgin; so is he that executeth judgment with violence. 5 There is one that keepeth silence, and is found wise and another by much babbling becometh hateful. 6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not to answer and some keepeth silence, knowing his time. 7 A wise man will hold his tongue till he see opportunity but a babbler and a fool will regard no time. 8 He that useth many words shall be abhorred; and he that taketh to himself authority therein shall be hated. 9 There is a sinner that hath good success in evil things; and there is a gain that turneth to loss. 10 There is a gift that shall not profit thee; and there is a gift whose recompence is double. 11 There is an abasement because of glory; and there is that lifteth up his head from a low estate. 12 There is that buyeth much for a little, and repayeth it sevenfold. 13 A wise man by his words maketh him beloved but the graces of fools shall be poured out. 14 The gift of a fool shall do thee no good when thou hast it; neither yet of the envious for his necessity for he looketh to receive many things for one. 15 He giveth little, and upbraideth much; he openeth his mouth like a crier; to day he lendeth, and to morrow will he ask it again such an one is to be hated of God and man.
16 The fool saith, I have no friends, I have no thank for all my good deeds, and they that eat my bread speak evil of me. 17 How oft, and of how many shall he be laughed to scorn! for he knoweth not aright what it is to have; and it is all one unto him as if he had it not. 18 To slip upon a pavement is better than to slip with the tongue so the fall of the wicked shall come speedily. 19 An unseasonable tale will always be in the mouth of the unwise. 20 A wise sentence shall be rejected when it cometh out of a fool's mouth; for he will not speak it in due season. 21 There is that is hindered from sinning through want and when he taketh rest, he shall not be troubled. 22 There is that destroyeth his own soul through bashfulness, and by accepting of persons overthroweth himself. 23 There is that for bashfulness promiseth to his friend, and maketh him his enemy for nothing. 24 A lie is a foul blot in a man, yet it is continually in the mouth of the untaught. 25 A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie but they both shall have destruction to heritage. 26 The disposition of a liar is dishonourable, and his shame is ever with him. 27 A wise man shall promote himself to honour with his words and he that hath understanding will please great men. [28] He that tilleth his land shall increase his heap and he that pleaseth great men shall get pardon for iniquity. [29] Presents and gifts blind the eyes of the wise, and stop up his mouth that he cannot reprove. [30] Wisdom that is hid, and treasure that is hoarded up, what profit is in them both? [31] Better is he that hideth his folly than a man that hideth his wisdom. [3 2] Necessary patience in seeking the Lord is better than he that leadeth his life without a guide.

My son, hast thou sinned? do so no more, but ask pardon for thy former sins. [2] Flee from sin as from the face of a serpent for if thou comest too near it, it will bite thee the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a lion, slaying the souls of men. [3] All iniquity is as a two edged sword, the wounds whereof cannot be healed. [4] To terrify and do wrong will waste riches thus the house of proud men shall be made desolate. [5] A prayer out of a poor man's mouth reacheth to the ears of God, and his judgment cometh speedily. [6] He that hateth to be reproved is in the way of sinners but he that feareth the Lord will repent from his heart. [7] An eloquent man is known far and near; but a man of understanding knoweth when he slippeth. [8] He that buildeth his house with other men's money is like one that gathereth himself stones for the tomb of his burial. [9] The congregation of the wicked is like tow wrapped together and the end of them is a flame of fire to destroy them. [10] The way of sinners is made plain with stones, but at the end thereof is the pit of hell. [11] He that keepeth the law of the Lord getteth the understanding thereof and the perfection of the fear of the Lord is wisdom. [1 2] He that is not wise will not be taught but there is a wisdom which multiplieth bitterness. [13] The knowledge of a wise man shall abound like a flood and his counsel is like a pure fountain of life. [14] The inner parts of a fool are like a broken vessel, and he will hold no knowledge as long as he liveth. [15] If a skilful man hear a wise word, he will commend it, and add unto it but as soon as one of no understanding heareth it, it displeaseth him, and he casteth it behind his back. [16] The talking of a fool is like a burden in the way but grace shall be found in the lips of the wise. [17] They enquire at the mouth of the wise man in the congregation, and they shall ponder his words in their heart. [18] As is a house that is destroyed, so is wisdom to a fool and the knowledge of the unwise is as talk without sense. [19] Doctrine unto fools is as fetters on the feet, and like manacles on the right hand. [20] A fool lifteth up his voice with laughter; but a wise man doth scarce smile a little. 21 Learning is unto a wise man as an ornament of gold, and like a bracelet upon his right arm. 22 A foolish man's foot is soon in his [neighbour's] house but a man of experience is ashamed of him. 23 A fool will peep in at the door into the house but he that is well nurtured will stand without. 24 It is the rudeness of a man to hearken at the door but a wise man will be grieved with the disgrace. 25 The lips of talkers will be telling such things as pertain not unto them but the words of such as have understanding are weighed in the balance. 26 The heart of fools is in their mouth but the mouth of the wise is in their heart. 27 When the ungodly curseth Satan, he curseth his own soul. 28 A whisperer defileth his own soul, and is hated wheresoever he dwelleth. 22 A slothful man is compared to a filthy stone, and every one will hiss him out to his disgrace. 2 A slothful man is compared to the filth of a dunghill every man that takes it up will shake his hand. 3 An evilnurtured man is the dishonour of his father that begat him and a [foolish] daughter is born to his loss. 4 A wise daughter shall bring an inheritance to her husband but she that liveth dishonestly is her father's heaviness. 5 She that is bold dishonoureth both her father and her husband, but they both shall despise her. 6 A tale out of season [is as] musick in mourning but stripes and correction of wisdom are never out of time. 7 Whoso teacheth a fool is as one that glueth a potsherd together, and as he that waketh one from a sound sleep. 8 He that telleth a tale to a fool speaketh to one in a slumber when he hath told his tale, he will say, What is the matter? 9 If children live honestly, and have wherewithal, they shall cover the baseness of their parents. 10 But children, being haughty, through disdain and want of nurture do stain the nobility of their kindred. 11 Weep for the dead, for he hath lost the light and weep for the fool, for he wanteth understanding make little weeping for the dead, for he is at rest but the life of the fool is worse than death. 12 Seven days do men mourn for him that is dead; but for a fool and an ungodly man all the days of his life. 13 Talk not much with a fool, and go not to him that hath no understanding beware of him, lest thou have trouble, and thou shalt never be defiled with his fooleries depart from him, and thou shalt find rest, and never be disquieted with madness. 14 What is heavier than lead? and what is the name thereof, but a fool? 15 Sand, and salt, and a mass of iron, is easier to bear, than a man without understanding. 16 As timber girt and bound together in a building cannot be loosed with shaking so the heart that is stablished by advised counsel shall fear at no time. 17 A heart settled upon a thought of understanding is as a fair plaistering on the wall of a gallery. 18 Pales set on an high place will never stand against the wind so a fearful heart in the imagination of a fool cannot stand against any fear. 19 He that pricketh the eye will make tears to fall and he that pricketh the heart maketh it to shew her knowledge. 20 Whoso casteth a stone at the birds frayeth them away and he that upbraideth his friend breaketh friendship. 21 Though thou drewest a sword at thy friend, yet despair not for there may be a returning [to favour.] 22 If thou hast opened thy mouth against thy friend, fear not; for there may be a reconciliation except for upbraiding, or pride, or disclosing of secrets, or a treacherous wound for for these things every friend will depart. 23 Be faithful to thy neighbour in his poverty, that thou mayest rejoice in his prosperity abide stedfast unto him in the time of his trouble, that thou mayest be heir with him in his heritage for a mean estate is not always to be contemned nor the rich that is foolish to be had in admiration. 24 As the vapour and smoke of a furnace goeth before the fire; so reviling before blood. 25 I will not be ashamed to defend a friend; neither will I hide myself from him. 26 And if any evil happen unto me by him, every one that heareth it will beware of him. 27 Who shall set a watch before my mouth, and a seal of wisdom upon my lips, that I fall not suddenly by them, and that my tongue destroy me not?

O Lord, Father and Governor of all my whole life, leave me not to their counsels, and let me not fall by them. 2 Who will set scourges over my thoughts, and the discipline of wisdom over mine heart? that they spare me not for mine ignorances, and it pass not by my sins 3 Lest mine ignorances increase, and my sins abound to my destruction, and I fall before mine adversaries, and mine enemy rejoice over me, whose hope is far from thy mercy. 4 O Lord, Father and God of my life, give me not a proud look, but turn away from thy servants always a haughty mind. 5 Turn away from me vain hopes and concupiscence, and thou shalt hold him up that is desirous always to serve thee. 6 Let not the greediness of the belly nor lust of the flesh take hold of me; and give not over me thy servant into an impudent mind. 7 Hear, O ye children, the discipline of the mouth he that keepeth it shall never be taken in his lips. 8 The sinner shall be left in his foolishness both the evil speaker and the proud shall fall thereby. 9 Accustom not thy mouth to swearing; neither use thyself to the naming of the Holy One. 10 For as a servant that is continually beaten shall not be without a blue mark so he that sweareth and nameth God continually shall not be faultless. 11 A man that useth much swearing shall be filled with iniquity, and the plague shall never depart from his house if he shall offend, his sin shall be upon him and if he acknowledge not his sin, he maketh a double offence and if he swear in vain, he shall not be innocent, but his house shall be full of calamities. 12 There is a word that is clothed about with death God grant that it be not found in the heritage of Jacob; for all such things shall be far from the godly, and they shall not wallow in their sins. [13] Use not thy mouth to intemperate swearing, for therein is the word of sin. [14] Remember thy father and thy mother, when thou sittest among great men. Be not forgetful before them, and so thou by thy custom become a fool, and wish that thou hadst not been born, and curse they day of thy nativity. [15] The man that is accustomed to opprobrious words will never be reformed all the days of his life. [16] Two sorts of men multiply sin, and the third will bring wrath a hot mind is as a burning fire, it will never be quenched till it be consumed a fornicator in the body of his flesh will never cease till he hath kindled a fire. [17] All bread is sweet to a whoremonger, he will not leave off till he die. [18] A man that breaketh wedlock, saying thus in his heart, Who seeth me? I am compassed about with darkness, the walls cover me, and no body seeth me; what need I to fear? the most High will not remember my sins [19] Such a man only feareth the eyes of men, and knoweth not that the eyes of the Lord are ten thousand times brighter than the sun, beholding all the ways of men, and considering the most secret parts. [20] He knew all things ere ever they were created; so also after they were perfected he looked upon them all. [21] This man shall be punished in the streets of the city, and where he suspecteth not he shall be taken. [22] Thus shall it go also with the wife that leaveth her husband, and bringeth in an heir by another. [23] For first, she hath disobeyed the law of the most High; and secondly, she hath trespassed against her own husband; and thirdly, she hath played the whore in adultery, and brought children by another man. [24] She shall be brought out into the congregation, and inquisition shall be made of her children. [25] Her children shall not take root, and her branches shall bring forth no fruit. [26] She shall leave her memory to be cursed, and her reproach shall not be blotted out. [27] And they that remain shall know that there is nothing better than the fear of the Lord, and that there is nothing sweeter than to take heed unto the commandments of the Lord. [28] It is great glory to follow the Lord, and to be received of him is long life.

Wisdom shall praise herself, and shall glory in the midst of her people. [2] In the congregation of the most High shall she open her mouth, and triumph before his power. [3] I came out of the mouth of the most High, and covered the earth as a cloud. [4] I dwelt in high places, and my throne is in a cloudy pillar. [5] I alone compassed the circuit of heaven, and walked in the bottom of the deep. [6] In the waves of the sea and in all the earth, and in every people and nation, I got a possession. [7] With all these I sought rest and in whose inheritance shall I abide? [8] So the Creator of all things gave me a commandment, and he that made me caused my tabernacle to rest, and said, Let thy dwelling be in Jacob, and thine inheritance in Israel. [9] He created me from the beginning before the world, and I shall never fail. [10] In the holy tabernacle I served before him; and so was I established in Sion. [11] Likewise in the beloved city he gave me rest, and in Jerusalem was my power. [12] And I took root in an honourable people, even in the portion of the Lord's inheritance. [13] I was exalted like a cedar in Libanus, and as a cypress tree upon the mountains of Hermon. [14] I was exalted like a palm tree in En-gaddi, and as a rose plant in Jericho, as a fair olive tree in a pleasant field, and grew up as a plane tree by the water. [15] I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon and aspalathus, and I yielded a pleasant odour like the best myrrh, as galbanum, and onyx, and sweet storax, and as the fume of frankincense in the tabernacle. [16] As the turpentine tree I stretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honour and grace. [17] As the vine brought I forth pleasant savour, and my flowers are the fruit of honour and riches. [18] I am the mother of fair love, and fear, and knowledge, and holy hope I therefore, being eternal, am given to all my children which are named of him. [19] Come unto me, all ye that be desirous of me, and fill yourselves with my fruits. [20] For my memorial is sweeter than honey, and mine inheritance than the honeycomb. [21] They that eat me shall yet be hungry, and they that drink me shall yet be thirsty. [22] He that obeyeth me shall never be confounded, and they that work by me shall not do amiss. [23] All these things are the book of the covenant of the most high God, even the law which Moses commanded for an heritage unto the congregations of Jacob. [24] Faint not to be strong in the Lord; that he may [81] confirm you, cleave unto him for the Lord Almighty is God alone, and beside him there is no other Saviour. [25] He filleth all things with his wisdom, as Phison and as Tigris in the time of the new fruits. [26] He maketh the understanding to abound like Euphrates, and as Jordan in the time of the harvest. [27] He maketh the doctrine of knowledge appear as the light, and as Geon in the time of vintage. [28] The first man knew her not perfectly no more shall the last find her out. [29] For her thoughts are more than the sea, and her counsels profounder than the great deep. [30] I also came out as a brook from a river, and as a conduit into a garden. [31] I said, I will water my best garden, and will water abundantly my garden bed and, lo, my brook became a river, and my river became a sea. [32] I will yet make doctrine to shine as the morning, and will send forth her light afar off. [33] I will yet pour out doctrine as prophecy, and leave it to all ages for ever. [34] Behold that I have not laboured for myself only, but for all them that seek wisdom.

In three things I was beautified, and stood up beautiful both before God and men the unity of brethren, the love of neighbours, a man and a wife that agree together. [2] Three sorts of men my soul hateth, and I am greatly offended at their life a poor man that is proud, a rich man that is a liar, and an old adulterer that doateth. [3] If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, how canst thou find any thing in thine age? [4] O how comely a thing is judgment for gray hairs, and for ancient men to know counsel! [5] O how comely is the wisdom of old men, and understanding and counsel to men of honour. [6] Much experience is the crown of old men, and the fear of God is their glory. [7] There be nine things which I have judged in mine heart to be happy, and the tenth I will utter with my tongue A man that hath joy of his children; and he that liveth to see the fall of his enemy [8] Well is him that dwelleth with a wife of understanding, and that hath not slipped with his tongue, and that hath not served a man more unworthy than himself [9] Well is him that hath found prudence, and he that speaketh in the ears of them that will hear [10] O how great is he that findeth wisdom! yet is there none above him that feareth the Lord. [11] But the love of the Lord passeth all things for illumination he that holdeth it, whereto shall he be likened? [12] The fear of the Lord is the beginning of his love and faith is the beginning of cleaving unto him. [13] [Give me] any plague, but the plague of the heart and any wickedness, but the wickedness of a woman [14] And any affliction, but the affliction from them that hate me and any revenge, but the revenge of enemies. [15] There is no head above the head of a serpent; and there is no wrath above the wrath of an enemy. [16] I had rather dwell with a lion and a dragon, than to keep house with a wicked woman. [17] The wickedness of a woman changeth her face, and darkeneth her countenance like sackcloth. [18] Her husband shall sit among his neighbours; and when he heareth it shall sigh bitterly. [19] All wickedness is but little to the wickedness of a woman let the portion of a sinner fall upon her. [20] As the climbing up a sandy way is to the feet of the aged, so is a wife full of words to a quiet man. [21] Stumble not at the beauty of a woman, and desire her not for pleasure. [22] A woman, if she maintain her husband, is full of anger, impudence, and much reproach. [23] A wicked woman abateth the courage, maketh an heavy countenance and a wounded heart a woman that will not comfort her husband in distress maketh weak hands and feeble knees. [24] Of the woman came the beginning of sin, and through her we all die. [25] Give the water no passage; neither a wicked woman liberty to gad abroad. [26] If she go not as thou wouldest have her, cut her off from thy flesh, and give her a bill of divorce, and let her go.

26

Blessed is the man that hath a virtuous wife, for the number of his days shall be double.
2 A virtuous woman rejoiceth her husband, and he shall fulfill the years of his life in peace.
3 A good wife is a good portion, which shall be given in the portion of them that fear the Lord. 4 Whether a man be rich or poor, if he have a good heart toward the Lord, he shall at all times rejoice with a cheerful countenance. 5 There be three things that mine heart feareth; and for the fourth I was sore afraid the slander of a city, the gathering together of an unruly multitude, and a false accusation all these are worse than death. 6 But a grief of heart and sorrow is a woman that is jealous over another woman, and a scourge of the tongue which communicateth with all. 7 An evil wife is a yoke shaken to and fro he that hath hold of her is as though he held a scorpion. 8 A drunken woman and a gadder abroad causeth great anger, and she will not cover her own shame. 9 The whoredom of a woman may be known in her haughty looks and eyelids. 10 If thy daughter be shameless, keep her in straitly, lest she abuse herself through overmuch liberty. 11 Watch over an impudent eye and marvel not if she trespass against thee. 12 She will open her mouth, as a thirsty traveller when he hath found a fountain, and drink of every water near her by every hedge will she sit down, and open her quiver against every arrow. 13 The grace of a wife delighteth her husband, and her discretion will fatten his bones. 14 A silent and loving woman is a gift of the Lord; 8 2 and there is nothing so much worth as a mind well instructed. 15 A shamefaced and faithful woman is a double grace, and her continent mind cannot be valued. 16 As the sun when it ariseth in the high heaven; so is the beauty of a good wife in the ordering of her house. 17 As the clear light is upon the holy candlestick; so is the beauty of the face in ripe age. 18 As the golden pillars are upon the sockets of silver; so are the fair feet with a constant heart. 19 My son, keep the flower of thine age sound; and give not thy strength to strangers. 20 When thou hast gotten a fruitful possession through all the field, sow it with thine own seed, trusting in the goodness of thy stock. 21 So thy race which thou leavest shall be magnified, having the confidence of their good descent. 22 An harlot shall be accounted as spittle; but a married woman is a tower against death to her husband. 23 A wicked woman is given as a portion to a wicked man but a godly woman is given to him that feareth the Lord. 24 A dishonest woman contemneth shame but an honest woman will reverence her husband. [25] A shameless woman shall be counted as a dog; but she that is shamefaced will fear the Lord. [26] A woman that honoureth her husband shall be judged wise of all; but she that dishonoureth him in her pride shall be counted ungodly of all. [27] A loud crying woman and a scold shall be sought out to drive away the enemies. [28] There be two things that grieve my heart; and the third maketh me angry a man of war that suffereth poverty; and men of understanding that are not set by; and one that returneth from righteousness to sin; the Lord prepareth such an one for the sword. [29] A merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong; and an huckster shall not be freed from sin.

Many have sinned for a small matter; and he that seeketh for abundance will turn his eyes away. [2] As a nail sticketh fast between the joinings of the stones; so doth sin stick close between buying and selling. [3] Unless a man hold himself diligently in the fear of the Lord, his house shall soon be overthrown. [4] As when one sifteth with a sieve, the refuse remaineth; so the filth of man in his talk. [5] The furnace proveth the potter's vessels; so the trial of man is in his reasoning. [6] The fruit declareth if the tree have been dressed; so is the utterance of a conceit in the heart of man. [7] Praise no man before thou hearest him speak; for this is the trial of men. [8] If thou followest righteousness, thou shalt obtain her, and put her on, as a glorious long robe. [9] The birds will resort unto their like; so will truth return unto them that practise in her. [10] As the lion lieth in wait for the prey; so sin for them that work iniquity. [11] The discourse of a godly man is always with wisdom; but a fool changeth as the moon. [12] If thou be among the indiscreet, observe the time; but be continually among men of understanding. [13] The discourse of fools is irksome, and their sport is the wantonness of sin. [14] The talk of him that sweareth much maketh the hair stand upright; and their brawls make one stop his ears. [15] The strife of the proud is bloodshedding, and their revilings are grievous to the ear. [16] Whoso discovereth secrets loseth his credit; and shall never find friend to his mind. [17] Love thy friend, and be faithful unto him but if thou betrayest his secrets, follow no more after him. [18] For as a man hath destroyed his enemy; so hast thou lost the love of thy neighbor. [19] As one that letteth a bird go out of his hand, so hast thou let thy neighbour go, and shalt not get him again [20] Follow after him no more, for he is too far off; he is as a roe escaped out of the snare. [21] As for a wound, it may be bound up; and after reviling there may be reconcilement but he that betrayeth secrets is without hope. 22 He that winketh with the eyes worketh evil and he that knoweth him will depart from him. 23 When thou art present, he will speak sweetly, and will admire thy words but at the last he will writhe his mouth, and slander thy sayings. 24 I have hated many things, but nothing like him; for the Lord will hate him. 25 Whoso casteth a stone on high casteth it on his own head; and a deceitful stroke shall make wounds. 26 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein and he that setteth a trap shall be taken therein. 27 He that worketh mischief, it shall fall upon him, and he shall not know whence it cometh. 28 Mockery and reproach are from the proud; but vengeance, as a lion, shall lie in wait for them. 29 They that rejoice at the fall of the righteous shall be taken in the snare; and anguish shall consume them before they die. 30 Malice and wrath, even these are abominations; and the sinful man shall have them both.

He that revengeth shall find vengeance from the Lord, and he will surely keep his sins [in remembrance.] 2 Forgive thy neighbour the hurt that he hath done unto thee, so shall thy sins also be forgiven when thou prayest. 3 One man beareth hatred against another, and doth he seek pardon from the Lord? 4 He sheweth no mercy to a man, which is like himself and doth he ask forgiveness of his own sins? 5 If he that is but flesh nourish hatred, who will intreat for pardon of his sins? 6 Remember thy end, and let enmity cease; [remember] corruption and death, and abide in the commandments. 83 7 Remember the commandments, and bear no malice to thy neighbour [remember] the covenant of the Highest, and wink at ignorance. 8 Abstain from strife, and thou shalt diminish thy sins for a furious man will kindle strife, 9 A sinful man disquieteth friends, and maketh debate among them that be at peace. 10 As the matter of the fire is, so it burneth and as a man's strength is, so is his wrath; and according to his riches his anger riseth; and the stronger they are which contend, the more they will be inflamed. 11 An hasty contention kindleth a fire and an hasty fighting sheddeth blood. 12 If thou blow the spark, it shall burn if thou spit upon it, it shall be quenched and both these come out of thy mouth. 13 Curse the whisperer and doubletongued for such have destroyed many that were at peace. 14 A backbiting tongue hath disquieted many, and driven them from nation to nation strong cities hath it pulled down, and overthrown the houses of great men. 15 A backbiting tongue hath cast out virtuous women, and deprived them of their labours. 16 Whoso hearkeneth unto it shall never find rest, and never dwell quietly. 17 The stroke of the whip maketh marks in the flesh but the stroke of the tongue breaketh the bones. [18] Many have fallen by the edge of the sword but not so many as have fallen by the tongue. [19] Well is he that is defended through the venom thereof; who hath not drawn the yoke thereof, nor hath been bound in her bands. [20] For the yoke thereof is a yoke of iron, and the bands thereof are bands of brass. [21] The death thereof is an evil death, the grave were better than it. [22] It shall not have rule over them that fear God, neither shall they be burned with the flame thereof. [23] Such as forsake the Lord shall fall into it; and it shall burn in them, and not be quenched; it shall be sent upon them as a lion, and devour them as a leopard. [24] Look that thou hedge thy possession about with thorns, and bind up thy silver and gold, [25] And weigh thy words in a balance, and make a door and bar for thy mouth. [26] Beware thou slide not by it, lest thou fall before him that lieth in wait.

He that is merciful will lend unto his neighbour; and he that strengtheneth his hand keepeth the commandments. [2] Lend to thy neighbour in time of his need, and pay thou thy neighbour again in due season. [3] Keep thy word, and deal faithfully with him, and thou shalt always find the thing that is necessary for thee. [4] Many, when a thing was lent them, reckoned it to be found, and put them to trouble that helped them. [5] Till he hath received, he will kiss a man's hand; and for his neighbour's money he will speak submissly but when he should repay, he will prolong the time, and return words of grief, and complain of the time. [6] If he prevail, he shall hardly receive the half, and he will count as if he had found it if not, he hath deprived him of his money, and he hath gotten him an enemy without cause he payeth him with cursings and railings; and for honour he will pay him disgrace. [7] Many therefore have refused to lend for other men's ill dealing, fearing to be defrauded. [8] Yet have thou patience with a man in poor estate, and delay not to shew him mercy. [9] Help the poor for the commandment's sake, and turn him not away because of his poverty. [10] Lose thy money for thy brother and thy friend, and let it not rust under a stone to be lost. [11] Lay up thy treasure according to the commandments of the most High, and it shall bring thee more profit than gold. [12] Shut up alms in thy storehouses and it shall deliver thee from all affliction. [13] It shall fight for thee against thine enemies better than a mighty shield and strong spear. [14] An honest man is surety for his neighbour but he that is impudent will forsake him. [15] Forget not the friendship of thy surety, for he hath given his life for thee. [16] A sinner will overthrow the good estate of his surety [17] And he that is of an unthankful mind will leave him [in danger] that delivered him. [18] Suretiship hath undone many of good estate, and shaken them as a wave of the sea mighty men hath it driven from their houses, so that they wandered among strange nations. [19] A wicked man transgressing the commandments of the Lord shall fall into suretiship and he that undertaketh and followeth other men's business for gain shall fall into suits. [20] Help thy neighbour according to thy power, and beware that thou thyself fall not into the same. [21] The chief thing for life is water, and bread, and clothing, and an house to cover shame. [22] Better is the life of a poor man in a mean cottage, than delicate fare in another man's house. [23] Be it little or much, hold thee contented, that thou hear not the reproach of thy house. [24] For it is a miserable life to go from house to house for where thou art a stranger, thou darest not open thy mouth. [25] Thou shalt entertain, and feast, and have no thanks moreover thou shalt hear bitter words [26] Come, thou stranger, and furnish a table, and feed me of that thou hast ready. [27] Give place, thou stranger, to an honourable man; my brother cometh to be lodged, and I have need of mine house. [28] These things are grievous to a man of understanding; the upbraiding of houseroom, and reproaching of the lender. [84]

He that loveth his son causeth him oft to feel the rod, that he may have joy of him in the end. [2] He that chastiseth his son shall have joy in him, and shall rejoice of him among his acquaintance. [3] He that teacheth his son grieveth the enemy and before his friends he shall rejoice of him. [4] Though his father die, yet he is as though he were not dead for he hath left one behind him that is like himself. [5] While he lived, he saw and rejoiced in him and when he died, he was not sorrowful. [6] He left behind him an avenger against his enemies, and one that shall requite kindness to his friends. [7] He that maketh too much of his son shall bind up his wounds; and his bowels will be troubled at every cry. [8] An horse not broken becometh headstrong and a child left to himself will be wilful. [9] Cocker thy child, and he shall make thee afraid play with him, and he will bring thee to heaviness. [10] Laugh not with him, lest thou have sorrow with him, and lest thou gnash thy teeth in the end. [11] Give him no liberty in his youth, and wink not at his follies. [12] Bow down his neck while he is young, and beat him on the sides while he is a child, lest he wax stubborn, and be disobedient unto thee, and so bring sorrow to thine heart. 13 Chastise thy son, and hold him to labour, lest his lewd behaviour be an offence unto thee. 14 Better is the poor, being sound and strong of constitution, than a rich man that is afflicted in his body. 15 Health and good estate of body are above all gold, and a strong body above infinite wealth. 16 There is no riches above a sound body, and no joy above the joy of the heart. 17 Death is better than a bitter life or continual sickness. 18 Delicates poured upon a mouth shut up are as messes of meat set upon a grave. 19 What good doeth the offering unto an idol? for neither can it eat nor smell so is he that is persecuted of the Lord. 20 He seeth with his eyes and groaneth, as an eunuch that embraceth a virgin and sigheth. 21 Give not over thy mind to heaviness, and afflict not thyself in thine own counsel. 22 The gladness of the heart is the life of man, and the joyfulness of a man prolongeth his days. 23 Love thine own soul, and comfort thy heart, remove sorrow far from thee for sorrow hath killed many, and there is no profit therein. 24 Envy and wrath shorten the life, and carefulness bringeth age before the time. 25 A cheerful and good heart will have a care of his meat and diet.

Watching for riches consumeth the flesh, and the care thereof driveth away sleep. 2 Watching care will not let a man slumber, as a sore disease breaketh sleep, 3 The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together; and when he resteth, he is filled with his delicates. 4 The poor laboureth in his poor estate; and when he leaveth off, he is still needy. 5 He that loveth gold shall not be justified, and he that followeth corruption shall have enough thereof. 6 Gold hath been the ruin of many, and their destruction was present. 7 It is a stumblingblock unto them that sacrifice unto it, and every fool shall be taken therewith. 8 Blessed is the rich that is found without blemish, and hath not gone after gold. 9 Who is he? and we will call him blessed for wonderful things hath he done among his people. 10 Who hath been tried thereby, and found perfect? then let him glory. Who might offend, and hath not offended? or done evil, and hath not done it? 11 His goods shall be established, and the congregation shall declare his alms. 12 If thou sit at a bountiful table, be not greedy upon it, and say not, There is much meat on it. 13 Remember that a wicked eye is an evil thing and what is created more wicked than an eye? therefore it weepeth upon every occasion. 14 Stretch not thine hand whithersoever it looketh, and thrust it not with him into the dish. [15] Judge not thy neighbour by thyself and be discreet in every point. [16] Eat as it becometh a man, those things which are set before thee; and devour note, lest thou be hated. [17] Leave off first for manners' sake; and be not unsatiable, lest thou offend. [18] When thou sittest among many, reach not thine hand out first of all. [19] A very little is sufficient for a man well nurtured, and he fetcheth not his wind short upon his bed. [20] Sound sleep cometh of moderate eating he riseth early, and his wits are with him but the pain of watching, and choler, and pangs of the belly, are with an unsatiable man. [21] And if thou hast been forced to eat, arise, go forth, vomit, and thou shalt have rest. [22] My son, hear me, and despise me not, and at the last thou shalt find as I told thee in all thy works be quick, so shall there no sickness come unto thee. [23] Whoso is liberal of his meat, men shall speak well of him; and the report of his good housekeeping will be believed. [24] But against him that is a niggard of his meat the whole city shall murmur; and the testimonies of his niggardness shall not be doubted of. [25] Shew not thy valiantness in wine; for wine hath destroyed many. [26] The furnace proveth the edge by dipping so doth wine the hearts of the proud by drunkeness. [27] Wine is as good as life to a man, if it be drunk moderately what life is then to a man that is without wine? for it was made to make men glad. [28] Wine measurably drunk and in season bringeth gladness of the heart, and cheerfulness of the mind [29] But wine drunken with excess maketh bitterness of the mind, with brawling and quarrelling. [30] Drunkenness increaseth the rage of a fool till he offend it diminisheth strength, and maketh wounds. [31] Rebuke not thy neighbour at the wine, and despise him not in his mirth give him no despiteful words, and press not upon him with urging him [to drink.]

If thou be made the master [of a feast,] lift not thyself up, but be among them as one of the rest; take diligent care for them, and so sit down. [2] And when thou hast done all thy office, take thy place, that thou mayest be merry with them, and receive a crown for thy well ordering of the feast. [3] Speak, thou that art the elder, for it becometh thee, but with sound judgment; and hinder not musick. [4] Pour not out words where there is a musician, and shew not forth wisdom out of time. [5] A concert of musick in a banquet of wine is as a signet of carbuncle set in gold. [6] As a signet of an emerald set in a work of gold, so is the melody of musick with pleasant wine. [7] Speak, young man, if there be need of thee and yet scarcely when thou art twice asked. [8] Let thy speech be short, comprehending much in few words; be as one that knoweth and yet holdeth his tongue. [9] If thou be among great men, make not thyself equal with them; and when ancient men are in place, use not many words. [10] Before the thunder goeth lightning; and before a shamefaced man shall go favour. [11] Rise up betimes, and be not the last; but get thee home without delay. [12] There take thy pastime, and do what thou wilt but sin not by proud speech. [13] And for these things bless him that made thee, and hath replenished thee with his good things. [14] Whoso feareth the Lord will receive his discipline; and they that seek him early shall find favour. [15] He that seeketh the law shall be filled therewith but the hypocrite will be offended thereat. [16] They that fear the Lord shall find judgment, and shall kindle justice as a light. [17] A sinful man will not be reproved, but findeth an excuse according to his will. [18] A man of counsel will be considerate; but a strange and proud man is not daunted with fear, even when of himself he hath done without counsel. [19] Do nothing without advice; and when thou hast once done, repent not. [20] Go not in a way wherein thou mayest fall, and stumble not among the stones. [21] Be not confident in a plain way. [22] And beware of thine own children. [23] In every good work trust thy own soul; for this is the keeping of the commandments. [24] He that believeth in the Lord taketh heed to the commandment; and he that trusteth in him shall fare never the worse.

There shall no evil happen unto him that feareth the Lord; but in temptation even again he will deliver him. [2] A wise man hateth not the law; but he that is an hypocrite therein is as a ship in a storm. [3] A man of understanding trusteth in the law; and the law is faithful unto him, as an oracle. [4] Prepare what to say, and so thou shalt be heard and bind up instruction, and then make answer. [5] The heart of the foolish is like a cartwheel; and his thoughts are like a rolling axletree. [6] A stallion horse is as a mocking friend, he neigheth under every one that sitteth upon him. [7] Why doth one day excel another, when as all the light of every day in the year is of the sun? [8] By the knowledge of the Lord they were distinguished and he altered seasons and feasts. [9] Some of them hath he made high days, and hallowed them, and some of them hath he made ordinary days. [10] And all men are from the ground, and Adam was created of earth [11] In much knowledge the Lord hath divided them, and made their ways diverse. [12] Some of them hath he blessed and exalted and some of them he sanctified, and set near himself but some of them hath he cursed and brought low, and turned out of their places. [13] As the clay is in the potter's hand, to fashion it at his pleasure so man is in the hand of him that made him, to render to them as liketh him best. [14] Good is set against evil, and life against death so is the godly against the sinner, and the sinner against the godly. [15] So look upon all the works of the most High; and there are two and two, one against another. [16] I awaked up last of all, as one that gathereth after the grapegatherers by the blessing of the Lord I profited, and tred my winepress like a gatherer of grapes. [17] Consider that I laboured not for myself only, but for all them that seek learning. [18] Hear me, O ye great men of the people, and hearken with your ears, ye rulers of the congregation. [19] Give not thy son and wife, thy brother and friend, power over thee while thou livest, and give not thy goods to another lest it repent thee, and thou intreat for the same again. [20] As long as thou livest and hast breath in thee, give not thyself over to any. [21] For better it is that thy children should seek to thee, than that thou shouldest stand to their courtesy. [22] In all thy works keep to thyself the preeminence; leave not a stain in thine honour. [23] At the time when thou shalt end thy days, and finish thy life, distribute thine inheritance. [24] Fodder, a wand, and burdens, are for the ass; and bread, correction, and work, for a servant. . [25] If thou set thy servant to labour, thou shalt find rest but if thou let him go idle, he shall seek liberty. [26] A yoke and a collar do bow the neck so are tortures and torments for an evil servant. [27] Send him to labour, that he be not idle; for idleness teacheth much evil. [28] Set him to work, as is fit for him if he be not obedient, put on more heavy fetters. [29] But be not excessive toward any; and without discretion do nothing. [30] If thou have a servant, let him be unto thee as thyself, because thou hast bought him with a price. [31] If thou have a servant, entreat him as a brother for thou hast need of him, as of thine own soul if thou entreat him evil, and he run from thee, which way wilt thou go to seek him?

The hopes of a man void of understanding are vain and false and dreams lift up fools. [2] Whoso regardeth dreams is like him that catcheth at a shadow, and followeth after the wind. [3] The vision of dreams is the resemblance of one thing to another, even as the likeness of a face to a face. [4] Of an unclean thing what can be cleansed? and from that thing which is false what truth can come? [5] Divinations, and soothsayings, and dreams, are vain and the heart fancieth, as a woman's heart in travail. [6] If they be not sent from the most High in thy visitation, set not thy heart upon them. [7] For dreams have deceived many, and they have failed that put their trust in them. [8] The law shall be found perfect without lies and wisdom is perfection to a faithful mouth. [9] A man that hath travelled knoweth many things; and he that hath much experience will declare wisdom. [10] He that hath no experience knoweth little but he that hath travelled is full of prudence. [11] When I travelled, I saw many things; and I understand more than I can express. [12] I was ofttimes in danger of death yet I was delivered because of these things. [13] The spirit of those that fear the Lord shall live; for their hope is in him that saveth them. [14] Whoso feareth the Lord shall not fear nor be afraid; for he is his hope. [15] Blessed is the soul of him that feareth the Lord to whom doth he look? and who is his strength? [16] For the eyes of the Lord are upon them that love him, he is their mighty protection and strong stay, a defence from heat, and a cover from the sun at noon, a preservation from stumbling, and an help from falling. [17] He raiseth up the soul, and lighteneth the eyes he giveth health, life, and blessing. [18] He that sacrificeth of a thing wrongfully gotten, his offering is ridiculous; and the gifts of unjust men are not accepted. [19] The most High is not pleased with the offerings of the wicked; neither is he pacified for sin by the multitude of sacrifices. [20] Whoso bringeth an offering of the goods of the poor doeth as one that killeth the son before his father's eyes. [21] The bread of the needy is their life he that defraudeth him thereof is a man of blood. [22] He that taketh away his neighbour's living slayeth him; and he that defraudeth the labourer of his hire is a bloodshedder. [23] When one buildeth, and another pulleth down, what profit have they then but labour? [24] When one prayeth, and another curseth, whose voice will the Lord hear? [25] He that washeth himself after the touching of a dead body, if he touch it again, what availeth his washing? [26] So is it with a man that fasteth for his sins, and goeth again, and doeth the same who will hear his prayer? or what doth his humbling profit him.

He that keepeth the law bringeth offerings enough he that taketh heed to the commandment offereth a peace offering. [2] He that requiteth a goodturn offereth fine flour;

and he that giveth alms sacrificeth praise. [3] To depart from wickedness is a thing pleasing to the Lord; and to forsake unrighteousness is a propitiation. [4] Thou shalt not appear empty before the Lord. [5] For all these things [are to be done] because of the commandment. [6] The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fat, and the sweet savour thereof is before the most High. [7] The sacrifice of a just man is acceptable. and the memorial thereof shall never be forgotten. [8] Give the Lord his honour with a good eye, and diminish not the firstfruits of thine hands. [9] In all thy gifts shew a cheerful countenance, and dedicate thy tithes with gladness. [10] Give unto the most High according as he hath enriched thee; and as thou hast gotten, give with a cheerful eye. [11] For the Lord recompenseth, and will give thee seven times as much. [12] Do not think to corrupt with gifts; for such he will not receive and trust not to unrighteous sacrifices; for the Lord is judge, and with him is no respect of persons. [13] He will not accept any person against a poor man, but will hear the prayer of the oppressed. [14] He will not despise the supplication of the fatherless; nor the widow, when she poureth out her complaint. [15] Do not the tears run down the widow's cheeks? and is not her cry against him that causeth them to fall? [16] He that serveth the Lord shall be accepted with favour, and his prayer shall reach unto the clouds. [17] The prayer of the humble pierceth the clouds and till it come nigh, he will not be comforted; and will not depart, till the most High shall behold to judge righteously, and execute judgment. [18] For the Lord will not be slack, neither will the Mighty be patient toward them, till he have smitten in sunder the loins of the unmerciful, and repayed [87] vengeance to the heathen; till he have taken away the multitude of the proud, and broken the sceptre of the unrighteous; [19] Till he have rendered to every man according to his deeds, and to the works of men according to their devices; till he have judged the cause of his people, and made them to rejoice in his mercy. [20] Mercy is seasonable in the time of affliction, as clouds of rain in the time of drought.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord God of all, and behold us [2] And send thy fear upon all the nations that seek not after thee. [3] Lift up thy hand against the strange nations, and let them see thy power. [4] As thou wast sanctified in us before them so be thou magnified among them before us. [5] And let them know thee, as we have known thee, that there is no God but only thou, O God. 6 Shew new signs, and make other strange wonders glorify thy hand and thy right arm, that they may set forth thy wondrous works. 7 Raise up indignation, and pour out wrath take away the adversary, and destroy the enemy. 8 Make the time short, remember the covenant, and let them declare thy wonderful works. 9 Let him that escapeth be consumed by the rage of the fire; and let them perish that oppress the people. 10 Smite in sunder the heads of the rulers of the heathen, that say, There is none other but we. 11 Gather all the tribes of Jacob together, and inherit thou them, as from the beginning. 12 O Lord, have mercy upon the people that is called by thy name, and upon Israel, whom thou hast named thy firstborn. 13 O be merciful unto Jerusalem, thy holy city, the place of thy rest. 14 Fill Sion with thine unspeakable oracles, and thy people with thy glory 15 Give testimony unto those that thou hast possessed from the beginning, and raise up prophets that have been in thy name. 16 Reward them that wait for thee, and let thy prophets be found faithful. 17 O Lord, hear the prayer of thy servants, according to the blessing of Aaron over thy people, that all they which dwell upon the earth may know that thou art the Lord, the eternal God. 18 The belly devoureth all meats, yet is one meat better than another. 19 As the palate tasteth divers kinds of venison so doth an heart of understanding false speeches. 20 A froward heart causeth heaviness but a man of experience will recompense him. 21 A woman will receive every man, yet is one daughter better than another. 22 The beauty of a woman cheereth the countenance, and a man loveth nothing better. 23 If there be kindness, meekness, and comfort, in her tongue, then is not her husband like other men. 24 He that getteth a wife beginneth a possession, a help like unto himself, and a pillar of rest. 25 Where no hedge is, there the possession is spoiled and he that hath no wife will wander up and down mourning. 26 Who will trust a thief well appointed, that skippeth from city to city? so [who will believe] a man that hath no house, and lodgeth wheresoever the night taketh him?

Every friend saith, I am his friend also but there is a friend, which is only a friend in name. 2 Is it not a grief unto death, when a companion and friend is turned to an enemy? 3 O wicked imagination, whence camest thou in to cover the earth with deceit? 4 There is a companion, which rejoiceth in the prosperity of a friend, but in the time of trouble will be against him. [5] There is a companion, which helpeth his friend for the belly, and taketh up the buckler against the enemy. [6] Forget not thy friend in thy mind, and be not unmindful of him in thy riches. [7] Every counsellor extolleth counsel; but there is some that counselleth for himself. [8] Beware of a counsellor, and know before what need he hath; for he will counsel for himself; lest he cast the lot upon thee, [9] And say unto thee, Thy way is good and afterward he stand on the other side, to see what shall befall thee. [10] Consult not with one that suspecteth thee and hide thy counsel from such as envy thee. [11] Neither consult with a woman touching her of whom she is jealous; neither with a coward in matters of war; nor with a merchant concerning exchange; nor with a buyer of selling; nor with an envious man of thankfulness; nor with an unmerciful man touching kindness; nor with the slothful for any work; nor with an hireling for a year of finishing work; nor with an idle servant of much business hearken not unto these in any matter of counsel. [12] But be continually with a godly man, whom thou knowest to keep the commandments of the Lord, whose, mind is according to thy mind, and will sorrow with thee, if thou shalt miscarry. [13] And let the counsel of thine own heart stand for there is no man more faithful unto thee than it. [14] For a man's mind is sometime wont to tell him more than seven watchmen, that sit above in an high tower. [15] And above all this pray to the most High, that he will direct thy way in truth. [16] Let reason go before every enterprize, and counsel before every action. [17] The countenance is a sign of changing of the heart. [18] Four manner of things appear good and evil, life and death but the tongue ruleth over them continually. [19] There is one that is wise and teacheth many, and yet is unprofitable to himself. [20] There is one that sheweth wisdom in words, and is hated he shall be destitute of all food. [21] For grace is not given, him from the Lord, because he is deprived of all wisdom. [22] Another is wise to himself; and the fruits of understanding are commendable in his mouth. [23] A wise man instructeth his people; and the fruits of his understanding fail not. [24] A wise man shall be filled with blessing; and all they that see him shall count him happy. [25] The days of the life of man may be numbered but the days of Israel are innumerable. [26] A wise man shall inherit glory among his people, and his name shall be perpetual. [27] My son, prove thy soul in thy life, and see what is evil for it, and give not that unto it. [28] For all things are not profitable for all men, neither hath every soul pleasure in every thing. [29] Be not unsatiable in any dainty thing, nor too greedy upon meats [30] For excess of meats bringeth sickness, and surfeiting will turn into choler. [31] By surfeiting have many perished; but he that taketh heed prolongeth his life.

Honour a physician with the honour due unto him for the uses which ye may have of him for the Lord hath created him. 2 For of the most High cometh healing, and he shall receive honour of the king. 3 The skill of the physician shall lift up his head and in the sight of great men he shall be in admiration. 4 The Lord hath created medicines out of the earth; and he that is wise will not abhor them. 5 Was not the water made sweet with wood, that the virtue thereof might be known? 6 And he hath given men skill, that he might be honoured in his marvellous works. 7 With such doth he heal [men,] and taketh away their pains. 8 Of such doth the apothecary make a confection; and of his works there is no end; and from him is peace over all the earth, 9 My son, in thy sickness be not negligent but pray unto the Lord, and he will make thee whole. 10 Leave off from sin, and order thine hands aright, and cleanse thy heart from all wickedness. 11 Give a sweet savour, and a memorial of fine flour; and make a fat offering, as not being. 1 2 Then give place to the physician, for the Lord hath created him let him not go from thee, for thou hast need of him. 13 There is a time when in their hands there is good success. 14 For they shall also pray unto the Lord, that he would prosper that, which they give for ease and remedy to prolong life. 15 He that sinneth before his Maker, let him fall into the hand of the physician. 16 My son, let tears fall down over the dead, and begin to lament, as if thou hadst suffered great harm thyself; and then cover his body according to the custom, and neglect not his burial. 17 Weep bitterly, and make great moan, and use lamentation, as he is worthy, and that a day or two, lest thou be evil spoken of and then comfort thyself for thy heaviness. 18 For of heaviness cometh death, and the heaviness of the heart breaketh strength. 19 In affliction also sorrow remaineth and the life of the poor is the curse of the heart. 20 Take no heaviness to heart drive it away, and member the last end. 21 Forget it not, for there is no turning again thou shalt not do him good, but hurt thyself. 2 2 Remember my judgment for thine also shall be so; yesterday for me, and to day for thee. 23 When the dead is at rest, let his remembrance rest; and be comforted for him, when his Spirit is departed from him. 24 The wisdom of a learned man cometh by opportunity of leisure and he that hath little business shall become wise. 25 How can he get wisdom that holdeth the plough, and that glorieth in the goad, that driveth oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and whose talk is of bullocks? 26 He giveth his mind to make furrows; and is diligent to give the kine fodder. 27 So every carpenter and workmaster, that laboureth night and day and they that cut and grave seals, and are diligent to make great variety, and give themselves to counterfeit imagery, and watch to finish a work [28] The smith also sitting by the anvil, and considering the iron work, the vapour of the fire wasteth his flesh, and he fighteth with the heat of the furnace the noise of the hammer and the anvil is ever in his ears, and his eyes look still upon the pattern of the thing that he maketh; he setteth his mind to finish his work, and watcheth to polish it perfectly [29] So doth the potter sitting at his work, and turning the wheel about with his feet, who is always carefully set at his work, and maketh all his work by number; [30] He fashioneth the clay with his arm, and boweth down his strength before his feet; he applieth himself to lead it over; and he is diligent to make clean the furnace [31] All these trust to their hands and every one is wise in his work. [32] Without these cannot a city be inhabited and they shall not dwell where they will, nor go up and down [33] They shall not be sought for in publick counsel, nor sit high in the congregation they shall not sit on the judges' seat, nor understand the sentence of judgment they cannot declare justice and judgment; and they shall not be found where parables are spoken. [34] But they will maintain the state of the world, and [all] their desire is in the work of their craft.

But he that giveth his mind to the law of the most High, and is occupied in the meditation thereof, will seek out the wisdom of all the ancient, and be occupied in prophecies. [2] He will keep the sayings of the renowned men and where subtil parables are, he will be there also. [3] He will seek out the secrets of grave sentences, and be conversant in dark parables. [4] He shall serve among great men, and appear before princes he will travel through strange countries; for he hath tried the good and the evil among men. [5] He will give his heart to resort early to the Lord that made him, and will pray before the most High, and will open his mouth in prayer, and make supplication for his sins. [6] When the great Lord will, he shall be filled with the spirit of understanding he shall pour out wise sentences, and give thanks unto the Lord in his prayer. [7] He shall direct his counsel and knowledge, and in his secrets shall he meditate. [8] He shall shew forth that which he hath learned, and shall glory in the law of the covenant of the Lord. [9] Many shall commend his understanding; and so long as the world endureth, it shall not be blotted out; his memorial shall not depart away, and his name shall live from generation to generation. [10] Nations shall shew forth his wisdom, and the congregation shall declare his praise. [11] If he die, he shall leave a greater name than a thousand and if he live, he shall increase it. [12] Yet have I more to say, which I have thought upon; for I am filled as the moon at the full. [13] Hearken unto me, ye holy children, and bud forth as a rose growing by the brook of the field [14] And give ye a sweet savour as frankincense, and flourish as a lily, send forth a smell, and sing a song of praise, bless the Lord in all his works. [15] Magnify his name, and shew forth his praise with the songs of your lips, and with harps, and in praising him ye shall say after this manner [16] All the works of the Lord are exceeding good, and whatsoever he commandeth shall be accomplished in due season. [17] And none may say, What is this? wherefore is that? for at time convenient they shall all be sought out at his commandment the waters stood as an heap, and at the words of his mouth the receptacles of waters. [18] At his commandment is done whatsoever pleaseth him; and none can hinder, when he will save. [19] The works of all flesh are before him, and nothing can be hid from his eyes. [20] He seeth from everlasting to everlasting; and there is nothing wonderful before him. [21] A man need not to say, What is this? wherefore is that? for he hath made all things for their uses. [22] His blessing covered the dry land as a river, and watered it as a flood. [23] As he hath turned the waters into saltness so shall the heathen inherit his wrath. [24] As his ways are plain unto the holy; so are they stumblingblocks unto the wicked. [25] For the good are good things created from the beginning so evil things for sinners. [26] The principal things for the whole use of man's life are water, fire, iron, and salt, flour of wheat, honey, milk, and the blood of the grape, and oil, and clothing. [27] All these things are for good to the godly so to the sinners they are turned into evil. [28] There be spirits that are created for vengeance, which in their fury lay on sore strokes; in the time of destruction they pour out their force, and appease the wrath of him that made them. [29] Fire, and hail, and famine, and death, all these were created for vengeance; [30] Teeth of wild beasts, and scorpions, serpents, and the sword punishing the wicked to destruction. [31] They shall rejoice in his commandment, and they shall be ready upon earth, when need is; and when their time is come, they shall not transgress his word. [32] Therefore from the beginning I was resolved, and thought upon these things, and have left them in writing. [33] All the works of the Lord are good and he will give every needful thing in due season. [34] So that a man cannot say, This is worse than that for in time they shall all be well approved. [35] And therefore praise ye the Lord with the whole heart and mouth, and bless the name of the Lord.

Great travail is created for every man, and an heavy yoke is upon the sons of Adam, from the day that they go out of their mother's womb, till the day that they return to the mother of all things. 2 Their imagination of things to come, and the day of death, [trouble] their thoughts, and [cause] fear of heart; 3 From him that sitteth on a throne of glory, unto him that is humbled in earth and ashes; 4 From him that weareth purple and a crown, unto him that is clothed with a linen frock. 5 Wrath, and envy, trouble, and unquietness, fear of death, and anger, and strife, and in the time of rest upon his bed his night sleep, do change his knowledge. 6 A little or nothing is his rest, and afterward he is in his sleep, as in a day of keeping watch, troubled in the vision of his heart, as if he were escaped out of a battle. 7 When all is safe, he awaketh, and marvelleth that the fear was nothing. 8 [Such things happen] unto all flesh, both man and beast, and that is sevenfold more upon sinners. 9 Death, and bloodshed, strife, and sword, calamities, famine, tribulation, and the scourge; 10 These things are created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the flood. 11 All things that are of the earth shall turn to the earth again and that which is of the waters doth return into the sea. 12 All bribery and injustice shall be blotted out but true dealing shall endure for ever. 13 The goods of the unjust shall be dried up like a river, and shall vanish with noise, like a great thunder in rain. 14 While he openeth his hand he shall rejoice so shall transgressors come to nought. 15 The children of the ungodly shall not bring forth many branches but are as unclean roots upon a hard rock. 16 The weed growing upon every water and bank of a river shall be pulled up before all grass. 17 Bountifulness is as a most fruitful garden, and mercifulness endureth for ever. 18 To labour, and to be content with that a man hath, is a sweet life but he that findeth a treasure is above them both. 19 Children and the building of a city continue a man's name but a blameless wife is counted above them both. 20 Wine and musick rejoice the heart but the love of wisdom is above them both. 21 The pipe and the psaltery make sweet melody but a pleasant tongue is above them both. 22 Thine eye desireth favour and beauty but more than both corn while it is green. 23 A friend and companion never meet amiss but above both is a wife with her husband. 24 Brethren and help are against time of trouble but alms shall deliver more than them both. 25 Gold and silver make the foot stand sure but counsel is esteemed above them both. 26 Riches and strength lift up the heart but the fear of the Lord is above them both there is no want in the fear of the Lord, and it needeth not to seek help. 27 The fear of the Lord is a fruitful garden, and covereth him above all glory. 28 My son, lead not a beggar's life; for better it is to die than to beg. 29 The life of him that dependeth on another man's table is not to be counted for a life; for he polluteth himself with other men's meat but a wise man well nurtured will beware thereof. 30 Begging is sweet in the mouth of the shameless but in his belly there shall burn a fire.

O death, how bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that liveth at rest in his possessions, unto the man that hath nothing to vex him, and that hath prosperity in all things yea, unto him that is yet able to receive meat! 2 O death, acceptable is thy sentence unto the needy, and unto him whose strength faileth, that is now in the last age, and is vexed with all things, and to him that despaireth, and hath lost patience! 3 Fear not the sentence of death, remember them that have been before thee, and that come after; for this is the sentence of the Lord over all flesh. 4 And why art thou against the pleasure of the most High? there is no inquisition in the grave, whether thou have lived ten, or an hundred, or a thousand years. 5 The children of sinners are abominable children, and they that are conversant in the dwelling of the ungodly. 6 The inheritance of sinners' children shall perish, and their posterity shall have a perpetual reproach. 7 The children will complain of an ungodly father, because they shall be reproached for his sake. 8 Woe be unto you, ungodly men, which have forsaken the law of the most high God! for if ye increase, it shall be to your destruction 9 And if ye be born, ye shall be born to a curse and if ye die, a curse shall be your portion. 10 All that are of the earth shall turn to earth again so the ungodly shall go from a curse to destruction. 11 The mourning of men is about their bodies but an ill name of sinners shall be blotted out. 12 Have regard to thy name; for that shall continue with thee above a thousand great treasures of gold. 13 A good life hath but few days but a good name endureth for ever. 14 My children, keep discipline in peace for wisdom that is hid, and a treasure that is not seen, what profit is in them both? 15 A man that hideth his foolishness is better than a man that hideth his wisdom. 16 Therefore be shamefaced according to my word for it is not good to retain all shamefacedness; neither is it altogether approved in every thing. 17 Be ashamed of whoredom before father and mother and of a lie before a prince and a mighty man; 18 Of an offence before a judge and ruler; of iniquity before a congregation and people; of unjust dealing before thy partner and friend; [19] And of theft in regard of the place where thou sojournest, and in regard of the truth of God and his covenant; and to lean with thine elbow upon the meat; and of scorning to give and take; [20] And of silence before them that salute thee; and to look upon an harlot; [21] And to turn away thy face from thy kinsman; or to take away a portion or a gift; or to gaze upon another man's wife. [22] Or to be overbusy with his maid, and come not near her bed; or of upbraiding speeches before friends; and after thou hast given, upbraid not; [23] Or of iterating and speaking again that which thou hast heard; and of revealing of secrets. [24] So shalt thou be truly shamefaced and find favour before all men.

Of these things be not thou ashamed, and accept no person to sin thereby [2] Of the law of the most High, and his covenant; and of judgment to justify the ungodly; [3] Of reckoning with thy partners and travellers; or of the gift of the heritage of friends; [4] Of exactness of balance and weights; or of getting much or little; [5] And of merchants' indifferent selling; of much correction of children; and to make the side of an evil servant to bleed. [6] Sure keeping is good, where an evil wife is; and shut up, where many hands are. [7] Deliver all things in number and weight; and put all in writing that thou givest out, or receivest in. [91] [8] Be not ashamed to inform the unwise and foolish, and the extreme aged that contendeth with those that are young thus shalt thou be truly learned, and approved of all men living. [9] The father waketh for the daughter, when no man knoweth; and the care for her taketh away sleep when she is young, lest she pass away the flower of her age; and being married, lest she should be hated [10] In her virginity, lest she should be defiled and gotten with child in her father's house; and having an husband, lest she should misbehave herself; and when she is married, lest she should be barren. [11] Keep a sure watch over a shameless daughter, lest she make thee a laughingstock to thine enemies, and a byword in the city, and a reproach among the people, and make thee ashamed before the multitude. [12] Behold not every body's beauty, and sit not in the midst of women. [13] For from garments cometh a moth, and from women wickedness. [14] Better is the churlishness of a man than a courteous woman, a woman, I say, which bringeth shame and reproach. [15] I will now remember the works of the Lord, and declare the things that I have seen In the words of the Lord are his works. [16] The sun that giveth light looketh upon all things, and the work thereof is full of the glory of the Lord. 17 The Lord hath not given power to the saints to declare all his marvellous works, which the Almighty Lord firmly settled, that whatsoever is might be established for his glory. 18 He seeketh out the deep, and the heart, and considereth their crafty devices for the Lord knoweth all that may be known, and he beholdeth the signs of the world. 19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and revealeth the steps of hidden things. 20 No thought escapeth him, neither any word is hidden from him. 21 He hath garnished the excellent works of his wisdom, and he is from everlasting to everlasting unto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished, and he hath no need of any counsellor. 22 Oh how desirable are all his works! and that a man may see even to a spark. 23 All these things live and remain for ever for all uses, and they are all obedient. 24 All things are double one against another and he hath made nothing imperfect. 25 One thing establisheth the good or another and who shall be filled with beholding his glory?

The pride of the height, the clear firmament, the beauty of heaven, with his glorious shew; 2 The sun when it appeareth, declaring at his rising a marvellous instrument, the work of the most High 3 At noon it parcheth the country, and who can abide the burning heat thereof? 4 A man blowing a furnace is in works of heat, but the sun burneth the mountains three times more; breathing out fiery vapours, and sending forth bright beams, it dimmeth the eyes. 5 Great is the Lord that made it; and at his commandment runneth hastily. 6 He made the moon also to serve in her season for a declaration of times, and a sign of the world. 7 From the moon is the sign of feasts, a light that decreaseth in her perfection. 8 The month is called after her name, increasing wonderfully in her changing, being an instrument of the armies above, shining in the firmament of heaven; 9 The beauty of heaven, the glory of the stars, an ornament giving light in the highest places of the Lord. 10 At the commandment of the Holy One they will stand in their order, and never faint in their watches. 11 Look upon the rainbow, and praise him that made it; very beautiful it is in the brightness thereof. 12 It compasseth the heaven about with a glorious circle, and the hands of the most High have bended it. 13 By his commandment he maketh the snow to fall aplace, and sendeth swiftly the lightnings of his judgment. 14

Through this the treasures are opened and clouds fly forth as fowls. [15] By his great power he maketh the clouds firm, and the hailstones are broken small. [16] At his sight the mountains are shaken, and at his will the south wind bloweth. [17] The noise of the thunder maketh the earth to tremble so doth the northern storm and the whirlwind as birds flying he scattereth the snow, and the falling down thereof is as the lighting of grasshoppers [18] The eye marvelleth at the beauty of the whiteness thereof, and the heart is astonished at the raining of it. [19] The hoarfrost also as salt he poureth on the earth, and being congealed, it lieth on the top of sharp stakes. [20] When the cold north wind bloweth, and the water is congealed into ice, it abideth upon every gathering together of water, and clotheth the water as with a breastplate. [21] It devoureth the mountains, and burneth the wilderness, and consumeth the grass as fire. [22] A present remedy of all is a mist coming speedily, a dew coming after heat refresheth. [23] By his counsel he appeaseth the deep, and planteth islands therein. [24] They that sail on the sea tell of the danger thereof; and when we hear it with our ears, we marvel thereat. [25] For therein be strange and wondrous works, variety of all kinds of beasts and whales created. [26] By him the end of them hath prosperous success, and by his word all things consist. [27] We may speak much, and yet come short wherefore in sum, he is all. [28] How shall we be able to magnify him? for he is great above all his works. [29] The Lord is terrible and very great, and marvellous is his power. [92] [30] When ye glorify the Lord, exalt him as much as ye can; for even yet will he far exceed and when ye exalt him, put forth all your strength, and be not weary; for ye can never go far enough. [31] Who hath seen him, that he might tell us? and who can magnify him as he is? [32] There are yet hid greater things than these be, for we have seen but a few of his works. [33] For the Lord hath made all things; and to the godly hath he given wisdom.

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. [2] The Lord hath wrought great glory by them through his great power from the beginning. [3] Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies [4] Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people, wise and eloquent are their instructions [5] Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing [6] Rich men furnished with ability, living peaceably in their habitations [7] All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times. [8] There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported. [9] And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them. [10] But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten. [11] With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant. [12] Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes. [13] Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out. [14] Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore. [15] The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise. [16] Enoch pleased the Lord, and was translated, being an example of repentance to all generations. [17] Noah was found perfect and righteous; in the time of wrath he was taken in exchange [for the world;] therefore was he left as a remnant unto the earth, when the flood came. [18] An everlasting covenant was made with him, that all flesh should perish no more by the flood. [19] Abraham was a great father of many people in glory was there none like unto him; [20] Who kept the law of the most High, and was in covenant with him he established the covenant in his flesh; and when he was proved, he was found faithful. [21] Therefore he assured him by an oath, that he would bless the nations in his seed, and that he would multiply him as the dust of the earth, and exalt his seed as the stars, and cause them to inherit from sea to sea, and from the river unto the utmost part of the land. [22] With Isaac did he establish likewise [for Abraham his father's sake] the blessing of all men, and the covenant, And made it rest upon the head of Jacob. He acknowledged him in his blessing, and gave him an heritage, and divided his portions; among the twelve tribes did he part them.

And he brought out of him a merciful man, which found favour in the sight of all flesh, even Moses, beloved of God and men, whose memorial is blessed. [2] He made him like to the glorious saints, and magnified him, so that his enemies stood in fear of him. [3] By his words he caused the wonders to cease, and he made him glorious in the sight of kings, and gave him a commandment for his people, and shewed him part of his glory. [4] He sanctified him in his faithfuless and meekness, and chose him out of all men. [5] He made him to hear his voice, and brought him into the dark cloud, and gave him commandments before his face, even the law of life and knowledge, that he might teach Jacob his covenants, and Israel his judgments. [6] He exalted Aaron, an holy man like unto him, even his brother, of the tribe of Levi. [7] An everlasting covenant he made with him and gave him the priesthood among the people; he beautified him with comely ornaments, and clothed him with a robe of glory. [8] He put upon him perfect glory; and strengthened him with rich garments, with breeches, with a long robe, and the ephod. [9] And he compassed him with pomegranates, and with many golden bells round about, that as he went there might be a sound, and a noise made that might be heard in the temple, for a memorial to the children of his people; [10] With an holy garment, with gold, and blue silk, and purple, the work of the embroiderer, with a breastplate of judgment, and with Urim and Thummim; [11] With twisted scarlet, the work of the cunning workman, with precious stones graven like seals, and set in gold, the work of the jeweller, with a writing engraved for a memorial, after the number of the tribes of Israel. [12] He set a crown of gold upon the mitre, wherein was engraved Holiness, an ornament of honour, a costly work, the desires of the eyes, goodly and beautiful. [13] Before him there were none such, neither did ever any stranger put them on, but only his children and his children's children perpetually. [14] Their sacrifices shall be wholly consumed every day twice continually. [15] Moses consecrated him, and anointed him with holy oil this was appointed unto him by an everlast [93] ing covenant, and to his seed, so long as the heavens should remain, that they should minister unto him, and execute the office of the priesthood, and bless the people in his name. [16] He chose him out of all men living to offer sacrifices to the Lord, incense, and a sweet savour, for a memorial, to make reconciliation for his people. [17] He gave unto him his commandments, and authority in the statutes of judgments, that he should teach Jacob the testimonies, and inform Israel in his laws. [18] Strangers conspired together against him, and maligned him in the wilderness, even the men that were of Dathan's and Abiron's side, and the congregation of Core, with fury and wrath. [19] This the Lord saw, and it displeased him, and in his wrathful indignation were they consumed he did wonders upon them, to consume them with the fiery flame. [20] But he made Aaron more honourable, and gave him an heritage, and divided unto him the firstfruits of the increase; especially he prepared bread in abundance [21] For they eat of the sacrifices of the Lord, which he gave unto him and his seed. [22] Howbeit in the land of the people he had no inheritance, neither had he any portion among the people for the Lord himself is his portion and inheritance. [23] The third in glory is Phinees the son of Eleazar, because he had zeal in the fear of the Lord, and stood up with good courage of heart when the people were turned back, and made reconciliation for Israel. [24] Therefore was there a covenant of peace made with him, that he should be the chief of the sanctuary and of his people, and that he and his posterity should have the dignity of the priesthood for ever [25] According to the covenant made with David son of Jesse, of the tribe of Juda, that the inheritance of the king should be to his posterity alone so the inheritance of Aaron should also be unto his seed. [26] God give you wisdom in your heart to judge his people in righteousness, that their good things be not abolished, and that their glory may endure for ever.

Jesus the son a Nave was valiant in the wars, and was the successor of Moses in prophecies, who according to his name was made great for the saving of the elect of God, and taking vengeance of the enemies that rose up against them, that he might set Israel in their inheritance. [2] How great glory gat he, when he did lift up his hands, and stretched out his sword against the cities! [3] Who before him so stood to it? for the Lord himself brought his enemies unto him. [4] Did not the sun go back by his means? and was not one day as long as two? [5] He called upon the most high Lord, when the enemies pressed upon him on every side; and the great Lord heard him. [6] And with hailstones of mighty power he made the battle to fall violently upon the nations, and in the descent [of Beth-horon] he destroyed them that resisted, that the nations might know all their strength, because he fought in the sight of the Lord, and he followed the Mighty One. [7] In the time of Moses also he did a work of mercy, he and Caleb the son of Jephunne, in that they withstood the congregation, and withheld the people from sin, and appeased the wicked murmuring. [8] And of six hundred thousand people on foot, they two were preserved to bring them in to the heritage, even unto the land that floweth with milk and honey. [9] The Lord gave strength also unto Caleb, which remained with him unto his old age so that he entered upon the high places of the land, and his seed obtained it for an heritage [10] That all the children of Israel might see that it is good to follow the Lord. [11] And concerning the judges, every one by name, whose heart went not a whoring, nor departed from the Lord, let their memory be blessed. [12] Let their bones flourish out of their place, and let the name of them that were honoured be continued upon their children. [13] Samuel, the prophet of the Lord, beloved of his Lord, established a kingdom, and anointed princes over his people. [14] By the law of the Lord he judged the congregation, and the Lord had respect unto Jacob. [15] By his faithfulness he was found a true prophet, and by his word he was known to be faithful in vision. [16] He called upon the mighty Lord, when his enemies pressed upon him on every side, when he offered the sucking lamb. [17] And the Lord thundered from heaven, and with a great noise made his voice to be heard. [18] And he destroyed the rulers of the Tyrians, and all the princes cf the Philistines. [19] And before his long sleep he made protestations in the sight of the Lord and his anointed, I have not taken any man's goods, so much as a shoe and no man did accuse him. [20] And after his death he prophesied, and shewed the king his end, and lifted up his voice from the earth in prophecy, to blot out the wickedness of the people.

And after him rose up Nathan to prophesy in the time of David. [2] As is the fat taken away from the peace offering, so was David chosen out of the children of Israel. [3] He played with lions as with kids, and with bears as with lambs. [4] Slew he not a giant, when he was yet but young? and did he not take away reproach from the people, when he lifted up his hand with the stone in the sling, and beat down the boasting of Goliath? [5] For he called upon the most high Lord; and he gave him strength in his right hand to slay that mighty warrior, and set up the horn of his people. [6] So the people honoured him with ten thousands, and praised him in the blessings of the Lord, in that he gave him a crown of glory. [7] For he destroyed the enemies on every side, and brought to nought the Philistines his adversaries, and brake their horn in sunder unto this day. [8] In all his works he praised the Holy One most high with words of glory; with his whole heart he sung songs, and loved him that made him. [9] He set singers also before the altar, that by their voices they might make sweet melody, and daily sing praises in their songs. [10] He beautified their feasts, and set in order the solemn times until the end, that they might praise his holy name, and that the temple might sound from morning. [11] The Lord took away his sins, and exalted his horn for ever he gave him a covenant of kings, and a throne of glory in Israel. [1 2] After him rose up a wise son, and for his sake he dwelt at large. [13] Solomon reigned in a peaceable time, and was honoured; for God made all quiet round about him, that he might build an house in his name, and prepare his sanctuary for ever. [14] How wise wast thou in thy youth and, as a flood, filled with understanding! 15 Thy soul covered the whole earth, and thou filledst it with dark parables. 16 Thy name went far unto the islands; and for thy peace thou wast beloved. 17 The countries marvelled at thee for thy songs, and proverbs, and parables, and interpretations. 18 By the name of the Lord God, which is called the Lord God of Israel, thou didst gather gold as tin and didst multiply silver as lead. 19 Thou didst bow thy loins unto women, and by thy body thou wast brought into subjection. 20 Thou didst stain thy honour, and pollute thy seed so that thou broughtest wrath upon thy children, and wast grieved for thy folly. 21 So the kingdom was divided, and out of Ephraim ruled a rebellious kingdom. 22 But the Lord will never leave off his mercy, neither shall any of his works perish, neither will he abolish the posterity of his elect, and the seed of him that loveth him he will not take away wherefore he gave a remnant unto Jacob, and out of him a root unto David. 23 Thus rested Solomon with his fathers, and of his seed he left behind him Roboam, even the foolishness of the people, and one that had no understanding, who turned away the people through his counsel. There was also Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, and shewed Ephraim the way of sin 24 And their sins were multiplied exceedingly, that they were driven out of the land. 25 For they sought out all wickedness, till the vengeance came upon them.

Then stood up Elias the prophet as fire, and his word burned like a lamp. 2 He brought a sore famine upon them, and by his zeal he diminished their number. 3 By the word of the Lord he shut up the heaven, and also three times brought down fire. 4 O Elias, how wast thou honoured in thy wondrous deeds! and who may glory like unto thee! 5 Who didst raise up a dead man from death, and his soul from the place of the dead, by the word of the most High 6 Who broughtest kings to destruction, and honorable men from their bed 7 Who heardest the rebuke of the Lord in Sinai, and in Horeb the judgment of vengeance 8 Who annointedst kings to take revenge, and prophets to succeed after him 9 Who was taken up in a whirlwind of fire, and in a chariot of fiery horses 10 Who wast ordained for reproofs in their times, to pacify the wrath of the Lord's judgment, before it brake forth into fury, and to turn the heart of the father unto the son, and to restore the tribes of Jacob. 11 Blessed are they that saw thee, and slept in love; for we shall surely live.

1 2 Elias it was, who was covered with a whirlwind and Eliseus was filled with his spirit whilst he lived, he was not moved with the presence of any prince, neither could any bring him into subjection. 13 No word could overcome him; and after his death his body prophesied. 14 He did wonders in his life, and at his death were his works marvellous. 15 For all this the people repented not, neither departed they from their sins, till they were spoiled and carried out of their land, and were scattered through all the earth yet there remained a small people, and a ruler in the house of David 16 Of whom some did that which was pleasing to God, and some multiplied sins. 17 Ezekias fortified his city, and brought in water into the midst thereof he digged the hard rock with iron, and made wells for waters. 18 In his time Sennacherib came up, and sent Rabsaces, and lifted up his hand against Sion, and boasted proudly. 19 Then trembled their hearts and hands, and they were in pain, as women in travail. 20 But they called upon the Lord which is merciful, and stretched out their hands toward him and immediately the Holy One heard them out of heaven, and delivered them by the ministry of Esay. 21 He smote the host of the Assyrians, and his angel destroyed them. 2 2 For Ezekias had done the thing that pleased the Lord, and was strong in the ways of David his father, as Esay the prophet, who was great and faithful in his vision, had commanded him. 23 In his time the sun went backward, and he lengthened the king's life. 24 He saw by an excellent spirit what should come to pass at the last, and he comforted them that mourned in Sion. 25 He shewed what should come to pass for ever, and secret things or ever they came. 95

The remembrance of Josias is like the composition of the perfume that is made by the art of the apothecary it is sweet as honey in all mouths, and as musick at a banquet of wine. 2 He behaved himself uprightly in the conversion of the people, and took away the abominations of iniquity. 3 He directed his heart unto the Lord, and in the time of the ungodly he established the worship of God. 4 All, except David and Ezekias and Josias, were defective for they forsook the law of the most High, even the kings of Juda failed. 5 Therefore he gave their power unto others, and their glory to a strange nation. 6 They burnt the chosen city of the sanctuary, and made the streets desolate, according to the prophecy of Jeremias. 7 For they entreated him evil, who nevertheless was a prophet, sanctified in his mother's womb, that he might root out, and afflict, and destroy; and that he might build up also, and plant. [8] It was Ezekiel who saw the glorious vision, which was shewed him upon the chariot of the cherubims. [9] For he made mention of the enemies under the figure of the rain, and directed them that went right. [10] And of the twelve prophets let the memorial be blessed, and let their bones flourish again out of their place for they comforted Jacob, and delivered them by assured hope. [11] How shall we magnify Zorobabel? even he was as a signet on the right hand [12] So was Jesus the son of Josedec who in their time builded the house, and set up an holy temple to the Lord, which was prepared for everlasting glory. [13] And among the elect was Neemias, whose renown is great, who raised up for us the walls that were fallen, and set up the gates and the bars, and raised up our ruins again. [14] But upon the earth was no man created like Enoch; for he was taken from the earth. [15] Neither was there a young man born like Joseph, a governor of his brethren, a stay of the people, whose bones were regarded of the Lord. [16] Sem and Seth were in great honour among men, and so was Adam above every living thing in creation.

Simon the high priest, the son of Onias, who in his life repaired the house again, and in his days fortified the temple [2] And by him was built from the foundation the double height, the high fortress of the wall about the temple [3] In his days the cistern to receive water, being in compass as the sea, was covered with plates of brass [4] He took care of the temple that it should not fall, and fortified the city against besieging [5] How was he honoured in the midst of the people in his coming out of the sanctuary! [6] He was as the morning star in the midst of a cloud, and as the moon at the full [7] As the sun shining upon the temple of the most High, and as the rainbow giving light in the bright clouds [8] And as the flower of roses in the spring of the year, as lilies by the rivers of waters, and as the branches of the frankincense tree in the time of summer [9] As fire and incense in the censer, and as a vessel of beaten gold set with all manner of precious stones [10] And as a fair olive tree budding forth fruit, and as a cypress tree which groweth up to the clouds. [11] When he put on the robe of honour, and was clothed with the perfection of glory, when he went up to the holy altar, he made the garment of holiness honourable. [12] When he took the portions out of the priests' hands, he himself stood by the hearth of the altar, compassed about, as a young cedar in Libanus; and as palm trees compassed they him round about. 13 So were all the sons of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of the Lord in their hands, before all the congregation of Israel. 14 And finishing the service at the altar, that he might adorn the offering of the most high Almighty, 15 He stretched out his hand to the cup, and poured of the blood of the grape, he poured out at the foot of the altar a sweetsmelling savour unto the most high King of all. 16 Then shouted the sons of Aaron, and sounded the silver trumpets, and made a great noise to be heard, for a remembrance before the most High. 17 Then all the people together hasted, and fell down to the earth upon their faces to worship their Lord God Almighty, the most High. 18 The singers also sang praises with their voices, with great variety of sounds was there made sweet melody. 19 And the people besought the Lord, the most High, by prayer before him that is merciful, till the solemnity of the Lord was ended, and they had finished his service. 20 Then he went down, and lifted up his hands over the whole congregation of the children of Israel, to give the blessing of the Lord with his lips, and to rejoice in his name. 21 And they bowed themselves down to worship the second time, that they might receive a blessing from the most High. 22 Now therefore bless ye the God of all, which only doeth wondrous things every where, which exalteth our days from the womb, and dealeth with us according to his mercy. 23 He grant us joyfulness of heart, and that peace may be in our days in Israel for ever 24 That he would confirm his mercy with us, and deliver us at his time! 25 There be two manner of nations which my heart abhorreth, and the third is no nation 96 26 They that sit upon the mountain of Samaria, and they that dwell among the Philistines, and that foolish people that dwell in Sichem. 27 Jesus the son of Sirach of Jerusalem hath written in this book the instruction of understanding and knowledge, who out of his heart poured forth wisdom. 28 Blessed is he that shall be exercised in these things; and he that layeth them up in his heart shall become wise. 29 For if he do them, he shall be strong to all things for the light of the Lord leadeth him, who giveth wisdom to the godly. Blessed be the name of the Lord for ever. Amen, Amen.

I will thank thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Saviour I do give praise unto thy name [2] For thou art my defender and helper, and has preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and has been mine helper against mine adversaries [3] And hast delivered me, according to the multitude of they mercies and greatness of thy name, from the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had; [4] From the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not; [5] From the depth of the belly of hell, from an unclean tongue, and from lying words. [6] By an accusation to the king from an unrighteous tongue my soul drew near even unto death, my life was near to the hell beneath. [7] They compassed me on every side, and there was no man to help me I looked for the succour of men, but there was none. [8] Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies. [9] Then lifted I up my supplications from the earth, and prayed for deliverance from death. [10] I called upon the Lord, the Father of my Lord, that he would not leave me in the days of my trouble, and in the time of the proud, when there was no help. [11] I will praise thy name continually, and will sing praises with thanksgiving; and so my prayer was heard [12] For thou savedst me from destruction, and deliveredst me from the evil time therefore will I give thanks, and praise thee, and bless they name, O Lord. [13] When I was yet young, or ever I went abroad, I desired wisdom openly in my prayer. [14] I prayed for her before the temple, and will seek her out even to the end. [15] Even from the flower till the grape was ripe hath my heart delighted in her my foot went the right way, from my youth up sought I after her. [16] I bowed down mine ear a little, and received her, and gat much learning. [17] I profited therein, therefore will I ascribe glory unto him that giveth me wisdom. [18] For I purposed to do after her, and earnestly I followed that which is good; so shall I not be confounded. [19] My soul hath wrestled with her, and in my doings I was exact I stretched forth my hands to the heaven above, and bewailed my ignorances of her. [20] I directed my soul unto her, and I found her in pureness I have had my heart joined with her from the beginning, therefore shall I not be foresaken. [21] My heart was troubled in seeking her therefore have I gotten a good possession. [22] The Lord hath given me a tongue for my reward, and I will praise him therewith. [23] Draw near unto me, ye unlearned, and dwell in the house of learning. [24] Wherefore are ye slow, and what say ye to these things, seeing your souls are very thirsty? [25] I opened my mouth, and said, Buy her for yourselves without money. [26] Put your neck under the yoke, and let your soul receive instruction she is hard at hand to find. [27] Behold with your eyes, how that I have but little labour, and have gotten unto me much rest. [28] Get learning with a great sum of money, and get much gold by her. [29] Let your soul rejoice in his mercy, and be not ashamed of his praise. 30 Work your work betimes, and in his time he will give you your reward.

Baruch
With the Epistle of Jeremiah

And these are the words of the book, which Baruch the son of Nerias, the son of Maasias, the son of Sedecias, the son of Asadias, the son of Chelcias, wrote in Babylon. 2 In the fifth year, and in the seventh day of the month, what time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire. 3 And Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of Jechonias the son of Joachim king of Juda, and in the ears of all the people that came to hear the book, 4 And in the hearing of the nobles, and of the kings' sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and of all the people, from the lowest unto the highest, even of all them that dwelt at Babylon by the river Sud. 5 Whereupon they wept, fasted, and prayed before the Lord. 6 They made also a collection of money according to every man's power 7 And they sent it to Jerusalem unto Joachim the high priest, the son of Chelcias, son of Salom, and to the priests, and to all the people which were found with him at Jerusalem, 8 At the same time when he received the vessels of the house of the Lord, that were carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Juda, the tenth day of the month Sivan, namely, silver vessels, which Sedecias the son of Josias king of Juda had made, 9 After that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had carried away Jechonias, and the princes, and the captives, and the mighty men, and the people of the land, from Jerusalem, and brought them unto Babylon. 10 And they said, Behold, we have sent you money to buy you burnt offerings, and sin offerings, and incense, and prepare ye manna, and offer upon the altar of the Lord our God; 11 And pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of Balthasar his son, that their days may be upon earth as the days of heaven 12 And the Lord will give us strength, and lighten our eyes, and we shall live under the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and under the shadow of Balthasar his son, and we shall serve them many days, and find favour in their sight. 13 Pray for us also unto the Lord our God, for we have sinned against the Lord our God; and unto this day the fury of the Lord and his wrath is not turned from us. 14 And ye shall read this book which we have sent unto you, to make confession in the house of the Lord, upon the feasts and solemn days. 15 And ye shall say, To the Lord our God belongeth righteousness, but unto us the confusion of faces, as it is come to pass this day, unto them of Juda, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 16 And to our kings, and to our princes, and to our priests, and to our prophets, and to our fathers 17 For we have sinned before the Lord, 18 And disobeyed him, and have not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in the commandments that he gave us openly 19 Since the day that the Lord brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, unto this present day, we have been disobedient unto the Lord our God, and we have been negligent in not hearing his voice. 20 Wherefore the evils cleaved unto us, and the curse, which the Lord appointed by Moses his servant at the time that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to give us a land that floweth with milk and honey, like as it is to see this day. 21 Nevertheless we have not hearkened unto the voice of the Lord our God, according unto all the words of the prophets, whom he sent unto us 22 But every man followed the imagination of his own wicked heart, to serve strange gods, and to do evil in the sight of the Lord our God.

Therefore the Lord hath made good his word, which he pronounced against us, and against our judges that judged Israel, and against our kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Juda, 2 To bring upon us great plagues, such as never happened under the whole heaven, as it came to pass in Jerusalem, according to the things that were written in the law of Moses; 3 That a man should eat the flesh of his own son, and the flesh of his own daughter. 4 Moreover he hath delivered them to be in subjection to all the kingdoms that are round about us, to be as a reproach and desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them. 5 Thus we were cast down, and not exalted, because we have sinned against the Lord our God, and have not been obedient unto his voice. 6 To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousness but unto us and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day. 7 For all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord hath pronounced against us. 8 Yet have we not prayed before the Lord, that we might turn every one from the imaginations of his wicked heart. 9 Wherefore the Lord watched over us for evil, and the Lord hath brought it upon us for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he hath commanded us. 10 Yet we have not

hearkened unto his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord, that he hath set before us. 11 And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and high arm, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thyself a name, as appeareth this day 12 O Lord our God, we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances. 13 Let thy wrath turn from us for we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us. 14 Hear our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliver us for thine own sake, and give us favour in the sight of them which have led us away 15 That all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, because Israel and his posterity is called by thy name. 16 O Lord, look down from thy holy house, and consider us bow down thine ear, O Lord, to hear us. 17 Open thine eyes, and behold; for the dead that are in the graves, whose souls are taken from their bodies, will give unto the Lord neither praise nor righteousness 18 But the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give thee praise and righteousness, O Lord. 19 Therefore we do not make our humble supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings. 20 For thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by thy servants the prophets, saying, 21 Thus saith the Lord, Bow down your shoulders to serve the king of Babylon so shall ye remain in the land that I gave unto your fathers. 22 But if ye will not hear the voice of the Lord, to serve the king of Babylon, 23 I will cause to cease out of the cites of Judah, and from without Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of joy, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride and the whole land shall be desolate of inhabitants. 24 But we would not hearken unto thy voice, to serve the king of Babylon therefore hast thou made good the words that thou spakest by thy servants the prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers, should be taken out of their place. 25 And, lo, they are cast out to the heat of the day, and to the frost of the night, and they died in great miseries by famine, by sword, and by pestilence. 26 And the house which is called by thy name hast thou laid waste, as it is to be seen this day, for the wickedness of the house of Israel and the house of Juda. 27 O Lord our God, thou hast dealt with us after all thy goodness, and according to all that great mercy of thine, 28 As thou spakest by thy servant Moses in the day when thou didst command him to write thy law before the children of Israel, saying, 29 If ye will not hear my voice, surely this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the nations, where I will scatter them. 30 For I knew that they would not hear me, because it is a stiffnecked people but in the land of their captivities they shall remember themselves, 31 And shall know that I am the Lord their God for I will give them an heart, and ears to hear 32 And they shall praise me in the land of their captivity, and think upon my name, [33] And return from their stiff neck, and from their wicked deeds for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord. [34] And I will bring them again into the land which I promised with an oath unto their fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and they shall be lords of it and I will increase them, and they shall not be diminished. [35] And I will make an everlasting covenant with them to be their God, and they shall be my people and I will no more drive my people of Israel out of the land that I have given them.

O Lord Almighty, God of Israel, the soul in anguish the troubled spirit, crieth unto thee. [2] Hear, O Lord, and have mercy; for thou art merciful and have pity upon us, because we have sinned before thee. [3] For thou endurest for ever, and we perish utterly. [4] O Lord Almighty, thou God of Israel, hear now the prayers of the dead Israelites, and of their children, which have sinned before thee, and not hearkened unto the voice of thee their God for the which cause these plagues cleave unto us. [5] Remember not the iniquities of our forefathers but think upon thy power and thy name now at this time. [6] For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise. [7] And for this cause thou hast put thy fear in our hearts, to the intent that we should call upon thy name, and praise thee in our captivity for we have called to mind all the iniquity of our forefathers, that sinned before thee. [8] Behold, we are yet this day in our captivity, where thou hast scattered us, for a reproach and a curse, and to be subject to payments, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which departed from the Lord our God. [9] Hear, Israel, the commandments of life give ear to understand wisdom. [10] How happeneth it Israel, that thou art in thine enemies' land, that thou art waxen old in a strange country, that thou art defiled with the dead, [11] That thou art counted with them that go down into the grave? [12] Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisdom. [13] For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldest have dwelled in peace for ever. [14] Learn where is wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding; that thou mayest know also where is length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace. [15] Who hath found out her place? or who hath come into her treasures ? [16] Where are the princes of the heathen become, and such as ruled the beasts upon the earth; [17] They that had their pastime with the fowls of the air, and they that hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust, and made no end of their getting? [18] For they that wrought in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are unsearchable, [19] They are vanished and gone down to the grave, and others are come up in their steads. [20] Young men have seen light, and dwelt upon the earth but the way of knowledge have they not known, [21] Nor understood the paths thereof, nor laid hold of it their children were far off from that way. [22] It hath not been heard of in Chanaan, neither hath it been seen in Theman. [23] The Agarenes that seek wisdom upon earth, the merchants of Meran and of Theman, the authors of fables, and searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remember her paths. [24] O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession! [25] Great, and hath none end; high, and unmeasurable. [26] There were the giants famous from the beginning, that were of so great stature, and so expert in war. [27] Those did not the Lord choose, neither gave he the way of knowledge unto them [28] But they were destroyed, because they had no wisdom, and perished through their own foolishness. [29] Who hath gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds? [30] Who hath gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her for pure gold? [31] No man knoweth her way, nor thinketh of her path. [32] But he that knoweth all things knoweth her, and hath found her out with his understanding he that prepared the earth for evermore hath filled it with fourfooted beasts [33] He that sendeth forth light, and it goeth, calleth it again, and it obeyeth him with fear. [34] The stars shined in their watches, and rejoiced when he calleth them, they say, Here we be; and so with cheerfulness they shewed light unto him that made them. [35] This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him. [36] He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath given it unto Jacob his servant, and to Israel his beloved. [37] Afterward did he shew himself upon earth, and conversed with men.

This is the book of the commandments of God, and the law that endureth for ever all they that keep it shall come to life; but such as leave it shall die. [2] Turn thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it walk in the presence of the light thereof, that thou mayest be illuminated. [3] Give not thine honour to another, nor the things that are profitable unto thee to a strange nation. [4] O Israel, happy are we for things that are pleasing to God are made known unto us. [5] Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel. [6] Ye were sold to the nations, not for [your] destruction but because ye moved God to wrath, ye were delivered unto the enemies. [7] For ye provoked him that made you by sacrificing unto devils, and not to God. [8] Ye have forgotten the everlasting God, that brought you up; and ye have grieved Jerusalem, that nursed you. [9] For when she saw the wrath of God coming upon you, she said, Hearken, O ye that dwell about Sion God hath brought upon me great mourning; [10] For I saw the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting brought upon them. [11] With joy did I nourish them; but sent them away with weeping and mourning. [1] [2] Let no man rejoice over me, a widow, and forsaken of many, who for the sins of my children am left desolate; because they departed from the law of God. [13] They knew not his statutes, nor walked in the ways of his commandments, nor trod in the paths of discipline in his righteousness. [14] Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember ye the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting hath brought upon them. [15] For he hath brought a nation upon them from far, a shameless nation, and of a strange language, who neither reverenced old man, nor pitied child. [16] These have carried away the dear beloved children of the widow, and left her that was alone desolate without daughters. [17] But what can I help you? [18] For he that brought these plagues upon you will deliver you from the hands of your enemies. [19] Go your way, O my children, go your way for I am left desolate. [20] I have put off the clothing of peace, and put upon me the sackcloth of my prayer I will cry unto the Everlasting in my days. [21] Be of good cheer, O my children, cry unto the Lord, and he shall deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies. [2 2] For my hope is in the Everlasting, that he will save you; and joy is come unto me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come unto you from the Everlasting our Saviour. [23] For I sent you out with mourning and weeping but God will give you to me again with joy and gladness for ever. [24] Like as now the neighbours of Sion have seen your captivity so shall they see shortly your salvation from our God, which shall come upon you with great glory, and brightness of the Everlasting. [25] My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you from God for thine enemy hath persecuted thee; but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt tread upon his neck. [26] My delicate ones have gone rough ways, and were taken away as a flock caught of the enemies. [27] Be of good comfort, O my children, and cry unto God for ye shall be remembered of him that brought these things upon you. [28] For as it was your mind to go astray from God so, being returned, seek him ten times more. [29] For he that hath brought these plagues upon you shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation. [30] Take a good heart, O Jerusalem for he that gave thee that name will comfort thee. [31] Miserable are they that afflicted thee, and rejoiced at thy fall. [3 2] Miserable are the cities which thy children served miserable is she that received thy sons. [33] For as she rejoiced at thy ruin, and was glad of thy fall so shall she be grieved for her own desolation. [34] For I will take away the rejoicing of her great multitude, and her pride shall be turned into mourning. [35] For fire shall come upon her from the Everlasting, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited of devils for a great time. [36] O Jerusalem, look about thee toward the east, and behold the joy that cometh unto thee from God. [37] Lo, thy sons come, whom thou sentest away, they come gathered together from the east to the west by the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the glory of God.

Put off, O Jerusalem, the garment of mourning and affliction, and put on the comeliness of the glory that cometh from God for ever. [2] Cast about thee a double garment of the righteousness which cometh from God; and set a diadem on thine head of the glory of the Everlasting. [3] For God will shew thy brightness unto every country under heaven. [4] For thy name shall be called of God for ever The peace of righteousness, and The glory of God's worship. [5] Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and look about toward the east, and behold thy children gathered from the west unto the east by the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the remembrance of God. [6] For they departed from thee on foot, and were led away of their enemies but God bringeth them unto thee exalted with glory, as children of the kingdom. [7] For God hath appointed that every high hill, and banks of long continuance, should be cast down, and valleys filled up, to make even the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God, [8] Moreover even the woods and every sweetsmelling tree shall overshadow Israel by the commandment of God. [9] For God shall lead Israel with joy in the light of his glory with the mercy and righteousness that cometh from him.

THE EPISTLE OF JEREMY

A copy of an epistle, which Jeremy sent unto them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them, as it was commanded him of God.

Because of the sins which ye have committed before God, ye shall be led away captives into Babylon by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians. 3 So when ye be come unto Babylon, ye shall remain there many years, and for a long season, namely, seven generations and after that I will bring you away peaceably from thence. 4 Now shall ye see in Babylon gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, borne upon shoulders, which cause the nations to fear. 5 Beware therefore that ye in no wise be like to strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them. 6 But say ye in your hearts, O Lord, we must worship thee. 7 For mine angel is with you, and I myself caring for your souls. 8 As for their tongue, it is polished by the workman, and they themselves are gilded and laid over with silver; yet are they but false, and cannot speak. 9 And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loveth to go gay, they make crowns for the heads of their gods. 10 Sometimes also the priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves. 11 Yea, they will give thereof to the common harlots, and deck them as men with garments, [being] gods of silver, and gods of gold, and wood. 12 Yet cannot these gods save themselves from rust and moth, though they be covered with purple raiment. 13 They wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, when there is much upon them. 14 And he that cannot put to death one that offendeth him holdeth a sceptre, as though he were a judge of the country. 15 He hath also in his right hand a dagger and an ax but cannot deliver himself from war and thieves. 16 Whereby they are known not to be gods therefore fear them not. 17 For like as a vessel that a man useth is nothing worth when it is broken; even so it is with their gods when they be set up in the temple, their eyes be full of dust through the feet of them that come in. 18 And as the doors are made sure on every side upon him that offendeth the king, as being committed to suffer death even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, lest their gods be spoiled with robbers. 19 They light them candles, yea, more than for themselves, whereof they cannot see one. 20 They are as one of the beams of the temple, yet they say their hearts are gnawed upon by things creeping out of the earth; and when they eat them and their clothes, they feel it not. 21 Their faces are blacked through the smoke that cometh out of the temple. 22 Upon their bodies and heads sit bats, swallows, and birds, and the cats also. 23 By this ye may know that they are no gods therefore fear them not. [24] Notwithstanding the gold that is about them to make them beautiful, except they wipe off the rust, they will not shine for neither when they were molten did they feel it. [25] The things wherein there is no breath are bought for a most high price. [26] They are borne upon shoulders, having no feet whereby they declare unto men that they be nothing worth. [27] They also that serve them are ashamed for if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise up again of themselves neither, if one set them upright, can they move of themselves neither, if they be bowed down, can they make themselves straight but they set gifts before them, as unto dead men. [28] As for the things that are sacrificed unto them, their priests sell and abuse; in like manner their wives lay up part thereof in salt; but unto the poor and impotent they give nothing of it. [29] Menstruous women and women in childbed eat their sacrifices by these things ye may know that they are no gods fear them not. [30] For how can they be called gods? because women set meat before the gods of silver, gold, and wood. [31] And the priests sit in their temples, having their clothes rent, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads. [3 2] They roar and cry before their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead. [33] The priests also take off their garments, and clothe their wives and children. [34] Whether it be evil that one doeth unto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it they can neither set up a king, nor put him down. [35] In like manner, they can neither give riches nor money though a man make a vow unto them, and keep it not, they will not require it. [36] They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty. [37] They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor help any man in his distress. [38] They can shew no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless. [39] Their gods of wood, and which are overlaid with gold and silver, are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain they that worship them shall be confounded. [40] How should a man then think and say that they are gods, when even the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them? [41] Who if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they bring him, and intreat Bel that he may speak, as though he were able to understand. [4 2] Yet they cannot understand this themselves, and leave them for they have no knowledge. [43] The women also with cords about them, sitting in the ways, burn bran for perfume but if any of them, drawn by some that passeth by, lie with him, she reproacheth her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken. [44] Whatsoever is done among them is false how may it then be thought or said that they are gods? [45] They are made of carpenters and goldsmiths they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be. [46] And they themselves that made them can never continue long; how should then the things that are made of them be gods? [47] For they left lies and reproaches to them that come after. [48] For when there cometh any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them. [49] How then cannot men perceive that they be no gods, which can neither save themselves from war, nor from plague? [50] For seeing they be but of wood, and overlaid with silver and gold, it shall be known hereafter that they are false [51] And it shall manifestly appear to all nations and kings that they are no gods, but the works of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them. [52] Who then may not know that they are no gods? [53] For neither can they set up a king in the land, nor give rain unto men. [54] Neither can they judge their own cause, nor redress a wrong, being unable for they are as crows between heaven and earth. [55] Whereupon when fire falleth upon the house of gods of wood, or laid over with gold or silver, their priests will flee away, and escape; but they themselves shall be burned asunder like beams. [56] Moreover they cannot withstand any king or enemies how can it then be thought or said that they be gods? [57] Neither are those gods of wood, and laid over with silver or gold, able to escape either from thieves or robbers. [58] Whose gold, and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong do take, and go away withal neither are they able to help themselves. [59] Therefore it is better to be a king that sheweth his power, or else a profitable vessel in an house, which the owner shall have use of, than such false gods; or to be a door in an house, to keep such things safe as be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false gods. [60] For sun, moon, and stars, being bright, and sent to do their offices, are obedient. [61] In like manner the lightning when it breaketh forth is easy to be seen; and after the same manner the wind bloweth in every country. [62] And when God commandeth the clouds to go over the whole world, they do as they are bidden. [63] And the fire sent from above to consume hills and woods doeth as it is commanded but these are like unto them neither in shew nor power. [64] Wherefore it is neither to be supposed nor said that they are gods, seeing they are able neither to judge causes, nor to do good unto men. [65] Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not. [66] For they can neither curse nor bless kings [67] Neither can they shew signs in the heavens among the heathen, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon. [68] The beasts are better than they for they can get under a covert, and help themselves. [69] It is then by no means manifest unto us that they are gods therefore fear them not. [70] For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing so are their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold. [71] And likewise their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sitteth upon; as also to a dead body, that is cast into the dark. [72] And ye shall know them to be no gods by the bright purple that rotteth upon them and they themselves afterward shall be eaten, and shall be a reproach in the country. [73] Better therefore is the just man that hath none idols for he shall be far from reproach.

First Maccabees

And it happened, after that Alexander son of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of Chettiim, had smitten Darius king of the Persians and Medes, that he reigned in his stead, the first over Greece, [2] And made many wars, and won many strong holds, and slew the kings of the earth, [3] And went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of many nations, insomuch that the earth was quiet before him; whereupon he was exalted and his heart was lifted up. [4] And he gathered a mighty strong host and ruled over countries, and nations, and kings, who became tributaries unto him. [5] And after these things he fell sick, and perceived that he should die. [6] Wherefore he called his servants, such as were honourable, and had been brought up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive. [7] So Alexander reigned twelves years, and then died. [8] And his servants bare rule every one in his place. [9] And after his death they all put crowns upon themselves; so did their sons after them many years and evils were multiplied in the earth. [10] And there came out of them a wicked root Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the king, who had been an hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundred and thirty and seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks. [11] In those days went there out of Israel wicked men, who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us for since we departed from them we have had much sorrow. [12] So this device pleased them well. [13] Then certain of the people were so forward herein, that they went to the king, who gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the heathen [14] Whereupon they built a place of exercise at Jerusalem according to the customs of the heathen [15] And made themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the heathen, and were sold to do mischief. [16] Now when the kingdom was established before Antiochus, he thought to reign over Egypt that he might have the dominion of two realms. [17]

Wherefore he entered into Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy, [18] And made war against Ptolemee king of Egypt but Ptolemee was afraid of him, and fled; and many were wounded to death. [19] Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt and he took the spoils thereof. [20] And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he returned again in the hundred forty and third year, and went up against Israel and Jerusalem with a great multitude, [21] And entered proudly into the sanctuary, and took away the golden altar, and the candlestick of light, and all the vessels thereof, [22] And the table of the shewbread, and the pouring vessels, and the vials. and the censers of gold, and the veil, and the crown, and the golden ornaments that were before the temple, all which he pulled off. [23] He took also the silver and the gold, and the precious vessels also he took the hidden treasures which he found. [24] And when he had taken all away, he went into his own land, having made a great massacre, and spoken very proudly. [25] Therefore there was a great mourning in Israel, in every place where they were; [26] So that the princes and elders mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of women was changed. [27] Every bridegroom took up lamentation, and she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness, [28] The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion. [29] And after two years fully expired the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jerusalem with a great multitude, [30] And spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel. [31] And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire, and pulled down the houses and walls thereof on every side. [32] But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattle. [33] Then builded they the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with mighty towers, and made it a strong hold for them. [34] And they put therein a sinful nation, wicked men, and fortified themselves therein. [35] They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and so they became a sore snare [36] For it was a place to lie in wait against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel. [37] Thus they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it [38] Insomuch that the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her; and her own children left her. [39] Her sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, her feasts were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach her honour into contempt. [40] As had been her glory, so was her dishonour increased, and her excellency was turned into mourning. [41] Moreover king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, [42] And every one should leave his laws so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king. [43] Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath. [44] For the king had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Juda that they should follow the strange laws of the land, [45] And forbid burnt offerings, and sacrifice, and drink offerings, in the temple; and that they should profane the sabbaths and festival days [46] And pollute the sanctuary and holy people [47] Set up altars, and groves, and chapels of idols, and sacrifice swine's flesh, and unclean beasts [48] That they should also leave their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation [49] To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances. [50] And whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, he said, he should die. [51] In the selfsame manner wrote he to his whole kingdom, and appointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Juda to sacrifice, city by city. [52] Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land; [53] And drove the Israelites into secret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succour. [54] Now the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and fifth year, they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar, and builded idol altars throughout the cities of Juda on every side; [55] And burnt incense at the doors of their houses, and in the streets. [56] And when they had rent in pieces the books of the law which they found, they burnt them with fire. [57] And whosoever was found with any the book of the testament, or if any committed to the law, the king's commandment was, that they should put him to death. [58] Thus did they by their authority unto the Israelites every month, to as many as were found in the cities. [59] Now the five and twentieth day of the month they did sacrifice upon the idol altar, which was upon the altar of God. [60] At which time according to the commandment they put to death certain women, that had caused their children to be circumcised. [61] And they hanged the infants about their necks, and rifled their houses, and slew them that had circumcised them. [62] Howbeit many in Israel were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat any unclean thing. [63] Wherefore the rather to die, that they might not be defiled with meats, and that they might not profane the holy covenant so then they died. [64] And there was very great wrath upon Israel.

In those days arose Mattathias the son of John, the son of Simeon, a priest of the sons of Joarib, from Jerusalem, and dwelt in Modin. [2] And he had five sons, Joannan, called

Caddis [3] Simon; called Thassi [4] Judas, who was called Maccabeus [5] Eleazar, called Avaran and Jonathan, whose surname was Apphus. [6] And when he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Juda and Jerusalem, [7] He said, Woe is me! wherefore was I born to see this misery of my people, and of the holy city, and to dwell there, when it was delivered into the hand of the enemy, and the sanctuary into the hand of strangers? [8] Her temple is become as a man without glory. [9] Her glorious vessels are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in the streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy. [10] What nation hath not had a part in her kingdom and gotten of her spoils? [11] All her ornaments are taken away; of a free woman she is become a bondslave. [12] And, behold, our sanctuary, even our beauty and our glory, is laid waste, and the Gentiles have profaned it. [13] To what end therefore shall we live any longer? [14] Then Mattathias and his sons rent their clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourned very sore. [15] In the mean while the king's officers, such as compelled the people to revolt, came into the city Modin, to make them sacrifice. [16] And when many of Israel came unto them, Mattathias also and his sons came together. [17] Then answered the king's officers, and said to Mattathias on this wise, Thou art a ruler, and an honourable and great man in this city, and strengthened with sons and brethren [18] Now therefore come thou first, and fulfil the king's commandment, like as all the heathen have done, yea, and the men of Juda also, and such as remain at Jerusalem so shalt thou and thy house be in the number of the king's friends, and thou and thy children shall be honoured with silver and gold, and many rewards. [19] Then Mattathias answered and spake with a loud voice, Though all the nations that are under the king's dominion obey him, and fall away every one from the religion of their fathers, and give consent to his commandments [20] Yet will I and my sons and my brethren walk in the covenant of our fathers. [21] God forbid that we should forsake the law and the ordinances. [22] We will not hearken to the king's words, to go from our religion, either on the right hand, or the left. [23] Now when he had left speaking these words, there came one of the Jews in the sight of all to sacrifice on the altar which was at Modin, according to the king's commandment. [24] Which thing when Mattathias saw, he was inflamed with zeal, and his reins trembled, neither could he forbear to shew his anger according to judgment wherefore he ran, and slew him upon the altar. [25] Also the king's commissioner, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time, and the altar he pulled down. [26] Thus dealt he zealously for the law of God like as Phinees did unto Zambri the son of Salom. [27] And Mattathias cried throughout the city with a loud voice, saying, Whosoever is zealous of the law, and maintaineth the covenant, let him follow me. [28] So he and his sons fled into the mountains, and left all that ever they had in the city. [29] Then many that sought after justice and judgment went down into the wilderness, to dwell there [30] Both they, and their children, and their wives; and their cattle; because afflictions increased sore upon them. [31] Now when it was told the king's servants, and the host that was at Jerusalem, in the city of David, that certain men, who had broken the king's commandment, were gone down into the secret places in the wilderness, [32] They pursued after them a great number, and having overtaken them, they camped against them, and made war against them on the sabbath day. [33] And they said unto them, Let that which ye have done hitherto suffice; come forth, and do according to the commandment of the king, and ye shall live. [34] But they said, We will not come forth, neither will we do the king's commandment, to profane the sabbath day. [35] So then they gave them the battle with all speed. [36] Howbeit they answered them not, neither cast they a stone at them, nor stopped the places where they lay hid; [37] But said, Let us die all in our innocency heaven and earth will testify for us, that ye put us to death wrongfully. [38] So they rose up against them in battle on the sabbath, and they slew them, with their wives and children and their cattle, to the number of a thousand people. [39] Now when Mattathias and his friends understood hereof, they mourned for them right sore. [40] And one of them said to another, If we all do as our brethren have done, and fight not for our lives and laws against the heathen, they will now quickly root us out of the earth. [41] At that time therefore they decreed, saying, Whosoever shall come to make battle with us on the sabbath day, we will fight against him; neither will we die all, as our brethren that were murdered in the secret places. [42] Then came there unto him a company of Assideans who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily devoted unto the law. [43] Also all they that fled for persecution joined themselves unto them, and were a stay unto them. [44] So they joined their forces, and smote sinful men in their anger, and wicked men in their wrath but the rest fled to the heathen for succour. [45] Then Mattathias and his friends went round about, and pulled down the altars [46] And what children soever they found within the coast of Israel uncircumcised, those they circumcised valiantly. [47] They pursued also after the proud men, and the work prospered in their hand. [48] So they recovered the law out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of kings, neither suffered they the sinner to triumph. [49] Now when the time drew near that Mattathias should die, he said unto his sons, Now hath pride and rebuke gotten strength, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation [50] Now therefore, my sons, be ye zealous for the law, and give your lives for the covenant of your fathers. [51] Call to remembrance what acts our fathers did in their time; so shall ye receive great honour and an everlasting name. [52] Was not Abraham found faithful in temptation, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness? [53] Joseph in the time of his distress kept the commandment and was made lord of Egypt. [54] Phinees our father in being zealous and fervent obtained the covenant of an everlasting priesthood. [55] Jesus for fulfilling the word was made a judge in Israel. [56] Caleb for bearing witness before the congregation received the heritage of the land. [57] David for being merciful possessed the throne of an everlasting kingdom. [58] Elias for being zealous and fervent for the law was taken up into heaven. [59] Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, by believing were saved out of the flame. [60] Daniel for his innocency was delivered from the mouth of lions. [61] And thus consider ye throughout all ages, that none that put their trust in him shall be overcome. [62] Fear not then the words of a sinful man for his glory shall be dung and worms. [63] To day he shall be lifted up and to morrow he shall not be found, because he is returned into his dust, and his thought is come to nothing. [64] Wherefore, ye my sons, be valiant and shew yourselves men in the behalf of the law; for by it shall ye obtain glory. [65] And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counsel, give ear unto him alway he shall be a father unto you. [66] As for Judas Maccabeus, he hath been mighty and strong, even from his youth up let him be your captain, and fight the battle of the people. [67] Take also unto you all those that observe the law, and avenge ye the wrong of your people. [68] Recompense fully the heathen, and take heed to the commandments of the law. [69] So he blessed them, and was gathered to his fathers. [70] And he died in the hundred forty and sixth year, and his sons buried him in the sepulchres of his fathers at Modin, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

Then his son Judas, called Maccabeus, rose up in his stead. [2] And all his brethren helped him, and so did all they that held with his father, and they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel. [3] So he gat his people great honour, and put on a breastplate as a giant, and girt his warlike harness about him, and he made battles, protecting the host with his sword. [4] In his acts he was like a lion, and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey. [5] For He pursued the wicked, and sought them out, and burnt up those that vexed his people. [6] Wherefore the wicked shrunk for fear of him, and all the workers of iniquity were troubled, because salvation prospered in his hand. [7] He grieved also many kings, and made Jacob glad with his acts, and his memorial is blessed for ever. [8] Moreover he went through the cities of Juda, destroying the ungodly out of them, and turning away wrath from Israel [9] So that he was renowned unto the utmost part of the earth, and he received unto him such as were ready to perish. [10] Then Apollonius gathered the Gentiles together, and a great host out of Samaria, to fight against Israel. 11 Which thing when Judas perceived, he went forth to meet him, and so he smote him, and slew him many also fell down slain, but the rest fled. 12 Wherefore Judas took their spoils, and Apollonius' sword also, and therewith he fought all his life long. 13 Now when Seron, a prince of the army of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered unto him a multitude and company of the faithful to go out with him to war; 14 He said, I will get me a name and honour in the kingdom; for I will go fight with Judas and them that are with him, who despise the king's commandment. 15 So he made him ready to go up, and there went with him a mighty host of the ungodly to help him, and to be avenged of the children of Israel. 16 And when he came near to the going up of Bethhoron, Judas went forth to meet him with a small company 17 Who, when they saw the host coming to meet them, said unto Judas, How shall we be able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, seeing we are ready to faint with fasting all this day? 18 Unto whom Judas answered, It is no hard matter for many to be shut up in the hands of a few; and with the God of heaven it is all one, to deliver with a great multitude, or a small company 19 For the victory of battle standeth not in the multitude of an host; but strength cometh from heaven. 20 They come against us in much pride and iniquity to destroy us, and our wives and children, and to spoil us 21 But we fight for our lives and our laws. 22 Wherefore the Lord himself will overthrow them before our face and as for you, be ye not afraid of them. 23 Now as soon as he had left off speaking, he leapt suddenly upon them, and so Seron and his host was overthrown before him. 24 And they pursued them from the going down of Bethhoron unto the plain, where were slain about eight hundred men of them; and the residue fled into the land of the Philistines. 25 Then began the fear of Judas and his brethren, and an exceeding great dread, to fall upon the nations round about them 26 Insomuch as his fame came unto the king, and all nations talked of the battles of Judas. 27 Now when king Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation wherefore he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, even a very strong army. 28 He opened also his treasure, and gave his soldiers pay for a year, commanding them to be ready whensoever he should need them. 29 Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasures failed and that the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissension and plague, which he had brought upon the land in taking away the laws which had been of old time; 30 He feared that he should not be able to bear the charges any longer, nor to have such gifts to give so liberally as he did before for he had abounded above the kings that were before him. 31 Wherefore, being greatly perplexed in his mind, he determined to go into Persia, there to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money. 32 So he left Lysias, a nobleman, and one of the blood royal, to oversee the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt [33] And to bring up his son Antiochus, until he came again. [34] Moreover he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Juda and Jerusalem [35] To wit, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away their memorial from that place; [36] And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot. [37] So the king took the half of the forces that remained, and departed from Antioch, his royal city, the hundred forty and seventh year; and having passed the river Euphrates, he went through the high countries. [38] Then Lysias chose Ptolemee the son of Dorymenes, Nicanor, and Gorgias, mighty men of the king's friends [39] And with them he sent forty thousand footmen, and seven thousand horsemen, to go into the land of Juda, and to destroy it, as the king commanded. [40] So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by Emmaus in the plain country. [41] And the merchants of the country, hearing the fame of them, took silver and gold very much, with servants, and came into the camp to buy the children of Israel for slaves a power also of Syria and of the land of the Philistines joined themselves unto them. [42] Now when Judas and his brethren saw that miseries were multiplied, and that the forces did encamp themselves in their borders for they knew how the king had given commandment to destroy the people, and utterly abolish them; [43] They said one to another, Let us restore the decayed fortune of our people, and let us fight for our people and the sanctuary. [44] Then was the congregation gathered together, that they might be ready for battle, and that they might pray, and ask mercy and compassion. [45] Now Jerusalem lay void as a wilderness, there was none of her children that went in or out the sanctuary also was trodden down, and aliens kept the strong hold; the heathen had their habitation in that place; and joy was taken from Jacob, and the pipe with the harp ceased. [46] Wherefore the Israelites assembled themselves together, and came to Maspha, over against Jerusalem; for in Maspha was the place where they prayed aforetime in Israel. [47] Then they fasted that day, and put on sackcloth, and cast ashes upon their heads, and rent their clothes, [48] And laid open the book of the law, wherein the heathen had sought to paint the likeness of their images. [49] They brought also the priests' garments, and the firstfruits, and the tithes and the Nazarites they stirred up, who had accomplished their days. [50] Then cried they with a loud voice toward heaven, saying, What shall we do with these, and whither shall we carry them away? [51] For thy sanctuary is trodden down and profaned, and thy priests are in heaviness, and brought low. [52] And lo, the heathen are assembled together against us to destroy us what things they imagine against us, thou knowest. [53] How shall we be able to stand against them, except thou, O God, be our help? [54] Then sounded they with trumpets, and cried with a loud voice. 55 And after this Judas ordained captains over the people, even captains over thousands, and over hundreds, and over fifties, and over tens. 56 But as for such as were building houses, or had betrothed wives, or were planting vineyards, or were fearful, those he commanded that they should return, every man to his own house, according to the law. 57 So the camp removed, and pitched upon the south side of Emmaus. 58 And Judas said, arm yourselves, and be valiant men, and see that ye be in readiness against the morning, that ye may fight with these nations, that are assembled together against us to destroy us and our sanctuary 59 For it is better for us to die in battle, than to behold the calamities of our people and our sanctuary. 60 Nevertheless, as the will of God is in heaven, so let him do.

Then took Gorgias five thousand footmen, and a thousand of the best horsemen, and removed out of the camp by night; 2 To the end he might rush in upon the camp of the Jews, and smite them suddenly. And the men of the fortress were his guides. 3 Now when Judas heard thereof he himself removed, and the valiant men with him, that he might smite the king's army which was at Emmaus, 4 While as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp. 5 In the mean season came Gorgias by night into the camp of Judas and when he found no man there, he sought them in the mountains for said he, These fellows flee from us 6 But as soon as it was day, Judas shewed himself in the plain with three thousand men, who nevertheless had neither armour nor swords to their minds. 7 And they saw the camp of the heathen, that it was strong and well harnessed, and compassed round about with horsemen; and these were expert of war. 8 Then said Judas to the men that were with him, Fear ye not their multitude, neither be ye afraid of their assault. 9 Remember how our fathers were delivered in the Red sea, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army. 10 Now therefore let us cry unto heaven, if peradventure the Lord will have mercy upon us, and remember the covenant of our fathers, and destroy this host before our face this day 11 That so all the heathen may know that there is one who delivereth and saveth Israel. 12 Then the strangers lifted up their eyes, and saw them coming over against them. 13 Wherefore they went out of the camp to battle; but they that were with Judas sounded their trumpets. 14 So they joined battle, and the heathen being discomfited fled into the plain. 15 Howbeit all the hindmost of them were slain with the sword for they pursued them unto Gazera, and unto the plains of Idumea, and Azotus, and Jamnia, so that there were slain of them upon a three thousand men. 16 This done, Judas returned again with his host from pursuing them, 17 And said to the people, Be not greedy of the spoil inasmuch as there is a battle before us, 18 And Gorgias and his host are here by us in the mountain but stand ye now against our enemies, and overcome them, and after this ye may boldly take the spoils. 19 As Judas was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the mountain 20 Who when they perceived that the Jews had put their host to flight and were burning the tents; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done 21 When therefore they perceived these things, they were sore afraid, and seeing also the host of Judas in 11 2 the plain ready to fight, 2 2 They fled every one into the land of strangers. 23 Then Judas returned to spoil the tents, where they got much gold, and silver, and blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches. 24 After this they went home, and sung a song of thanksgiving, and praised the Lord in heaven because it is good, because his mercy endureth forever. 25 Thus Israel had a great deliverance that day. 26 Now all the strangers that had escaped came and told Lysias what had happened 27 Who, when he heard thereof, was confounded and discouraged, because neither such things as he would were done unto Israel, nor such things as the king commanded him were come to pass. 28 The next year therefore following Lysias gathered together threescore thousand choice men of foot, and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue them. 29 So they came into Idumea, and pitched their tents at Bethsura, and Judas met them with ten thousand men. 30 And when he saw that mighty army, he prayed and said, Blessed art thou, O Saviour of Israel, who didst quell the violence of the mighty man by the hand of thy servant David, and gavest the host of strangers into the hands of Jonathan the son of Saul, and his armourbearer; 31 Shut up this army in the hand of thy people Israel, and let them be confounded in their power and horsemen 3 2 Make them to be of no courage, and cause the boldness of their strength to fall away, and let them quake at their destruction 33 Cast them down with the sword of them that love thee, and let all those that know thy name praise thee with thanksgiving. 34 So they joined battle; and there were slain of the host of Lysias about five thousand men, even before them were they slain. 35 Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight, and the manliness of Judas' soldiers, and how they were ready either to live or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered together a company of strangers, and having made his army greater than it was, he purposed to come again into Judea. 36 Then said Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited let us go up to cleanse and dedicate the sanctuary. 37 Upon this all the host assembled themselves together, and went up into mount Sion. 38 And when they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the priests' chambers pulled down; [39] They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes upon their heads, [40] And fell down flat to the ground upon their faces, and blew an alarm with the trumpets, and cried toward heaven. [41] Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against those that were in the fortress, until he had cleansed the sanctuary. [42] So he chose priests of blameless conversation, such as had pleasure in the law [43] Who cleansed the sanctuary, and bare out the defiled stones into an unclean place. [44] And when as they consulted what to do with the altar of burnt offerings, which was profaned; [45] They thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them, because the heathen had defiled it wherefore they pulled it down, [46] And laid up the stones in the mountain of the temple in a convenient place, until there should come a prophet to shew what should be done with them. [47] Then they took whole stones according to the law, and built a new altar according to the former; [48] And made up the sanctuary, and the things that were within the temple, and hallowed the courts. [49] They made also new holy vessels, and into the temple they brought the candlestick, and the altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the table. [50] And upon the altar they burned incense, and the lamps that were upon the candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the temple. [51] Furthermore they set the loaves upon the table, and spread out the veils, and finished all the works which they had begun to make. [52] Now on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which is called the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and eighth year, they rose up betimes in the morning, [53] And offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of burnt offerings, which they had made. [54] Look, at what time and what day the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and citherns, and harps, and cymbals. [55] Then all the people fell upon their faces, worshipping and praising the God of heaven, who had given them good success. [56] And so they kept the dedication of the altar eight days and offered burnt offerings with gladness, and sacrificed the sacrifice of deliverance and praise. [57] They decked also the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold, and with shields; and the gates and the chambers they renewed, and hanged doors upon them. [58] Thus was there very great gladness among the people, for that the reproach of the heathen was put away. [59] Moreover Judas and his brethren with the whole congregation of Israel ordained, that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month Casleu, with mirth and gladness. [60] At that time also they builded up the mount Sion with high walls and strong towers round about, lest the Gentiles should come and tread it down as they had done before. [61] And they set there a garrison to keep it, and fortified Bethsura to preserve it; that the people might have a defence against Idumea.

Now when the nations round about heard that the altar was built and the sanctuary renewed as before, it displeased them very much. 2 Wherefore they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them, and thereupon they began to slay and destroy the people. 3 Then Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at Arabattine, because they besieged Gael and he gave them a great overthrow, and abated their courage, and took their spoils. 4 Also he remembered the injury of the children of Bean, who had been a snare and an offence unto the people, in that they lay in wait for them in the ways. 5 He shut them up therefore in the towers, and encamped against them, and destroyed them utterly, and burned the towers of that place with fire, and all that were therein. 6 Afterward he passed over to the children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power, and much people, with Timotheus their captain. 7 So he fought many battles with them, till at length they were discomfited before him; and he smote them. 8 And when he had taken Jazar, with the towns belonging thereto, he returned into Judea. 9 Then the heathen that were at Galaad assembled themselves together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to destroy them; but they fled to the fortress of Dathema. 10 And sent letters unto Judas and his brethren, The heathen that are round about us are assembled together against us to destroy us 11 And they are preparing to come and take the fortress whereunto we are fled, Timotheus being captain of their host. 12 Come now therefore, and deliver us from their hands, for many of us are slain 13 Yea, all our brethren that were in the places of Tobie are put to death their wives and their children also they have carried away captives, and borne away their stuff; and they have destroyed there about a thousand men. 14 While these letters were yet reading, behold, there came other messengers from Galilee with their clothes rent, who reported on this wise, 15 And said, They of Ptolemais, and of Tyrus, and Sidon, and all Galilee of the Gentiles, are assembled together against us to consume us. 16 Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled a great congregation together, to consult what they should do for their brethren, that were in trouble, and assaulted of them. [17] Then said Judas unto Simon his brother, Choose thee out men, and go and deliver thy brethren that are in Galilee, for I and Jonathan my brother will go into the country of Galaad. [18] So he left Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captains of the people, with the remnant of the host in Judea to keep it. [19] Unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Take ye the charge of this people, and see that ye make not war against the heathen until the time that we come again. [20] Now unto Simon were given three thousand men to go into Galilee, and unto Judas eight thousand men for the country of Galaad. [21] Then went Simon into Galilee, where he fought many battles with the heathen, so that the heathen were discomfited by him. [22] And he pursued them unto the gate of Ptolemais; and there were slain of the heathen about three thousand men, whose spoils he took. [23] And those that were in Galilee, and in Arbattis, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, took he away with him, and brought them into Judea with great joy. [24] Judas Maccabeus also and his brother Jonathan went over Jordan, and travelled three days' journey in the wilderness, [25] Where they met with the Nabathites, who came unto them in a peaceable manner, and told them every thing that had happened to their brethren in the land of Galaad [26] And how that many of them were shut up in Bosora, and Bosor, and Alema, Casphor, Maked, and Carnaim; all these cities are strong and great [27] And that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the country of Galaad, and that against to morrow they had appointed to bring their host against the forts, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day. [28] Hereupon Judas and his host turned suddenly by the way of the wilderness unto Bosora; and when he had won the city, he slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and took all their spoils, and burned the city with fire, [29] From whence he removed by night, and went till he came to the fortress. [30] And betimes in the morning they looked up, and, behold, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and other engines of war, to take the fortress for they assaulted them. [31] When Judas therefore saw that the battle was begun, and that the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets, and a great sound, [32] He said unto his host, Fight this day for your brethren. [33] So he went forth behind them in three companies, who sounded their trumpets, and cried with prayer. [34] Then the host of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him wherefore he smote them with a great slaughter; so that there were killed of them that day about eight thousand men. [35] This done, Judas turned aside to Maspha; and after he had assaulted it he took and slew all the males therein, and received the spoils thereof and and burnt it with fire. [36] From thence went he, and took Casphon, Maged, Bosor, and the other cities of the country of Galaad. [37] After these things gathered Timotheus another host and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook. [38] So Judas sent men to espy the host, who brought him word, saying, All the heathen that be round about us are assembled unto them, even a very great host. [39] He hath also hired the Arabians to help them and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against thee. Upon this Judas went to meet them. [40] Then Timotheus said unto the captains of his host, When Judas and his host come near the brook, if he pass over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us [41] But if he be afraid, and camp beyond the river, we shall go over unto him, and prevail against him. [42] Now when Judas came near the brook, he caused the scribes of the people to remain by the brook unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Suffer no man to remain in the camp, but let all come to the battle. [43] So he went first over unto them, and all the people after him then all the heathen, being discomfited before him, cast away their weapons, and fled unto the temple that was at Carnaim. [44] But they took the city, and burned the temple with all that were therein. Thus was Carnaim subdued, neither could they stand any longer before Judas. [45] Then Judas gathered together all the Israelites that were in the country of Galaad, from the least unto the greatest, even their wives, and their children, and their stuff, a very great host, to the end they might come into the land of Judea. [46] Now when they came unto Ephron, (this was a great city in the way as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, either on the right hand or the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it. [47] Then they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones. [48] Whereupon Judas sent unto them in peaceable manner, saying, Let us pass through your land to go into our own country, and none shall do you any hurt; we will only pass through on foot howbeit they would not open unto him. [49] Wherefore Judas commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was. [50] So the soldiers pitched, and assaulted the city all that day and all that night, till at the length the city was delivered into his hands [51] Who then slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and rased the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over them that were slain. [52] After this went they over Jordan into the great plain before Bethsan. [53] And Judas gathered together those that came behind, and exhorted the people all the way through, till they came into the land of Judea. [54] So they went up to mount Sion with joy and gladness, where they offered burnt offerings, because not one of them were slain until they had returned in peace. [55] Now what time as Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais, [56] Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captains of the garrisons, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done. [57] Wherefore they said, Let us also get us a name, and go fight against the heathen that are round about us. [58] So when they had given charge unto the garrison that was with them, they went toward Jamnia. [59] Then came Gorgias and his men out of the city to fight against them. [60] And so it was, that Joseph and Azaras were put to flight, and pursued unto the borders of Judea and there were slain that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men. [61] Thus was there a great overthrow among the children of Israel, because they were not obedient unto Judas and his brethren, but thought to do some valiant act. [62] Moreover these men came not of the seed of those, by whose hand deliverance was given unto Israel. [63] Howbeit the man Judas and his brethren were greatly renowned in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen, wheresoever their name was heard of; [64] Insomuch as thepeople assembled unto them with joyful acclamations. [65] Afterward went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against the children of Esau in the land toward the south, where he smote Hebron, and the towns thereof, and pulled down the fortress of it, and burned the towers thereof round about. [66] From thence he removed to go into the land of the Philistines, and passed through Samaria. [67] At that time certain priests, desirous to shew their valour, were slain in battle, for that they went out to fight unadvisedly. [68] So Judas turned to Azotus in the land of the Philistines, and when he had pulled down their altars, and burned their carved images with fire, and spoiled their cities, he returned into the land of Judea.

About that time king Antiochus travelling through the high countries heard say, that Elymais in the country of Persia was a city greatly renowned for riches, silver, and gold; [2] And that there was in it a very rich temple, wherein were coverings of gold, and breastplates, and shields, which Alexander, son of Philip, the Macedonian king, who reigned first among the Grecians, had left there. [3] Wherefore he came and sought to take the city, and to spoil it; but he was not able, because they of the city, having had warning thereof, [4] Rose up against him in battle so he fled, and departed thence with great heaviness, and returned to Babylon. [5] Moreover there came one who brought him tidings into Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judea, were put to flight [6] And that Lysias, who went forth first with a great power was driven away of the Jews; and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies, whom they had destroyed [7] Also that they had pulled down the abomination, which he had set up upon the altar in Jerusalem, and that they had

compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and his city Bethsura. [8] Now when the king heard these words, he was astonished and sore moved whereupon he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him as he looked for. [9] And there he continued many days for his grief was ever more and more, and he made account that he should die. [10] Wherefore he called for all his friends, and said unto them, The sleep is gone from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for very care. [11] And I thought with myself, Into what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood of misery is it, wherein now I am! for I was bountiful and beloved in my power. [12] But now I remember the evils that I did at Jerusalem, and that I took all the vessels of gold and silver that were therein, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Judea without a cause. [13] I perceive therefore that for this cause these troubles are come upon me, and, behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land. [14] Then called he for Philip, one of his friends, who he made ruler over all his realm, [15] And gave him the crown, and his robe, and his signet, to the end he should bring up his son Antiochus, and nourish him up for the kingdom. [16] So king Antiochus died there in the hundred forty and ninth year. [17] Now when Lysias knew that the king was dead, he set up Antiochus his son, whom he had brought up being young, to reign in his stead, and his name he called Eupator. [18] About this time they that were in the tower shut up the Israelites round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen. [19] Wherefore Judas, purposing to destroy them, called all the people together to besiege them. [20] So they came together, and besieged them in the hundred and fiftieth year, and he made mounts for shot against them, and other engines. [21] Howbeit certain of them that were besieged got forth, unto whom some ungodly men of Israel joined themselves [22] And they went unto the king, and said, How long will it be ere thou execute judgment, and avenge our brethren? [23] We have been willing to serve thy father, and to do as he would have us, and to obey his commandments; [24] For which cause they of our nation besiege the tower, and are alienated from us moreover as many of us as they could light on they slew, and spoiled our inheritance. [25] Neither have they stretched out their hand against us only, but also against their borders. [26] And, behold, this day are they besieging the tower at Jerusalem, to take it the sanctuary also and Bethsura have they fortified. [27] Wherefore if thou dost not prevent them quickly, they will do the greater things than these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them. [28] Now when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those that had charge of the horse. [29] There came also unto him from other kingdoms, and from isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers. [30] So that the number of his army was an hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants exercised in battle. 31 These went through Idumea, and pitched against Bethsura, which they assaulted many days, making engines of war; but they of Bethsura came out, and burned them with fire, and fought valiantly. 32 Upon this Judas removed from the tower, and pitched in Bathzacharias, over against the king's camp. 33 Then the king rising very early marched fiercely with his host toward Bathzacharias, where his armies made them ready to battle, and sounded the trumpets. 34 And to the end they might provoke the elephants to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberries. 35 Moreover they divided the beasts among the armies, and for every elephant they appointed a thousand men, armed with coats of mail, and with helmets of brass on their heads; and beside this, for every beast were ordained five hundred horsemen of the best. 36 These were ready at every occasion wheresoever the beast was, and whithersoever the beast went, they went also, neither departed they from him. 37 And upon the beasts were there strong towers of wood, which covered every one of them, and were girt fast unto them with devices there were also upon every one two and thirty strong men, that fought upon them, beside the Indian that ruled him. 38 As for the remnant of the horsemen, they set them on this side and that side at the two parts of the host giving them signs what to do, and being harnessed all over amidst the ranks. 39 Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains glistered therewith, and shined like lamps of fire. 40 So part of the king's army being spread upon the high mountains, and part on the valleys below, they marched on safely and in order. 41 Wherefore all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the harness, were moved for the army was very great and mighty. 42 Then Judas and his host drew near, and entered into battle, and there were slain of the king's army six hundred men. 43 Eleazar also, surnamed Savaran, perceiving that one of the beasts, armed with royal harness, was higher than all the rest, and supposing that the king was upon him, 44 Put himself in jeopardy, to the end he might deliver his people, and get him a perpetual name 45 Wherefore he ran upon him courageously through the midst of the battle, slaying on the right hand and on the left, so that they were divided from him on both sides. 46 Which done, he crept under the elephant, and thrust him under, and slew him whereupon the elephant fell down upon him, and there he died. 47 Howbeit the rest of the Jews seeing the strength of the king, and the violence of his forces, turned away from them. 48 Then the king's army went up to Jerusalem to meet them, and the king pitched his tents against Judea, and against mount Sion. 49 But with them that were in Bethsura he made peace for they came out of the city, because they had no victuals there to endure the siege, it being a year of rest to the land. 50 So the king took Bethsura, and set a garrison there to keep it. 51 As for the sanctuary, he besieged it many days and set there artillery with engines and instruments to cast fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts and slings. 52 Whereupon they also made engines against their engines, and held them battle a long season. 53 Yet at the last, their vessels being without victuals, (for that it was the seventh year, and they in Judea that were delivered from the Gentiles, had eaten up the residue of the store;) 54 There were but a few left in the sanctuary, because the famine did so prevail against them, that they were fain to disperse themselves, every man to his own place. 55 At that time Lysias heard say, that Philip, whom Antiochus the king, whiles he lived, had appointed to bring up his son Antiochus, that he might be king, 56 Was returned out of Persia and Media, and the king's host also that went with him, and that he sought to take unto him the ruling of the affairs. 57 Wherefore he went in all haste, and said to the king and the captains of the host and the company, We decay daily, and our victuals are but small, and the place we lay siege unto is strong, and the affairs of the kingdom lie upon us 58 Now therefore let us be friends with these men, and make peace with them, and with all their nation; 59 And covenant with them, that they shall live after their laws, as they did before for they are therefore displeased, and have done all these things, because we abolished their laws. 60 So the king and the princes were content wherefore he sent unto them to make peace; and they accepted thereof. 61 Also the king and the princes made an oath unto them whereupon they went out of the strong hold. 62 Then the king entered into mount Sion; but when he saw the strength of the place, he broke his oath that he had made, and gave commandment to pull down the wall round about. 63 Afterward departed he in all haste, and returned unto Antiochia, where he found Philip to be master of the city so he fought against him, and took the city by force.

In the hundred and one and fiftieth year Demetrius the son of Seleucus departed from Rome, and came up with a few men unto a city of the sea coast, and reigned there. 2 And as he entered into the palace of his ancestors, so it was, that his forces had taken Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them unto him. 3 Wherefore, when he knew it, he said, Let me not see their faces. 4 So his host slew them. Now when Demetrius was set upon the throne of his kingdom, 5 There came unto him all the wicked and ungodly men of Israel, having Alcimus, who was desirous to be high priest, for their captain 6 And they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his brethren have slain all thy friends, and driven us out of our own land. 7 Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him go and see what havock he hath made among us, and in the king's land, and let him punish them with all them that aid them. 8 Then the king chose Bacchides, a friend of the king, who ruled beyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king, 9 And him he sent with that wicked Alcimus, whom he made high priest, and commanded that he should take vengeance of the children of Israel. 10 So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Judea, where they sent messengers to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words deceitfully. 11 But they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great power. 12 Then did there assemble unto Alcimus and Bacchides a company of scribes, to require justice. 13 Now the Assideans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them 14 For said they, One that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with this army, and he will do us no wrong. 15 So he spake unto them, peaceably, and sware unto them, saying, we will procure the harm neither of you nor your friends. 16 Whereupon they believed him howbeit he took of them threescore men, and slew them in one day, according to the words which he wrote, 17 The flesh of thy saints have they cast out, and their blood have they shed round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them. 18 Wherefore the fear and dread of them fell upon all the people, who said, There is neither truth nor righteousness in them; for they have broken the covenant and oath that they made. 19 After this, removed Bacchides from Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he sent and took many of the men that had forsaken him, and certain of the people also, and when he had slain them, he cast them into the great pit. 20 Then committed he the country to Alcimus, and left with him a power to aid him so Bacchides went to the king. 21 But Alcimus contended for the high priesthood. 22 And unto him resorted all such as troubled the people, who, after they had gotten the land of Juda into their power, did much hurt in Israel. 23 Now when Judas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the Israelites, even above the heathen, 24 He went out into all the coasts of Judea round about, and took vengeance of them that had revolted from him, so that they durst no more go forth into the country. 25 On the other side, when Alcimus saw that Judas and his company had gotten the upper hand, and knew that he was not able to abide their force, he went again to the king, and said all the worst of them that he could. 26 Then the king sent Nicanor, one of his honourable princes, a man that bare deadly hate unto Israel, with commandment to destroy the people. 27 So Nicanor came to Jerusalem with a great force; and sent unto Judas and his brethren deceitfully with friendly words, saying, 28 Let there be no battle between me and you; I will come with a few men, that I may see you in peace.

29 He came therefore to Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably. Howbeit the enemies were prepared to take away Judas by violence. 30 Which thing after it was known to Judas, to wit, that he came unto him with deceit, he was sore afraid of him, and would see his face no more. 31 Nicanor also, when he saw that his counsel was discovered, went out to fight against Judas beside Capharsalama 32 Where there were slain of Nicanor's side about five thousand men, and the rest fled into the city of David. 33 After this went Nicanor up to mount Sion, and there came out of the sanctuary certain of the priests and certain of the elders of the people, to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt sacrifice that was offered for the king. 34 But he mocked them, and laughed at them, and abused them shamefully, and spake proudly, 35 And sware in his wrath, saying, Unless Judas and his host be now delivered into my hands, if ever I come again in safety, I will burn up this house and with that he went out in a great rage. 36 Then the priests entered in, and stood before the altar and the temple, weeping, and saying, 37 Thou, O Lord, didst choose this house to be called by thy name, and to be a house of prayer and petition for thy people 38 Be avenged of this man and his host, and let them fall by the sword remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue any longer. 39 So Nicanor went out of Jerusalem, and pitched his tents in Bethhoron, where an host out of Syria met him. 40 But Judas pitched in Adasa with three thousand men, and there he prayed, saying, 41 O Lord, when they that were sent from the king of the Assyrians blasphemed, thine angel went out, and smote an hundred fourscore and five thousand of them. 42 Even so destroy thou this host before us this day, that the rest may know that he hath spoken blasphemously against thy sanctuary, and judge thou him according to his wickedness. 43 So the thirteenth day of the month Adar the hosts joined battle but Nicanor's host was discomfited, and he himself was first slain in the battle. 44 Now when Nicanor's host saw that he was slain, they cast away their weapons, and fled. 45 Then they pursued after them a day's journey, from Adasa unto Gazera, sounding an alarm after them with their trumpets. 46 Whereupon they came forth out of all the towns of Judea round about, and closed them in; so that they, turning back upon them that pursued them, were all slain with the sword, and not one of them was left. 47 Afterwards they took the spoils, and the prey, and smote off Nicanors head, and his right hand, which he stretched out so proudly, and brought them away, and hanged them up toward Jerusalem. 48 For this cause the people rejoiced greatly, and they kept that day a day of great gladness. 49 Moreover they ordained to keep yearly this day, being the thirteenth of Adar. 50 Thus the land of Juda was in rest a little while.

Now Judas had heard of theRomans, that they were mighty and valiant men, and such as would lovingly accept all that joined themselves unto them, and make a league of amity with all that came unto them; [2] And that they were men of great valour. It was told him also of their wars and noble acts which they had done among the Galatians, and how they had conquered them, and brought them under tribute; [3] And what they had done in the country of Spain, for the winning of the mines of the silver and gold which is there; [4] And that by their policy and patience they had conquered all the place, though it were very far from them; and the kings also that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, and given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them tribute every year [5] Beside this, how they had discomfited in battle Philip, and Perseus, king of the Citims, with others that lifted up themselves against them, and had overcome them [6] How also Antiochus the great king of Asia, that came against them in battle, having an hundred and twenty elephants, with horsemen, and chariots, and a very great army, was discomfited by them; [7] And how they took him alive, and covenanted that he and such as reigned after him should pay a great tribute, and give hostages, and that which was agreed upon, [8] And the country of India, and Media and Lydia and of the goodliest countries, which they took of him, and gave to king Eumenes [9] Moreover how the Grecians had determined to come and destroy them; [10] And that they, having knowledge thereof sent against them a certain captain, and fighting with them slew many of them, and carried away captives their wives and their children, and spoiled them, and took possession of their lands, and pulled down their strong holds, and brought them to be their servants unto this day [11] It was told him besides, how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all other kingdoms and isles that at any time resisted them; [12] But with their friends and such as relied upon them they kept amity and that they had conquered kingdoms both far and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them [13] Also that, whom they would help to a kingdom, those reign; and whom again they would, they displace finally, that they were greatly exalted [14] Yet for all this none of them wore a crown or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby [15] Moreover how they had made for themselves a senate house, wherein three hundred and twenty men sat in council daily, consulting alway for the people, to the end they might be well ordered [16] And that they committed their government to one man every year, who ruled over all their country, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither envy nor emmulation among them. [17] In consideration of these things, Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, to make a league of amity and confederacy with them, [18] And to intreat them that they would take the yoke from them; for they saw that the kingdom of the Grecians did oppress Israel with servitude. [19] They went therefore to Rome, which was a very great journey, and came into the senate, where they spake and said. [20] Judas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you, to make a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your confederates and friends. [21] So that matter pleased the Romans well. [22] And this is the copy of the epistle which the senate wrote back again in tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that there they might have by them a memorial of peace and confederacy [23] Good success be to the Romans, and to the people of the Jews, by sea and by land for ever the sword also and enemy be far from them, [24] If there come first any war upon the Romans or any of their confederates throughout all their dominion, [25] The people of the Jews shall help them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart [26] Neither shall they give any thing unto them that make war upon them, or aid them with victuals, weapons, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants without taking any thing therefore. [27] In the same manner also, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them [28] Neither shall victuals be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants, and that without deceit. [29] According to these articles did the Romans make a covenant with the people of the Jews. [30] Howbeit if hereafter the one party or the other shall think to meet to add or diminish any thing, they may do it at their pleasures, and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be ratified. [31] And as touching the evils that Demetrius doeth to the Jews, we have written unto him, saying, Wherefore thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends and confederates the Jews? [32] If therefore they complain any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

Furthermore, when Demetrius heard the Nicanor and his host were slain in battle, he sent Bacchides and Alcimus into the land of Judea the second time, and with them the chief strength of his host [2] Who went forth by the way that leadeth to Galgala, and pitched their tents before Masaloth, which is in Arbela, and after they had won it, they slew much people. [3] Also the first month of the hundred fifty and second year they encamped before Jerusalem [4] From whence they removed, and went to Berea, with twenty thousand footmen and two thousand horsemen. [5] Now Judas had pitched his tents at Eleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him [6] Who seeing the multitude of the other army to he so great were sore afraid; whereupon many conveyed themselves out of the host, insomuch as abode of them no more but eight hundred men. [7] When Judas therefore saw that his host slipt away, and that the battle pressed upon him, he was sore troubled in mind, and much distressed, for that he had no time to gather them together. [8] Nevertheless unto them that remained he said, Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them. [9] But they dehorted him, saying, We shall never be able let us now rather save our lives, and hereafter we will return with our brethren, and fight against them for we are but few. [10] Then Judas said, God forbid that I should do this thing, and flee away from them if our time be come, let us die manfully for our brethren, and let us not stain our honour. [11] With that the host of Bacchides removed out of their tents, and stood over against them, their horsemen being divided into two troops, and their slingers and archers going before the host and they that marched in the foreward were all mighty men. [12] As for Bacchides, he was in the right wing so the host drew near on the two parts, and sounded their trumpets. [13] They also of Judas' side, even they sounded their trumpets also, so that the earth shook at the noise of the armies, and the battle continued from morning till night. [14] Now when Judas perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, he took with him all the hardy men, [15] Who discomfited the right wing, and pursued them unto the mount Azotus. [16] But when they of the left wing saw that they of the right wing were discomfited, they followed upon Judas and those that were with him hard at the heels from behind [17] Whereupon there was a sore battle, insomuch as many were slain on both parts. [18] Judas also was killed, and the remnant fled. [19] Then Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers in Modin. [20] Moreover they bewailed him, and all Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many days, saying, [21] How is the valiant man fallen, that delivered Israel! [22] As for the other things concerning Judas and his wars, and the noble acts which he did, and his greatness, they are not written for they were very many. [23] Now after the death of Judas the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and there arose up all such as wrought iniquity. [24] In those days also was there a very great famine, by reason whereof the country revolted, and went with them. [25] Then Bacchides chose the wicked men, and made them lords of the country. [26] And they made enquiry and search for Judas' friends, and brought them unto Bacchides, who took vengeance of them, and used them despitefully. [27] So was there a great affliction in Israel, the like whereof was not since the time that a prophet was not seen among them. [28] For this cause all Judas' friends came together, and said unto Jonathan, [29] Since thy brother Judas died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies, and Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are adversaries to us. [30] Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince and captain in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battles. [31] Upon this Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up instead of his brother Judas. [32] But when Bacchides gat knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him [33] Then Jonathan, and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, perceiving that, fled into the wilderness of Thecoe, and pitched their tents by the water of the pool Asphar. [34] Which when Bacchides understood, he came near to Jordan with all his host upon the sabbath day. [35] Now Jonathan had sent his brother John, a captain of the people, to pray his friends the Nabathites, that they might leave with them their carriage, which was much. [36] But the children of Jambri came out of Medaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went their way with it. [37] After this came word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great marriage, and were bringing the bride from Nadabatha with a great train, as being the daughter of one of the great princes of Chanaan. [38] Therefore they remembered John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain [39] Where they lifted up their eyes, and looked, and, behold, there was much ado and great carriage and the bridegroom came forth, and his friends and brethren, to meet them with drums, and instruments of musick, and many weapons. [40] Then Jonathan and they that were with him rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush, and made a slaughter of them in such sort, as many fell down dead, and the remnant fled into the mountain, and they took all their spoils. [41] Thus was the marriage turned into mourning, and the noise of their melody into lamentation. [42] So when they had avenged fully the blood of their brother, they turned again to the marsh of Jordan. [43] Now when Bacchides heard hereof, he came on the sabbath day unto the banks of Jordan with a great power. [44] Then Jonathan said to his company, Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it standeth not with us to day, as in time past [45] For, behold, the battle is before us and behind us, and the water of Jordan on this side and that side, the marsh likewise and wood, neither is there place for us to turn aside. [46] Wherefore cry ye now unto heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies. [47] With that they joined battle, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, but he turned back from him. 48 Then Jonathan and they that were with him leapt into Jordan, and swam over unto the other bank howbeit the other passed not over Jordan unto them. 49 So there were slain of Bacchides' side that day about a thousand men. 50 Afterward returned Bacchides to Jerusalem and repaired the strong cites in Judea; the fort in Jericho, and Emmaus, and Bethhoron, and Bethel, and Thamnatha, Pharathoni, and Taphon, these did he strengthen with high walls, with gates and with bars. 51 And in them he set a garrison, that they might work malice upon Israel. 52 He fortified also the city Bethsura, and Gazera, and the tower, and put forces in them, and provision of victuals. 53 Besides, he took the chief men's sons in the country for hostages, and put them into the tower at Jerusalem to be kept. 54 Moreover in the hundred fifty and third year, in the second month, Alcimus commanded that the wall of the inner court of the sanctuary should be pulled down; he pulled down also the works of the prophets 55 And as he began to pull down, even at that time was Alcimus plagued, and his enterprizes hindered for his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak any thing, nor give order concerning his house. 56 So Alcimus died at that time with great torment. 57 Now when Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he returned to the king whereupon the land of Judea was in rest two years. 58 Then all the ungodly men held a council, saying, Behold, Jonathan and his company are at ease, and dwell without care now therefore we will bring Bacchides hither, who shall take them all in one night. 120 59 So they went and consulted with him. 60 Then removed he, and came with a great host, and sent letters privily to his adherents in Judea, that they should take Jonathan and those that were with him howbeit they could not, because their counsel was known unto them. 61 Wherefore they took of the men of the country, that were authors of that mischief, about fifty persons, and slew them. 62 Afterward Jonathan, and Simon, and they that were with him, got them away to Bethbasi, which is in the wilderness, and they repaired the decays thereof, and made it strong. 63 Which thing when Bacchides knew, he gathered together all his host, and sent word to them that were of Judea. 64 Then went he and laid siege against Bethbasi; and they fought against it a long season and made engines of war. 65 But Jonathan left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth himself into the country, and with a certain number went he forth. 66 And he smote Odonarkes and his brethren, and the children of Phasiron in their tent. 67 And when he began to smite them, and came up with his forces, Simon and his company went out of the city, and burned up the engines of war, 68 And fought against Bacchides, who was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore for his counsel and travail was in vain. 69 Wherefore he was very wroth at the wicked men that gave him counsel to come into the country, inasmuch as he slew many of them, and purposed to return into his own country. [70] Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadors unto him, to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners. [71] Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and sware unto him that he would never do him harm all the days of his life. [72] When therefore he had restored unto him the prisoners that he had taken aforetime out of the land of Judea, he returned and went his way into his own land, neither came he any more into their borders. [73] Thus the sword ceased from Israel but Jonathan dwelt at Machmas, and began to govern the people; and he destroyed the ungodly men out of Israel.

In the hundred and sixtieth year Alexander, the son of Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, went up and took Ptolemais for the people had received him, by means whereof he reigned there, [2] Now when king Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered together an exceeding great host, and went forth against him to fight. [3] Moreover Demetrius sent letters unto Jonathan with loving words, so as he magnified him. [4] For said he, Let us first make peace with him, before he join with Alexander against us [5] Else he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brethren and his people. [6] Wherefore he gave him authority to gather together an host, and to provide weapons, that he might aid him in battle he commanded also that the hostages that were in the tower should be delivered him. [7] Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the tower [8] Who were sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together an host. [9] Whereupon they of the tower delivered their hostages unto Jonathan, and he delivered them unto their parents. [10] This done, Jonathan settled himself in Jerusalem, and began to build and repair the city. [11] And he commanded the workmen to build the walls and the mount Sion and about with square stones for fortification; and they did so. [12] Then the strangers, that were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built, fled away; [13] Insomuch as every man left his place, and went into his own country. [14] Only at Bethsura certain of those that had forsaken the law and the commandments remained still for it was their place of refuge. [15] Now when king Alexander had heard what promises Demetrius had sent unto Jonathan when also it was told him of the battles and noble acts which he and his brethren had done, and of the pains that they had endured, [16] He said, Shall we find such another man? now therefore we will make him our friend and confederate. [17] Upon this he wrote a letter, and sent it unto him, according to these words, saying, [18] King Alexander to his brother Jonathan sendeth greeting [19] We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meet to be our friend. [20] Wherefore now this day we ordain thee to be the high priest of thy nation, and to be called the king's friend; (and therewithal he sent him a purple robe and a crown of gold) and require thee to take our part, and keep friendship with us. [21] So in the seventh month of the hundred and sixtieth year, at the feast of the tabernacles, Jonathan put on the holy robe, and gathered together forces, and provided much armour. [2 2] Whereof when Demetrius heard, he was very sorry, and said, [23] What have we done, that Alexander hath prevented us in making amity with the Jews to strengthen himself? [24] I also will write unto them words of encouragement, and promise them dignities and gifts, that I may have their aid. [25] He sent unto them therefore to this effect King Demetrius unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting [26] Whereas ye have kept covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad. [27] Wherefore now continue ye still to be faithful unto us, and we will well recompense you for the [1 21] things ye do in our behalf, [28] And will grant you many immunities, and give you rewards. [29] And now do I free you, and for your sake I release all the Jews, from tributes, and from the customs of salt, and from crown taxes, [30] And from that which appertaineth unto me to receive for the third part or the seed, and the half of the fruit of the trees, I release it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Judea, nor of the three governments which are added thereunto out of the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth for evermore. [31] Let Jerusalem also be holy and free, with the borders thereof, both from tenths and tributes. [3 2] And as for the tower which is at Jerusalem, I yield up authority over it, and give the high priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall choose to keep it. [33] Moreover I freely set at liberty every one of the Jews, that were carried captives out of the land of Judea into any part of my kingdom, and I will that all my officers remit the tributes even of their cattle. [34] Furthermore I will that all the feasts, and sabbaths, and new moons, and solemn days, and the three days before the feast, and the three days after the feast shall be all of immunity and freedom for all the Jews in my realm. [35] Also no man shall have authority to meddle with or to molest any of them in any matter. [36] I will further, that there be enrolled among the king's forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, unto whom pay shall be given, as belongeth to all king's forces. [37] And of them some shall be placed in the king's strong holds, of whom also some shall be set over the affairs of the kingdom, which are of trust and I will that their overseers and governors be of themselves, and that they live after their own laws, even as the king hath commanded in the land of Judea.

38 And concerning the three governments that are added to Judea from the country of Samaria, let them be joined with Judea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, nor bound to obey other authority than the high priest's. 39 As for Ptolemais, and the land pertaining thereto, I give it as a free gift to the sanctuary at Jerusalem for the necessary expences of the sanctuary. 40 Moreover I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver out of the king's accounts from the places appertaining. 41 And all the overplus, which the officers payed not in as in former time, from henceforth shall be given toward the works of the temple. 42 And beside this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they took from the uses of the temple out of the accounts year by year, even those things shall be released, because they appertain to the priests that minister. 43 And whosoever they be that flee unto the temple at Jerusalem, or be within the liberties hereof, being indebted unto the king, or for any other matter, let them be at liberty, and all that they have in my realm. 44 For the building also and repairing of the works of the sanctuary expences shall be given of the king's accounts. 45 Yea, and for the building of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, expences shall be given out of the king's accounts, as also for the building of the walls in Judea. 46 Now when Jonathan and the people heard these words, they gave no credit unto them, nor received them, because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Israel; for he had afflicted them very sore. 47 But with Alexander they were well pleased, because he was the first that entreated of true peace with them, and they were confederate with him always. 48 Then gathered king Alexander great forces, and camped over against Demetrius. 49 And after the two kings had joined battle, Demetrius' host fled but Alexander followed after him, and prevailed against them. 50 And he continued the battle very sore until the sun went down and that day was Demetrius slain. 51 Afterward Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemee king of Egypt with a message to this effect 52 Forasmuch as I am come again to my realm, and am set in the throne of my progenitors, and have gotten the dominion, and overthrown Demetrius, and recovered our country; 53 For after I had joined battle with him, both he and his host was discomfited by us, so that we sit in the throne of his kingdom 54 Now therefore let us make a league of amity together, and give me now thy daughter to wife and I will be thy son in law, and will give both thee and her as according to thy dignity. 55 Then Ptolemee the king gave answer, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou didst return into the land of thy fathers, and satest in the throne of their kingdom. 56 And now will I do to thee, as thou hast written meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; for I will marry my daughter to thee according to thy desire. 57 So Ptolemee went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and they came unto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and second year [58] Where king Alexander meeting him, he gave unto him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great glory, as the manner of kings is. [59] Now king Alexander had written unto Jonathan, that he should come and meet him. [60] Who thereupon went honourably to Ptolemais, where he met the two kings, and gave them and their friends silver and gold, and many presents, and found favour in their sight. [61] At that time certain pestilent fellows of Israel, men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him, to accuse him but the king would not hear them. [62] Yea more than that, the king commanded to take off his garments, and clothe him in purple and they did so. [63] And he made him sit by himself, and said into his princes, Go with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against [122] him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause. [64] Now when his accusers saw that he was honored according to the proclamation, and clothed in purple, they fled all away. [65] So the king honoured him, and wrote him among his chief friends, and made him a duke, and partaker of his dominion. [66] Afterward Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness. [67] Furthermore in the; hundred threescore and fifth year came Demetrius son of Demetrius out of Crete into the land of his fathers [68] Whereof when king Alexander heard tell, he was right sorry, and returned into Antioch. [69] Then Demetrius made Apollonius the governor of Celosyria his general, who gathered together a great host, and camped in Jamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the high priest, saying, [70] Thou alone liftest up thyself against us, and I am laughed to scorn for thy sake, and reproached and why dost thou vaunt thy power against us in the mountains? [71] Now therefore, if thou trustest in thine own strength, come down to us into the plain field, and there let us try the matter together for with me is the power of the cities. [72] Ask and learn who I am, and the rest that take our part, and they shall tell thee that thy foot is not able to to flight in their own land. [73] Wherefore now thou shalt not be able to abide the horsemen and so great a power in the plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee unto. [74] So when Jonathan heard these words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind, and choosing ten thousand men he went out of Jerusalem, where Simon his brother met him for to help him. [75] And he pitched his tents against Joppa but; they of Joppa shut him out of the city, because Apollonius had a garrison there. [76] Then Jonathan laid siege unto it whereupon they of the city let him in for fear and so Jonathan won Joppa. [77] Whereof when Apollonius heard, he took three thousand horsemen, with a great host of footmen, and went to Azotus as one that journeyed, and therewithal drew him forth into the plain. because he had a great number of horsemen, in whom he put his trust. [78] Then Jonathan followed after him to Azotus, where the armies joined battle. [79] Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush. And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behind him; for they had compassed in his host, and cast darts at the people, from morning till evening. But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them and so the enemies' horses were tired. 82 Then brought Simon forth his host, and set them against the footmen, (for the horsemen were spent) who were discomfited by him, and fled. 83 The horsemen also, being scattered in the field, fled to Azotus, and went into Bethdagon, their idol's temple, for safety. 84 But Jonathan set fire on Azotus, and the cities round about it, and took their spoils; and the temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burned with fire. 85 Thus there were burned and slain with the sword well nigh eight thousand men. 86 And from thence Jonathan removed his host, and camped against Ascalon, where the men of the city came forth, and met him with great pomp. 87 After this returned Jonathan and his host unto Jerusalem, having any spoils. 88 Now when king Alexander heard these things, he honoured Jonathan yet more. 89 And sent him a buckle of gold, as the use is to be given to such as are of the king's blood he gave him also Accaron with the borders thereof in possession.

And the king of Egypt gathered together a great host, like the sand that lieth upon the sea shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexander's kingdom, and join it to his own. 2 Whereupon he took his journey into Spain in peaceable manner, so as they of the cities opened unto him, and met him for king Alexander had commanded them so to do, because he was his brother in law. 3 Now as Ptolemee entered into the cities, he set in every one of them a garrison of soldiers to keep it. 4 And when he came near to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were cast abroad and them that he had burnt in the battle; for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should pass. 5 Also they told the king whatsoever Jonathan had done, to the intent he might blame him but the king held his peace. 6 Then Jonathan met the king with great pomp at Joppa, where they saluted one another, and lodged. 7 Afterward Jonathan, when he had gone with the king to the river called Eleutherus, returned again to Jerusalem. 8 King Ptolemee therefore, having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea unto Seleucia upon the sea coast, imagined wicked counsels against Alexander. [9] Whereupon he sent ambasadors unto king Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betwixt us, and I will give thee my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in thy father's kingdom [10] For I repent that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me. [11] Thus did he slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdom. [12] Wherefore he took his daughter from him, and gave her to Demetrius, and forsook Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known. [13] Then Ptolemee entered into Antioch, where he set two crowns upon his head, the crown of Asia, and of Egypt. [14] In the mean season was king Alexander in Cilicia, [123] because those that dwelt in those parts had revolted from him. [15] But when Alexander heard of this, he came to war against him whereupon king Ptolemee brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight. [16] So Alexander fled into Arabia there to be defended; but king Ptolemee was exalted [17] For Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it unto Ptolemee. [18] King Ptolemee also died the third day after, and they that were in the strong holds were slain one of another. [19] By this means Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seventh year. [20] At the same time Jonathan gathered together them that were in Judea to take the tower that was in Jerusalem and he made many engines of war against it. [21] Then came ungodly persons, who hated their own people, went unto the king, and told him that Jonathan besieged the tower, [22] Whereof when he heard, he was angry, and immediately removing, he came to Ptolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not lay siege to the tower, but come and speak with him at Ptolemais in great haste. [23] Nevertheless Jonathan, when he heard this, commanded to besiege it still and he chose certain of the elders of Israel and the priests, and put himself in peril; [24] And took silver and gold, and raiment, and divers presents besides, and went to Ptolemais unto the king, where he found favour in his sight. [25] And though certain ungodly men of the people had made complaints against him, [26] Yet the king entreated him as his predecessors had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends, [27] And confirmed him in the high priesthood, and in all the honours that he had before, and gave him preeminence among his chief friends. [28] Then Jonathan desired the king, that he would make Judea free from tribute, as also the three governments, with the country of Samaria; and he promised him three hundred talents. [29] So the king consented, and wrote letters unto Jonathan of all these things after this manner [30] King Demetrius unto his brother Jonathan, and unto the nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting [31] We send you here a copy of the letter which we did write unto our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that ye might see it. [32] King Demetrius unto his father Lasthenes sendeth greeting [33] We are determined to do good to the people of the Jews, who are our friends, and keep covenants with us, because of their good will toward us. [34] Wherefore we have ratified unto them the borders of Judea, with the three governments of Apherema and Lydda and Ramathem, that are added unto Judea from the country of Samaria, and all things appertaining unto them, for all such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem, instead of the payments which the king received of them yearly aforetime out of the fruits of the earth and of trees. [35] And as for other things that belong unto us, of the tithes and customs pertaining unto us, as also the saltpits, and the crown taxes, which are due unto us, we discharge them of them all for their relief. [36] And nothing hereof shall be revoked from this time forth for ever. [37] Now therefore see that thou make a copy of these things, and let it be delivered unto Jonathan, and set upon the holy mount in a conspicuous place. [38] After this, when king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces, every one to his own place, except certain bands of strangers, whom he had gathered from the isles of the heathen wherefore all the forces of his fathers hated him. [39] Moreover there was one Tryphon, that had been of Alexander's part afore, who, seeing that all the host murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcue the Arabian that brought up Antiochus the young son of Alexander, [40] And lay sore upon him to deliver him this young Antiochus, that he might reign in his father's stead he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done, and how his men of war were at enmity with him, and there he remained a long season. [41] In the mean time Jonathan sent unto king Demetrius, that he would cast those of the tower out of Jerusalem, and those also in the fortresses for they fought against Israel. [42] So Demetrius sent unto Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for thee and thy people, but I will greatly honour thee and thy nation, if opportunity serve. [43] Now therefore thou shalt do well, if thou send me men to help me; for all my forces are gone from me. [44] Upon this Jonathan sent him three thousand strong men unto Antioch and when they came to the king, the king was very glad of their coming. [45] Howbeit they that were of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, to the number of an hundred and twenty thousand men, and would have slain the king. [46] Wherefore the king fled into the court, but they of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight. [47] Then the king called to the Jews for help, who came unto him all at once, and dispersing themselves through the city slew that day in the city to the number of an hundred thousand. [48] Also they set fire on the city, and gat many spoils that day, and delivered the king. [49] So when they of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would, their courage was abated wherefore they made supplication to the king, and cried, saying, [50] Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us and the city. [51] With that they cast away their weapons, and made peace; and the Jews were honoured in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realm; and they returned to Jerusalem, having great spoils.

1 24 5 2 So king Demetrius sat on the throne of his kingdom, and the land was quiet before him. 53 Nevertheless he dissembled in all that ever he spake, and estranged himself from Jonathan, neither rewarded he him according to the benefits which he had received of him, but troubled him very sore. 54 After this returned Tryphon, and with him the young child Antiochus, who reigned, and was crowned. 55 Then there gathered unto him all the men of war, whom Demetrius had put away, and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his back and fled. 56 Moreover Tryphon took the elephants, and won Antioch. 57 At that time young Antiochus wrote unto Jonathan, saying, I confirm thee in the high priesthood, and appoint thee ruler over the four governments, and to be one of the king's friends. 58 Upon this he sent him golden vessels to be served in, and gave him leave to drink in gold, and to be clothed in purple, and to wear a golden buckle. 59 His brother Simon also he made captain from the place called The ladder of Tyrus unto the borders of Egypt. 60 Then Jonathan went forth, and passed through the cities beyond the water, and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves unto him for to help him and when he came to Ascalon, they of the city met him honourably. 61 From whence he went to Gaza, but they of Gaza shut him out; wherefore he laid siege unto it, and burned the suburbs thereof with fire, and spoiled them. 6 2 Afterward, when they of Gaza made supplication unto Jonathan, he made peace with them, and took the sons of their chief men for hostages, and sent them to Jerusalem, and passed through the country unto Damascus. 63 Now when Jonathan heard that Demetrius' princes were come to Cades, which is in Galilee, with a great power, purposing to remove him out of the country, 64 He went to meet them, and left Simon his brother in the country. 65 Then Simon encamped against Bethsura and fought against it a long season, and shut it up 66 But they desired to have peace with him, which he granted them, and then put them out from thence, and took the city, and set a garrison in it. 67 As for Jonathan and his host, they pitched at the water of Gennesar, from whence betimes in the morning they gat them to the plain of Nasor. 68 And, behold, the host of strangers met them in the plain, who, having laid men in ambush for him in the mountains, came themselves over against him. 69 So when they that lay in ambush rose out of their places and joined battle, all that were of Jonathan's side fled; 70 Insomuch as there was not one of them left, except Mattathias the son of Absalom, and Judas the son of Calphi, the captains of the host. 71 Then Jonathan rent his clothes, and cast earth upon his head, and prayed. 7 2 Afterwards turning again to battle, he put them to flight, and so they ran away. 73 Now when his own men that were fled saw this, they turned again unto him, and with him pursued them to Cades, even unto their own tents, and there they camped. 74 So there were slain of the heathen that day about three thousand men but Jonathan returned to Jerusalem.

Now when Jonathan saw that time served him, he chose certain men, and sent them to Rome, for to confirm and renew the friendship that they had with them. 2 He sent letters also to the Lacedemonians, and to other places, for the same purpose. 3 So they went unto Rome, and entered into the senate, and said, Jonathan the high priest, and the people of the Jews, sent us unto you, to the end ye should renew the friendship, which ye had with them, and league, as in former time. 4 Upon this the Romans gave them letters unto the governors of every place that they should bring them into the land of Judea peaceably. 5
And this is the copy of the letters which Jonathan wrote to the Lacedemonians 6 Jonathan the high priest, and the elders of the nation, and the priests, and the other of the Jews, unto the Lacedemonians their brethren send greeting 7 There were letters sent in times past unto Onias the high priest from Darius, who reigned then among you, to signify that ye are our brethren, as the copy here underwritten doth specify. 8 At which time Onias entreated the ambassador that was sent honourably, and received the letters, wherein declaration was made of the league and friendship. 9 Therefore we also, albeit we need none of these things, that we have the holy books of scripture in our hands to comfort us, 10 Have nevertheless attempted to send unto you for the renewing of brotherhood and friendship, lest we should become strangers unto you altogether for there is a long time passed since ye sent unto us. 11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our feasts, and other convenient days, do remember you in the sacrifices which we offer, and in our prayers, as reason is, and as it becometh us to think upon our brethren 1 2 And we are right glad of your honour. 13 As for ourselves, we have had great troubles and wars on every side, forsomuch as the kings that are round about us have fought against us. 14 Howbeit we would not be troublesome unto you, nor to others of our confederates and friends, in these wars 15 For we have help from heaven that succoureth us, so as we are delivered from our enemies, and our enemies are brought under foot. 16 For this cause we chose Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater he son of Jason, and sent them unto the Romans, to renew the amity that we had with them, and the former league. 1 25 17 We commanded them also to go unto you, and to salute and to deliver you our letters concerning the renewing of our brotherhood. 18 Wherefore now ye shall do well to give us an answer thereto. 19 And this is the copy of the letters which Oniares sent. 20 Areus king of the Lacedemonians to Onias the high priest, greeting 21 It is found in writing, that the Lacedemonians and Jews are brethren, and that they are of the stock of Abraham [22] Now therefore, since this is come to our knowledge, ye shall do well to write unto us of your prosperity. [23] We do write back again to you, that your cattle and goods are our's, and our's are your's We do command therefore our ambassadors to make report unto you on this wise. [24] Now when Jonathan heard that Demebius' princes were come to fight against him with a greater host than afore, [25] He removed from Jerusalem, and met them in the land of Amathis for he gave them no respite to enter his country. [26] He sent spies also unto their tents, who came again, and told him that they were appointed to come upon them in the night season. [27] Wherefore so soon as the sun was down, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in arms, that all the night long they might be ready to fight also he sent forth centinels round about the host. [28] But when the adversaries heard that Jonathan and his men were ready for battle, they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and they kindled fires in their camp. [29] Howbeit Jonathan and his company knew it not till the morning for they saw the lights burning. [30] Then Jonathan pursued after them, but overtook them not for they were gone over the river Eleutherus. [31] Wherefore Jonathan turned to the Arabians, who were called Zabadeans, and smote them, and took their spoils. [32] And removing thence, he came to Damascus, and so passed through all the country, [33] Simon also went forth, and passed through the country unto Ascalon, and the holds there adjoining, from whence he turned aside to Joppa, and won it. [34] For he had heard that they would deliver the hold unto them that took Demetrius' part; wherefore he set a garrison there to keep it. [35] After this came Jonathan home again, and calling the elders of the people together, he consulted with them about building strong holds in Judea, [36] And making the walls of Jerusalem higher, and raising a great mount between the tower and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be alone, that men might neither sell nor buy in it. [37] Upon this they came together to build up the city, forasmuch as part of the wall toward the brook on the east side was fallen down, and they repaired that which was called Caphenatha. [38] Simon also set up Adida in Sephela, and made it strong with gates and bars. [39] Now Tryphon went about to get the kingdom of Asia, and to kill Antiochus the king, that he might set the crown upon his own head. [40] Howbeit he was afraid that Jonathan would not suffer him, and that he would fight against him; wherefore he sought a way how to take Jonathan, that he might kill him. So he removed, and came to Bethsan. [41] Then Jonathan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for the battle, and came to Bethsan. [42] Now when Tryphon saw Jonathan came with so great a force, he durst not stretch his hand against him; [43] But received him honourably, and commended him unto all his friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his men of war to be as obedient unto him, as to himself. [44] Unto Jonathan also he said, Why hast thou brought all this people to so great trouble, seeing there is no war betwixt us? 45 Therefore send them now home again, and choose a few men to wait on thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais, for I will give it thee, and the rest of the strong holds and forces, and all that have any charge as for me, I will return and depart for this is the cause of my coming. 46 So Jonathan believing him did as he bade him, and sent away his host, who went into the land of Judea. 47 And with himself he retained but three thousand men, of whom he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him. 48 Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates and took him, and all them that came with him they slew with the sword. 49 Then sent Tryphon an host of footmen and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great plain, to destroy all Jonathan's company. 50 But when they knew that Jonathan and they that were with him were taken and slain, they encouraged one another; and went close together, prepared to fight. 51 They therefore that followed upon them, perceiving that they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back again. 52 Whereupon they all came into the land of Judea peaceably, and there they bewailed Jonathan, and them that were with him, and they were sore afraid; wherefore all Israel made great lamentation. 53 Then all the heathen that were round about then sought to destroy them for said they, They have no captain, nor any to help them now therefore let us make war upon them, and take away their memorial from among men.

Now when Simon heard that Tryphon had gathered together a great host to invade the land of Judea, and destroy it, 2 And saw that the people was in great trembling 1 26 and fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together, 3 And gave them exhortation, saying, Ye yourselves know what great things I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have done for the laws and the sanctuary, the battles also and troubles which we have seen. 4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slain for Israel's sake, and I am left alone. 5 Now therefore be it far from me, that I should spare mine own life in any time of trouble for I am no better than my brethren. 6 Doubtless I will avenge my nation, and the sanctuary, and our wives, and our children for all the heathen are gathered to destroy us of very malice. 7 Now as soon as the people heard these words, their spirit revived. [8] And they answered with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt be our leader instead of Judas and Jonathan thy brother. [9] Fight thou our battles, and whatsoever, thou commandest us, that will we do. [10] So then he gathered together all the men of war, and made haste to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about. [11] Also he sent Jonathan the son of Absolom, and with him a great power, to Joppa who casting out them that were therein remained there in it. [12] So Tryphon removed from Ptolemaus with a great power to invade the land of Judea, and Jonathan was with him in ward. [13] But Simon pitched his tents at Adida, over against the plain. [14] Now when Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up instead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to join battle with him, he sent messengers unto him, saying, [15] Whereas we have Jonathan thy brother in hold, it is for money that he is owing unto the king's treasure, concerning the business that was committed unto him. [16] Wherefore now send an hundred talents of silver, and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is at liberty he may not revolt from us, and we will let him go. [17] Hereupon Simon, albeit he perceived that they spake deceitfully unto him yet sent he the money and the children, lest peradventure he should procure to himself great hatred of the people [18] Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathan dead. [19] So he sent them the children and the hundred talents howbeit Tryphon dissembled neither would he let Jonathan go. [20] And after this came Tryphon to invade the land, and destroy it, going round about by the way that leadeth unto Adora but Simon and his host marched against him in every place, wheresoever he went. [21] Now they that were in the tower sent messengers unto Tryphon, to the end that he should hasten his coming unto them by the wilderness, and send them victuals. [22] Wherefore Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night but there fell a very great snow, by reason whereof he came not. So he departed, and came into the country of Galaad. [23] And when he came near to Bascama he slew Jonathan, who was buried there. [24] Afterward Tryphon returned and went into his own land. [25] Then sent Simon, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried them in Modin, the city of his fathers. [26] And all Israel made great lamentation for him, and bewailed him many days. [27] Simon also built a monument upon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, and raised it aloft to the sight, with hewn stone behind and before. [28] Moreover he set up seven pyramids, one against another, for his father, and his mother, and his four brethren. [29] And in these he made cunning devices, about the which he set great pillars, and upon the pillars he made all their armour for a perpetual memory, and by the armour ships carved, that they might be seen of all that sail on the sea. [30] This is the sepulchre which he made at Modin, and it standeth yet unto this day. [31] Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young king Antiochus, and slew him. [32] And he reigned in his stead, and crowned himself king of Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land. [33] Then Simon built up the strong holds in Judea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars, and laid up victuals therein. [34] Moreover Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the land an immunity, because all that Tryphon did was to spoil. [35] Unto whom king Demetrius answered and wrote after this manner [36] King Demetrius unto Simon the high priest, and friend of kings, as also unto the elders and nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting [37] The golden crown, and the scarlet robe, which ye sent unto us, we have received and we are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, yea, and to write unto our officers, to confirm the immunities which we have granted. [38] And whatsoever covenants we have made with you shall stand; and the strong holds, which ye have builded, shall be your own. [39] As for any oversight or fault committed unto this day, we forgive it, and the crown tax also, which ye owe us and if there were any other tribute paid in Jerusalem, it shall no more be paid. [40] And look who are meet among you to be in our court, let then be enrolled, and let there be peace betwixt us. [41] Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken away from Israel in the hundred and seventieth year. [4 2] Then the people of Israel began to write in their instruments and contracts, In the first year of Simon the high priest, the governor and leader of the Jews. [43] In those days Simon camped against Gaza and besieged it round about; he made also an engine of war, and set it by the city, and battered a certain tower, and took it. [44] And they that were in the engine leaped into the city; whereupon there was a great uproar in the city [1 27] [45] Insomuch as the people of the city rent their clothes, and climbed upon the walls with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon to grant them peace. [46] And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickedness, but according to thy mercy. [47] So Simon was appeased toward them, and fought no more against them, but put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were, and so entered into it with songs and thanksgiving. [48] Yea, he put all uncleanness out of it, and placed such men there as would keep the law, and made it stronger than it was before, and built therein a dwellingplace for himself. [49] They also of the tower in Jerusalem were kept so strait, that they could neither come forth, nor go into the country, nor buy, nor sell wherefore they were in great distress for want of victuals, and a great number of them perished through famine. [50] Then cried they to Simon, beseeching him to be at one with them which thing he granted them; and when he had put them out from thence, he cleansed the tower from pollutions [51] And entered into it the three and twentieth day of the second month in the hundred seventy and first year, with thanksgiving, and branches of palm trees, and with harps, and cymbals, and with viols, and hymns, and songs because there was destroyed a great enemy out of Israel. [5 2] He ordained also that that day should be kept every year with gladness. Moreover the hill of the temple that was by the tower he made stronger than it was, and there he dwelt himself with his company. 53 And when Simon saw that John his son was a valiant man, he made him captain of all the hosts; and he dwelt in Gazera.

Now in the hundred threescore and twelfth year king Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into Media to get him help to fight against Tryphone. 2 But when Arsaces, the king of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius was entered within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him alive 3 Who went and smote the host of Demetrius, and took him, and brought him to Arsaces, by whom he was put in ward. 4 As for the land of Judea, that was quiet all the days of Simon; for he sought the good of his nation in such wise, as that evermore his authority and honour pleased them well. 5 And as he was honourable in all his acts, so in this, that he took Joppa for an haven, and made an entrance to the isles of the sea, 6 And enlarged the bounds of his nation, and recovered the country, 7 And gathered together a great number of captives, and had the dominion of Gazera, and Bethsura, and the tower, out of the which he took all uncleaness, neither was there any that resisted him. 8 Then did they till their ground in peace, and the earth gave her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit. 9 The ancient men sat all in the streets, communing together of good things, and the young men put on glorious and warlike apparel. 10 He provided victuals for the cities, and set in them all manner of munition, so that his honourable name was renowned unto the end of the world. 11 He made peace in the land, and Israel rejoiced with great joy 12 For every man sat under his vine and his fig tree, and there was none to fray them 13 Neither was there any left in the land to fight against them yea, the kings themselves were overthrown in those days. 14 Moreover he strengthened all those of his people that were brought low the law he searched out; and every contemner of the law and wicked person he took away. 15 He beautified the sanctuary, and multiplied vessels of the temple. 16 Now when it was heard at Rome, and as far as Sparta, that Jonathan was dead, they were very sorry. 17 But as soon as they heard that his brother Simon was made high priest in his stead, and ruled the country, and the cities therein 18 They wrote unto him in tables of brass, to renew the friendship and league which they had made with Judas and Jonathan his brethren [19] Which writings were read before the congregation at Jerusalem. [20] And this is the copy of the letters that the Lacedemonians sent; The rulers of the Lacedemonians, with the city, unto Simon the high priest, and the elders, and priests, and residue of the people of the Jews, our brethren, send greeting [21] The ambassadors that were sent unto our people certified us of your glory and honour wherefore we were glad of their coming, [22] And did register the things that they spake in the council of the people in this manner; Numenius son of Antiochus, and Antipater son of Jason, the Jews' ambassadors, came unto us to renew the friendship they had with us. [23] And it pleased the people to entertain the men honourably, and to put the copy of their ambassage in publick records, to the end the people of the Lacedemonians might have a memorial thereof furthermore we have written a copy thereof unto Simon the high priest. [24] After this Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight to confirm the league with them. [25] Whereof when the people heard, they said, What thanks shall we give to Simon and his sons? [26] For he and his brethren and the house of his father have established Israel, and chased away in fight their enemies from them, and confirmed their liberty. [27] So then they wrote it in tables of brass, which they set upon pillars in mount Sion and this is the copy of the writing; The eighteenth day of the month Elul, in the hundred threescore and twelfth year, being the third year of Simon the high priest, [28] At Saramel in the great congregation of the priests, and people, and rulers of the nation, and [1 28] elders of the country, were these things notified unto us. [29] Forasmuch as oftentimes there have been wars in the country, wherein for the maintenance of their sanctuary, and the law, Simon the son of Mattathias, of the posterity of Jarib, together with his brethren, put themselves in jeopardy, and resisting the enemies of their nation did their nation great honour [30] (For after that Jonathan, having gathered his nation together, and been their high priest, was added to his people, [31] Their enemies prepared to invade their country, that they might destroy it, and lay hands on the sanctuary [32] At which time Simon rose up, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his own substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation and gave them wages, [33] And fortified the cities of Judea, together with Bethsura, that lieth upon the borders of Judea, where the armour of the enemies had been before; but he set a garrison of Jews there [34] Moreover he fortified Joppa, which lieth upon the sea, and Gazera, that bordereth upon Azotus, where the enemies had dwelt before but he placed Jews there, and furnished them with all things convenient for the reparation thereof.) [35] The people therefore sang the acts of Simon, and unto what glory he thought to bring his nation, made him their governor and chief priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people. 36 For in his time things prospered in his hands, so that the heathen were taken out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David in Jerusalem, who had made themselves a tower, out of which they issued, and polluted all about the sanctuary, and did much hurt in the holy place 37 But he placed Jews therein. and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city, and raised up the walls of Jerusalem. 38 King Demetrius also confirmed him in the high priesthood according to those things, 39 And made him one of his friends, and honoured him with great honour.

40 For he had heard say, that the Romans had called the Jews their friends and confederates and brethren; and that they had entertained the ambassadors of Simon honourably; 41 Also that the Jews and priests were well pleased that Simon should be their governor and high priest for ever, until there should arise a faithful prophet; 42 Moreover that he should be their captain, and should take charge of the sanctuary, to set them over their works, and over the country, and over the armour, and over the fortresses, that, I say, he should take charge of the sanctuary; 43 Beside this, that he should be obeyed of every man, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and wear gold 44 Also that it should be lawful for none of the people or priests to break any of these things, or to gainsay his words, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a buckle of gold; 45 And whosoever should do otherwise, or break any of these things, he should be punished. 46 Thus it liked all the people to deal with Simon, and to do as hath been said.
47 Then Simon accepted hereof, and was well pleased to be high priest, and captain and governor of the Jews and priests, and to defend them all. 48 So they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of brass, and that they should be set up within the compass of the sanctuary in a conspicuous place; 49 Also that the copies thereof should be laid up in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

Moreover Antiochus son of Demetrius the king sent letters from the isles of the sea unto Simon the priest and prince of the Jews, and to all the people; 2 The contents whereof were these King Antiochus to Simon the high priest and prince of his nation, and to the people of the Jews, greeting 3 Forasmuch as certain pestilent men have usurped the kingdom of our fathers, and my purpose is to challenge it again, that I may restore it to the old estate, and to that end have gathered a multitude of foreign soldiers together, and prepared ships of war; [4] My meaning also being to go through the country, that I may be avenged of them that have destroyed it, and made many cities in the kingdom desolate [5] Now therefore I confirm unto thee all the oblations which the kings before me granted thee, and whatsoever gifts besides they granted. [6] I give thee leave also to coin money for thy country with thine own stamp. [7] And as concerning Jerusalem and the sanctuary, let them be free; and all the armour that thou hast made, and fortresses that thou hast built, and keepest in thine hands, let them remain unto thee. [8] And if anything be, or shall be, owing to the king, let it be forgiven thee from this time forth for evermore. [9] Furthermore, when we have obtained our kingdom, we will honour thee, and thy nation, and thy temple, with great honour, so that your honour shall be known throughout the world. [10] In the hundred threescore and fourteenth year went Antiochus into the land of his fathers at which time all the forces came together unto him, so that few were left with Tryphon. [11] Wherefore being pursued by king Antiochus, he fled unto Dora, which lieth by the sea side [12] For he saw that troubles came upon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him. [13] Then camped Antiochus against Dora, having with him an hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horsemen. [14] And when he had compassed the city round about, and joined ships close to the town on the sea side, he vexed the city by land and by sea, neither suffered he any to go out or in. [12 29] [15] In the mean season came Numenius and his company from Rome, having letters to the kings and countries; wherein were written these things [16] Lucius, consul of the Romans unto king Ptolemee, greeting [17] The Jews' ambassadors, our friends and confederates, came unto us to renew the old friendship and league, being sent from Simon the high priest, and from the people of the Jews [18] And they brought a shield of gold of a thousand pound. [19] We thought it good therefore to write unto the kings and countries, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries, nor yet aid their enemies against them. [20] It seemed also good to us to receive the shield of them. [21] If therefore there be any pestilent fellows, that have fled from their country unto you, deliver them unto Simon the high priest, that he may punish them according to their own law. [22] The same things wrote he likewise unto Demetrius the king, and Attalus, to Ariarathes, and Arsaces, [23] And to all the countries and to Sampsames, and the Lacedemonians, and to Delus, and Myndus, and Sicyon, and Caria, and Samos, and Pamphylia, and Lycia, and Halicarnassus, and Rhodus, and Aradus, and Cos, and Side, and Aradus, and Gortyna, and Cnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene. [24] And the copy hereof they wrote to Simon the high priest. [25] So Antiochus the king camped against Dora the second day, assaulting it continually, and making engines, by which means he shut up Tryphon, that he could neither go out nor in. [26] At that time Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to aid him; silver also, and gold, and much armour. [27] Nevertheless he would not receive them, but brake all the covenants which he had made with him afore, and became strange unto him. [28] Furthermore he sent unto him Athenobius, one of his friends, to commune with him, and say, Ye withhold Joppa and Gazera; with the tower that is in Jerusalem, which are cities of my realm. [29] The borders thereof ye have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places within my kingdom. [30] Now therefore deliver the cities which ye have taken, and the tributes of the places, whereof ye have gotten dominion without the borders of Judea [31] Or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that ye have done, and the tributes of the cities, other five hundred talents if not, we will come and fight against you [32] So Athenobius the king's friend came to Jerusalem and when he saw the glory of Simon, and the cupboard of gold and silver plate, and his great attendance, he was astonished, and told him the king's message. [33] Then answered Simon, and said unto him, We have neither taken other men's land, nor holden that which appertaineth to others, but the inheritance of our fathers, which our enemies had wrongfully in possession a certain time. [34] Wherefore we, having opportunity, hold the inheritance of our fathers. [35] And whereas thou demandest Joppa and Gazera, albeit they did great harm unto the people in our country, yet will we give thee an hundred talents for
